

Men's Glee Club Begins Autumn Tour

Visual Education Movie Tonight

Movie, "Abraham Lincoln" Starring Walter Houston

The movie, "Abraham Lincoln," starring Walter Houston with a supporting cast of excellent actors will be shown tonight at 8:00 with a matinee at 3:15. One of the greatest pictures produced by Hollywood in the last few years, it has been released for the first time on 16 mm. film with sound recording.

Many Backers

The proceeds from sale of tickets for this movie will be used to buy sound equipment for use in class and assembly work in both the college and the training school. It is hoped by Mr. Jayne, head of the Visual Education department, that sufficient support will be given the movie to make it possible to buy the equipment needed.

Ticket sales are being sponsored by all school departments and many organizations as well as by training school children. George Cartmill is general chairman in charge of arrangements, Fred Parfrey in charge of tickets, and Ethel McDonald in charge of publicity.

Armistice Speech Given By Allez

Armistice Day at Central State Teachers College was observed with an assembly last Thursday morning. President Hyer addressed the college briefly, pointing out the work of the school in those stirring days of 1917-18.

The address of the day was given by our librarian, G. C. Allez, himself a world war veteran. It was a privilege to listen to a sincere talk by a man who knew whereof he spoke.

The college orchestra rendered patriotic selections, reminiscent of World War days.

At eleven o'clock taps were sounded and C. S. T. C. paused for a moment to remember Flanders Fields.

ATTENTION CATHOLIC STUDENTS!

Don't forget to be prompt in getting to the Loyola meeting tonight at 7:00, in the Rural Assembly.

Thanksgiving

Three hundred seventeen years ago the Pilgrim fathers instituted Thanksgiving, a day dedicated to the spirit of thankfulness. There in the wilderness, against a background of tree, sky, and log cabin, savage and Pilgrim joined in feasting and prayer to say "Thank You" to the Giver of all blessings. The savages did the feasting; the Pilgrims did the praying.

Today we meet Thanksgiving in a skyscraper horizon, dotted with radio and electric light. However, on the matter of the turkey, 1937 and 1620 meet on common ground, despite the fact that the modern bird is procured not romantically in the woods, but prosaically at the market. In both instances it is a turkey hunt as any shopper will testify. Electric ovens today displace the open fireplace of Plymouth days. In America turkey and Thanksgiving seem almost synonymous.

We wonder, though, as the church bells ring out a week from today, will we have the same spirit of thankfulness in our hearts that motivated the Americans of 1620? Will we be grateful for baths and books, for sunshine and sky, for light and warmth, and the thousands of other little things that make life worth living?

College Theater To Present R. U. R. Soon

Coffee and cookies refreshed the cast of R. U. R. Sunday night. These are busy days for College Theater, and a weary cast which had worked the major portion of the afternoon hailed with rejoicing, refreshments at the College Eat Shop.

Above and below stairs the work spirit prevails. The cast, Director Runkel, and the public address system are ably supported by the men behind the scenes. Ray Laschkewitch, production business manager, spends his evenings on the third floor constructing signs. He believes in the, "If you want something done well, do it yourself" idea. Verrill, Ophoven, Firgins, Meyer, and Stapel alternate between cellar and attic, scenery being the reason. Smith, who is cast as a man of seventy in the play, is developing a permanent stoop. Watch him as he walks about the halls.

Notice Freshmen

The Freshmen class will hold a party in the New Gym Friday evening, November 23 which will start at 8:30 P. M. Dancing and games will be the features of the evening, with refreshments served later. The Castileans will furnish the music. Only Freshmen are invited.

C. S. T. C. Art Director Receives Recognition

The Painting, "Plover Hills in Winter", by Edna Carlsten has been selected to hang in the Stevens Hotel in Chicago during the 12th annual Exhibition of the "All Illinois Society of Fine Arts" from November 20th to January 31st. A jury of five artists examined the picture before accepting it for exhibition.

An artist's Dinner will be held in Chicago the evening of November 20th. All of the artists whose works are represented in the exhibition are either living in Illinois or are natives of Illinois.

Merrill Scene Of First Engagement

Thursday at 4:00 o'clock the Mens Glee Club will start on its annual tour. Merrill will be the scene of the first engagement. The men will sing at St. Stephen's Church of that city, after which the ladies of the parish will serve supper. Friday noon they will lunch at Antigo, presenting an afternoon concert at the Elcho High School. Evening will find the men at Stambaugh, Michigan, where they will present a concert and spend the night. Saturday noon they will sing at the United States Veteran Camp at Phelps and in the evening a program will be given at Phelps. Sunday morning a sacred concert will be presented at the Congregational Church at Eagle River.

Schoolmasters' Club Honors Educators

Eighty People Present At Banquet Wed. Eve.

More than eighty people were present at the Schoolmasters' Club Banquet which was held in Nelson Hall, Wednesday evening, November 17. Wausau, Antigo, Wisconsin Rapids, Marshfield, Abbottsford, Colby, Plainfield, Junction City, Waupaca, and Mosinee were all represented at the affair.

The meeting particularly honored President Hyer, Ira C. Painter, and Doctor Joseph V. Collins, all of whom are retiring or have retired in 1937. After the banquet, which was prepared by the Presbyterian church circle, Mr. Herbert Steiner spoke in appreciation of President Hyer; Mr. M. C. Palmer of the Marathon county Normal at Wausau spoke in appreciation of Mr. Painter, and Mr. Sam Moreau of the Stevens Point High School spoke in behalf of Doctor Collins. Each one who was honored responded to the speech of appreciation.

The program, which was presented over by President Glen Tinkham, Principal of the Marshfield High School, included musical numbers by the College Orchestra, directed by Mr. Peter J. Michelsen and the Mens Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Norman E. Knutzen.

Published Weekly except holidays and examination periods, at Stevens Point by the students of the Central Wisconsin State Teachers College. Subscription Price $2.00 per year.

Entered as second-class matter May 26, 1927, at the post office at Stevens Point, Wisconsin, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Support The Annual Red Cross Drive

Last January, when the flood waters of the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers inundated thousands of square miles along these valleys and those tributary streams, affecting more than a million and a half persons, thousands of college men and women—both graduate and undergraduate—volunteered their services and made generous gifts to the Red Cross to assist in alleviating the suffering of stricken families.

In addition to such help in the stress of great emergency, there has been a marked gain in interest in Red Cross programs on campuses throughout the country.

The Red Cross services which are proving to be most popular in colleges are water life saving, first aid, and home care of the sick. Courses in these subjects are now taught in many institutions by qualified Red Cross instructors.

With the building of swimming pools by many inland colleges which previously had no means of indulging in water sports the Red Cross life saving program has become a recognized part of training in aquatics. Today, approximately 90 per cent of those colleges which have pools are taught life saving by the Red Cross. Nearly all college swimming coaches are qualified life saving examiners and in many institutions examinations are held each year by life saving field representatives of the national staff of the Red Cross to qualify undergraduate life savers as examiners. Those undergraduates who become qualified instructors assist swimming coaches at their school in training other students to become life savers and frequently accept positions as councilors at summer camps or swimming instructors at beaches and pools.

First Aid, like life saving, is being taught more widely each year in colleges and universities by the Red Cross. Today both of these subjects are required in nearly all physical education courses.

Following the adoption of first aid as a regular course in many junior and senior high schools throughout the country, numerous teacher-training colleges have requested the Red Cross to send its staff doctors in to give advanced first aid courses in their institutions so that the teacher-graduates may be qualified to instruct in this subject.

Courses in home hygiene and care of the sick are given to women in many colleges and universities, especially to students in home economic and teacher-training departments. This instruction is given by Red Cross nurses and, although it does not qualify the students as instructors, it does enable them to plan more intelligently health instruction in the schools where they subsequently teach.

Each autumn, during the annual Red Cross Roll Call, thousands of university and college students in every part of the nation renew their memberships to help support the Red Cross to carry on its disaster relief work and year-round service programs throughout the coming twelve months. Everyone is invited to share in the work of the Red Cross by enrolling from November 11th to 25th.

It will be financially impossible for many to become regular members. In order to make it possible for all of us to make a little donation through a personal sacrifice, a box has been placed on the counter in the main office where we may deposit our pennies, nickels, or dimes. Let us remember how worthy this giving is and that every little mite counts.

Hanley's Marionettes At Assembly Nov. 23

Miss Ethel Salisbury Hanley and her "Happy-Go-Lucky Marionettes" will provide the entertainment for an assembly to be held Tuesday, November 23. The presentation promises to be very interesting and appealing for Marionettes have captured the imagination of both young and old since the days of Tony Sarge, originator of these pleasing creatures of fancy.

Jacoboski Speaks To Sigma Zetans Gives Interesting Talk On Science Of Television

Mr. Alois Jacoboski gave an interesting demonstration and lecture last evening before members of Sigma Zeta National Honorary Science Fraternity. Mr. Jacoboski is a local man whose enthusiasm and interest in television resulted in several patents on a device designed to keep the speed of the scanning disk of a receiving set constant. This problem of synchronizing the scanning disk of a receiving set with the scanning disk of a sending station has long been recognized as one of the big problems of television.

Mr. Jacoboski predicts a great future for television and feels that most of the problems which are holding television back are more economic rather than scientific. Many of our broadcasting stations are aware of this and are now holding down wave lengths on the short wave band so that when television is introduced to the public, they will be assured a favorable spot on the dial. One large Wisconsin newspaper, a typical example, is now holding down five short wave lengths for this purpose.

Unique Tribute Paid E. T. Smith

An unique tribute to a man who has served this school for twenty-eight years was paid by students who recently circulated a petition which read as follows:

"To the Board of Regents:

Whereas our esteemed President Hyer is leaving shortly and because we are interested, we hope you are considering a man whom we have learned to respect as teacher, and as administrator, and as our friend, E. T. Smith."

First Student Petition

The petition was presented to our local regent, G. Martens, after it had been signed by eighty percent of the student body. More than forty students took an active part in organizing the petition. It was characterized by a spontaneity and non-partisanship. Greek and non-Greek united in paying appreciation to a well loved teacher.

This is the first time in the history of teachers colleges of the state that a student petition of this type has been inaugurated. The whole proceeding was accomplished in less than fifteen hours.

"Gil" Faust Extends Thanks To Friends

"Realizing the hopeless inadequacy of these 'To Whom It May Concern' letters, I nevertheless find it necessary to avail myself of this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to all those who in any way made my visit to St. Michael's a pleasant one. You will realize the impossibility of the task of writing a personal note to all my benefactors when I tell you that my guest book contained more than 115 names, that I received over thirty greeting cards, nine floral greetings, and numerous gifts ranging from baskets of fruit to miniature hot water bottles and a "Sicherheits-nadelbrief." (H. R. Steiner will translate.)

My especial thanks to "The Fraternity" which sent me a basket of fruit. Although I may have my own ideas about which is "The" fraternity, it would put me in an embarrassing position to make a public announcement of my views. If "The" fraternity will identify itself, I will see that it receives a proper expression of thanks.

I must thank Mr. Rogers and Mr. Schmeekle who have so willingly taken my teaching load upon themselves. If it were not for the fact that I would be wishing them bad luck in so doing, I would say to them, "I hope I can do the same for you some day." But I want the whole student body to know that both of them are as good as gold and have truly proved themselves real friends in need.

My thanks also to my students, even to those who didn't come to see me, because I know that they have cooperated to the fullest extent with my "substitutes."

And finally to you, Mr. Editor, thanks for putting my picture on the front page.

This letter is twice as long as I intended it to be, but I am so running over with good feeling that I could write a book. The memory of pain and unpleasantness is indeed short-lived when there are so many nice things to remember. And if I ever get to feeling blue and friendless again, will someone please give me a swift kick in my understanding and say, 'Remember when you were really down and found you had so many friends you couldn't count them?'"

Sincerely, Gilbert W. Faust

At the present time speculations are abroad on the campus as to what the robots will wear. It is not only the ladies who are concerned with this important consideration, the gentlemen also manifest an interest. Just what do lady and gentlemen robots wear? Plan to see what "Rossum's Universal Robots" will wear December ninth.

Professor Schmeeckle Completes New Home

Professor F. J. Schmeeckle is now a resident of Plover. He is missed by his Nelson Hall neighbors who shared his garden flowers.

Mr. Schmeeckle recently completed building his new home at Plover. The site was formerly the residence of Judge Webb when Plover was the County seat.

Schmeeckle's dwelling is an eight room house. It is air conditioned and equipped with all manner of labor saving devices. The house boasts of numerous bookcases and two fireplaces.

Not the least of the advantages of his new location is the two acres adjoining which Schmeeckle plans to landscape this spring. With Spring Mr. Schmeeckle begins a double life, when after class hours the white collar professor retires in favor of the blue denim farmer.

Rev. Johnson Speaks To Rural Life Club

Rev. Arthur J. Johnson, pastor of the Methodist Church, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Rural Life Club. He used for the title of his address, Life and Conduct at the State Prison. For six years immediately preceding his coming to Stevens Point, Rev. Johnson's pastorate was in Waupun where he had close contact with life in the state institution there. From this intimate knowledge of the conduct, he was able to give a graphic picture of the general routine and program carried on. At the close of his address, he invited questions from his audience who showed their interest by keeping him busy for another half hour.

Short Business Meeting

Other numbers on the program were club singing led by Gordon Cowles with Ellen Anderson at the piano, a group of violin solos by Vincent Kroll accompanied by Ruth Knutson, and harmonica solos by Delilah Peterson.

During a short business meeting the matter of the all school movie benefit on Thursday was presented by the president, Wm. Clements and arrangements were made for ticket sale.

Pep Club Entertains

The old members of the Pep Club entertained a number of "peppy" new girls at a social meeting last Thursday evening at Nelson Hall with Grace Okray, the president, acting as hostess. She was assisted by the secretary, Marcella Schultz, and the following committee: Irene Dix, Madeline Davel, Ruth Knutson, and Ramona Campbell. A clever arrangement of games and songs made the evening most enjoyable.

The following girls were chosen for membership: Gladys Anderson, Marguerite Carmody, Lorraine Church, Alice Combs, Katherine Cuila, Norma Ferguson, Harriet Hotvedt, Ethel Hill, Jean Kohl, Margaret Kujawa, Dorothy Lloyd, Lanore Oleson, Katherine Piehl, Marian Roberts, Luida Sanders, Florence Smith, Betty Smith, Doris Soderberg, Ruth Solsrud, June Weiler, Carmelita Wirkus, Grace Winarski.

Creative Dancers Take Trip

Miss Richardson and twenty-four members of her creative dancing class took the school bus to Madison on Wednesday, November 10, to see the performance of Harold Kreutzberg, the world-famous interpretative dancer. The program was held at the Parkway Theatre.

Mixed Chorus

The requests of many college students have been granted in the formation of a mixed chorus. Twelve girls and eight men were chosen for this select group. The chorus has already started work on numbers for the Christmas program under the direction of Mr. Fred Parfrey.

String Ensemble Organized

A women's string ensemble has just recently been organized. The following girls are participating: Dorothy Richards, Phyllis Gikling, and Alice Bentz, violins; Marion Marshall, viola; Ula Mae Knutson, cello; and Margaret Miller, piano.

The girls will make their first debut next Monday, November 22, when they appear before the Kiwanis Club at the Hotel Whiting.

Economics Seniors Visit Prairie du Sac

The Home Economics Seniors and Miss Allen, Miss Meston, and Miss Wilson of the Home Economics faculty drove to Prairie du Sac, Saturday to inspect the Home Economics Department at the local high school. They were guests of Miss Maurine Nason, a graduate here, who is now doing George Dean work in Sauk county in addition to her teaching at the Prairie du Sac High School. One of the main reasons of the trip was to study equipment in connection with the Home Economics Techniques Course.

Central Staters Tie DeKalb Teachers, 6-6

Quakers Win Ped Pennant

Whitewater reigns supreme in the Southern Division of the Teachers College Conference by virtue of a 26-6 win over Milwaukee's Green Gulls last Saturday. Milwaukee is in second place while Platteville and Stevens Point are tied for third. Oshkosh was buried in the cellar after losing to the Platteville Pioneers, 27-0.

The game scheduled between Superior and La Crosse to decide the Northern Division Champions was cancelled for some strange reason, leaving the two teams tied for first place although Superior has won three games to La Crosse's two victories. River Falls tripped Stout 20-0, to tie with Eau Claire for third place and leaving Stout alone in the last spot.

Jim McGuire

Jim was an all-conference half-back last year and seems to be a lead-pipe cinch to make the honor team again this year. Mickey was out of football in his sophomore year with a bad leg but came back better than ever. An end in his freshman year, Capt. McGuire was shifted to the backfield to take advantage of his ball carrying ability. He was the main cog in the Tomahawk baseball team last summer, alternating between the pitcher's box and the outfield.

Ed Olsen

The answer to every coach's prayer, Ed Olsen has been a regular end since his sophomore year when he understudied Frank Menzel. Eddie hails from Elcho, Wisconsin, where he played full-back in football and guard in basketball. During the past season, he coached the Training School seventh and eighth grade football team to second place in the city grade school conference. It was the first time that a Training School team has ever reached the finals.

McGuire Scores In First Quarter

Central Stater's Purple and Gold gridders rang down the curtain on the 1937 football season by tying DeKalb teachers College, 6-6, in a hard fought bruising game. The Pointers scored in the first quarter on a pass by Al Sell to Jim McGuire who ran fifty yards for the score. It was a beautiful run and he brought the crowd to its feet by his elusiveness. Bill Loewecke missed the try for the extra point. In the third period, Chester Davis, De Kalb's colored flash, caught a pass on the 9 yard line and on the next play went over for a touchdown. Krankbuhl's try for the extra point was blocked by Loewecke and Ed Olsen.

De Kalb had the ball on the Point 6 yard line after a 44 yard run by Davis when the whistle blew, ending the first half. The play was in Point territory for the greater part of the game and only a couple of fumbles by the De Kalb backs saved the Purple and Gold from defeat.

The De Kalb coach evidently thought that the Kotalmen would be a pushover because he started his second team but was forced to play Davis for almost the entire sixty minutes when the Pointers made their touchdown.

Charlie Burch and Ernie Ruppel were outstanding for the Central Staters while Chester Davis and Rackenback played a good game for De Kalb.

The lineups:

Stevens Point—6		De Kalb—6
Olsen	L.E.	Larsen
Otto	L.T.	Sandargos
Loewecke	L.G.	Dean
Weingartner	C.	Hill
Burch	E.G.	De Rango
Slotwinski	R.T.	Rackenback
Bohan	R.E.	Guillea
McGuire	Q.	Beak
Houck	L.H.	Terhune
Nimz	R.H.	Davis
Sell	F.	Sarenson

Stevens Point: Bucholz, Brunner, Rathke, Hitzke, Chartier, Ruppel, Jones, Olingy and Bernstein.

De Kalb: Jorgenson, Krankbuhl, Barber, and Lewis.

SHORTS IN SPORTS

A hot sports story is hanging fire around school but professional etiquette forces us to ignore it. ... Chester Davis, the colored flash from De Kalb, really gave a fine exhibition of ball carrying last Friday against the Pointers. ... According to comparative scores, Central State could beat Notre Dame. ... It's like this, Point tied De Kalb, De Kalb beat De Paul, De Paul tied Illinois and Illinois tied Notre Dame. ... Presto, Point can defeat Notre Dame. ... De Kalb was hoping to take things easy against Central State because they play an important game with Carbondale Teachers this Saturday. ... The Wisconsin Teachers College Conference was organized in 1912. ... Superior, La Crosse, Stevens Point and Rivers Falls were in the Northern Division. ... Whitewater, Milwaukee, Oshkosh and Platteville were in the Southern Division. ... Stevens Point won the Northern Division title but lost out to Milwaukee in the finals. ... In 1910 Stevens Point Normal played six games, all with high schools, and won only one, against Stanley. Charlie Burch, assistant to Coach Kotal, is in charge of organizing an intramural touch football tournament. ... He expects that both fraternities will have an entry and each gym class will have a team. ... any other team is welcome to enter. ... The announcer at the De Kalb game pronounced Charlie Houck's name "Hooch". Charlie was jumping up and down in anger every time his name was called.

Upsets Mark Weeks Tilts

Last week in our predictions we didn't do so well. We predicted 24 correctly, 3 were ties and we had six wrong for an average of .800. This dropped our average for the year a few percentage points leaving it at .866.

Here's hoping we can raise it a little this week:

- Minnesota over Wisconsin.
- Kansas over Arizona.
- Army over St. Johns.
- Georgia over Auburn.
- Baylor over Loyola.
- California over Stanford.
- Carnegie Tech. over Holy Cross.
- Illinois over Chicago.
- Syracuse over Colgate.
- Dartmouth over Columbia.
- Detroit over Creighton.
- Duke over North Carolina State.
- Duquesne over Marquette.
- Fordham over St. Mary's.
- Georgia Tech. over Florida.
- Gonzaga over Portland.
- Yale over Harvard.
- Indiana over Purdue.
- Nebraska over Iowa.
- Ohio State over Michigan.
- Navy over Princeton.
- Notre Dame over Northwestern.
- Pitt over Pennsylvania State.
- Washington over Oregon.
- Texas Christian over Rice.
- Villanova over Temple.
- Tulane over Sewanee.

Al Bucholz

Bucky has been the regular quarterback for Coach Kotal since Warren Becker, the greatest punter that Central State has ever had, left school. Al comes from Merrill where he played both basketball and football in high school. He is almost as good on the hard court as he is on the gridiron but is unable to spare the time to go out for the College team. For the last several seasons he has played baseball for Merrill in the Wisconsin Valley League and wields a potent bat.

Coach Kotal

Editors Choose All-Conference

The conference season is over, so every sports writer's thoughts turn to that most debatable question, who will make the all-conference team? After looking over the comment about each team and collecting our notes about the men, we have finally settled upon the following players as most representative of the caliber of football men to be found in the Wisconsin Teachers College Conference.

Ray Krzoska and Ed Olsen are an ideal pair of ends from the defensive standpoint and Krzoska is a great pass snatcher. Ted Katka and Caesar Morani are the answers to a coach's prayer for powerful tackles who are in there fighting all the time. At the guards, Morry Sires and Bill Dickhoff are unsurpassed for all around play. Both are fast chargers and are adept at pulling out to run interference.

In the backfield, Gaspar Farina gets the call at quarterback, due to his leadership ability and his all-round playing qualities. Jim McGuire again is chosen for the left halfback post and Carl Eckenrod, a quarterback, has been changed to a halfback to take advantage of his generalship and inspiring play. Donald Perkins was the main cog in the Platteville backfield and almost singlehandedly beat Central State.

Here are our choices:

All-Conference Team

- Olsen, Stevens PointL.E.
- Kafka, PlattevilleL.T.
- M. Sires, MilwaukeeL.G.
- Weingartner, Stevens PointC.
- Dickhoff, WhitewaterR.G.
- C. Morani, WhitewaterR.T.
- Krzoska, MilwaukeeE.T.
- Farina, WhitewaterQ.
- Eckenrod, MilwaukeeR.H.
- McGuire, Stevens PointL.H.
- Perkins, PlattevilleF.

Ten Lettermen Cage Nucleus

Basketball at Central State is in full swing, getting ready for the first game to be played here December 4. There are about thirty men at present out for practice. With ten returning lettermen and some stars from the high schools around, the prospects for another championship team looms high.

The complete schedule for 1937 and 1938 has not been completed but is expected to be in by next week. Coach Kotal plans to schedule games with Stout, Eau Claire, De Kalb Teachers, and the Alumni.

These games will probably be arranged over the weekend at a coaches' meeting at Minneapolis, of which Kotal is president. They also plan on picking their all-conference team in football and arrange their football schedule for next year.

The returning lettermen around which the team will be built are: Nimz, center, Belongia, center, Johnston, guard, Bohan, guard, Dnecker, guard, Warner, forward, Jaaska forward, Bishop, forward, Brunner, center, Rinka, forward.

Gib Pophal

And yet another Merrillite is leaving us this spring, Gib Pophal, who came into his own last year after playing as a sub in his first three seasons with the Central Staters. Gib is the silent type of player who talks with his deeds and never flies off the handle. He is extremely nervous before every game but steadies down after the first play has been run off. He played football in high school with Red Chartier and is a hard worker.

Ray Weingartner

Weighing only 156 pounds, Ray played all but twenty minutes of the 1937 football schedule and is as tough as they come. He was named on the all-conference team last year even though he is not the flashy type of player. He understudied Bob Broome, the all-conference center in 1934, and played as much at the pivot post as Broome did. Ray passed the summer by working on the railroad where he toughened up his muscles for the grid season.

Leonard Chartier

Red is another of those Merrill boys who have matriculated at Stevens Point to carry on the home town tradition. Red was a teammate for Al Bucholz in high school and played professional football for two years after he was graduated from Merrill High. He has been bothered by a weak shoulder for the last three years and was not able to play regularly. Red has been utilized as a climax runner during his college career because of his ability to go places when he gets into the clear.

RADIO NOTES

Bulletin boards of this college leave much to be desired in the way of artistic appeal and practical use. One of the most attractive bulletin boards at C. S. T. C. is the one maintained by the radio staff. Credit for this is due to Don Colby, student head of radio, Dr. Tolo, faculty advisor of the radio staff informs us.

C. S. T. C. is sponsoring two radio programs this semester. The band broadcasts a program each Wednesday afternoon at three-thirty o'clock. George Cartmill is announcer. Incidentally, Cartmill is one announcer who enjoys his work.

Receive Fan Mail

Each Thursday at 4:00 P. M. C. S. T. C. broadcasts over W. L. B. L. its series "Modern Practice in Present Day Teaching." At this time members of the faculty address the radio audience on subjects in their chosen field. Miss Hanson, member of the Wisconsin Education Committee by Radio, who is in charge of the program, receives letters daily commenting on these talks. The Tomahawk P. T. A. writes that it has changed the time of its meeting in order "to listen" to C. S. T. C.

The schools at Colby and Hawkins report that they are having teachers meetings at this time in order to take advantage of an opportunity of "cussing" and "discussing" this broadcast.

Undoubtedly, Central State Teachers College is very definitely "on the air".

Speech Class To Give Play

Intriguing blackboard signs dot the building informing the student body that "The Hoosier Schoolmaster" will be presented Monday, November 22, at eight o'clock.

Professor Leland M. Burroughs, director of the play, a speech class production, announces that dress rehearsal will be held Sunday evening.

Members of the cast are as follows:

Old Jack Means, school trustee Vernon Henrichs
Sara Jane, his wife . . . Margaret Davies
Bud, their son Frank Metcalf
Mirandy, their daughter
Marguerite Adams
Ralph Hartsook, the schoolmaster Lawrence Jozwiak
Hannah Thompson Lois Peden
Betsy Short Thelma Baiert
Squire Hawkins Don Olson
Mrs. Hawkins Eva Donermeyer
Von Schroeder Harry Yach
Walter Johnston . . . Truman Johnston
Mrs. Von Schroeder June Weiler
Pete Jones Jerry Krembs
Dr. Small Charles Mase
Granny Saunders Mrs. Jayne
Reverend Bowsaw G. Krembs
Squire Underwood . . . Lawrence Taylor
Attorney Bronson Jesse Caskey
Constable Ray Disher
Mr. Pearson J. Kosholtek
General Andrew Jackson . . . C. Sprague
Mrs. Thomson Mavis Preville

The Glee Club and orchestra will provide music between acts.

The play is singularly appropriate as a Teachers College production. It takes the audience back to the "good old school days, good old golden rule days". Or, should it read "good old golden ruler" days? Leland M. Burroughs, coach, spent some of his school days in the Hoosier state, by the way. C.S.T.C. looks forward to the production of "The Hoosier Schoolmaster."

Book Week Observed By Training School

Book Week, November 14-20, is being observed in the Junior High School Library by an exhibited selection of new books. This year's theme is "The Magic Highway to Adventure." It is a theme which should and does stir the imagination of any youngster. Last year's thought was that of fact-finding.

Some of the new books being featured this week are:

China Quest—Elizabeth Foreman Lewis.
Lost Covers—Edna Turpin.
Bright Island—Mabel F. Robinson.

Pecos Bill—Bowman.
New World Builders—Blanche Woods Moorehead.

On the Air—John J. Doherty.
Jasimine—Anna Ratzberger.

A Row of Stars—Jane Abbot.
Swords and Statues—Clarence Shatton.

King's Pardon—Gertrude Crownfield.

Thord Metooth—Alice Leale and Margaret Johansen.

Jayne Talks To Round Table

A Grammar Round Table meeting was held Monday evening, November 15. A program committee, Eleanor Ruchti, chairman, and Esther Bruyette was appointed for the next meeting. After a short business meeting the following program was presented:

Visual Education Demonstration Mr. Jayne
Declamation—"The Valiant" Eileen Rose

Mr. Jayne's talk included the demonstration of the public address system; the use of radio in

Glee Club Tour . . .

These are all repeat concerts excepting that which will be given at Merrill, Thursday evening. The Glee Club will arrive home Sunday afternoon.

Quartet To Present Programs

The men making the trip are as follows: First Tenors: Charles Hartvig, Sherman Groves, Granville Zimmer, A. Warren La Roux, Joe Bloom, and Gordon Cowles. Second tenors: Ted Meyer, Jesse Caskey, Gerald Eyler, Arthur Stapel, Fred Parfrey, Calvin Rockefeller. First Basses: George Cartmill, Tony Posluzny, Bill Knox, Hugh Brady, Bill Clements, Bill Larson, Tom Faucett. Second basses: Delos Kobs, Wilburt Rathke, Dearborn Spindler, Clyde Brunner, Ervin Westfahl, and Robert Olk who is substituting for Harold Dent, who will not be on the trip.

Roberta Peterson will be the accompanist for the entire tour.

Fifth Season

Besides the Glee Club's regular members, a quartet consisting of Gordon Cowles, Ted Meyer, Bill Clements and Clyde Brunner will present numbers at each program. Tom Faucett, Warren La Roux, and Delos Kobs will sing solos at each concert.

Student directors who will conduct numbers are George Cartmill, William Larson, Ted Meyer, Gerald Eyler and Delos Kobs.

This is the fifth season of the Central State Mens Glee Club. Thirty concerts were given last year and there is indication that the Glee Club will do equally well this year.

The trip will be made with the School Bus and two private cars.

connection with slides; the use of sound records as transcriptions of radio programs and illustrations of types of teaching for technique classes; and the various projectors, slides, and movies.

IS IT YOU?

The first is an old timer here: handsome, slender type... has cookie duster on and off... his attentions seem somewhat musically directed... hangs out in west end of downstairs corridor... much of a clown... has rating of Senior... was a pledge twice this semester... not particularly athletic... C. S. T. C.'s Don Juan.

Our second is a school marm of other days back for a degree... Actively engaged in outside activities main of which are College Theatre and newspaper work (a good columnist for what Point newspaper?)... She's short... a senior... working hard in the Training School... grades are excellent... she has a high average.

An Irish lad of Stevens Point... senior... slender... face typical of nationality... Greek... gets to most dances and can be seen "cutting" around... good fellow... well liked... hard worker... dependable... spends much time working outside of school... is the Damon of a pair of real pals... grades good... has been here a few years.

So far her efforts have been musical... some ivory picker... also heard on rather large instrument... Stevens Pointer... jolly and friendly... easy to get acquainted with... physically of little better than ordinary height and weight... has recently lived the life of a pledge... good grades in school... You'll know her by her sunny smile.

Former Student Succumbs To Illness

The student body of the Central State Teachers College has been saddened by the death of Mr. Clifford Talbot, a well-loved personality who was prominent on the campus and in the Music Department for the last two years. He passed away last Monday, November 15.

Cliff entered the University of Wisconsin this fall but was forced to leave school due to his ill health.

The Pointer staff is especially affected, for Cliff was a member of the staff during his last year in school. He was a faithful worker.

Greek Activities

Pan-Hellenic Formal

The Pan-Hellenic formal in the new gym following initiations and banquets of the fraternities and sororities, closed the pledging season for the first semester. A fair-sized crowd attended the dance, for which Norman Hinkley and the Castilians furnished the music.

Omega Mu Chi

Omega Mu Chi sorority's formal initiation and banquet took place last Saturday evening at 6:00 P. M. at Hotel Witter, Wisconsin Rapids.

The initiation services were performed by candle-light in the sun-room of the hotel. The new members of the sorority are Alice Bentz of Nekoosa, Eleanor Bodeen of Rice Lake, Anita Madsen of Phelps, and Alberta Veeder of Friendship.

The banquet in the main dining room followed immediately. The table decorations were in lavender and gold, the sorority colors. Each new member was presented with a corsage of lavender and yellow baby chrysanthemums.

President Phyllis Gikling welcomed the new members and the guests, and introduced Miss Sue Colman, guest-speaker. Other guests present were Mrs. E. A. Schwahn, honorary member, and Mrs. C. H. Cashin and Mrs. Harold Tolo, patronesses.

Tau Gamma Beta

Tau Gamma Beta sorority held its formal initiation at Hotel Whiting Saturday evening, when the following girls took the sorority oath at a candlelight service: Ethel Bucholz of Weyauwega, Ula Mae Knutson of Stevens Point, and Florence Mastey of Pulaski.

At the dinner, following the initiation, the sorority colors of old rose and delphinium blue were carried out in the table decorations of tapers, flowers and place cards. A traditional American Beauty rose was at the place of each new member. Miss Beatrice Richardson, honorary member, spoke on the aim of the sorority to help each girl develop her own personality. Mrs. Edward L. Kotal, patroness, was introduced to the new members after which Dorothy Richards, former president reviewed the history of the sorority which is the oldest Greek letter organization on the campus. After the new members were welcomed by Dorothy Mullarky, the president, the evening was brought to a close by singing "Happy Birthday" to Miss Richardson, followed by the sorority song.

Chi Delta Rho

Chi Delta Rho fraternity held its formal initiation at the fraternity house Sunday evening at 6:00 P. M., followed by dinner at the Gingham Tea Room at 6:30. Covers were laid for thirty. Bill Larson, presided at the dinner, and introduced Mr. George C. Allez, the guest speaker.

The newly-initiated members are John Verrill, Charles Mase, and Jim McGuire of Stevens Point, Gordon Cowles of Wittenberg, Wilbur Rathke of Merrill, and William McDonald of Wisconsin Rapids.

Phi Sigma Epsilon

The fraternity house was the setting for the initiation and banquet of Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity, Saturday evening. About thirty actives, alumni, and guests attended the dinner at which Charles Torbenson acted as master of ceremonies.

Speakers of the evening were Mr. V. C. Thompson of the faculty, and Mr. Arthur Thompson, an alumnus.

The new members are Jerry Dunn, Earl Michaels, and Charles Burch of Stevens Point, Fredrick Parfrey of Richland Center, Robert Bishop of Antigo, Robert Baker of New London, Ray Laschkewitsch of Goodrich, North Dakota, Dan Young of Bancroft, and Ralph Abrahamson of Sparta.

W. A. A. Notes

The W. A. A. will hold the first of a series of three social meetings at the Gingham Tea-Room, Friday evening at 6:30. All the girls who have shown an interest in sports and who would be eligible to join the organization have been invited to attend the dinner. A very clever Thanksgiving theme will be carried out in nut cups, place card, favors, and a centerpiece of a Puritan church and real Puritan men made out of dried fruit. An interesting talk is expected from our guest speaker, Miss Schwarz of Madison.

C.S.T.C. Concert Band Presents 7th Broadcast

Progressive Point Firms Advertise In Our Paper; Do You Patronize Them?

The Following Firms Believe In Our School; Will You Make An Effort To Remember Them?

It is not by chance or coincidence that the business firms enjoying the largest business are the ones who do the most consistent advertising. It takes repeated, systematic effort in any field to insure steady returns.

Advertisers who use the columns of the Pointer to call the attention of college folks to their products realize that they can benefit in two ways: the first, through the student purchases at their stores, and second, through the money which the students leave in other stores and households which will in turn be invested in Stevens Point.

Thoughtful college students realize that if it were not for the Stevens Point business firms our paper would be a small affair indeed. Their advertising makes possible many of the things which we are able to do. Their whole-hearted cooperation through their advertising and support should be recognized by the student body. Herein is printed a list of the Stevens Point firms who are interested in your college, the business establishments who have faith that your newspaper and my newspaper is the one which will guide you in making your local purchases.

If you feel friendly to your college and your student newspaper, who, after all, are only you, then take a little time off right now to study carefully the names of the business houses who advertised in the first few issues of the Pointer.

In that column you will find services and goods of all kinds; remember these community minded business men. We recommend them to you on your next shopping tour.

Nelson Hall Notes

The pleasant feeling of hospitality extended to those attending the County Teachers' Convention gave pleasure to all concerned. A luncheon was served at the Hall, Thursday, November 11.

Ethel Bucholz is recovering from a severe cold. She spent several days in the Infirmary at the Dorm.

Gene Connor visited at Madison last week end. Did someone say she hurt her ankle at the Football game?

To have one caller on Sunday afternoon is all very nice but when a certain blonde has three dates all at the same time—that's a monopoly.

Betty Johnson who has been living at Nelson Hall will commute daily from Wisconsin Rapids. We'll miss you, Betty.

Those attending a Lutheran League Convention at Menomonie Falls this weekend were Margaret and Elida Torkelson, Ruth Solsrud, Ruth Knutson, and Gladys Anderson.

Someone has said that a certain "tallish" couple are doing their part to make "noon dates" popular in Nelson Hall's Reception Room.
