C.S.T.C. Mourns Death of Smith

Teachers Convene At Wausau Friday; No Classes Held

The twenty-eight annual convention of the Central Wisconsin Teachers association will be held Friday of this week at Wausau. W. P. Boyle, Superintendent of Tomahawk schools and Chairman of the convention, announces that the theme this year will be: "Democracy, Education, Americanism."

Noted Speakers on Program

Informal Discussions

Round table discussions on the arts, business education, foreign languages, instrumental music, library work, industrial arts, mathematics, science, physical education for girls, English and speech, social studies, vocal music, and home economics will be carried on throughout the day in special rooms.

Entertainment

Featured on the evening program will be the Wausau High School orchestra under the direction of Karl Griel, and the combined High School chorus conducted by Peter D. Tkach. The annual Teachers' Dance at the Elks Club will be held immediately following the program in the auditorium.

College Closes Doors Monday as Gesture of Respect to President

Memorial Services Thursday Morning

Students, faculty members, alumni, and townspeople mourn this week the passing of President E. T. Smith. Monday's classes did not meet, and social events for the week were cancelled. Death came to Mr. Smith after an illness of two weeks duration. He had been suffering from bronchial trouble and had not been able to remain at the college for very long periods in the past week. Saturday evening, as his condition had grown serious, he was rushed to St. Michael's hospital and died a few minutes after treatment was begun.

Long Faculty Service

Mr. Smith came to Stevens Point in 1909 as a history instructor at the old Normal school. In 1920 he became director of the high school department, and in 1930 he was made chairman of two committees, the advanced standing committee and the administrative committee. He carried on these combined duties along with his teaching until he became President, succeeding Dr. Philip Falk.

Wrote Several Books

A number of history text books were written by Mr. Smith, and several pamphlets were published during his teaching years. He was released from the various aspects of stage production that a class will be offered in stage and dramatic fundamentals. This class will be offered from three to five P. M. Tuesdays and Thursday, and will be under the direction of College Theater's faculty advisors, Mr. Burroughs and Mr. Jenkins. The first class will begin Monday, October 3, in Mr. Burroughs' room.

The purpose of this class is to prepare students for dramatic work. The course will be particularly valuable to those students planning to teach dramatics. Credit will be given only for participation in College Theater productions. To become a participant one must try out and win a place in the production. A one-half extra-curricular credit will be given for each semester.

College Theater office will be open to all Theater members, and other students interested in theater, daily from three to five.

Spirited Elections Held Thursday

The election of class officers was held Thursday morning, September 26, at 11 o'clock. The seniors chose as their President the well known Gerald Walder, and as Vice President, the Junior class, Gerald will reign as king over the senior ball.

Rollie McManners of Black River Falls who is enrolled in the junior high school and who is active in the college band was elected vice-president.

STUDENT SPARRING

(Ed. Note: This department is conducted for the purpose of stimulating the expression of opinions advanced by students and faculty members of the college. The right of editing and rejecting contributions is reserved.)

Dear Mr. Editor,

I wish to use the Student Sparring column to put in a "kick" ask on the way the time for class elections was announced. And why am I doing this? Because I am a member of one of the political cliques into which this student body has degenerated. But that does not mean that election time should be thrown at the student body like a bomb, even with political cliques, that is not the fair and sensible way of carrying on elections.

Why? Because in an institution of this size a secret is hard to keep. In the recent class elections one of the cliques within the student body showed a surprising amount of strength because its members knew of the time of the elections the day before. This gave them time to decide on a slate of officers and also to make necessary personal contacts. The other political cliques had no time in which to get their machinery into high gear. No, again is such a procedure fair and democratic?

ROUND IN ABOUT

An English playwright attended a first night performance of an American show. It was pretty bad and in the second act he said to the woman ahead of him, "Do you mind sitting on your hat-I can see the stage."

Last year in a survey made here of radio programs, the Ford Sunday Evening Hour "was found to be a favorite among the students". The program came back on the air for the season last Sunday with Lily Pons and her husband, Andre Kostelanetz as guest artists. If you missed the program last week watch it on the next.

EXCHANGE BITS

There are subversive activities going on in the college locker room. Recent doing among the rats and mouse population of these localities has come under observation. Lunching in the locker room by inconsiderate students is at the bottom of it all, so the college deans request that students lunch in the regular lunchroom to help improve the situation.

Singing fortifies health, widens culture, refines the intelligence, enriches the imagination, makes for happiness and endows life with added zest. Singing as a means of self-expression is a medium of release for pent-up emotions. Singing is healthful; it develops the lungs and purifies the blood by employing more completely the lungs of used air and filling them deeply with fresh air.

STUDENT VOICE—River Falls

There are 21,000,000 youth in America between the ages of 16 and 24. Girls outnumber boys by 200,000; 29 per cent of the fragile gender are married. 8,500,000 are steadily employed; 3,800,000 in school; and 6,000,000 jobless. Forty-four per cent of these young people through blood attend church regularly; 60 per cent believe war is needless and preventable; 16 per cent would refuse to go to war.

ROYAL PURPLE—Whitewater

Who do you want to win in November? Are you a Democrat or a Republican? Send us your reasons why you favor one or the other and we will print them. How about it, students and faculty members? Let's show a little of that old campaign fight!
Pointers Lose Dull Game to River Falls 13-6

Fumbles And Poor Blocking Cost Game

Minus the services of their all-conference half-back, Louis Posluszny, and having only the part time playing of Jim Hanig and Co-captain Roy Otto, the Pointer teachers lost to the River Falls teachers 13 to 6, Saturday at Schmeekle Field.

The Falcons scored in the opening quarter after a big punt went out of bounds on Point's 21-yard line. Trecker made a first down to the 9-yard line and Debas brought it to the 3-yard line. Boettcher, the fullback, then went over for the score and tackle Dubbe kicked the extra point.

The Red and White gridders scored their second and decisive touchdown in the third quarter on four plays. They recovered a fumble on Point's 1-yard line and Boettcher scored from the 3-yard line, but Dubbe failed to convert the extra point.

The Kotal men scored their only touchdown in the first quarter. A 40-yard pass from W. Peterson to Carnahan gave Point the ball on the Falls 30-yard line. Koehn picked up 3 yards at center, then on the next play broke clear on a cutback to score on the 27-yard run. Fritch missed a place kick for the extra point.

Missing signals when on offense and poor blocking by the downfield of the Purple and Gold gridders.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

All men students interested in participating in six-man football should signify their intention by signing up on coach's bulletin board.

The games will be played strictly according to regulations. That means that there will be regular tackling, and the men will play the sim- ply 'touch football'. The games will be played on Schmeekle Field and some equipment will be furnished by the Athletic Department. Students should keep in mind the fact that six-man football is rapidly increasing in popularity. When seeking teaching positions would-be teachers are often asked what outside activities they are capable of handling. Those having played the six-man game will be able to use this as an extra-curricular activity and will have a practical working knowledge of it. Teams should be made up accordingly.

Also, if there are any who have not yet signed up for soft-ball they should do so at once.

Frankie Koehn's 27-yard run for a touchdown Saturday was one of the finest ever seen on Schmeekle field. The Little Axe, as he is called by his classmates, scored his second touchdown on three occasions, but he managed to break the deciding score. He passed on the River Falls team had his hands on him. Frankie's powerful legs and shifty hips made him a hard man to bring down...Coach E. L. Kotal lost Sam Carnahan to the Illini Country Club golf championship this summer. Assistant Coach in the Illinois Wesleyan football game in 1934. On that day Carnahan was one of the first Illini men to successfully score on a punt play. That day Carnahan's giant tackle all over the field. Tony was picked by all the major sport writers this year. That is one of the best line-men in the National Professional League...Joe Goodrich recorded his greatest thrill in the Illinois Wesleyan football game in 1934. PHOTO CLUB

The Photo Club held its second meeting of the year Wednesday afternoon, September 29, in Mr. Roger’s room.
Many members have been admitted this year to fill the vacancies left by the graduates.

The first order of business was adopted which was drawn up last spring but was not by Mr. Faust, the faculty advisor, and duly approved. The following officers were elected for the first semester:

Director............. Wallace Bartos
Robert Abb
Donald Becker
Secretary
and Treasurer .... Fay Wendrow

The directors will select a chairman from their group to preside at the meetings.

Plans were discussed for a school dance to be held, October 26.

SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB

The first meeting of the Social Science Club was held last Wednesday, September 26. The members decided on doing research this year in the field of foreign relations, as they especially affect our domestic problems and policies. The first topic will be the recent Havana Conference to be discussed at the next meeting to be held on Wednesday, October 9, at which time new members will have their records scanned. The requirements for membership are a social science minor and a 2.1 grade point in this minor. The club is limited to a membership of twelve.

The present members are: Edward Wacholz, President Donald Aucutt, Vice-President Phillip Anderson, Secretary-Treasurer Earle Siebert Norman Prownek Charles Miller Dr. N. O. Reppen, Faculty adviser

Y.W.C.A.

Thursday night a large group of interested girls assembled for the first meeting of the Y.W.C.A., room of Nelson Hall. It was at this which was held in the recreation meeting that the President Viola Gerike, gave the meaning of the organization to the new comers. An invitation, to become a Y-Dub, was extended to all girls in the college regardless of race or creed. Numerous plans were made for the forthcoming year.

The meeting was then turned over to Glendy Chapin who introduced Miss Susan Colman, the speaker of the evening. Miss Colman gave the girls valuable hints on “Personality”, the element within us.

NEWMAN CLUB

Last Thursday evening, September 26, the Newman Club held its first meeting of the year. Officers elected were: President............. James Bagnew
Vice President ............ John Kelley
Treasurer ............ Katherine Metcalf

Father Geimer, assistant of St. Stephen’s Church, is the new chaplain for the Catholic Club. He was introduced to the members by Miss Roach, faculty advisor, who gave a short résumé of the Newman Club history and urged every Catholic to be an active member of the club.

“The Newman Club should be an important part of the school life of every Catholic student. Make sure that you are a member of the Newman Club,” Miss Roach said.

OMEG TEA

The Home Economics Patrons with their decorations of garden flowers were the scene of the Ome­ga’s annual fall tea, Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o’clock. The college girls, faculty members and fac­ulty wives were the guests for the occasion. In the receiving line were Cora Mae Anderson, Ruth Rathke, Secretary Larson, Janet Rogers and Ruth Stelter. The tea table had a centerpiece of lavender asters and yellow chrysanthemums and tall yellow, a nd mints in the same color to the attractive of the table. Mrs. Charles H. Cashin, patro­ness, and Mrs. Harold M. Tolo, honorary member, poured. A printed list of the sorority members was given each guest as a favor.

SIGMA ZETA MEETING

Sigma Zeta, honorary science fraternity, held its first regular meeting on Wednesday, September 23. Committees for the work of the year were appointed by the Master Scientist, Bob Burkman. The possibili­ty of a homecoming luncheon for the alumni was discussed. Faculty members present were: Miss Bessie May Allen, Mr. T. A. Rogers, and Mr. Gilbert Faust.

Collaboration Corner

As we write this we are thinking of President Smith. It is hard to realize he is gone. Death is not a part of the thing called life.

In our travels this week we noticed this sign in the Eat Shop: "If you don’t like our form of government, there are still boats running to Europe." We work so hard focusing the microscope for Jeanette Ehlers in the lab the other day—and then she still wouldn’t go to the show with him. We can’t resist aiming a few nasty cracks at the crowd that attended the game Saturday. The subs of the Riviera Bar lost more noise than our entire student body. Then when the game began to sag a little everyone started walking out on the team. We showed up as a bunch of pretty poor losers. This is said to be a burned child dreads fire and a newly married man certainly avoids his old flames.

Evelyn Hales slipped in the bathtub over at the dorm Sunday night and almost flooded second floor. Paul Swenson is the latest to knock on line in line at Nelson Hall. He waits for Florence Theisen..... Anita Madsen and Betty Fitzke were back for the game Saturday..... Frankie Plentz got ten minutes on the telephone last week trying to talk Alice Wickman into going out with him, but he didn’t get to first base. It’s usually story—a boy back home..... Joe Treder and Evelyn Tetzler are always together..... Someone stuffed the Sophomore ballot box again this year. Hell got four votes too.....

Seeing it’s football season...... A freshman took his sweetheart to see an important football game. The girl was a film fan and not being interested in football, was soon bored by the game. As the team came out she huddled her companion. "Let’s go out she said. "This is where we came in."

We wonder who’s been on Chi’s mind the last few days—she spent ten minutes trying to open her kitchen lock box with a can opener before she realized she wasn’t using a key.

My mind was set upon one thing, while trying to do another.

Twas awful—true—to try to bring Success—with a can opener! Is the Forum going to awaken from its lethargy for another year? Some students see no sense in such an organization—one such person gave this reason—"The Forum is merely an organization comprised of students who don’t belong to anything else."

What do you think?

A bug-man who visited the dorm again the other day on the trail of cockroaches has had the other dorms at Central and in the second floor on a roach-bench!

There is no more valuable subordinate than the man to whom you can give a piece of work and forget it, in the confident expectation that the next time it is brought to your attention it will come in the form of a report that the thing has been done. The man to whom an executive is most grateful, the man whom he will value most, is the man who accepts responsibility and goes ahead and does his task in an efficient, Self reliant manner."—Gifford Pinchot.

Here’s a last minute bit of what this writer calls "stuff of most intense interest"—on Oct. 7 Freddie Nims takes "for better or for worse" Miss Ruth Youngis, Pollack, church, etc. The wedding will be held in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church at Oshkosh. Best wishes Fred and Ruth.

This think one over before you go to sleep tonight: "There is nothing good but thinking makes it so."

POINTER ADVERTISERS GET BULLETIN BOARD
Business Manager Keith Nelson announced with this issue Pointer advertisers will be given free space on a large bulletin board which has been constructed on second floor near the auditorium.

"Any material Pointer advertisers may have to display," states Mr. Nelson, "will be placed on the board may have to display," states Mr. Nelson, "will be placed on the board which is located in one of the most favorable spots in the main building. Students may well profit by turning their attention daily to this board for announcements of bargain offers, etc., which our advertisers sponsor. We want this to be a permanent feature at Central State, so begin now to take advantage of it at once."

Round ‘n About
next Sunday at 8:00 P. M. over C.B.S. It will be worth while.

This past season was a hard one on summer play houses, but Edna Forber gave vent to her desire to be a Bernhardt and kept the theater at Maplewood, New Jersey out of the "deep red" when she played Fanny Cavendish in The Royal Family which she and George Kaufmann wrote in 1927.

The Howards of Virginia, will be here soon to make a big picture. Remember Martha Scott, who played Emily in Our Town—she has a nice part.

The little man who wasn’t there eats good posties with evaporated milk . . . now where did he come in?

I’m sure some of you will see the logic in this—
Monday Morning
It’s seven-fifteen
By the clock on the table,
My watch says six-thirty,
The hall clock strikes eight,
It’s six-forty-five
By the wall clock; I’m able
To sleep five more minutes,
Without being late.

NOTICE!!

Mr. Evans, Chairman of the Homcoming on October 12, has this announcement: 'Make all your floats to withstand rain or shine weather, as the parade will be held regardless of climatic conditions.'

A Cub's Eye View Of Game Broadcast

Dear old Gus—

Good kid, I'm getting up in the world now! I finally got on the Pointer staff; I'm only a cub reporter yet, but maybe when I'm through this year, they'll make me newsman.

But that isn't all I was going to tell you. Last Saturday I got my first assignment. The boss, (he's really the editor, but I call him 'the Boss') told me I should go to the game and watch it from the broadcasting booth so I could tell all the people who read the Pointer how they broadcast a football game from here.

That was kinda hard for me to do, because as each play is made and the ball goes from one player to another he has to point to that player's tag on the line-up board. This way the announcer always knows who's in the game. The spotter has to be fast because players as each play is made and the ball goes from one player to another he has to point to that player's tag on the line-up board so the announcer knows who has the ball all the time.

In this first section of the booth there's another fellow, on the other end, who is "relief" man. He relieves the announcer—he talks before the game, about the weather and such things and then introduces the announcer. Last Saturday between halves he interviewed Mr. Mansfield who was refereeing the game. He's a big-shot, I guess, from the "U"—has charge of the varsity baseball team.

In the other half of the booth the newspapermen sit to take notes on the game.

The announcer asked me if I wanted to hear the recordings played back that he made from the game staﬀs the coach and writes the name and number of each player on little round tags, with holes in them, that slip over the nails. Next to that board there's another one with nails on, too, where they keep the tags with all the other players' names and numbers. Then when a substitution is made, the man in charge of the second-board gives the right tag to the spotter who changes it on the line-up board. This way the announcer always knows who's in the game. The spotter has to be fast because as each play is made and the ball goes from one player to another he has to point to that player's tag on the line-up board so the announcer knows who has the ball all the time.
