CARNAHAN, TERZYNSKI TO CAPTAIN POINTERS

Bill Carnahan was elected captain of the 1942 football team and Ray "Ace" Terzynski was chosen to lead the "42-43" Central State quintet at meetings conducted by the football and basketball team members last Monday.

A field general to lead the team as captain, that is the honor bestowed on Bill Carnahan by his teammates. Bill is a Junior and hails from Marshfield, Wisconsin. During his prep days at Marshfield High, he held down the first string position at quarterback for two years and was a spirited fighting leader. When he enrolled here at

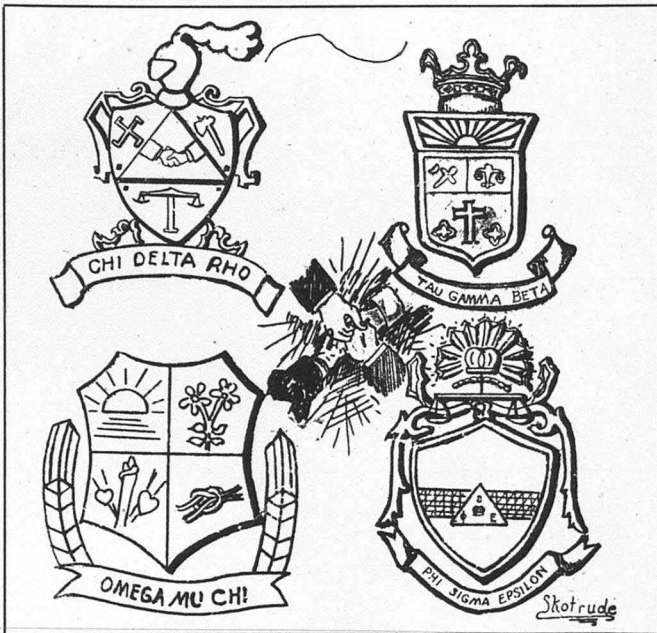

Bill Carnahan

Central State during the fall of '39', he didn't lose any of his vitality. Coach Kotal stationed him at the quarterback post and he divided the duties of calling plays with the veteran Jimmy Cashin. As a Sophomore, Bill was number one signal caller and was the best defensive quarterback in the league. Al Farina of Whitewater just nosed him out for all-conference honors. Injuries hampered him during the past gridiron campaign and he didn't play up to his sophomore standards. He didn't see any action in the Platteville game and played about six minutes in the Oshkosh encounter. Even under these handicaps Bill managed to add another ability to his list. Besides being the brain trust of the team and a good defensive performer, he showed brilliance as an open field runner. The Milwaukee game best exemplified that phase of him. Central State will be led by a lad who never says die and who never knows when to quit. He is general chairman of the

Miss Hanson Will Speak At Waupaca "Career Day"

On Friday, Miss Gertie L. Hanson will travel to Waupaca to participate again this year in the Waupaca High school "Career Day." The program, lasting from 9 a. m. until 3 p. m., is a series of vocational guidance speeches and instructions for high school seniors from the territory surrounding Waupaca. Miss Hanson's contribution to the program will be three talks on Radio Script Writing and Acting. This is her second year as a speaker for "Career Day."

'42 junior prom and is president of Phi Sigma Epsilon.

Central State will be captained by a Terzynski for the third straight year now with the election of Ray as captain, for brother Pete was the El Capitan for the past two seasons.

Ray hails from Rhinelander, Wisconsin which has been the hot seat of basketball for the past five years. At Rhinelander High, Ray was a teammate of Johnny Kotz for three years and played on the State championship team of 1938. All-State guard for two successive years was his accomplishment as a prep hardcourt performer. Last year as freshman Ray demonstrated why he would be an all state selectee for the next two years. He finished fourth in the conference scoring race and was named on the all conference team. This year Ray was again named on the all-conference five. Ray is a fine ball handler and defensive player but he excels in the offensive end of the game. He is most dangerous with a one handed push shot from around the free throw circle. His outstanding performances were making the winning basket against Stout with two seconds remaining to play last year and sending the Scott Field game into an overtime with two quick baskets with forty five seconds to play early this season.

Interested In Navy? Enlist, But Still Finish College

Mr. Raymond M. Rightsell has announced the details of the accredited college program of class V-1, U.S. Navy.

Each year about 80,000 men between the ages of 17 and 20 will be accepted for training as apprentice seamen, the class known as V-1. These men will enroll in a college approved by the navy and offering the navy's accredited course, including mathematics and physics. All who successfully pass their college work will remain in college two years. Approximately 20,000 of these men will be selected for transfer to class V-5, aviation cadet flight training. Also, about 15,000 will be transferred to class V-7. Acceptance for this class will enable the men to complete their college courses and receive their degrees. Upon completion of their courses, the men will be given navy training leading to commissions in the U.S. Navy.

Exception is being made by the navy for freshmen and sophomores already enrolled in colleges this year. On April 15, 1942, a comprehensive examination will be given covering general verbal ability, elementary mathematics and the navy mechanical aptitude test. Those men passing this test will be enlisted in class V-1.

It is expected that CSTC will be approved as one of the schools to offer the course. Those wishing further details should see Mr. Rightsell immediately.

Initiation, Banquets Precede Semi-Formal

All this pledging — no make-up, bathing suits, lanterns, paddles — has been leading up to the grand finale, Saturday night, March 28, at the Hotel Whiting. This is the Pan-Hellenic semi-formal dance. Benny Graham and his orchestra will furnish the music.

Omega Mu Chi Sorority will hold its formal initiation at the Hotel Whiting followed by dinner in the main dining room of the hotel. Dinner chairman is Eileen Owen.

Tau Gamma Beta Sorority will also have its formal initiation at the Hotel Whiting followed by dinner in the club dining room. Charlotte Wiese heads the dinner committee.

Phi Sigma Fraternity's formal initiation and dinner will be held at the Belmont Hotel. General chairman is Chuck Dodge.

Chairman for the Chi Delta Rho dinner is Merle Jenks. Their dinner and formal initiation will be held at Nelson Hall.

Turning The Leaves Of New Books

How many of the latest books in the college library have you read? Want to check on that? Maybe this will give you a little help.

For a story of Wisconsin in a novel of vigor and emotional depth, read Leslie E. Schlytter's The Tall Brothers. Briefly, the theme of the novel is the conflict between the love of an immigrant Swedish couple for the four majestic pines (The Tall Brothers,) and a lumberman's desire for wealth, expressed in his ruthless destruction of the timber.

Equally as fascinating is a revealing story written in 1925 by a British naval expert, Hector C. Bywater, in which his prophecy of the present great Pacific conflict is fulfilled. It is The Great Pacific War.

Dragon's Teeth, by Upton Sinclair, is a powerful historical novel of the 1930's, a story of our modern world including the mighty, the famous, and the infamous.

Other notable examples include Windswept, by Mary Ellen Chase; The Book of Claudia, a combination of the two books Claudia and Claudia and David by Rose Franklin; The Hills Beyond, a collection of excellent stories and character sketches, by the late Thomas Wolfe; a current good seller is Jonathan Daniels, For Heels, a biography of North Carolina, written in a charming and vigorous style. A whimsical gem in satire, with animal characters is Tapiola's Brave Regiment, by Robert Nathan. Wm. Haynes writes a revealing story of the miracles of man made materials such as nylon.

Dope From Pils!

Yes, it's Hell-Week. Harbingers of the second semester pledging season are sighted in the red bow ties and lanterns. Then there are the girls minus all make-up (guess this has its good and bad side) with straight, stringy hair. All the pledges are looking forward to the rough initiation and the grand finale, which is the Pan-Hell dance, which will make them full fledged "Greeks". The Chi Delt pledges were serenading the "dormites" one night, and they walked out on the front steps answering the call of a fire drill... Week-end trips home certainly do bring surprises. Another of the "weaker sex" has returned wearing a diamond—this time it is Helen Park—Fuzz Schneider was in town this week-end—Phyllis Eckels is seen in the halls again after suffering the loss of her appendix. Kenneth Kangas is sporting a Stevens Point High '41 graduation ring. We know for sure that the owner is Marie Gieman—heard that Byron Crowns more commonly known as "Bike" has made up his mind about his Pan-Hell date—might be someone with the initials T.F. but this isn't authentic... The thing Gen Smith feared most all year has finally happened—five days in campus—course with hell week in full swing, what matters? She couldn't talk to Sweet anyhow. Francis Roman was a victim of circumstances; being a soldier and a dare—Well, she won the bet—was it worth it? Klake said she feels like a bus driver's widow, what with Merle driving bus for the numerous trips coming up. Babe Nixon seems to have forgotten Oshkosh. At least he did for one night—How about that, Ginny Lee? Seems as tho they have been camping outside the dorm also. Sir Walter Raleigh Minton has been living up to the quotations of Lueck and Platt—they have been living up to a few mottos themselves.) Could a certain second floor dorm be the center of it all? Neva Jane Burroughs is going around with a non too jovial look on her face—Pan-Hell the 28 and Bud Menzel leaving for the army the 27... What's this about "Posky" dating a couple of sisters? Ask Jan Bowker about the "bank roll" of a certain Southern gentleman... What about Don Walker and his dancing the other night—looked pretty good to me — Rass was going around in a kind of a happy-go-lucky daze Monday after receiving a letter post-marked Charleston — well, at least he won't be using the telephone in here tonight... we'll miss it as much as you, Rass... Have you seen Jim Brown and Lois Bauerfind in the same path lately —where does that leave Erdman?—If you don't see a From the Lockerroom column

YWCA

The YWCA held its annual Silver Tea on Wednesday, March 18 in the Home Ec. Rooms. Co-chairmen of the tea were Dorothy Averill and Anita Campbell.

Patronesses Mesdames O. W. Neale, O. F. Nixon, W. C. Hansen and Honorary member Miss Syble Mason poured.

Mrs. Josephine Finch stood in the receiving line with President Wilma Anderson, Mrs. A. E. Harris, and the Misses Mae Hoffman, and Charlotte Reichel.

Lieut. Jack Taylor of the army air corps was among the guests.

The Silver Tea is held each year to raise funds to send a representative to the Lake Geneva conference in June.

NELSON HALL

Rita Novitski, social chairman at Nelson Hall, released the following after the meeting on Tuesday evening:

April 22 has been set as the date for the monthly formal dinner. Guests will be faculty members.

May 16, is to be Mothers' Day at Nelson Hall, and already letters are whizzing homeward inviting "Mom" to be among the honored guests.

ON STAGE

by Hannah Kaufman

She Was Only A Farmer's Daughter and If Men Played Cards as Women Do (Produced by Phi Sig fraternity) tonight in the auditorium, 7:30 p.m. Sneak Preview: The Farmer's Daughter is a repeat performance of what we saw last fall except for the novelty of an all-male cast. It's a melodrama complete with the "Unhand me! Villian!" technique and all the classic gags that go with it. The vehicle is corny enough so that acting as an art isn't important anyway. The costumes and those bee-ootiful feminine voices will carry the play. If you're tired of sophistication, this play may be good for a howl or two.

Women and Cards: If you heard George S. Kaufman's screamingly funny take-off produced on a coffee hour headlined by Frank Morgan and Meredith Wilson, then you need no introduction here. For the benefit of those who didn't spin the dial that night, let us assure you that the play will leave you in excellent humor. The clever lines are excuse enough for the actors' presence on the stage.

Added attraction: Parisian models will grace our stage to review the styles from the turn of the century up to modern times. You'll see everything — from informal beach wear to formal evening attire.

initiations. The question for discussion is "Why I do or do not go to Church." Everyone is invited to these discussions. All opinions expressed at these meetings are respected; there are no arguments or attempts to point out fallacies in statements. Neither is College Y a "religious" organization. It is a trading post for ideas and beliefs of students, be it philosophy, morals, religion or what have you. C'mon over. They're really very interesting.

rayon, cellophane, and synthetic rubber in his book, The Chemical Age. Interesting and up to date because it tells of the experiences of the officers and men of the RAF in The Airmen Speak.

Mr. Kampenga, librarian, calls our attention to the London Illustrated, a magazine on display at the college desk, which in a recent poll, was rated the second most popular magazine the colleges in the United States. Another new magazine of interest is Aviation.

MAY ROACH

Rural Education

Education in the elementary grades and high school of Eau Claire. First two years of undergraduate work at Stevens Point Normal. Last two years at Columbia. B. S. Degree at University of Minnesota. Graduate work at U. of Minn. Baptized "Mary", called "Mamie" in childhood, "Mayme" in youthful days, "May" ever since and have no plans for changing that.

Has never thought of hobbies as such—"at various times in my life have enjoyed different activities for leisure moments: a good book and time to read; the right music and a place to dance; beautiful materials, an artist design and the satisfaction of seeing a piece of handwork grow; a good audience and a chance to talk." Recently took up bowling and likes it so much she gladly pays for the torture of throwing half the balls down the gutter. Paid $100 for share in the Stevens Point Golf Club and never has been on the course.

Thrilling Experiences—"Was one of a million worshippers at the International Eucharistic Congress when it convened in Chicago. Saw President Wilson in the great New York parade when he was welcomed back from the Versailles Peace Conference. Heard Celestine Nuesse win the Interstate Oratorical Contest for CSTC. Seeing young people grow from careless individuals into men and women with vision and a moving desire to make their contributions to society."

In going to her first teaching position, she lost her way walking through miles of snow. Inquired of the first person she met. He lifted her onto the back end of a great load of cord wood and hauled her back five miles to the Bears Grass School in Eau Claire County.

Prominent men..... "the people most prominent in my vocational life are two in number: Mr. Sims, second president of this institution who had faith enough in me and vision enough for teacher training to invite me to come back even against my will, and Mr. Neale, who probably unconsciously has given me an opportunity for personal development and who has always assisted by wise and kind direction."

Athletic achievements are confined to cheering on the side lines.

Advice to students who plan to be teachers: The most important factor for any child in any schoolroom is the teacher—the most important element in a teacher is his philosophy of life which gives direction to his actions. It takes study, reflection, unselfish thinking and great humility to develop a philosophy. The materials and the tools for building are all around us. Let your fervent prayer be "Oh, Lord, that I may see."

Chi Delt's And Omeg Pledges Perform

Amid the laughter of a satisfied crowd, big stunts were staged at the Goal Post on Monday night. With a backdrop of candy-bar and pop-corn racks, a combined vaudeville and stage show was presented by the pledges of Chi Delt and those of the Omegs.

Featuring the twin bill were original song and dance numbers by individual Chi Delt's and an original skit by the Omegs. The skit was a laugh-a-minute—pantomime drama centering on the rustic life of a backwoods couple. A daring love scene was the outstanding feature.

CARNAHAN-SPARKS

Capt. Sparks' five advanced to the semi-finals by scoring a 31 to 14 victory over Capt. Bill Carnahan's outfit. ## Cagers To Play In Rhinelander Tourney

The Central State basketball team representing Gary's Clothing Store will participate in the second annual Northern Wisconsin Tournament which will take place at Rhinelander this coming Saturday and Sunday. The team is entered in the college division of the tourney along with Northland College, Superior State Teachers, and Lawrence College.

Pete Terzynski will lead the Pointers, who are the defending champions, into action against the powerful Superior Teachers quintet Saturday night at 9 o'clock. The Superior Peds finished second to Stout in the northern division of the Teachers Conference and are a very dangerous foe. The high scoring Lawrence College five which finished second in the Midwest Conference and which set an all high offensive record for a Viking team, will meet Northland in the other remaining game of the first round. The two winners will play for the championship Sunday night while the losers will clash for third place honors.

The team will be coached by Joe Goodrich and is comprised of Pete Terzynski, Ray Warren, Ray Terzynski, Henry Pospychala, Ted Fritsch, Bill Carnahan, Al Helmski, Marvin Hansman, and Kenny Parr. Coach Goodrich stated that he is very confident that his team will successfully defend its title, and that he will start the same lineup that Coach Eddie Kotal employed during the past campaign.

The basketball tournament is on its "last legs". The "Blisskriegs" won another game Monday night, and after the victory the teams went outside to play a little softball. This is almost a sure sign of the dwindling of winter sports to make way for the spring softball, archery, horseshoe, and tennis. The tennis courts have already been occupied once. Better that more follow in their footsteps and develop the "form" for the oncoming tennis tournament of which Marjorie Mae Nelson is sports head.

Only a few of the matches in the second ladder of the ping-pong tournament have been played off. There are twenty-eight girls entered in this ladder—you must play off your matches within one week after they have been scheduled.

In your spare moments think of "playday"—if you have any brainstorm to do the betterment of it, report it to Miss Greiling or Bette Davis, who was heard saying she was all out of thought for ideas of a playday theme.

We women will be taking over some of the men's work this summer, so let's start that muscle developing by coming out for all the spring sports.

The championship Central State Teachers College basketball team was honored at a banquet given by the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Belmont Hotel last Monday night. The event also celebrated Coach Eddie Kotal's fifth basketball title since he took the coaching reins here.

The banquet was well attended and Woodrow Dagneau presided as toastmaster. Francis Strand sports editor of the Stevens Point Journal and the entire coaching staff of the P.J. Jacobs High School were featured guests.

Short speeches were given by Francis Strand, Russ Rebholz football and basketball coach of the P.J. Jacobs High School and Coach Eddie L. Kotal.

Highlight of the affair was the showing of the movie which featured the outstanding events of the 1941 Green Bay Packer season.

BOWLING

The CSTC Bowling league went back into a two team tie for the leadership in the standings. The DeMolays crept up from a second place tie into the top bracket by virtue of their taking the Phi Sigma Epsilon in two of three games. Although they lost two games to the Faculty, the College Eat Shop still shares the lead. In the other match of the evening the Sport Shop tipped the Underdogs in two out of three lines.

Bob Malecki, Phi Sig Kegler, bowled 174 in all three games for a 522 series, which is a once in a lifetime feat and has been done in Stevens Point but three times this season.

Frank Koehn again hit the high single game for the evening with a 212 and also topped the high total series with a nifty 583.
