Final Preparation

Underway For Prom

Final preparations are under way to make the Junior Prom, to be held May 10, a success. Music by Ralph Miller will be played as the theme, "Night In the Series V Vol. II Final Preparation."

Students from C.S.T.C.

Telegraph Lindbergh

Several students sent Charles A. Lindbergh a telegram urging him to continue his efforts to keep America out of war. The telegram read: "We, the undersigned wish you the best in your efforts to keep America out of war. Many may forget today, tomorrow all will remember those who served America instead of foreign flags. Ours is a plea for America, for suspension of hostilities, and for an atmosphere more than peace. We are with you."

The telegram was signed by 31 students from C.S.T.C.

Service List Thought

To Be Complete Now

The Pointer has received from students of the college the following list of active men in the service. The list is supplemented by those who have been summoned by the draft or have volunteered. The list is on page 3.

Posluszny And Becker Star For Fraternities

The first game of the fraternity series is now tied, 4-4, after the Phi Sig 9-8 victory last night. Both teams will try to win the series. Both pitchers were hit questioned in the third inning, but his lead was quickly wiped out by a three run outburst in the third inning by the Sigma Chi. Going into the last inning the Chi Dels had a slight 8 to 7 lead. The Phi Sig's chances are greatly increased by losing the bases with no one on. Here the attack bogged down however, and they managed only to score one run to tie the ball game and send it into extra innings. The game was scheduled for seven innings only. In the first half of the eighth inning the Chi Dels wiped out five runs. This rally was featured by a round of wild ball by their star, Lou Posluszny.

We'll start with a nonsensical story this time, just to get in the swing of things... An anxious man visited his physician. "You got to do something for me, doctor," he said, nervously plucking at the collar of his shirt.

"What is it?" inquired the physician.

"These fevers—all over me," went on the patient, plucking at imaginary feathers.

"Pick up a hot wash and clean collar."

"That's all right, doctor."

"No, it's not."

"What is it?"

"These fevers—all over me," went on the patient, plucking at imaginary feathers.

"Pick up a hot wash and clean collar."

"Pick up a hot wash and clean collar."

During one of the heavy snowstorms in the northwest last winter, the Minnesota police office-worker became straitened overnight when only halfway out to his suburban home. The next day he sent the following message to the office: "I won't be in the office today; not home yesterday yet..."

The story has been around the rounds, according to an interview which holds that England is doomed to defeat and that the United States should cease aid to that country today. Please fill out the following blank and DROP IT IN THE POINTER BOX BEFORE MONDAY EVENING. May 12. We would like to publish the next week's issue.

BOXERS GARNER SECOND GLOVE VICTORY

The Central State Teachers College boxing team defeated Whitewater Teachers 5 to 3 on Tuesday, April 29th, at Whitewater, before a crowded crowd to annex its second intercollegiate victory. The Pointers record to date is two victories and one defeat.

Two knockouts, two decisions and a forfeit gave C.S.T.C. her five victories. Ted Shraeke, in the 135-pound class, and Myron Sharkey, 145 pound battler, chalked up the knockouts. Whitewater, had to forfeit the 127 pound match because they didn't have a man available in that class.

120 lbs: Orland Radke put the Pointers ahead at the start by knocking out the opening bout from Howie Wilm. Radke out-pointed Wimm by a wide margin in the first and second round, then coasted through the third.

135 lbs: Ted Shraeke knocked out Harry Herb at the one minute and 15 seconds of the second round. He exhibited a good defense and his opponent hardly laid a glove on him.

145 lbs: Myron Sharkey knocked out Al Martinic after one minute and 45 seconds in the first round. Gloves flew in all directions as the boys tore in from the start but they flew few points away from the judges.

155 lbs: Howie Stimm lost to Ramie Baker in the 3rd round, the only bout in which the judges awarded Martinic. Martinic was awarded the "lightest fighter" award during Whitewater's intramural tournament.

165 lbs: John Radke knocked out Eddie Malwitz 19 lbs. and won.

A freshman at Central State Teachers College, who has the faculty of usually being broke left his transparent (empty as usually) bill-fold on his dresser and when he later returned for it he found the following note attached to it: "It was on earth today And Jim, it was broke And all the world, tribute to him paid... Our Jim would still be broke.

We thought we had been studying too much or something when we walked down the hall Monday morning and saw an airplane in the physics lab, but it was all right. They have a dismantled plane in the lab to study it...

Surely you must have noticed that patch on Vernon Smith's left eye... could it be that M. Becher swings a mean right?

The annual Chi Delta Phi Sig soft-ball battle is on. The first clash was a thriller! If you're looking for excitement try a stroll over to the F. J. Jacobs diamond and root for your team. From all indications the remaining four games should prove entertaining.

Director: "What is a red corpuscle?" Cadet: "Russian non-commissioned officer."

By now those of you who associate with the student teachers have heard of that memorable English exam which they wrote last week. There was one part which asked for the mood of a word such as subjective, incorrect, etc. We heard of one person who thought there was such an English term as "suggestive mood."
