Miss Susan Colman Elected To Central Wis. Teachers Board

Will Be President During Fifth Year

Miss Susan E. Colman, head of the primary department at Central State Teachers college, was elected to the executive board of the Central Wisconsin Teachers Association at the annual meeting held at Wausau last week. She succeeds E. A. Holn, principal of the vocational school at Wausau, who was president of the association during the past year.

The board is composed of five members each of whom serves four years as an executive and then automatically moves into the president’s chair the fifth year. As a result Miss Colman will preside over the association in 1942. Other members of the board include P. A. Tipler, superintendent of schools at Antigo, next year’s president; T. H. Roehl, superintendent of schools at Medford; W. P. Boyle, superintendent of schools at Wausau, and T. H. Roehl, superintendent of schools at Wausau.

Debate Squad Begins Extensive Schedule

Five Major Tournaments Constitute a Strenuous Program This Season

Wisconsin, Iowa, And Ill. Teams To Meet Here

One of the most extensive debate schedules attempted by Central State Teachers College in years confronts Coach Leland M. Burroughs and his debating squad this season. Five tournaments constitute a strenuous program and consequently Professor Burroughs is anxious to begin the tryouts and practices as soon as possible.

The first major meet is the invitational tournament to be held at Normal University in Illinois during the latter part of December. A few weeks later another invitational tournament is to be conducted at the local college with teams from Wisconsin, Iowa, and Illinois Colleges participating.

Mid-West Tournament

A forensic contest will be staged at Eau Claire on Saturday, February 19, which will consist of six different types of expression; oratory of the declamation type (speaker to select his own oration) oratory of the original (speaker to write his own oration); serious declamation; humorous declamation; extemporaneous speaking; extemporaneous reading. Each college will have a contestant in all divisions and coaches will act as judges.

Consolation Meet

The mid-west debate tournament, perhaps the outstanding meet which local debaters will attend, will be held at St. Paul during the first week of March. The men will compete at St. Thomas of the Minneapolis public schools; Miss Nellie Evjue, Merrill county superintendent of schools.

Mr. Burroughs

College while the women will debate at St. Catherine’s College.

A post season tournament, a consolation meet organized mainly for those individuals who do not compete at the St. Thomas tournament, will be held at River Falls shortly after the St. Thomas meet. This contest will provide students who are not able to make the regular squads an opportunity to gain experience in regular competition.

The question to be debated in all tournaments is the Pi Kappa Delta question: “Resolved, that the national labor relations board should be empowered to enforce arbitration of all disputes.”

Notice!

All students who wish to try out for the men’s or women’s debate squads should report to Mr. Burroughs today (Thursday).

College Band On Air Waves Each Wednesday

Each Wednesday afternoon between 3:30 and 4:00, Central State Teachers College Concert Band will broadcast a program of state and national tournament numbers. The purpose of these programs is to enable the band directors of the state to listen to the different arrangements and interpretations of these numbers.

It will be greatly appreciated if students who are free at this hour would listen to the broadcast and give comments to Mr. Michelsen.

Prizes Awarded Homecoming Floats

Prizes Given For Most Original Floats

Crepe paper may be wilted, costumes tinged with mud splashes, but the Homecoming parade must and did go on Saturday morning at eleven o’clock.

The following were highlights of the parade: The Phi Sig bull, we refer to the float, was unharmed by the rain. Don Schneecle purchased a bathtub at the Wodd’s auction for the monificent sum of ten cents. It appeared in the parade wearing the purple and gold and bearing the impreciation “Wash up Milwaukee.”

Prizes for the most original floats were carried off by the Tau Gamma’s; Grammar Round Table, and the Forum. It is hoped that the members of these organizations will not over indulge in chowder during the next few days.

The Tau Gamma Sorority presented a Chinese float, with the inscription, “Milwaukee hasn’t a Chinaman’s chance.”

Miss Victory was the theme of the Round Table’s presentation.

The Forum with a junk wagon gave sagacious advice “Junk Milwaukee.”

One of the most attractive floats, that of the girls of Nelson Hall, rode in an austin, the property of A. D. Hutter.

Chi Delta Rho went in for poultry farming. Their chickens advised “Laying for Milwaukee.” The chickens, by the way, are the property of Dearborn Spindler.

Student Opinion

Dear Editor:

For the first time since I started school here over three years ago, I didn’t have any evening engagement last night. The night before the Homecoming dance has been observed for years with a pep meeting, bonfire, and fireworks. Why has it suddenly become so lethargic? Why didn’t the Freshmen collect material for a bonfire? Is it because the upperclassmen have become so engrossed in their own affairs that they no longer take an interest themselves? After all, one cannot blame the poor Freshmen for not donating their duty to the upperclassmen when they themselves showed an interest in such a pre-Homecoming night.

Maybe it is a good thing we lost our game Saturday. Maybe a few defeats will remove our smug and self-satisfied feeling and bring a little more spirit back to our school.

The Photo Club is to be organized on a slightly different basis this year. A few new regulations were adopted at the last meeting. This year both old as well as new members wishing entrance into the club will be required to leave a slip of paper in Mr. Rogers’ office giving the following information: Name, class, and experience in photography.

This should be handed in not later than Tuesday, October 19. A committee will be formed for the purpose of investigating new members to be taken into the organization this year. All old members who do not do this will automatically be dropped.

Halloween Party

The Training School is having a party. The affair is scheduled for Friday evening, October 29. It is a Hallowe’en party. Costumes, witches, and refreshments are the order of the evening. Training school students and teachers, don’t miss the Hallowe’en party!

Nelson Hall Notes

Homecomers at Nelson Hall this week were Maryan Lutsey, now attending Moser; Erma Kane, Faye Yerke, Roberta and Ann McWilliams, Mary Wamsley, Phyllis Davidson, Marion Gaffney, Marie Gigstad, Jeannete Doughty, Avis Gerke, Estelle Greunke, Ann Williams, and Luella Tink.

Helen Pielh, Marianne Stauffacher, Eloise and Helena Torkelson, and Marguerite Cook visited sisters at the Dorm over Homecoming.

Mrs. "Bill" Herrick, Mrs. Clarence Schulte, and Mrs. John Eastling kept housemates waiting in the parlors while they visited with girls along the halls.

Miss Francis Hopper of Friendship visited Alberta Weeder for several days. "Billie" Weed and Shirley Webster were in to see "the crowd".

Guests for Glennis Christensen and Irene Fleeter were Berenice and Earl Fleeter, Carol Kananon, Thelma Crawford, and Evelyn and Victor Muir.

Rita Murphy is doing substitute teaching at Owen. She will teach Latin and English in the High School for two weeks.

Going! going! gone!—to the school show. New furnishings in dorm rooms were displayed as a result of an auction held next door. "Look at my lamp—got a bargain—if it works!" A minute later we heard "It works". Followed by shouts of joy. Such were the exclamations as the dormitories returned from the sale. Our musical baritone player on second floor brought home a much prized bust of Beethoven. Another girl came back and threw away orange crates to make room for a good "second-hand" book stand.

HEALTH SERVICE

Health Service under the capable leadership of Dr. Mars and Nurse Neuberger reports routine examinations of freshmen are about completed. All freshmen who have not as yet reported are urged to attend to the matter immediately.

Students are asked to watch the bulletin board for notification of examination appointments.

Although physical examinations are not compulsory for upper classmen this year, those wishing this service may receive it. Beginning next week Monday, Health Service will be open to upper classmen for physical exams. Dr. Mars will be at the office from ten to twelve each morning and from four to five in the afternoon.

Conversant (to a grateful friend)—Thanks—very much for the brandy peaches. Although the doctor wouldn't let me eat the peaches, I enjoyed the spirit in which they were sent.

Sport Heads

The sport heads in the W. A. A. are as follows:

Hockey... Marcelle Schulte
Tennis... Eleanor Theisen
Archery... Peggy Glennon
Dancing... Betty Schwahn
Basketball... Zorka Malesevic
Volleyball... Madeline Davel
Miner Sports... Ruby Ottem

Good Turn-Out

A large number of girls have signed up for fall sports. If all of them come out for the games perhaps something can be done. Beginners in hockey, tennis, archery and dancing should feel that these sports are equally as much, if not more so, for them as for those who have played before. Here's the chance to learn these games if you have not had the opportunity before and if you desire extra help the sport heads will be glad to help you.

Coach Agnew of Whitewater State Teachers College is smiling behind his hand these days when he thinks about his football prospects. The Quakers have the greatest all-round team in recent years. The coach, however, has been bitten by the "bogey" of the Eastern Division. The Pointers, last year's champions, are filled with confidence under Eckenrod, and precedent says they will defeat Milwaukee by at least 12 points.

Frank Hitzke

The Milwaukee line outplayed Central State forwards and was the deciding factor in the victory for the down-staters. The second touchdown for Milwaukee was made after Eckenrod had tossed two passes to Krzoska, putting the ball on the 2 yard line where Point was penalized to the 1 yard line. Kamens went over for a touchdown on a drive over the line. Krzoska, who had kicked the first extra point, missed the second one making the score 13 to 0. In the second quarter, Lieber intercepted a pass by McGuire on the Milwaukee 30 yard line and ran unopposed for a touchdown.
