Battle For Second Place

The gala Homecoming festivities open with a parade Friday afternoon on Goerke Stadium when the CSTC Pointers meet Platteville in a battle for second place in the conference. The kick-off school colors will be assembled in front of the home bleachers at 2:15 p.m. Platteville, a last second substitute for Milwaukee, after taking their other conference game from Oshkosh, also has a record of one in and a loss, but also has a tie on our record.

Toss-Up Affair

The Pointers dropped their first game of the season last week in Milwaukee, after taking their other conference game from Oshkosh. Platteville also has a record of one in and a loss, but also has a tie on our record.

The games shape up as a toss-up affair. Both have identical offensive vocals in conference play, rolling over their opponents, only saving of interest a few points. Stevens Point has a better defensive record than Platteville, but the freaks or even one break might spell defeat of victory and expect for the Pointers.

Coach George Berg and Assistant Coach Paul Quade have been drilling their protégés hard for this tourney. Their offense normally sounds a line plunges this week. Blocking is also being stressed for this game. This is the first home game of the season for the CSTC team and with their record in the conference, they have enough to make their hearts out in an effort to win at Homecoming for CSTC.

This is Homecoming 1947 and the Day Platteville will be out to ruin the homecoming for the Stevens Point Fans. They still have hopes of taking first place in the conference and they will be hard to top. They have veteran aggregation and are well foiled on gridiron fundamentals.

At any rate, this game will undoubtedly be the best game of the year for CSTC fans and an unusually large crowd is expected to view this spectacle.

The Platteville Teachers, CSTC's opponents Saturday, were held to a tie in a game with Whitewater State Teachers College, on October 6, at Platteville.

Men's Glee Club Initiate

Celebration Tourney

The Men's Glee club, under the direction of Norman E. Knutson, announced the formation of the home glee club, the glee club auditorsium on Sunday, October 26, at 3:30 p.m. All students, faculty, alumni and townsmen are invited to this concert which will climax the activities of Homecoming.

The concert will open in the afternoon and will end at 3:30 p.m. The glee club will perform in a concert to be given April 15 in the college auditorium.

Concert Trips Anticipated

The musicians expect to go on concert tours in November. They are efficiently planned so that most of them will be evening concerts, enabling the band members to attend classes regularly.

The third week-end in April is a momentous one for the band alumni.

The band homecoming dinner and dance is set for April 17. The band Homecoming concert will be given April 18 in the college auditorium.

After the Homecoming concert in April, another assembly concert will be given. From then on the band will be preparing for graduation in June.

Band Expect 60 Pieces

for Year's Homecoming

Peter J. Michelsen, director of the CSTC band, has expected to have a 60 piece band including 15 members of the alumni, for the Homecoming celebration this year.

The band will be in the parade and the game. It is distasteful to note, however, that they still all have uniforms. There is a hope, though, that by next spring the band will be in full regalia.

An alumnus, Jack Perry, who is now teaching at Melrose, recently helped to swell the uniform fund with a contribution of $5.

Help at Games

Wednesday, October 22, the first band assembly concert was well received by the student body. Earlier in the year the band played for the convocation and pep assemblies. At the football games so far this year it has helped the morale of both the players and the students with its appropriate selections. As a sideline it has handled the concessions at the games.

The band has a full program planned for the rest of the year. Soon the athletic enthusiasts will expect the band to help the Pointers through the coming basketball games.

In February besides giving another band assembly concert, the band will plan for its annual band clinic. This is an event at which the music for the state band contests will be played.

At that time the group expects to have 100 band members and students participating. Students from different high schools play at this meet too.

Look to your Alma Mater makes everyone happy and all tasks light. Students and faculty as well as friends in Stevens Point are waiting to welcome you home.

Remember the words we have sung together:

"To the banks of old Wisconsin
When the years are past and gone,
When at home we have parted,
And our lessons all are done.
We'll return and show our stadems
We're as loyal as of old.
And cheer them on to victory
Nesth the Purple and the Gold."

Regional Supervisory Conferences Planned

A number of regional supervision conferences have been presented by the State Department of Public Instruction to be held in various Wisconsin cities during the period from October 5 to 11. Some of these conferences will be held at CSTC on Thursday, October 30.

The State Department says that these conferences are intended to serve as an opportunity for the selection of regional supervisors and sponsors in this area. The former were known as Ohi-Yesa and the latter are ex-pointers.

There is a kind of activity on the CSTC campus these days which is not in evidence at any other time of the year. Dozens of committees are meeting, exciting groups of girls, boys, band, or even the boys in their classes.

Hungry for a piece of apple pie— or a hamburger? But aren't you always? For the past few years, restaurants and diners have been filling up with busy, big gaps (someone said their TRAPS'), between their and their customers with sandwiches or pies at a single boat. Attkins, Grassmann, Swenson, Sorenson, and Loy of the Forrest Products Laboratory have been collecting data on the size of the gaps and what their causes are expected to be.

Pointing Bow to Powerful Milwaukee Teachers, 20-7

The Pointers dropped their first game in conference history, their fourth in five starts Saturday afternoon when they went down to a 20-7 defeat at the hands of Milwaukee State Teachers in a game played at Milwaukee State.

The Pointers drew first blood in the game but couldn't hold the advantage and the Gulls eased away from the local team.

Lead Southern Loop

The loop continued to open up in the southern half of the State Teachers College conference, with a perfect 3-0 conference mark by the Pointers.

The game was sweet revenge for the Gulls. Last year they suffered their only defeat of the season at Point. This year, Point was to have its revenge.

Pointers Score Early

The Pointers' score came in the first period, with Gordon Parsons getting the Pointers on the board. Tom Curry and Carter Kellock running the ball from the far right flank for the Pointers.

Parsons chucked a pass to Walt Kasberg who lateraled to Jim Kupczik for the 6-yard touchdown.

Kasberg's extra point made the count 7-0 in favor of Stewarts Point.

Milwaukee reared right back with a drive of their own, climaxing by a 49-yard run on a lateral from Lindl to Kranz. The extra point attempt was wrong for the lack of a new field goal, the end of the first period.

Milwaukee scored once in the second period and their final marker in the third stanza. Both conversion attempts were tried, but all failed.

The final score 20-7 favor of Milwaukee.

The Pointers were beaten in their first tilt of the season, 12-6. Both Eau Claire tailbacks were scored on long runs. The first was a 50 yard run on third down and four, the other a 73 yard jaunt late in the second period. Eau Claire got both their losses in the Point defense. Eau Claire was outplayed by a hard-working Point eleven.

The CSTC players were victorious in their first conference game, defeating Oshkosh by a score of 13-7. Joe Bongers scored on a 73 yard line for one touchdown and junior guard Ted Honke in the end zone for the other.

The following weekend Point found themselves in a 0-0 tie through the first couple of periods. By the second half, Point was on top 28-0.
