College Theater to Produce 'Midsummer Night's Dream'

The Shakespearean play, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," will be produced by the College Theater Thursday, May 1, and Friday, May 2, in the auditorium at 8:15 o'clock tonight.

Next week your Pointer will be a day late. The publication will not be off the press until Friday morning.

The staff will have their session Tuesday night instead of the usual Monday night because of the Mardi Gras.

Other campus organizations and students planning events for the Mardi Gras include Phi Sigma Epsilon, Chi Delta Rho, Alpha Kappa Lambda, Sigma Chi, Iris and Pointer, L.S.A., Phi Delta Theta, Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Chi and Kappa Kappa.

All in all, this year's Mardi Gras promises to be tops. Tempting hulls, torch singers and cajun-sounding hillbillys will be there to entertain all music, drama, and comedy.

The success of the Mardi Gras will depend heavily upon the groups that have indicated that they will perform, and as the list of participants is becoming greater, it is difficult to know what will happen.

CSTC Band Leaving Today for Concerts

The CSTC band is leaving this morning on a band trip that will include the CSTC band as well as the band of the University of Mississippi. The trip is being arranged by Dr. John V. Lewis, in charge of the band, and Mrs. Lewis in charge of the band's activities.

The trip is expected to last for about two weeks, during which time the band will perform at several schools and colleges.

Want to Know What Movie To See? Look in the Library

In a recent survey of librarians, 90% of them said that they would recommend the students to read the library's collection of booklets on current movies.

This periodical will give very authoritative suggestions. It is a monthly feature of the Library, and is published under the title of "The Movie Guide." The periodical is published under the title of "The Movie Guide," and is published twice a month.
The Pointer photographer waited for thirty minutes to get a picture of Gordon Kemmerling putting on a grey tie. "I'm a part-time employee. Business was slow that morning, so he had to settle for this pose," National Hall Manager John Flannigan said to a customer's ease. He is one of a host of CSTC students doing outside work.

Several CSTC Students Hold Down Various Part Time Jobs

Part time jobs are definitely in vogue here at CSTC. A very high percentage of the men and most of the women students spend a part of their precious time making enough money to carry them through the school year. Students from all divisons and classes are represented in the group which works in an unceasing variety of jobs.

Of the students working, the majority say that working while going to school is a help rather than a hindrance as long as the work doesn't interfere with studying. When they work, they say, it's necessary to budget their time and thus not hold it more precious.

Many Work Downtown

The downtown area furnishes a goodly number of jobs for example of a student working in the downtown clothing store while attending the University. Tony is a Senior in the secondary division here at school. He has been working at Shipp's a clothing store since he was a Freshman.

Downtown gets out the old cash register and takes the change which the students pay him. He has been working at Shipp's since November when he was a Junior.

Frank, married with two children, now does hauling with his pick-up truck for Krueger's and far whatever he needs him.

Roland Saco works behind the wheel of a school bus driving to and from the local high school. John Steves washes milk bottles on Sundays at Fisher's Dairy. John is a Senior in the secondary division and also boasts two children. He has been working at Fisher's since the first part of October.

Part time work is also held by many for both positions and girls by far. The receptionist's position is an important part of Nelson Hall. Margaret Guth, a Senior, tops the list of receptionists whose functions include answering the telephone, greeting visitors and giving out general information. Marlene has been a receptionist for three years, the longest of any of the present receptionists.

Maintenance Man

Among the many jobs held at Nelson Hall is Jerry Schell, a Freshman in the junior college, who works daily and week-end jobs. Jerry is a maintenance man.

Many students are employed in the school itself. In the biology department, the Pointer reporter interviewed another student who works in this line of work.
WhiteWater Quakers Defeat Pointers by Narrow 56-55

The Central State Pointers failed to withstand a last period rally staged by the WhiteWater Quakers as they lost a thrilling 56-55 contest at WhiteWater Saturday night. It was the fifth straight loss for the Pointers on the road as the Quakers managed to win a game on a foreign court during the entire encounter.

The loss of Ludwig and Fick via the five foul route toward the end of the last period virtually impossible for the Quakers to take a rebuff. With 25 seconds to play, the Pointers led by one point but were unable to maintain that lead when the Quakers grabbed a rebound, raced down the floor and went out in front by one point as they made the basket. The local team failed to tie the score when they were given a free throw chance in the last 10 seconds of the contest. Wagner led the CSTCers with 16 points and was followed by Polka with 10 and Ludwig with nine markers. Schaller led the foe’s attack with 17 points to take the scoring honors for the evening.

Pointers Stop Last Minute Rally by Titans; Win 59-54

The Pointers turned back a desperate last minute rally by the Oshkosh Titans to win a narrow 59-54 last home game of the season in a fast and furious contest. The final score marked the 16th win of the season.

The game got off to a slow start with the Pointers building a small lead in the first few minutes only to fall far behind as the Pointers opened up the lead and shot their way to a 21-28 half-time lead. The Titans were never close to the red hot CSTC squad for the balance of the contest until they caught fire with about five minutes left to play and closed the gap to two points before the Pointers went into a stall that gave them the game.

It was somewhat of a personal contest between Wagner of Point and Ritchie of Oshkosh as the two tall forwards battled through a brilliant scoring and rebounding exhibition. Ritchie led the scoring with 22 points on nine field goals and four free throws to edge out Wagner with 21 points on 11 field goals and three free throws. The Oshkosh ace was ejected from the game in the closing minutes after a slight altercation with Pointer’s guard Bill Ludwig, who was also hit in the head by the official Marrow and Lapenhere.

degree and will be transferable. Students enrolled in these courses will attend classes at the college for the first two weeks of the summer session.

As soon as a good group of students has been secured, Mr. Lewis will lead them to a maximum load of 25 students into the field. Rule of Thumb (Humphrey) Nettel put the gears in motion for the proposed trip. The back of the bus will be equipped with a reference library as well as an educational film. At public address system will be installed for the education of the students while driving from one stop to the other.

Several States

Thus, the familiar "Pioneer" will be busier than expected with "Greyhounds" have been seen before. With Wisconsin behind them, the members of the pioneer will be on "Prairie Connie" field-trip will Wend their way through Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Georgia, North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, and the District of Columbia.

In Kentucky, there will be two stops. The first will be at the birthplace and to Abraham Lincoln's birthplace at Hodgenville. In Tennessee visits will be made to Nashville, Andrew Jackson's home, known as the Hermitage, to Knoxville and to the Smoky Mountains.

Washington to be Visited

The tour will be spent in Washington, D.C., with side trips to Mount Vernon and the Arlington National Cemetery. Visit will be on to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and a special visit to Independence Hall.

On the return journey the group will stop again at Louisville, the capital of the steel industry in the United States. Further on, in Ohio, they will visit the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company at Akron. Indians and Illinois will be voted again and on Saturday, July 16, the veteran train ride of a 2500-mile trip will be welcomed back at CSTC.

Many other stops, too numerous to mention here will be made and the students will receive a much larger interest and relaxation for the group.

On several occasions, evening classes will be held, with guest lecturers presenting. At Knoxville, Tennessee, Dr. Byrnes, professor at the University of Tennessee, will provide a lecture on the geography of east Tennessee. Dr. Russell Whittaker, of the George Peabody college, will discuss the highlights of the different states in the state. The department of geology and geophysics of the University of Washington, and Mr. William and Mary, Virginia, will provide a lecture on the geography of the west coast of the United States.

Cost Isn't Bad

This trip is for everyone, especially parents, for the cost of this two-weeks of mobile paradise. The exact cost has not been ascertained as yet, but ranging to Mr. Lewis, the trip should cost in the neighborhood of $35 each. The cost includes summer school entrance and activity fees, transportation, guide fee, food and tipping, and liability insurance. Meals and other personal expenses are extra.

Those who are interested in taking the trip can contact Mr. Lewis in advance to see if space will be available. In Mr. Lewis immediate they will be able to make reservations, as the 25 person limit has been extended considerably, as of July 1.

Mary Ellen Gmeiner was general chairman of the party. She was assisted by the following committee: invitations, Joyce Kruger, chairman; decorations, Ruth Finch, chairman; lights and music, Miss Kehnsey, transportation, Margaret Hall, chairman, Ruth Finch and Mary Ellen Gmeiner, food, Marilyn Bobbs, cork, chairman, Estelle Berndt and Mary Schadowell, and entertainment, Julie Dean, chairman, Jacqueline Hall, Mary La Marche, and Andrea Olson.

The next social event on the time schedule is the pledge party on Sunday evening.

Tann Gamma Beta

Music by a circus band, side shows and other entertainment make of a circus "being in town" is described for the party at the Gam Rumi through party, held at the home of Mrs. Randolph Frazee, an alumna, on Sunday afternoon, February 13. Guests were greeted at the door by students who presented them with tiny favors of pink cotton candy (non-edible variety).

Entertainment was provided by students and freshmen who eagerly dipped the light fantastic as tight rope walkers, imitated animals, and became artists drawing their impressions of clowns with their eyes closed.

A speech of welcome was given by the president, Loretta Frensel and other students who talked about the local community. They are looking forward to the party of the year.

The next social event will be the party on Thursday, February 25, in the church parlor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Plans for the spring event were discussed and the names of the various committees appointed are now posted on the bulletin board.

Pledge party, February 13, 1949. The students learned an interesting discussion on "Intermarriage."

Omega Mu Chi

Rush was conducted by the Omega Mu Chi sorority Friday evening, February 23, at the home of Mrs. Charles Cahn, sorority president, with a party carrying out a plantation theme. In keeping with the theme of the party, the guests were greeted by sorority members dressed as negroes. Each novice was presented a jeweled jewel as a favor. A Negro mammy made of crepe paper was the centerpiece of the coffee table at which Marne Gmeiner, president, presided and introduced the new members, who gave a speech on sorority life. Games depicting plantation life were played.

Guests included new novices were Miss Harriet Wright, adviser, Mrs. Palmer Taylor, and Miss Bethel, Mr. Cahn, patrons, and Mrs. Alvin Harris and Mrs. Leland Burt, honorary members.
