In his column, “Between You and Me,” Donald McIntyre of the Milwaukee Sentinel, states what may happen if Guy Sundt is named director of athletics here again. HOMECOMING CELEBRATED

Forensic Meet Held Saturday

Lester Steinhoff of Platteville State Teachers College, winner of first place in a state oratorical contest held at Central State Teachers’ College last Saturday night, will represent Wisconsin in an interstate oratorical contest at Northwestern University in April.

Stevens Point won first place, three seconds, and three third in six contests that made up the forensic meet. Michael Zylka, Stevens Point, won first place in extemporaneous speaking. Other local winners were Karl Breker, second in oratory; Lucille Hickock, second in serious declamation; Robert Vennie, second in oratorical declamation; Helen Keel, third in humorous declamation; Virginia Wood, third in extemporaneous speaking, and Jack Burroughs, third in extemporaneous reading.

Schools competing were Stevens Point, Eau Claire, La Crosse, Platteville, and Whittier Teachers colleges, and Marquette University. Professor L. M. Burroughs was chairman of the faculty committee in charge of the arrangements.

The Photo Club of this college, together with Sigma Zeta, is holding a school-wide contest for amateur photographers. This is in preparation for the Science Assembly Program, which will be held May 8. The pictures which are entered will be displayed at that time.

Four types of pictures will be eligible for entrance in the contest. These groups are pictures of nature, pictures telling a story, action pictures, and still pictures. In the first group may be included pictures of wild life. The story-telling pictures should have some significant story or meaning, and they may be either indoor or outdoor snaps. The action pictures should show action. The still pictures include scenes of buildings and other immimate objects.

Prizes will be given for the best pictures in each section. Two dollars will be given for first place and one dollar for second place in each section, making a total of twelve dollars given away in prizes for the entire contest.

The contest opens April 30 and closes May 6. The pictures will be judged then, and the results will be announced.

College Men’s Chorus Annual “Sing” Directed By Norman E. Knutzen

Choristers Prepare Excellent Program for Home Listeners

By Ralph Anderson

The men’s Glee Club returned to Stevens Point on March 23 after a successful tour on which they sang to approximately six thousand people. The men left on March 17th and returned the following Saturday. During that time they presented concerts at Oxford, Adams, Linfield, Waukesha, and Beloit. They left again Sunday to sing at Shawano and Green Bay. Monday they sang at Manitowoc and then returned to Stevens Point. The Glee Club and the assembly are directed by Norman E. Knutzen’s Men’s Glee Club will present its Assembly Program on Page 5, Col. 2.

Assembly Program To Be Presented—Choruses and Orchestra

The Women’s and Men’s Choruses, in combination with the College Symphony Orchestra, will present an Assembly Program on Friday morning, April 3, Professor Peter J. Michelsen is director of the first and last, while Professor N. E. Knutzen is leader of the Men’s Chorus.

The Orchestra has appeared only infrequently this year thus far, and it has prepared a very entertaining and interesting program for this assembly. The Women’s Chorus likewise has been working on its difficult numbers among them being Schubert’s “Serenade” and the “Largo” from the opera “Xerxes” by Handel.

The Men’s Chorus, which has its home concert on March 31, will undoubtedly present a majority of new numbers for its part of the program.
“Normal Pointer” of 1894 Different From Modern Pointer; New Famous Poetess A Former Editor

Volume No. 1 of the Normal Pointer was published way back in December, 1895. The paper consisted of eight pages and was very different from the eight-page edition which is being published today. It was constructed in the form of a magazine with a title page and a table of contents for each issue.

The only illustration in these first copies was that of the school building, without the two wings and the training school which have since been added. The picture is on a full page advertising the institution and signed by the president, Theron B. Pray.

When we attend a modern college of today, the caption—“New, Well Equipped, Apparatus, Literature, Philosophy, All Modern Aids” seems very humorous.

THE EIGHT YISEN WISE.

The so-called seven wise men of Greece were Pittacus of Mithalena, Bias of Priene, Solon of Athens, Chidon of Lacedaemon, Cleobulus of Lydos, Peripater of Corinth, and Thales of Miletus.

These seven men met together but twice; once at Delphi, once at Corinth. The chief maxim of each was as follows:

- "Know thy opportunity."—Pittacus.
- "Most men are buff—Bias.
- "Know thyself!"—Solon.
- "Consider the End!"—Chilon.
- "Avoid excess!"—Cleobulus.
- "Nothing is impossible to industry!"—Peripater.
- "Sacrifice is the Precursor to Ruin!"—Thales.

YOU'RE THE ONLY, THE ONLY ONE!

In these days of unfortunate unemployment we hear so much about the number of persons out of jobs, the population of the nation, old age pensions, child labor, etc., that it is interesting to know just how many persons in this country really work. If you are willing to accept the astonishing statistical statement published in the Bangor (Me.) Daily News you're IT. And here are the statistics:

Population of the United States reported at 124,000,000

Those eligible for Townsend old age pension 50,000,000

Leaving 74,000,000

Number of those prohibited from working under the Child Labor laws 60,000,000

Leaving just 14,000,000

Number of persons claimed on unemployed lists 13,999,999

Leaving number working produce nations' goods 1

These unfortunate two are just you and I, and you're lazy and I'm all worn out.

MENTION "The Pointer"

The city of Oshkosh provided the Oshkosh Normal with three electric lights which illuminate the Dining Hall, and still the students are not satisfied, but are still calling for electric lights for the interior. May they be as successful in this demand as in the others.

For the next edition, Andrew Larkin assumed the duties of Editor-in-chief. While he was editor, a new feature, Model School, was added containing news from the training school and contributions from the small students.

Family names among the articles are: George Atwell, Lawrence Park, Gladys Park, (now Mrs. Ross Joy), and Reginald Weller.

The Advertisements are all set in bold, black type and although there are no pictures, they are impressive. Many familiar advertisers are found in this section, such as H. D. McCulloch, J. I. Vaness, Taylor Bros., French, Scott & Co., and the Stevens Point Daily Journal.

"NO FREE WHEELING"

The ads which we no longer enjoy in our Pointer are those of the good old livery stables. The two below are typical of the old-fashioned advertising.

I remember hearing about the escapades of students at G. S. T. C. not many years after this. It seems that one night after a school party two couples, hating to walk, borrowed President Pray's brown horse and his buggy without bothering to tell him. They enjoyed the ride but I'm told that the two by one day wasn't as much fun. I wonder how we'd get with President Hyer's Dodge?

NEW ERA POINTERS

When the June issue of 1896 came out, it was heralded as a new era in the history of the Pointer.

The first surprise was a large advertisement for the Marx & Richards Engraving Company. This firm had certainly transformed the Pointer, as nearly four pages were devoted to pictures. Before this the only illustration had been the cut of the school building. The sixteen faculty members were pictured. One face is familiar to all students. The black and white card was very prominent in the school's curriculum and pictures of the Columbia Octet, the Ladies' Quartet, and the Mixed Quartet were featured in this issue.

A picture, very comical to us, is found in the athletic section, showing the track stars in their modest costumes.

In September, 1896, Margaret Ashman rose to the position of Editor-in-chief. Indeed the Pointer can be proud to have had this now famous woman as its head.
NELSON HALL NOTES

Lucille Hickock’s mother and grandmother spent the week-end with her at Nelson Hall.

Dorothy Erickson, who is attending school at Whitewater, visited with her sister Edna this week-end.

Alberta Veeder returned Sunday with a friend. She was called home last week because of the death of her mother.

Evelyn David, a former student of C.S.T.C. visited with us Saturday and Sunday. She came down with a group of students and teachers from Eau Claire, where she is now attending school.

We certainly do miss seeing the working men in the Dorm. All the work here is finished, and the workmen have departed to the college to work on projects there.

Watch the notices for Dorm dances. We want a better turn-out next time.

What would you call people who go to school leaving their faucets running, and as a result flooding their rooms?

Absent minded Dormites?

Many of our girls spent the week-end in other cities. Spring is here!!!

COLLEGE NEWS BRIEFS

VIENNA CHOIR PLEASURES... The Vienna Boys’ Choir entertained a “standing-room only” house last Tuesday evening with an extensive repertoire which might well have tested the versatility of an adult group. Numbers particularly enjoyed were “Tales From the Vienna Woods,” By Strauss, “Blue Danube Waltz.” Although some Teutonic inflection was noticeable on the “Star Spangled Banner,” which was sung as the opening selection, and on “Dixie,” which was sung as an encore, this added, rather than detracted from the numbers.

Back stage the boys behaved just like any American group of boys enjoying themselves to the utmost. Before the audience however the boys were regular troopers.

The group have been on tour for six months. By the time of their return to Vienna they will have been away eight months. On their return two months of school will follow, after which the youngsters will have a vacation in the Tyrolean Alps.

Vienna, heretofore associated in the collegiate mind with waltzes and Psyche-Analysis, has added one more thing to be remembered by.

Rinka And Johnston Also Pile Up Over 100 Points In Well Distributed Scoring Attack

The final and official statistics show that big Freddie Nimm headed the Pointers in scoring for the entire basketball season with 447 points in 15 games. However, Chet Rinka, co-captain, was elected for next season, led the Pointers in scoring during the conference games with 76 points, and finished close behind Nimm in total scoring with 132 points. The other three Stevens Point regulars also amassed plenty of points, Johnston having 112, Unferth 90, and Lindow 76.

Two Point Men On Knight Star Team

The St. Norbert Times has just published the Knights’ all-opponent team picked by the players. Four of the players chosen hail from the Southern Division of the teachers conference. The selection:

- Forward .... Sprangers, Milwaukee
- Forward ....... Himes, Oshkosh
- Center ......... Nimm, Stevens Point
- Guard .......... Johnston, Stevens Point
- Guard .......... Koepke, Concordia

Watch Stout Next Year

Incidentally we might mention that Stout failed to win a conference football or basketball game during the past school year. Therefore they probably would have only added to the Pointers’ long list of victories. However, Stout may regain its longest winning complex again next year. Everyone on the cage team will be back except Braten. Joe Dolges, who acted captain this season, Worman, who scored 112 points for the season, and Rund will form the nucleus for an experienced quintet.

Record To Be Proud Of

During the last four conference basketball campaigns the Pointers have won 29 games and have lost only 5. Four of the defeats came in one season, Stevens Point winning the title the other three years. The Pointers have won their last 16 conference games played at Stevens Point, and have only lost one home game in four years. That was back in 1934 when Milwaukee defeated the Kotalmen here, 37-36, to win the championship.
