Dr. Lyness In Interesting Talk On Ferns At Rural Life Meet

The regular meeting of the Rural Life Club was held on Monday, March 2, in the Rural Assembly. Club singing was led by Kirkwood Likes, with Gretchen Johnson as accompanist. V. e n t u r a B a i r d presented a reading, “Within the Laws.” A harmonica solo was given by William Knox. The speaker of the evening was Dr. Lyness.

Even though the snow banks are many feet high and we have just said good-bye to a real blizzard, winter was forgotten as Dr. Lyness discussed various types of ferns. Dr. Lyness has devoted some time to the study of ferns, having written a thesis on that subject.

Dr. Lyness’ talk was of special interest, also, because of the fact that Mr. Herrick had addressed the Club on “Developing Hobbies” at the previous meeting. It was evident that Dr. Lyness had a real hobby in “ferns”. The members of the Rural Life Club will look at ferns with new interest in the future as a result of his presentation.

CHORUS DRILLS FOR COMING YEAR

Five to eight hours of practice a week and still going strong! That’s the Men’s Chorus’ record and Mr. Knutzen director, is highly confident that the showing that his men will make on the trip will be even better than that made in the past.

FauSt IS Accompanist

As things look now, there will be three separate trips for the organization, lasting one day, five days, and three days, respectively. The first will come on March 12th, the second will begin on March 17th, and the third on March 23rd.

Mr. Gilbert P. Faust has been filling the role of accompanist for the last few weeks. He replaced Eddie Plank, who is not in school this semester. Mr. Faust, in addition to being a very able pianist, is assistant instructor of chemistry in this college.

On Wednesday, March 11, the collegeers will appear in concerts at Pittsville High School and also at the First Congregational Church. Mr. Knutzen will act as accompanist on this trip.

Sigma Tau Delta Story Contest

Have you begun your short story for the Sigma Tau Delta Contest? If you have you are well on your way to earning. It has been decided that the three prizes are to be $3.50 and $1 respectively. These figures, in addition to public recognition on Class Day, are enough to give any amateur author an inspiration.

Remember that April 15 is the deadline. The judges are to be Mr. Allen, Miss Roach, and Mrs. C. C. Evans.

POINTER REPRESENTS EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION

6. The Pointer is a teachers college newspaper. It is our belief that our paper should reflect this fact to some degree by containing a balance of material dealing with education in some form, such as proceedings of conventions (summarized), quotes from outstanding educators, with significant trends noted, and, in addition, material concerning teacher placement, conditions in the field, news from the Training School concerning its programs, and news concerning the college alumni.

PUBLICISTS NOT ACTIVE

7. Every school organization is supposed to have a publicist. It is deplorable, but it is fact that most of these publicists have "fallen down" on the job. With the possible exception of the Rural Life Club, the Loyola club (in both of which Miss Roach plays a significant part), the Home Eco, the Sigma Tau Delta, and the musical organizations (band and chorus), some of the other college organization publicists have never been heard of during the past school year; this sweeping indictment covers all other groups, some of whose members recent publicity given to other active groups, while doing nothing to obtain it for themselves.

SCANDAL "NEWS" VS. REPUTATIONS

8. Passing on to another phase, in the field of ethics, there are some who have honestly felt, but with little foresight, that the Pointer should access some of what has come to be known, with much "peacemaker" justice, as a "dirty column," wherein college personalities could be belittled, a technique aimed to escape the purgative power of publicity. It was in order to bring our present Pointer staff up to speed in the陈田 rush of events, that the Pointer was published the first time in 1934, and under the name "Frosty." In the meantime, it has been known, with much "peacemaker" justice, as a "dirty column," wherein college personalities could be belittled, a technique aimed to escape the purgative power of publicity.

9. We, therefore, present in this paper, the first of a series of articles dealing with this subject, to bring up to the mark this student paper. We shall continue with the known, the Pointer, for the first of a series of articles dealing with this subject, to bring up to the mark this student paper. Society Notes

Lutheran Student's Meet Postponed
The L. S. A. Party which was announced for this Thursday has been postponed until next Thursday evening, March 12 on account of the basketball game.

Sigma Tau Delta Meeting
The Sigma Tau Delta was entertained by Miss Hanna and Miss Davis last evening at Nelson Hall. A cheery hearth fire welcomed the members and a delightful lunch after the program added to their enjoyment.

The program committee with Elaine Cooper as chairman presented a review of the types of poetry, and read bits of verse composed by the members.

A report was made by the committee on attendance. Members who were not present are advised to inquire regarding this.

'Omegas' Hold Rushing Party
The Omega Ma Chi held their formal rushing party last Saturday afternoon at the Club Room at Hotel Whiting.

The afternoon was spent in playing bridge, followed by a dessert luncheon. Prizes were awarded Betty Jacobs and Kathryn Duskey.

The rushers were presented corsages of Lavender sweet peas and gold daffodils. (sorority colors.)

Other guests were patroons Mrs. Chas. Cashin, advisor, Miss Edna Carlsen, and alumnae Helen Bunker, of the University of Wisconsin, and Dorothy Brys of Mosinee.

Faculty Women Dine
Misses Nancy Jane and Mary Hanna presided as hostesses during a five o'clock tea given Friday afternoon in the home economies living room, with the faculty women as guests. The repast accompanying the tea consisted of crackers with a cheese spread and fudge brownies, followed by an individual sample of the confectionary prize which was awarded the two hostesses a few days previously at the Mardi Gras.

Tau Gamma Betas Holding Rushing Parties
The first rushing party of the Tau Gammas was a sleigh ride, held Wednesday, February 26. The rushes met at the home of Barbara Joy, and returned there after the ride for luncheon and games.

Monday evening, March 2, the sorority entertained at a 6:30 dinner at the Hotel Whiting. Short talks were given by Miss Richardson, faculty member, and by Regina Schweke, the sorority president. After the banquet the evening was spent playing bridge at the home of Alice Olk.

Chi Delta Entertain At Two Rushing Parties
The first rushing party given by the Chi Deltas was held Thursday, February 27, at the fraternity rooms downtown. Besides the rushes, Mr. Knutzen, Mr. Allez, and Mr. Brightsell, faculty members, were present. The evening was spent in playing cards, singing, and of course, the feed was enjoyed.

Their second party was held Sunday March 1, again at the fraternity rooms. Many novelty games were played, and a Chili lunch was served at the close of the evening.

Phi Sigma Epsilon Entertain Rushes
The Phi Sigs entertained their prospective pledges at two parties. Their first was held, Monday evening, February 24, at the Hotel Whiting. Cards and other games were played.

Talks were given by Burton Hotvedt, national historian for the fraternity, by Arba Shorey, the out-going president, and Francis Bremmer, his successor. The Phi Sigs entertained again Sunday, March 1, at their fraternity house. Games of all types were enjoyed and a lunch was served at the close of the evening.

Nelson Hall Notes
Miss Helen Bunker, former student in the H. E. Hepato, who is now in school at the University, visited Helen Pielhe and Barbara Fulton, this weekend.

Miss Dorothy Bryce of Mosinee spent the weekend with Billie Weed.

State Inspectors visited our newly decorated home and from the smiles upon their faces, thought it pretty nice.

We would like to thank President Iyer for the lovely new rug in our office.

Helen Jackson and Luelle Hickok who went to Eagle River this past weekend, report much snow in “them there parts.”
The Intra-mural school tournament will get under way this afternoon at 4:00 P.M. when the Hawkeyes clash with the Chi Delts. The games will be played in the new gym and admission will be free. College fans will be followed with the exception that five fouls will be allowed an offender before he is ejected from the contest. This week’s schedule follows:

Thursday, March 5
5:00 Chi Delts vs. Bluejays
5:00 Holy Tenors vs. Hawkeyes

Friday, March 6
4:00 Olesens Boarders vs. Phi Sigs
5:00 Seniors vs. Sophomores

Black and white are the colors of the season. Fighting over these colors will be the two school teams, a team of juniors and sophomores, and a team of seniors and freshmen. The octagonal-shaped gym is covered with a burlap and net floor, and the lights are to be used at full intensity. The games will begin at 5:00, and the session ends at 8:00.

The Pointers Will be out after their fifteenth consecutive victory Thursday with Whitewater furnishing the opposition. The game will mark the final appearance of this year’s championship club on the local floor. Whitewater had a dismal season, failing to capture a victory in six conference starts. On the other hand the Pointers have pasted seven league triumphs, and liked Whitewater back in January, 36-18, so the Kotalmen are heavy favorites to close the campaign undefeated. However Whitewater will be fighting to spring the biggest upset of the season, for a victory over the Pointers would redeem some of the Agnewmen’s lost prestige.

On The Air

The Band tour and the Debate tournament at St. Thomas raised $200 for the purpose of having a Football College Radio Hour, presented last Monday. Jack Burroughs, announcer, was unable to be present because of a school rule that forbade Hotvedt substituted for Burroughs, and also for George Cartmill, the regular news commentator.

Because of the absence of the orchestra, Don Halverson of ivory fame again stole the show with his interpretation of popular music.

A group of girls from Prof. Burroughs’ Speech class presented the one act play, “Reputation on the Table."

The cast of characters was as follows: Joan Schell, Eva Rae Guerin, Lucille Hickok, and Grace Borgan.

The Clean Winged Hearst program will be presented as scheduled Thursday at 3:00 to 3:30. The Tuesday morning program which the trio presents will be temporarily dropped.

The Pointers entered the second period leading 37-31, but Whitewater showed the ability to ratify the score. The game was a hard fought one and fouling was frequent. Naskowitz and Josi of Milwaukee were forced out on fouls while four of the Point regulars were charged with three fouls each.

Pointers Defeat Concordia

Stevens Point Teachers College concluded its successful invasion of Milwaukee by trouncing Concordia Saturday. The Tuesday morning program which the trio presents will be temporarily dropped.

Correction

In last week’s Mardi Gras story one of the judges was given as Mrs. Dorothy Dunn Hoffman, this should have read Mrs. Hugh L. Hoffman. As one of the costume prize winners the name of Ed. Way was given instead of Russ Way.

Reserves Trail

Coach Kotal started a reserve five consisting of Parish and Berard forwards, Copes, center, and Gordon and Schneider guards. Concordia jumped into a 5-1 lead after eight minutes of play after which Kotal inserted his regulars. Pointers clicked beautifully and ran the score up to 25-10 on the conclusion of the initial half. Nima featured the onslaught with nine points.

Regulars Get Hot

Kotal again inserted his reserves to begin the last half. Concordia began to narrow the Pointer lead and tallied seven points before George Schneider tossed in a push shot. Finally with ten minutes to play Kotal again sent his regulars to work. A slow start the Pointers raised in baskets and made the score, 47-29. Weber’s push shot as the game ended left the score, 47-31, and Kotal’s boys had hung up their fourth straight victory.

Nimz Stays Again

Fred Nimz took up where he had left off the night before and led the well distributed Point scoring attack with six buckets and a free throw. Lindow, Nimz, Kuempel and Unferth seven. Tommy Lindow and Don Johnston played fine defensive ball especially on rebounds. The area of the Concordia quintet was Weber, diminutive guard, who scored five baskets, most of which were from well out on the floor.

Mention “The Pointer”
Pointers Win 36 Cage Title
this state in Olympic eliminations, does not include that of Central State. (Carroll College, Milwaukee State, Marquette “U”, Wisconsin “U”, Lawrence College).

REGULAR LINEUP
The following men make up the squad which now claims the state college basketball title: Captain Don Unfert, of Stevens Point, (all state college forward last year); Don Johnston, of Appleton, (all state college guard last year); “Chet” Rinka, of Stevens Point, (all Wisconsin Valley high school forward—former all state high school forward); Fred Nimb, of Wausau, (former all state high school center); Tom Lindow, guard, of Manawa, Wis., (formerly a star at Oshkosh); the above named men constitute the starting line-up.

RESERVES SEE ACTION
Oscar Copes, center, of Tomahawk, Wis., also a member of the championship squad of last year; “Web” Berard, forward, of Wisconsin Rapids; Frank Gordon, guard, of Stevens Point, also a member of the championship squad of last year; Francis Hitzke, guard, of Merrill, Wis., member of Merrill high school team last year; George Schneider, guard of Elcho, Wis.; Dave Parresh, forward, of Stevens Point, Wis., a member of Point high last year; Jim Bain, forward, of Merrill; George Staffon, guard, of City Point; “Red” Miller, center, of Menominee, Wis.; and Bjorn Christenson, forward, of Nelsonville, Wis.

POSTSEASON POTENTIALS
Negotiations are pending for postseason games; among the teams who have been mentioned as prospective opponents are Notre Dame, Marquette, and Wisconsin universities.

In the event that one or more of these teams are scheduled, it is supposed that the field house at Wisconsin Rapids (seats over 5,000) will be secured, if available. G.T.C. may take part in the A.A.U. meet if present plans materialize.

IMAGINE HIS CHAGrin...
John-the-janitor, while reminiscing the other day, happened to hit upon his honeymoon at Chicago years ago. He says he took his wife along on that trip and even brought a new straw hat with a polka-dot band for the occasion. John wanted to ride on one of the new fangled high buses, so they climbed up to the top and began sight-seeing. A gust of wind from Lake Michigan sent the new hat sailing. After much yelling John got the bus stopped and climbed down to get his hat. He rushed across the street to get the precious article and just as he bent over to pick it up an ice-cream cart ran over it...
LOYAL FANS FOLLOW TEAM
Several local students journeyed to Milwaukee to witness the Pointers’ successful two day invasion. Among those present at the games were Eddie Olsen, Gerald Dumphy, “Red” Reynolds, Fred Miner, Lloyd Hayes, and Don Norton.

REMEMBER THESE?
Al Dumphy, former student manager at the Point, and at present enrolled at Whitewater, came over to Milwaukee to watch the Pointers ring up two more triumphs. Al figures he brings the Kotalmen luck and it certainly looks that way. Another familiar figure at the games was Bob Tardiiff, Bob, you will recall, was a member of Kotal’s cage team two seasons ago.

CONCORDIA IS REAL PLACE
Those Concordia cage followers are probably the most loyal fans in the state. Although trailing hopelessly they cheered wildly every time the home team tallied. And—believe it or not—after the game some of the fans pushed on the floor, lifted their heads to their shoulders, and marched about the gym. Another unusual feature at Concordia was that they had an orchestra at the game rather than a band. To top things off, after the game the Point players were the guests of the Concordia management at a fine lunch.

TAKIE TWO!
“Webb” Berard certainly contributed his share toward making the trip an enjoyable one. With the Pointers needing two victories to keep their win streak intact “Webb’s” battle cry on the way down was “take two.” The gang followed “Webb’s” instructions to the letter.

Niners Is Ace
Big Freddie Nims really proved his value on this trip by collecting 20 points in the two games. Fred was sinking ’em from all angles even dropping a few from near mid-court. You can mark Freddie down as all-conference center right now. Incidentally against Concordia Saturday the Pointers made good on 10 of 19 shots at the hoop during the first half. That’s winning ball against anybody.

Kotal At Eagle River
Coach Eddie Kotal was the guest speaker at a High School conference meeting and banquet held at Eagle River Monday.

Not So Bad, Eddie
Pandemonium ensued in the Point dressing room following the victory over Milwaukee Friday night. The Pointers snatched out of a prolonged slump and licked the Green Gulls to chalk up the unlucky 13th victory in a row. It also marked the first time that Kotal has taken a Point cage team to Milwaukee and returned victorious. And it’s the Pointers third cage title in four years. Add to that two grid titles in the same span of time and you have a fair to middlin’ record for any coach.

GEORGE SIMONSON
TESTIMONIAL
After getting a shave and a hair cut at Berens’ Barber Shop (under Hirsy’s Jewelry Store) I never went to another barber shop. Berens do not cure your acid condition, “nerves”, etc. but as a patron of the last several years, I can say that Ed, George and Mr. Berens (one at a time) do give you a first class shave or hair cut, with or without chatter—
