Teachers' Convention Held At Wausau

College Faculty Members Take An Active Part

The 25th annual convention of the Central Wisconsin Teachers' Association will be held at Wausau, Thursday afternoon to Friday night, October 7 and 8. One of the finest programs possible has been arranged by the officials in charge and a number of the country's leading educators will be present.

Several members of the teachers college faculty will take an active part during the two-day convention. Prof. Norman E. Knutzen is chairman of the committee on resolutions and is secretary and treasurer of the Central Wisconsin Schoolmasters' club, which will hold a banquet at the Wausau Hotel, Friday noon. This will be the first regular meeting of the group this year and will be featured by talks by Dr. Francis Leonard Bacon, principal of the Evanston, Illinois, Township High School, and Josh Lee, the junior United States senator from Oklahoma.

Miss Susan E. Colman is chairman of the primary division and has been nominated to the committee of nominations. Prof. H. R. Steiner is chairman of the Social Science section and Miss Gertie L. Hanson will present an address to

Pre-Homecoming Dance Sponsored By Phi Sigs

Phi Sigma Epsilon Fraternity will sponsor its Annual Pre-Homecoming Semi-formal Dance at the Hotel Whiting, Friday night, Oct. 8, after the bonfire which will be held on Schmeeckle Field. The Castilians, one of Wisconsin's best-known bands, will furnish the music and the dancing is scheduled to start at 9:00 P. M.

The affair last year brought back many alumni members of Phi Sigma Epsilon as well as other alumni of C. S. T. C. and the Phi Sigs hope to duplicate last year's success.

Gerald Eyler is general chairman of the affair, assisted by Kenneth Storandt and Bob Pfiffner. Ted Meyer is in charge of advertising; Don Olson arranged for the music. The public is invited.

Welcome Back Alumni!

Homecoming is a joyous occasion. Old grads return once again to the scene of their former labor and play. To us at school it is a pleasure to meet friends of other years. It brings content to know that Commencement at C. S. T. C. need not mean "good-bye" but merely "so long" till Homecoming.

So once again your Alma Mater bids the alumni welcome. Happy Homecoming to you all.

Adventurer-Lecturer [Here This Morning

One of the finest assembly programs of the year will be presented in the auditorium this morning at 10 o'clock when Von Hoffman, a world-wide adventurer, will relate many of his exciting and interesting adventures. Von Hoffman has explored countries all over the world including Formosa, Jululand, Morocco, Egypt, Rhodesia, Cape Colony, Sudan, Tanganyika, Uganda, Congo, Transvaal, and many others, and his many experiences should be of great interest to his audience.

Tuesday morning, October 12, Le Petit Ensemble, a sextet of artists from the Chicago Civic Symphony, will give a varied musical program featuring talented soloists and a splendid string quartet.

College Band Leads Homecoming Parade

The College Band will lead the Homecoming Parade and will maneuver before the judges' stand.

In the afternoon before the game, the band will be heralded by a drum and bugle corps and will maneuver to position in front of the student body where a flag ceremony will be conducted. Between halves, the band will lead the spectators in a skyrocket. The letter "P" will then be formed and the "Purple and Gold" sung. With the forming of the letter "M", "On Wisconsin" will be played and sung.

President Hyer states that this group comes highly recommended and should provide an hour of grand entertainment.

The Purple And The Gold

Other schools of valor boast, Of victories galore;
Of laurels never lost, Of triumphs by the score.
Let them tell you of their prowess, Of warriors strong and bold,
But their colors ever lower, To the Purple and the Gold.

Our men are all victorious, In every state around,
Our athletes and debaters, Are winning fair renown.
Though we're proud of all Wisconsin, Whose fame's in story told,
Our heart's with Alma Mater, And the Purple and the Gold.

To the banks of old Wisconsin, When years have passed and gone,
As schoolmates we have parted, Our lessons all are done,
We'll return and show our comrades, We're as loyal as of old,
And cheer them on to victory, 'Neath the Purple and the Gold.

Parade, Game, Dance Features Of Week-End

Pep Meeting And Bonfire Begin Festivities Fri. Eve.

Yellow chrysanthemums will usher in Homecoming this week-end. The activities for this occasion will begin Friday evening at seven o'clock, at which time a Pep meeting will be held in the college auditorium. This will be followed by a bon-fire on Schmeeckle field. Freshmen have been joyfully collecting debris for the purpose all week. The meeting will adjourn in the traditional fashion.

At nine o'clock Phi Sigma Epsilon will hold its annual semi-formal pre-homecoming dance.

Parade Saturday Morning

Saturday morning will see the unveiling of the results of many an evening's work when the floats assemble for the big parade. The theme will be March of Time. Mr. Evans, chairman of the Homecoming committee, announces that prizes will, as is customary, be awarded the best floats.

Mr. Evans

The parade will assemble on East College Avenue shortly before 10 o'clock.

Thank You

Just a word of thanks to all who help make Homecoming possible at C. S. T. C. Special mention is due, we feel, to Mr. Rightsell, Mr. Schmeeckle, Mr. Watson, and Mr. Steiner of the Athletic Committee, and to Mr. C. E. Evans, General Chairman of Homecoming arrangements.

Society News

Y. W. C. A. Meets

The Y. W. C. A. held its first meeting of the year in the recreation room at Nelson Hall, last Thursday evening. The officers were introduced to the guests, and a short business meeting was held, during which plans for the coming year were discussed. The programs are to be based on hobbies—the development of new ones as well as those in which there is already an interest, and they promise to be both interesting and worth while. A float committee for Homecoming was appointed, headed by Leda Van Gilder.

After the business meeting, bunco was played, and a lunch of weiners, buns, and cocoa was served.

Y. W. C. A. meets on the second and fourth Thursdays of every month. All college girls are eligible for membership, and we hope to interest you all in our organization.

Homecoming Dance

The all-school Homecoming dance will be held in the New Gym on Saturday evening. Benny Graham's orchestra will play for dancing.

COOO!!

A grave error was made when Jerry Krembs was listed as one of the organization editors along with Miss Zilphia Webster. Jerry is an ardent supporter of the Iris and in appreciation of his loyalty, he is being named office janitor. so that he may be near the staff.

Miss Webster will however remain as one of the organization editors.

Informal Mixer

The Home Economics Club welcomed the freshmen of the Home Economics Department last Monday, October 4, at an informal mixer at the Sims Cottage.

The evening began with a peanut hunt, games, and later on refreshments were served.

Jenkins Addresses Kiwanis

W. G. Jenkins addressed the Kiwanis Club at luncheon Tuesday, October sixth, at the Hotel Whiting. Mr. Jenkins gave an interesting talk on War.

Nelson Hall Notes

Miss Ruth Stauffer who is in training at the Presbyterian Hospital of Chicago visited at the Hall Thursday, Sept. 30th.

An explanation of those happy noises in certain rooms on second floor might be that Mary Walmsley visited here over the week end. Miss Walmsley, who attended school here last year, is now taking a Physical Education course at LaCrosse.

Another guest of Ruth Smith and Grace Morgan was Miss Phyllis Davidson who is now teaching near Waupaca.

Marion Marshall of Omro has returned to the Hall after a week's absence due to illness. Yes, the "foursome" is once more complete.

Alberta Veeder had as her week-end guest her sister, Miss Barbara Veeder, who is a teacher at Lake Geneva.

Mr. and Mrs. Behnke and friends from Belleville visited Ruth Behnke Sunday. Ruth is recovering from an appendectomy. We understand "the friends" helped the recovery considerably.

Miss Emily Jakin, a graduate of 1937, visited her former roommate, Dorothy Gilbertson, last Saturday.

If it hadn't been for visitors, Nelson Hall would have been a quiet place with sixty-five girls signed out for week-ends all over Wisconsin. Among those spending the time at home were Catherine Piehl of Rhinelander and Anita Madsen of Phelps. Betty Warren visited at Land-O-Lakes, Arletta Newhouse at Oak Park, Illinois, and Margaret Kratz at Carroll College, Waukesha.

Have you seen the beautiful bouquet of gladioli in the Parlor? They are a gift of Ruth Smith and she says they grow "big" in Plainfield.

Third floor and all was well—But no!—a sob was heard from the head of the stair's room. More sobs and even some tears if we interpret the drip, drip, drip correctly. Softly we stole along. Slowly the door was opened. Oh, it's only Gladys mourning—(noon and night too). Yes, he is out of circulation for the present.

Central Staters Defeat Stout Institute, 7-0

Milwaukee Gulls Homecoming Foes

The Milwaukee State Teachers College Green Gulls, will be Central State's homecoming foe Saturday, Oct. 9. Last year the Pointers lost their first homecoming game since the dedication of Schmeeckle Field in 1931 to De Kalb teachers of De Kalb, Illinois. Last year Milwaukee defeated the Central Staters for the only conference loss suffered by Kotal's gridders. The boys are out for revenge this year and are determined to bring home the bunting.

The Green Gulls' football team showed promise of developing into a formidable factor in the Southern Conference in their games against Carroll College of Waukesha, one of last year's seven undefeated and untied teams and St. Norberts of De Pere. Although the Green Gulls were defeated, 19 to 0, by Carroll they have a team that flashed at times and once they start to click, they will be hard to stop.

Ray Krzoska, freshman end from Milwaukee, is a fine kicker who consistently boots the ball fifty and sixty yards. The guard posts are well taken care of by Eli and Morry Sires, both veterans of three season's play. In the backfield, Carl Eckenrod and Larry Janski will carry the burden of the ball-carrying and both men are stars at their position.

The probably starting lineups:

Stevens Point	Milwaukee
Olsen	L.E. Krzoska
Otto	L.T. Jacobs
Loewecke	L.C. M. Sires
Weingartner	C. Friedrich
Pophal	R.G. E. Sires
Brunner	R.T. Krahn
Bohan	R.E. Gunville
Bucholz	Q. Eckenrod
McGuire	L.H. Janski
Hitzke	R.H. Burns
Houck	F. Waraksa

SHORTS -IN- SPORTS

Charlie Houck has definitely decided to return to school and will be a valuable addition to the squad as soon as he gets in condition.... Harrison Olingy, a reserve end last year, has also returned to school and will help relieve the acute end situation where Ed Olsen and Fe Bohan have been holding out.... The new cheer leader, Miss "Swing-Time", and the Pep Club are to be commended for their efforts to instill the old spirit into the lackadaisical spectators.... It has been a long time since there has been any concentrated cheering at Central State's football games.... Don Bremmer sprained his thumb last week just at a time when he was beginning to click on his passes.... He may be kept out of the Milwaukee game by the injury.

Looking Back

This cut shows the scene of Saturday's game. The picture has a story behind it.

The ground now known to C. S. T. C. as Schmeeckle field was not many years ago a hideous looking sand lot. The total cost of the present field was approximately $3,800. Through the work of our President, Regent, and the faculty, Schmeeckle field came into being.

Prof. Schmeeckle gave an entire summer's vacation to the supervising of the new field. He brought to the task a knowledge of horticulture and a love of hard work, asking no compensation for his time and effort.

It was at President Hyer's suggestion in 1932 that the field was christened Schmeeckle field, the name it bears today.

Pointers Score in Second Period On 70 Yard Drive

Central State overcame a fighting Stout Institute team last Saturday afternoon by a score of 7 to 0 on a 70 yard drive in the second quarter with Captain Jim McGuire carrying the ball over for the only marker of the game. The Stoutonians proved surprisingly tough and even surprised their own supporters by the inspired ball that they played against the Pointers.

Johnston Out For Season

The Purple and Gold gridders were clearly the better team but when they were close to pay dirt something always came up to shove them back on their heels. Once they were penalized fifteen yards for an indigible man catching a pass and twice the Staters fumbled.

Pointers Hold Edge

The Pointers paid dearly for their victory, however, when Don Bremmer and Al Bucholz suffered sprained thumbs, Lyle Brunner was injured in the leg and hands and Ray Weingartner hurt his ankle and Don Johnston wrenched his knee and will be out for the rest of the season. Johnston's loss will be felt because he played a leading part in the game Saturday, twice reeling off runs of fifteen yards.

The play in the first quarter was even but for the rest of the game the Pointers held an edge over the Stout boys. The Central Staters made twelve first downs to

Progressives Meet

Among the many fields in which college students may seek to give an outlet to their interests at Central State Teachers College, is that which deals with social, economic, and political problems. The Young Progressive Club was organized by some of the college students who were especially interested in this field, and who thought that by collective thinking, studying, and acting they could somehow fit themselves for the part they must play as citizens of our United States. Intelligence on the part of the voters of this nation is essential for the preservation of our democracy, and that is the most important aim of the Young Progressive Club.

There was a Progressive outing at Iverson Lodge, Wednesday, October 6, at 7:30 P. M. Mr. Allez led a general discussion on the World War which was of great interest since he was one of those who went "over there" to do his part, and even more, to give his utmost to win for Uncle Sam. Entertainment and lunch were on hand; a small fee of fifteen cents was levied to take care of some of the expenses. Watch the Progressive bulletin board.

Miss May N. Roach will preside at a panel discussion of members of the rural and state graded school departments Friday afternoon while Prof. Peter J. Michelsen will direct the Central Wisconsin High School orchestra which is composed of selected members from the various high schools of the district.

Convention Opens Thurs. Eve.

The convention will open at 2 P. M. Thursday with assembly of two large sections, namely, the combined "all grades" section to be addressed by Miss Alice Keleher of Columbia university, and the junior and senior high school section at which Dr. Bacon will discuss "The Great Issues of Secondary Education". On Thursday evening, the Central Wisconsin High School orchestra, directed by Professor Michelsen, will give a concert. It is expected that this will be followed by Floyd Gibbons, famed radio announcer.

Address By Leda M. Phillips

Friday morning the program will consist of an address on "Brass Tacks" by Miss Leda Madeson Phillips of New York, immediate past-president of the International Federation of Business and Professional Women and associate editor of the Pictorial Review; a second concert by the high school orchestra and an address on "World Peace" by Josh Lee. Friday afternoon is given over entirely to sectional meetings and the convention will close with a dance by the Wausau Chamber of Commerce, Friday night.

Attention Freshmen

Freshmen advisors may at any time announce that they want a group meeting immediately after assembly on Thursday. When any such announcement is made the student is obliged to attend the meeting. This is as binding as any other college obligation.

Tips On Tomes

Your audience expects you to be interesting. Mr. W. D. Nesbit in his book After Dinner Speeches and How To Make Them has been for years one of America's most popular after-dinner speakers. This book can be of help and interest to the average after-dinner speaker who wishes to keep his audience up on their toes.

The Daily Newspaper in America by Alfred McClung Lee shows the evolution of the American newspaper and how the newspaper does not depend so much upon editors as upon social trends expressed within the pages. The discussion From Press to People covers historical beginnings to the Formation of the Associated Press.

Here is the book for coaches, physical education teachers and students. Safety in Athletics contains a fund of athletics and physical information gathered by Lloyd, Deaver, and Eastwood.

Life and Labor in the Old South by Ulrich B. Phillips contains much information about the land of Dixie, the cotton plantation problems of long ago and the life of the slaves, planters, gentry, and overseers that usually is rather indefinite within our minds.

America's Experience As a Creditor Nation by Madden, Madler, and Sauvain is a study of the significant phases of the international economic interrelations of the U. S. with the rest of the world.

Homecoming Dance

The sororities and fraternities are planning festivities in honor of the day. The grand finals will be the dance in the new gym, with Benny Graham's orchestra playing curtain call for C. S. T. C.'s 1937 Homecoming.

Lutherans Elect

The Lutheran Student Association met on Tuesday evening for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. They are:

President . . . Gladys Anderson
Vice President . . Albert Totzke
Sec'y. & Treas

..... Charles Hartvig.
The organization will meet the first and third Thursdays of each month. All Lutherans are urged to attend.

Watch the bulletin boards for announcements concerning meetings.

The guests were received by Phyllis Gikling and her sorority sisters in the reception room of the Home Economic parlors. A soft twilight effect was carried out through the use of candles. A seven-branch candelabrum stood on a table directly opposite the entrance. The flowers in the reception room were vases of yellow baby-chrysanthemums and purple pom-poms.

The tea table in the dining room was lighted by two-branch candelabra at each end of the table. The centerpiece, a "flower-flame" bowl completed the color scheme with purple tapers and yellow and purple flowers.

Mrs. Harold Tolo and Mrs. Palmer Taylor, patronesses, poured.
