

Jones and Ritchay Name Staff of 1947 Yearbook

Several Jobs Still Open on Iris Staff

This list is not at all complete. The Iris needs more writers and typists. Any volunteers will be gratefully accepted. Any pictures taken by college students or their friends will also be accepted for consideration in the forthcoming publication. The Iris office is on the first floor, next to the Pointer office.

The Iris staff has hope of producing a book somewhat new and different this year. If the Iris is to come out on time, it is absolutely necessary that most of the pictures be in by the end of the first semester. Presidents of organizations are urged to contact the editors as soon as possible in regard to organization pictures.

Bill Ritchay, business manager, has chosen the following staff: Foster Diley, co-manager, Esther Davidson, layout artist, Dolores Cowles, Pat Jones, Geraldine Roberts, Marianne Simonson, Reuben Beilke and Lyle Boelter.

The business staff is not complete either, and anyone interested is urged to contact Bill Ritchay as soon as possible!

NOTICE

Do you plan to vote on November 5?

If you are 21 years old or over, you are eligible to vote somewhere. If you are a Wisconsin resident staying in Stevens Point and are "on your own" you can vote here, but you must register at the city hall before October 24. This includes veteran students under the "G. I. Bill of Rights", and others earning their own support. It does not include commuters or those whose main support is from their parents who live elsewhere. They would be eligible to vote at their home or the home of their parents.

Mr. Watson Lectures At Training School

Charles F. Watson, former geography instructor at CSTC, gave a talk on geology to the members of the sixth grade at the Training school on Wednesday, October 2.

His visit was requested by the class so that the students might get information for their study of rocks and changes in the earth's surface. This science unit is being developed with the social studies unit on prehistoric life, under the direction of Mrs. Hester Feller Brien, sixth grade supervisor.

Mr. Watson gave very interesting facts, answered questions and helped to identify rocks in the collection the pupils are making.

Pointers to Battle Milwaukee Saturday

CSTC plays host to the Milwaukee peds at Goerke Park on Saturday afternoon. The Green Gulls will be seeking a second conference victory having defeated Whitewater last Saturday, whereas the Bergmen will be out to topple the Milwaukeeans for CSTC's first victory.

A comparison of the two teams finds CSTC the underdogs in the coming contest. Milwaukee has a tie and a win in two games, while the Pointers in three attempts have a tie and two losses.

Milwaukee downed the White-water Quakes in their first conference game, 7-0. Oshkosh, by defeating CSTC, is tied for first place with Milwaukee. The Quakes and CSTC are tied for second place, while Platteville remained idle last week. A win for Point would place them in a favorable position for a share of the top honors in the Southern Conference.

Chi Dels Will Give First Student Dance

Come one, come all, to the first student sponsored dance of the year on Saturday, October 12, in the Training school gym. Music for this Chi Delta Rho sponsored dance will be furnished by the newly organized Playboys' Orchestra, directed by Mark Bornfleth, a CSTC student.

Dances after home football games are a tradition so everyone is urged to come over to the gym for an evening of entertainment. This is one of a series of dances to be sponsored by student groups this year.

Tickets On Sale Friday

Tickets have been printed for the dance and will be on sale Friday on the second floor and at the dance. Due to a slight misunderstanding, the duration of the dance is listed as 9 to 1 o'clock and should be 8 to 12 o'clock in order to conform to school regulations for informal dances. Single admission, including tax, will be 40c.

So, don't forget the dance this Saturday night after the Milwaukee game!

Final Story About Faculty Additions

The first issue of the Pointer carried a story of faculty changes for this year. This story has been rapidly growing because of the addition of student assistants in the various departments, all of which have large enrollments.

In order to conclude the serial, the Pointer this week is printing the complete list of student assistants as obtained from President William C. Hansen. They are as follows:

Laboratory assistants in physics: Edward Boycks and Leonard Guth (Guth is not a student this semester but will be next semester). Chemistry laboratory and stock room assistants: Percy Voight, lab supervisor, William Hansen, Halbert Hardrath, Betty Maki and John Mase, Geography laboratory assistant: Frank Splittek. Student assistant teachers in freshman mathematics: Vincent Brunner and Arthur Pejza. Student teachers of English 99: Jim Hanig and Rosemary Nelson. Student assistants to Miss Mildred Davis: Ruth Ruff, French, and Margaret Albrecht, Spanish.

Faculty Thanks to Merve and Irene

Faculty and students are grateful to Merve and Irene Masten, owners of the Eat Shop, for their generous contribution of punch at the first faculty reception on September 13. The Mastens not only mixed the punch but came over to the reception to help serve it.

When Mrs. Mildred Williams, chairman of the faculty social committee, asked the Mastens to send a bill for the punch, she received the following letter:

"Irene and I have wanted to do something for the college for a long time. So—the drinks are on us. We had fun and enjoyed doing it. Irene and Merve."

So here's a toast to the Mastens from the students and faculty.

Secondary Forum Elects New Officers

Edward Boycks was elected president of the Forum, organization of the secondary division, at their initial meeting held on Thursday morning, October 3, in the college auditorium.

Other officers elected were vice-president, Bill Golomski and secretary-treasurer, Bob Hanson. Adviser for the Forum is Raymond M. Rightsell, director of the secondary division.

After the election, the newly chosen officers were then called upon to say a few words. Each accepted his office and thanked the students for their support.

Mr. Rightsell gave a short talk stressing the importance of the organization. In his own words he hoped the secondary division would become, "the peppy, strong and vivid organization that everyone was talking about before the war."

Before the meeting ended, Mr. Rightsell called upon Ed Przybylski, general chairman of Homecoming events, to say a few words. Ed expressed his hopes that all organizations would cooperate toward making the Homecoming successful. The Homecoming program was outlined, with particular stress on the parade.

Przybylski also stated that the Student Council, which is sponsoring the Homecoming festivities, is out to make this the greatest Homecoming in the history of CSTC. This aim can only be achieved by full cooperation on the part of each student. It is the aim of the secondary division to do its utmost in achieving this goal.

Council Announces Plans for Elections

Elections for class officers will be held on Friday, October 11, from 8:15 a. m. to 3 p. m. on the second floor in the vicinity of the library.

Because of the large number of students in the Freshman class, a separate voting booth will be set up for them. Bill Ramsay, newly elected Student Council representative for the Freshman class, will be in charge. Bill Mellin will have charge of the voting booth for upper classmen. Both chairmen will choose their own assistants.

All candidates for class offices will be introduced at a student assembly this morning at 10 o'clock in the auditorium. Students are urged to be there and to support their choice of candidates at the election tomorrow.

CSTC's Band Ready, Willing and ABL

Now that the war is over and re-conversion has practically stopped, all collegiate organizations are again beginning to function with pre-war alacrity. However, the thing that generates school spirit and a feeling of pre-war splendor is particularly important. Et qu'est ce que c'est?

It's the college band under the very able direction of Peter J. Michelsen. True, the band isn't as large as in some other years, but it does have 40 members and has just as much school spirit as ever. Watch the band this year, as it's going places! If you'd like to go, too, just pick up your instrument and meet in the band room, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 3 until 4 p. m. Let Mr. Michelsen and the band show you the way to a well-rounded, richer college career.

Homecoming Plans Progressing Well

Homecoming plans are progressing splendidly with several organizations already having placed entries for the Homecoming Parade.

The Homecoming festivities will open with Hobo Convention Day on Friday, October 18. Homecoming Chairman, Ed Przybylski, urges the entire student body and faculty to support this occasion. The Hobo delegates will end their convention at a special assembly to be held Friday at 3 p. m. The crowning of a Homecoming Queen by the football captain and the electing of a Hobo King by popular applause will highlight the assembly.

Friday evening the traditional bonfire and snake dance will be preceded by an outdoor pep rally to be held on Schmecke Field. The ceremonies commence at 6:45 p. m. and will finish in time to enable everyone to attend the semi-formal dance being given in the Training school gym. The dance, sponsored by Phi Sigma Epsilon, begins at 9 p. m.

The big event of the Homecoming celebration will be the all-school parade, which begins at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, and which promises to be one of the most successful in CSTC's history. Organizations which have not yet placed entries for the parade are requested to contact the General Chairman, Ed Przybylski.

Not only is every CSTC organization expected to place either a float or novelty entry, but independent groups of students are urged to participate, also. Each entry must be accompanied by a fifty cent fee. This money will be pooled and given out as prizes. There will be a first and second prize for the outstanding floats and a first and second prize for the outstanding novelty exhibits. A group of Stevens Point business people will comprise the judging committee.

An informal dance sponsored by the "S" club will conclude the Homecoming festivities on Saturday night.

Student from Cuba Enrolled at CSTC

Among the many students who have come from afar to attend CSTC is William Neddermeyer, a native of Havana, Cuba. Bill was born in Havana almost 20 years ago and he has resided there most of his life.

He attended Vedado high school, which has a five year high school course. After four years, students may have a year of either pre-medical, pre-letters, or pre-science training.

Studied English In Cuba

While in high school, Bill studied English during his sophomore and junior years. This study, coupled with his interest in traveling, prompted him to decide upon attending college in the United States.

Neddermeyer is enrolled in a general course here at CSTC, but he plans to transfer into engineering later. He has chosen this field because of the tremendous amount of work planned for his native isle in the near future.

Last August, Bill left Cuba for the first time in his life. After landing at Miami, he came to Stevens Point, where he is now residing at the home of an aunt, Mrs. Theobald Bentzen. He found Florida much the same as Cuba, but he began to notice differences in his surroundings immediately after beginning his trip northward.

Impressed By Climate

This country differs greatly from Cuba in many respects, according to Neddermeyer. For example, in Cuba he could reach out of his window and pick many of the delicacies which are rarities in this northern climate. On the other hand, things which seem commonplace to us, such as the multicolored autumn leaves, are strange and impressive to a newcomer. The arrival of snow, which northerners consider ordinary, is eagerly awaited by this visitor from the tropics.

Bill is enjoying his stay in Stevens Point, and is very much pleased with life in "los Estados Unidos." He likes American music and literature, and finds college life at CSTC quite interesting.

So, a hearty welcome to you, Bill Neddermeyer. We hope that you will enjoy your stay here, and that when you leave you will take with you favorable impressions and pleasant memories of CSTC.

Notice to Seniors

The deadline for Senior pictures for the Iris has been set for November 15. The official photographers are Tucker's Studio, Noah's Ark and Kennedy's, all of Stevens Point. Seniors are urged to be sure to notify the photographer that the pictures are for the Iris, so that all pictures will be uniform in size.

Join The Big Parade!

The following organizations have pledged entries in the Homecoming Parade Saturday, October 19:

Chi Delta Rho
Phi Sigma Epsilon
Men's Glee Club
Pointer-Iris
Student Council
Newman Club
Primary Council
Nelson Hall

Omega Mu Chi
Tau Gamma Beta
Rural Life
Home Ec Club

Protect Our Heritage

With a beautiful Indian summer to highlight the fall weather, students find that sojourns in the surrounding wooded areas are much more pleasant than sitting indoors over a "who-dunit" novel.

Woods are carpeted with fallen leaves and pine needles, brilliant in hue and crunchy underfoot, but dry as tinder. A match half-extinguished or a cigarette carelessly thrown aside could start a raging inferno that might wipe out in one afternoon woodlots and even farm homes and buildings that would be almost impossible to replace.

So let's all be vigilant, especially during Fire Prevention Week and make sure that such catastrophes cannot be traced back to any of our carelessness.

It might be well also for each of us to go on a one-man fire hazard hunting campaign in our own homes—or our own rooms. We could see that electric wiring is safe, that sufficient ashtrays are supplied and that metal ashcans are provided for refuse.

We should do our best when the fire drills are held in the college building. We must walk quickly, but not run, toward the exit designated by the sign posted in the particular classroom we are in when the fire bell rings. We should leave immediately, not stopping to pick up books or other materials. It is only through the help and cooperation of each student that these fire drills can be a success.

Dorm Doin's

"Short-but sweet"—could be ascribed to the first week of October. Sure was short, and sure was sweet.

All the girls who left Nelson Hall the semblance of a rather forlorn domicile Thursday last, had no idea of the transformation they created. Lonesome as it looked, however, the handful of persons who did stay here found the week-end homelike, from dinner by the fireplace to doing their own dishes. You must try it some time.

We've been neglecting a group of worthy souls—not purposely, either. Sound ye the trumpets—roll the drums—we aim to present the receptionists and waitresses of Nelson Hall this year. Of the former are: Gerry Roberts, Pat Jones, Marianne Simonson, Marne Guth, Gail Smith and Lorraine Meyer. Nelda Dopp, Ruth Wachholz, Alta Kromroy, Liz Stadler, Carrie Krogness, Pat Thorpe, Dolores Cowles, Madeline Williams, Mary Juetten and Lorraine Levr compose the latter group. Helping Mrs. "Tracy" Higgins, our housekeeper, is Marjorie Beaver. (By the way, Marjorie's name is Beaver and not Bea-ver, as people think).

Masculinity is again in evidence—and that aura of protectiveness is felt at Nelson Hall. An innovation this fall is a man (one Martin Schaefer) who takes charge of the desk during late hours on week-ends. We of this column are trying to work up courage to approach the man for an interview. (No, he isn't bad—at all, we're just man-shy. (?) Anyway that is something to look forward to.

Elmer Hayes, Gene Diercks, Earl Cotter and Orval Moser are the long-suffering members of the strong, silent sex who keep the Dorm in good working condition by doing dishes, emptying waste baskets, cleaning, etc. One of them was asked what he thought of his job. His answer? "Well... it's interesting."

Add the $64 question: What assistant to what housemother tied a certain mechanical contraption (better known as an alarm clock) to the latter's bed—causing her to lose a little (?) sleep one early morning? Yes, they're at it again!

An old-fashioned "Koffee

Notice

Any organizations that wish to have notices of their coming meetings printed in the Pointer should leave a note in the Pointer office before Monday at 4 p. m. This note should give the name of the organization and the time and place of the meeting.

Klaatsch was enjoyed by some faculty friends of Miss Bovee and Miss Henriksen one night recently. An "unspeakable" Danish coffee cake was served. This delicacy is such a favorite of Myrtle Henriksen's that we heard that her middle name is "Kringel". She, however, wasn't the only one who appreciated it—she had to promise to bring some back from Racine this week-end.

Mrs. Pfiffner and Mary—everyone's favorite houseguests, have moved to their "other" home. Needless to say they really are missed. We are insisting that the visits will be frequent and soon, for we like to have them with us.

Yes, we were at the game at Oshkosh—quite a number of us. We met Doris Ubbelohde there with Gail Smith, her week-end guest.

The dimly lit corridors of second floor smell strongly of coffee around some of the wee hours. We've heard that studious upper classmen need assistance in keeping awake over assignments yet unfinished.

Carolyn Peterson, newly appointed freshman representative for the Dorm council, after four weeks of college is cutting a wisdom tooth.

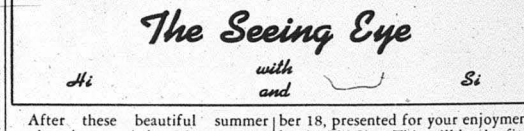

Forestry Class to Visit Madison Lab

Several members of the forestry class, under the direction of Fred J. Schmeckle, left early this morning for Madison where they will visit the Forest Products Laboratory.

In the afternoon the group will go through the Arboretum at the University of Wisconsin.

Several trips have been planned for laboratory work which must be done outside. These trips will be made sometime in the near future.

Mention "The Pointer"

After these beautiful summer week-ends, coupled with an extra day in which to enjoy them, you should try to write a column to compete with the feeling this weather generates. As impervious as we are to the emotional upsets that occur during Indian Summer, we even find ourselves succumbing to the day dreams and wishful thinking that are so prevalent in this period. So please forgive any indiscretions and irrelevancies which may occur in the following column. Ahh, me, it's too bad we're too old to be appreciated, but who can compete or even keep up with the youth of today? Listen to Father Time philosophize, just like a text book. Remember them?

We just received the sad story on the football game at Oshkosh on Saturday. It really was a sad story, too. The team looked good and everything was going fine when WHAM! the roof fell in. It seems as if the boys have had their share of tough breaks in the first three games. Maybe they should team up with Brooklyn. Since the Dodgers lost the pennant the only tree that grows in Brooklyn in a weeping willow. Seriously though, we will all be out in full force next Saturday to see CSTC take Milwaukee into camp. Don't give up the ship—we've still got the oars!

There is another inauguration on next Saturday evening that should receive notice and that is the informal dance in the Training school gym. This dance is being sponsored by the Chi Delt fraternity and brings forth the newly organized college dance orchestra. This should prove to be an occasion to attend, not only to dance, but to listen to the talent we have right here in our midst. Before the war we had such an organization and it proved to be a versatile and interesting aggregation. So give the boys a vote of confidence and be present at this dance.

Homecoming is only two weeks away! Have you planned your float? We want to make this the biggest and best parade we have had to show the town we are back in full force with the real spirit and aggressiveness of former years. This means work, but you will find out the returns justify any labor expended. Let the air ring with cries of "Beat Whitewater" or reasonable facsimiles.

Then, too, don't forget the first formal of the year on Friday, Octo-

Numerous Students Married This Summer

Several students have expressed the desire to become better acquainted with the married students who are now attending CSTC, so the Pointer would like to introduce you to a few of the students and alumni who were married this summer.

Neva Jane Burroughs and Jim Hanig were married June 6. Neva Jane is teaching in Wausau and Jim is attending school here.

Next on the list of newly-weds are Marjorie Stimm and Orland Radke. Marjorie and Orland, who were married August 24, are both teaching at Edgar this year.

Mildred Ross and Stephen Speidel were married August 25. Both are now attending CSTC. "Milly", when interviewed, hinted what a wonderful cook she is.

On August 28, Joyce Hennick and John Studinger were married, and they too are attending CSTC.

On August 31 Betty Kunde and Bob Hanson were married. Betty is working at the Hardware Mutuals and Bob is attending CSTC.

Mavis Dumdei was married last spring to Clifford Bartlett and managed to keep the wedding a secret until the middle of the summer. Mavis is back this fall, as a junior in the primary division.

ber 18, presented for your enjoyment by the Phi Sigs. This will be the first opportunity for the girls to show off their new creations, and frankly after seeing them all dressed up for the Tau Gam tea last week, we decided to create an ordinance to the effect that they shall dress up for school every day. Whee! some of them we didn't even recognize and we're anxious to cast our weather-beaten eyes on the new forms. Don't wait to be asked, girls, you

Radio Workshop

"Attention, please! The Radio Workshop of CSTC is now broadcasting its programs over WLBL according to schedule every day, Monday through Friday at 3:15 p. m. Are you listening in at that time?"

"Our College Roundtable" will present its first scheduled program today, October 10, on the topic, "Can There Be World Peace?" Discussion views will be both pro and con. Members of this week's roundtable will include: Tex Bragg, Dick Howland, Alan Fonstad, Jim Stoltenberg and Lewis McDermott.

For those who like classical music, "Melodies from the East" will be the theme of the "Music Album" on Friday. This inspirational half-hour of charm will bring you "American in Paris" and "Rhapsody in Blue," by composer George Gershwin. Other favorites will be two selections from "Showboat" by Jerome Kern. The never-to-be-forgotten melodies of "Night and Day" and "Begin the Beguine," by Cole Porter, will conclude the program. The dialogue is written by Alta Kromroy, with Frank Kostuck as the narrator.

Flash! President William C. Hansen will appear on "Our College" program on Monday, October 14. Campus news is also featured weekly at this time under the direction of John Steeves.

A continued feature will be "Books and Authors" on Tuesday, October 15. Jean Walker, narrator, will review a current best seller in the world of literature.

Wednesday's program will be the "Radio Workshop Players" presenting the weekly radio skit. The "players" consist of all Workshop members who are not on the regular staff.

So, for entertainment direct from your own campus, keep your dial tuned to the "Radio Workshop" programs.

Omega Mu Chi

Yellow tea roses flanked by yellow tapers in pewter candelabra made an attractive centerpiece for the tea table at the annual Omega Mu Chi sorority tea in the Home Economics rooms on Wednesday afternoon.

Tiny corsages of colorful bitterness and evergreen were given as favors to each guest at the tea.

The receiving line included Lorraine Peters, president of Omega Mu Chi; Antoinette Tushinski, vice-president; Mrs. Elizabeth Pfiffner, dean of women; Mrs. Leland M. Burroughs, honorary member; Mrs. Earle Kidder, patroness; and Miss Susan Colman of the faculty.

Mrs. Harold Tolo, honorary member, Miss Katherine Hope, Omega alum, Gloria Heimbruch and Ruth Ruff poured during the course of the afternoon.

Esther Davidson was general chairman of the tea. Her committees were as follows: Invitations, Louise Rogers, Jean Fumelle; favors, Margaret Roberts, Margaret Hull, Marilyn Anderson; food, Dolores Schulist, Kathleen Berg, Dolores Jelinek, Frances Kutchenruter, and Marjorie Schrank. Althea Boorman was in charge of the sorority hostesses.

Supply Counter Has Variety of Materials

The College Supply Counter, managed by Grant Thayer, who is capably aided and abetted by his wife, Shirley Fonstad Thayer, has been the objective of many seekers after school supplies. Generally the would-be-purchasers walk away satisfied, for, although hampered by current and common shortages, Thayer has managed to keep one jump ahead of demand.

With few exceptions, students can readily supply and equip themselves entirely and completely at the Counter. Here one can find not only run-of-the-mill supplies but also worth while extras. At present college men and women will find an outstanding collection of art supplies and also an attractively styled type of stationery, the design of which is the work of Miss Mildred Davis of the faculty.

Located Opposite Library

Located opposite the east entrance of the library, the Counter, is conveniently situated. It is a function of the college, with all profits being expended for the upkeep and restocking of supplies.

A comparatively short while ago the Counter was located on the first floor and at that time it was under the management of Mae Hoffman. The manager of the Counter works under the supervision of Dean Herbert R. Steiner of the faculty.

The present manager is attending school here at the college. He expects to graduate at the end of the current semester but will not teach if present plans culminate.

Manager a Veteran

Thayer left the college in the spring of 1943, at which time he went into the Army. During the war he flew a C-47 troop transport in the European Theater. On Christmas of 1945 he received his discharge and shortly after he again enrolled at CSTC.

Mrs. Thayer graduated from CSTC in 1944 at which time she accepted a teaching position at New Holstein. Here she taught social science at the high school for a year and a half.

In the future when you desire the best in supplies, who not visit the College Counter? Here you have access to the best of materials and you also have the cooperation and services of two pleasant people. (Free advertisement!)

Faculty, Chi Delts Lead Bowling Loop

The Chi Delts and the Faculty are still tied for first place in the student-faculty bowling league, each team having six victories against three defeats. The Phi Sigs, Swan's Dive, and the Sad Sacks are tied for second place, one game behind the leaders, and are followed by Mosinee, with four wins and five losses. Seagrams' Seven has won three games and lost six, and the Moxon House team is in the cellar with two wins and seven setbacks.

The Phi Sigs and the Chi Delts have high team averages, with 738 and 722 respectively. Joe Negard of the Phi Sigs leads the individual average department with 168, and is followed by Zych, Mosinee-162; Fenelon, Chi Delts-154; Larsen, Chi Delts-154; Kaziak, Phi Sigs-154; and Minton, Sad Sacks-154.

High scores for last week's bowling were: High game, Kaziak, Phi Sigs-185; high series, Zych, Mosinee-524; Roberts, Chi Delts-502; and Lee, Chi Delts-494. The Phi Sigs took high game honors with a 786 score, and the Chi Delts rolled 2,224 for the high three-game total of the evening.

Pointers Drop Conference Opener to Oshkosh, 27-13

Playing before a capacity crowd at Oshkosh, CSTC bowed to the Titans 27-13 in a closely fought game. The Titans, taking advantage of a costly Point fumble, scored first and held the lead throughout the game.

Fumbles Costly

The Bergmen committed two costly fumbles in the end zone, with Oshkosh recovering both times. The resulting two touchdowns gave the Titans their winning margin. The Pointers then attempted to take to the air only to be encountered by five Oshkosh interceptions with one of the intercepted passes resulting in another score for the Titans.

Robbins and Young, CSTC guards, were successful in stopping the Titans at the center slot, while tricky running on the part of the Point backfield netted CSTC two counter touchdowns. Dietzo, Schauder, Fuchs and Chapman starred for the Titans.

Titans Score Twice

Oshkosh, winning the toss, chose to defend the south goal. Taking full advantage of a brisk south wind, the Titans were successful in gaining considerable ground by quick kicks. Nearing the mid-quarter, Dietzo quick-kicked over the head of the CSTC secondary and the ball went bouncing towards the end zone with Kubisiak and three Titans in chase. Kubisiak touched the ball, but was unable to gain possession of it. The ball dribbled into the end zone with Schneider, Titan right end, falling on it for a touchdown. Schauder converted to place Oshkosh ahead 7-0.

Following the score, Point was unable to gain a first down. Haidvogel kicked from his 25 yard line to the Oshkosh 40 yard line but the ball bounced back 19 yards to the Point 41. Schauder skirted end and ran to the Point 22 yard line. On the next play Schauder was off again, this time to the half yard line. Fuchs ripped through for the touchdown, but "Boots" Derezinski, Point center blocked the attempted conversion.

The Titans threatened to score again in the second quarter when they intercepted two CSTC passes deep in Point territory. The Bergmen held, however, and broke up the Oshkosh drive.

Kubisiak Returns Punt To Score

The Pointers opened the second half with a passing attack. Following three consecutive incomplete passes, Point kicked to the Titan 17 yard line. Dietzo, unable to gain, kicked to the Point 44 yard line, and Kubisiak, with fine blocking, took off on a beautiful run to carry the ball all the way for a touchdown. Kubisiak then converted to make the score 13-7.

Near the close of the quarter, Point took to the air again in an attempt to score but Schneider intercepted a pass on the Point 33 yard line and went over the goal standing up. Schauder converted again and the score stood at 20-7. Before the end of the quarter, the Titans intercepted another pass but Point regained possession of the ball by recovering an Oshkosh fumble on the Point 42 yard line.

Koehn Goes Over

The last quarter began with Oshkosh intercepting another Point pass. Oshkosh then kicked out of bounds

The Fifth Quarter

Since the St. Norbert's game, the Pointers have developed an allergy for green. If the Bergmen react favorably, the Green Gulls will be due for a surprising upset.

We were asked the other day whether the custom of issuing sweaters to CSTC letter winners would be revived. The school used to award sweaters in pre-war days, and in our opinion it would be a swell tradition to revive. We pass it on for your comment.

Kennie "Swoonatra" Kulick kept the CSTC football squad entertained on the Oshkosh trip with his latest renditions of song hits. Girls, you don't know what you're missing, if you haven't heard the maestro give out with "To Each His Own". How about getting Ken to entertain the students at some assembly in the future?

Hats off to the co-eds and other Pointers who attended the game at Oshkosh. Considering the distance, a good representation of CSTC was present at the tilt. The presence of co-eds particularly helped to boost morale. Let's have all of them out this Saturday afternoon!

Who are our representatives on the gridiron? Do you know? How about an assembly with our pigskin gladiators being presented to the student body? What do you say?

CSTC bowling has reached a new height in popularity with requests for additional teams. Perhaps another league could be formed, but the big bottleneck at present is securing a suitable time. If enough fellows are interested, an additional league may be formed. If you are interested, sign your name or your team on the Phy Ed bulletin board.

Due to the exaggerated prophecy on the part of our local characters last week, it has been decided that we look elsewhere for comments. As yet we have been unable to locate any reliable fans. Have you any suggestions? If you have, kindly drop them in the Pointer office. All suggestions will be welcomed.

Notice to Veterans

You have recently received (or will receive) with your subsistence check a white slip to report wages, salary, or compensation received for employment for August, September and October. These are to be filled out and either mailed to the Regional Office or brought to our office in the southwest corner of the basement of the Main Building of Central State Teachers College by November 5. Do not fail to do this!

Some of you have told me that you thought this matter was taken care of when you filled out VA Form 7-1961 at the general veterans assembly meeting we had on September 13, 1946. That was a projected estimate of earnings. This present slip is an accounting for actual monies earned during August, September and October.

Only if you have earned more than $110 per month will your subsistence allowance be cut.

If you were not in training under the G. I. Bill in August, write "not applicable" in the August space.

Failure to submit this report (by November 5) may hold up future checks.

on the Point 41 yard line. The Bergmen forthwith started a drive with Parsons reeling off a 17 yard run, followed by Koehn with a 12 yard gain. A completed pass on the Titan 16 yard line gave the Pointers a first down. CSTC then advanced to the four yard line from where Koehn went over for Point's second score. The attempt for the extra point failed and the score was 20-13.

Titans Add Clincher

In the final minutes of the game, with the Pointers deep in their own territory, Parsons attempted to pass but was smothered by an avalanche of Titans. A fumble resulted with a mad rush for the ball by both teams. The ball went bounding into the end zone with Fuchs falling on it. Schauder converted to give the Titans a 27-13 lead. The game ended with Point starting a successful passing attack.

NOTICE

Wives and husbands of college students here will be privileged to buy activity tickets at $5 each, as the result of action taken at a recent faculty meeting. These tickets are the same as those purchased by the faculty each year and will entitle purchasers to admittance at athletic events and to a subscription to the Pointer.

Through the vote of the faculty, the privilege of purchasing these tickets is now extended to wives and husbands of college students. Regular students are given an activity ticket at the time of registration and this entitles them, among other things, to admittance at athletic events, to hospitalization and health service, and to subscriptions to the Pointer and the Iris.

do the asking. Maybe that way even the bashful ones (like us) will be there. Will someone please ask us? We want to be there. We'll even pay half the expenses.

We got a lot of heat on the lime-rick we submitted last week but we didn't receive any that were better. So here is another one. Take it or leave it.

Now it's up to you to put a stop to these terrible efforts and help us out. So yez go, chillun, yez go.

We were wondering if there is to be a student directory this year. Past years have proven that these directories are worth their weight in beef-steak, so we would like to see the plans laid for compiling said directory. That way we won't have to call the girls in a haphazard fashion. We'll just close our eyes and run our finger down the page and presto! failed again.

For student of the week we pick a young man who certainly deserves recognition. The scat-back of the football team, who has scored three of the four touchdowns we've made, Jim Koehn, of Little Chute, our vote goes to you. Koehn is the spark plug of the team and a back whose spirit and drive belies his size.

Before we close we'd like to suggest that the students learn the words of the "Alma Mater" and the "Purple and the Gold," so we can really shout out the spirit at both the Milwaukee game and the Homecoming game with Whitewater. Let's do this one for Coach Berg and the team and maybe the breaks will start coming our way. What say?

Rumor has it that next week's Pointer will be a good place to look for the words to both the "Alma Mater" and the "Purple and the Gold."

So this is thirty for now and until next week remember "Whip Whitewater" and keep your eye on the "Seeing Eye."

The Mixed Chorus, composed of approximately 145 members of the Men's and Girl's Glee clubs, has begun practices for the 16th annual Christmas Concert to be presented two nights, December 15 and 16. The chorus is under the combining leadership of Peter J. Michelsen and Norman E. Knutzen.

During the past two years the organization has been dependent upon outside help. This year, the first time since the war, the chorus is made up entirely of college students. Rehearsals are scheduled for every Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the auditorium.

Martin Schaefer and Harry Jones, members of Rural Life club who attended the Wausau Teachers convention last Friday, spoke to the group which met in the Rural Assembly last Monday evening, October 7. They gave interesting accounts of the convention and outlined briefly what took place.

Quincy Doudna, director of the Rural division, spoke briefly to the group on making its meeting worthwhile. Laverne Haskins and Ruth Wachholz sang several old time favorites at the conclusion of his talk.

Plans for a Homecoming float were then discussed before the meeting was adjourned with group singing led by Alex Petersen, director of the Rural Demonstration school.

Pointers to Seek Second Win Against Quakers on Saturday

The Bergmen, determined contenders for a share of the conference title, will meet the Whitewater Quakers on Saturday afternoon at Goerke Park. The Pointers will be seeking their second conference victory, while the Quakers are out for their first win.

The Whitewater peds have lost three close games in three starts, whereas the Bergmen have a win, a tie, and two losses in four attempts.

Whitewater Worried St. Norbert's

In their first tilt, the Quakers were defeated 19-12 by the powerful St. Norbert eleven. The Whitewater peds led 12-0 at the end of the third quarter but were unable to stem the determined Green Knights in the final quarter when they rolled over the goal for three tallies. Milwaukee succeeded in defeating the Quakers 7-0. Again Whitewater was defeated in the final quarter, after holding the Green Gulls scoreless for three quarters. Last week, the Platteville peds in their first conference game defeated the Quakers 13-7.

Whitewater's success in holding the St. Norbert's eleven, who tramped all over the Pointers, definitely indicates strength and power for the Quakers. Whitewater was given a slight edge over the Pointers until the Bergmen startled all Central Wisconsin by upsetting Milwaukee 12-6. This game boosted the Pointers' standings and, at present, statistics give the CSTC men a slight edge.

Pointers Victorious Last Year

In last year's Homecoming game, the Pointers defeated Whitewater 12-0. The Quakers will be out to avenge this defeat. After last week's tilt, the Homecoming game provides to be as thrilling as any tilt this season.

Shakespearean Duo Will Appear Oct. 23

Here is a date you won't want to miss! Wednesday, October 23, at 8 p.m., two former "Ben Greet Players" will present the production "Macbeth" in the college auditorium. Members of the faculty and student body are invited.

Proving that quality and not quantity counts, Daisy Vivian and Henry Joyner bring Shakespeare in a new light. Mr. and Mrs. Joyner are the last remaining players of the original group to carry on in the Ben Greet tradition.

Their speech, their facial expression and their walking show the result of careful tutoring. With nothing but a few necessary props, costumes, and a faith in their work, these English artists are performing in American colleges and universities from Maine to Florida, and from Virginia to California.

The graduates of Ben Greet's troupe are the outstanding actors of today. CSTC is indeed fortunate to have Shakespeare presented with such feeling and clarity by these two, the last of the "Ben Greet Players".

Activity Tickets Ready for Spouses

Activity tickets for wives and husbands of CSTC students are now available at $5 apiece. Tickets may be obtained from Miss Emily Wilson, chairman of the Student Activity fund.

By vote of the faculty, and upon recommendation of the Student Activity fund committee, the money from these tickets at $2.50 a semester will be allotted to athletics ($1 per semester), to entertainment ($1 per semester), and to the Social committee (50 cents per semester).

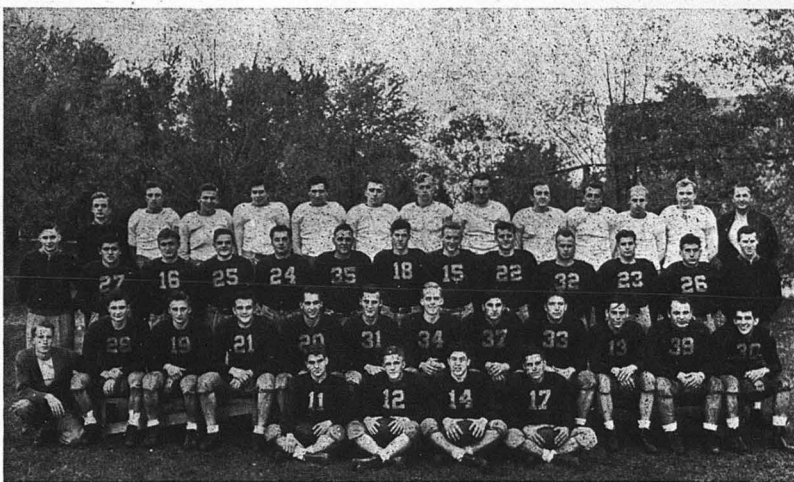

The committee, consisting of Miss Wilson, Miss Syble Mason and Victor E. Thompson, recommended that the printed faculty activity tickets be used for spouses of college students and that the tickets be marked not transferable.

President Hansen Extends Homecoming Welcome to Alumni

As an alumnus of Central State Teachers College, I am pleased to extend a hearty welcome to alumni and former students to come back this week-end for an enjoyable homecoming; meeting old acquaintances, renewing old friendships and making some new ones, and bringing yourself up to date on where your classmates are and what they are doing. And then there are the football games and the interesting events arranged by the Homecoming Committee. This program is being sponsored by the Student Council and I want to pay my compliments to the Committee which is working hard to make the Homecoming an enjoyable occasion for all of us. They deserve our cooperation, our support and our commendation. Let's make it a memorable event.

"S" Club Dance at H. S. Gym on Saturday

At last!! After a dormant state lasting many years the CSTC "S" club is beginning to show signs of life. The lettermen of our college are really back from the wars, as they prepare to end Homecoming week with a real informal dance at the P. J. Jacobs High school gymnasium.

The music for the big social event will be furnished by the newly organized Playboys' Orchestra.

The purpose behind this dance is more than just a good time. The money collected in excess of expenditures will go into a Sweater Fund. This fund is for the purchase of award sweaters for future winners of a college letter in competitive athletics.

Coach George Berg and the football squad will do more than is asked to insure a victory over Whitewater on Saturday afternoon. Let's all join in on the celebration at the Homecoming Dance.

Tickets can be purchased at the door or from any letterman on the campus. Ask the fellow wearing the college "S" for your tickets now!

Alumni Committee Extends Welcome

Once again CSTC is in the midst of preparations for Homecoming. Everywhere, there is the air of happy excitement as students plan for one function or another. The snake dance, the parade, the various teas and dancing parties are being arranged about the heart of the whole celebration—the game on Saturday afternoon.

Welcome Home, Alumni! It is your presence on the Campus that will complete Homecoming plans. You will warm the cockles of the heart of your Alma Mater by returning. Welcome Home!

Foster Diley Named To Head CSTC Band

Foster Diley was elected president of the college band at a meeting held during rehearsal on Thursday, October 10.

Dorothy Loberg was elected vice-president; Joan Paulson, secretary-treasurer; Mildred Speidel, sponsor and Betty Ruth Crawford, press representative.

Mr. Faust Tells All (About Homecoming)

On account of I'm going to be Master of Ceremonies at the assembly Friday, the Pointer has asked me to write an article to help raise some enthusiasm for the events of the coming weekend. The Pointer was very nice about it—even said I was supposed to be somewhat of a wit. This article may prove the Pointer to be about half right.

This weekend is Homecoming. No more should have to be said. There's going to be Hobo day, and a Pep assembly, and a dance, and a parade, and a football game and another dance. Some organizations even expect their alumni to get up for breakfast on Sunday morning.

The Pep assembly is going to be good, so you'd better be there. I don't know what's on this program, but maybe there'll be some band music, and singing, and speeches (rumor has it that May Roach will have something to say), and cheers and a Homecoming Queen and a Hobo King. I shan't say anything about my modest contribution to the day's entertainment, because I haven't any idea what may happen.

Some of you know that when I'm good, I'm very, very good, and when I'm bad, I'm horrid and brother, it better be good! If Buzz Dryfoose will lend me his hat, I might even come disguised as a Hobo.

Fact is, I might even go to the game if the weather is nice!

Miss Neuberger Goes to Nurses' Meeting

Miss Mary Neuberger, R.N., college nurse, attended the third annual State Teachers college nurses' meeting on October 10 and 11 in Madison.

Edgar Doudna, secretary of the Board of Regents, opened the meeting with an introduction and welcome. Several problems pertaining to the medical departments of the respective colleges were discussed. One of them "Problems of a veteran student and his family" was presented by Theodore Zillman of the Office of Veteran's Affairs at the University of Wisconsin.

Gala Festivities to Mark First Postwar Alumni Celebration

CSTC's long awaited postwar Homecoming draws near with organizations making feverish, last minute revisions on their floats and parade entries.

Adding to the atmosphere of the Homecoming celebration will be the large yellow chrysanthemums with purple and gold streamers, which will be sold by the Women's Athletic association.

The two day celebration will commence with Friday being proclaimed CSTC Hobo Day. Students and faculty will come to school in attire fitting the occasion.

The Hobo Convention will be climaxed by a Pep assembly which will be held at three o'clock in the auditorium. The school band and the girls' cheer leading section will participate in the assembly, with Gilbert W. Faust, of the faculty acting as Master of Ceremonies. The highlight of the assembly will be the crowning of a Homecoming Queen selected from a group of contestants representing the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes. The contestants are: Catherine Timmer, Jeanette See, Caroline Krogness and R. Gail Smith. The queen will be crowned by Jerry La Fleur who has been selected Captain for the Whitewater-Point football game. To conclude the Pep gathering, a Hobo King will be elected by popular applause.

Friday evening's activities will begin with the traditional bonfire followed by a snake dance. The bonfire, for which material was gathered by the Freshman class in charge of Bob Sample will be preceded by an outdoor pep rally. The rally will be conducted by the college cheer leading group.

The concluding event for the evening will be the first semi-formal of the year, sponsored by Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity. This dance will be held in the Training school gym.

The Homecoming parade will open Saturday's events. The parade, which is under the supervision of Parade coordinator Jim Cory, will commence at 10 a.m. at the corner of Main and Fremont streets, opposite Nelson Hall. The route of march will be Fremont st. from Main to Clark st., west on Clark st. to South Second st., north on South Second to the Public Square, and east on Main st.

Judges who will select the best float and novelty entries in the parade are Mayor Ben Dagneau, Miss Ethel Anne Lawrence of the Daily Journal, and Lawrence (Gus) Waltr, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Whitewater-Point football game to be held at Goerke Park at 2 p.m., will climax the Homecoming celebration. Considering the large in-

New Class Officers Named by Council

Carl Torkelson was elected president of the Senior class at the election conducted by the Student Council on Friday, October 11. The other officers of the class are as follows: Vice-president, Charles Larsen; secretary, Joe Treder; and treasurer, Eldred Judd. All of these fellows are veterans.

The Junior class chose Bill Mellin for its president. Other officers are: Vice-president, Harvin Abrahamson; secretary, Frank Kostuck; and treasurer, Martha Stock.

Jim Buelow won the presidency of the Sophomore class. Assisting him are: Dick Lee, vice-president; Don Jorgensen, secretary; and Jack Judd, treasurer.

The Freshman class elected as president, Leonard Jacoboski; vice-president, Charles Felker; secretary, Jean Walker; and treasurer, Dave Friday.
