'April Showers' the Theme at Tau Gam Dance

If it doesn't rain before Saturday night, the Tau Gams will produce their own downpour by carrying out in "April Showers" theme for their dinner-dance.

The dinner will be held at the Sunrise Cafe and will be for Tau Gams, their dates and special guests. The dance will be given at the Training School gym and is an all-school affair.

The Setting

There will be rain drops (synthetic), umbrellas (real), May flowers (artificial), plus the Castilian's dance music, a refreshment stand (coke), a place to hang coats (or anyone else especially low in the world) and lighting sufficient to allow passing without colliding and to enable the chaperones to see. Dancing will be from 9 to 1 o'clock and admission charges are $1.50 per couple.

Committees for the dinner-dance are: Invitations and chaperones, Janet Thatcher, chairman, Joan Winter, Bonita Babcock; decorations (dinner), Janice Plenke, Kay Breslin, Delores Lepak; decorations (dance), Darlene Morren and Mary Due, co-chairmen; Margaret Johnson, Pauline Fitzke, Jean Walker, Phyl Kasper, Winnie Church.

More Committees

Advertising, Jeanette See, chairman, Betty Dietz, Eileen Dineen, Pat Seckle; tickets and programs, Manne Simonson, chairman, Katie Connor, Helen Wolyn; entertainment (dinner), Evelyn Markwardt, chairman, Lenore Arnette; refreshments, Betty Ruth Crawford, chairman, Carol Collins. These committees are under the general chairmanship of Mary Juetten and Pat Soepe.

Kasper, Beilke and Gynn To Head 1948-49 Year Book

Key positions on the Iris staff for 1948-49 were filled last week when the advisers announced that Phyllis Kasper would be Editor, Reuben Beilke, Associate Editor and Business Manager and George Gynn, Advertising Manager.

In making this announcement, Dr. Harold M. Tolo and Miss Harriet Wright, advisers for the Iris, have disclosed a slight change in the roster of Iris offices. The three offices previously mentioned are of equal importance and the officers will rely upon equal cooperation in order to edit a successful publication.

The new editor, "Phyl" Kasper, hails from Land O'Lakes and has attended CSTC for two years. During that time she has made a fine reputation as a writer by working as a copy editor on the Iris and by contributing feature articles to the Pointer. With Phyl at the helm, the course charted for next year's Iris will be pretty smooth.

Reuben's the Wausau lad who's going to handle the position of Associate Editor and Business Manager. This new job will tie the problem of accounting directly to the creation of the book. During the past two years Mr. Beilke has served as composition editor for the Pointer and on the Iris business and editorial staffs.

The Ad-man, George Gynn, of Honolulu, Hawaii, is none other than one of CSTC's recent delegates to the Madison student UN conference. George served on the Iris business staff this past year. He will handle advertising exclusively.

Students who wish to become Iris staff members for the '49 yearbook may apply to these persons.

Attention All Veterans!

To all Veterans training under P.L. 346:

By this date, you have all received our VA form 7-506, Notice of Authorization of Subsistence Allowance. It tells you (1) the years, months and days of your remaining entitlement, (2) the amount of your monthly subsistence allowance, and (3) the inclusive dates of your current award.

You will note that, though the last day of classes for this semester at this institution is June 2, 1948, your award has been made through June 17, 1948. This 15 day extension of training time (which most of you refer to as accumulated annual leave of absence) will be deducted from your total period of eligibility. Every day for which you accept subsistence allowance comes off your entitlement.

If, therefore, you are going to be short on training time to complete your planned scholastic career, it is up to you to request the VA NOT to make this automatic 15 day extension. This is done on our form 7-1908, Notice of Change of Training Status, which is available either at the General Information window of the Main Office of CSTC or at the VA Office in the basement. Please remember, also, that because it takes time to process these forms through to the payroll department, you MUST effect this change by April 30, 1948.

Act now in your own behalf. George F. Riley, Training Officer

G. Doudna, Secretary of the board of normal school regents.

After the intermission, the band played "Symphonie Poem" by Frangiser, and the two selective marches "Great Century" and "Herbert L. Clarke's Triumphant March" directed by guests Kenneth Storandt and Norman Hinkley.

The band then changed tempo for "Overture Pique Dame" by Von Suppe and "Three Dances From Bal-

Academies of Science Have Joint Meeting

The Wisconsin Academy of Sciences, Arts, and Letters and the Wisconsin Junior Academy of Science will hold a joint meeting at Central State Teachers College on Friday and Saturday, April 23 and 24. Fred J. Schmeckle, head of the science department, is general chairman of this meeting, for which CSTC has the privilege of being host for the first time since the Academy was established.

Gilbert W. Faust, Dr. Bernard F. Wiewel, Dr. Edgar F. Pierson, Miss Harriet Wright, and Miss Monica Bainter have been appointed by Mr. Schmeckle to act on the committee in charge of making the arrangements.

Registration on Friday

On Friday afternoon the meeting will begin with registration. Dr. L. E. Noland, president, will call the meeting to order and an address of welcome, given by President William C. Hansen, will follow.

With E. J. Bolender of Superior State College presiding, the following papers will be given:

Harold R. Wolfe and Eleanor Dilks, University of Wisconsin, "The Variation in Antibody Response Among Birds." Eleanor Springer, Stata Norton, H. R. Wolfe, and C. A. Herrick, University of Wisconsin, "The Route of Injection Correlated With Precipitin Production In Chickens."

Stata Norton, H. R. Wolfe, and C. A. Herrick, University of Wisconsin, "Effect of Injection of a Soluble Antigen on Spleen Size in Chickens." Lester W. J. Seifert, University of Wisconsin, "Methods and Aims of a Survey of the German Spoken in Wisconsin." Kenneth MacArthur, Milwaukee Public Museum, "Contributions to the Knowledge of Hippoboscidae."

'Our Town' Showing Appears April 27-28

"This play is called 'Our Town.' It was written by Thornton Wilder, produced by Ray Bartkowiak, and directed by Leland M. Burroughs." With these lines the Stage Manager, as portrayed by Warren Soeteber, will begin to unfold the story of "Our Town" on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, April 27 and 28, in the college auditorium.

The play depicts the life of a New Hampshire village with its humor, picturesqueness, and pathos, set against a background of centuries of time, social history and religious ideas. As the Stage Manager in the drama says: "This is the way we were in our growing-up and in our marrying and in our doctoring and in our living and in our dying." The entire three act play takes place in Grover's Corners, New Hampshire, from 1901 to 1913.

The main action of the play centers around two families, the Webbs and the Gibbs. The Webbs are portrayed by Bernard Alberg as Mr. Webb, Phyllis Kasper as Mrs. Webb, Earl Dryfoose as Wally Webb, and Jo Ann Lindemann as Emily Webb. Melvin Berg and Jean Walker take the parts of Dr. and Mrs. Gibbs. Their children, George and Rebecca, are played by John Zylka and Donna Alderton.

Others of the townspeople are portrayed by Phillip Strand, Leonard Ringstad, John Kowaleski, Virginia Gmeiner, Reuben Beilke, Julie Dean, Charles Bart, Alice Schram, John Stanton, Leland Brunker, Keith Fox, William Joanis, Pauline Fitzke and Richard Francis.

The technical directors are James R. Hicks, Dr. Bernard F. Wiewel and Robert S. Lewis. The technical staff consists of the stage manager, Ray

Annual Awards Day To be Held May 18

The annual Awards Day will be held in the Auditorium on Tuesday morning, May 18. As in former years the Student Council is organizing the Awards program.

In a widely distributed circular, Merlin Brunner, Student Council president, has requested that the heads of all departments and organizations that contemplate presenting awards or scholarships at the program, have the following information submitted to him on or before Tuesday, May 11:

- 1.—The award to be presented (type).
- 2.—Name of person presenting awards.
- 3.—Number of persons receiving awards.
- 4.—Approximate time necessary to present awards.

Prompt attention to this matter is imperative if a well-organized program is to be presented. Cooperation also facilitates a more complete coverage by the Pointer, the last issue of which will be issued on Thursday, May 20.

College Band Gives Homecoming Concert

The college band, under the direction of Peter J. Michelsen, presented an excellent concert in the auditorium, Sunday, April 18, at 3 p. m. The concert marked the climax of the third annual band homecoming.

The program began with "Wotan's Farewell" and "The Fire Charm Music" by Wagner and was followed by "Lady of Spain" by Evans. These were followed by the "Acropolis March" by Hughes and the "Vanished Army" by Alford. The latter selections were directed by guest directors Marjorie Loberg and Louis Hamel.

A medley of Jerome Kern selections and "Prelude" by Jean Begenhorn were the next numbers.

The College Mixed Chorus joined the band for a rendition of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" by Wilhousky and "A Perfect Day" by Bond. These selections were dedicated to the memory of the late E.

Published weekly except holidays and examination periods, at Stevens Point by students of the Central Wisconsin State Teachers College. Subscription Price $2.00 per year.

Democracy in Operation

Never in the history of CSTC has the average age of students been so high. That is no reflection on the progress being made by the present roster of scholars; but it attests to the large number of veterans and delayed students who helped in the war effort before resuming their educational pursuits.

Since there are so many "oldies" attending colleges this year, the institutions are ripe for "vote plucking." Many students are exercising the right of being of age and the prerogative of voting is a principal part of that newly-received endowment.

If you have reached "man's estate" remember that voting is not merely a privilege but a duty as well. It is a responsibility that should not be pushed away lightly and regarded as just one of those encumbering duties required of one's station.

There will be plenty of voting going on in this year of presidential elections. If you don't know how to vote, have someone instruct you in the art of casting ballots. However, don't let them tell you whom to vote for. Make up your own mind regarding the selection of candidates and, whether your neighbor approves of them or not, vote according to your convictions.

In order to make definite, intelligent selections from the raft of candidates that will be aspiring to be elected to a galaxy of offices, local, state and national, one must become familiar with all of them. An intense study of candidates, their platforms and the situation in general must be made by each responsible voter before he can feel adequately prepared to take on the responsibility of voting.

It doesn't matter whom you vote for as long as you are convinced by a thorough, broadminded investigation that your candidate is the man for the job. No civil right is more deeply instilled in the minds of the American people than exercising their individual powers at the polls.

If you have the right to vote this year, don't let America down. With so many responsible positions to be filled by elections, our country can use every intelligent vote offered. Voting is part of your heritage — do right by it.

Social Committee Settles on Dates

The Social Calendar committee met Monday evening, April 19, and the following schedule of events was decided upon for the year 1948-49. Another meeting of the committee will be held on Monday evening, April 26. Organizations are urged to send representatives with the authority to make 1st, 2nd and 3rd choice of dates for each event desired. The Social Calendar 1948-49 meeting will be held at 7 p.m. in Room 115. Organizations are not to plan for dates after May 21, 1949.

The members of the Social Calendar committee that may be approached for advice are: Mrs. Elizabeth Piiffner, chairman; Peter J. Michelsen, Leland M. Burroughs, Dr. Raymond E. Gotham, George R. Berg, James R. Hicks, Dr. Bernard F. Wiewel, Phyllis Kasper and Merlin Brunner.

The members of the Girls' Glee Club are seen giving vent to one of those scintillating melodies, for which they are so famous, in an afternoon practice session in the auditorium. Betty Ruth Crawford is the gal "at the controls" in place of the regular director, Peter J. Michelsen. Perhaps the girls are practicing for the Spring assembly concert.

The Girls, Too, Have A Fine Glee Club

There's music in the air — every Tuesday and Thursday around about 4 p.m., coming from the general direction of the auditorium. It's the Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Peter J. Michelsen, that is the source of all those melodious strains.

This very active organization of almost 70 girls spent most of the first semester practicing and planning the annual Christmas concert, the biggest project of the year. They succeeded very well in conveying the yuletide spirit to the large and enthusiastic audience.

During the second semester, concert tours were made to Port Edwards, Rosholt, Nekooosa and Almond. The group is at present planning an assembly concert to be given this spring.

On May 20, the Glee club will hold its annual banquet at which time pins will be awarded to the seniors for three and four year service.

Officers for the Girls' Glee club are: Pat Lavers, president; Grace Peterson, vice-president; Margaret Roberts, secretary; Marianne Simonson, treasurer; Sylvia Horn, librarian; Esther Davidson, business manager; Evie Markwardt, board of directors and Winnie Church, press representative. Grace Peterson is accompanist.

Directors' Class Gives Musical Assembly

The students and faculty enjoyed a fine assembly program given by the directors' class on Wednesday, April 14. With Walter Peterson as master of ceremonies and Grace Peterson as accompanist, the group presented the following numbers: "How Shall I Truly Meet Thee" by Bach, directed by Fred Brewer; "Now is the Month of Maying" by Morley, directed by Larry McKinnon; "Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming," by Michael Praetorius, directed by Esther Davidson.

Specialty numbers included: "I Love You," a soprano solo by Esther Davidson; "Tea for Two," a piano duet by Grace Peterson and Bob Karsten and "Donkey Serenade," a tenor solo by Charles Bart. The group then continued with: "Since I First Saw Your Face" by Thomas Ford, directed by Dorothy Loberg; "Dancing on the Green," directed by Betty Ruth Crawford; "I Got Rhythm" by George Gershwin, directed by Carman Lane; "In these Delightful Pleasant Groves" by Henry Purcell, directed by Charles Bart and "A Perfect Day" by Carrie Jacobs Bond, directed by Bob Karsten.

More Victims

Soon names of unmarried students will be put into print—from the looks of things there might be a scarcity of them in the future—Janice Plenke and Jim Fahrner became engaged as of April 17. Pat Thorpe is wearing Ed Kowalski's frat pin with future plans in mind.

The Stork Club

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Pearson have a new arrival at their home—nine pound Brian James, born April 13th. A rather odd date—since Frank's birthday is on April 11th, Dolly's is on April 12th, and now—Brian's on the 13th.

Dr. Lyness taught Rosemary and Priscilla Lane when he and they lived in Iowa and their name was not Lane, but Mullican. Dr. Tolo, when he was a gay bachelor in North Dakota, used to date Virginia Bruce, then of Fargo. Miss Glennon used to get a smile and a tip of the hat from Dennis Morgan every morning, when he was on his way to Carroll College and she was on her way to teach in Waukesha High school.

Primary Council to Hold Annual Spring Luncheon

On Saturday, April 24, at 12:30 p. m., the Primary Council will hold its annual spring luncheon at the First Baptist church. Special guests, alumnae of the primary division, instructors and students will be served in a setting of spring flowers, pussy-willows and birds.

Miss Martha Mattson, supervisor of the elementary grades of Wausau, will be the guest speaker. Marjorie Reitan, Madison, will speak for the alumnae and Delores Lepak will represent the active members. President William C. Hansen and Dr. Raymond E. Gotham will also speak. A vocal solo will be sung by Julie Dean and musical readings will be given by Sylvia Horn.

Special guests include President and Mrs. William C. Hansen, Miss Susan Colman, Mr. and Mrs. Quincy Doudna, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rightsell, Miss Bessie May Allen, Mrs. John Colman, Miss Gertie Hansen, Dr. and Mrs. Bernard F. Wiewel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crow, Miss Miriam Moser, Mrs. Mary Samter and Mrs. Mildred Williams.

General chairman of the luncheon is Sylvia Horn. Her committee chairman are: Invitations, Mary Chenoweth; program, Carol Collins; food, Loretta Fenelon; and decorations, Hildegarde Kuse.

Miss Colman is director of the primary division.

Twenty-one Students In New Typing Class

The rat-a-tat-tat you may hear on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday in the Training school assembly is the newly organized typing class.

Twenty-one college students have taken advantage of the opportunity to learn how to type for their own personal use. One group meets from 4:15 to 4:55 p.m. while a second group meets from 5 to 5:40 o'clock. No college credit is offered for the course.

Miss Hilda Bartell of P. J. Jacobs High School, the instructor, says that there is still room in the five o'clock class if anyone interested will see her immediately. So, students, if you want to learn how to type before the final term paper comes up, see Miss Bartell at the Training school tonight.

NOTICE I wish to thank all those who were so kind and considerate while I was putting on my "side show" in the hospital. I especially want to say thanks to Miss Bovee and Mrs. Piiffner and those friends who did so much to make things easier for me. Janice Sisley

The Fifth Quarter

Spring football is going on at a feverish pace. Coach Quandt is making it rough on all the men, what with calisthenics and running laps around the cinder track. He has just installed four stalwart posts on one side of the field to use as blocking dummies. This is the first time that spring training has been held here at CSTC—and it looks as if it will be a great success.

Milwaukee State Teachers finished up their indoor track season with a 94 2/3 to 36 1/3 win over Carroll college. Milwaukee, with big Baker Field House at their disposal, is about the only Teachers college that goes in for indoor track. Oshkosh has a team but they do their practicing on the regular gym floor.

Coach Berg's arrival back at college after his long siege of sickness has sent softball into the lime-light. Team captains have already signed up for the eight-team Independent League. If the lists of players are in by this week-end, the league will start the early part of next week. The caliber of ball played is very high, for some of Stevens Point's better players, as well as those from adjoining towns, are attending college. It will be a treat for spectators.

The season for fishing has also arrived. The pike run has started on the Wolf River near Fremont and from unreliable "fish stories" nothing but big fish are being caught. However, the fishing there has been so good in the last 10 years that it is becoming a popular sport for fishermen from all over the midwest. If you like fishing, there isn't a better spot to be found right now.

Teams Are Impressive in Intra - Squad Scrimmages

Even though the first game is five months in the future, the 50 odd candidates working out for a berth on the fall football team are showing a lot of pep and an eagerness for the hard training grind.

Coach Hale Quandt is constantly teaching the team new plays and then working them on dummy scrimmage until the plays are mastered. Then the two intra-squad teams use these plays in heavy scrimmage. A scrimmage session is on the docket nearly every evening.

The line has looked very impressive in these bouts and indications show that the Pointers will be strong, both in regulars and reserves, in the forward wall. A crew of experienced backs are turning in some great exhibitions at toting the pigskin. If spring indications show anything, the Pointers should be right up in the thick of the conference scramble, come next football season.

The public will get their chance to see the Pointers in action on Wednesday, April 28, when the two intra-squad teams, the Purples and the Whites, meet in a regulation game.

BAND CONCERT

let Suite "Gayne" by Khachatourian. The concert concluded with the playing of "Turkey in the Straw" by Denmark and "Swanee" by Gershwin.

A large crowd was in attendance and the visiting alumni increased the band personnel to well past its normal size.

Saturday evening, band members, alumni and special guests were served dinner at St. Paul's Methodist church.

Walter Peterson, president of the band, presided and called upon Ralph Abrahamson of Medford, who acted as toastmaster. Short talks were given by former President Frank S. Hyer, President William C. Hansen, Miss May Roach, Mr. Hinkley, Norman Kuhl and Mr. Michelsen.

Following the dinner many of the 130 people at the reunion attended a band homecoming dance in the Training School gymnasium.

Tennis Squad in First Match at St. Norbert's

Dr. Bernard F. Wiewel's tennis squad will compete in their first inter-collegiate match on Friday afternoon, when they travel to St. Norbert's college for a meet.

Six netmen will make the trip to represent CSTC. On May 24, the team will meet St. Norbert's in a return match here on the local courts.

At present, eight men are working out under Dr. Wiewel's tutorage. They are Bill Bart, Jay Baldwin, Conway Maas, Herb Rosenberg, Joe Emmerich, Dick Harris, Marshall Cornell and Rolly Sacho.

Several other tentative matches are being planned for the tennis squad this year, including the State Teachers College Conference meet to be held at Oshkosh later in the season.

Softball to Begin

The intra-mural softball program, planned by Athletic Director George Berg will soon be getting under way.

Only one league will operate this season, due to the late start. It will be known as the Independent League and will be composed of the first eight teams to sign up. Teams entered will comprise the league. Any potential "nine" are urged to get their list of players in to Mr. Berg as soon as possible.

Original Etchings Now On Display in Library

Two original etchings of Wisconsin subjects by Leon R. Pesheret are now on display in the library and in the art room.

Mr. Pesheret is of French parentage and was engaged in architectural work before taking up etching. His studio is located in Whitewater, Wisconsin and he has the distinction of being one of the very few color etchers in the country at present.

Don't miss the opportunity of seeing and enjoying these fresh and colorful exhibits.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Chi Delta Rho
In a few weeks a new emblem will be seen on T-shirts around the campus. One of the matters of business for the past few weeks has been the designing of an emblem to be used on the official Chi Delta soft-ball and basketball shirts. The emblem is patterned after the official fraternity seal with the letters "Chi Delta Rho" placed diagonally across the crest.

On Tuesday evening, April 20, a social meeting was held in the lodge at Iverson Park. The alumni present were Walter Franke, John Hall, and Spec Lewis, all on spring vacation from the University of Wisconsin. Cards, musical entertainment and a short business meeting comprised the activities for the evening.

Gamma Delta
Gamma Delta met last Thursday evening at the home of Pat Grover. A short time was spent discussing the regional conference held recently in Madison and a social evening followed.

A delightful lunch of barbecues, pickles, cake and coffee was served.

Radio Workshop
Listening to the Our College program, Monday, April 26? Leland M. Burroughs, director of the College Theater and the cast of the Theater production "Our Town," will present a bird's eye glimpse of the coming play. John Kowaleski will announce and college news will be presented by Maurice Mead.

Our Book Corner, the Workshop's literary feature for the youngsters, will find Elizabeth Allen narrating the story of "The Grocery Mouse", Tuesday, April 27.

The Radio Workshop players with producer Daryl Fonstad will present "Away from It All" by Monica Ward, a human comedy of actors off-stage. That's Wednesday, April 28.

The College Round Table will continue its discussion of the all important Italian situation, so look for an interesting quarter-hour program, Thursday, April 29.

Music by Prokofieff will be heard on the Music Album program with Frank Kostuck on Friday, April 30. It's classical; it's yours for the listening.

Beauty is but one of Wisconsin's many natural resources. For the inside story on "Wisconsin Resources, Past and Present" tune in the Centennial program Friday, 3:15 p.m., April 30. Fred J. Schmeckle, an authority on the subject, will be in charge.

Tau Gamma Beta
Mrs. William C. Hansen, sorority patroness, and Miss Helen Meston, adviser, entertained the members and guests of Tau Gamma Beta sorority at a buffet dinner held at the Hansen home, 525 Normal avenue, on April 13.

Sorority colors of pink and blue were reflected in the candles, the begonias and African violets, the napkins, and in the miniature favor-flags given each guest. Tiny Greek sorority symbols in gold were on each flag.

Mrs. Mildred Williams, sorority adviser, poured. Miss Leona Bovee, alumna, helped in providing members with their supports. The sorority enjoyed having Mrs. F. N. Spindler, patroness, and Mrs. Elizabeth Priffner as guests.

Further plans for the April 24 dinner-dance were made, and the Tau Gamma Beta loan fund was discussed at the meeting.

Sigma Tau Delta
One of the most significant meetings of the year was held by the members of Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity, in the Student Lounge, on Wednesday evening, April 14. This meeting marked the conclusion of the society's major work—the compiling of the student magazine, "Flight."

"Flight" represents the best creative work of the year at the college, since it is composed of selected poems, essays, and short stories contributed directly to the editorial staff or chosen by English teachers from work done in their classes. These contributions were read and judged, and the best will appear in the first edition of "Flight" to be printed since before the war.

After plans were made for the sale of the magazine the group was entertained by a dramatic reading given by Mrs. C. F. Watson. Mrs. Watson chose the play "Born Yesterday."

stressing in her reading an amusing and interesting interpretation of character.

WAA
Last night was the final night of basketball tournaments, but as the Pointer went to press the results of the games were not yet known. Last week Elda Buchholz's team was in the lead with four points. Yvonne Jacobson's and Betty Mehne's teams were tied for second place with two points each and Betty Swenson's team brought up the rear with a total of zero.

That, however, was before the two games last night, the first of which was played by Jacobson's and Swenson's teams and the second by Buchholz's and Mehne's teams. It is very probable that there will be a tie for first, second, or third place, in which case a final play-off will take place next week.

Plans are being made for a Play-Day Saturday, May 15. Sixty-five high schools have been invited to take part in this event which promises to be one of the highlights of the season.

Council Election Soon

Student Council representatives for next year will be elected on Wednesday, May 12. All candidates for these offices must circulate petitions to be signed and returned to the main office by 4 p.m. on Friday, May 11.

Four representatives from the freshman, sophomore and junior classes must be selected as well as one from the primary, intermediate, secondary and rural divisions. A total of 16 representatives will be elected.

In order to be valid, each petition circulated must have at least 25 signatures or one-fourth of the enrollment of the class or department represented, whichever is the smaller number. No student may sign more than four petitions.

Candidates are asked to begin the circulation of their petitions as soon as possible so as to give the student body an opportunity to become acquainted with all of those aspiring to office.

PLAY (Continued from page 1)

Bartkowiak, and his assistants, Rene LaMaide and Helen Trewartha. The make-up committee is composed of Betty Richardson, chairman, Bill Golumski, Norman Dineen, Earl Dryfoose, and Jean Zahner. Esther Davidson is in charge of the properties, and the publicity is being handled by Alta Kromroy, chairman, Marne Guth, and Dick Ellis.

Familiar Faces

When one hears talk of American youth or The American girl of what-have-you, a mental image of Patty Jones might in all probability come to mind. We'd lay a wager that if you go to CSTC and know her, there would be no doubt about it. Maybe it is because she is so genuine, and because her greeting is always so happy. No matter where you meet her and she says "Hi", you know you've been said Hi to. She has a way about her that makes you feel that she is awfully glad about something, and it even seems that might be you that she is glad about. And you feel better for her having spoken to you.

Pat has been at Point for 2½ years. She came here at mid-semester of her freshman year from Milwaukee State Teachers because she wanted to major in home economics. She belongs to the Home Ec club here, having been a member for a year and one-half. As she put it, "I have been fairly active."

Last year she was a member of the Iris business staff. This year, with that cordial manner of hers, she has scored 100 on several accounts. She is vice-president of the Junior class. You saw her and that smile way up in front in the Grand March at the Junior Prom (Parsons was there too, of course). She is president of Omega Mu Chi sorority this semester and any Omega will tell you about her popularity with that group. She won the Homecoming Queen contest last fall, evidence, maybe, that the whole CSTC student body recognizes the natural friendliness that is so much a part of her.

Early last fall, Brady, Parkinson and company also recognized that naturalness and chose her as one of the CSTC girls to try out for photographic advertising. Later in the year she was chosen again, and no doubt for the same qualities, to model in the style show given by St. Stephen's Home and School association.

Pat says she hasn't completely decided what her big ambition is going to be, but if natural enthusiasm is 90 per cent success, as the experts say, it's assured.

Gotham Substitutes

Dr. Raymond E. Gotham substituted for President William C. Hansen at the University of Chicago Conference on Teacher Education, which was held last Monday and Tuesday, April 19 and 20 at Chicago. The change was necessitated by the funeral of E. G. Doudna at Richland Center which Mr. Hansen attended on Monday.

Hear Talk on India

The class in Geography 208 (Geography of Asia), taught by Robert S. Lewis, suspended their daytime class Monday, April 19 and met that evening in the Student Lounge at 8 o'clock where they heard an informal talk by Mr. Ray Hager, biology instructor at P. J. Jacobs High School.

Mr. Hager spent two years in India and was able to reveal much interesting information about the country and its people. Following his talk, he answered questions that were tendered by the group. A luncheon was served at the end of the program.

Committee in charge of the program was Marjorie Beaver, chairman, Colleen Rybicki, Lorraine Thatcher, Arthur Bruesewitz, George Emmerich and Vernon Maurer.
