Central State has added a new name to the faculty roll-call, Miss Chell, a young woman who is already acquainted with her, having been assigned to one of her five sections of her history class.

Miss Chell comes to CSTC from Duluth Junior College, where she taught last semester. Previous to that she was on the staff at the high school at St. Croix Falls, Wisconsin, which is located between Minneapolis and Duluth, not far from New Ulm.

Miss Chell did her undergraduate work at the University of Minnesota and received her Masters Degree in History at the University of Iowa. At present she is taking graduate work at the Ph. D. at the University of Minnesota.

Students and faculty welcome Miss Chell to CSTC and hope that she will like it here.

Library Staff Aided by Student Workers

Most of us have become acquainted with the facilities of CSTC's library via the freshman orientation program which is held for every student in the fall.

The management of the library may be attributed to its competent staff, headed by Nels R. Kumpenga and Miss Margaret Ritchie. Student library assistants were chosen by Esther Davidson, Gladys Rindleffel, Rose Dulake, Jean Walker, Phyllis Burroughs, and John Dee.

This year Mr. Kumpenga has post- ed the list of bulletin board invitations appealing for student library assistants.

College Cagers Have Colorful History

Fifty-nine years ago next February 22, the first local college basketball team ever to engage in inter-collegiate competition trudged on the floor of the Normal gym, when Green Bay's first college team entered the field. The Green Bay college team was defeated by the Mount Holyoke college team, 22-5. Any student who has been present at a college game will remember the thrill of watching the first college team play against the next college team.

It was a good game and there were not very little rough playing done on either side. The referee, E. S. Smith, was present at the game and he had the same rules as the referee had at the game.

There was a game being played against the next college team, but the referee had the same rules as the referee had at the game.

It was always understood that the referee watched the game as if he was playing in the game himself, and the referee watched the game as if he was playing in the game himself.

In 1912 Leonard G. Schneider was named the first coach, and in the same year the Teachers college conference was organized. The school was named the Wisconsin Teachers college conference. The school was named the Wisconsin Teachers college conference.

Co-Op Eating Plan Working Successfully

The CSTC Co-op, which was instituted about midway through the past year’s growth, has grown from an experimental stage to a successful organization with benefits to the students. The co-op now has over 150 students.

The club is headed by Bert Kohler, chairman, and a board of directors elected by the members. The directors include: Dick Mudge, Bill Brunner, Merle Foy, president; Bert Kohler, chairman; Donald A. Palo, secretary; and Robert M. Williams, treasurer.

Our Co-op members believe in the “free enterprise” system, and believe that the students should help run their own co-op. The idea of a co-op has been around for quite some time, but finally the students decided to make it happen.

The club has a large variety of food items available, and the prices are very reasonable. The co-op also has a laundry service, and the students are very satisfied with the quality of the work.

The co-op is run by the students, and the profits go back into the organization. The students are very happy with the way things are going, and they look forward to continuing to make the co-op a success.

The club is open to all students, and they are encouraged to join and be a part of this successful organization.

The CSTC Co-op is making a positive impact on the lives of its members, and they are proud to be a part of it.
In This Corner--Gerry Miller
One of the up and coming men on the current basketball team is Gerry Miller. Miller has started the last two games at one of the forward positions and has showed up very well.

Hailing from Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin, Miller was an outstanding player on the Chippewa high school basketball team, playing one year on the B team and last two years in 1943 and 1944 on the first string team. He was Captain of the 1944 basketball team. Upon graduating from high school Gerry entered the naval service and served two years with the Atlantic and Pacific fleets. Gerry enrolled at CSTC last fall and was a member of the 1946 championship football team.

POINTERs FACE GREEN GULLs IN CONFERENCE TILT SATURDAY

The Fifth Quarter

Considering the high caliber of the state high school teams and the excellent play of the Wisconsin State Teachers Conference, the Conference remains relatively unpunctuated in sports circles. This situation undoubtably is the result of a lack of a co-ordinated publicity program. It certainly would pay dividends for the conference officials to get together and establish an agency which could accede the Northern and Southern Divisions of the Conference the publicity they deserve.

CSTC enters the second semester with a reduced sports program but enthusiasm ranks just as high. One of the college's two bowling leagues, the Veterans' League, was forced to disband because of limited bowling facilities at the South side alleys and inability to get together for a new bowling season. Plans are under way for a new bowling league to take the place of the Veterans' Loop.

The college intra-mural disbanded but the program has been filled partial-ly by the Purple and Gold League, a newly-formed league composed entirely of college students.

Romulus Berens Post No. 6 of the American Legion certainly is to be commended for sponsoring the recent banquet given the 1946 CSTC champion football team. Feeding an entire football squad of hungry college students can require quite an expenditure in itself.

The music you have been dancing to at the Saturday evening post-game dances has been furnished by Otto (Bob) Wiebersberg. Otto is one of those students who always gets behind the student activity to help make it a success.

The college band really put on a swell pep performance at the recent Oshkosh game. The same can't be said for the student cheering, however. What do you say we all make a point of filling up the north side of the field solid by for the next game and really put on a unified front. Then make the Bergmen do.

The Student Council bad sponsored a pep assembly for last Friday but it was called off when King Winter cancelled the Platteville and Milwaukee basketball games. Here's hoping the Council continues its sponsoring of pep assemblies.

The Milwaukee-Point ball game which was postponed because of bad weather will be played Saturday, February 6, at the P. J. Jacobs High gym.

In the last several weeks students and townspeople an opportunity to at-tend the Junior Chamber of Com-merce-sponsored funfair, also being held on Saturday evening, the basketball game will get under way at 8:30 p.m.

A joke-box dance will be held immediately following the game.

With King Winter laying down the rules the Central State cagers re-mained inactive over the weekend. The Platteville and M I was u e k games, which were originally sched-u-led for the week-end, had to be canceled and have been postponed to a later date.

According to present plans the Pointers are not scheduled to play until February 14 when they engage the Platteville peds at Platteville.

Meanwhile the Bergmen are conduct-ing their games, perfecting the system which was successful in de-feating Whitewater, 47-39, on Jan-uary 25. Employing a fast break, the Pointers showed up very well as they pushed King Winter all the way.

To date the CSTC cagers have not had a very successful season and have won only two games as against six losses. These include splitting a twin bill with St. Norbert's, a double loss at the hands of Eau Claire, defeats administered by Minson House, Mil-waukee and Oshkosh and a win over the Whitewater Quakers.
The evening concert at Hancock on Superior withdrawing from the locals seemed to be the Southern division. The team played with no coach in the season. Corneal, who took the reins in the season, to win its first state title. Other new officers installed at the meeting were Jean Nesle, vice-president; Patrick Thorpe, corresponding secretary; Doris Ockerlander, Pan Helv representative; Pat Lavers, historian; Paul Drey, press representative. Betty Ruth Crawford continues as treasurer of the organization. Doris Ockerlander acted as installing officer: Gamma Delta At a meeting of Gamma Delta held on Thursday, January 16, the constitution of the local chapter was amended to provide for the election of officers in the middle of the school year. This was done to conform with the International Gamma Delta constitution. This will give the new officers ample opportunity to become acquainted with their duties and obligations and they will thus be able to assume them more readily at the opening of a new school year. The social meeting that was to have been held last Thursday was cancelled because of adverse weather conditions.

Tonight the regular monthly business meeting will be held at St. Paul’s Lutheran church, corner of Center street and Weyant avenue. Election of officers will be held and all members are urged to be there. Other Lutheran students, Walther Leaguers and others who may be interested in Gamma Delta, are encouraged to attend. The Rev. William F. Ludwig will lead a topic study after the meeting. Chi Delta Rho Percy Voight was elected to succeed Grant Thayer as president of Chi Delta Rho fraternity in an election held during the last meeting on January 25. Other officers elected were Charles Larsen, vice-president; Cliff Worden, secretary; Jim Lewis, treasurer; Guy Roberts, Pan Helv representative; Mike Fortune, press representative and "Pop" Lee, Sergeant at Arms. Plans were made to organize a basketball team that will participate in the newly formed Purple and Gold league.

Men’s Glee Club A meeting of the director, Norman E. Knutzen, and officers of the Men’s Glee club was held in Mr. Knutzen’s office on Thursday, January 30 to decide upon concert dates for the organization. Several dates were planned as follows: The Glee club will sing an evening concert at Hancock on February 12, at Marathon and Monroe on February 18, and at Clintonville, Marion and Tipton on February 27.

Westminster Fellowship The Westminster Fellowship will have a Valentine meeting on Sunday evening, February 9, at 7:30 at the Presbyterian church. The business meeting will be followed by entertainment and light refreshments, for which there will be a small charge.
