Greeck Hall Week Highlights Rushing

Once more it is time that all Fair Point students and their families should be on hand at CSTC. Yes, for next week is Carnival Rush, the period during which the pledges are always ready to obey your commands. The Greeck octions are again offering the trove of delights for their pledges to do, and of course the pledges are always ready to obey your commands.

This is the week when any pledge will tell you that they have seen Omega Mu Chi "seed" plays in their homes, and that the pledge costumes and traditional paddles are being worn with finesse. The bulletin boards are filled with everything from kindergarten drawings to love poems.

The climax will come on Friday night (Hull night) when all the pledges will go through the final initiation. The pledges will then be active members of the sorority or fraternity of their choice. No doubt there will be more than one sigh of relief.

Co-op Eating Plan Working Very Well

As much as ever before, we heard that old refrain last week—"Going over to eat?" But it has an entirely different meaning behind these words. Not only are the coffee, doughnut and a cup of coffee, but also the lunches and support to 130 men and women—students of CSTC who have enrolled under the cooperative plan at Klink's restaurant.

Many of the men, in order to have an extra helping, are volunteering for K.P. duty (at 35 cents an hour) which includes picking potatoes, sweeping floors, washing dishes and even meal planning under the able leadership of Miss Kathleen Milne.

"Have you ever known to peel carrots?" a group of well-meaning workers assured the manager one day while Del and Phi Psi in hand, they earnestly (and painfully, scraped and peeled carrots for what seemed like hours. Later they were informed that the nicest little carrot scrap had been invented just to make that worthwhile task easy. They'll learn—and oh, how they will—very soon!

Band Gathers Trees to Decorate Auditorium for Christmas Concert

Last Saturday, several men from the college band accompanied Peter Michelsen to the farm owned by Peter Fick and cut down fir trees donated by Peter Fick for the annual Christmas Concert.

Every Christmas, the music department plans its annual concerts, the first concert being the 40th anniversary concert. This year the concert will be held in the auditorium on December 21st at 8 p.m.

The music department, as well as the entire student body, wishes to express its appreciation to everyone who will participate in the concert. The concert will be held in the auditorium at 8 p.m. on December 21st. The money will be transferred to the band uniform fund.

Many Vacancies In Teaching Field

With the end of the first semester just in sight, Dr. Raymond E. Gottschalk, director of the music department, is reporting that many schools in the area have begun hiring teachers for the fall semester. In fact, applicants have applied for teachers from CSTC.

The requests are for elementary, Home Economics and other secondary teachers. There are teacher vacancies in the following schools: Rhinelander, Park Falls, Redgranite, Weyauwega, Ripon, Beloit, Milwaukee and many others. Dr. Gottschalk states that anyone qualified to fill a vacancy should report to the Training School at once.

Among the many requests for entering the teaching field next semester are Martin Sheffier, Frank Splitek and Charles Miller. Miss Helen Zentner has accepted a position on the Wausau high school faculty.

Under the direction of Doctor Gottschalk, Training school faculty members are working on their fall recitals. President William C. Hansen was guest speaker at one of these recitals last week. At another recital the teacher was at the meeting held last week.

Miss Ida Owey of the State Department of Public Instruction was in session and made a report on the Training school kindergarten last Friday.

Dr. Gottschalk was elected chairman of the Music Department for the 1946-47 at the Wisconsin Education Assembly held recently in Milwaukee.

Student Council Drops Matter of Proposed Vacation

A special meeting of the Student Council was called last week to take action on a proposal for a two and a half day vacation to precede the schedule of examinations. Petitions signed by some 400 students started the movement and the matter was referred to the Council. A delegation consisting of Esther Davison, Frank Spille, Bill Ramsey, Mildred Ross and others went before President Art Peja, met with Presi dent W. C. Hansen, and Thursday morning was set aside for the discussion.

In the interest of the student body the Council felt that the proposal be changed so that the days off would be counted as regular days. The plan which was proposed was turned down.

3. Any other day, therefore, that the student body voted to have the Thanksgiving vacation would have to be added to the calendar, whether or not the faculty votes to attend.

4. Christmas vacation is just the same. The Thanksgiving vacation was taken over the years and the same change would be difficult to effect.

Greeck Club Presents Assembly Today

The Men's Greeck club of Central State College will sponsor its first assembly concert of the year today. The concert will take place in the auditorium. More than half of the halls of CSTC will echo with the vibrant voices of the members of the Greeck club on the occasion of the annual concert on campus.

This morning's concert, under the direction of Norman E. Krueger, will feature the voices of 94 men, singing both popular and semi-classical selections written by American composers. An added treat in the form of several novelty selections is planned for further entertainment.

Next week on Tuesday, December 26, at 8:15 p.m., the following program will be presented at a public celebration of the assembly in the auditorium.

Thanksgiving Prayer

Thank you, Lord, For all the tender thoughts you have brought us For all the days of honest toil which left us feeling that we had grown by the grace of God. Thank you, Lord, For all the tender thoughts you have brought us For the grace which settled slowly over the land. Thank you, Lord, For all the tender thoughts you have brought us For tables laden with the fruits of fertile soil. Thank you, Lord, For all the tender thoughts you have brought us For the fun and laughter we have shared together. Thank you, Lord, For all the tender thoughts you have brought us For the little things which go unheeded in the rush of living. For all Thy blessings, Lord, which shroud our life in the land...

Basketball Squads Getting into Shape to Play in Upcoming Seasons

Basketball is in full swing at the Central State with about 50 fellows working out each night at the Train- ing Eye of Coach George Berg.

The squad will not be cut until after next week, as Coach Berg plans faculty conference and USM meetings. This proposal would call the CSTC league to remain their grip on the top position on the league and Seagrams’ Sevens being beaten by the Sad Sacks. Ed Fenelon was high single game bowler with a 208 total. Other high games were: Kazik, 188; Gappa, 185-179; Roberts, 180; Porter, 178; Capacks, 176.

One-act Play Contest to Be Held Saturday

A district high school one-act play contest to be held in the college auditorium on Saturday, November 23, beginning at 1 p.m. Schools participating will be those who won "A" ratings in their league contests. Winners of "A" ratings here will go to the state contest in Madison.

Leland M. Burroughs, who judged the plays in this league, awarded "A" ratings to Marshfield, presenting the play "Riders to the Sea" and to Stevens Point with "Pot Boilers". The latter is directed by Ted Meyer, a graduate of CSTC, who is now teaching at P. J. Jacobs High School.

Schools that participated in the league contests which were held early in November were Mosinee, Westfield, Stevens Point, Tigerton, Greenwood, Marshfield, Loyal, Montello, Scandinavia, Koshot, Wittenberg, Colby, Matson, Wisconsin Rapids, Gresham, Birnamwood, Endlevor and River Falls.

Mr. Burroughs will be host to the visitors on Saturday, and members of the technical staff of College Theater will assist with the presentations.

F. P. Cuperly, superintendent of Medford schools, is general chairman of the contest.

Rural Life

Alex Petersen, director of the Rural Education Model School, favored members of the Rural Life club with a few piano selections at the regular meeting held last Monday night. Numbers played were Chopin's "Rainbow Prelude" and two nocturnes, followed by the lively "Capricante" by Paul Wacho.

Mr. Petersen discussed the positive aspects of teaching at a one-room school. This talk proved interesting since this subject has been discussed widely throughout the nation. He concluded his talk with a very poetic description of "Life in the Country" which proved very effective.

The members of the group then joined for a short interval of group singing before the meeting was adjourned.

Newest Instructor

a Welcome Addition

Central State has been blessed with its faculty members. Each new addition seems more pleasing — and so it is with Miss Miriam Moser. A most apt description of the new physical education instructor may be found in the trite phrase, "little, but oh, my! A quick, light step and buoyant laughter are characteristic of her. Good nature and a lively sense of humor are barely hidden by her quick tongue and keen wit. She is a delight to know.

Appleton, Wisconsin, was the birthplace of this vivacious young teacher. She attended grade and high schools. A major in physical education at the University of Wisconsin and La Crosse State Teachers college, she was graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree. Teaching positions at Whitewater, Elgin Academy, Elgin, Illinois; and West High School in Milwaukee, from which she came to CSTC, complete the list of vital statistics.

At Stevens Point, Miss Moser has charge of several classes in physical education at the Training School. She also teaches three college classes.

Enjoys Work

Her comment on her work was this, "I enjoy all the students I have - Training school and college — and that's the truth!" (It's evident among her students that that feeling is mutual.)

Just try to find from her what her interests are! Versatility and varied are the key words. She just likes attending to everyone and everybody. In the field of sports she plays no favorites — "They're all swell!" She's never at a loss for something to do, for her favorite indoor sport is tennis.

Miss Moser became quite specific on the matter of her pet peeve, however. Quote (with a smile): People who don't even attempt to think clearly. Unquote. (Which covers a multitude of sins, we think!)

The night housing shortage seems to have been the deciding factor which led to her residence at Nelson Hall. Whatever the case may have been, Room 135 is now her temporary home.

Nelson Hall and the rest of the campus salute a grand newcomer, Miss Miriam Moser.

Training School News

The week of November 10-16 was nationally known to school children as National Education Week. Throughout the week, programs were presented by the social studies classes of the M. D. B. Junior High school. The themes under discussion were: Investing in Education, Developing Better Communities, Home Life Education and Education for Health and Safety. Last Friday afternoon, at 3 p.m., an informal tea was held in the Training School library for the parents and teachers. Musical selections were presented and cider and cookies were served as refreshments.

On Monday, November 11, an Armistice Day program was given. It consisted of the presentation and salute to the flag and a moment of silent prayer for the soldiers who gave their lives during World War I. The poem "In Flanders Fields" was read by Sally Miller, and with this the program was concluded.

Let us close now with this waggery:

This is the flu season. Don't disregard a small cold or muscular ache. The flu, when given a good start, can cause untold loss in time, money and health. So keep those feet dry, keep those coats buttoned and let's kick the flu this winter. Watch yourselves for the first sign and then act quickly.

That's all for now and a happy Thanksgiving to you all. We'll see you again after the vacation. Until then, keep your eye on "The Seeing Eye".
