Kane, Adventurer, Entertains

Editor, Business Manager Appointed For '37-'38 Term

Assembly Lecturer Discusses Travels

Arthur F. Kane, traveler, journalist and lecturer, will appear before the college assembly this morning at 10:00. The story of his Asiatic adventure will be the subject of his talk entitled, "After You, Marco Polo."

The speaker has a varied background of experience in his field. After crossing the Pacific with a thousand Chinese in steerage, he began an overland crossing from Asia to Europe across Mongolia, Boli, Indo-China, Siam, Burma, Assam, and into India. Travelling westward again, he crossed the stony wastes of Persia, Iraq, Syria and Turkey to reach Europe, his goal.

Mr. Kane's lecture, really an informal talk, is accompanied by a demonstration of Asiatic costumes used by the speaker in his travels. If his lecture is as interesting as his travels must have been, the assembly should be most worthwhile.

NOTICE!

Last Monday's eleven o'clock classes meet today at eleven o'clock.

Men Slated To Give Additional Concerts

The Mens Glee Club has several engagements for next week. It will appear at Birnamwood on Wednesday, May 12. On Thursday it will sing before a District Federation of Women's Clubs meeting at Hotel Whiting. The next day, Friday, a small group of men will present a concert at the Congregational Church in Baraboo. Professor L. M. Burroughs will accompany the club and give a reading at the concert.

An award dinner will be held at the Gingham Tea Room on Thursday, May 20. At this time the men who have belonged to the organization for two, three or four years will be given awards.

After next week the remaining practice hours will be used in developing concert numbers for the Chicago and Music Festival on Aug. 21.

Tuberculosis Tests Highly Satisfactory

Dr. Fred A. Marrs is highly satisfied with the turnout that was had for the tuberculosis test last week. 331 persons, more than half of the student body, reported for the test. This was exceptionally good, for outside of a small notice on the bulletin board, the test was not mentioned by the administration. No coercion was used, and those who came did so voluntarily.

Of the 331 who took the test, 37 showed a positive reaction. 15 of these had 1 plus, 16 had 2 plus, 2 had 3 plus and 2 had 4 plus.

A test of 1 or 2 plus indicates susceptibility to the disease. Those who had this reaction should take care of themselves accordingly, especially with regard to rest, diet, exercise—fresh air and sunshine.

Those who showed reactions of 3 and 4 plus either have tuberculosis or have been recently exposed to it. They should have X-ray pictures taken immediately and consult a doctor on the factors mentioned above.

In case any other people would like to take the test, they may see Dr. Marrs and arrange a date with him.

Theodore J. Ketterl, a sophomore, of Butternut, Wisconsin, was selected by Professor R. M. Rightsell, faculty advisor for the Pointer, to be editor-in-chief of the paper for the coming year. James Berard, a junior, of Wisconsin Rapids, was selected as business-manager. Both of these positions are highly important, as it is on these men that all responsibility for putting out the paper falls.

Ted is a student of high scholastic ranking with a fine record of participation in extra-curricular activities. He is a member of Chi Delta Rho fraternity, of Sigma Zeta honorary science fraternity, of the Forum, and of Loyola Club. He has been a very efficient secretary to Professor Schmeckle during the past year. For the last few months he has been helping to arrange the radio broadcasts.

Ketterl first attended Central State in '32-'33. He began school again last fall after teaching for three years in a rural school near Park Falls, Wisconsin.

Last Assembly Today

The assembly given today is the last one scheduled for this year, except for those which will be called in connection with the graduating class. This course has been necessitated by the fact that it seems impossible to have a full turnout at any of the entertainments when spring comes.

A Toast

Congratulations, Ted and Jim. You have been chosen to head one of the most important of extra-curricular college activities, the college newspaper. The work is not easy. It requires real ability and effort. You have been chosen on the basis of your high scholarship and outstanding ability in school activities. Looking at your records, we have the highest confidence in your success. Here's wishing you the best of luck.

N. Y. A.

The administration of the college has been encouraged to believe that N. Y. A. work will continue next year. Students on N. Y. A. should make their applications for future work now. This is important. Those who feel that they will need jobs next year should also apply. Without an application to President Hyer, no student can be considered eligible for help.

ARE YOU A FRIEND? By LA PEARL POWLESS

'Friend' is mistaken in so many ways.
 Can you tell when Friendship pays?
 Has this so-called friend been kind,
 And to your faults is he blind?
 Does he take you as you are
 And not because you have a car?
 Does he stick with you in trouble
 Or does he vanish like a bubble?
 A 'friend' is true unto the end,
 Can you say that you're a friend?

Sticker . . .

Mathematical problems must be too hard as no one got the correct answer (which was 24 miles) to the last sticker. Here is an easy English catcher.

1. Name an English word containing 8 syllables.
2. Name an English word in which the letter "i" appears 5 times.
3. Name at least 3 English words, each of which contain all the vowels; including "y".

Answers must be in Monday at 5 P. M.

Tau Gam Formal Saturday, May 15

The first of the two Greek Spring Formals will be held on Saturday evening, May fifteenth, when Tau Gamma Beta sorority presents its annual formal party at Hotel Whiting.

Charles Brinckley's fine band, which has been playing in Aurora, Illinois, during the winter season, has been engaged for the dance to which the public is cordially invited.

Committees for the banquet, which precedes the dance, and the dancing party have just been announced. Invitations, Claire Williams, Eleanore Breeden, and Dorothy Mullarkey; Flowers and Arrangements, Dorothy Mullarkey, Jean Warzinik, Irene Dix, Beulah Schleicher, Laura Jane Rosenow, Regina Schwebke, Sarah Mainland and Ethel McDonald. Music, Dorothy Mullarkey. Menu, Dorothy Richards, Margaret Miller and Ethel McDonald.

The chaperones for the party will be Pres. and Mrs. F. S. Hyer, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Smith, Mr and Mrs. E. L. Kotal, and Captain and Mrs. F. S. Hirzy. Miss Jessie Jones, faculty advisor, will be a guest of the sorority.

Tips On Tomes - - -

For you who enjoy reading biographies, here are a few new ones. You will find that many of the biographies will enrich your regular academic subjects.

Goethe, by George Brandes.

This is the story of Wolfgang Goethe, equally admired as a poet, as a scientist, as a philosopher, and as a man. The immortal Goethe was the greatest and deepest of creative minds known to modern times and he has his place among the other immortals—Dante, Homer, Michelangelo, and Shakespeare. It is the masterpiece of George Brandes, greatest of Continental biographers.

William G. Brownlow, Fighting Parson of the Southern Highlands, by E. M. Coulter.

Parson William G. Brownlow is one of the most amazing figures in all American history. The people of five states became conscious of the Parson's existence when he began riding the Methodist circuit—battling for the Lord and fighting the enemy—Baptists, Presbyterians, the devil, the Democrats, and later the Confederates. He edited the Whig for many years in East Tennessee and used it in waging his battles. If you want to read an amusing and exciting story, get this book.

Danton, Dictator of the French Revolution, by Hermann Wendel.

Hermann Wendel has done more than describe Danton and the drama of those years. His book is a realistic picture of the French revolution and its great leader, but it is no photograph of people and events. Through the book there is the unwavering but superbly human figure of Danton, who extra-curricular work. He is a member of Sigma Zeta honorary science fraternity, of the Forum, and of Loyola Club. Jim will be particularly remembered for the fine piece of work he did as chairman of the Science Open House this year. Jim is also interested in radio work and has done amateur broadcasting.

Both of the men selected will work with the present heads during the remainder of the year in order to gain the necessary experience. They wish to announce that they will be glad to consider applications for positions on the staff at any time in the future. No appointments are made definitely until the opening of the fall term, but usually the staff is filled by that time.

shaped the revolution and was destroyed by it.

The Penns of Pennsylvania, by Arthur Pound.

"A strong, strange family—these Penns who left their indelible mark on the map of America for all time." In this book Mr. Pound combines the journalist's sense of startling with the historian's respect for accuracy. Read about William Penn and his descendants.

The Life of William Ewart Gladstone, by John Morley.

This is the book that has been mentioned many times as "the best biography of a great man ever written". This new edition, in more convenient and cheaper form, is ready at a time when the interest in Gladstone's period has increased.

Letters of Grover Cleveland—1850-1908, ed. by Allan Nevins.

"Here is a rich store of material never before published and a book essential to every student of national affairs. The silver question, foreign relations, the machinations of David B. Hill and Tammany Hall, and the menace of Bryanism are among the chief subjects discussed. Cleveland treats some of them with surprising frankness."

Here is a heterogeneous collection of books for you to pick from. It won't be long before May 30th, so begin to read now.

We or They: Two Worlds in Conflict, by Hamilton Fish Armstrong.

Mr. Armstrong sees two rival and wholly incompatible conceptions of life—the democratic and dictatorial—locked in conflict all over the world. Mussolini announced: "The struggle between two worlds can permit no compromise. Either we or they!" Mr. Armstrong urges that we accept the challenge and stresses the need for democratic governments working together. "Every intelligent American will find food for thought and incentive to action in this book."

What Dare I Think?, by Julian Huxley.

"This is a book for those who dare to think. Can science and the religious spirit be fused? Should religion tally with modern scientific knowledge? How could this be accomplished?" Some of the proposals of Julian Huxley will prove shocking and frightening. It takes courage to think newly and to see old thoughts unveiled of the tradition that shrouds them. Have you that courage? If so, read this book!

Chi Delta Rho Formal

Chi Delta Rho announces its annual formal party which is to be given on Saturday, May twenty-second, at Hotel Whiting. The fraternity's private banquet will precede the dancing party to which the general public is cordially invited to attend.

Rural Life Club

At the regular meeting of The Rural Life Club Monday night, Miss Irene Skutley, the Home demonstration agent for Portage County, gave a talk on her work, emphasizing the development of the Four H. Clubs. Her interest and enthusiasm won her audience and many were the words of commendation expressed by those who heard her.

Miss Skutley is a graduate of our Home Economics Department and resigned a position as Home Ec teacher in Eau Claire to work at her present location. She proudly referred to four years of teaching she had done in a rural school in Dakota, where she was twelve miles from any station with mail delivery only three times a week.

Other numbers on the program were piano solos by Annette Cieslewicz, vocal solos, La Pearl Powless, and harmonica music by Delilah Peterson.

In the absence of the President Mr. Hein, Irma Rice presided.

Home Ec Formal Dinners

Two lovely formal dinners have been enjoyed recently by sophomore students of the home economics department. One group of sophomores entertained the remainder of the class in the department on Tuesday, April twentieth, in the home economics parlors. Spring colors predominated in a centerpiece of daffodils and snap-dragons. Miss Ruth Behnke was in charge of arrangements, with Miss La Nore Oleson as hostess and Miss Celia Wolfert as host.

On Tuesday, April twenty-seventh, another dinner was held in the parlors at which the former host and hostess were the guests. Sweet peas made a very attractive centerpiece. Miss Ruth Johnson was the chairman, while Sister M. Humilia was the hostess with host Gladys Greve. Miss Helen Meston is the faculty supervisor for the girls.

Library School Breakfast

Mr. George C. Allez and Miss Sybil Mason attended the Wisconsin Library School May Day breakfast on May 1st. Each year the Wisconsin Library school has a breakfast for its alumni. This year the portrait of Miss Mary Emogene Hazeltine, principal of the Wisconsin Library school, was unveiled. Miss Mason's class, the class of 1936, began the idea of the "Portrait Fund" as a present from the graduating class. The alumni are also contributing to this work.

Elmhurst Glee Club Presents Program

The Elmhurst College Women's Glee Club, on their sixth annual tour, presented a concert before the college assembly at eleven o'clock Monday morning. The organization was conducted by Glenn Most and featured the Glee Club, Louise Zander, soprano soloist, and a sextette.

The program opened with a group of sacred numbers, including "Ave Maria" and "The Lord's Prayer." Louise Zander began her part of the presentation with "Ouvre Tes Yeux Blues" by Massenet. She was followed by the Glee Club and the Sextette which offered three numbers. The finale included "O, Didn't It Rain?" dedicated to President Hyer, and the program was brought to a close by the singing of Elmhurst College's "Alma Mater."

The assembly was one of the most interesting programs that the school has enjoyed this year. Entertaining and enjoyable, it aptly illustrated the excellent character of the musical work carried out in Elmhurst College.

W. A. A.

Play Day Plans are nearing completion. All high schools who are planning on coming to Play Day are urged to answer as soon as possible. Five schools have already accepted the invitation of W. A. A. to be its guests for Saturday, May 15th.

After registration, the girls will be divided into color teams and will meet in the new gymnasium to get acquainted. About 10:30 the teams go out to the field and begin the competitive games. Baseball, soccer, volleyball, and cageball are some of the games which will be played. Girls who would rather play tennis, archery, or horseshoes can do this rather than enter the color team games. These individual sports will be carried on at the same time as the other team games.

Luncheon is scheduled for one o'clock. A novel scheme of decorations has been worked out this year. Esther Hawks, who was president of W. A. A. when Play Day first started and who is now teaching at Clintonville, will be guest speaker at the luncheon.

About 2:30, Miss Richardson, Physical education director, will present her second creative dancing program. If you saw the program last year, nothing more need be said. The program will be even better this year. As usual, both the college girls and the Training School children will take part in the dancing. This concludes the "Day of Play."

The Phi Sigs won the opening game of the interfraternity kitenball series last Thursday by the score of 4 to 2. The Phi Sig infield played an airtight game which was the deciding factor in the victory. The Chi Delts got three hits off Storandt while Duecker and Urbans were holding the Phi Sigs to four hits, two of them by Carl Sturm, third baseman. The Chi Delts made five errors, the Phi Sigs, none.

The second game was played last Tuesday and the third game was played yesterday. The fourth game is scheduled for Monday at 4.

Home Ec Rally Well Attended

The Home Economics rally held last Saturday was pronounced a great success by Anita McVey, general chairman for the event.

Over 100 girls and several instructors attended the meeting. Wausau brought the largest representation with 21 delegates, and Eagle River traveled the farthest to attend, coming 125 miles.

Registration began at 9:00 o'clock. At 10:00 o'clock a meeting for instructors was held at which program suggestions, club activities, ways of making money, and school lunches were discussed. While this meeting was going on the students who attended were conducted through the college and its campus and Nelson Hall.

Lunch was served at Nelson Hall at noon, followed by the main program which began at 1:30.

The following numbers and skits were presented by the school groups who attended:

Westfield . . . . . Piano Duet
Hixton . . . Humorous Declamation
Wausau . . . . .

. . . Skit, "The Home Ec. Club."
Eagle River . . Skit, "Etiquette"
Mauston Skit, "Advertisements"
Marshfield . Tap dance selections
. . . . . and a vocal duet

The college Home Ec. Club presented a pageant of brides. There were 17 models. The gowns dated from 1876 to the modern fashion.

General Chairman Anita McVey was assisted by the following committee heads: lunch, Lenore Oleson; registration, Ruth Johnson; exhibits, Gladys Greve and pageant, Margaret Miller. Miss Bessie May Allen is faculty advisor.

Oshkosh Meet Enjoyed By Men

Central State's Mens Glee Club sang in a very successful music festival at Oshkosh last Monday night. All the Wisconsin clubs of the Associated Glee Clubs of America participated. The concert was presented in the Recreational building to an enthusiastic and appreciative audience. Many people from Stevens Point attended the program.

After rehearsal, glee club members enjoyed a fellowship supper served in the dining room of the First Congregational Church. Short talks were given by officers of the association. Names of officers who had been elected at a meeting earlier in the afternoon were announced. Prof. N. E. Knutzen, of Central State, is vice-president for the coming year.

The combined choruses, many wearing tuxedos, made a very pleasing appearance. Behind them on the stage was the banner of the association. The program was broadcast over station WTAQ. All choruses combined in singing several numbers. Each club also sang three numbers of its own choice.

Central State's club was the second in size, the Appleton MacDowell Male Chorus being the largest, with 65 members.

Roberta Peterson and Prof. G. W. Faust were accompanists for the local glee club.

Christianson, Dregne Elected Forum Heads

At a meeting of the Forum Club held last Thursday morning, Bjorn Christianson of Nelsonville was elected to be president for next year. Harold Dregne of Marshfield was elected to the office of secretary-treasurer. The Forum Club is a group made up of all students in the high school department. It is urged that all members get their dues for this year in immediately, as this money is to pay for the page in the Iris and is due very shortly. The outgoing officers are Bill Theisen, president, and Tim Winch, secretary-treasurer.

Sophomores!

Sophomores! Please pay your class dues at once. Ruth Nason, Treasurer, will be in the library every day from one o'clock to receive your dues. Attend to this immediately.

College Library Staff Completes Inventory

Inventory has been completed and it has been found that the book losses are much less than last year. "The students are following rules and leaving their brief cases on the table before going through the stile," says Mr. Allez "and we appreciate it very much." The new desk makes it easier to check out books. There is one more rule to follow, however. When going to get a book, go through the stile. This will eliminate confusion and every student will be taken care of in turn.

A CAREER

...In Search of Men

Government statistics show a decrease of 10% among practicing dentists in recent years while the number of professional men in other fields has increased. This can largely be attributed to advanced standards in dental schools.

Marquette University annually receives the highest rating — A — from the Dental Educational Council of America. The diploma is recognized in all states.

The close relationship of the Dental and Medical Schools at Marquette University is an advantage to students.

Entrance requirements: Two years in a recognized College of Liberal Arts with satisfactory credits in biology, chemistry, and physics.

For complete information concerning opportunities in dentistry, write to the Secretary, Marquette University Dental School, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

FOR Mothers DAY

*"Who ran to help me when I fell,
And would some pretty story tell,
Or kiss the place to make it well?
My Mother."*

The second Sunday in May is officially dedicated to the mothers of America. One day is hardly enough to show affection towards those who have toiled ceaselessly that we might measure up to their expectations. The debt that we owe is not one to be paid by a single act upon Mother's Day, but that day should be marked by some special token of our appreciation. If all of us would realize the sacrifice our mothers have made for us, we would all strive to be better sons and daughters and seek to repay, in some manner, the love and care they have devoted to us. Let us use Mother's Day to show our appreciation of that sacrifice in some special manner.

Nelson Hall Notes

By NELLIE of NELSON HALL

Fifty-two dormites spent the weekend at their homes in various parts of the state. Incidentally Nelson Hall seemed not as lively as usual.

Miss Evangeline Johnson visited La Crosse Sunday.

Highlights of the Home Ec. Rally: Getting ready with ribbons, exhibits, and picnic preparations. This means remaining in Stevens Point for the weekend, when maybe one would rather be somewhere else,—just maybe. The Bride's Pageant, Grandmam's wedding dress, and how did they manage to have such waists? After effects: Left overs and weary feet.

Miss Marianne Stauffacher and Miss Alberta Veeder escorted a party of visiting high school girls of the Home Ec Rally about Nelson Hall Saturday. They seemed to enjoy their visit to the college very much.

Some dormites seem to have developed a fondness for midnite lunches.

Newcomers at the dorm are: Miss Marjory Marshall (no relation to Miss Marian Marshall, resident of long standing, however) Miss June Weiler, and Miss Marie Patterson.

We are sorry several girls were forced to indignantly deny being "Nellie" this past week, but it can't be helped.
