RUSHING PARTIES BEGIN GREEK PLEDGE SEASON

The first rushing parties of the second semester were held at the beginning of the week. Twelve fellows were guests of Chi Delta Rho fraternity at the Iverson Lodge Sunday evening. Mr. Norman E. Knutzen, faculty adviser, and Dearborn Spindler, an alumni member spoke to the group. Phi Epsilon fraternity entertained twenty-one rushes or guests at a card party at the Hotel Whiting the same evening.

A large and lively crowd motored to Wisconsin Rapids in the school bus Sunday, February 23rd for a dinner and theater party given by Tau Gamma Beta sorority.

In the private dining room of the Sugar Bowl everyone enjoyed a delicious turkey dinner with all the trimmings. Two large bouquets of mixed cut flowers decorated the tables. After dinner the tables were removed so the girls could dance before going to the show.

Lorraine Torgerson Is President Of L.S.A. To Succeed W. Jacobson

The L.S.A. has suffered a tremendous loss in the tragic death of our President, Walter E. Jacobson. His fine Christian spirit and outstanding executive ability will be hard to replace. We rejoice, however, in the fact that Walter’s life was such that he has passed from this earthly life to dwell in a place far better than any here. His death was a shock, but we know that his spirit and fellowship will live on.

Miss Lorraine Torgerson, recent Vice President, will succeed Walter Jacobson to the vacant presidential office. She was only elected Vice President last Thursday night at a special election.

At our last meeting a new constitution was adopted. It was under Mr. Jacobson’s direction that it was written and will serve as a fitting memorial to his fine character.

Omega Mu Chi Formal Attracts Large Crowd

The annual Omega Mu Chi formal, held at Hotel Whiting last Saturday evening proved a huge success.

There were seventy people at the dinner, Jean Reillean spoke for the alumni who were well represented. Dorothy Larson introduced the seniors; Miss Mason, faculty adviser, Miss Colman, and Mr. Charles Cashin were the other speakers. Joyce Larsen presided, and Betty Smith served as toastmistress. Music throughout the dinner and dance was played by Ted Gay’s orchestra. The dance was well attended and the crowd was the largest of the season.

The Omegas held their first rushing party Tuesday evening at Janie Roger’s home, for twenty-eight rushes. It was a costume affair in Cabaret style. The Omegas dressed as gentlemen escorted the rushes dressed as belles of 1925, and presented them with vegetable corsages. Items on the menu were named in honor of the guests. Dancing and a floor show concluded the entertainment.

Bob Wood Featured On Assembly Program

Bob Wood, a young American cartoonist will feature “Dramatic Adventures with Chalk” Thursday at ten o’clock, March 6, in the auditorium.

His program includes large colored pictures, writing upward, down and backwards, caricatures of people in his audience, cartoons and comedy surprises. His unique entertainment sparkles with humor, wit, and originality. His up-to-date cartoon material is original and inspiring. One of the most interesting features on his program is his exhibition of double-mindedness, writing backwards and upside down, and reading quotations on different subjects.

For a number of years Mr. Wood has been a student in the Art Institute of Chicago. His youth, pleasing personality, and effective speaking add greatly to the success of his entertainment.

St. Catherine College And River Falls Rate Second

Eau Claire State Teacher’s College won the women’s division of the second annual Wisconsin Valley debate tournament at C.S.T.C. Friday night, winning seven debates and losing one. Second place in the women’s division is shared by River Falls State Teachers’ College and St. Catherine’s College of St. Paul, Minn., which won six and lost two.

Five men’s teams entered at the close of the two day’s debating Friday night with seven wins and one defeat. Additional rounds on Saturday left Monmouth, Illinois, on top, with Concordia second.

Central State women’s team composed of Margaret Becker and Evelyn Murgatroyd, Iris Freecourt and Ruth Stelzer each won two debates and lost six. One of the men’s teams composed of Don Krider and Roy Arndt won four debates and lost four, and a second team, Don Kordus and Norman Fronek won two and lost six debates.

Debating teams from 14 colleges in five mid-west states took part in the tourney. Platteville and Superior State Teachers colleges, which had accepted invitations, did not send teams, but one other school, St. Catherine college of St. Paul, participated. The other contesting schools were Central State, Eau Claire and River Falls State Teachers colleges, Carroll and Ripon; St. John’s college of St. Cloud, St. Olaf’s of Northfield, Concordia of Moorhead and Macalaster of St. Paul, all in Minnesota, Iowa State Teachers college of Cedar Falls and Luther college of Decorah, Iowa; Monmouth college of Illinois and the University of North Dakota.

Dear Editor:

In view of the fact that it is the custom of the graduating class to leave a gift for the school, I would like to suggest buying several small gifts. In this way the undergraduates will not have to go through the same overtime periods for classes conducted by several instructors.

Dear Editor:

If the Lend-Lease Bill is passed, I believe that it will make war not only possible but probable. Added to this probability of war is this giving (that seems to move the word to me) to England of all the products which our country has made which will definitely not build up our economic reserve. In fact, our government will have to pay for all of these materials of war.

Where will the debt for these rest? Not with England! After this war is over and someone shows some sign of common sense, they will see that the American debt will be increased by a very great amount in our country's ledger.

Who will pay for all of these materials? We have to admit that every American taxpayer will have to dig down and put more of his income in a pocket for the generosity of the Lend-Lease Bill.

Where will this inflation of our faculty with programs find us when war materials are no longer in large demand? This question seems to have only one answer—there will be a few more million in relief, a larger outstanding debt which England will be unable to pay, higher taxation of the few people who do have work, more money in the pockets of munition makers, and no improvement in general social conditions of the American people.

Why pass a bill to help someone who will not and who has not tried to pay old debts? Besides these people will say again just as they did at the close of the World War I, “We could have won without your help.” So why pass a bill as the Lend-Lease Bill?

Student Sparring

The basketball season wound up with a bang when the "P.P.M.'s" loafed right in there Monday and heavily defeated the championship right out of the clouds. The "Stooges" trooped in second and then came in pitting "Bears". The "Willestes", even though they didn’t disgrace their namesake, ambled into fourth place. The two outstanding forwards, incidentally, were "Be" Tushinski and "Mike" Blissett, both doing very well by themselves. As for guards, Jeanette Halvorsen and Thelma Pomeroy were no slackers. So there is it until next year—no hard feelings, girls.

Now, how about coming out for tumbling at 4:00 on Mondays and Wednesday? It’s free and it’s certainly fun for the flexible—even those of you who are inclined to sit on the jocks are more than welcome. Give it a try for beauty’s sake.

Girls, if you are in a slump these days, what you probably need instead of pink pills is a good snap game of badminton. They say it never fails to take the linings out of your figure.
POINTER TO END CAGE SEASON AT PLATTVILLE

Olk And Van Dyke In Last Game As Pointers

The C.S.T.C. eagles will wind up their basketball season Friday night when they engage the Platville Tigers at Platville. The Pointers had little trouble in trouncing the down-state team earlier in the season.

"Com-pan-un. Lift up your left leg and hold it straight out in front of you."

By mistake, one soldier held up his right leg, which brought it side by side with the left leg of his neighbor.
"Aw right," shouted the sergeant, "who's the wise guy over there holding up both legs?"

Perhaps we'd better saw this off quickly now with this one in which there may be more truth than humor: Collegian's Prayer. God bless momma and poppa and let's have a brother. Keep my friends well and happy. And goodbye, dear God, I'm going to college.

See you next week...

Central State Cagers Capture Fifth Victory

Cinch Second Place By Defeating Oshkosh

The C.S.T.C. eagles had little trouble in disposing of the last place Oshkosh Teachers last Thursday night for their fifth conference victory of the season in a game played in the P. J. Ja-obs gymnasium.

The score was Central State 58, Oshkosh 43.

In administering this defeat, the Pointers cinched second place in the conference standings.

With Captain Pete Terzyński setting the pace, the Pointers de-cloped a 15 point lead midway in the first half. In this spurt, Jim Bagnell hit the hoop with three quick baskets. At this point Coach Kotal sent in his reserves and saw the lead reduced to 31 to 23 at halftime.

Ray Terzyński, regular guard who suffered an ankle injury recently, played only sparingly, but while in the game managed to roll up 7 points. One basket was a beauty from medium range.

Bob Olk and LaVern VanDyke, senior guards, playing their last home game, played fine ball. Olk garnered 6 points, and VanDyke 4.
