All Enrollment Below Last Year's Mark; Draft Blamed

Freshman Class Leads

The fall enrollment this year at CSTC is 814, which falls 78 below last year's enrollment. It is believed that the military draft may be responsible for the fact that there are fewer men than last year. Of the 489 men and 325 women, though the women are still in the majority, they have been gaining strength. Last year's ratio was 5 to 3 while this year's is 3 to 2.

The Freshman class is leading the enrollment, as usual, with 299 students. There are 216 enrolled in the Sophomore class, and the Junior class has 147. The Senior class has the least with 142.

The number of veterans this year is down almost one-half of last year's count. There are now only 125 vets as compared with the 239 last year.

The majority of students are enrolled in Junior college, with the secondary education division next with 165. Primary division has 109, intermediate, 92, and the rural division has 75. There are seven non-placement and special students.

Dr. Doudna Leaves for Post with Ministry of Education in Peru

Granted Year's Leave From CSTC

Dr. Quincy Doudna, dean of administration here at Central State Teachers college, has accepted a position with the ministry of education in Peru, South America, and left by plane on September 25 for Lima to begin his duties in Peru. His South American position, which will be of a year's duration, will be under the Institute for Inter-American Affairs in Washington, D. C. He has received a leave of absence from CSTC.

Dr. Doudna is to be a member of a technical staff of five persons acting as advisers to the Peruvian ministry of education. His specific duties will deal with teacher education, and plans call for the establishment of a normal school in Peru which will be a model for other normal schools to be established later.

The group of educators from the United States will be headed by Dr. Raymond C. Gibson, former president of the Duluth branch of the University of Minnesota, who will remain there for two years. Dr. Gibson was director of the Training school at CSTC in 1945-46. Other advisers in the group will deal with the educational problems in agriculture, elementary education and home life.

Dr. Doudna's wife and two sons, Lonnie, 14, and Gary, 12 have accompanied him to Peru. The family left by Wisconsin Central Airlines plane last Monday afternoon and were given a "send-off" by a group of faculty friends who were at the airport. The Doudnas will spend a few days in Washington and then will fly to Miami, to Balboa and on to South America.

During Dr. Doudna's absence, Miss Susan Colman and Miss May Roach will take over his duties as director of the elementary and rural divisions, respectively. Gilbert W. Faust will be acting registrar. No acting dean of administration will be appointed.

ALUMNI BRIEFS

Two fall dates of primary importance to CSTC alumni and friends are October 14, the annual Homecoming, and November 2, the annual convention at the Wisconsin Education Association convention in Milwaukee. The first meeting of the alumni convention during the school year of 1950-51 will be a luncheon meeting on Saturday, October 14, at 12:15 p.m. at Hotel Whiting. An informal get-together will be held at the Crozier Hotel, Milwaukee, Room 3 (parlor C) on Thursday, November 2, from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

Alumni will receive a letter from Warren Blodgett, president of the association, next week announcing above alumni reunions. Reservation blanks will be enclosed which must be returned to the executive secretary by Wednesday, October 11. In lieu of an alumni bulletin, the association has arranged to send four issues of the POINTER to alumni during the current school year. The first of the four issues will be the Homecoming issue.

WHEA Sponsored Clothing Clinic Starts Friday

The Wisconsin Home Economics Association will sponsor a clothing clinic at P. J. Jacobs High School on Friday and Saturday, September 29 and 30. The clinic is under the direction of Mrs. Edna Bryte Bishop, outstanding clothing teacher, for whom a new method of sewing is being named.

Approximately 100 home economics teachers, extension workers, and county home demonstration agents, are expected during the two days at the clinic. Friday's session is open to anyone from Wisconsin, while Saturday's meeting is scheduled for advanced teachers from the central portion of the state.

These clinics are held annually at different places in the state with a repeat clinic. Because of its central location the repeat clinics have always been held at CSTC. Miss Missie May Allen, head of the home economics department, is chairman of the local clinic and has charge of the net sale.

Faculty Will Appear in Annual Fall Convocation

The annual fall convocation, with the entire faculty in academic costume, will be held Friday, September 28 at 10 o'clock in the auditorium. It is customary, complete academic denoting alma maters and degrees will be worn by all faculty members.

Music will be provided by the college band under the direction of Mr. J. Michelsen. The band will play "Overture Americana" by Fort L. Buchtel, "Marche Royale" by J. Smetsky, and "Pomp and Circumstance" by Charles J. Roberts. The annual address at the convocation will be given by William C. Hansen, president of the college.

Shown here are Dr. and Mrs. Quincy Doudna and their sons, Gary, 12, and Lonnie, 14, right, as they prepared to depart on the first leg of a journey that will take them to Lima, Peru, where Dr. Doudna, dean of administration at CSTC, will work for one year with the Peruvian ministry of education in setting up a teacher training program.

Jacoboski Heads Homecoming; Various Committees Chosen

The 1950 Homecoming festivities, to be held October 12 through 15, will be "at least a third again as large as last year's" according to Louis Jacoboski, who has been appointed by President Hansen as chairman of this year's Homecoming. More and bigger prizes for floats, a big Homecoming sign to be strung across Main street, and prizes for the Hobo King are promised as added attractions this year.

On Friday, September 22, Jacoboski outlined his plans for a successful Homecoming before a group of campus organizations and class representatives and asked for their full support. Each representative was assigned a special task in the Homecoming activities.

The elections, in charge of Student Council members Jerry Boettcher, Harry Johnson and Mary Searles, will start Homecoming on Thursday, October 12. A Homecoming Queen, as well as class officers and Student Council members, will be elected. The polls in front of the library will be open from 8 until 4 o'clock.

The pep rally on Hobo Day, Friday, will be held at three o'clock in the afternoon with Bob Cole as Master of Ceremonies. The results of the elections will be announced and a Hobo King will be selected through audience applause.

Friday evening's activities are the responsibility of the Freshmen. Willis Zick and Bill Cook will see to it that fellow Freshmen collect plenty of fuel for the bonfire. Dick Reinholdt and Phyllis Broten will have charge of the "Come as You Are" dance in the Training school gym.

Margaret Jones, Dona Dahm, Harriet Marking and Peggy Thorp comprise the window-display committee. The Chamber of Commerce has promised this year's Homecoming 100% backing.

Parade Marshal, Ed Pliska, will lead the parade, starting at ten o'clock Saturday morning. Jean Sarker, Bob Bestul and Norvin Holm make up the float committee. There will be two prizes in each of three divisions, humorous, original, and serious. No entry fee will be charged for float entries. A local businessman will sponsor the Homecoming Queen's float, which promises to be outstanding this year. The fire department will also be in the parade in observance of Fire Prevention Week. Students are asked to provide the ideas for decorating the trucks.

The highlight of Homecoming week-end will be the big game with River Falls Saturday afternoon. In the evening the S-Club will give an informal dance.

A concert by the Men's Glee club under the direction of Norman E. Knutzen, on Sunday afternoon will bring to a close the week-end's activities.

Maurice Mead will be in charge of radio publicity. Jerry Rude, art publicity. (See JACOBOSKI HEADS, page 4)

Advanced Standing Group Announces Change

The Advanced Standing Committee, under the chairmanship of Miss Susan Colman, has announced a change in the college catalog under the heading "Probation; Dismissal." The paragraph as changed, now reads as follows:

"A student who has a grade point average of less than 1.00, but at least

North Central Workshop Attended by Dr. Tolo

When the workshop of the North Central Association of Colleges met in Minneapolis last August, Dr. Harold M. Tolo represented CSTC. The four-week Workshop, attended by 45 persons representing 30 teacher's training institutes from 20 states, was held in the Center for Continuation Study at the University of Minnesota. CSTC only recently joined the Workshop program, and President Hansen selected Doctor Tolo from the faculty as Central State's first representative.

The Workshop program was divided into four study groups: Personnel Services, General Education, Professional Education, and Improvement and Instruction. These four groups were addressed by approximately 30 academic and educational specialists in the course of their seminar deliberations.

Dr. Tolo described his general reaction by saying, "It was a privilege to meet 45 'eager beavers' in higher education, who were willing to pass up a month of vacation to improve themselves and to try to help fellow faculty members to improve the finished product — the student."

For any semester shall be placed on academic probation for the next semester. (Specific terms of the probation may be set by the student's dean or director). If, IN ANY SUBSEQUENT SEMESTER, the student again has a grade point average of at least .50, but less than 1.00, he shall be placed on final probation for the following semester. EACH SUCCEEDING SEMESTER, the student must make a grade point of at least 1.00, or he will be dismissed from the college."

Bids for Dorm Placed

President William C. Hansen reports that an advertisement for bids for the new men's dorm has been placed in the latest issue of the Western Builder magazine. The bids are to be opened in Madison next Wednesday, October 4.

The dormitory, a two story building, will face North Fremont street and will be just north of the Demonstration school.

Four Freed from Eng. 101

Four students ranked high in the English placement tests which were given during registration week here. They are Carol Ann Moe, Rhinelander; Mary Jo Reznick, Antigo; Harry Wilder, Westfield; and Willis Zick, Stevens Point. These students are exempt from freshman English and may take a more advanced course.

Dormites to Hold Open House and Tea Oct. 1

Sunday, October 1, from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon will be the scene of the annual fall tea and open house at Nelson Hall. Everyone, male and female alike, is invited. All rooms will be open for inspection and Nelson Hall girls will act as hostesses to conduct tours throughout the dorm. Refreshments will be served in the living room.

Committee chairmen for the tea are as follows: General chairman, Norma Mayer; decorations, Helen Reinecke; food, Winifred Pierre; invitations, Jeanette Holm; entertainment, Joan Fehrenbach; clean-up, Margie Lawrie; and publicity posters, Eleanor Curtis.

Published weekly except holidays and examination periods, at Stevens Point by students of the Central Wisconsin State Teachers College. Subscription Price $3.00 per year. Entered as second-class matter May 26, 1927, at the post office at Stevens Point, Wisconsin, under the act of March 3, 1879.

Greetings

I am pleased with this opportunity to extend greetings to all students of CSTC for 1950-51. I hope all of you will have an interesting year and that you will enjoy your academic work as much as you do the extra-curricular contacts and activities of the college. What you enjoy and what you get out of it will depend in a large measure on your own attitude and what you put into it.

This edition will also be read by quite a few of our alumni and I want to extend my best wishes to you and hope that you may have a good year and, if it is your first experience as a teacher, I certainly want to extend my best wishes for a successful year. Our enrollment for the year is just over 800 students, about ten per cent less than a year ago. We are in hopes of being able to start within a few weeks on a new building on the campus, the men's dormitory. All of the activities are starting out about as usual, and we hope we may have the opportunity to see you back here on the campus during the year.

Wm. C. Hansen,
President

This is Your Paper

As is the custom for first editions, a statement and explanation of the editorial policy is in order. For the POINTER, we shall adhere to a policy of publishing and printing news pertaining to CSTC functions in an interesting and strictly unbiased manner. Or, in quotation of a compliment directed at the staff members of the past semester, we shall attempt to be "newsy, without being nosy."

This is your paper and only with your help and cooperation will we be able to make it the type of newspaper you will want to read. Only through contributions and suggestions from you will we be able to determine what you would like to see in your paper. We shall welcome constructive suggestions at all times.

In conclusion, we would like to take this opportunity to welcome all of you, both old and new students, and extend to you our wishes for a pleasant and successful year here at CSTC.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Chi Delta Rho

The new officers of Chi Delta Rho fraternity for the first semester are the following: President, Don Hendrick; vice-president, Lloyd Peterson; secretary, Al Long; treasurer, Norvin Holm; pledge-master, Maurice Mead; and sergeant at arms, Jerry Scheel.

Newman Club

Newmanites of CSTC will hold their first regular meeting this evening in the rural assembly, at 7 p.m. All Catholic students are invited to attend. The club will have as its guest the three CSTC students who left school last year to see the world. Following the meeting there will be entertainment in the form of dancing.

YWCA

Many new friendships were made and many old ones renewed at the annual YWCA fall tea which was held in the student lounge on September 7 from 3 to 5 p.m. Each guest was presented with a leaf on which her name was written. Punch and cookies were served.

The first meeting of YWCA was held at 7 p.m., September 21, in the dorm rec room. A new treasurer, a service chairman, and an interfaith council representative were elected to fill vacant offices. The new officers are Thora Fink, Arlene Altenburg and Marjorie Lawrie, respectively. Tentative plans were made and committees were appointed for coming events. Installation of new members will be made on October 19 at 7 p.m. After the meeting refreshments were served and songs were sung around the fire.

Officers of YWCA are: President, Louise Oelrich; vice-president, Betty Mehne; secretary, Beverly Tibbetts; treasurer, Thora Fink; press representative, Marjorie Lawrie; social chairman, Marge Finch; service chairman, Arlene Altenburg; membership chairman, Rena Fontaine; program chairman, Verna Schaffer and Margaret Thorpe; and interfaith council representative, Marjorie Lawrie.

WAA

The Woman's Athletic association held a get together party last Wednesday evening. About 40 girls were present, including a number of new students.

President Delores Jones gave a short talk on the organization, and Carol Gilbertson led a number of games. Refreshments were served by Tish Brunner and her committee. The next meeting will be initiation.

Psi Sigma Epsilon

Back at CSTC — in their home away from home, the fraternity house at 1022 Normal avenue — the Phi Sigs have started their years social activities. On Thursday, September 21, Iverson Park lodge was the scene for their first social meeting. A lunch and refreshments were served.

This year finds 12 men staying at the fraternity house — nine actives, two non-members, and Mel Carlson, an alum. This is the second year that the members have used the present house.

Sigma Zeta

On Wednesday night, September 27, Sigma Zeta, National honorary science fraternity, held its first meeting of the new school year. Ed Furstenberg, president, appointed George Stevens chairman of the float committee for the homecoming parade. Plans for the coming year were discussed.

Harvey Peterson received the Culver-Rogers award at this meeting. This award was announced last spring at Awards Day.

Omega Mu Chi

Chrysanthemums and asters of lavender and gold decorated the living room in Nelson Hall, Sunday, September 24, when Omega Mu Chi sorority held its traditional fall tea. In the receiving line were: Helen La Leike, president; Beverly Tibbetts, vice president; Mrs. Charles Cashin, Mrs. Mary Samter, Mrs. Palmer Taylor, and Miss Bertha Glennon.

During the tea, the "Omeg Sextet," Julie Dean, Joan Fehrenbach, Muriel Held, Nancy Goebel, Suzanne Swank and Gretchen Holstein, presented a lively version "Oh Dear, What Can the Matter Be?" Other numbers sung by the sextet were "The Night Will Never Stay" and "If I Could, Tell You."

Coffee, tea, colored hors d'oeuvres, nuts, and mints were offered from a candle-light table. The first hour Mrs. Eugene Raddant and Mrs. Albert Harris poured and later in the afternoon Mrs. Harold Tolo and Mrs. Carl Jacobs presided at the tea table.

The co-chairmen for the tea were Andrea Miller and Molly Knope.

Changes Announced in College and Training School Personnel

Several changes in personnel at the college and the Training school for this semester have been announced by President William C. Hansen.

David Heenan, Edgar Pieper and Dr. Mary Elizabeth Smith have been added to the college staff, while Miss Alice Hansen, Burdette Eagon, Mrs. Beatrice Raddant and Mrs. Evelyn Pieper have been included in the Training school faculty. Verne Varney, who is in charge of the Radio Workshop, is also a newcomer to CSTC.

Mr. Heenan is replacing Frank W. Crow of the History department, who has taken a leave of absence for the first semester to complete his requirements for a Ph.D. degree. Mr. Heenan has been doing graduate work for his doctorate in history at the University of Wisconsin, but has interrupted his studies to teach here for a semester. He formerly taught at Milton Union High school.

Mr. Pieper is the new director of men's physical education, replacing George R. Berg, who has requested a semester's leave of absence on account of illness. For the past three years Mr. Pieper has been in charge of athletics and physical education at Merrill High school. He majored in physical education at LaCrosse State Teachers college and has a master's degree in physical education from the University of Wisconsin.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Smith joined the college faculty last Monday as an instructor in the English department. Miss Smith, who hails from Yankton, South Dakota, obtained her master's degree from the University of Minnesota, and is completing her doctorate at Iowa State university. Before coming to Stevens Point, she was a member of the faculty at Butler University at Indianapolis.

Training School Changes

At the Training school Miss Mary Ullman has been granted an additional year's leave of absence for graduate study at Columbia University, and this year will be on the staff of the Horace-Mann institute. Her place will be filled by Miss Alice Hansen, who received her master's degree in education from the University of Wisconsin the past summer. Miss Hansen has taught in California, and in Wisconsin towns, principally Janesville, for a number of years.

Burdette Eagon has replaced William B. Knox, who left his training school position to complete his graduate work at the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Eagon, a graduate of Oshkosh State teachers, has done graduate work at the University of Wisconsin. He taught in Beloit for several years.

Mrs. Raddant is the new kindergarten director. She has taught in Stevens Point schools for the past few years and prior to coming to Stevens Point, she taught at Merrill. A native of Ohio, she graduated from Ohio State university, where she also did some graduate work.

Rural School Unit

Mrs. Pieper is teaching in a new department which has been added to the Training school this year. It consists of a rural school unit which includes children from the Sims district. This new department is located in the quarters formerly used by WLBL radio studios. Mrs. Pieper has had several years experience in rural, state graded, and city elementary schools, and taught in Merrill for three years. She is a graduate of LaCrosse State Teachers college.

Mr. Varney is the new director of Radio Workshop, which is now broadcasting over WLBL two hours daily by means of a direct telephone line to Auburndale. As director of Radio Workshop, he plans all the programs which are broadcast from CSTC. Formerly from Madison, he attended the University of Wisconsin.

Mrs. Frank W. Crow, who was acting supervisor of the fifth grade at the Training school last year, will serve in that capacity again this year.

SLY LINES

Beautiful fall is back again, and with it school — for some lucky people, CSTC, and the POINTER. This year is vaguely reminiscent of time gone by; as once more talk of the draft and the calling of the reserved is heard. Gerald Foster, Leonard Ringstad, Lee Miller, and alum, Dick Berndt, are among reserves who are awaiting active duty. Let's hope we can soon go back to normal discussions of football, hunting, the injustice of classes, and dances and dates.

Concerning dates — let all males know that Miss Betty Crook of Wisconsin Rapids, 1949 National Cranberry Queen, now resides at Nelson Hall. She is a Freshman in the Primary division.

The following couples were married this summer (and are living happily ever after):

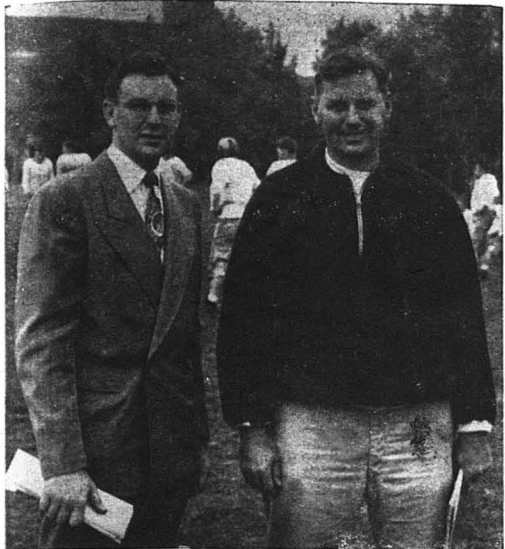

Bill Koch — Ruth Olson
Fred LaLeike — Helen Offerdahl
Jim Koehn — Vivian VanDyke
Ray Venn — Pat Lavers
"Doc" Rothman — Beth Hughes
Fred Brewer — Lorraine Laszewski
Ronald Buttke — Lois Ilenfeldt
Bob Worth — Marilyn Esidor
Ed Winkler — Darleen Schwantes
George Greathouse — Lucy Chapman
Duane Allegar — Fannie Woodman

Ken Veselak — Phyllis Zurnhagen
Jack Ockerman — Althea Boornas
Bob Cole — Marie Kryshak
Jerry LaFleur — Monica Gill
Ed Klinger — Carol Mews
Gene Taylor — Mary Connor
John Gurlholt — Yvonne Jacobson
Melvin Gallistel — Elaine Hager
Bob Westenberger — Elizabeth Lind

One of the wives was questioned in the Pointer office as to whether she used a roll of Scotch tape to repair a pie crust — and answered by saying, "No, it is for putting buttons on my husband's shirts."

As usual, Dean Steiner keeps his classes very interesting by the injection of wit. Calling on a student for some information brings forth from the dean, "I notice you have been keeping quiet in several different languages."

Parting thought — Let's not forget a "swell guy" and a real teacher, George Berg, who is now confined to Room 26 in Madison General Hospital at Madison, Wis. Let's show him we remember his untiring efforts and friendly ways by sending him a letter or a card.

Shown here are two male additions to the C. S. T. C. faculty for the coming year. On the left is Burdette Eason, a graduate of Oshkosh State Teachers college, who replaces Mr. Knox at the Training school, and on the right is Edgar Pieper, a former coach at Merrill school, who replaces Mr. Berg as athletic director.

Football Round-up

The non-conference games are just about out of the way for the Teachers college grid teams and this weekend the conference season gets under way. The spotlight will be on LaCrosse, when two of the co-champs of last year, LaCrosse and the CSTC Pointers tangle in a game that will mean a great deal toward deciding the conference title.

Point, LaCrosse and Stout, the co-champs of last year, shape up as the teams to beat. Stout has 17 letter-winners back in the fold and consequently should be a hard team to beat. LaCrosse has 14 lettermen back, plus former Pointer Tom Curry, who romped to three touchdowns in the first game for LaCrosse. Here at Point, Coach Hale Quandt has 13 monogram winners back in the fold. The Pointers have posted a win and a tie in non-conference play.

LaCrosse and Stout have looked very impressive in non-loop games, but the rest of the teams will have to be reckoned with also. River Falls, CSTC's homecoming foe, served notice last week-end that they will be out for the banner by walking over always tough Milwaukee, 20-7 in the conference open. Coach Bob Kolf, down at Oshkosh, can always be counted on to turn out a first class aggregation and should give the Pointers a real tussle when the two clubs tangle here on October 28. Not too much is known about Whitewater and the Pioneers of Platteville, but "silence is golden," so look out for those clubs.

All in all, it looks as if the entire conference will be plenty tough this year and look out for some upsets this season. Perhaps we should make like Bill Stern and offer a prediction on the outcome, but it's too tough a task. You pick 'em.

NOTICE TO ALL COLLEGE WOMEN

Many mothers who were willing to grant week-end privileges were unwilling to grant blanket permission for over night visiting. Therefore, it will be necessary for you to use the forms "Over Night Pass" for that purpose again this year. They must be signed and returned to my office before six o'clock of the day you wish to be away.

FIFTH QUARTER

This is the time of year when sports events are given first place in national news honors. Baseball found page one in this week's Life magazine—the war news was shoved back several pages. The fever of the World Series and the anticipation of the grid season has hurt even Hop-along Cassidy's gate appeal.

Go West Young Man? Appearing in Sunday's Chicago Tribune were the football scores from the Far West and included with such schools as California and Utah was a score — Stevens Point-6, Michigan Tech-6. That's the first time in history that "Westerners" were putting on their storm windows in mid-September.

Duncan Hines II — Making his weekly appearance at the Bleacher Coaches meeting, Coach Hale Quandt not only gave his audience some tips on his squad but also recommended an eating place outside of Merrill. Any sports-minded fan is invited to attend these weekly meetings at the Legion Hall on Tuesday night at eight bells.

Whereabouts of former C.S.T.C.ers

— Joe Haidvogel, Gene Fick, John Joswiak and Dick Emmerich are lugging the pigskin for the Wausau Muskie. Jim Koehn is head football coach at Wausaukee and Ellsworth Gaulke is serving in a similar capacity at Lac du Flambeau.

Athletic Director George Berg is recuperating at the Madison General hospital. We know it's quite a task for Mr. Berg to take it easy especially during the football season so maybe a few letters would help brighten his day.

No sooner said than done — In this week's "Saturday Evening Post," Red Rolfe, manager of the Detroit Tigers, said that if the Tigers didn't win the pennant lack of speed would be the principal reason. Judging from the weekend series with the Indians the Tigers must have a one way passage on the slow boat to China.

Sixth Quarter Chatter — The football squad put in a long day last Saturday. In addition to the game they played at Houghton they stopped at Wausau on Saturday night to watch the Point-Wausau High school game.

Ten home town men are fighting for positions on the 1950 edition of the Purple and Gold. Madison and Wausau have contributed six men apiece.

NOTICE

The first meeting of the house mothers will be held today, Thursday, September 28, in Room 160. There will be a business meeting from 3 to 4 and at 4 the house presidents will be hostesses to them at a coffee hour.

Pointers Open Conference Play Against LaCrosse Friday Night

The 1950 edition of the Pointer football team will begin play for keeps on Friday night when they engage the strong LaCrosse Indians at LaCrosse. It will be the first league tilt for both teams.

The importance of the opening game could go a long way in determining the final standings of the league. Last year the two teams tied for first place along with Stout. Despite the widespread changes in the conference it may develop that these two teams will turn out to be title contenders. A loss to either team at the start of the season could put a definite crimp in any title hopes.

The Pointers have been drilling hard on offense all week. There is a definite deficit in this department as the eight points from the two past Pointer games indicate.

In the LaCrosse camp the Indians have been polishing up their plays for the Pointer invasion. Tom Curry, former CSTC'er, is the main cog in the Mississippi Boys offense, having scored three touchdowns in their last outing.

Touch Football League Will Be Rolling Soon

Action in the touch football league will start very shortly according to Coach Pieper. This year the football league is being handled by Phil Nelson and Dick Lorenzen, members of the student body. At this time no schedule has been completed in hopes that a few more teams can be organized to enlarge the league, which at present numbers four. The four teams organized at present are the Ramblers, Phi Sig House, W.G.T.U. and the Klaks.

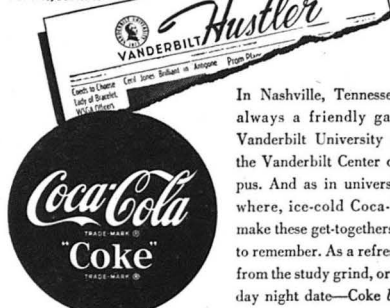

Students interested in an intramural tennis tournament should contact Mr. Pieper. Last year a spirited round robin tournament was initiated and if enough interest is shown it will be continued this year.

Various First Week Activities Acquaint Newcomers with School

During the first week of school, numerous activities designed to alleviate the difficulties that come with the first few days of college life were planned for the newcomers to CSTC by the Freshman committee under the leadership of Gilbert W. Faust.

On Monday, a Freshman sing was held at 7 o'clock in the auditorium. Betty Mehne led the students in a few of the school songs while Frank Wesley accompanied them on the organ. At 8 o'clock the men and women went to different rooms where Dean Elizabeth Pfiffner and Dean Herbert R. Steiner instructed the students in regard to house rules and regulations.

On Tuesday, the WSGA sponsored a Big and Little Sister party. At 7 o'clock the Nelson Hall girls met in the living room, the other women in the college gym. They participated in get-acquainted games. In Nelson Hall the games were organized by Muriel Neerhof and Betty Mehne, and in the college gym by Gretchen Holstein. At 8 o'clock the groups combined in the gym. At this time Eleanor Curtis and Glenna Clark located big sisters who could not find little sisters. These two coeds prepared all the plans for the Big-Little Sister program. Dr. Quincy Doudna, accompanied on the piano by his son, Lonnie, taught the women some square dances and mixer games.

Wednesday at 7:30, the various campus organizations presented a program in order to acquaint the Freshmen with college clubs and activities and with their entrance requirements. Bill Joanis, the master of ceremonies, after giving a short welcome address, introduced the representatives of each group.

YWCA Tea

Thursday afternoon in the Student Lounge, between 3 o'clock and 5 o'clock, President Louise Oelrich, along with the other members of the YWCA, welcomed the women at a tea, at which punch and cookies were served and musical entertainment was provided.

The religious organizations held Open House for the new students on Thursday evening.

The Faculty presented its annual

Tau Gamma Beta

"Back to school" was the theme of Tau Gamma Beta sorority's annual fall tea held on Sunday, September 17, at Nelson Hall.

Miniature paper books, rulers, ink bottles, and school bells pinned on the guests as favors carried out the theme. A small cardboard school-house standing on a side table added to the school scene.

Bouquets of various colored asters and silver leaves decorating the fireplace gave a fall appearance to the affair.

Each guest was presented with a copy of "Tau Gam Tribute," a one page newspaper written by Barbara Bauman, which extended a further welcome to all new students.

Grape punch and white, pink and blue frosted tea cakes, designed with the sorority letters, were served.

Music for the occasion was provided by Carla Kruse, who played several piano numbers, and Dorotheanne Rebella, who sang "The Desert Song." Miss Rebella was reception for the entire student body beginning at 8:30 Friday evening. President and Mrs. Wm. C. Hansen, Regent and Mrs. Wilson Delzell, Dean and Mrs. Herbert Steiner, Miss May Roach and the new members of the faculty were in the receiving line. Cliff Hoenes's orchestra supplied the music. Refreshments were served by the office staff; Misses Carolyn Rolfsen, Marie Swallow, Grace Pehoski, Sidone Andersen and Sophie Cychosz.

Saturday at 3 o'clock the new women students hiked to Iverson Park with their Big Sisters. Roberta Henderson, Mary Douville and Shirley Landt were in charge of the group.

Sunday morning the various religious organizations prepared a friendship breakfast at Nelson Hall at 9 o'clock. A welcome speech was given by Roberta Henderson. Dolores Newhall and Janice Gruen sang a duet, "Blessed Jesus," accompanied on the piano by Barbara Beal.

In the receiving line were Phyllis Peterson, president, Barbara Lewis, vice-president, Miss Gladys Van Arsdale and Mrs. Marjorie Kerst, advisers.

Sylvia Abrahamson and Phyllis Peterson were co-chairmen for the tea. Other committees included the following: Food, Dolores Newhall and Margaret Jones, co-chairmen, Janice Gruen, Joyce Moll and Ramona Byrne; invitations, Bonnie Dehlinger and Elizabeth Holm, co-chairmen, Barbara Nelson, Jeanette Holm, Jeanne Brenner, Mary Lund, Eileen Dahner; decorations, Barbara Beal and Dorothy Rebella, co-chairmen, Kay Leahy, Phyllis Gertschen, Barbara Lewis, Lila Elmer, and Ginny Marros; clean-up, Phyllis Jarnick and Norma Mayer, co-chairmen, Wilma Schmeckle, Marjorie Meyers, Carla Kruse and Mary Douville; entertainment, Ila Williamson and Irene Morris, co-chairmen.

Co-chairmen of the hostesses were Beverly Barnes and Bonnie Babcock. Since Joan Winters, the Tau Gam's former president, did not return to school this semester, the vice-president, Phyllis Peterson, has taken over the presidency. Barbara Lewis is the newly elected vice-president.

Specht Offers Driver Education Courses

Education 85 and 209, driver education courses, are again being offered by Raymond E. Specht this semester.

The course for beginners who wish to learn how to drive is Education 85. This is a non-credit course intended primarily to make safe drivers out of these beginning students. They receive classroom instruction from Mr. Specht and do their actual driving under the supervision of students from the advanced class.

The advanced group, Education 209, uses the dual control car in instructing the beginners as part of their course. This group is composed of juniors and seniors who are taking this course to prepare for the teaching of driver education in high schools. This course is becoming more and more popular as high schools are at last recognizing the need for this type of education in the face of the rising accident rate among the younger people of high school and college age.

ley Forum the last two Sunday evenings. The meetings have been led by members of the group. There were about 100 students present at the first meeting.
