C.S.T.C. Students

Telegraph Lindbergh

Several students sent Charles A. Lindbergh a telegram urging him to continue his efforts to keep America out of the war. The message was as follows: "We, the undersigned wish you the best in your effort to keep America out of war. Many may forget today, tomorrow all will remember those who served America instead of the dollar and foreign flags. Ours is a plea for America, for real Americans desire nothing more than peace. We are with you."

The telegram was signed by 31 students from C.S.T.C.

One of the finest concerts ever heard by members of this department was that of the Wisconsin Association of Male Chorus at Fond du Lac Sunday, May 4. A combined chorus of nearly 500 voices from nine member clubs proved to Wisconsin music lovers that sometimes the best in music is brought out in the "force of numbers." Selections like Arcadelt's, "Ave Maria", and Noble Cain's, "Come To Me In My Dreams", were especially impressive. Softness and mellowness of tone were characteristic of the deeply religious "Ave Maria", and keenness of feeling was the mood of "Come To Me In My Dreams". Other men's chorus numbers which added a great deal to the program were "To Thee O Country", conducted by A. A. Glockzin of the Appleton MacDowell Male Chorus, and Bortniansky's "Cherubim Song", conducted by H. O. Numan of the Green Bay Y.M.C.A. Glee Club. The Fond du Lac Elks Male Chorus was host to the glee clubs. All arrangements for the mass "sing" were made by the organization.

Six years ago a number of male choruses of Wisconsin met at Green Bay for a joint concert—the result of this "sing" was the forming of the Wisconsin Association of Male Chorus, a district of the Association Glee clubs of America. The purpose of the organization was to make possible joint concerts, to encourage good fellowship among male choruses and to stimulate a keener interest in good male chorus singing in our state. Since that time concerts have been held in Oshkosh, Milwaukee, Appleton and Fond du Lac. This year a new club attended the state "sing", the Orpheus Male Chorus of Ripon under the direction of Harold S. Dyer. Our own Central State Mens' Glee club, directed by Norman E. Knutzen, is the only college club member, and it is predicted that the annual meeting of the chorus, directors and governors in June will close with the 1942 state "sing" being scheduled for Stevens Point. In that event C.S.T.C. students will undoubtedly back the affair 100 per cent. We make no mistake when we tell you that the finest in music is illustrated at these annual "sings". The Fond du Lac concert was no exception.

Posluszny And Becker Star For Fraternities

The first game of the fraternity series is now history, the Chi Delts having eked out a 13 to 10 decision Monday night. The Phi Sigs still remain as favorites however, and Thursday they will try to even the series. Both pitchers were hit quite freely but Sword, Chi Delt hurler, seemed tighter in the pinches. The Phi Sigs scored first in the second inning with a cluster of two but this lead was quickly wiped out by a three run outburst in the third inning by their rivals. Going into the last inning the Chi Delts had a slight 8 to 7 lead. The Phi Sigs started a great rally by loading the bases with no one out. Here the attack bogged down however, and they managed only to score one run to tie up the ball game and send it into extra innings. The game was scheduled for seven innings only. In the first half of the eighth inning the Chi Delts quickly pushed over five runs. This rally was featured by a round trip wallop by their star, Lou Posluszny.

We'll start with a nonsense story this time, just to get in the swing of things: ... An anxious man visited his physician.

"You've got to do something for me, doctor," he said, nervously plucking at his coat and collar.

"What is it?" inquired the physician.

"These feathers—all over me," went on the patient, plucking at imaginary feathers and picking them off him. "I can't get rid of them."

"Well, you don't have to throw them all over me," answered the doctor crossly.

During one of the heavy snowstorms in the northwest last winter, a Minneapolis office-worker became stranded overnight when only halfway out to his suburban home. The next day he sent the following message to the office: "I won't be at the office today; I'm not home yesterday yet."

The story has been going the rounds of the mother superior who hired a young lad to do some cleaning, and to show her broadness of spirit, engaged a little Jewish boy. After he had been employed a day or two, she called him in.

"There are several things I must point out to you," she began. "First, those little enclosures in the church are not broom closets, they are confessionals; second, in case you don't know it, those basins near the door are holy water fonts, so be sure not to wash your hands in them. And third," she added, "please don't speak of me as Mother Shapiro."

A man came home unexpectedly from the office and found his wife in the living room sitting on a man's lap.

"There's Big Mouth," she said to her visitor, indicating her husband in the doorway, "Now it'll be all over town."

Wanna hear a fish story?... Two brothers went fishing. One caught eight fish and the other didn't get a nibble. The next day they went out again and the first brother caught eighteen, the other none.

"You're a Jonah to me," he told his successful brother. "Tomorrow I go out

About thirty members of the two Conservation classes, directed by Mr. F. J. Schmeckle, will leave at seven o'clock Thursday morning, May 8 for Madison and Poynette, Wisconsin. On Thursday morning the group will visit the Madison Forest Products Laboratory, the largest laboratory of its kind in the United States. In the afternoon they will go to Poynette, Wisconsin, to see the fur and game farm there. The trip will be made in the college bus. They will return Thursday evening.

Plans have been discussed for another trip to be held soon to one of the northern Wisconsin forest ranger stations. Last week the two classes put into practice their conservation principles by planting trees on the land donated for this purpose to the college by Mr. Boston of Stevens Point.

NOTICE!

There will be a meeting at Nelson Hall on Thursday-afternoon, May 8 at three o'clock, of Householders who have or who would like to have college women living in their homes.

This meeting is being called to discuss housing problems of college women. Please urge your landlady to attend.

The third day he went fishing by himself and after fourteen hours of angling, without catching a fish, he reeled in his line and headed his boat for shore. Just then a fish jumped up out of the water. "Where's your brother?" it inquired...

The "drunk" story is short this week, but I hope you like it... The drunk stepped into an open elevator shaft, "I said up, operator," he said crossly.

Did you ever thumb through Burton Stevens' Home Book of Quotations? Next time you do, open it to page 1619. You will read: "Prohibition has made nothing but trouble." Alphonse Capone.

This story is the one about the woman interviewing an applicant for a maid's job—a girl recently arrived from Europe—and asking her if she could clean, cook, do laundry work, to all of which the applicant answered no. Finally, in despair, the housewife inquired, "Well, what can you do?"

"I can assemble a machine gun," was the prompt reply.

Postcards received recently from the 9 year old grandchild of one of Chicago's most aristocratic citizens after her first day at camp; ... Camp is swell. Rained all day. Swept out the John and the horse barn. Camp is swell...

Last Christmas, a Chicago mail order house advertised in a special Christmas catalog as follows: A set of one battleship, one submarine, and a torpedo for loading and firing. When the torpedo hits the ship the decks and funnels rise in the air and the ship falls apart. Then it can be assembled and the young Christian gentleman can start all over again...

There's the story of the woman who had been married four times. Her first husband was a millionaire, her second an actor, then a minister, and finally an undertaker... One for the money, two for the show, three to get ready, and four to go.

Gotta hit the deadline with the remark that the girl who used to want an all-day sucker is now content to have one take her out for the evening...

See you next week...

POINT BOXERS GARNER SECOND GLOVE VICTORY

The Central State Teachers College boxing team defeated Whitewater Teachers 5 to 3 on Tuesday, April 29th, at Whitewater before a frenzied crowd to annex its second intercollegiate victory. The Pointers record to date is two victories and one defeat.

Two knockouts, two decisions and a forfeit gave C.S.T.C. her five victories. Ted Shrake, in the 135-pound class, and Myron Sharkey, 145 pound battler, chalked up the knockouts. Whitewater had to forfeit the 127 pound match because they didn't have a man available in that class.

120 lbs: Orland Radke put the Pointers ahead at the start by taking the opening bout from Howie Winn. Radke outpointed Winn by a wide margin in the first and second round, then coasted through the third.

135 lbs: Ted Shrake knocked out Harry Lynch in one minute and 15 seconds of the second round. He exhibited a good defense and his opponent hardly laid a glove on him.

145 lbs: Myron Sharkey knocked out Al Martincic after one minute and 45 seconds in the first round. Gloves flew in every direction as both boys tore in from the start but they flew mostly towards Martincic. Martincic was awarded the "fightiest fighter" award during Whitewater's intramural tournament.

155 lbs: Howie Stimm lost to Romie Baker in a very close decision. Baker, who resides in Stevens Point and is a former Central State student, held the upper hand most of the way. Stimm forged ahead several times only to lose his advantage by fouling.

165 Lbs. Jay Swett lost the decision to Gene Berek. Swett won the first round but Berek outpunched him during the next two rounds to gain the victory.

Heavyweight: Norman Halla lost to Carl Chesnik. The bout was stopped after 40 seconds in the first round by Referee Art Mansfield because of a nasty cut Halla received on the side of his eye as the braulers bumped heads during a lusty encounter.

Joe Kalina, Kenny Brenner and Len Ropella fought exhibition matches because their opponents outweighed them from 11 to 19 pounds. Kalina, out-weighted 11 pounds, looked good in drawing with Jim Alft. Kenny Brenner, who was outweighed 17 pounds by Don Kutz won each round. His punches were timely and hard. Len Ropella spotted his opponent Eddie Malwitz 19 lbs. and won handily.

Four Central Staters Reach Northwest Boxing Finals

Seven out of the nine Point boxers survived the first round. Orland Radke, Howie Stimm, Dan Young and Norman Halla fought in the finals. Myron Sharkey, Ted Shrake, and Jay Swett were eliminated in the semi-finals. Superior Teachers copped five championships, Michigan Tech two and Bemidji Teachers of Minnesota one.

First Round Results

Orland Radke decisioned Solie, St. Olaf.

Kenny Brenner lost to Christianson, Michigan Tech. (Fight stopped because of cut over Brenner's eye. Kenny was winning on points but bout was awarded to the Michigan Tech boy when it became apparent that Brenner wouldn't be allowed to fight again because of the cut.)

Dan Young knocked out Leichman, Michigan Tech third.

Norman Halla decisioned Keough, Eau Claire.

Myron Sharkey decisioned Uvorich, Itasca Junior College.

Howie Stimm won by a T.K.O. over Henderson, Duluth.
