Senior Placement Shows Unusual Seasonal Trend; Bureau Working Overtime

A. J. Herrick in an announce- ment to the Pointer today indicated that the placements for the coming season will equal or surpass all previous records. The Placement Bureau has received more inquiries during this year than at any time in recent years, and as a result, the best job offers for the graduates are expected to come during the months of June, July, and August. Jobs are "opening up" not only in the small high schools, but in the principal cities throughout the state. Pending state legislation is having a definite reaction upon teacher positions. The State Assembly is slated to take action upon this bill on April 21. The threat of unemployment supercedes their de- visions until such action is effect- ed.

This report indicates that the placement season will come up to the expectations of the placements made by recognized authorities for it. 1939 should, if present trends materialize, be one of the greatest in the history of teacher employment.

Health Center Makes T. B. Tests Available

The College Health Center, in charge of Dr. Fred Marrs and Miss Neuberger, has announced that the tuberculosis tests will again be made available to students of Central State within the next few weeks, providing a sufficient number of students express interest in taking the test. Applications for this free test should be made at once by signing the sheet provided in the main or in the nurse's office.

"All students will be wise to avail themselves of this opportunity to take these tests at no cost to themselves," suggested Dr. Marrs. Miss Neuberger added that any student who is willing to take the Wassermann test, also without charge, may do the same by stopping in at the Center between 11:00 and 12:00 noon on any week day.

The "T. B." test is given in conjunction with a city-wide program and represents the second one to be offered at the school this year, and the first this semester.

Faculty Takes "5% Cut" As Result Of Heil Activity; Civil Service Being Exempt

Edgar Doudna, secretary of the state board of normal school re- gents, announced that the faculty members of the state teachers college will be cut 5% for April, May and June.

"The cut," he said, "represents a compromise between an emerg- ing board and a budget for a 10% quarterly reduction in expendi- tures of all state departments and Governor Heil's ruling that savings should be effected without disturbing the pay scale."

Dempsey Effects Compromise

The governor fixed the cut at 5% after E. G. Dempsey, presi- dent of the board of normal school regents, presented a state- ment to the board last Monday saying that it would be necessary to cut salaries 10%.

The governor assured Dempsey that the full cut would not be levied against the unused balance appropriated for teachers college faculty salaries for the current fiscal year but that the 5% cut would be necessary by June 30th.

Salaries of civil service em- ployees will not be affected.

Biennial Action Submitted To Assembly By Committee; Final Action Deferred To April 16th

The much discussed new Wisconsin biennial budget which for the past several weeks has been in the hands of the joint finance committee of the state legislature was brought out and submitted to the assembly last Friday. According to legislative rule, all bills of such a nature are first considered, after being brought out of the committee, by the lower house.

The budget has been altered considerably from the form recommended by Governor Jules P. Heil and represents a $1,296,246 increase over the one which he proposed. This brings the total Wisconsin budget for the two years of the next biennium, July 1 to June 30, to $81,654 million dollars.

This in turn is a substantial increase over the budget now in operation. In spite of this increase of the total budget expenditure, the voice of the House and the Senate have found that the state school budget should be increased to meet the needs of the state. The House approved this increase and the state Senate concurred. The increase is expected to be about $760,000, according to the figures presented to the present assembly.

The committee restored $41,500 of the Governor’s proposed 17% decrease of $789,741.

State assemblymen and senators after a preliminary study of the measure immediately began to prepare amendments. The entire measure promises to result in a bitter fight in both houses before its final passage in one form or another.

The committee on education of the senate introduced in the upper house another bill of interest to state teachers’ colleges. It would abolish the University board of regents, the state board of normal school regents, the Wisconsin mining school board, and the state board of vocational and adult education, and substitute a new department headed by a state superintendent of public instruction and a board of education of nine members. These offices would be filled by appointments by the governor. Two members of the present board of regents for the teachers colleges would be put on the first new board. Board members would serve nine-year terms.

Some of the boys around school would like to have a golf team. “Clump” Oik, La Verne Van Dyke, Jim Duerck, Bill Maller, Pete Tetzynski all are players of mettle. Central State could be well represented on the links if such plans could be made.
