Pan-Hellenic Dance and Dinners Enjoyed by All

The semi-annual Pan-Hellenic Dance was held at the Legg Hall, and the dance was attended by all members of the fraternities and sororities. The dance was well attended, and the music and dancing were enjoyable. The theme of the dance was "Blue Hawaii," which was carried out with a good beat and some good dancing.

The University of Minnesota, Duluth Branch, has been planning for this dance for some time, and the students have been working hard to make it a success. The dance was held in the gymnasium, and the students had a great time dancing and enjoying the music.

The Pan-Hellenic Dance is an annual event, and the students look forward to it every year. It is a great way to enjoy the school spirit and have a good time with friends.

New rules for the Pan-Hellenic Dance have been introduced this year. The students are encouraged to dress up and wear their Greek letters and colors. The dance will be held on the second Friday of the month, and the students are encouraged to arrive early to get a good spot for dancing.

I hope you can join us for the next Pan-Hellenic Dance and see what a good time we will have!
Oshkosh Providing Opposition in Opposing Tennis Duel, Saturday

Six fixed dates highlight the tennis schedule for the coming season as Coach George King, Oshkosh, last year's league champion.

Tennis, starting its second year as a major sport, begins two weeks ago with indoor practice and with the advancement of the weather, the course will open.

Future

George King, who has been playing on the Oshkosh Club, will be provided by the strong Oshkosh Club, last year's league champions.

The College Bowling League was the closest league in the city, with five teams batting it out for the top spot, three of them in a first place deadlock and the other two in a single game.

The former lone leader, Dutch's, dropped a series to the Recreation Restaurant. AKL dropped a pair to the Brunswick, thus muffing a chance to take first place over and an all season deal, so the four teams will be tied.

From a Man Who Knows - The Inside Dope on Baseball

The American League is the home run specialist, potential weapons: New York, St. Louis, and Boston. The National League is centered around pitching.

Manager McCarthy has two weaknesses to contend with. Boston lacks the reserve players which are so vital during a 154 game grind. Last year the Yankees had a strong bench and consequently walked off with the honors. Another Boston weakness is pitching. Few count on Ellis Kinder to repeat as a 25 game winner because of the Yankees' inept pitching. The Giants have several hits on him uniform.

Yankees Counted Out

As in the past years baseball oh's and phoney front numbers are counting the Yankees out of the picture. But as long as the Brooklyn Black Sox have two guys named Joe - DiMaggio and Page - their poll won't be too weak.

The Detroit Tigers, take on the role of the darkhorse. Their future in the scramble depends upon how Harmon Newhouse's arm. If Prince Hal's flipper gets going, the Motor City nine will find a very rocky path ahead.

Fighting it out for the number four spot will be Philadelphia and Cleveland. The Indians with a better outfield rate an edge over Connie Mack's Brotherly Love team.

Canada West will probably be the inhabitants of sixth place - a distinction they held last year.

Cello to Remain Same

The bottom of the ladder looks like a New York or Philadelphia and Brownsie, with the aid of a psycholog- izer, in several places. Coach H. Washington - first in war, first in peace but never first in money.

Over in the Senior Circuit the pro- ducers are heavy on Brooklyn so we'll close with the Borough Boys for the role of champ- ions. The remainder of the first division includes St. Louis, Boston, and Philadelphia, competing for the honors. As long as the Cards have Musial and a strong ten man pitching staff we like them for the championship.

The Braves, who inherited the large artillery from New York in 1950, have chosen a strong lineup. The youngsters will like the American League champ, but as the team has developed some of its weaknesses, the other league will be a stronger contender.

Giants to Regret Loss

The New York Giants will probably regret their off season loss of the Braves with the loss of the new key players. The Reds and Giants will probably end up in fifth.

Number six spot will fall to the Cardinals, who are on the St. Louis owner of the top要用的队伍, and the Gees by 3 points and in the second division. The Wrigley Boys will compile a splendid spring record and should end up about in seventh place.

Cincinnati Last

Last place honors in the National League will be bestowed upon Cincinnati. The Reds have too many question mark players to give anybody too much trouble.

Of course all of this is mere speculation, but we can make a short list of the favorites. New York, St. Louis, and Boston will certainly be high on the list.
A Driver Institute which will be conducted jointly by the Motor Vehicle Department, and the Department of Public Instruction and Central State Teachers college is scheduled to be held at CSTC during the week of June 12-16. S. Kirk Collins, assistant educational director of the Association of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, will be the instructor for the five-day program. He will be assisted by Ray E. Specht, director of driver education at CSTC.

The institute is open to graduating seniors, including those graduating in June and at the end of this summer session, and to in-service teachers. It is not, however, a course to the average driver (a driver license is a requirement for the course) but rather an institute to train teachers how to teach driver education in the high schools. A temporary teaching permit for driver education will be given to all those completing the course by the Department of Public Instruction.

CSTC Represented in Wisconsin Home Economics Ass'n Meeting

Mrs. Grace Robertson, Miss Besie May Allen, Miss Vera Hub, Miss Emily Wilson, Lilian Douglass, and Phoebie St. John were among the twelve Institute instructors who attended the annual convention in Oshkosh on April 14 and 15.

The convention offered many topics, Mrs. Rebecca Beron, director, Governors’ Commission of Human Rights, spoke on “Towards Overcoming Prejudice.” Dr. Warren H. Southworth, Associate Professor of Education, University of Wisconsin, spoke on “Health, Education and Home Economics.” “Teaching Family Relationships Throughout Home Economics” was the subject chosen by Greta S. Chaikin, Head of the Child Development Department, Lewis Institute.

Names of graduates from the CSTC Home Economics department studied the committee lists: Eva Amundsen, Mrs. Julie Hart Reimer, Mrs. Evelyn Muhl Streifer, Esther Schlerf, and Ida Henderson, were committee members.

Of the six offices in the association, two are filled by Steven Point and one by Mrs. Grace Robertson of Stevens Point Vocational school, and alternate councilors are Greta and the following five councilors.

The institute is open to school officials, newspaper and radio men and other persons interested in community organizations.

Ottis A. Crosby, senior administrative assistant in the Detroit public schools, conducted the institute.

Institute on Public Relations Held at CSTC

A special day institute on public relations was held at CSTC last Tuesday, April 18. The meeting, sponsored jointly by the college and the Wisconsin Education Association, was open to school officials, newspaper and radio men and other persons interested in community organizations.

Alvin E. Sneyd, senior administrative assistant in the Detroit public schools, conducted the institute.
