Band Concert This Morning

Peter J. Michelsen

The College Symphony Band, under the direction of Peter J. Michelsen, will present its first concert of the year at the usual assembly hour this morning. The program will be of special interest to those who enjoy "snappy" band music.

Notice!

Since school will not be in session on Thursday, Nov. 5, because of the teachers' convention at Milwaukee, there will be no issue of the Pointer on that date.

W-h-o-o?

Our training school will observe Hallowe'en appropriately tomorrow by the presenting of suitable programs and the serving of proper refreshments. The gymnasium has been decorated very gaily, and the children can hardly wait for the programs to begin.

The Primary department, under Miss Tobias, will hold its party first. This will be from two to four o'clock in the afternoon. The Intermediates, under Miss Pfeiffer, will hold their party from four to five o'clock. The Junior High school, under Miss Hanson, Mr. Lyness, and Mr. Pierce, will meet from seven to ten in the evening.

Preparations for these parties have been in charge of student teachers. The children themselves have made the decorations. It is the children who will take part in the programs. This affair will furnish an excellent opportunity for student teachers to get acquainted with children whom they do not have in their classes, and it should give them some idea how to conduct a special program—an idea which they certainly shall need in the field.

Annual Teachers Convention At Milwaukee Nov. 5, 6, 7

The annual Wisconsin Educational Association Convention will be held in Milwaukee, November 5, 6, and 7. The association claims a membership of over 20,000 teachers from the schools of Wisconsin. Miss Frances Jelenik, president of the W. E. A., in an invitation extended to all members emphasized the importance of the meeting as an opportunity for the teachers to unite for action in charting the path ahead for education. School will close to permit the members of C. S. T. C. faculty to attend.

The program of the convention includes three general sessions, open to all members, before which will speak leaders in American education. There will also be numerous sectional conferences devoted to special fields of education in Wisconsin. In addition to the meetings held to discuss the problems of educational significance there will be a general association meeting to transact the actual business of the W. E. A.

According to the program of the convention published in the "Wisconsin Journal of Education", several of the faculty of Central State will take active part in the sectional meetings. Miss Davis will be chairman of the round table discussion of French which will be part of the program scheduled for the meeting on Modern Foreign Languages. Miss Leah L. Diehl, of the Training School faculty will be in charge of the program of the geography section. Mr. C. F. Watson will discuss the "Practical and Cultural Contributions of Geography" for a group conference.

Halliburton, World Adventurer, Here Monday Evening

Richard Halliburton will appear at Central State at eight o'clock Monday evening, November 2. Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English society, is sponsoring this program.

Halliburton, the famed adventurer, will relate incidents from his wanderings over the world. He is the type of man who delights in destroying ancient beliefs by defying hazards. His narratives will undoubtedly be of keen interest to all who attend.

Miss Doris George, president of Sigma Tau Delta, is chairman of the acting committee. Tickets have been distributed to night school students. The public is invited to attend his program. A charge of fifty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for students will be made.

4-Day Recess For Convention

School will close Wednesday, November 4, at 4:00 P. M. for a two day vacation while the Wisconsin Educational Association convenes in Milwaukee for its annual meeting. The convention will be held on November 5, 6, and 7, and many members of the college faculty are planning to attend. School will reopen on Monday, November 9th.

College Voting Pro - Roosevelt

The "straw vote" which is being conducted in college shows a close margin in the presidential race and a big lead for the progressives in the gubernatorial race.

President Roosevelt was leading yesterday by the small sum of eight votes, claiming 165 and Alf Landon, Republican nominee, had 157. Norman Thomas was leading the minor parties with 11 votes, against 6 cast for William Lemke, Union nominee.

In the gubernatorial contest, La Follette, Progressive, is leading by the large majority of 115 with a total of 200. Lueck, Democrat, comes next with 85 votes. Wiley, a Republican, with 40 votes in his favor, is followed by Kalpinski and Tehlordt, each with one vote.

The "polls" close tomorrow, Friday, at 3 p. m. with 350 left to vote. Results will be posted on the bulletin board at that time.

Mens Glee Club Has Early Concert Date

The Mens Glee Club of Central State has released a part of its schedule for this year. It will present its first concert on the evening of November 20 at the Methodist Church in Montello. Director N. E. Knutzen will take twenty-six men on the trip.

The Glee Club's Quartet, consisting of Kirkwood Likes, Thorburn Peterson, Gordon Cowles, and William Clements will present a program at the Montello High School in the afternoon of November 20.

During the first week in December, the Glee Club will sing at Abbotsford, Colby, Greenwood, Loyal, and Granton. A return concert at Adams has also been secured.

Published Weekly except holidays and examination periods, at Stevens Point by the students of the Central Wisconsin State Teachers College. Subscription Price $2.00 per year.

Entered as second-class matter May 26, 1927, at the post office at Stevens Point, Wisconsin, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Music Credits Recognized By Academic Departments

Important news for all music students was released this week after a conference between Mr. Michelsen and the heads of the various academic departments. It is now definitely stated for the first time that eight credits of music are acceptable toward graduation in all four-year courses. This rule operates in the Intermediate and Primary departments as well as in the High School department.

Music Minor Offered

The eight credits may be obtained by four year's participation in any of the four major musical organizations on the campus or in any combination of them. Satisfactory work, with restricted absences, is of course expected in each. The four organizations which may be entered are the College Band, the College Orchestra, the Mens Glee Club, and the Girls Glee Club.

A music minor is now being offered also. Any student who participates for four years in the band, four years in either of the glee clubs, and four years in either (or both) band directing and chorus directing is eligible for this minor. In addition, Music 110 and 111 are required. Music 110 and 111 are study of the teaching of music in public schools.

College Band Planning Trip With Gridders

Central State's band has been invited to go to St. Norbert's on October 31 for the football game. The entire band will go by private cars. Dinner will be served the band members by the faculty of St. Norberts. This is the first time for several years that the band will accompany the team on one of its out-of-town trips. The project has been made possible by the faculty members who offered the use of their cars.

Debate Meeting Monday Evening

The debate tournament scheduled for Monday, November 2, will begin at seven o'clock in the evening. Twelve teams will compete in three debates. The women's teams are Grace Morgan and Ruth Smith; Rosalie Timm and Kathryn Becker; Katherine Houg and Phyllis Gikling; Mary Walmesley and Eva-Rae Guerin; and Avis Gehrke and Marguerite Sargent. The men's teams are Dearborn Spindler and Kirkwood Likes; La Rue Smith and John Verrill; Keith Aulik and Joe Op-haven; Ward E. Whittaker and Bob Hoffman; Tom Faucett and Harlow Henninger; Bernard

Weekend Highly Successful Despite Losing Of Game

C. S. T. C. enjoyed one of the largest homecomings in the history of the college last Saturday. The bon-fire on Friday evening set off the celebration to a riotous weekend with more school spirit than Central State has seen in a long time. Miss Roach, Miss Richardson, and Mr. Evans gave pep talks. These were followed by cheering led by LaRue Smith. The crowd then formed a snake dance and paraded downtown.

The annual parade was held at ten o'clock Saturday morning. It was one of the cleverest parades in the school's history. Although there were many comical stunts, the prize was awarded to the Omega Mu Chi float. It represented the Greek meaning of the sorority with the caption "Conquer DeKalb." The float was done entirely in white and gold with the symbols and crests held by girls dressed in white Grecian robes caught with ties of purple and gold.

Sigma Zeta was awarded second place with its chemical interpretation of Point "Disintegrating DeKalb".

The Primary girls won third with their novel stunt of using vegetable puns on the outcome of the game.

Although the upset of the afternoon was temporarily disappointing, the crowd at the homecoming dance had dispensed with all sad thoughts. The orchestra was in rare form, and the large crowd was dancing continuously.

Dawson In Special Assembly Tomorrow

Dr. Percy M. Dawson, member of the medical school faculty of the University of Wisconsin and advisor in the Wisconsin Experimental College under Professor Meikeljohn, will speak on "Education and Sports in Russia Today" at a special assembly tomorrow at 10 a. m. Mr. Dawson has been traveling in Russia during the past year, part of the time under a worker's passport. He will remain in the auditorium after the assembly to answer the questions of any students who are interested in Russia.

Carlos De Vega Dancers Enthusiastically Received

A large crowd attended the program given on Tuesday evening by the Carlos de Vega group of dancers. Their program ranged from dances of ancient peoples to intricate modern types with the Spanish element prevailing. The beautiful costumes added to the reality and beauty of the performance.

Johnson and Benjamin Kordus; and Gid Carswell and Ben Laschkewitsch. Jim Murat, Mike Zylka, and George Hyer will not compete in the opening rounds of the tournament. At the end of the third round, eight teams will be selected to continue debate work. Mr. Burroughs has requested that anyone who is interested in competing in the tournament and whose name is not mentioned should report to him immediately.

College Theatre Organizes Here

A "College Theatre" has been organized for and by the students of this college. Getting off with a quick start, they have organized, installed officials, and will be ready to cast a play today. The organization has a membership of 10 which will be increased to 20 by students of worthy merit.

At a recent meeting, Phil Runkel was elected president of the Board of Directors, Ben Laschkewitsch, Business Manager, Bill Theisen, secretary, and Mr. Jenkins, Faculty Advisor. Other members of the board include Joan Schell and Don Colby. The remaining members of the club are Phyllis Gikling, Ward Whittaker, Kathryn Duskey and Rosalie Timm.

Tryouts will be held today for the first play, "3 Taps At Twelve", to be presented in December. They will be open to all who are interested. There is opportunity for nine acting parts and many other equally important positions such as assistant director, scenic designer, lighting designer, stage manager, costume manager, prop man, etc. The president of the club urges all students to attend the tryouts this evening and watch the bulletin board for further announcements.

Loyola Club Meets To-night

The regular meeting of the Loyola Club, which was postponed last week, will be held this evening at 7:30 in the Rural Assembly. An interesting program has been arranged and all members are urged to be present.

Progressives Elect

The Young Progressive association met Wednesday night at eight o'clock in Mr. Collins' room. Edward Lightbody was installed as president, John Yerkovitch as vice president, and Myron Ropella as secretary-treasurer. A program for election was drawn up. It was decided to meet at a central location on the coming election night to listen to presidential election returns.

Y. W. C. A. Entertains

The Young Women's Christian Association will entertain this evening at 7:30 at Nelson Hall with a Hallowe'en party.

A special invitation is extended to the Freshmen girls who are as yet unacquainted with the organization.

Doris Duecker, who is general chairman of the party, invites the girls to come and have a "swell time".

Pre-Homecoming Dance a Success

Phi Sigma Epsilon's Pre-Homecoming dance held Friday evening at Hotel Whiting was a social as well as financial success. The Castilians furnished the musical accompaniment. Many of the alumni, as well as the local brothers, attended and according to all comments thoroughly enjoyed the evening of dancing. Ben Laschke-witsch was in charge of the arrangements for the dance.

Sigma Zeta

Miss Zimmerli, of the local high school faculty, addressed the regular meeting of Sigma Zeta on October twenty-first. She presented a very interesting lecture on the identification of mushrooms. Illustrating her talk with slides, and exhibiting specimens, she gave a very interesting speech. It was an open meeting and several guests were present.

College News Briefs

The radio spot broadcast will be held at 4:15 today in the main office of the training school. Mr. Herrick will be interviewed regarding placements of Central State's graduates.

George Simonson, an alumnus, who was previously reported to have been working in a drug store in Marathon, is attending the University of Wisconsin where he is studying for his Masters Degree.

Martens Speaks at Bloc

The Bloc club held a regular meeting last Thursday at the Community Lodge at Iverson Park. Regent Martens spoke to the group on the "Cause of the Progressive Party." Five regular members were present. Nine invited guests also took part in the evening's discussion.

Interesting topics are planned for the next meetings of Bloc. Attorney Meleski will address the group next on the "Cause of the Democrats."

At the first Tuesday meeting, Mr. Steiner will lead the discussion with a resume of the political campaign of 1936.

Green Knights Offer Real Gridiron Battle

Central State Teachers will be after their third straight victory over the Green Knights from St. Norberts, Saturday, when the two teams meet at Legion Field.

The two colleges have had games with each other since 1917 and at the present time the Teachers are leading the series with seven wins to three. Last year the Knights were given their only defeat of the season by Stevens Point, although the local Peds gained only 32 yards from scrimmage.

Breitenstein In Line-Up

Francis McCormick, the Knights' mentor, has practically the same line that experienced a good season last year, while his backfield is built around the veteran halfback, Vernon Ellis. Ellis, by the way, scored two touchdowns last week in their impressive 20 to 6 victory over Milwaukee Teachers. On one occasion he sprinted 66 yards only to be forced to lateral the ball to Kafka who went over for the score. Later in the game "Bunny" Ellis aided by beautiful blocking scored the final six points for his team-mates.

Several of the players in the Point lineup will be playing against one of their former fellow members. George Breitenstein, who is holding down left end. Breitenstein has replaced the veteran Herman Moritz at end because of the good appearance he has made so far this year and also because Moritz is much lighter than he.

There is no doubt that the game will be a real battle, for both teams have lost but one game this year and are anxious to add another win to their already impressive victories.

Central Teachers Lead Ped Loop

Stevens Point, although defeated by De Kalb Teachers, a non-conference foe, retained its lead in the Southern Division of the Ped's Conference while Superior, with a narrow 3-0 victory over River Falls, is still tied with La Crosse, who dropped a non-conference game to Dubuque University, for first place in the Northern Division.

Menzel, McGuire Bohan Outstanding As Pointers Lose

Pointers Outgain De Kalb By Wide Margin

Failure to stop fleet footed Chester Davis, the colored quarterback from Aurora, Illinois, caused Stevens Point to lose its homecoming game Saturday before a large crowd and be erased from the list of the undefeated.

Point Drive Halted

Davis was just a little too fast for the locals and his speed carried him over the final chalk line two times during the game to help De Kalb keep the victory string of the Illinois Teachers over Central State intact.

The Pointers started the game Saturday in exactly the same way as they did against Oshkosh Teachers. After receiving the opening kickoff, Stevens Point made four first downs and lugged the pigskin from their own twenty yard line to De Kalb's twelve. Houck's line plunging was responsible for the first three first downs while McGuire plowed to the twelve for the fourth first down. Here a penalty after a line play placed the ball on the fifteen and when two passes failed to hit their target, De Kalb took possession of the oval.

Fumble Stops March

The boys from the South took no chances on a fumble with their backs to their own goal so they booted the ball out to the forty-five where Johnston received but, when hit, fumbled, and De Kalb recovered. Now the Profs' tried their attack against the Pointers but found that the Teachers in Wisconsin play an altogether more aggressive game of ball than the Illinois Peds. Since they couldn't make any yardage they were forced to punt and the ball rolled out of bounds on the Point's thirty-six.

Houck and Johnston accounted for two more first downs but a fumble by the Pointers on De Kalb's forty was recovered by De Kalb giving them their third chance to find a weakness in the Point's defense. Evidently the weakness was not found, or at least they didn't take advantage of it, for they kicked on third down and this time the ball rolled out on the Pointer's thirty two.

Davis Goes Over

On the exchange of punts McGuire fell short of matching the kicking of Lundeen and De Kalb received the ball on the Pointer's forty-five. After several gains through the line, De Kalb was penalized, but then Coach Evan's boys and Davis in particular went to town.

A pass gained twenty yards, putting the ball on the thirty. Here Davis uncorked one of his spectacular runs and behind beautiful interference sprinted thirty yards to a touchdown. Davis really showed his speed in that sparkling run and he crossed the goal line standing up. Lundeen kicked the extra point and De Kalb led by the score of 7 to 0.

Pointer's Behind at Half

Coach Evan's boys kicked off but, after McGuire returned the ball twenty two yards to the thirty-eight, the quarter ended with De Kalb holding on to their one touchdown lead which appeared mighty big at the time.

The first part of the second quarter found neither team able to gain and, as a result, the team in possession of the ball would try several plays and then kick. Most of the game was played in Point's territory except near the end of the half when the Pointers started another drive. They took the ball on their own thirty-five and in three downs including a twenty yard pass from McGuire to Bohan, wheeled down to their opponent's twenty-five. The whistle blew just as Bremmer slipped while attempting a pass.

Nimz Grabs Touchdown Pass

Whatever Coach Kotal told the team during the half either failed to register or Coach Evans had given his squad a more severe talking to. Once again De Kalb managed to keep the play out of their territory and more firmly grasp the lead they held. The only threat made by either team was near the end of the third period when McGuire completed two passes, one to Johnston and one to Olsen, for a gain of about thirty yards, placing the ball on the Prof's twenty-five.

Only two plays had been pulled in the final period when McGuire faded back and heaved a spiral last year. Another important cog in the Green Gull eleven is Lou Rosenblum, all-conference full-back.

Milwaukee's Gulls Last Pointer Foe

Championship At Stake

So far this year the Green Gulls have split even in their two conference games played. They still have two conference tilts scheduled, one with Whitewater and the other with Central State. Oshkosh defeated the boys from Milwaukee early in the season but since then they have been victorious over Platteville and should prove a tough foe for the Pointers' final contest.

Central State must either tie or win the game to cinch the pennant. Regardless of the outcome of the Whitewater game, one of the two teams will be in a position to be crowned champions if Milwaukee is victorious in their homecoming grid game. It's a natural for a homecoming game and should draw many fans from both schools.

into the end zone where Nimz obligingly wrapped his arms around the leather for the Pointer's first touchdown. Chartier's kick for the extra point was blocked, leaving Central State still behind by a score of 7 to 6.

Point Takes Lead

Evidently this first touchdown inspired the team to go after another, for a few minutes later McGuire intercepted one of De Kalb's passes on his own forty and the Pointers started charging goalward.

McGuire flipped two passes, one received by Hitzke and the other by Nimz, which carried the ball to De Kalb's twenty-two. With a mixture of line plunges and end sweeps, the ball was lugged to the six yard line. McGuire, on a right end run, raced the last six yards to score, putting the Point ahead for the first time in the game. The kick for the extra point was wide, leaving the score 12 to 7 in the Pointer's favor.

The faithful Central State fans now settled back at ease, figuring that the game was put on the shelf for the Pointers. They were, however, to receive quite a shock, for De Kalb had a different idea regarding the outcome of the game.

Davis Again

Coach Evans's boys chose to receive, on the kickoff following the Point's touchdown, and McGuire lifted one down to his opponent's eighteen yard line. Davis returned the ball twenty yards, but he might just as well have returned it straight down the field for the precious six points, because it was merely a few minutes later that he carried the ball home.

Four consecutive first downs placed the pigskin on Central State's twenty four and gave the De Kalb eleven an opportunity to score that they didn't pass up. An off tackle play gained five yards but then a loss, plus a penalty, made it fourth down and thirteen yards to go for another first down. The ball was on the east side of the field so the only likely place to pass was in the wide open territory to the west. Lundeen took the pass from center and faded back, waiting for the receiver to get in the open.

He didn't have to wait long, for Davis found an unmolested spot around the twenty yard line over on the west side of the field and calmly halted for the expected aerial. Davis was not disappointed, for shortly the spiral floated into his arms and the shifty quarterback scampered down the sidelines for ten yards and victory for the Southerners. The kick for the extra point was good making the score 14 to 12.

Two and a half minutes of play remained but the Pointer's were

Sports Gossip

Home Town Boy Makes Good

Fe Bohan, substitute left end who had some of his friends from his home town in Illinois attending the game, really showed his above mentioned pals how they play football in the North. Not only did our George Atlas throw Rezek, the speedy back, for a twelve yard loss but he also snared a pass from McGuire for a twenty yard gain. It's too bad a few more of the players didn't have their friends at the game. Maybe they would have animated the boys to the same extent that Fe's friends did.

Brawn and Brains?

Lyle Brunner, reserve center on the Point eleven, appeared to be rather surprised when he intercepted a pass thrown by Lundeen, De Kalb halfback. However, he snapped out of it and resembled fighting against a stubborn team now, and they found the going much tougher. After receiving the kickoff, McGuire returned the ball to his own forty-four. On an attempted pass, De Kalb intercepted and as far as any more scoring was concerned the game was over. The remaining few plays found the Prof's simply taking the pass from center and then grounding the ball to prevent any possible fumble. The game ended with the Pointers desperately trying to get control of the ball but, unfortunately, they were unsuccessful and De Kalb came through with a well deserved 14 to 12 victory.

"old dobbin" on a sprint, as he returned the pass for a short gain. About five men were required to haul the husky center down after they had obtained all the strangle holds possible on him. Brunner was a backfield man at Abbottsford, but after Coach Kotal got hold of him, he was shifted to center to help Weingartner, our 154 lb. pivot man, block the center hole.

Our All-Conference Choice

Pop Farina, the Whitewater quarterback who starred in the Point game several weeks ago, again made the head lines with an eighty yard sprint for a touchdown. It's a pity that there aren't a few more good men around Whitewater to give the signal-caller some well deserved team work. He is really comparable to Berwanger of Chicago—a one-man team.

Hashing It Over

Among the former football players at Central State who witnessed the De Kalb game were Ron Murray, Frank Menzel, Frank Klement, Don Unferth, Dick Schwahn, Russ Beppler, and Coach Hubbard. I'll bet they all can explain why the Pointer's lost the game. The old grads seem to have that sense of intuition, especially "Pop" Hubbard.

So What?

Purdue was the only Big Ten team that held both "Ozzie" Simmons, of Iowa, and Jay Berwanger, of Chicago, to no gain last find a Simmons or Berwanger on the Minnesota team last Saturday and, as a result, they suffered a real drubbing.

Changes Announced About Requirements For State Licenses

A. J. Herrick

A. J. Herrick, principal of the training school, has several important announcements regarding changed rules for the requirements for state licenses of teachers.

After July 1, 1937, at least five hours of practice are required for every teacher, regardless as to what course he is taking. From the date, it is seen that this will apply already to the persons who will attend next year's summer session.

The next announcement concerns only four-year graduates. Up to this time, a graduate has only been required to have 15 hours of education, including a course in Educational Psychology and a Teaching Course in his major. After July 1, 1937, however, all four-year people must have 18 hours of education.

"Work For More Minors"

"Another fact," said Mr. Herrick, "which perhaps few students know, is that 15 hours in any academic subject qualifies a teacher to obtain a state license to teach that subject." This school only accepts 15 hours as a minor when it is the second (or third or fourth) one that a student has. The requirements for the first minor are the same as those stated in the catalog. This announcement should be of especial interest to science and mathematics people who would like to obtain a few more minors.

Mr. Herrick also urges that students work for one major and as many minors as possible. "The opportunities for placement are much greater," he says.

HERE is one of the reasons why the rank and file of Wisconsin school teachers want a Progressive administration:

Wisconsin's budget, under Governor La Follette, is balanced—but not at the expense of Wisconsin common schools. Progressives fight for Equality of Opportunity for Wisconsin Youth, and that means fighting for better schools. State aid to common schools—during the fiscal year of 1935-36 (under Governor La Follette) amounted to $5,092,123.54, an INCREASE of $726,753.49 over the allotment made by the Schmedeman administration which had slashed the aid. More state aid to common schools gives school boards a chance to write
