Men's Glee Club Elects Officers For 1941-1942

The Central State Men's Glee Club installed the officers for the 1941-42 term at their annual banquet last Thursday evening, May 15, at Nelson Hall.

President Duane Phaneuf
Librarian Merle Jenks
Business Manager Jack Ackerman
Corresponding Sec. Bob Malecki
Publicity chairman Wallace Bartosz

Mr. Edward Plank acted as master of ceremonies and Director Knutzen presented the awards to the two, three and four year members. A bronze key was given Mrs. Spindler and a silver key was sent to Mrs. Jacobson in memory of her son Walter, deceased Glee Club member.

Speakers of the evening reminisced past glee club experiences.

Sword Elected Chi Delt Grand Master

Sherman Sword, president of the Alpha Chapter of Chi Delta Rho fraternity, was elected Grand Master of the state organization at the annual fraternity convocation held Saturday at Hotel Whiting. The office gives "Sherm" the presidency over the five state chapters of Chi Delta Rho.

Representatives

Representatives from Beta chapter at Whitewater, Gamma chapter at Milton, Delta chapter at the University of Wisconsin and Epsilon chapter of Eau Claire attended the meeting. The other offices were distributed among the member chapters, the office of Grand Bursar going to the Beta chapter.

Program

The state program as planned at the convocation calls for closer collaboration between member chapters. Sword stated "I shall make several personal calls on the member chapters next year in an attempt to standardize pledge rites and fraternity policy." Expansion was also a topic of discussion, and a committee of state officers will work on the possibilities of adding new chapters in 1941-42. The Eau Claire chapter was installed April 27 as the 5th or Epsilon chapter of the fraternity.

NOTICE STUDENTS

Next week Tuesday, May 27th, at 10 A. M. the last student assembly will be held in the college auditorium. The purpose of this assembly will be to present before the student body all awards which the various organizations of the college have to present to members of their own group or to anyone from the general student body, whatever the case may be. Organizations which have awards to present should contact Gerald Torkelson immediately so that the program may be arranged. Classes for the ten o'clock hour have been cancelled so that all students may attend.

Journalists Notice!

Anyone interested in securing a position on the 1941-42 Pointer editorial staff see Sherman Sword on or before May 26.

JACK PINGEL BOOKED FOR CHI DELT DANCE

Saturday evening marks the last of C.S.T.C.'s social "high lights" of the school year — the annual Chi Delta Rho fraternity spring formal dinner and dance at Hotel Whiting. General chairman Harry Sheski announces that over 100 couples are expected to attend the dinner, and a capacity crowd is expected for the dance. This marks the eleventh birthday party of Chi Delta Rho which was organized at Central State Teachers college in 1930. Last year the theme of the affair was the "tenth anniversary formal", at which a record crowd of alumni members were present. Many "alums" are expected to attend again this year.

Guests

Among guests of the fraternity at the dinner-dance will be President and Mrs. Wm. C. Hansen, Dean and Mrs. H. R. Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Pfiffner, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson S. Delzell.

Pingel's Band

Jack Pingel and his 8 piece orchestra of Eau Claire has been booked for the dance which begins at nine o'clock. The orchestra features a colovox electric organ which has proven a real asset to the band. Music will be played during the dinner hour also.

Sword, Master of Ceremonies

Sherman Sword, president of the fraternity, will act as master of ceremonies and toastmaster at the dinner. Several seniors and alumni members will be speakers on the program. Chi Delta Rho cordially invites the students and townspeople to attend the dance. Tickets are now on sale at $1.50 per couple.

Joyce Larson Elected Nelson Hall President

NOTICE TO SENIORS

Please pay your Senior dues on or before May 26. The class needs the money and I must close my books on the 27th. If you have not paid your Junior dues, your dues are $1.55; and if you have paid your last year's dues, you owe only $.55. To be fair to those who paid, I will have to turn your names into the office if you fail to meet this obligation. On Friday I will have the names posted on the Senior Bulletin Board.

Evelyn Hillert,
Treasurer.

Playboys, Vocalists And Dancers On Assembly Program

Bud Menzel will act as Master of Ceremonies at the student assembly program Thursday, May 22, at 10:00. Music for the program will be furnished by Bob Dietrich and the College Playboys. Gertrude Rondeau will sing a solo. The girls trio, Joyce Larson, Nancy Steiner, and Neva Jane Burroughs, will sing. Pat Precourt and Bill Steckel will present a dancing number. Ten members of the W.A.A. will give a tumbling act.

This program will be sponsored under the direction of Miss Davidoff and Dr. Lyness.

Next year there will probably be many more student assemblies.

New Rules Are Set Up For Women Students

A new constitution, subject to change, will go into effect at Nelson Hall in September. Members of the council, Mrs. Finch, and several members of the college faculty composed the constitution and it was submitted to the girls at the dormitory Monday evening, May 12.

The constitution provides for the following officers, who were elected last Thursday. They will take the oath of office Wednesday evening, May 21.

Mr. Rogers Announced Appointments Tuesday

T. A. Rogers, faculty adviser for the Iris, announced late Tuesday that Carl Torkelson a sophomore in the high school department, has been chosen Editor-in-chief of the 1942 Iris. He also announced that Jean Meydam, also a sophomore, will take over the duties of Business Manager of the Iris for 1942. The selections were made by Mr. Rogers sometime Tuesday.

Torkelson Is New Student

Torkelson graduated from the Merrill High School in 1938 and spent one year in Merrill studying through a University of Wisconsin Extension course. This is his first year at Central State and the appointment to the editorship if the Iris can be regarded as a real accomplishment. Torkelson enjoys swimming and fishing when not in school, and in keeping with his family's musical talent he is one of the mainstays in the second bass section of the Men's Glee Club. He is also a member of Chi Delta Rho Fraternity.

Meydam Is Experienced

Miss Meydam has had considerable experience with student publications. She was business manager of the Wausau High School annual and worked on various business-staffs. Her hobbies at present consist of music and sports. She is very active in women's sports on the campus, and she is a member of both the concert band and the College Orchestra. She is a resident of Nelson hall.

New Rule Effective

Hereafter, announced Mr. Rogers Tuesday, it will be the policy to appoint persons who will be juniors during the time they have either the editorship or the business manager position of the Iris. In that way it will be possible to have a trained editor and an experienced business manager on deck to assist the next year officers. Jack Ackerman, Editor of the Iris this year, will serve as adviser next year. In this way Mr. Rogers hopes to accomplish greater results without the students expending so much of their time learning the angles of the yearbook.

FRED FINK IS HIGH IN TIME MAGAZINE CONTEST

The four history classes under the instruction of Dr Harold M. Tolo were given an opportunity last week to win a year's subscription to the Time magazine. These classes have been reading Time for the last two semesters. The high scorer in the semester current events test in each class will receive a year's subscription to Time. These winners are Fred Fink, Katherine Kohler, Don Becker and Norma Rasmussen. The high scorer in the school will receive in addition to the magazine, a book of the winner's choice. Fred Fink had the highest score of these four.

This is the first year that Time magazine has required reading material for study; yet, according to varied student opinion, it has made them more conscious of current names, places, and developments. If you should ask Dr. Tolo about his reactions, it is certain that he would reply: "It was a grand experiment, it is much worth while and the information gained sure is a great help to the understanding of our dizzy times."

Roach, Neale Speak At High Schools

Miss Mae Roach presented a graduation address Wed. May 14, at Bancroft and will speak at the Jr. and Sr. Women's club banquet at Hotel Marson in Clintonville.

Mr. O. W. Neale will speak at commencements at Owen and Benton on Wednesday, May 21, and Friday, May 23, respectively.

Published Weekly except holidays and examination periods, at Stevens Point by students of the Central Wisconsin State Teachers College, Subscription Price $2.00 per year.

Entered as second-class matter May 26, 1927, at the post office at Stevens Point, Wisconsin, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

"As We Were Saying...."

As the staff is taking stock of its work throughout the year, it is only fitting that the editorial department look over its accomplishments of the past year and observe the accuracy of the predictions made earlier in the year relative to world affairs.

September 18 opened with "Tragic Contrast" — "you students of America are embarking upon a college voyage which for the first time in twenty-two years promises to be courting danger and perhaps even disaster before port is reached in the spring." Danger? Yes. Disaster? Not yet, and if our fortune is blessed we will never court disaster.

October 2 saw "Time To Use Our Heads" — "Let's concentrate on making a defense so strong that no foreign power or combination of foreign powers would dare attack us!" That's what we're doing right now, isn't it? But it took us a long time before we realized the danger. This editorial came in when Washington was debating the vital issues concerned with national defense.

In the Homecoming issue we made no predictions, but we urged every voter to exercise his right at the polls in November.

October 16 saw us predicting that arms are not made for peace — that the probability of taking part in a foreign war was great. We urged that our leaders build for defense and defense alone. We were strongly opposed to getting into the war.

In the October 23 issue we threw in our lot with President Roosevelt because we believed Willkie's efforts to be insincere. We thought he would get us into England's war quicker than the President. Were we right?

November 13 we said "Democracy is not dead!" We said that the fact that over 50 million U. S. citizens went to the polls proved that democracy is not dead. We urged American solidarity in our work for national defense. By the way, editorials are still urging that today. We have not accomplished full solidarity because we are split on the main issue — whether we recognize this as our war or England's war.

In the December 11 issue we condemned the administration's "shower of gifts" to England. We said "why not trade goods for British lands in the western hemisphere?"

January 15 saw us explaining democracy in America as something "within our hearts" — we must love democracy in order to preserve it.

February 12 we debated the lend-lease bill. We concluded that "the day of shedding American blood for European freedom is over" — we said England ought to fight her own war and our efforts should be expended to building our own defenses.

We gave "a little American's" analysis of the war. We agreed that America's sons ought to be considered before we plunge into the conflict.

In the March 12 issue we wanted to know what England's peace aims are. We still want to know.

April 9 we again asked for England's peace aims. Why doesn't someone tell us these things?

April 30 we warned of Hitler's "new European order" materializing — we still think it is.

We asked the students what they thought of the issues in the May 7, and only a few returned the questionnaires — we couldn't draw any worthwhile conclusions.

Well, those were some of the stands we took during the year. We may have been prejudiced. Perhaps we were. But we wrote what we thought and now after several months we still think we were right in most of our predictions.

STUDENT SPARRING

Dear Editor:

This evening as I am sitting down here I am thinking of the wonderful year which we have all enjoyed at C.S.T.C. and what the future will bring to so many of us. All is peaceful and quite here at this time and the weather is typical of Wisconsin's beautiful spring days. No signs of strife, no great worries, and no fears lurking in our hearts at present. A year well spent, soon to close its books at this school for so many of us.

Yes, these are the days that I shall always remember as long as the heart beats and there is life left. Years of pleasure, fond memories of little gems of friendship, of some heartaches and tears, but nevertheless years that can never be fully measured. Our opinions, and our ways of doing things have changed during these years and most of us for the better. Now as we look back on these things and get ready to close the book let us think of the future also.

These are trying times. Some of us will be going into various phases of military life, others of us will remain out of this service and serve our country in other ways. My fond wish for everyone, is that no matter where any of us go we will do our best in the way we have learned to do it and that we will never be too proud or haughty to get down on our knees and ask God for His help nor forget to thank Him for all He has done. Some may scoff at these sentiments and laugh, but most of us will remember. Some of us have done a great deal of talking, now we will have a chance to go out and see if we can do other things.

Names have been called in heated arguments and words have been said that should not have been said. These and all other things are now past and will be forgotten. Let us in the future think of our neighbor and of others in this world around us and not just of our little selves. With these words I close my final message to my friends and hope that whatever I have said in the past and whatever I may say in the future will be in the interest of all my friends. Then until we meet again beyond the great divide, I wish each and everyone here the best with deepest sincerity.

Plans are not yet completed for granting one late per a week to upper classmen. There will be a penalty for coming in late.

Provisions are made for amending the constitution.

The Dean of Women makes the following announcement about housing regulations for all women students at C.S.T.C.

1. No householder should expect to room college women unless there is a responsible head continually in charge. No householder should be away overnight without making arrangements for someone to act in her place.
2. No college woman may live in a home not on the approved list unless special permission is given her to do so.
3. No under classmen, i.e. freshmen and sophomores, may live in an apartment with a group of girls. No upper classmen may live in an apartment without permission of the Dean of Women. This must be obtained before the apartment is rented.
4. Rooms should be rented for a semester or a summer session. Girls must secure permission from the Dean's office if they desire to move at any other time.
5. Room rent is payable one week in advance with the charge one week for Christmas vacation. Rental for the other vacation periods of the school year is paid in full whether the student remains in the city or not.
6. If a student is released from college, such student is released from further payment of rent.
7. A householder may request the removal of a student from her room upon evidence of just cause. The Dean of Women, in turn, reserves the right to remove a student from a house when she feels it better for her to live elsewhere.
8. There should be a definite understanding at the time of rental about pressing, sewing, washing, cooking, and the use of electrical appliances and the supplying of bedding.
9. No college girl may room in a house where there are men roomers unless she is a relative of the family.
10. Guests of students are expected to keep all house rules during their stay in approved homes.
11. All cases of illness should be reported to the school nurse, the Dean of Women, or

Cadets of "West Point of the Air" Vie with Grey-clad Corps at U.S.M.A.

Today I take up the pen, I mean typewriter, yes, contrary to what some people think, I can lift one, and open the door to the Locker Room for the last time this year. Perhaps forever! Who knows? To be able to open doors with typewriters you have to have an uncanny knack of keyhole peeking and an ability to translate what you saw and heard by pecking on the right keys of the keyboard. If you are fortunate in having such Winchellistic abilities you had better hire out as a columnist; they receive good money for that ability. But, anyway, as I started to say, today is the last time I'll write on the paper for a questionable length of time. My Draft order number is 294 and I have been classified in Class-D until July 1. If I pass my physical exam I will be inducted in the army for a so called one year of military service. It was just eight month's ago that I started writing the Locker Room. It's been great fun all along and my only hope is that you have enjoyed reading it just half as much as I have enjoyed writing it. If that is so, I'll feel that my efforts did not go amiss as much as I thought they would..... For a farewell appearance I would like to stop and publish a few of the more lingering and outstanding memories which were seen through the eyes of a would be sports writer during the year..... Football Frankie Koehn's 75 yard-run-against Platteville..... Bill Peterson's performance in the Milwaukee game..... Ted Fritsch's two field goals against Oshkosh..... Basketball: Ray Terzynski's winning basket against Stout with two seconds to go..... Pete Terzynski scoring 25 points against Winona..... Boxing: Kenny Brenner and Dan Young winning the Golden Glove championship..... I can't write any more because of space allotment. Some day the Locker Room may be opened again and if it is I hope I'm around, but until then, so long, everybody.

12. In fairness to the school and other students no householder should shield a young woman who is guilty of conduct not in keeping with the highest principles of young womanhood.
13. A room offered for rent to college students should provide at least the following accommodations:
 - a. The usual bedroom furniture, study table, straight chair, rocker, waste basket, closet space, and adequate light for study purposes.
 - b. Bathing privileges with hot water at least twice a week if the girls do not go home over the week-end. If that is the case they should be allowed bathing privileges at least once a week.
 - c. A change of bed linen and room cleaning once a week unless there is an understanding to the contrary between the land-lady and the student.
 - d. Parlor accommodations for the entertainment of guests at least once a week. One specific night may be designated by the land-lady for the girls living in her home, preferably Friday or Saturday nights.
 - e. If the rooms rented by the girls are heated by stoves the firing should be done by the householder so that no girl will have to come home to a cold room.
14. Hours:
 - A. Quiet hours should be observed in the rooms between 8:00 and 9:30 on all school nights (Sunday through Thursday) and after 11:00 on every night.
 - B. Every girl should be in by 11:00 P.M. from Sunday to Thursday nights INCLUSIVE with the exception of Juniors and Seniors who may receive permission to remain out until 12:30 ONE school night a week if they so desire. These "pers" are not cumulative.
 - C. Friday and Saturday nights all freshmen women must be in by 12:30 and seniors by 1:00 A.M.
 - D. Any girl who attends a formal dancing party sponsored by one of our school organizations may have special permission to remain out until 2:00 A.M.
 - E. All nights before a FULL holiday or during a vacation period are 12:30 nights for everybody.
15. If a young woman desires a room to be reserved for her she must pay one week's room rent for the privilege. If the householder is notified not later than May 15th, for the summer session and August 15 for the fall term, that the young woman desires to cancel the reservation the money will be refunded to her.
16. If girls are permitted to do light house-keeping in private homes they are responsible for the care and cleanliness of the kitchen facilities given them. There should be a DEFINITE UNDERSTANDING between the girl and her land-lady concerning the cooking privileges.
17. The householder and college women may make as many additional regulations as they deem necessary.

F. All guests in private homes are expected to leave by 11:00 P. M.

Mrs. Pfiffner has issued some proposed regulations for girls who are working for room and board or board.

Hours of employment:

If a girl is employed in a home where there are no children she should be expected to do about 30 hours of work a week; if in a home where there are children, 27 hours of work per week plus 3 evenings a week "in" for care of children.

The Industrial Commission of the State of Wisconsin specifies that women and minors, if working less than 30 hours a week should be paid:

No experience 16c per hour
After 3 months 18c per hour
After 6 months 20c per hour
After 9 months 22c per hour
30 hours per week at 16c per hour equals $4.80
30 hours per week at 20c per hour equals $6.00
21 hours per week at 16c per hour equals $3.36
21 hours per week at 20c per hour equals $4.20
If a girl is working for her board she should be required to work one hour per meal.

Miscellaneous

A student employed in a private home should be permitted to be away from her place of employment for a week-end visit once a month.

A student's vacation period begins and ends on the same day as designated by the school calendar. If a girl is asked to remain in a home over any part of a vacation period she should receive compensation in return for her services.

If a student is asked to work more than the maximum hours per week she should receive compensation for her services.

Sword's Points

by
SHERMAN SWORD

Here goes for the last column of the year and I feel as if I just got started. I have lots of material left for more columns and I know where to get more, but I guess it's "30" for this year. I've really enjoyed passing on these choice bits to you readers and I'm sorry to see the year end so quickly. Next year I'll move over into the Editor's chair and my writings from that corner will naturally be in a more serious vein. For that I'm sorry, too; maybe people won't be so anxious to tell me their best jokes.

But before I sail into this last flurry of so-called humor, I'd like to congratulate Earle on a fine job well done. I believe he deserves a hearty handshake for the grand way he has kept things moving this year, taking the inevitable criticism and the hard-earned praise both in stride. It's been a genuine pleasure to work with him.

So how about the physician's advice to the college student, to wit: "Frequent water drinking will prevent you from getting stiff in the joints."

"Yes," admitted the student, "but some of the joints don't serve water." . . .

Retort . . . When U. S. Senator Ashurst of Arizona received a letter from a constituent saying, "I think you are an ass," the Solon promptly replied, "You may be right. Frater, ally yours." . . .

The distinguished visitor to an insane institution had difficulty getting the right phone number. Finally, in desperation, he shouted to the operator, "Young lady, do you know who I am?"

Came back the voice calmly, "No, but I know where you are!"

A tourist traveling through the Texas Panhandle got into conversation with an old settler and his son. "Looks like we might have some rain," said the tourist.

"Well, I hope so," said the Old Settler, "Not so much for myself-as-for-my-boy here. I've seen it rain." . . .

Father (to son): "Why don't you go out and get a job? When I was your age, I was working in a store for $3 a week and in 10 years I owned the place."

Son: "You can't do that nowadays; they got cash registers." . . .

How do you like this one:
Drunk (to uniformed bystander): "Say, Buddy, call me a cab, will you?"

Bystander (indignantly): "Sir, I'll have you know that I'm a naval officer, not a doorman!"

Drunk: "Okay, okay, call me a boat then; I gotta get home." . . .

Another one of the final one of the year:

The stew got into a fight in a tavern and was beaten up unmercifully. When he finally staggered home, he attempted to repair the wounds with court plaster. Finishing the job, he proudly said, "Ah, that feels much better already." The next morning his wife asked him how come the bathroom mirror was all stuck up with court plaster!!! . . .

See you next year . . .

CHI DELTS RETAIN SOFTBALL TITLE

PHI SIGS TAKE 1st SERIES WIN FROM RIVALS 7-1

Seidel Hurls Two Hit Ball For Win

The Phi Sigs copped their first game of the fraternity series Thursday night by the score of 7 to 1. The game was witnessed by a large crowd, who thronged Schmeckle Field for the game.

The Phi Sigs, showing much more snap and vigor than in previous games, got off to a flying start. They scored five runs in the first stanza, to take the lead which they never relinquished. Coach Bud Menzel juggled his lineup, inserting Nixon and Hebert in the outfield. These two players contributed four hits to their team's total.

Seidel, Phi Sig chucker, hurled a masterful game, allowing the hard-hitting Chi Delts but two hits. At no time was he in trouble and after the third inning, held them hitless. In the seven innings, he fanned seven batsmen and walked five. He spaced his "passed" so as not to get into trouble. His teammates gave him excellent support, turning in several fine plays.

Nixon getting two for three, and Hebert having a perfect day at bat led the victors while Posluszny and Judd garnered the only hits for the losers. The box score:

Three Point Football Stars All-Conference

Last fall's football team failed to bring Central State its first conference championship since 1936, but it will go on record as a very powerful fast moving eleven.

Coach Kotal and Line Coach Menzel put on the field a very smooth working team which went on to show its opponents a thing or two.

With a starting lineup consisting of: Hanig and Anderson, Ends; Otto and Dorsha, Tackles; Goodrich and Reading, Guards; Menzel, Center; Posluszny and Peterson, Half-backs; Carnahan, Quarterback and Fritsch, Fullback—the Pointers won their opening game against Stout Institute 20-0 under a hot blazing sun at Menominee.

Kenny Parr recovered from his injury and took his place at center for the River Falls game but the Pointers were defeated 13-6. Co-Captain Roy Otto and Jim Hanig saw only part time action. Louis Posluszny didn't see action because of a twisted knee suffered in practise.

The team was at full strength for the Platteville game and it swamped the Pioneers 28-0. Frankie Koehn, Louis Posluszny and Bill Peterson skitterbugged all over the field.

Oshkosh was defeated in the homecoming game 12-0. Ted Fritsch kicked two field goals and Koehn scored the touchdown.

A relapse was suffered under the lights and the result was a 6-6 tie with the Eau Claire Teachers.

Playing a very good brand of ball the Kotalmen defeated a strong St. Cloud eleven 12-6. Louis Posluszny was in the hospital convalescing from a leg operation.

Milwaukee was next to be toppled over in a thrilling 21-19 game at Milwaukee.

Large Crowds Cheered Champions Since 1932

The Chi Delta Rho fraternity defeated their arch rivals, the Phi Sigma Epsilon boys, Monday afternoon. The score was 9 to 2. In taking this game, they also took the series, three games to one. They have held the title for nine years, the Phi Sigs last victory coming in 1932. It was a case of the Chi Delts doing everything right and the Phi Sigs doing everything wrong. The largest crowd of the series turned out to watch the game, played at Schmeckle Field.

The Chi Delts started early in the game. In the first frame they pushed over five runs; featured by Van Dyke's home run into the bleachers in deep center field. Meanwhile the Phi Sigs were held to three binges by Sword, Chi Delt moundman. He received excellent support from his teammates, as they played errorless ball behind him.

Playing for the championship at White-water against Chick Agnew's powerful eleven the Pointers were defeated by a red hot Quacker team 45-12.

This tells the story of what took place on the gridiron last fall. The Pointers won 5, lost 2 and tied one.

Ted Fritsch, Roy Otto and Kenny Parr were named on the all-conference team. Harold Lyons, Fred Fink were the two top notch freshman performers. La Vern Van Dyke and Dan Young played very good ball for Central State in their final year of competition. Bill Carnahan was one of the best quarterbacks in the conference. Louis Posluszny, Frankie Koehn, and Bill Peterson were the trickiest and fastest halfbacks in these parts.

Softball Teams To Play Oshkosh Squads

Inter-Fraternity Lineups Scheduled

The Periclean Ramblers and the Periclean Shotzies, the two best softball teams on the Oshkosh State Teachers' College campus, will travel to Central State tomorrow to play the Chi Delts and the Phi Sigs. The games will take place in Schmeckle Field at 4 P. M.

The Ramblers are undefeated in the college Inter-Society League winning five straight games. Their team is composed of all Oshkosh boys. The name of the players, positions and batting averages are: Stange 3B, 550; James SS, 660; Dietz 2B, 250; Ditter S.F., 250; Ratzburg C., 300; Ehrevhart 1B, 450; Spear L.F., 300;

Kloiber C.F., 200; Marquardt R.F., 300; Plier P., 300; and Hutchinson C., 268.

The Shotzies have won six games while dropping two and have a powerful aggregation. Their roster is composed of the following: Nelson, Tomahawk-P-340; Gessel, Tomahawk-C-F-120; Kersch, Antigo-3B-645; Root, Fond Du Lac-C-580; Muetzel, White Lake-L-F-300; Suhr, Hustisford-1B-500; Dowling, Shawano-R-F-200; Kalbas, Oshkosh-P-320; Chvala, Tomahawk-2B-400; Ball, Tomahawk-S-F-268; and Kevina, Racine-S-S-350.

Manager Jimmy Kulidas of Chi Delta Rho and Bud Menzel of Phi Sigma Epsilon said that they will employ the same lineup that was used during the recent fraternity series. Sherman Sword will toil for the Chi Delts and Art Seidel will hurl for the Phi Sigs.

GRADUATING SENIOR ATHLETES

LA VERN VAN DYKE

BOB OLK

Central State will miss La Vern in football and basketball next year. The Little Chute flash performed for three years on these varsity sports and was outstanding. On the gridiron he was known as a great pass receiver and a stubborn defensive man. While performing on the hardcourt Van was a dangerous man on longshots.

Dan played center on the football team nad was a star performer in the ring. Won 20 fights for C.S.T.C. while losing only 7. He won the Golden Glove Championship and was captain of the boxing team this year. The mittmen will miss his leadership.

Four years of varsity basketball is his service to Central State. Bob held down the guard position for Coach Kotal's cagers since the first time he put on a uniform. He was a handy man when the situation was critical. The morale of the team was always kept up by him.

COACH MENZEL'S BOXERS HAVE BEST RECORD

The Central State Teachers College boxing team under the tutorage of Coach Menzel enjoyed a very successful season. During his first year as boxing mentor Coach Menzel turned in the best record that a Central State team has ever compiled. Taking charge of a green squad, which had lost three of its best fighters in Louie Lang, Louis Drobnick and Jimmy Hanig, he molded the team into a powerful aggregation.

After a month of training the boys went to Wisconsin Rapids and won the team trophy of the Central Wisconsin Golden Glove Tournament. They won a total of 13 matches throughout the tourney to cop the championship. Captain Dan Young and Kenny Brenner won the championship in the 175 and 127 lb. class respectively and earned a trip to Chicago to fight in the Tournament of Champions. Brenner and Young fought in the Chicago Stadium and were defeated in their first bouts. Jimmy Breeder of Streator, Illinois, a golden glove veteran knocked out Kenny in the first round and Jack Burrell of Fort Worth, Texas, one of the tourney favorites who reached the semi-finals disposed of Dan Young in the second round.

The Pointers opened their inter-collegiate season by losing to a Strong Superior team 7 to 1 at Superior. Duluth was defeated 7 to 1 in the second match and Whitewater Teachers bowed 5 to 3 in the seasons final. They gave Central State a record of 2 victories and one defeat in intercollegiate competition.

To conclude their season performance in the ring the team entered the first annual Northwest tournament which was held at Superior and gave a very good account of themselves. Orland Radke, Dan Young, Norman Halla and Howie Stimm reached the finals but were defeated.

BASKETBALL SEASON IS REVIEWED FOR READERS

Coach Eddie Kotal's Central State Teachers College basketball team chalked up sixteen victories for the season while losing only three. The undefeated championship Milwaukee five handed them two setbacks and Stout Institute administered the third defeat.

With only two regulars Pete Terzynski and Bob Olk returning, the outlook for a successful season looked very dark but Coach Kotal put his brain to work and developed a very fine team. He put Jim Bagnell, who was a member of the second team last year, in the starting line-up along with Captain Pete Terzynski, Bob Olk and the two prize freshmen Ray Warren and Ray Terzynski. This combination began to click and won the first six games in succession. Louis Poslusny, La Vern Van Dyke, Ted Fritsch, Dennis Helix and Bob Fisher formed the second team.

La Vern Van Dyke stepped into the starting line-up after the season got under way.

By molding these two teams together Coach Kotal had a high scoring outfit and a very good defensive team which he alternated in the games.

After winning the first six games downing Stout, St. Norberts, Luther, Michigan Tech, Northern Michigan Teachers and St. Marys College of Winona Minn. the Pointers were handed their first defeat by Stout in a return game. The Milwaukee Green Gulls handed the Purple and Gold cagers a 51-48 setback in the opening games of the conference race. The Kotal-men bounced right back to defeat Whitewater, Oshkosh and Platteville before again bowing to the boys from Milwaukee. Oshkosh, Whitewater and Platteville again went down to defeat before the high scoring Central State basketekers and the Pointers finished second in the conference standings. St. Norberts, Winona State, Rinelander City Team and Concordia College of Milwaukee were the other victims.

Captain Pete Terzynski, Ray Warren and Ray Terzynski were named on the all-conference team.

The team entered the state A.A.U. tournament under the name of Stevens Point N.Y.A. and lost in the semi-finals to the Allen-Bradleys 39 to 37.

NEXT SPORTS YEAR TO BE THE POINTERS?

Much Depends On Uncle Sam And The Draft

It will be the Pointers year on the gridiron. Coach Kotal will only lose La Vern Van Dyke and Dan Young via the graduation route. Others lost are Jim Hanig and Bob Reading who joined the air corps and Bud Menzel will not risk the chance of breaking his arm again.

The fast-stepping, hip-swivelling backfield will be back. The members of the strong line will also be back with the exception of the one's all-ready mentioned.

Basketball

When Coach Eddie Kotal issues the call for practice next fall only La Vern Van Dyke and Bob Olk will not answer the call.

Captain re-elect Pete Terzynski, Ray Warren, Ray Terzynski, Jim Bagnell, Louis Poslusny, Bob Fisher, Dennis Helix, Ted Fritsch, Hank Poskie, Carl Jusits, Garth Lake and Chet Johnson will return to perform on the hard court for Central State.

This means that the Pointers will be gunning for the championship. Beware opponents.

Boxing

The strongest team in the history of Central State will perform in the ring next year. Coach Menzel will lose only captain Dan Young from this year's boxing team. Orland Radke, Joe Kalina, Kenny Brenner, Clarence Tohm, Len Ropella, Fred Sharke, Myron Sharkey, Howie Stimm, Jay Swett and Norman Halla will form a powerful fistic team. Their battle cry will be "Superior lookout—You will be dethroned".

Military Service

The success of the athletic teams will depend on how many men will be lost to Uncle Sam via the draft or voluntarily enlistment in the air corps, navy, or marines.

The situation at the present time looks good but we will have to wait until next fall to find out.

Y-Dub To Hold Annual Banquet On Thursday

Theisen's

Gym Antics

Attention, girls! W. A. A. is holding its annual spring picnic on Wednesday, May 21st, at 4:30. Meet at Nelson Hall and bring your own lunch. We'll play soft ball and if the weather is nice we'll even take a short dip in the Plover River. Election of officers and installation of all new members will be held. Awards will also be given to all juniors and seniors who have earned the required number of points in sports. All girls are invited.

Play Day was a grand success — the girls all had a wonderful time in partaking of the various activities. Luncheon certainly was not a dead occasion—school songs, speeches, and yells made it very lively. The tumbling exposition was effective and the informal dance ending the day sent every girl home with a desire to return again next year. All credit should be given to every girl who helped to make this another successful Play Day.

We Hope Goodrich Will Be Back

Jumping Joe Goodrich, Central State's roaming vagabond, is off again. This time it is Arkansas A. M. Joe has yet to register on time. During his freshman year he went to La Crosse Teachers and after a week there enrolled at C.S.T.C. Last fall the call of the west got the best of him and he went to Oregon to enroll at Willamette University. He stayed at Salem for one week, again headed East to come back to Central State. This year Joe says that it is Arkansas A. M. The Ozark country of Arkansas is now in his blood. The Boll Weevil's perform on the gridiron with-in one mile of both oceans and travel throughout the country.

The odds are ten to one that Joe will be back to Central State next fall.

Viola Gericke, president of the Y.W. C.A. has announced that the organization will hold its annual formal dinner at the Belmont Hotel dining room, Thursday, May 22, at 6:30 o'clock. Miss Glendy Chapin program chairman, will act as toastmistress.

After the dinner Russell Fredericks and Charlotte Reichel will sing, solos accompanied by Leota Brandt.

Immediately following the program, installation of officers will take place. Officers for the past year and those who will preside next year are as follows:

Viola Gericke	40-41	President
Linda Born		Vice-president
Betty Cress		Secretary
Charlotte Reichel		Treasurer

Wilma Anderson	41-42	President
Charlotte Reichel		Vice-president
Thelma Parrott		Secretary
Ella Beach		Treasurer

Guests for the evening will include, Mrs. Josephine Finch, faculty advisor; Mrs. O. F. Nixon, Mrs. O. W. Neale and Mrs. E. T. Smith, sponsors; Miss Sybil Mason, honorary member; and Mrs. Elizabeth Pfiffner and Mrs. Wm. C. Hansen.

The tables will be decorated with seasonal flowers and the club songs will be sung. About sixty-five are expected to attend.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF COLLABORATORS:

First to all our thanks:
To all our friends who gave us info.
To our editor for all those times he withheld the red pencil and let certain items slip through to the printer.
To Mr. Faust for his very special bits on the faculty—esp. Dr. Pierson and Mr. Winsor.
Our apologies: for any embarrassments we have caused anyone
Finally: To our successors — our headaches, deadlines, and critics!

TENNIS TOURNAMENT HAS BEGUN WITH 10 IN FIELD

The intra-mural tennis tournament started yesterday with a field of ten men seeing action. The four top ranking players will represent Central State in the conference meet which will be held at La Crosse Saturday.

John Cowan, Len Ropella, Burt Christensen, Jake Steckel, Bob Shrank, Myron Kufel, Mertz Peterson, Ronald Solie, Bob Menzel and Red Lyons are the contestants.

RADIO

Thursday afternoon from 2:30 to 2:45 the last broadcast in the weekly series Seeing America will be presented over WLBL by Miss Gertie L. Hanson.

Her talk this week will be entitled The Thumb of Wisconsin — Washington Island. J. Donald Colby has been the announcer and producer of these broadcasts.

Student Participation

Miss Hanson also announced that next year there will be many more broadcasts presented by students of the college. As the radio department has been a comparatively new project in C.S.T.C., there has not been a large student participation in broadcasts the first few years.

With graduation drawing near, here is a bit of information about the meaning of graduation symbols.

The senior caps and gowns date back to the twelfth century. The wearing of the cap and gown meant the student was admitted to the membership of the "masters" or teachers. The gowns are black because the ancient thought it an appropriate complement for the white light of wisdom.

Today there is an Intercollegiate Bureau of Academic Costumes to establish a code and regulate the wearing of such garments in the different universities so that there will be a uniform costume.

There are three kinds of gowns: the Bachelor's, the Master's and the Doctor's. The Master's gown is different from the Bachelor's in that it is worn open, the sleeves are very long and square and closed at the ends, the forearm coming through the slit near the elbow. The gowns for the Doctors are worn open and have broad velvet panels down the front, and three velvet bars on the long full sleeves.

The caps for the Bachelor's and Bachelor's Degrees are of black serge and have black silk tassels. The Doctor's black cap has a gold tassel.

The titles of our college degrees also date back to ancient times. The titles formerly signified that the person so addressed had a license for teaching. Each degree—bachelor, master, doctor—was a step up in the teaching profession. By 1450, the three degrees had become differentiated much as they are today.
