Familiar Faces

Did you ever know anyone whose real hobby was making and keeping friends? Before you shake your head and say, "And what fun!", come to think of it, you do know Jeanette! Jeanette doesn't go around saying, "Hi, I'm Jeanette!" You see, if you saw her going down the "receiving line" on registration day at the State Convention, you wouldn't think of her as a brown-eyed girl you've been meeting at a club or at the Church. She has been coming to the meetings for the past three years. Since she was a freshman, Jan has been giving regular information and help to all comers at the college of her location.

Before CSTC knew her, young Miss See was a well-known K-H club member in her native town of Redwood, Wisconsin. Her education was at the University of Wisconsin at Madison. She is now a student at Madison High School, Junction City and Rudolph High School, where she is valedictorian.

Farming holds a lot of interest for her. Up until a year ago, when her parents moved to Wisconsin Rapids, Jeanette had spent her life on their farm. With her three older brothers, she learned to drive horses, haul hay and, yes—she can milk cows! While she doesn't sing, or play the piano to provide the conventional entertainment, Jan holds a more sure key to anyone's heart. She bakes prize-winning apple pie, and cooks dishes that are a real treat to eat. One weekend she toosed off a new apple pie, brought it to a church meeting. Many girls do practice these homely arts, but not all girls enjoy them as much as she does. While Jeanette is not a star student, she will be seen at the Training school where she is going to major in Home Economics, and at any office of the department, the East Shop and meetings of Tau Gamma Beta, as she has served as president of Pan-Hell at the recent convention.

Mrs. Piffen Attends Convention in Chicago

Mrs. Elizabeth Piffen, along with 1,500 other Deans of women from colleges and universities all over the United States, attended the Annual Conference of Guidance and Personnel associations held at the Stevens Hotel, Chicago, March 29—April 1. The convention's theme, "Personnel Development in Higher Education," was followed by the theme "Personnel Development in the Total Educational Process." One of the greatest thrills of the week was the opportunity for Mrs. Piffen to visit her alma mater, Mount Holyoke College. In the office of Sarah Lawrence College, Dr. Blanding conducted a formal "Survey on Modern Education," according to the manner of Dr. Taylor, whose views on modern education were expressed in the pages of Colliers Magazine, gave a talk on "Going College Back to the Student." All but one of the State Teachers Colleges were represented at the convention of state deans. Dr. Piffen expressed much gratitude for the fine cooperation that exists among these deans and the cooperation shown among the Wisconsin college deans at the meeting for better coordination.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Radio Workshop
Each Monday afternoon as 3:15 rolls around a hash will flow over the heads of students in the Radio Workshop. Daryl Fonstad in the control room flips a switch, makes a gesture, and the "Our College" program is on. From that moment that John Kowalk rhythms "presents the Our College program until Marzick Mead concludes the program with the college news, you can rest assured that the best in listening pleasure is yours. The stress is on the word "Our" and more likely than not, you'll find some personality, some talented artist that you know is performing in the best professional style. It's quite likely that you may hear one of the faculty instructing, informing or entertaining. The keynote of the program is variety and quality. This coming Monday, April 9, Grace Peterson will appear as guest artist, presenting a number of piano selections.

Tuesday, April 20, Our Book Corner with Elizabeth Allen will continue its series of annual stories for children with the story of two deer Dash and Dart. Our Book Corner Players read each Wednesday afternoon at 3:15 will present Oscar Wilde's "Canterville Ghost" on April 20.

Having completed the discussion of the Palestine problem, the Col­ lege Round Table will continue its discussions of other current issues on Thursday, April 22.

Music of the masters for your listening pleasure will be presented on the Music Album, Friday, April 3, as Frank Kostic, "Music's" presents selections by Saint-Saens. The selection of music for the program is made possible by means of records.

Student Council

Student Council members met for their regular meeting on Wednesday, April 8, at 4:30 p.m. President Merlin Kramer introduced a letter thanking students for their contribution to World War II. The president then introduced the program of the five colleges in Wisconsin which has supported this cause. Mr. Kramer then outlined the program that is still difficult in foreign countries and for whom continued help is urgently needed.

Alpha Kappa Rho

Jack Whitney became a member of Alpha Kappa Rho at an initiation ceremony at the home of Peter J. Michelson on Monday evening. At the ceremony, President Kimison presented a gavel and a scroll engraved with the words "Alpha Kappa Rho." The ceremony was followed by a social hour.

Elcategoria

Each week we thumb through the exchange papers received from other colleges to see if their publications can possibly be as good as our own! Occasionally, the student leaders of other colleges find that they are able to print fascinating stories about the guest artists and lecturers that visited them with startling regularity.

Such news is very disconcerting to us in ways more than just professional competition. It tells us that the students of CSTC are missing something. That they are missing something practically every college in this area except ours.

CSTC students present good programs—of that there is no doubt. But we like to hear and see something new and something professional in the way of assembly entertainment.

As we remember, outside entertainment always drew a crowd of students to the assemblies. Since there should be more convocations to strengthen the ties between students and faculty members, the present system of by securing the entertainment that comes close to us on its way to other colleges but never quite reaches us.

Teachers College Rally

The Association of Wisconsin Teachers Colleges will convene at Milwaukee Teachers College on Tuesday, April 30, and Saturday, May 3.

The opening session at 9:30 a.m. April 30, will be addressed by G. W. Bentzmann, superintendent of schools, Waukesha; the President of the Wisconsin Education association, and President of the National Education association of students in Glencoe, Ill. De­ partmental subjects will be consider­ ed.

Guidance services at the colleges will be discussed by Dr. Irving South­ direkt. President of Milwaukee Teachers College, Dr. Raymond E. Godtig, Stevens Point, and H. C. Willkorn, Platte­ ville.

Dr. J. Martin Klotzke, Milwaukee State Teachers College, will present a panel discussion at 8 p.m. on "Wisconsin State Teachers Colleges—Retracement and Progress." Joining the discussion will be Edgar G. Doudna, Madison, resigned secretary of the newly formed Association of Wisconsin Colleges and students, and President William C. Hansen.

Dr. Harold T. Molo is secretary­ treasurer of AWTCC.

The entire faculty of CSTC will be present at the convention, and the meeting, so school will be closed on Friday, April 30.
Lyrics Lose Lead

Gridders Show Promise
Gulls’ Throne Is Shaky

Grades have been divided into two squads, the “Whites” and the “Blues,” with an intra-squad game scheduled for Friday of this week. The players have been divided into two teams according to the Lyric’s ill-fated efforts to take three games from the Phi Sigma and moved up into first place.

Continental tallied the high game of the evening, an 898 game. Han-bow-Bach topped an 876 game and Grover-Nusta tipped two identical games of 860 to gain other team honors.

The high series was rolled on the singles by Grover-Nusta, 546; Grover-Nusta, 454; Prihoda, 543; Kuklic, 536, and Green, 513.

Contingent rolled the high game of the evening, an 898 game. Hansen-Buch topped an 876 game and Grover-Nusta tipped two identical games of 860 to gain other team honors.

There will definitely be no track at CSTC this year. Coach Quandt stated that this was due to lack of facilities and equipment for track. He plans some track meets for next season though. The school has no hurdles and the cinder track is in bad shape. Improvements are to be made next summer. The school could stand a lot of new athletic equipment. That equipment always seems to come next year.

Gridders Show Promise

A Lotus torn Talks Back

Approximately 30 stalwarts have come forward to organize a spring football practice being held this year for the first time in quite a few years.

The name of the game has been changed to two squads, the “Whites” and the “Blues,” with an intra-squad game scheduled for Friday of this week. The candidates have been putting in some grueling practice sessions with general conditioning work being the main point of importance.

The annual track meet was held Monday evening and the team looked very sharp. Their routine running and hard tackling being displayed.

Continental has 16 attorneys out for spring training along with four numeral the hundred of the “47” squad. The lettermen are: Ellsworth Gaulke, honorary captain of last year’s eleven; Flames Stu DePauw, Clark DePauw, Ken Kulick, Jim Koohn, George Bunmerich, Jack Chrisly, Dick Parsons, Cliff Reddins, Jim Dalmoor, Gary Bartel, Dick Lorenzen, T. P. Finkel, Joe Warren, Charles Hanke and John Isham.

The numeral winners are Pat Love, Bartel, Fink, and Larry Lindquist.

A system is being utilized this year by Coach Quandt. A lot of tricky plays are being run off during practice or scrimmage games.

After a season of spring football practice Continental was being thoroughly acquainted with the system that gave it. The team is a smooth-working eleven next fall.

Plan “Conservation Day”

Plans for a “Conservation Day” to be held on Friday, May 7, were announced by the Conservation department.

Observance of the day will be shown through a campus tree-planting project, the retirement of the Central State graduating seniors of the Conservation department. Displays of conservation activities will take place throughout the day and movies will be shown in the library.

A school-wide “Bow-Tie Dance” in the evening at the Training school gym will end the day’s festivities. Alpha Kappa Lambda is in charge of planning the dance program.
Dr. Gotham to Represent CSTC at Milwaukee Meet

Dr. Raymond E. Gotham, as representative of the Central State Teachers college, will attend a meeting, called by the State Department of Public Instruction, at the Schroeder Hotel, Milwaukee, on Friday, April 16.

Also attending will be one representative from the nine Wisconsin Teachers colleges, from Stout Institute, the county normal schools, the liberal arts schools and one from the University of Wisconsin.

The purpose of this meeting is to initiate a critical study of the effectiveness of teachers-training programs in these institutions and to advise changes after careful research.

A subcommittee, composed of three representatives each from the teachers colleges, liberal arts colleges, county normal schools, and one from Stout Institute and one from the University, will prepare research instruments to gather essential data on the matter of efficiency in teaching. Dr. Gotham is one of the three Teachers college members on this committee.

The committee members, through actual contact with Wisconsin teachers, will seek advice from them as to which phases of their training they felt were very helpful and which phases were inadequate or unnecessary.

Mrs. Pfiffner (Continued from page 2)

The selection of curricular among the Teachers colleges.

Throughout the concourse, emphasis was put upon more guidance in the liberal arts. Some also laid upon "gracious living" as one of the goals of present-day society. Three separate meetings were conducted on religious and spiritual differences, viewing the problem from both the student and the faculty.

One forum of especial interest to Mrs. Pfiffner was conducted by Dean Louise Sharp of the University of Michigan entitled, "How Deans of Teachers College May Assist in Attacking Fine Young People to the Teaching Profession".

Radio Workshop (Continued from page 1)

Talented Twooonee

The first quarter hour of the scheduled 45 minute program will feature Frank Kostuck singing a number of well-known songs. His accompanist will be Grace Peterson. It is Frank who handles the Music Album each Friday.

Visitors and Guests. Workshop staff will participate in the concluding half hour dramatic producing, which is consistent with their practice of presenting unique types of literature to a general audience. The production is the radio adaptation of a 1938 Best Short Story, the fantasy by Robert Ayre entitled "Miss Sycamore." It's a story of a disinterested girl who, enthralled with life, decides to change himself into a tree. As you may suspect, the idea produces complications, highs and guffaws.

The Cast

The announcing for the program will be handled by Bill Parks, the narrator. Frank Kostuck. The cast will include John Kowalski, Marne Guth, Bernie Alberg, Alma Kromrey, John Stanton, Maurice Mead and Ann Hunstinecker. Also participating will be Marjorie Hales, Arlene Kromrey, Althea Boonmar, Betty Richardson, Renee LaMide and John Eide. Each of the Wisconsin colleges will be in charge of sound effects and the program will be produced by David Foostad.

As an added note of interest, Mr. Richard Young, an expert in performance later in the spring. Incidentally, for the past six months, all Workshop programs have been on the recommended listening list published by the Wisconsin Association for Better Radio Listening.

Belke Lumber & Mfg. Co., Inc.
157 N. Second St. Telephone 1094

Belke Lumber & Mfg. Co., Inc.

IT'S THE
POINT SUGAR BOWL
FOR HOME-MADE ICE CREAM, HAMBURGERS, MALTS AND COMPLETE FOUNTAIN SERVICE.

The Personal Gift
Your Photograph
TUCKER'S STUDIO

At Your Service "It's Better—Try It"
New Modern Cleaners
Next to Emmons' Stationary Store

Norengning's
Serving...through CREATING

Telephone 380

Goodman's Jewelers
415 Main St. Phone 173

Westenberger's

"The Students Favorite Class Room"

At Your Service "It's Better—Try It"

Main Street Food Market
Generally Better—Always The Best

Gamama Delta Members Attend Madison Meeting

Eleven members of the CSTC Gamama Delta chapter were privileged to participate in the first regional conference of Lutheran colleges and University students held in Madison last Saturday and Sunday.

This meeting was called and planned by the University of Wisconsin students to unite Lutheran students in their common goals.

Those attending the meeting were: George Negley, Marjorie Schrade, Charlotte Paulson, Lorraine Meyers, Mary Sitzer, Robert Purcell, Louise Oelrich, Gladys Rindfleisch, Jerry Quinzel, E. D. Westerman, Beetz, Nancy, accompanied by Rev. W. F. Ludwig.

Candle Light Service

One of the most memorable parts of the conference was the Candle Light Vesper Service held Saturday night. The University Lutheran students chose and led the group presentation from the base font to the candle lighted chapel humming "Beautiful Savior" by Elfrida Ahlgren. Dohlkish delivered the vesper sermon.

Plans were briefly sketched for a conference again next year, a tour of the Madison campus was made and pictures were taken on the church steps.

United Nations

(Continued from page 1)

The conclusion of the speech, the general assembly began debate. It was decided that the subjects suggested by the committee of the Student association would be the agenda. The Student Senate and the committees related to their research.

There were three committees in session at the conference. The theological committee discussed the disposition of the Italian colonies of Libya and Tripolitania. The political and social committee discussed the veto power and also recommended that the United Nations draft a charter for Israel and Egypt and Sudan. The third committee (Social, Cultural and Humanitarian) acted on a covenant of human rights.

College Represents India

Delegations from the colleges represented the various provinces and the local delegations represented the various universities. There were talks in history and speech classes on the Student United Nations conference. Students who are interested in hearing some of the problems discussed will contact some member of the delegation or a class instructor.

 gamma Delta activities of CSTC on the panel "Our Student Group Program".

Candle Light Service

One of the most memorable parts of the conference was the Candle Light Vesper Service held Saturday night. The University Lutheran students chose and led the group presentation from the base font to the candle lighted chapel humming "Beautiful Savior" by Elfrida Ahlgren. Dohlkish delivered the vesper sermon.

Plans were briefly sketched for a conference again next year, a tour of the Madison campus was made and pictures were taken on the church steps.

United Nations

(Continued from page 1)

the conclusion of the speech, the general assembly began debate. It was decided that the subjects suggested by the committee of the Student association would be the agenda. The Student Senate and the committees related to their research.

There were three committees in session at the conference. The theological committee discussed the disposition of the Italian colonies of Libya and Tripolitania. The political and social committee discussed the veto power and also recommended that the United Nations draft a charter for Israel and Egypt and Sudan. The third committee (Social, Cultural and Humanitarian) acted on a covenant of human rights.

College Represents India

Delegations from the colleges represented the various provinces and the local delegations represented the various universities. There were talks in history and speech classes on the Student United Nations conference. Students who are interested in hearing some of the problems discussed will contact some member of the delegation or a class instructor.

Greek Delta activities of CSTC on the panel "Our Student Group Program".

Candle Light Service

One of the most memorable parts of the conference was the Candle Light Vesper Service held Saturday night. The University Lutheran students chose and led the group presentation from the base font to the candle lighted chapel humming "Beautiful Savior" by Elfrida Ahlgren. Dohlkish delivered the vesper sermon.

Plans were briefly sketched for a conference again next year, a tour of the Madison campus was made and pictures were taken on the church steps.

United Nations

(Continued from page 1)

the conclusion of the speech, the general assembly began debate. It was decided that the subjects suggested by the committee of the Student association would be the agenda. The Student Senate and the committees related to their research.

There were three committees in session at the conference. The theological committee discussed the disposition of the Italian colonies of Libya and Tripolitania. The political and social committee discussed the veto power and also recommended that the United Nations draft a charter for Israel and Egypt and Sudan. The third committee (Social, Cultural and Humanitarian) acted on a covenant of human rights.

College Represents India

Delegations from the colleges represented the various provinces and the local delegations represented the various universities. There were talks in history and speech classes on the Student United Nations conference. Students who are interested in hearing some of the problems discussed will contact some member of the delegation or a class instructor.