Glee Club Home Concert March 31

Program Contains Best Of Organization's Efforts

The Men's Glee Club of Central State, under the direction of Norman E. Knutzen, will present its fourth annual concert on Wednesday, March 31, at 8:00 o'clock. There will be three piano accompanists who will take part in the program. These are Roberta Peterson, Professor Gilbert Faust and Edward Plank, guest accompanist. Mr. Plank will give several solo numbers.

Following is the concert program that will be followed. The first group, by the club, includes "O-Bone Jesu" by Palestina, "O! Mistress Mine" by Dunhill and "Song of the Jolly Roger" by Cavendish. The Quartet then sings "The Green Cathedral" by Halin, "Sleep, Kentucky Babe" by Giebel. The Club sings "Message of the Bells" by Rachmaninoff, "Daene My Comrades" by Bennett and "The Omnipoetica" by Schubert — Liszt. At this time Mr. Edward Plank, who at one time was the regular Glee Club pianist, will present several solo numbers.

W.E.A. Schedules Second Broadcasting Institute Here Saturday April 3

The School Broadcasting Institute of the Wisconsin Broadcasters Associated, will meet in the College Auditorium on Saturday, April 3, from 9 till 12 o'clock.

Stevens Point is one of four communities at which this institute will hold to discuss problems and techniques of effectively using radio programs to supplement teaching programs. The first meeting was held at Beaver Dam on March 6. These meetings are planned by the committee on school broadcasts. Mr. H. A. Abramsak of Beaver Dam is chairman of the committee. Miss Gertie L. Hanson is a member of the advisory committee representing the Teachers Colleges of the state. Miss Hanson is in charge of the program to be held here on April 3.

The program or institute will include representative radio programs as used in school work and demonstrations of the use of broadcasts by a class. Practical problems of preparation of programs, follow-up, correlation with regular curricula, and receivers and reception will be discussed.

All teachers in the Stevens Point area and all graduating Seniors are invited and urged to attend this institute as it deals with a very revolutionary forward step in educational practices.

H. B. McCarty, director of the Wisconsin College of the air will be present at the meeting on April 3.

Morning Assembly Features Lecturer

Miss Geraldine Westaby, famous travel lecturer, will address this morning's assembly at ten. Miss Westaby studied at Oxford and La Sorbonne and her experiences around the globe have given her a remarkable background for her lecture subject, "My Friend Abroad."

Sigma Tau Delta Short Story Contest Rules Announced

Sigma Tau Delta has announced its annual short story contest. Three prizes are being offered: 1st prize — $5.00; 2nd prize — $3.00; and 3rd prize — $2.00. The contest is open to all students of Central State Teachers College.

The contest will close on May 1st, so anyone who is interested in writing a story begin at once. The following rules should be followed:

General Rules

1. The story should not exceed 2000 words.
2. The story must be original (cuttings or abridgments of current short stories in magazines will not be considered original).
3. The setting of the story should embody certain attributes of local color in time and place.
4. In order to secure sincerity on the

Last Showing Of College Theater's Play Tonight

The College Theater presented Oscar Wilde's play, "The Importance of Being Earnest" in the first of its two night runs before a fine crowd last night. The play, which is hailed by critics as being Oscar Wilde's masterpiece, exemplifies the author's sparkling sophistication. Its last performance is staged this evening.

The performance mood was reached through stylistic treatment and through the remarkable and striking production schemes that were used throughout. The chief plot element is that of the invention of a mythical character made by a young man who wishes to put off on his own shortcomings.

Efficient Staff

The setting effects were unusually well done and the coloring effects used in the auditorium and the formal atmosphere which was given by the ushering corps all added to the appreciation of a very receptive audience.

The play was directed by Phil Runkel, assisted by Don Colby, lighting technician, Bob Bretteke, technical supervisor responsible for scenery, properties, and costumes, John Verrilli, stage manager, Ben Laschewitsch, business manager, and Shirley Webster, the auditorium manager.

The lighting switch board which was made by stage N.Y.A. workers and which is used to create lighting effects was used very successfully in the production which will be presented for the last time this evening.

The cast of the play is as follows:

ser vation by him.

5. Each student may submit one or more manuscripts.

Specific Rules

1. All short stories must be submitted to Carlson Swenson, Ben Goldberg, and Maxine Onor on or before May 1st.

2. The committee recommends that the story should be typed, written properly and double spaced per page.

3. You may place your name and the story on the first page. Place the name of the story on the top of the second page and begin your story in the middle of the second page. This method is imperative because the committee will not page down for reference and the story will go to the judges without the name of the author.

5. The judges will be as follows: Miss

Y. W. C. A. Meets Tonight
There will be an important meeting of the Y. W. C. A. this evening at 7:45 at Nelson Hall. Miss Allen will speak on the young people in England. All members are requested to be present.

Sturdy Talks To Home Ecs
Carleton J. Sturdy, a representative of the American Can Company, addressed the Home Economics Club on Monday evening, March fifteenth, in the dietetics room of the college. He presented a most informative lecture to which the general public was invited. Miss Ruth Schwaab, president of the department, presided at the regular meeting.

Rural Life Meets
The regular meeting of the Rural Life Club held in the Rural Assembly Monday evening, March 15, was devoted to a program on Ireland. After club singing of Irish songs, Eileen Maguire sang "The Old Irish Mother of Mine" and "Come Back to Erin." Mr. Peter Doyle played Irish pieces on the violin, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Halverson. Mr. Hein then called upon members of the faculty, who boasted of their Irish ancestry.

The speaker of the evening was Rev. Dray of the Baptist Church, who is a native of Ireland and has been in America only six years. He gave a most entertaining and instructive talk on youth in Ireland in which he pictured the education, recreation, and social life of young men and women in his native country.

Guest Day Tea In New Gym
Guest day was observed by the Stevens Point Women's Club on Monday, March 15, with a St. Patrick's day program and tea, held in the gymnasium of the Training School.

The program was opened with a short talk by Mrs. W. F. Cowan, president of the Women's Club, on the Women's Congress held in Chicago last week.

A violin duet by Myrnel Martin and Mary Ann Walsh followed. The selections played were "Irish Lament," by Fennoy, "Irish Romance," by Brooks, and an Irish Medley.

Marion Miller and Louise Rogers performed a tap dance, "The High-Hatted Irishmen," with Miss MacKnutson as accompanist. A playlet, "Pat's Birthday," concluded the program. It was generally agreed that the program was a success.

Refreshments followed, with Mrs. W. F. Cowan and Mrs. Roy Carver pouring tea. The St. Patrick's day theme was carried out in the center-piece, which was the Blarney Stone flanked with green tapers.

Young Progressive Meet
The Young Progressive Club met at the home of Edward Lightboby on March 12. This meeting was well attended and much was accomplished. Two offices were re-filled and a good start was made along the line of organization.

The stand of the Club in regard to Communism was discussed and the members present resolved unanimously that its principles were unsound and distasteful to American ideals. Likewise went the discussion as to other "isms" apparent in the economic structure of our European neighbors. An important resolution was adopted which provided for the sponsorship by the club of a poll of Central Teachers College on the question of President Roosevelt's policy with respect to the Supreme Court. Any person in college who wishes to express his or her opinion, contact one of the special Committee appointed which consists of Edward Lightboby, Eloy Florence, and Samuel Cress.

The completion of plans for erecting a private bulletin board was accomplished, with all material to be posted on it passing the approval of the President, Edward Lightboby. Any material not having this approval will be removed. The negative of this also holds true—namely that the right of removal be delegated by the President. In other words, the President was given the responsibility of its occupation.

The meeting was adjourned with order after the business was completed.

The Faculty wives were entertained at a tea yesterday, March 17, at the home of Mrs. A. J. Herrick, 201 N. Pierce.

Authority on Glassware
To Address Home Ecs
Mr. Howard Watts, of Milwaukee, an authority on china, glassware, pottery and silverware, will address the Home Economics Clubs on these objects March 22. He has traveled and studied this subject on this continent and in foreign countries. A reception will be held in the Home Economics Parsons after the lecture. Students will be admitted with activity tickets, outsiders will be charged twenty-five cents.

Guests for Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Watts were among the guests at the dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Marrs, March 17. Appropriate St. Patrick's Day decorations were used. Professor Norman R. Knutson sang several Irish songs.

Watch That Left

According to the yearbook of 1917, Central State fans must have witnessed a fine exhibition of basketball some 40 years ago. Quoting the 1917 Iris, "Wooden Shoe", the long rangy southpaw forward, has filled his position well for two years. In many of the games when he was watching his right, Hertz deceivingly let go with his left thereby scoring baskets." The write-up sounds more like a boxing bout rather than a cage game, but that can be accounted for due to the fact that in the old days the hardcourt game was a mighty rough affair.

Fred Nimz

Captains Chet Rinka and Don Johnston. Nimz starred on the freshman team at the University of Wisconsin before coming here and was hailed as the best basketball prospect in the Big Ten.

Tall talk of the basketball team's future was the subject of everyone's tongues. The Phi Sig Chet Rinka has been a great supporter of the Pointers and acted as assistant football coach last fall.

Series Final

The Chi Delta basketball fifteen swept the inter-fraternity series by winning its third straight from the Phi Sig. Thursday afternoon, March 11, by the score of 26 to 17. The series, which is to be an annual affair, consists of five games. The first team to take three games is entitled to temporary possession of the trophy while permanent possession is obtained after either five have held the trophy for three years.

The Phi Sig roster in the final contest was composed chiefly of sophomores. The box score of the game:

Boxing Tournament

Starts March 22

March 22 has been set as the date for officially opening Central State's Boxing Tournament of Champions to decide as to who will reign as king in their respective classes. At the present time it is expected that there will be twelve bouts, from the 115 pound class to the heavyweight division with weight competition evident in every class.

Several men have added their names to the list, including four football and basketball stars, Fred Nimz, captain-elect of the basketball squad, F. Bohn, Lyle Brunner, and Henry Warner. Bohn and Warner were stars in high school while the other two have had limited experience, but are eager to learn. Brunner and Nimz are heavyweights, Bohn will fight in the 165 pound class, while Warner will take on all comers in the 145 pound division.

125 Lb. Class Tough

George Hubbard, chief threat in the 135 pound class, sprained his wrist in the Phil Sig-Chi Delta basketball game last week, but is expected to be ready and waiting when the bell rings next Monday. Hubbard will meet stiff competition in his class since Inman Whipple, 145 pound champion and Golden Gloves finalist, has decided to get down to 155 pounds.

At this date, it looks as though the hardest fighting will come in the 125 pound class where John Felix, Ben Laakkonen, 135-136 champion, and Charles Torbensohn will furnish the opposition. "Sling" Torbensohn was the 135-136 champion in the 135 pound division, but has decided to train himself down to the lower classes while Lloyd Hayes, 135-136 pound champion, lost so much weight during a recent illness that he will fight in the 115 pound division against Carl Michaels and George Skinner.

The bouts will take place in the Training School Gym starting at 8 P.M. Twenty five cents admission will be charged. The referee has not been decided upon as yet.

Schmeddin, High Scorer

Squad 3 is the winner of the basketball tournament, winning all of its games. The high scorer thus far in the tournament is Sara Jane Schmeddin of Team 3. She has 34 field goals to her credit. There are still a few games to be played before the tournament is finished. Squad 1 has two more games and squads 4 and 5 each have one more game to play. The tournament will be completed March 23rd.

Once more we find the basketball season over—thank goodness. After a long season, I think most of us are happy that it is that way. The team itself has accomplished more than their share again and are in line for plenty of praise and congratulations. I wish I could say as much for our student body. With the proper pep and enthusiasm plus a little definite display of school spirit, who knows what heights our ball team might have attained? Our general school spirit this year really bordered the purdah stage—don’t you think? To listen to a faint cheer was far from enthusiastic. Are we too proud to stand up and yell for a good play by our fellow schoolmate or our opponent? Are we so naive to assume that encouragement via the cheering section means nothing to the boys wearing our uniforms, our colors, and representing our school? Seriously, the team has been shown more appreciation on our opponent’s floor. Can’t we put more inside feeling into our athletics and games regardless of the outcome? I am afraid we are taking too much for granted. I am sure the boys would be surprised if they ever received a good old time cheer that fairly rocked the rafters, tickled the spine, and put a lump in the throat that one never forgets. If you’ve ever had that feeling you’ll know what I mean. Yes, and in the end it inspires the one that feels it to accomplish great things. And don’t forget when they are doing great things for this college they are doing good things for you. Possibly our students are far above such well needed expressions and any such maneuvers may make them appear silly. Well that is too bad. After all we only have a college here that has to and must keep going. Now winning does not mean everything, but it is darn important sometime. I do hope that you are proud we are winning some of our games. Outside of that we have a great school here at Stevens Point. We have the best band—the best glee club, the best orchestra—the best debaters—and the best athletes. Let’s keep up that old time “sparkle” and “pepper” and continue as such.

Worthy Praise

This past season has been peculiarly trying in that not once in eighteen games did we operate at 100% full strength. Our year started out with little Chester on crutches and progressed through colds—bad knees—bad ankles—infec-tions—ptomaine poisoning—and finally ended with Tommy contracting pneumonia. This all was discouraging, but the gang managed to play good enough ball throughout the year to win another championship. We found our sister schools much stronger than last year, probably due to the four year eligibility rule. We also found that every school was out to beat the Point, which we assume was only natural. The competition and keen intensive play throughout the league dominated every game. Under the capable leadership of Captains Rinka and Johnston the gang developed a great scoring machine that was hard to beat. They were all good ball handlers and attainment of a aggressiveness that was recognized by all their opponents.

I am sure the leadership of Captains Rinka and Johnston the gang developed a great scoring machine that was hard to beat. They were all good ball handlers and attainment of aggressiveness that was recognized by all their opponents. Tom Lindow is our only loss through graduation and his leaving will be sorely felt. He carried the brunt of many an attack and his speedy maneuvers and uncanny eye for the basket will long be remembered around Stevens Point. Six freshmen will be back next year with a year’s experience under their belts and will have plenty to say about who will make the first squad. With Freddie Nimz at the helm, I am hoping for plenty.

Let me mention one more thing, and that is, that it has been a pleasure to work with this year’s basketball gang. They have been a big happy family having heaps of fun. We found out that we could take a defeat with the best of them. The entire team are gentlemen and clean sports every inch of the way. They have been complimented at all turns and deserve every bit of it. I wouldn’t trade a single one for anybody. My hat comes off to the entire group. It’s been a pleasure to have them for “pals” and I am looking forward to next year’s team. I hope and know they can repeat.

Student Opinion

To the Editor

I wish to thank "the gentlemen" of both parties for stimulating public interest through this column. I think the famous quotation of Voltaire would fit the purpose, "If disagree with every-\nbody, you say, but I will defend to death your right to say it." However, I do not think that the "hot air" as well as sarcastic pen strokes will accomplish anything, but ill-feelings among students, therefore I would suggest an informal discussion where both factions could "iron out" their many difficulties. The place, and time could be set at the convenience of both factions in this case.

Sincerely yours,

Bernard Johnson

Equipment Tested...

The new radio pick-up equipment manufactured by the Rember Company was received last week and was demonstrated on Monday afternoon by Mr. Peterson, engineer for the Rember Company. The equipment ordered from the Collins Manufacturing Company was also received and will be held for a lengthy trial. The first try-out of this equipment was held on Tuesday.

Organizations which wish to make use of the equipment may be given short time each week. On these occasions, the following groups: "Two of the Guys," "the Gentlemen," "the Fifteenth," and the volleyball tournament between squands will begin very soon. Squad leaders should organize their teams now so that no team will lose through default.

Shuffle Board

The shuffle board tournament is scheduled to start right after Easter vacation. If you wish to play, sign up now.

Iris Staff Promises Early Publication Date

If plans continue to progress as successfully as they have to up now, the Iris will be out about the last week of May. April fifteenth has been set as the deadline for all copy to the printer. Allowing about one month to print and bind the book, it means that the Iris will be out shortly after the fifteenth of May.

At the present time, the business staff is busy preparing statements for all organizations having pages in the book. These will be mailed out very soon. It is requested that each organization meet its obligation promptly.

The business managers have just about finished the big task of getting the advertising for the yearbook. Without it, the book could not be published. They report a very successful campaign, having received more advertising than ever before. Could this be because prosperity has returned or is it because of very conscientious and aggressive work on the part of Miss Nason and Mr. Krellkampf?

Men Sing Sunday
At Vesper Service

The Men's Glee Club of this college will sing at a Vesper Service to be held at the Methodist Church this Sunday afternoon, Palm Sunday, at 4:00 P. M.

The program to be given is as follows: first group by the club, "God So Loved the World!", "Requiem!", and "Holy Art Thou!"; the quartet will sing "The Green Cathedrals"; the club then sings "Listen to the Lamb"; "To a Wild Rose"; and "In a Persian Market!". The double quartet will then sing "Drink to me Only With Thine Eyes" and "Here You There".

The last group includes "Land-Sighting with Thomas Faucett soloist, and "Brahm's L'Idylle".

Following the concert the club members will be the guests of Prof. N. E. Kautzen and his mother at luncheon to be given in the church basement.

Davis To Take Group
To Annual French Play

A group of French students, accompanied by Miss Mildred Davis, will go to Madison on Saturday, April 3 to see a French play which is presented by the French department of the University. The play will be presented at 2:00 o'clock on that day in Bascom Hall.

The play to be presented this year is a modern one entitled, "Dr. Knock" by Jules Romains and is built around an amusing satire on doctors. As ideas, perhaps, can be gathered as to the nature of the play when we learn that Dr. Knock's philosophy is "From the moment each of us is born, Father, and that he wants "every human a sick man, every sick man a patient".

The play as it was presented in the cast in an Americanized form was seen by critics to be destined for success on Broadway.

The trip will be made in the college bus by the group and perhaps some also will go by private cars meeting the group in Madison.

DEBATE REVIEW

The debate squad has put away its notes after what has proven to be a very successful season. The squad won first place in the annual State Debate Tournament which was held at Eau Claire on January 30.

During the course of the season a team composed of George Hyer and Jim Murat traveled to St. Paul and Northfield, Minn. in the course of which they met five schools, including the U. of Minnesota, St. Thomas, Carleton, St. Catherine's and Macalester colleges.

A team composed of Phyllis Gilkling and Shirley Webster went to Fargo, N. D. where they went as far as the semi-finals in the annual Red River Valley Debate tournament.

The squad composed of Phyllis Gilkling and Shirley Webster, Doris George and Kathryn Becker, Bob Hoffman and Ben Laschewskitch, and George Hyer and Jim Murat took part in the annual Northwest Debate tournament in which none of the teams were eliminated until after the sixth rounds.

Allee Meets Board
Mr. George C. Allee, who is now President of the Wisconsin Library Association, went to Madison on March 12 and 13 to meet with the Executive board. The convention to be held on October 13, 14, 15 at Madison, Wisconsin, was planned. Mr. Warren G. Jenkins accompanied Mr. Allee and they saw the University of Wisconsin boxing matches.

Band Concert April 20
The sixth annual band concert will be held here on April 20. Mr. Michelsen announces that the band will present the best concert program it has ever had.

Michelsen at Weyauwega
Mr. P. J. Michelsen drove to Weyauwega last Sunday, March 14, to judge band and orchestra renditions. There were group and solo numbers. Mr. Chase is band director at the Weyauwega High School.

"Submerged" Is Cast
"Submerged" is one act tragedy, which will be presented in the near future as a College Theater work shop play. The cast will consist of Bob Lynn, Dick Colby, Joe Bloom, Chuck Sparhawk, Ward Whittaker, Eugene Alcott, Assistant Director, and Kith Aulik, Director.

Orchestra and Girls Glee Club
A double recital of girls representing the Girls Glee Club of this college and the college orchestra will present numbers on a radio program on Saturday, April 9.

Richardson At Madison
Miss Richardson took Eleanor Thelen, Ruby Ottem, Evelyn Sehringale, and Dorothy Richards to Madison with her last Friday. They saw the recital of Martha Graham, New York's leading dancer. On Friday evening, after the recital, they went to a reception at Lathrop Hall. Burns-Mastle, noted critic, was at the reception and the girls met him.

Band Festival
Bands from so far away as 100 miles have already indicated their desire to participate in the 4th annual music festival to be held at Central State on Friday, April 22. Invitations have been sent to numerous high schools throughout the state. Replies are rather slow because it is necessary for a favorable vote of the school boards in order to attend.

Beeckler Memorial Honored By Family
The family of Rex C. Beeckler, one of the men whose names are inscribed on the Beeckler Memorial opposite the library on the second floor, yesterday placed a fine bouquet of carnations before the memorial of their relative. Beeckler was a student here before he enlisted in April, 1918. He was the first man from this school to lose his life in the war.

Sticker...
Last week's winner was La Rue Smith. Don't forget the prize is a Pointer put on the mailing list. The Pointer Office will send one free of charge to whom ever you designate. Nextest counts.

You Tell!
Bryan wrote "Thanatopsis" when he was 19.
Whitney invented the cotton gin at 27.
Alexander the Great cut the Gordian Knot and began to conquer the World at 20, defeated Darius III, King of Persia, at 25.
Romulus founded Rome when he was 20.
Pitt was elected to the English parliament at 21, chancellor of the exchequer at 22, Prime Minister of England at 23.
Daniel Boone was a famous Indian fighter at 32.
Lindbergh flew alone to Paris when he was 27.

Then, this afternoon's edition of The Daily Press starts its mental equilibrium with the declaration that man's best work is achieved after he is 80— with "undeniable" proofs, as follows: Clemenceau was called from retirement to be Prime Minister of France when he was 74.

Aspiration
"The very salt of life is aspiration after an unattained ideal. There is nothing that so keeps a man young, strong and buoyant, as that there shall be ever gleaming before him in the beckoning distance a horizon that moves ever as he moves. When we cease to be the slaves of unattained ideals it is time for us to die! Indeed we are already dead."
