

New Members Added To CSTC Teaching Staff

FACULTY NOW TOTALS 54

Several additions and changes have been made in both the college and Training school faculties this fall. The college faculty is larger, this year, by 12 new members. One new instructor has been appointed to fill a vacancy. At the Training school three new instructors have been appointed to fill vacancies, and two of these appointees are graduates of this college. A new supervisor has been appointed in the Rural Demonstration school.

The new members of the college staff are as follows: James R. Hicks, chemistry; Raymond E. Specht, geography and geology; Miss Monica E. Bainter, physics and mathematics; Bernard F. Wiewel, conservation; Miss Harriet Wright, mathematics; Kenneth Boylan, mathematics and Hale F. Quandt, mathematics and physical education.

Miss Orisa Lanan has replaced Miss Myrtle Spande in the physical education department. Miss Spande has been granted a year's leave of absence to continue her graduate work at New York University, New York City. Miss Ruth Steinbring replaced Alex Petersen as supervisor in the Rural Demonstration school when Mr. Petersen was assigned to the history department at the college.

The three new staff members at the Training school are: William B. Knox, who will fill the vacancy of sixth grade supervisor, a position held last year by Mrs. Hester Brien; Miss Mary Ullman who will assume the duties of supervisor in the Junior High school department, a position held last year by Mrs. Grace Rightsell; and Miss Claudyne E. Kopan, who will fill a temporary vacancy as third grade supervisor, replacing Miss Gladys Van Arsdale, on leave of absence.

Mr. Hicks is a former resident of Superior, Wis., and a graduate of Superior State Teachers college. After service in the armed forces he continued his work in chemistry at the University of Wisconsin. Later he joined the staff at the Forest Products Laboratory at Madison where he did research work in the field of organic chemistry. Mr. Hicks is married and has one child. He and his family reside at 1000 Portage street.

Mr. Specht is from Two Rivers, Wisconsin, and a graduate of Oshkosh State Teachers college. He as-

Joe Calloway Opens Assembly Series

The first of a series of assembly programs for CSTC students featured Joe Calloway in an interesting lecture program entitled, "Broadway Play by Play." Mr. Calloway appeared before a full house in the college auditorium on Tuesday morning, Sept. 23.

During the lecture he gave comments and presented scenes from the hits of last year's Broadway shows. Mr. Calloway was a New York critic, playwright and actor before accepting his present position as chairman of the radio division of the speech department at Michigan State University. Because of his stage experience, the Redpath Bureau has engaged him for a limited number of programs each year.

The faculty and students of CSTC were, indeed, fortunate in having the opportunity of seeing and hearing this fine assembly program.

Enrollment Reaches New All-Time High

Central State Teachers college has reached the highest enrollment in its history with a total of 893 students registered, 606 men and 287 women.

The school is crowded and many classes are twice as large as they should be, some having 70 to 80 students. Veterans are estimated as numbering slightly over the 300 mark, compared with 410 for the first semester a year ago.

Housing problems have largely been met and the college office has been able to place students in rooms. Nelson Hall is filled to capacity and has a waiting list for next semester.

Twelve new faculty members have been added, bringing the total personnel of the faculty to 54.

Many Frosh Here On Scholarships

A total of 42 Freshmen were awarded scholarships at CSTC this year. The scholarships are of two kinds, an A scholarship which is based chiefly on scholastic standing and is presented to the highest ranking students of the graduating high school class, and a B scholarship which is presented to students of good scholastic standing who possess qualities of good leadership and who are in financial need.

Following is a list of the recipients of the scholarships, the kind of scholarship each was awarded, and the high school from which each was graduated: Rita Ashbeck, B, Wisconsin Rapids; Bonita Babcock, A, Marion; Gary Bartelt, A, Gillet; Nathalie Brekke, A, Iola; Marilyn McCabe, B, St. Joseph Academy; Robert S. ## Swenson, Sports Editor Of The Daily Journal

Art Swenson, who was chosen at the close of last year to assume the position as editor of the 1947-48 POINTER, has recently accepted the position of sports editor on the Stevens Point Daily Journal.

Since his withdrawal from CSTC left a vacancy in the editor's chair, Mary Juettan who headed last year's POINTER has agreed to take over until a new editor has worked into the POINTER routine.

CSTC Represented at Madison Conference

President William C. Hansen and Dr. Raymond E. Gotham attended the Annual Joint Conference of Administrators and Supervisors which was held at Madison on September 16 through 19. Groups participating in the conference were City Superintendents, City Grade Supervisors, County Superintendents, County Supervisors, County Normal School Principals, and the State Department of Public Instruction.

Panel and group discussions were held on vital and timely topics such as, "Extending Democratic School Practices," "Improving the Teaching Profession," and "Education for Democratic Human Relationships."

Jr. High Department Reorganizes Program

Dr. Raymond E. Gotham, director of the Training school at Central State Teachers college, has announced the completion of an extensive reorganization program of the Junior High department of the college training school. The ninth grade, which had been discontinued during the war years has been reinstated as part of the new training school program. Special integrated courses have been added to the curriculum. This is a newly accepted trend in many progressive school systems.

Coach George Berg and Miss Miriam Moser, supervisor of the girls' physical education department, have provided an extensive program in order to extend practice teaching facilities for the increasing number of men and women minoring in physical education.

Students have found that the Training school building is also improved. Three large home rooms have taken the place of several smaller classrooms. Large studio windows have been installed between each home room and office. An assembly room, newly equipped with tables and chairs, has been converted to serve as a study hall, assembly, recreation room and a room for other general purposes. Walls and floors have been refinished and many other provisions have been made to make a better Training school.

"It is fully recognized by every staff member," Dr. Gotham said, "that the professional training of teachers is one of the most important phases of our educational program. Central State Teachers college assumes its full responsibility in providing the most effective training programs possible for its graduates."

Victor E. Thompson Resigns Position

Victor E. Thompson, well-known to students of CSTC as professor of industrial arts and mathematics since he joined the local staff in 1918, resigned his position on September 7, before the start of the present term.

He joined the faculty as instructor in industrial arts. Later, when these courses were no longer required of graduates of the elementary course, part of Mr. Thompson's time was assigned to the mathematics department. He continued to teach elementary shop classes for the Training school, and mechanical and engineering drawing for college classes, besides his college mathematics classes.

His resignation was accepted at a meeting of the Board of Regents with special recognition of his 23 years of "loyal and devoted service to the college."

Students will miss Mr. Thompson's familiar figure on the campus but hope that he has a well-deserved rest.

Teachers' Convention Will Meet in Wausau

The thirty-fifth annual convention of the Central Wisconsin Teachers' association will be held at Wausau on Friday, October 3, with Norman E. Knutzen as presiding officer. The general and sectional program will be of special interest to all teachers of the Central Wisconsin area.

The convention will open at 8:30 a. m. with a concert by the Wausau Senior High school orchestra. This will be followed by an address on rural education by Miss Louise M. Clark, assistant director of the rural service of the National Education association at Washington, D. C. At 10:30 a. m., a selected musical program will be offered by a chamber music group also of the Wausau Senior High school. An address entitled, "One World-Fact or Fiction" will be given by J. Martin Klotzsche, president of Milwaukee State Teachers college.

The sectional program will take place in the afternoon and will include the special meetings of the various branches of the teaching profession.

Classes at CSTC will be suspended on Friday in order that the faculty may attend the convention.

Mr. Faust Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Weber this week announced the engagement of their daughter, Helen, to Gilbert W. Faust of the College Chemistry department. Miss Weber is a former student of CSTC and at present is associated with the Weber Lifeline Fly company of Stevens Point.

All CSTC Saddened by Mr. Petersen's Death

On Friday morning, September 26, students and faculty of CSTC were saddened by the sudden death of a young and genial professor in the history department. Alex T. Petersen died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ida Blake, 316 Monroe street, following a heart attack.

Mr. Petersen taught his regular classes up until the day before his death. He suffered the attack at 4 a. m. and died six hours later.

Educated Here

Mr. Petersen received most of his advanced education here at Central State, and was granted both a bachelor of science and a bachelor of education degree. After teaching in Wisconsin's rural and high schools, he entered the University of Iowa, where he was granted a master of arts degree.

He then accepted a position as assistant principal of the Lincoln

County Normal school at Merrill, which he held for three years. After teaching biology at Logan High School, La Crosse, for a year, Mr. Petersen returned to his alma mater, this time as a faculty member. For the past two years he was supervisor of practice at the rural demonstration school and when school began on September 8, he was transferred to the college history department.

Outstanding Student

An outstanding student throughout the years of his education, Mr. Petersen was presented the Phi Sigma Epsilon award in 1931-32 for being the outstanding man at Central State. His plans included beginning work on a doctor's degree.

Mr. Petersen was also an accomplished pianist and he accompanied, directed or entertained whenever called upon. On the evening before his death, he had directed a rehearsal of his church choir.

Funeral services were held last Monday afternoon at the First English Lutheran church, during which time classes were suspended at the college and Training school. The college faculty attended services in a body and six of its members, Dean Herbert R. Steiner, Dr. Nels O. Rappen, Dr. Harold M. Tolo, Dr. Warren Jenkins, Quincy Doudna and Norman E. Knutzen, were pallbearers.

As is customary for first editions, the editorial policy is stated and explained. Ours, for the Pointer, is simply this: To publish and print all stories pertaining to CSTC's college functions in an interesting and unbiased manner.

We are students publishing a student newspaper for student circulation. In doing so we give those people interested in journalism either as a hobby or career, an opportunity to get some first hand experience.

We welcome any contributions from our fellow students whether they are written stories or merely ideas or suggestions.

So to all of you, new and old, may we wish a successful and pleasant year at CSTC.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Sigma Zeta

Patricia Thorpe, president, called to order the meeting of Sigma Zeta, honorary science society, on Wednesday evening, September 24.

Plans were made for the coming school year. The following committees were appointed: Initiation, Lorraine Peters, chairman, Ed Boycks, Peter Muto; program, Arol C. Eple, chairman, William Golomski, Dolores Jelinek; membership, Betty Ruth Crawford, chairman, Virginia Hull, Dr. Arthur S. Lyness; bulletin board, Kathryn Peterson, Doris Ockler and press representative, Fern Horn.

Student Council

The Student Council, consisting of students elected from the different organizations in CSTC, has already begun its important duties of the coming year.

Mike Brunner, president, has announced that Charles Bart is chairman of the Homecoming celebration which takes place during the third week in October. Jim Cory again has been put in charge of the Homecoming parade. Nominations for Homecoming Queen must be in by October 17.

Theater tickets have been issued for the past two weeks to students upon presentation of their activity ticket. This entitles the student to a special price upon attending either of the local theaters.

A CSTC handbook is being prepared by our Student Council and will be complete in November for distribution.

Election of freshman representatives to the Council will be held today. Freshmen, this is your chance to have an active voice in student government.

Election of class officers will take place on Wednesday, October 8. Start campaigning now and get the right man in the right office.

The Student Council also announces that the Student Lounge will be taken care of by the different organizations. Watch the bulletin boards for further notice.

Officers of the Student Council are: Louis Jacoboski, vice-president and treasurer, Charles Bart, secretary, and Kathryn Peterson, press representative.

Other members are Lorraine Peters, Richard Miller, Marjorie Schrank, Kenneth Watson, Tom Madsen, Marjorie Kohler, Alan Malm, Gladys Rindfleisch, Mary Chenoweth, and Margaret Schindler.

Home Ec Club

The Home Economics Club began its program for the year 1947-48 with a picnic to welcome new freshmen. The picnic was held on Monday evening, September 15, at Bukskott Park.

After a rousing game of softball a lunch was served by the food committee composed of Pat Jones, Elaine Becker and Lorraine Meyer. Mary Noble and Marjorie Schrank were in charge of entertainment.

Miss Bessie May Allen, Miss Helen Meston, and Miss Emily Wilson were present as guests and advisers.

Frances Kutchenruter, president, spoke briefly on the aims of the organization and the general plans for monthly meetings this year, at the conclusion of the meeting.

Initiation of new members will be held at the regular meeting Monday, October 6, at 7:30 in the Home Economics Parlors.

Tau Gamma Beta

A "Heavenly Dance" sponsored by Tau Gamma Beta sorority at the Training school gym last Friday evening, was highlighted by showers of pennies, candy kisses, confetti and flying saucers, which came supposedly from the stratosphere. The aurora borealis, or northern lights, was represented with gayly colored streamers of crepe paper against the dark background of the stage.

Frank Kostuck sang several vocal selections and also introduced the various "showers" during the course of the evening. Frank's selections were: "Stairway to the Stars", "Pennies from Heaven", "Stardust", and "Let It Snow".

General chairman for the dance was Loretta Fenelon. Her committees were as follows: Music, Kay Breslin; decorations, Jean Walker, chairman, Katie O'Connor, Kay Taylor; refreshments, Pat Lavers, chairman, Phyllis Kasper; publicity, Mary Due, Betty Dietz, Darlene Morren; tickets, Evelyn Markwardt.

Acting as chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. George R. Berg and Mr. and Mrs. Hale Quandt.

Alpha Kappa Lambda

The Alpha Kappa Lambda met last Wednesday night for their first meeting of the year. After the business meeting, George Sappenfield spoke on "Half the 48 from the Standpoint of Conservation." He gave a review of what he saw in the Midwest and Pacific Northwest from the angle of soil conservation, forestry and wildlife. Mr. Sappenfield also told of the freak weather he has encountered, which included tornados in Nebraska, snowstorms in the Rockies, dust storms in Oregon and flash floods in Iowa. He stressed how weather has its harmful effects in conservation.

Guests for the evening were new students who plan to major in conservation, and Bernard Wievel and Raymond E. Specht, new faculty members.

YWCA

The YWCA held its first regular meeting in the recreation room of Nelson Hall on Thursday, September 25. Girls interested in joining were welcomed and tentative plans were made for an investiture service in which they will become members.

Jean Walker led in recreation for the evening and Doris Yeager gave a brief talk on the purpose of the YWCA. Girls who would still like to join the organization should watch the bulletin board for further information.

DORM'S BOIN'S

"Another day—another dollar"—another year—112 new and old scholars at Nelson Hall. Forty-four girls new to the dorm were among the first arrivals on Sunday, September 7. Suitcases, boxes, everything from the shag rug "for under the sink" to that picture of the O.A.O. for the desk, found its way into the dorm lobby, and was hustled upstairs by assorted mothers, fathers, small brothers, aunts, uncles, and—well, that's the way it goes. Fragrant whiffs of coffee lured the busy new and old-comers into the living room where they busied themselves serving refreshments.

From top to toe Nelson Hall has seen many changes since summer school closed. Brand new shiny Simmons furniture makes happy the lives of the occupants of 15 rooms. Other rooms have the best of the old and the promise of new furniture very soon. The dining-room is a pleasure in itself, with new blue table tops, yellow and white walls. Dishwashing and serving rooms are painted a gleaming white. We have new workers in the kitchen, too: Ted Thompson and John Olsen are new male K.P.'s. Mrs. Engelbreton is a new cook.

In the rec room gay red, green, blue chairs are the first corners of the new furniture—and there we have it, a rejuvenated dorm.

Of real importance is our new assistant housemother, Mrs. May Butz, from Darlington, Wisconsin. Not only is she a gracious "mother", but she is an accomplished pianist. Her music heard after mealtime and in the early evening gives a real home-like atmosphere to Nelson Hall.

Aside from the setting into routine, and much ado over the crowded social calendar for October, we take time out to be glad with Evie Markwardt over her fiancé's return, and Jan See over her birthday roses. We were saddened too, for the loss which struck the college was felt by dormites who knew Alex Petersen.

And now, life goes on—and we are right here, our pens filled with anticipation ready to record our views on another year at Nelson Hall—See you next week—same time, same place.

OVER-A-COKE

Week-end Reunion—

Keith Lea is back in town. As evidence—the prompt answer to all calls dialed 6-6-0—"Evie Markwardt, please!"

Headline of the Week—

"NELSON HALL OPEN HOUSE BIG SUCCESS—Man suffered attack of acute indigestion." Probing further into the story brought forth these facts—"Man" had been through serving line four times! Life isn't so bad after all—

About a week ago, one of the dormites, Jean Zahner sprained her ankle. Being confined to her room was not a pleasant prospect, but "Jeanie" was well entertained by friends and faithful "Bus"—Earl Dryfoose—playing her favorite numbers on the piano loud enough for her to hear on "1st North". It could happen to you!

On the day of the assembly last

Words of Welcome From the Deans

You are among those fortunate people who are being afforded the opportunity to continue education in a small college. Here at Central State are opportunities for developing your latent abilities in an atmosphere distinguished by friendly student-faculty relationships. May each of you use fully the excellent facilities provided by the college to the end that you may fill your place in life most adequately.

Sincerely,

H.-R. Steiner
Dean of Men

One more a new year begins! May I extend a welcoming hand to those of you who are new on our CSTC campus. We hope you will enjoy your stay here and that it will bring you many interesting and worthwhile experiences. And greetings to those of you who are not newcomers but are returning to continue the work you started a year or two ago. May this year introduce to you new avenues of interest and experience which will inspire you to even greater achievements. This is your year. May it be a truly worthwhile one!

Elizabeth Pfiffner,
Dean of Women

Week two freshman girls came running up to an upper classman seemingly all a flutter. This was the tale delivered from the confusion: The girls had been walking upstairs to the assembly. The third party concerned in the picture was a handsome, well-dressed man taken to be one of the older students. One girl said to the other—"Wonder what assembly will be?" Her answer was "it's 'sposed to be good." The third party grinned slightly, walked in to the assembly, down the aisle and into the entrance marked "Stage"—to emerge a few minutes later as "Joe Calloway-Broadway-Play by play!"

Blessed Events in Students' Homes

Sons to: Mrs. and Frank Splitk, Hartford, Wisconsin, David Franklin, born September 9. Mrs. Splitk was the former Helen Burull. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lee, Richard Michael, born September 11. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boycks, Bruce Edward, born September 24. Daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rappa born sometime in August.

Hi, fellow students! This is your column too. If you have any news, (not gossip!) amusing anecdotes or any interesting material you think other students might like to read, write it down and drop it in the Pointer office. In this manner a light will be given to all sides of student activities.

NOTICE

Students who wish to have their 1947-48 POINTERS bound should save them, preferably unfolded, and turn them in to the POINTER office at the end of year. Only a complete volume will be bound.

Greetings from President Hansen

I am pleased to extend a hearty welcome to all of you to Central State Teachers college. You came here, I am sure, with some worthy ambition, or with some fond dream of achievement. I hope this college may help you in achieving that goal. Much depends on you. Teachers are necessary and important. Learning is a cooperative enterprise. The learner must want to learn otherwise the teacher is quite helpless. I hope your work will be interesting. It will make your college life more enjoyable. Most students discover some of the other values outside of the classroom and I need not emphasize them in this message. I wish you success and enjoyment in your college experience.

Wm. C. Hansen

OSHKOSH GAME SATURDAY OPENS CONFERENCE PLAY

Coach George Berg's CSTC grid-ers will get their first taste of conference play on Saturday, October 4, when they play host to the Oshkosh Teachers in a game scheduled here at Goerke Park at 2 p. m.

The invaders hung the only conference defeat upon the Pointers last year, as the local team bounced back to tie for the league title last season. The Bergmen will be out for revenge in this tussle and the game should develop into a grueling affair.

The visiting eleven has many of last year's squad back in the fold gain this year and are determined to hang another defeat on the Pointers in Saturday's game.

Coach Berg has been working his cagers hard in preparation for this conference opener. The local eleven did not get off to as good a start as was hoped for, when on September 30, they dropped the first game of the season, a non-conference affair, to Eau Claire Teachers, by a 12-6 score. The Pointers outgained their opponents in every phase of the game, but poor blocking played a major part in the downfall of the local eleven.

However, the coaching staff has been drilling the boys hard on this phase of the game and there should be a marked improvement in the blocking in the Oshkosh game. With improved blocking, the two fleet allbacks, Koehn and Curry, should be able to reel off some long runs and really give the up-to-now silent CSTC fans something to cheer about.

NOTICE

All members of Primary Council are requested to attend a meeting to be held in Room 113, on Monday, October 6, at 8:30 p. m. This is a very important meeting!

Hale F. Quandt Joins CSTC Coaching Staff

Leaving Tomah High school with an enviable record, Hale F. Quandt has come to CSTC this season to share in coaching responsibilities and assist Coach George Berg.

At Tomah, Quandt boosted athletics from its dangerous slump in 1943 by turning out four successive undefeated football teams and taking four successive basketball teams to the state tournaments. The Tomah cagers realized only one conference defeat when they bowed to Westby in 1943.

Organization of baseball and track at Tomah was also effected by Coach Quandt.

Starred in Sports

Mr. Quandt starred in football, basketball, and track at Wausau High school and River Falls State Teachers college. Following two years at River Falls he attended Iowa and Michigan universities in preparation for his master's degree.

Quandt's coaching career began with a position at Wausau, later at Cuba City and Hartford and then Benton Harbor, Michigan, in 1942. Each of the schools boasts a championship team in one or more sports because of the able guidance of Coach Quandt.

Likes Hospitality

After such a series of successful positions Mr. Quandt's trail led to CSTC, largely, he says, "because of the outstanding hospitality reputedly accorded to Stevens Point." So far the hospitality of Pointers has greatly pleased Coach Quandt.

NOTICES

BAND INSTRUMENTS WANTED

The Training school is interested in obtaining a number of used band instruments. Any student having a band instrument to sell or who knows where such instruments are available is asked to contact the main office of the Training school.

SUBSTITUTE TEACHERS WANTED

There are occasional requests for substitute teachers in the schools of the city and surrounding schools. Any veteran's wife or other persons qualified to teach, who wish to be considered for this service, should leave their name and telephone number at the Placement Office of the Training school.

SCOUT TRAINING COURSE TO BE OFFERED

A training course designed to train young men for positions of leadership in the Boy Scout program is being planned for early November.

The course consists of six evening classes, one class to be held each week over a six week period, in the Training school gymnasium. All men interested in this course should leave their names at the main office of the Training school. Announcement of the first meeting will be made in the Pointer.

Point Gridders Lose Second Straight Tilt

The CSTC football team dropped their second straight non-conference game of the season last Saturday when they lost a 12-0 decision to the River Falls Cardinals. Previous to this game, which was played at River Falls, the Pointers had dropped a game to the Eau Claire State Teachers college team.

Schock ran nine yards for the first River Falls touchdown and Feiler intercepted a Point pass on his own 30 yard line and scampered the rest of the way across the goal for the Cardinal's second touchdown. Both tries for the extra point were blocked by the charging forward wall of the Pointers.

The local eleven had an edge in the ground-gaining department of the game. With Tom Curry and Jim Koehn carrying the brunt of the ball carrying, the Pointers ran up 12 first downs as compared to nine for their opponents.

Schock, Feiler, and Tobias stood out as backfield men for the Cardinals, while Levanick, Wendly and Vanderhoof spearheaded the line play of the victors.

(The Continental Clothing team remained the only undefeated team in the College Bowling League as they swept a three game series from the Lyric Theater team in the second week's play of the current bowling season.)

The Phi Sigs stayed right on the heels of the league leaders as they took three games from the Faculty.

The Chi Deltis dropped their first game of the season to the Brunswick team. They captured two of the three games and are in a tie for second place, only a game off the pace. This team boasts a high team average for the season thus far, and they've been topping the maples at a 780 team average clip.

The Grover Nauta five handed Hannon-Bach their first two losses of the season and dumped the Hannon-Bach's into third place. It was the first two wins of the season for the Grover Nauta bunch.

Sengstock rolled the high game of the evening a 212 game. Zych topped a 206 to be the only other bowler in the 200 class. Those to hit the select 190 class were Fenelon, 199; Minton, 195; Mellin, 194; Knoppe, 193; Prihoda, 191; Porter 190; Kazmierczak, 190.

Point Loses Opener To Eau Claire, 12-6

CSTC's opening game with Eau Claire, played on Saturday evening, September 20, at Goerke Field, started out with too much of a bang and Eau Claire won 12-6. C. Washburne, half-back on Eau Claire's opposing team, took the opening kick-off and dashed 90 yards to a touchdown. The try for the extra point was blocked.

Later in the second period, Shaaf, Eau Claire tail-back, broke through the center of the Point line and scampered 73 yards to score. Except for those two plays, Point out-fought and outplayed their up-state rivals.

Koehn consistently ripped off good gains during the first half, but the Point attack bogged down with paydirt in sight.

In the second half Point took to the aerial route and, by mixing in running plays, gained consistently.

Late in the fourth quarter, Parsons, All-Conference quarter-back, tossed a 26 yard pass to Ken Kulick, who took it on the one yard line and ploughed over for the score. Berndt's try for the extra point was wide.

The line play of Dick Berndt and "Els" Gaulke stood out for the local eleven, while the elusive running of Jim Koehn and the hard charging of "Fuzzy" Emmerich were outstanding in the backfield.

A 561 series by Zych was the high series of the evening with Porter's 534 being the second best. Other high series were Mellin, 631; Sengstock, 525; Prihoda, 522; Sliva, 507; Cory, 502.

Wesley Foundation

Seventy-four students attended the Wesley Get-Together at St. Paul's Methodist church on Thursday, Sept. 18. As the prospective "Wesleys" were greeted at the door, they were given name tags. Other means of getting acquainted were the games and contests under the supervision of Franklin Pearson.

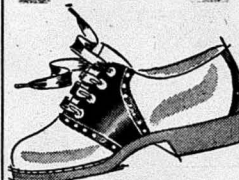

Fred Stassel, president, welcomed the guests and introduced the officers after which Arol Eppe, faculty adviser, gave a brief history of the organization. The short devotional program which followed was led by Marjorie Beaver.

Group singing was enjoyed and at the close of the meeting all those present formed a friendship circle while singing the hymn "Blest Be the Tie That Binds". Refreshments included cookies, lemonade and coffee.

Wesley extends a cordial invitation to all Methodist students to attend their meetings held each first and third Thursday of the month.
