Judy Graham Gives Impressive Talk
Judy Graham gave an impressive talk, illustrated by pictures, of her experiences in the Youth Foundation Camp at Shelby, Michigan when the College Y met on Wednesday, October 13. Beth Johnson gave an account of the history and purpose of the Y at CSTC.

An interesting program for the organization for this year was suggested by Mrs. Arthur Lyness. A few of the main points mentioned were a 10 minute devotion period at each meeting, the discussion of student's problems, the promotion of religious understanding among students, and the undertaking of some special project for the college.

Dr. Lyness is the adviser for the College Y. Officers will be elected at the next meeting to be held Wednesday, October 27, at 7 p.m. in room 259.

Dr. Harrington Will Speak To Newman Club
Dr. T. L. Harrington will speak on "Christianity in the United States" at a special meeting of the Newman club to be held in the Rural Assembly, October 27 at 7:30.

Dr. Harrington, formerly of River Pines Sanatorium, is one of five charter members of the first Catholic organization formed in a non-secretary college in this country. This year marks the fiftieth anniversary of this organization.

The Newman club has invited the Catholic faculty of the Wausau Point to be present at this lecture. College students who are interested are also urged to attend.

The next regular meeting of the Newman club will be on October 24 at St. Stephen's Church after the three o'clock devotions. At this meeting Father Donald Theisen will interpret the symbolism used in the church decorations. There will be no meeting on October 27.

Central State Shares In Extension Work
An off campus workshop and University Extension classes are being conducted this week by Central State Teachers College.

On Saturday mornings a workshop is held at Wausau under the direction of Oscar W. Neale. There are two workshops each week and several teachers have attended. An off campus workshop is being conducted this week by Central State Teachers College.

Mr. Richard Greiling Enters Red Cross War Work
A member of CSTC faculty, Miss Ruby Greiling, left October 14 for Washington D. C., where she reported Monday at American Red Cross Headquarters. She will take a two weeks training course and then will enter foreign service as a hospital recreation worker. Miss Greiling will be stationed at a base hospital for convalescing soldiers. She has been granted a leave of absence for the duration.

No permanent teacher has as yet been employed to take Miss Greiling's place. Judy Graham and Margarette Berger will instruct the CAF classes until a new teacher is employed.

Miss Greiling wishes to thank all those who have helped to make her two years at CSTC so pleasant.

Art Class Offered
Aviation students who like to draw now have the chance of showing their ability. A sketch class is held in the art room every Tuesday and Thursday nights at 6:30 under the direction of Miss Edna Carlsten.

Girls model the floor, and if that isn't fun just ask one of the cadets. A student not interested in sketch work may work on clay or any other art medium he desires. No credit is given for the course, but it's a lot of fun for those interested.

Girl students are invited to attend.

Complete Plans For Coming Harvest Ball
Tau Gamma Beta sorority, has made final arrangements for the Harvest Ball, October 23. The dance, which will be held in the Training school gym, is the first formal dance of the year.

Chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. George W. Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Tolo, and Lt. and Mrs. John W. Berlin.

All Air Corps and college students and their escorts are invited to attend.

There has been some question about the requirement of passes. The passes usually required for the Wednesday and Saturday night dances are not necessary.

New Shopping Service Offered To Soldiers
BOOTH TO OPERATE UNDER OMEGA MU CHI
Shopping service for soldiers will begin Thursday, October 21, under the management of Omega Mu Chi sorority. The purpose is to serve the trainees, as the Christmas season approaches, by doing their personal shopping. The idea was suggested by girls who had received requests from soldiers whose time was limited. The booth will be stationed on the second floor across from the library. The regular hours that the booth will be open are 2:30 to 3:30 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons. This week the city will be open from 1:30 to 4:30 on Thursday, from 9:30 to 12:30 and from 1:30 to 4:30 on Friday, November 2.

In addition to the shopping service the booth will carry an assortment of greeting cards and will have samples of Christmas cards and personal stationery from which orders will be taken. Magazine subscriptions will also be sold.

The shopping procedure will include the filling out of an order blank with information such as color, size, and approximate price of the article. Suggestions will be offered by the girls if they are desired. All articles can be wrapped as gifts for mailing or delivery.

May Obtain Corses
As a special this week soldiers may order corses through the shopping service and then call for them at Walter's Floral Shop, as there is no delivery.

Everyone is invited to visit the booth this Thursday and Friday to ask questions about the services. There will be no charge for the shopping service but there will be a wrapping charge to cover cost of materials.

General chairman of the booth is Kathryn Kenney, who is assisted by Phyllis Eckels, in charge of the cards and stationery, and Beth Johnson, in charge of magazines.

What's Doing

Along the flying line: First, we have Group Executive Officer Regan who mowed the grass in the field next to the runway. It would have been all right if he had been using a lawn mower, but with a plow in his hands it was a little difficult. Then there is the "Wing Over Kid" comedy known as A/S Greves who tries to do a barrel roll while the instructor called for a medium turn. Could it be the girl down the street? Hmm, could be. Two of the planes crashed together on Sunday, but on the ground. It seems two of the "aces" were dragging one of the planes down to tie it up when someone put a yell on their plane in their way. Result: One torn wing. A/S Art must have been thinking about his girl, or a gremlin threw sand in his eyes or his case. When A/S Sammon came down from his first trip one of the other students asked him how he made it out with "c's". He said, "Gee, that's all the instructor did."

Question of the week: Where was Lieutenant Govern when the Permanents party took P.T.? It looks like he got more out of that course than people think.

Captain Philbin went parachute jumping. Mayor Schauer bought another plane in his name. From reliable sources that the Captain and his wife had the most delicious baked ham for supper.

Lieutenant Howlett is a good friend to have. He is the kind of man who now and he has six to eight hundred bars in his house. We believe in sharing the wealth. What do you say, Lieutenant?

Have you noticed Gilbert Schauer, C-1, jittering around the dance floor Wednesday and Saturday nights? Consuelo has been spotted up in the sunshine that gives him all this pep? (You asked for it, Schauer!)

There have been changes—Yes, several men in C-2 were pushed up a Squadron to D-1, and they will be flying just that many weeks.

Radio Workshop Adds Book Review Program

"Book Reviews" is the Radio Workshop's new program which will be presented each Monday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock. Each week a current book, which should be of interest to college students, will be discussed by Ralph Hawkins.

Central State is the only teacher's college in Wisconsin where activities of the Radio Workshop are carried on. It is open to all college students interested in any phase of radio work. The meetings are held every Thursday at 4:30 p.m. and anyone desiring to attend is welcome.

Sooner. Their names are A/S's Sanders, Anderson, Holden, Ray and Lyons. These men are very happy about the whole thing.

C-2 lost a very capable squadron command, A/S Robert Ray, who has led that flight and squadron so well. His place will be taken by A/S Raymond Schumacher, the past lieutenant of Flight 2. A/S Ray Schumacher will try to take over the swell job done by A/S Raymond Schumacher.

The happiest moment of his life is coming to A/S Batten and C-2, who is getting married next Saturday. We wish him all the luck in the world.

Welcome back to Corporal G. H. Stevens. We hope he had a nice furlough.

A/S Douglas Harlow, E-1, has taken a great shine to dancing since Rose Marie Howes entered his life. . . . A/S Richard Freeman has been going around with a blank look on his face the past few days. I wonder if the arrival of his girl friend has anything to do with it . . . . The Stevens Point Women's club certainly provided us with wonderful cookies at Saturday's dance, thank you very much.

A/S Charles Mulliken is entertaining his wife. . . . It has finally happened, A/S 'Pincushion' in love. Congratulations, Martha.

Letters

Dedicated to "E" Squadron

(With apologies to 'The Man in the Flying Trapeze')

Chorus:
O—O—They fly through the air With the greatest of ease, The gallant young men who Are Air Corps trained Their take-offs are smooth, And their landings quite right, And our hearts they have stolen away.

There was Dever, and Forti, and Fev. Who went up in the air in a whirl. And Freeman was very impatient To get back to his very best girl.

(Chorus)
Elsalman, Dobek, and Galant Bounced off of the field with a rush. While Desmonde, the moose calling Went circling around in the brush.

O-oh they fly through the air With the greatest of ease, The gallant young men who Are Air Corps trammees. Fun-loving and witty and Very good sports.

Nine Rats for our men of the air. —Your 0730 History Date

Dear Editor:
Members of this training group appreciate the help given to them by outside organizations, and we feel that they should share the credit for the programs produced with them. A memo to this effect was given to the newspaper, but no such notice appeared in the last issue.

When the new Squadron C-2 put on their hilarious floor show it was backed by the members of the Kiwanis Club who donated the refreshments, and in this way made the evening more enjoyable. Perhaps the Kiwanians will not read of our successes as they have no way of knowing. In the future I think that such notices should be made known publicly.

Sincerely,
A/S F. Gartz

(Ed. note: We're sorry, but we did not receive the information. Thank you for calling it to our attention: the Kiwanis Club should be given credit.)

Let's have more of these letters! We want your opinion. All letters must be signed, but if you do not want your name included in the paper, it will be omitted. We reserve the right to accept or reject any letter.

Hostile Planes Blitz Unwary Students

In the past few weeks, parts of CSTC have been the subject of an attack by enemy air craft. A careless observer might think that these tiny aerial fighters are only wasps after all, but a careful investigation instantly reveals their dangerous nature.

The invaders have their nests or hangars in Dr. Harold M. Tolo's room. They are double winged, flying monkeys, with a pink and black insignia. They are small but quite fast, and are difficult to shoot down.

As bombardiers they are obviously ill-trained, for their raids are never followed by casualties. Their tactics consist mainly of zooming perilously close to a busy student, thus causing him to take his attention away from the lecturer. This minor sabotage is probably the enemies' chief aim.

The menace of these 'yellow hordes' should not be minimized. Every student is earnestly cautioned to be on the lookout for these dangerous and sinister columns. The fight must continue until the last one is exterminated.

Primary Council Meets

Mrs. Mary Samler, Mrs. Mildred Williams, Miss Gladys Van Arsdaile, Miss Edna Carlsten, and Miss Susan Colman were guests at the annual fall party of the Primary Council.

Because of the rainy weather the party was held in the game room at 3:30 on Wednesday, October 13. The Harlequen theme was carried out in the table centerpieces of a carrot-nosed jack-o-lantern flanked by orange candles. The girls entertained themselves by dancing and singing. A cold lunch was served.

Alpha Kappa Rho Pledges

At a recent informal pledge initiation, the following became pledges of Alpha Kappa Rho, honorary musical fraternity: Loretta Gotchy, Deleres Romain, Phyllis Lewis, Eugene Ludwig, Mac Hoffman, Mary Ann Hotvedt, and Carol Ockerlander. The meeting was held at the P. J. Michelson home. Refreshments were served.

"Jingle bells, jingle bells," — I guess I haven't come out from under the spell of those few snowflakes that fell last week. Gas rationing and snow will go hand in hand this winter. Just think how you'll appreciate a horse and buggy. Bet you fellows from California and Florida can hardly wait. Cheer up! We guarantee you'll like it when it really has snowed. — We are glad to see that the Tau Gams have realized the necessity of keeping up student morale. The Harvest Ball Saturday night will be our chance to see who is really holding the hearts of our men in uniform. — Have you noticed Betty Pohlman and A/S John Thomas giving out at the dances? They can put a lot in small packages, can't they? They dance well together and just go well together in every way. — Have you been picking up the Army Hour the 97th has on the air every Saturday afternoon? They have a mystery girl with a charming voice — could she be by any chance Helen Laski, fellows? You could give us a whole program of Don Pittman's singing — and to think that some girls talk about Sirena! — You could have missed a lot if you haven't heard him. — Where have Kitty Kelly and A/S Andy White been lately? We thought we saw them on the road last week. Some of the fellows have imported some pretty swell girls lately and they're the only ones we don't regret taking a back seat to. Hope your mothers like Stevens Point, fellows. — Come on, you fellows in Sqd. A, keep it flying (we mean the dirt) so we can chat about you a little too. — Bye now. See you next week.

Sigma Zeta Elects

At a recent meeting of the active members of Sigma Zeta, honorary science fraternity, the following officers were elected: Master Scientist, Bob Rifleman; vice-president, Dorothy Scharf; secretary-treasurer, Thomas A. Rogers.

Plans were made to take in new and associate members. At a later date speakers will be secured for social meetings.

Where They Are

A year ago CSTC could boast about having a few fellows in school, but now these fellows are scattered all over the United States, South America, Africa, Australia, Hawaii, the Canal Zone and many other places on the map that are vital points in the present conflict.

The following information, though not complete, may give you some idea as to where the fellows are and what they are doing: Donald Becker, India; James Brown, medical unit, Camp Gruber, Oklahoma; Bill Carnahan, Great Lakes; Ronan Cooper, Air Corps, San Marcos; Texas; John Edwards, North Africa; Charles Larsen, Chautauqua Field, Illinois; Calvin Rasmussen, truck regiment, West Coast; Frank Steckel, South America; Art Peja, aviation cadet, Lakeland, Florida; Frank Koenh, medical unit, Camp McCoy, Wisconsin; Lee Kalkofen, West Coast; Robert Malecki, engineering school, East Coast; Myron Sharkey, P.T. boat training, West Coast; Tom Wishinski and Adrian La Brot, submarine chaser, Miami, Florida; James Unger, Camp Crowder, Missouri; Alan Kingston, Chandler, Arizona.

These are only a few of the fellows that have made the life at CSTC interesting in the past years and many of them will be back to carry on again.

If you have any information regarding the boys in the armed forces, just write it down and leave it in the POINTER office.

Thirteen new members of WAA are wearing purple ribbons, addressing old members as "Miss", carrying Pen celery (not because they are hungry) and collecting the signatures of fall veteran Waa-ites. That's just the beginning, however, youngsters. More and better tortures are being concocted for your future enjoyment.

The Waa-ites bade Miss Ruby Greiling, who has joined the Red Cross as a recreational director, a sad farewell on Thursday, Oct. 14.

Everyone joined in wishing her the best of luck in her new venture and in helping her pack. You should have seen the activity.

All men and women of CSTC, and this includes aviation students, are invited to join in the fun on play night which will be held every Friday from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the college gym. The first one will be held Friday, October 22. Badminton, card games, shuffleboard, ping pong and refreshments are all part of the entertainment.

The next meeting of WAA will be held Monday, October 25, at 7:15 p.m. Put that date in your little black books, Waa-ites.

The subscription rate for the POINTER will be 15c per month for aviation students.

Home Ec. Club Has Scavenger Hunt

"Where can we find a cornstalk? Where on earth is that old witch's hat that I wore at the Hallowe'en program last year? Who would have a cowbell? Here's hoping that rusty dishpan is still in the garage!"

These are just a few of the thoughts that were running through the minds of the members of the Home Economics club when they enjoyed a scavenger hunt last Friday evening.

After the hunt the members returned to the college, where refresh-ments were served. The darkened dining room was decorated with two lighted jack-o'-lanterns on branches of barberry.

The committee in charge was composed of Katherine Guilkenson, Nanette Songe and Virginia Wojan.

Squadron D Gives Canteen Program

Betty Brill, Rosalie Klopotek, and "Romeo" Ray Ehrich and "Juliet" John Mallon furnished entertainment at the Campus Canteen last Saturday night. The program was sponsored by Sq. D, with Thomas Dorrcott as master of ceremonies. Refreshments were provided by the Stevens Point Woman's Club.
