Famous Yodelers To Appear Here at Thurs. Assembly

Fraunfelder Family To Present Colorful Program

The only four part yodelers in the U.S.A., the world famous Fraunfelder Family from the High Alps, will present yodel melodies and songs in four languages Thursday, October 28, at 11:00 in our college auditorium. This family is highly recommended by music departments of Hollywood motion picture studios.

R. Fraunfelder, the only Swiss Yodeler from the Swiss Alps, wrote the Yodel Melodies for the following motion pictures: Mad About Music (Universal) Paradise for the Yodeler from the Hollywood motion picture studios.

A few centuries later "unusual, full of life and human interest. It is "unnatural, clean, sparkling, educational, colorfully and quaintly costumed".

ATTENTION STUDENTS!

Acting President C. F. Watson has called to our attention the problem of lights in the college building. It is necessary that the cost of lighting be kept down as much as possible, and the Pointer wishes to emphasize this fact to the students right now. Let’s give Mr. Watson our wholehearted cooperation in this matter. TURN OFF ALL LIGHTS NOT IN USE, AND DO NOT LEAVE LIGHTS BURNING WHEN YOU LEAVE THE BUILDING. This pertains to all organizations and groups as well as to individuals.

No "Pointer" Nov. 6

Because of the Milwaukee Teacher’s convention the Pointer will not be published next week.

Stiles’ Film Talk Well Received At Assembly Program

A film talk on “Maritime New England” was presented by Dan Stiles last Thursday morning in the college auditorium. Vivid descriptions were given of the industries along the coast—fishing, shipping, and ship-building.

Gunther’s “Ten Most Interesting People”

In the current issue of Youth Today, John Gunther, world-rovning historian, lists these “ten most interesting people whom I have come to know”—Archibald MacLeish, poet and Librarian of Congress; Winston Churchill, Prime Minister of Great Britain; Sinclair Lewis, author and playwright; Dr. Wilhelm Stekel, psychiatrist of London; formerly of Vienna; Madame Chiang Kai-shek, wife of the Chinese Generalissimo; Mahatma Gandhi, Indian leader; The Dutchess of Windsor; Leon Trotsky, Revolutionist; Eamon De Valera, Irish statesman; and H. G. Wells, British writer.

Mr. Neale Talks At Plainfield; Will Also Speak At Milwaukee

"I Wish My School Board Wouldn't"—the topic of Mr. Oscar Neale’s speech given at the School Board Convention at Plainfield, Tuesday, October 29.

Next Friday at the State Teachers Convention at Milwaukee he will address the Grammar Grade Section on "Conservation of Energy" or "Problems of the Bright Child".

Links Religion To Liberty

Religion is the mother of human liberty, contends Lloyd V. Moore in a thought-provoking article, "It's Human to Believe." Says he in part:

"In the eighth century, B. C., a Jewish prophet, without office or any other right, dared to oppose his king on the ground that the inner voice of God was to him a greater authority.

"A few centuries later a Greek philosopher asserted the belief that within every man lay something which made it possible for every man to reach truth in his thinking. He gave the credit for this discovery to a spirit which he said lived within him. "Out of these two cases of religious insight there came that idea of liberty which we cherish as the basic principle of American life.

"There are certain great faiths which have been the beliefs of mankind for ages. Today these faiths have been set aside by multitudes of people, and the petty nationalisms of Europe and Asia are being substituted—-for loyalties to national leaders like Hitler and Mussolini and the Japanese Emperor contain all the essential elements of religion.

"There is no question of whether we shall be religious or not. Human nature seems to take care of that. We cannot help being religious. The question is what kind of religion shall we use in being religious? In our battle to make this world an honest, decent, humane place in which to live, shall our religion lend impotence or strength?"

High School” Meeting

At 10:00 A.M. Thursday, October 31, the High School Department will hold an organization meeting including the selection of officers. Each member of the department, of every class, from freshman to senior is expected to be present.

The meeting will be called by Mr. Rightsell, director of the Division, to reach truth in his thinking. He gave the credit for this discovery to a spirit which he said lived within him.

“Out of these two cases of religious insight there came that idea of liberty which we cherish as the basic principle of American life.

“There are certain great faiths which have been the beliefs of mankind for ages. Today these faiths have been set aside by multitudes of people, and the petty nationalisms of Europe and Asia are being substituted—-for loyalties to national leaders like Hitler and Mussolini and the Japanese Emperor contain all the essential elements of religion.

Roosevelt and Ruin

Supporters of Franklin D. Roosevelt argue that the President merits a third term on his record of experience as the country's leader for eight years. In the October 28 issue of WEEKLY NEWS REVIEW, published at Washington, D. C., there were listed several Roosevelt 'experiences' which the Washington NEWS had previously published. These 'experiences' should have a vital bearing upon the minds of the American voters who go to the polls on November 5. I quote:

'The experience of spending more money than any other president.'

'The experience of incurring the biggest public debt in this country's history.'

'The experience of keeping spending always ahead of income, although federal revenue has been almost trebled.'

'The experience of building the federal pay roll to record size.'

'The experience of expanding bureaucracy to unprecedented proportions.'

'The experience of declaring more emergencies and exercising more power than any other peace-time president.'

'The experience of seeing new enterprise remain stagnant longer than ever before.'

And the experience of seeing more Americans unemployed for more years than ever before.'

Wendell L. Willkie has had no such 'experience.' He comes to the voters of our great country with but long years of experience as a business executive. He knows men. He knows the problems of labor. He knows that industry must be given a free hand to expand and provide employment for the nation's idle. He has the confidence of millions of anti-New Dealers who, as Democrats, Republicans, Independents, etc., have joined the Willkie ranks to defeat the third-term.

The New Deal has, since 1933, taken definite steps toward dictatorship. In a current "time-table" of dictatorship published by the National Committee To Uphold Constitutional Government, of 22 steps to dictatorship listed it was shown that the United States has taken 17! Included in that list are wasteful public works, concentration of power in one man, undermining and controlling the courts, government by executive orders, imposing of confiscatory taxes, restricting private investments, piling up debts and deficits, imposing planned economy, and enlarging the national debt.

Can the United States go on as it is under the shadow of totalitarianism, or has the time come for a new awakening—a "new deal" from a new leader? Every student at C.S.T.C. who is eligible to exercise the privilege of the polls, and every college faculty member ought to be intensely interested in this election on November 5. It is your duty to vote!! It is your duty to elect a man to the highest office in the land who will prevent America from becoming a dictatorship!

TAU GAMMA BETA

Tau Gamma Beta began as the Omega, Iota in 1906 during President Sims' administration. It was the organization's first chapter and a notable event from its early years. The meetings consisted of sewing sessions, entertaining boyfriends, and eating. Between 1912 and 1914, the girls had a sorority house on the corner of Clark and East Avenue. In 1911, they held their first formal at Rothman Hall, both Omega Iota and Tau Gamma Beta had pins, the one in present use, having been designed by Captain H irze. Irene Hite Thompson, a member of the sorority, wrote the two sorority songs.

The custom of having autumn teas originated about ten years ago in the Presbyterian Church. Another project undertaken was the establishment of a student loan fund to be given annually to one girl, and room when the recipient graduates. Present officers are:

- President ............Margaret Johnson
- Vice President.........Don Soderberg
- Corresponding Secretary ..........Fay Wendorff
- Recording Secretary ....Eden Rose
- Pan-Hellenic Representative ....Alice Wagner
- Treasurer ............Aloha Walters

Organization

The new actives of Sigma Tau Delta, who took part in the candle-light pledging at Kay Tyler's home Wednesday night were: Evelyn M. Mrutkowy, Betty Heim, Madeleine L. Brot, Diana Kamke, Viola Gercke, Dorothy Nelson, and Margaret Murphish. The associates include James Ringer, Gilbert Halverson, Mae Lundquist, Jack Ackerman, Myrna Rogers, Louise Donermeier, and Ruth Stelter.

At their meeting Miss Coleman talked on "Personality." Charlotte Reichel sang "Sylvia" and "Going Home." Coffee was served with pumpkin pie and whipped cream.

All L.S.A. members are cordially invited to attend a Halloween party Thursday, October 31, at the Parlor of the First English Lutheran Church. The party commences at 7:30 PM. The price of admission is 50 cents.

Kindly sign your name on the L.S.A. bulletin board if you plan to attend.

Ball Committees

The Senior class, at a meeting held Oct. 29, announced the following committees for the annual Senior Ball to be held Dec. 14: Jack Vincent, general chairman, Marjorie Jacobs and Katherine Mezochuk, decorations; Lou Nature and Margaret Nettleton, advertising and tickets. Bob Nixon, programs; Rita Russell, invitations and chaperones, Earle Siebert, music, and Louise Reese, refreshments.
Downwind's Dodo Talk

Well-lieres your windiest dodo back with you again after a weeks absence due to a bit of sabotage in the Point Mail Bag.

The latest news in our field is that the "nineteen men and a girl" have solaced. Russ Fredericks, Bob Steiner and Jean Roberts were among the final solos.

The boys from the hangars report that our little dodo dhen, Jean, sets a plane down like a veteran. One was heard to say, "Her landings are as smooth as her looks, and that's something."

And here is some good news from Wausau. The State Branch of the National Aeronautics Association has re-elected our old friend, Archie Towle, to his third successive term as state governor.

Archie will be remembered as the flight instructor of C.S.T.C.'s first flying class, and a mighty good instructor he was too. The man he trained rated with the best in the state.

He also obtained his state inspector's licence recently and is now able to give "private" flight tests.

From the Locker Room

by Jimmy Kadler & Jimmy Acgu

Just a word in recognition of the men behind the athletic activities; Mr. Schmeeckle, Mr. Pierson, Mr. Jayne, Mr. Morrison. It is the job of these men to iron out the problems of the athletic department. All these men have shown great interest in College Athletics. The football field was named after Mr. Schmeeckle for his fine work in plowing the field, the football players at Mankato Teachers College, Mankato, Minnesota are lucky. A dozen or so girls of that institution have offered free kisses to the men scoring touchdowns. Good idea. Although the crowd was pretty slim Saturday nevertheless our team displayed well. If you think Ted Fritsch is big you ought to see his dad and his oldest brother. Ted is a rust of the family. Coach was all smiles after the St. Cloud tilt. It is a feather in our hat in more ways than one. St. Cloud is at first supposed to have the best Teacher's College team in Minnesota. Our boys didn't seem to believe what they had read. We thought Van Dyke, Reading, Frisbie, Peterson, Koenh, and Carnahan played very good ball. But, it takes eleven men at all times.

Milwaukee will dedicate its new stadium next Saturday when they play host to Central State Gridder. The setup for the game is excellent from the Koalition's standpoint. Last year the Green Gable defeated the Pointers 27-6 and ruined their homecoming. This year with Milwaukee celebrating their homecoming the Purple and Gold Gridders hope to reverse the tables. Sweet revenge is in their minds.

Louis Poulsen underwent a minor operation on his leg at 8:50 A.M. Saturday. Seems the trouble was in the shape of a blood clot. He listened to a broadcast of the game and almost jumped out of bed when the Pointers fumbled on the two yard line. Incidentally Lou has been flooded with gifts from his enthusiasts including a certain Tau Gam. Norman Nye is his daily visitor. "Poz" is none the worse for wear, however, and will be ready to "go" in another week. We can use him. Coach Ted Menzel scored a touchdown against Whitewater in 1933. Ted blocked a punt and then ran some 20 yards to score the winning touchdown. Point 15 to 13. Frank Koenh scored at least one touchdown in every game in which he participated during his junior and senior years in high school. He is leading C.S.T.C. in scoring at the present time. Incidentally Frankie is the sweetest little runner in the conference. His off tackles sashes and end runs are pleasing to any coach. With Frankie being in the limelight during the current football season can you imagine our surprise this week when a Freshman said to us, referring to Koenh, "Is he a band member?" Rodger Bernstein is going to scout Whitewater Saturday when the Quakers meet Platteville. The six man football tournament is going to cut unruly immediately after the Whitewater game. The teams are anxious to make bodily contact. Norman Nye, captain of the Bears had his out practice last Thursday. They are a classy looking bunch, but wait until they meet the Invaders and the men who reflect "Toots" Bernstein, the one man line. Jack Rasmussen, Gandy Harrey and Bob & Carl Torklebon should be given a hand for the enthusiasm and spirit they have shown in all of the homegames. These boys sure keep 'emunny for a ton.

Jim, that's all of the time. St. Ambrose College of Davenport, Iowa has won 35 of their last 45 games. They meet St. Norberts this coming Sunday. Jerry from St. Norberts this coming Sunday. Jerry can throw passes fifty yards or more with little ease. Jerry just missed connecting a few long ones just before the half in the game last Saturday. Keith Gethke of Mana was received for his greatest thrill when he ran back a punt forty yards during a touchdown. Bob & Carl Torklebon, Keith Gethke and Tony Anderson, La Verne Van Dyke and Dan Young performed very good in their farewell appearance as C.S.T.C. Gridders on the field. They will play their last game for C.S.T.C. when they encounter Whitewater.

Pointers Score For Dads,
Beat St. Cloud By 12 To 6

Koehn And Peterson
Score For C. S. T. C.

The St. Cloud "Huskies" who had dominated everything they played in Minnesota met defeat in the hands of a fighting C.S.T.C. squad Saturday by a score of 12-6 before a Dad's Day Crowd on Schmeckle Field. The Purple and Gold Gridders who apparently did not read the chippings of the Minnesota boys out-gained and outplayed their rivals in all phases of the game. They scored 15 first down to the visitors 8.

St. Cloud scored their lone touchdown in the first period on three attempts after an exchange of kicks. They made a first down on a penalty and then added another on Filippi's dash around end from punt formation. On the next play Filippi faded back to his 42 and threw a pass to Birnbaum who caught it on the Point's 38 and continued to run to the 18 before being hauled down. Klen and Filippi picked up a first down to the eight and then Filippi went over from the seven. Frisch's placekick attempt for the extra point was no good.

The winning touchdown was scored a few minutes later after the Kotalmen received the ball on an exchange of punts. Koehn returned the punt from his own 18 to the 25. At this point Bill Peterson threw a pass to Van Dyke who caught it on the St. Cloud 40 and continued to the 20 yard line before being brought down. Koehn went around left end for 5 yards and Frisch powered through for five more for a first down. On the next play Peterson went around end for the tally. Frisch's attempt for the extra point was blocked.

Calling All Bowlers

The president of the bowling league, Dr. Edgar Pierson announces that one more team is needed before the season can officially start. At the present time five teams have entered and one more is needed to make the league balance. The Faculty, who are the defending champs, Phi Sigs, Independents, Fisher's Dairy and Schlicke's Inn have handed in their lists of bowlers.

Come on, all you Gellers! Join up and form one more team so that the season may start in the near future.
