The Band Uniform Fund continues to Grow

Another contribution to the band uniform fund has come to Peter J. Eber and Willard Carlson. The CSTC alumnus now teaching at New Richmond wrote: Dear Mr. Michelsen, Spent last evening viewing a movie in a samll theater. On the way home, the course of the movie they sang A R U R I A S. It was really too cool. The trouble was that there were just too many people and so it was hard to appreciate the com­ thoughts were of you and the band. Then, like a bolt of lightning, I remembered the letter about the band uniforms and also recalled that they not only cared for the movie. I felt about an inch high and resolved that something ought to be done about it. As my high school principal told me — way back in high school days — "Ruth, you are well qualified for a college professor" and believe me I didn't mean because of my brain. Am almost dnaied to send it now but I sure can use it anyway. Good job for the year at the business meeting conducted by Norm Dineen in the absence of Bill Mellin, president.

The following committee heads were elected for the year; Dean of Fine Arts, Charles T. Nelson; Dean of Business, William G. Tilley; Business Director, Dr. Helen E. Martin; Dean of Physical Education, Norman Dineen and Isabel Stelmashoke; tickets and program, Dolores Jellesrud and William Melin; and, William Melin.

Robert S. Lewis, faculty advisor, sends a cordial tip to the group. Norman Dineen, faculty advisor, was quick to tip to the group College activities.

First Basketball Session Attracts 42 Candidates

Approximately 42 candidates responded to Coach Hale P. Fand's opening call for basketball candidates. The opening practice session was held Monday last week and the number of hopefuls has been growing rapidly since that time.

With the closing of the football season many more players turned out, including quite a few lettermen from last year.

Coach Quandt has been stressing fundamentals with the boys, with only brief scrimmage sessions being held.

The coach has over a month to work with the group before their first game of the season. On December 5 they will travel to Stout to open their conference play.

A good deal of material is on hand for this year's team, with a large group of lettermen back in the fold. The rest of the team will be made up of fellows who started in their respective High Schools, but whether they can come up to college basketball standards remains to be seen.

Only Four Home Games

Only four home games are on the docket for the Pointers this season. On January 20 they will host Oshkosh and on January 24 they entertain Milwaukee. Then on February 14, they will play in the state high school football championship game. The last weekend in February they will host Platteville.

The complete basketball schedule is as follows:

JANUARY
Dec. 6-South DeKalb
13-Vermilion
Jan. 10-Clinton
Jan. 24-Oshkosh

FEBRUARY
Feb. 6-Milwaukee
Feb. 14-Platteville

based on any sound and convincing understanding of the value of the schools but rather on the faith that public education is essential for the democratic way of life. The continuously increasing cost of public education will be supported, according to this group, only by a public which is convinced by objective evidence that the educational program can compete with the results expected.

To provide this evidence an extensive research program is essential.

No Public School Research.

That the public schools have not generally included a research program as a phase of its public relation activities is evidence of either a lack of interest in this problem on the part of many school officials or insufficient funds for this service. This is the reason why the public will support education with- out the necessity of providing the public with the direct knowledge of the conflicting evidence of the apparent truth.

The difficulties of providing sufficient funds for the minimum essential school expenditures will also cause other school officials from attempting to add the costs of research expenditures to mounting budget costs. Since any effective research program would necessarily include the services of classroom teachers, the public schools would find the public officials feel that the essential, the increased load to an al-ready full program would add to problems involved.

The above suggestions of the points of view which will be discussed by this panel.
