New Members Added
To CSTC Teaching Staff

FACULTY NOW TOTALS 54

Several additions and changes have been made in both the college and Training School faculties this fall. The college faculty is larger this year as a new instructor has been appointed to fill a vacancy. At the Training School, three new appointees have been named to fill positions vacated by the departure of several members of the faculty last June. New members now have been added to the faculty of the following departments:

Chemistry; Social Work; Teacher Education; Musical Education.

Enrollment Reaches New All-Time High

Central State Teachers College has reached another enrollment peak in its history with a total of 939 students registered, 666 men and 273 women. The school is crowded and many students are placed in waiting list for next semester. New faculty members have been added, bringing the total personnel of the faculty to 54.

Teachers' Convention Will Meet in Wausau

The thirty-fifth annual convention of the Central Wisconsin Teachers' association will be held in Wausau on Friday, October 3, with Norman E. Kilgore, president, present-er. The general and sectional pro-grain will be of special interest to all teachers in the nine-county area.

The convention will open at 8:30 a.m. with a concert by the Wausau Senior High school orchestra. This will be followed by a program of rural education by Miss Louise M. Clark, and a program of special service of the National Education Association. At 10:30 a.m., a selected-musical program will be offered by a chamber group of the Wausau Senior High school. An address entitled, "One World Fact or another," will be given by J. Martin Klocke, president of Milwaukee State Teachers college.

The sectional program will take place in the afternoon and will include the special meetings of the various branches of the teaching profession.

Classes at CSTC will be suspended on Friday in order that the faculty may attend the convention.

Mr. Faust Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Weber this week announced the engagement of their daughter, Helen, to Gilbert W. Faust of the College Chemistry department. Miss Weber is a former student of CSTC and is at present associated with the Wisconsin Lifeflight, a company of Stevens Point.

Another day—another dollar!—was next year—112 new and old students in the room where they buried themselves serving refreshments. From top to toe Nelson Hall has seen many changes since summer school closed. Brand new Simms furniture makes happy the lives of the occupants of 15 rooms. Other rooms have the best of the old and the promise of new furniture very soon. Of real importance is our new assistant housemother, Mrs. Myrtle Burts from Orono. We are delighted to welcome you to our home-like atmosphere to Nelson Hall.

A lunch 'was served by the food services and there we met in charge of the Rocke's, dust storms in Oregon may bring your way and advise you to take precautions.

The new furniture—a and old furniture of the year. The new furniture is a result of some of our new students' work and the Portland Daily Journal's article on the Rocke's. The new furniture includes a picnic table, yellow and white walls. Dishwashing and serving rooms are painted a pleasant white. We have a new work force in the kitchen too. The Thompsons and John Olsen are now back. Mrs. Ingelbreth is the new cook.

Hale F. Quandt Joins CSTC Coaching Staff

Leaving Tomah High school with an enviable record, Hale F. Quandt has come to CSTC this season to share in coaching responsibilities and assist Coach George Berg. At Tomah, Quandt coached athletes from its dangerous slump in 1943 by turning out four successive undefeated football teams and taking four successive basketball teams to the state tournaments. The Tomah cagers realized only one conference defeat when they bowed to Eau Claire in 1943.

Organization of baseball and track at Tomah was also effected by Coach Quandt.

Started in Sports
Mr. Quandt starred in football, basketball, and track at Wausau High school and River Falls State Teachers college. Following two years at River Falls he attended Iowa and Michigan universities in preparation for his master's degree.

Quandt's coaching career began with a position at Wausau, later at Cuba City High school, then at Benton Harbor, Michigan, in 1942. Each of the schools boasts a championship team in one or more sports because of the able guidance of Coach Quandt.

Likeness Hospitality
After such a series of successful positions Mr. Quandt's trail led to CSTC. Large hearted guy, says, "because the outstanding hospitality reportedly acceded to Straight Point." So far the hospitality of Pointers has greatly pleased Coach Quandt.

NOTICES

BAND INSTRUMENTS WANTED

The Training school is interested in obtaining a number of used band instruments. Any student having a band instrument to sell or who knows where such instruments are available is asked to contact the main office of the Training school.

SUBSTITUTE TEACHERS WANTED

There are occasional requests for substitute teachers from the schools of the center and surrounding schools. Any teacher's wife or other person qualified to teach in the schools of the center, should leave their name and telephone number at the Placement Office of the Training school.

SCOUT TRAINING COURSE TO BE OFFERED

A training course designed to train young men for positions of leadership in the Boy Scout program is being planned for early November. The course consists of six evening classes, one each week, over a six week period, in the Training school gymnasium. All men interested in this course should leave their names at the main office of the Training school. Announcement of the first meeting will be made in the Pointer.

of the way across the goal for the Cardinals' second touchdown. Both teams for the extra point were blocked by the charging forwards of the Pointers.

The local eleven had an edge in the second half of the game. With Tom Curry and Jim Kohl carrying the brunt of the team's offense, they captured 12 first downs as compared to nine for their opponents.

Scotch, Feiter, and Tobias stood out for the Cardinals, while Leavick, Wendt and Vanderhoofer steered the line play of the victorious team.
