Movie Again To Be Feature Of Assembly

TOM BROWN OF CULVER, a full length movie, will be shown at an assembly at 10:25 on Thursday, March 16.

Sent to Culver by the American Legion in memory of his father, "killed in action," Tom finds his father alive, a shell-shocked despot. He saves his father from suicide and wins a place for himself at school. Tom Brown and H. B. Warner have leading roles in the movie.

Sure 'Tis A Fine Day For The Irish

Begorra, and 'tis Friday that is after being a great day for the Irish, for St. Paddy's, and the blessed St. Patrick's day is rolling again. Every Irishman in CSTC will blossom out with a wee bit of green in honor of St. Pat, and the air will be full of the merry strains of "The Wearing Of The Green" and "Did Your Mother Come From Ireland?"

Agnes Kelly, Kathryn Kelly, Kathryn Kenny, Elizabeth McLaughlin, Anita Murphy, Mary Murphy, Roger McCallum, Miss Bertha Glennon and Miss Mae Roch are only a few of the many good old Irish names entered on CSTC's rolls, and faith, they must all have kissed the Blarney stone by the sweetness of their tongues.

So rally around all you colleens and ladies and celebrate St. Patrick's day in the regular old fashioned style. Remember, on St. Patrick's day an Irishman can do no wrong.

NOTICE—JUNIORS

All Juniors who expect to be enrolled as seniors at this college next year should come to the registrar's office to fill out senior rating cards this week.

Award Prizes For "Stories of Month"

The two best POINTER stories in the last four issues were written by Elizabeth McLaughlin and Aileen Bowman.

The best news story, "Make Extensive Union Decorations", which appeared in the February 23 issue of the POINTER was Elizabeth's. The best feature was "Miss Spandale Voices Approval of CSTC", from the POINTER of January 19, and was written by Aileen.

Honorably mention goes to Florence Flurgar for her article "The Teachers Have 'Em Too, Students" of February 16, and to Aileen Bowman for her article "Enrollment Shows A Slant Drop" in the February 9 issue of the POINTER.

Fox theatre tickets are awarded the authors of the best feature and best news story every month by Miss Bertha Glennon, editorial adviser of the POINTER.

Exhibit Currently On Display In Art Room

An art exhibit is on display in the Art room this week. It is sponsored by Binnem Smith, Company of New York. This exhibit has been on display in New York and is now on tour throughout the Middle West.

The pictures in the exhibit have been done by students ranging from fourth grade to sophomores in college. It shows a very good cross section of art work done throughout the nation because many states are represented.

The mediums used are pastel, fresco, transparent and opaque water color and finger-painting.

All prospective teachers are urged to come and see this very colorful exhibit.

Inter-Sorority Formal

Planned For March 25

The inter-sorority formal dancing party will be held at the Hotel Whirl on Saturday evening, March 25. The Castilians, popular orchestra will be booked to play for the dance, to be given by Tau Gamma Beta and Omega Mu Chi.

The formal will climax the three weeks pleading period, and new members will enter the sororities at initiation ceremonies preceding the traditional Victory Carnival.

Everyone is invited to attend the dance and tickets, at seventy-five cents, may be obtained from members of the sororities.

Joan Joosten, of Tau Gamma Beta, was elected president of the inter-sorority council at a meeting held on Friday night. Coeey, of Omega Mu Chi is the new secretary.

Plans for the formal and other social functions for the rest of the year were discussed.

Crowning Of Carnival Queen

Will Be Climax Of The Show

Looks like next Saturday evening will be one of fun for every one who has been a part of the Victory Carnival. The main show will open at 7 p.m. with a variety of sideshows. The sideshows include dance revues, movies, games, skill contests and all other many sparkling programs.

The main show, at 9 p.m., will be given by the faculty and the student body. The faculty's program, "Caught in the Draft", really is a riot, and the student impersonations of good teachers, which follows right on the heels of their show, will be murder!

And then, to top off the main show, the Carnival Queen will be crowned!

The Student Council is sponsoring the Victory Carnival to promote the sale of war stamps and bonds. Every vote cast in the final election of the Carnival Queen must be accompanied by the purchase of one ten cent stamp. The price of admission to each show is the purchase of one ten cent stamp, while two ten cent stamps must be bought for admission to the main show. War bonds will also be on sale, and anyone buying a bond will receive a ticket entitling him to see all the side shows and the main show.

Child Development—Is It A Misanomer?

Squirming squally, shippy little affair—just try giving him his bath, bottle, or try putting him to bed when he is in the mood for fun. After demonstrations given during the past few weeks in the Child Development class under the direction of Bessie May Allen, the Home Ec girls should be well prepared to give aid to a despondent mother.

Yes, baby must have his daily schedule. He voices his disapproval loud and clear when the schedule is not adhered to. Betty Purriea and Gertrude Heike gave the girls the proper procedure to keep baby in good health.

A wet soapy baby (even the Home Ec doll which the girls use) can travel far in the wrong direction if not properly supervised when giving him his bath. Hazel Tibbets demonstrated the technique to follow in giving the baby a beauty bath. About this time at least dozens of mothers could be well utilized in pinioning the baby down and giving him his bath.

Baby's formula! Ah—what fond mother hasn't wracked her brain over this? Now she can consult her reference book on advice. As for that important element of sleep, Bernadine Peterson or Blanche Padour should be proper authorities on the art of putting baby to bed!
Contribute To The Red Cross

The 1944 Red Cross War Fund drive is on. Now is the time for faculty and students of CSTC to prove that they are willing to sacrifice something that our servicemen may be aided by the Red Cross. The organization has played an active role in services to our armed forces, to the home front, and in foreign war relief.

Maybe you know a soldier whose life was saved by blood plasma. The Red Cross has saved millions of lives. Or, you may know a fellow in a Jap or German prison camp. In less than a year, over five million food parcels were packed for prisoners of war.

Servicemen's families have been aided, nurses have been recruited and assigned, wounded have been brought home, wounded veterans trained.

These are only a few of the aids which the Red Cross has made possible. And the organization cannot function without your contribution.

A box has been placed at the information window of the main office, and certificates will be issued there with every one dollar membership. Your contribution may be small, but by uniting it with that of every other true American you can help a soldier.

Johnny Edwards report that he has been thinking about but, so far, his word was not received until recently, because of the length of time it takes mail to reach the United States from South Pacific, where he was stationed.

Lieutenant Howard Sherman, former squad leader at Stevens Institute in Menomonie, Wisconsin, has been promoted as quartermaster from MTS to 9, has a cousin in Wisconsin who is a Brigadier General in the Army Service Corps. He dropped into the vernacular, since he had been thinking so he was "Deep South Pacific, writes that the war training program each squad has been given is a Brigadier General in the AAF in England.

The BTO* is at last going out of business. It will be BTH from now on.

A/S's Moore, Kastroll, Huber and Higgins have at last fallen in love. She is a beautiful, curvaceous Piping Rock blonde.

What's buzzin', cuzzin? Ask Russ Huber.

Maude Pounder has taken Jane's seat. She really has Group Adjunct John B. Gauthrier on the ropes. Saved by the bell. Two o'clock rolls around awfully fast, doesn't it?

A little advice to J. W. Meyers: It is a demerit offense to leave your teeth on the dresser during school hours.

Frank (the mauler) Joksalski presented Evelyn Pronz with a beautiful ring some weeks ago. The boys are all very much interested in the forthcoming election of a Queen, and responded favorably to her selection. Sorry, girls, we can't divulge results.

Will miracles never cease. The bags under Group Commander Bill Grant's eyes were rather large at the usual reason — Wonder if he knows what Army regulations are.

The boys of the 97th favor the select squad of Squadron D. Flight Lieut. Ulrickson and A/S Parker have wonderful0 good on their trunks. Keep it up boys, you'll make soldiers yet.

Howard Sherman, former squad commander of D, has apparently slipped into the vernacular, since he was relieved of his responsibilities and duties. Observe the daily gung bulletin.

Are You One Of The Left-Handed Band?

After interviewing several CSTC students who are left-handed, one can see that they have a very different viewpoint towards the subject. Helen Jacobson feels that it is only natural for her to write with her left hand, and it doesn't bother her at all.

Nelda Dopp says, "It's the only sensible way to do things. I've been left-handed ever since I can remember, and no one has tried to make me change, thank goodness!"

Ruth Hobart is another left-handed student at CSTC. She thinks that right-handed people are the ones who are "all wrong." Ruth states, "I can't stand to see people writing and ironing with their right hand. They seem to be left-handed themselves."

Eunice Goeller doesn't think that being left handed is a liability either, and says, "The chairs in the classrooms are made for right-handed students. (Miss Mildred Davis does have a "left-handed" chair in her room, however.)"
The selection of our Carnival Queen is well under way now but remember, gang, you have until Saturday night to let us know whom you want. This should be fun to watch. Ahhhh how wonderful, CSTC with its own queen.

We have picked up a rumor that "Wimpy" Wipperfurth is doing the town with an old friend, Hugh Foster. Hugh is employed in the Four Wheel Drive so he has ventured with its own queen.

I guess everyone knows Jesse, who works at the Eat Shop, but did you know that she is the best winder in the whole school? That's no kidding and you should see what it does to these powerful Air Corps men.

How about that Jesse?

We found an old POINTER from 1927 lying around and we couldn't help chuckling at what we saw. They were charging 75¢ a copy then, the school was called SPTC, the science club was touring the telephone building, Pino Pain Tablets and Coca Crush were being advertised and they were pulling jokes on Mr. Steiner in the humor column. A sophomore was addressing his speech class on pacifism. A freshman was writing an editorial on fellowship and Chit 'n Chat was under the dignified title of Society.

We are under the impression that a lot of our students have learned that you can't depend on the weather. They looked at last Thursday and Friday and planned a sleigh ride for Saturday night. Woe is me you can't go sleighing in the rain. Maybe Miss Hanson or Mr. Watson could explain that to you. Alice Klake has a brand new angle. Ask her what reason she gave for missing chemistry Monday. We will give you A for ingenuity, Alice. Janet Good made sure she would get a man she wouldn't forget. A handy name, that Jimmy J. Jones. The j's have it without a doubt.

Ruth Hobart and Harriet Berens made life very interesting for the photographer last Monday. The stands got weak just as they ascended and what a commotion ensued.

Ellen Gordon has been keeping happy by keeping company with one Chuck. Isn't it an old truth that men prefer blondes?

Pat Brooks has been walking the halls asking for advice as to what she should do when she can't sleep at night. What's on your mind, Pat?

It seems that A/S Glen Seltzer has good reason for going around with that glum look the past few days. Stevens Point lads do get furloughs now and then.

If you've seen Beth Johnson today you have probably wondered about the whirl of excitement she is in. As the early dawn breaks through tomorrow morning, Beth will board a bus to visit her one and only, who, by the way, was formerly with the 97th here at CSTC.

Another little lass who was fortunate enough to visit her little lad is Marjorie Stimm. I'll bet it seemed like spring in Chicago even with this rough weather, didn't it, Marjorie?

We hope the beginning of the week was no indication of what we are doing to the poor faculty. No less than three members were at home all day! Dean Pfiffner and Miss Davis were out, and you can probably guess from the mistakes in this week's POINTER that Miss Glen- ton wasn't here on Monday night.

Keep working hard on the stunts and we'll see you at the Carnival Saturday night. It's for fun! It's for victory!

Initiate New Members

Seven students became members of Alpha Kappa Rho at an initiation party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Michelsen on Monday night. A buffet luncheon preceded the initiation ceremonies and a program was presented by the new members under the direction of Brigetta Fleischmann.

The new members are Rachel Eide, Brigetta Fleischmann, Joan Joosten, Ruth Lindsay, Joyce Rathke, Marjorie Stimm, and Eula "Pal" Alter.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Plank, Miss Marjorie Loberg, Miss Susan Colman and Miss Hazel Benson.

Omegas Hold Regular Meeting

Omega Mu Chi sorority met last night for their regular meeting at the home of Beth Johnson. After the business meeting conducted by President Harriet Coey, Virginia Grassl was in charge while the pledges entertained the actives. Last week Ruth Michelsen entertained at her home.

Tau Gams Meet

Tau Gamma Beta sorority held its regular meeting on Tuesday, March 14. After the business meeting, the pledges entertained the actives and helped with the serving.

Mrs. George Berg entertained the sorority at her home on March 7. Pink and blue sweet peas and pink candles decorated the table. The colors were also carried out in the refreshments.
