Homecoming 25 Years Ago — Frosh Gives Mom Dope On SPTC Life and Love

Dear Mom,
October, 1926
That was the best Homecoming yet. They'll never see another one around here like the one we pulled off last weekend. We had a big dance Friday afternoon, with real live girls and everything. Mom. Then Friday night, right after supper, we had a big pep rally in the auditorium. We students and the returning alumni, that is. Some local dignitaries gave a speech but that was okay, too, because we were all full of the old school spirit anyway and didn't hear a word he said. After the rally, we all formed into a big line and made like snakes for about a half hour. We ended the snake dance by wiggling over to the athletic field where we hip-hip-horayed around a great big crackly bonfire. It was delightful to say the least. Also smoky. On second thought maybe it wasn't so delightful after all, unless you consider smoke filled lungs and carbon-dioxide eyes delightful. Well, now that I've kicked delightful around for a while maybe I can move on, huh?

We had a terrific float all set for the parade Saturday morning but we didn't get up in time to get it ready so we speculated. Yeah, you guessed it, we were out rather late Friday night. Not too late though, Mom. The parade? Oh, it was pretty good but I'm sure we could have walked off with first prize like nothing. What a float we had planned! We were going to go barefoot and wear long white flannel nightgowns and caps. This striking ensemble was to be topped off with signs saying "We'll make 'em look like they're walking in their sleep." "We don't have cold feet, how about you, Eau Claire?" and all kinds of nonsensical stuff of that sort. Clever, huh? But, as I said, we never got them made. The prizes went, therefore, to the Grammar Round Table and the Rural Life club. They won a box of marshmallows and a basket of apples respectively.

The whole parade was under the

De Guire Announces Float Order - Route

The route and order of floats for the Homecoming parade on Saturday morning was announced early this week by Frank De Guire, parade marshal. The parade is scheduled to start at 9:30 a.m., but all organizations are asked to have their float in line by 9:20 a.m. The vehicles will proceed south on Fremont to Clark, west on Clark to South Second, north to the public square, then east to the college.

The order of floats and their line-up positions follow. 100 block on South Fremont: Flag honor guard, college band, queen, President Hansen, alumni bus and Primary Council. College avenue: Gamma Delta, Lutheran Student Assn., Newman club, Wesley, Trigon, Faculty, Home Ec. club and Rural Life club; 200 block on So. Fremont: Alpha Kappa Lambda, WSGA, Academy Drum and Bugle corps, Chi Delta Rho, Phi Sigma Epsilon, Psi Beta Psi, Omega Mu Chi and Tau Gamma Beta; Sims Avenue: Sigma Zeta, Nelson Hall, Girls Glee club, Men's Glee club, YWCA, S club, Cheer Leaders and Wayland; 300 block on South Fremont: Young GOP, Co-op and Pointer.

Lights! Camera! Action! First WSC Homecoming On Stage

Glee Club Concert To Feature Several Special Selections

The annual Homecoming Concert will be presented by the Men's Glee club, under the direction of Norman E. Knutzen, at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, October 21, in the college auditorium.

The Glee club this year consists of 58 members. The officers of the group are: President, Gordon Fairbert, Pittsville; Librarian, Bill Clayton, Baraboo; business manager, Don Olsen, Wittenberg; property manager, Edward Hyer, Wild Rose.

Soloists for the concert will be Don Schulz, John Bruha and Byron Moen. Featured also in the program will be a male quartet. Bertram Davies, the accompanist at the organ and piano, will be assisted by Edward Plank, Sr., Frank Wesley and Bob Karsten, a former student who was a four year Glee club accompanist.

The following program has been prepared for Sunday's concert: "Halls of Ivy," Russell-Knight; "The Purple and the Gold," Pray-Perical; "Just Singing Along," Moore; "Donna Nobis Paem," arrangement by Wilson; "You'll Never Walk Alone," Rodgers-Ringwald.

After this first group, a baritone solo "The Blind Plowman," Clarke, will be sung by Don Schulz, Colby, followed by a base solo "Without a Song," Rose-Elisac, sung by John Bruha, Weyauwega. Miss May Roach will then be presented as "Miss Alumnna."

A male quartet, composed of Schulz, Fairbert, Robert Gilbert and Arlon Parkin, will sing a few selected numbers.

After the baritone solo, "Banjo Song," Sidney-Homer, sung by Byron Moen, Marshfield, "Mr. Alumnus," Dean Herbert R. Steiner, will be presented.

The second group of songs include: "Climbing up the Mountain," arrangement by Smith; "In the Gloaming," Harrison; "Wake, Awake, Bach-Fishburn; "Battle Hymn of the Republic," Steffe-Ringwald; and "Now Is the Hour," Stewart-Scott.

Fehrenbach; entertainment, Suzanne Swank; decorations, Marge Crosby. With the theme "Halls of Ivy," the Tau Gamma Beta sorority will meet at the Country Spa at 6:30 Saturday p.m. Dorotheanne Rebella is mistress of ceremonies. The speakers will be Bess Jones Alberg and Miss Gladys Van Arsdale. Phyllis Meister and Eleanor Curtis are co-chairmen; Mary Douville, entertainment; Dorothy Thompson, decorations chairman; Norma Mayer, invitations; Mary Pfiffner, transportation. The advisors, Miss Gladys Van Arsdale and Miss Cecilia Winkler, and the honorary members, patronesses and pledges will be guests.

Psi Beta Psi's banquet will be at the Sky Club at 6:45, with Arline Meister as toastmistress. Guests will include Miss Jessemary Keyser, who will give a talk and Mrs. Raymond E. Specht. The heads of the committees for the dinner are: Decoratop, Marilyn Schilling; invitations, Kathryn Allen; transportation, Mary Panke; programs, Beverly Mueller; dinner reservations, Marlene Zastrow.

Bob Flint, Director of Activities

Under the new name for the college, but with the same fiery school spirit and enthusiasm, the 1951 WSC Homecoming activities once again roar into action, this time under the direction of Bob Flint.

Friday afternoon will get the festivities underway. At three o'clock everyone will assemble in the college auditorium for the pep assembly. During this assembly the results of the Homecoming queen election, which is being held today, will be announced and the coronation of the queen by the football captain will follow. Through the cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce, the queen will be presented a variety of gifts. The queen candidates and their sponsors for this year are Jean Sarbacher, Phi Sigma Epsilon; Barbara Hanson, "S" club; and Donna Thompson, Chi Delta Rho.

As Friday is officially proclaimed "Hobo Day," students and faculty alike will don their worst "glad rags" and try to portray the most fashionable styles of Hoboland. The King of the Hoboes, usually the worst looking "bum" in the college, will be selected by popular applause.

Tom Lund, chairman of both the afternoon and evening events, has announced that the Phi Sig Band will be on hand to liven the assembly with peppy music.

Events in the evening will start at 7:30 with the bonfire, which, painstakingly built by the Freshmen on the north end of Schmeckle Field, promises to be a scorcher. At 8 p.m., there will be a juke-box dance in the Training school gym.

Parade 9:30 Saturday
At 9:30 Saturday morning, the big Homecoming parade will get underway. Approximately 50 floats will participate, with the addition of the college band and the Drum and Bugle Corps of St. Joseph's academy. Prizes for the floats will be awarded at the Homecoming Dance that evening.

At 12 o'clock noon an alumni luncheon will be held in the music room of the Training school. Before the luncheon there will be a reception and mixer in the first floor of the Training school for both faculty and alumni.

Kickoff at 2 O'Clock
Kickoff for the big game against the Green Gulls of Milwaukee will be at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Goerke Field.

After the game everyone is invited to attend the Nelson Hall open house. Refreshments will be served.

Ron Harvey's Band
The annual Homecoming dance sponsored by the "S" club will climax Saturday night's events. From 8:30 to 12:30, in P. J. Jacobs High school gym, couples may dance to the lovely strains of Ron Harvey's "Sweetest Band in Badgerland," a band from Fond du Lac that plays in the style of Jan Garber. It features Ron Bothe, KFIZ Mutual radio emcee and vocalist on Universal records, and Harvey Glissendorf, pianist of network talent shows.

On Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the college auditorium, the Men's Glee club will present the Annual Homecoming Concert, under the direction of Norman E. Knutzen — a fitting climax to any Homecoming.

WSC Pre-Homecoming Spirit Raging High

The pre-Homecoming spirit of WSC is fine, as shown by the large number of posters which have suddenly descended upon our Alma-Mater. The competition is keen among the three queenly candidates and the posters are all original, slightly and clever.

Everybody wondered why only three girls were running for queen instead of the usual four, until the poster of Cornelia Otis Skinner "for Homecoming queen" appeared in the

Homecoming at — Good Old "Central State"

Homecoming weekend, with all of its gay color and excitement, is here again. There is plenty in store for all, with the Big game, dinners, dances, parties and receptions. For the freshmen at WSC it will be their first college Homecoming.

This will be a weekend of renewing old acquaintances and reminiscing for the many grads who will return to their alma-mater, and even though the name has been changed, to them it will still be good old "Central State."

In the midst of our joyful activities these coming days, let's not forget those fellows who would like to be with us, but have another job to do. A number of letters have come in from camps in this country and abroad, each carrying the same message — "Wish I could be there." Come next year, let us hope they will be here to enjoy it with us.

From all indications the 1951 Homecoming should really be great. A lot of the credit for its planning goes to Bob Flint, chairman of the activities. Bob has put in a lot of time and effort in preparing for the coming events.

Summer in Paradise

Mrs. Williams Describes Study and Vacation Activities in Hawaii

A very important date indeed for Mrs. Mildred Williams, supervising teacher at the Training school, was June 8, 1951, which found her celebrating her birthday aboard the S. S. Lurline, the luxury liner of the Matson line, on her way from Los Angeles to Honolulu. Mrs. Williams remained on the islands eight weeks, six of them spent attending the University of Hawaii. She was one of the fortunate 60 to work under Dr. Dorris Lee (co-author with her husband Dr. Murray Lee of the "Child and Curriculum") in the Child Development Workshop. The large, open airy rooms with open lanais were a great contrast to the type of building found in cold Wisconsin. Mrs. Williams expressed her pleasure in having the marvelous experience of working with highly educated Japanese, Chinese, Guamanians, Hawaiians, and Koreans.

Some of the outstanding events that made Mrs. Williams' visit interesting were seeing a 1950 lava flow, the heat of which, a year and a half later, still caused a newspaper to burst into flame, and the Punchbowl, a natural crater at Honolulu. The Punchbowl is now a national cemetery of World War Two heroes and harbors the grave of the famed Ernie Pyle.

She also saw Lanai, the pineapple island and Kaula, the garden island, where the surf pounds as it does nowhere else. It was on Kaula that Captain James Cook, discoverer of Hawaii for the European world, first landed. Mrs. Williams also enjoyed the lovely mountain drives, the orchid nurseries at Hilo, the native feasts and the interesting Oriental foods.

A former student at Stevens Point college, Chester Segawa, living at Oahu, was very helpful to Mrs. Williams during her stay.

Welcome home, Alums! This is your weekend — a special time set aside to welcome you home. Many activities have been planned for your pleasure and entertainment. We're looking forward to your coming and we hope you'll see many people and have a wonderful time.

Sincerely,
Elizabeth Pfiffner
Dean of Women

Alum-Faculty Luncheon To Be Held Saturday

The annual Alumni-Faculty Homecoming luncheon will be held on Saturday of this week. There will be a mixer for both faculty and alumni on the first floor of the Training School at 11:30 a.m., and at noon the luncheon will be served in the Music Room of the Training school. After the luncheon there will be a short and snappy program.

Warren Blodgett, president of the Alumni association, will make a few remarks and will introduce the toastmaster, Edward J. Plank.

The speakers will be President William C. Hansen, President Emeritus Frank S. Hyer, Dean Herbert R. Steiner and Dean Elizabeth Pfiffner. There will also be a soloist featured on the program. Burton R. Pierce, executive secretary of the Alumni association, will make several important announcements. Norman E. Knutzen then lead the group in singing "The Alumni Song" and "The Purple and the Gold."

Hostesses for the luncheon will be Miss May Roach, Miss Edna Caristen and Miss Susan Colman. Mrs. Herbert R. Steiner is chairman of the planning committee. Assisting her are Mrs. Helen Eagleburger, Dr. Raymond E. Gothard, Mrs. Blodgett and Mrs. Pierce. Miss Caristen is in charge of decorations.

The "Scoop" Shovel

The Scoop Shovel almost didn't make it this week! En route to the editing room of this busy publication we had to run an obstacle course of whitewash on the front sidewalks, purple lights on the main stairway and a skeleton dancing in front of the library. With all this Homecoming spirit, we hear the cheerleaders are having a struggle. The good old days of CSTC have become WSCSP-ABC-LSMFT etc. — and the cheer known as the "locomotive" is now "the freight train."

Great Poetry (in an effort to further interest in literary masterpieces).
Gather your kisses while you may
For time brings naught but sorrow.
The girls that are so cold today
Are chaperones tomorrow.

In case you have failed to notice, studying is becoming harder to concentrate on each day. Jerry Jelinek told his Prof he couldn't understand the material for the day at all.

"You'll get it Eventually" — the prof. consoled him. "Yes, but I can't afford to stay here that long!" Jerry wailed.

Congrats to Janice Gruen and Nancy Curry, both of whom are among the recently engaged. Jan's one and only is Fritz Wiegman — an Air Force man, and Nancy's is Jim Horkon of Reedsburg.

The popular theory about the "man shortage" just ain't so. According to carefully conducted surveys, coeds are still in the majority. The University of Wisconsin and Marquette have 2½ men per girl. River Falls has 2.4 men for every woman and Superior follows with 1.83. Platteville is next with 1.78. Eau Claire has 1.19 and Stevens Point has 1.7. The only mystery is this "fractional man" — who'd want a date with him?

The following is a quote from a lovelock freshman:

"Oh — we're nodding acquaintances. I say hello and she says 'nodding'."

One of our math majors has made an amazing discovery — a theft has occurred since the building was built and apparently no one has noticed it yet. The east stairway has 75 steps and the west stairway has 78 steps — both end on the third floor at the same level. Someone stole those three steps!

We noticed that the Doudna name was scheduled for at least four talks at the Methodist church this week. Incidentally the Dr. and his family were back in their old familiar place — in the front pew. Dr. Doudna will speak on Peru and show movies of it on Oct. 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the church auditorium. You're all invited to be there.

We must polish up our quills to bring you a birds-eye view of Homecoming — so till next week — Rah-rah!

In-Service Teacher Conclave Friday

The fourth annual in-service teacher training conference for WSC's 1951 graduates will be conducted here at Wisconsin State college on Friday, October 19, beginning at 9:30 a.m. President William C. Hansen will open the day's activities with a welcome to last year's graduates who are now teaching and are returning for the meeting.

A discussion, "Purposes of Conference Scheduling," under the direction of Dr. Raymond E. Gothard, will follow at 9:45 a.m., with group conferences scheduled for 10 o'clock. From 11:30 until 12 noon, the subject of "Professional Problems" will be taken up under the supervision of the Education department.

Following a luncheon, which will be served at the Training school, the teachers will meet with Miss Sue Colman, Dr. Quincy Doudna, Raymond M. Rightsell and Miss May Roach. At 1:30 p.m., while the elementary groups continue the meeting with the directors and supervisors, the secondary teachers will confer with the chairmen of the separate departments and their staffs.

Cheerleaders Show Enthusiasm—Spirit

Pep? Yep that's for sure! This remark in Vulgate English was prompted by an interview with the cheerleaders at WSC for this year. The enthusiastic crew is made up of Peggy Figel of Rhinelander, Dottie Gilbertson of Stevens Point, Rita Martens of Colby, Margie Smith of Mellen and Joyce Fuller of Nekeosa. This group operates under the able advisorship of Miss Miriam Moser.

The cheerleaders hold business meetings on the second Tuesday of each month, and the remaining Tuesdays are devoted to practice sessions. Rita Martens has been elected president for the first semester, and a head cheerleader is chosen for each game.

Most of the cheers presented by this group are handed down through the ages and are of unknown origin. After a while some of them become rather stale, and so the group states that it is always ready to accept any new cheers that anyone may have "cooked" up. The welcome mat is always out for any constructive criticisms or suggestions from the students and faculty, and it is also out for any boy cheerleaders.

At the moment this worthy squad is diligently preparing itself for the big Homecoming weekend. The sentiment of the entire group was voiced by Peggy, who, when asked her opinion of the big game approaching said, "Please, for heavens sake, everybody pray it doesn't rain."

The cheerleaders have been very much pleased with the wholehearted support of the fans in the games so far this year (especially the wet ones) and they realize that it is only a sample of the potential school spirit that could be blown into full force if everyone did his part. And so, from the cheerleaders, "Come'n gang, let's go!"

Greetings Alumni!

We are pleased to have you enjoy with us the events which are always scheduled for Homecoming. We probably have no record of how many "Homecomings" have been scheduled at Central State, but we are in our fifty-eighth year. We believe we are making some progress — both in our college facilities and in our offerings. We had hoped to have our new men's dormitory, Delzell Hall, in operation for you to see, but its completion has been delayed somewhat. It'll be in operation before the 1952 Homecoming. By that time we hope to have a new library building under construction.

Our best wishes to you for an enjoyable Homecoming week end.
Wm. C. Hansen, President

WSC Faculty Holds Extension Classes

Twenty-two members of the WSC faculty are teaching extension courses in 18 central Wisconsin communities. A total of 550 people are enrolled in the courses, which take in the fields of sociology, speech, psychology, education, history, geography, English and physical education. Most of the instructors teach the courses on Tuesday evening of each week.

The instructors, their courses and location are: Dr. Nels O. Reppen, Sociology 206, Plainfield; Miss Pauline Isaacson, Speech 212, Iola; Albert E. Harris, Psychology 103, Wisconsin Dells; Arrol C. Epple, Education 212E, Wausau; Herbert B. Steiner, History 224E, Weyauwega; Raymond E. Specht, Geography 206E, New London.

Norman E. Knutzen, English 217E, Medford; Miss Mildred Davis, English 109E, Waupaca; Joseph Mott, Psychology 106, Medford; Miss Miriam Moser, Physical Education 222, Loyal; Mrs. Edith Cutnaw, Education 216, Marshfield; Dr. Warren G. Jenkins, History 224, Merrill; Robert S. Lewis, Education 231E, Friendship; Dr. Harold M. Tolo, History 111, Antigo; Burdette W. Eagon, Education 213E, Clintonville; Fred J. Schmeckle, Education 213, Portage.

Mrs. Mary Samter, Education 213E, Portage; Frank W. Crow, History 205, Rhinelander; Miss Mary Ullman, Education 226E, Rhinelander; Burton R. Pierce, Education 213, Wausau; Dr. Bernard F. Wiewel, Education 213, Wautoma; and Miss Monica Bainter, Education 213, Stevens Point.

Pointer Announces Fall Changeover

In case you've been wondering, these are the people who fashion the college newspaper. The editors and business manager were chosen last spring, with the remainder of the staff being selected this fall.

FAMILIAR FACES

This week's familiar face is Bob Flint, chairman of Homecoming for 1951, which makes him a very busy fellow about now. So busy, in fact, that buttonholing "Chief Flint" was half the battle of writing this story.

When Bob was finally cornered he was toting a large wooden Cuban cigar box, half filled with 13 1/2 cigars. He indolently chewed one of these while bringing his list story up to date.

Bob graduated from high school in Stoughton. He spent the next four years in the marines. He was stationed in China for two years, which should qualify him to be rated as a Far Eastern expert! Bob has been at WSC for three years. He is enrolled in the secondary division with a geography major, and history and social studies minors. He is an active member of the Young Republicans and held the chairmanship last year. His other main extra-curricular activity is Chi Delta Rho. Bob is also a member of the Pan-Hell council.

He has not planned anything radically new for Homecoming, but of course expects and promises that it will be the best and peepiest in WSC history. He realizes that only 100% cooperation from all students and organizations can achieve this goal.

His own forecast, (stated with a happy leer) for the great day is slightly partisan but very understandable — "Look out for the Chi Delta float!"

Newman Club Holds Regional Convention

The weekend of October 27 and 28 will find the Newman club of WSC here host to the annual Newman regional convention. Delegates from 15 colleges throughout the state have been invited for the conference. Weekend plans include a general assembly Saturday morning, with a noon lunch at the Campus Cafe. A panel, group discussion, and business meeting will be held in the afternoon.

A banquet Saturday evening will highlight the convention and this will be followed by a mixer. A mass, group communion, and breakfast at Saint Stanislaus church will conclude the conference on Sunday.

People responsible for the planning of this meeting are: Henry Drechsler, regional and general chairman; Barbara Bauman, housing chairman; and Chet Polka, publicity chairman. All Catholic students from the college are urged to attend.

Four Juniors Pledge Sigma Tau Delta

Four Juniors, Virginia Fisher, Sarah Connor, Jack Popeck, and Charles Hodgdon, became pledges of Sigma Tau Delta, national honorary English fraternity, in a ceremony held on October 10.

In the program which followed, Miss Pauline Isaacson, reviewed six of the current Broadway plays which she saw this summer.

Alumni are invited to attend the Sigma Tau Delta meetings and other functions of the organization. The alumni are, also, asked to secure copies of the 1951 edition of "Words Worth." These will be available for them during the Homecoming weekend.

Around the Circuit

While most colleges are bemoaning the loss of their distinctive names, WSC at Platteville takes a more philosophical view of the situation. The Exponent says:

"Let's just be thankful it didn't end up P. U.!"

In an endeavor to assist the new students in getting acquainted with the campus, the YWCA of WSC at Eau Claire conducted an Adoption Center. Cards, containing the name, address, and telephone number of each new student, were kept in a file at the Adoption Center. Upper classmen could then select a card from this file and in this manner adopt a new student as their "little sister" or "little brother."

Geography

Glacier — One who ices doughnuts.

Wind Gap — That time between the beginning and end of a lecture.

Gulley — An expression denoting surprise.

Monsoon — French student pronouncing mister.

Planet — A female organizer.

"Ya know, Betty, they change the name of this here school so often 70% of the upper classmen aren't sure whether they're at MSTC, MSC, or WSC . . . . Only today a fella asked me how I liked it here at Michigan Lake State City College . . . ."

Nelson Hall to Hold Second Open House

Nelson Hall will open its doors to all its friends for the second time this season on Homecoming Saturday, October 20. Mary McCauley, chairman of decorations, is using the main event of the week-end, the football game, as the theme and paintings of football players will be the attractions both inside and outside the hall. Helping Mary prepare decorations are Mary Ortlieb, Suzanne Payne, Janice Schroeder, Jean Schultz, Betty McGoff, Nancie Goebel and Georgia Kopp.

Cider and doughnuts will be served by the refreshment committee which is composed of Joan Jersey, Elaine Zarda, Lou Breyman, Marjorie Lawrie, Naomi Hackel and Lois Langfeldt.

Everyone is invited to visit the dorm and each of the residents will be an official hostess. Guided tours of the dormitory will be conducted by Claire Mueller and Maryjo Renzschek.

Mary Ann Baumer is in charge of clean up and will be assisted by Ella Haas and Barbara Weisbrod.

Senior Nominated for Manufacturers' Award

Gretchen Holstein, Stevens Point, was nominated this week by President William C. Hansen for the annual award given by the Wisconsin division of the National Manufacturers' association. If selected as the state representative, Miss Holstein will be awarded a trip with all expenses paid to the national convention of the Manufacturers association, which will be held in New York city early in December.

Each college in the state picks one candidate who, it feels, will profit most by the experience. Last year's winner was from Wisconsin State College, La Crosse.

Gretchen, who is a senior in the secondary division, has a fine scholastic record, and has been active in such extra-curricular activities as the Pointer, Omega Mu Chi sorority, student council, Sigma Zeta, Sigma Tau Delta, Girl's Glee club and Mixed Chorus.

Cast Your Vote!

Election of class officers and student council members is being held today, October 18, in front of the library. The candidates are as follows:

For the freshman class President, Mary Ann Smith, John Miller, George Butler; Vice-President, Harold Schumacher, Bill Gage; Secretary, Cleo Gilbert; Treasurer, Wilma Kellerman, Bill Schweider; Student Council, Phyllis Rickfort, Rita Martens, LeRoy Zingler and Virginia Brisco. The sophomore candidates are President, Robert Paulson; Vice-President, Gene Paulson; Secretary, Jim Mulady; Treasurer, Fred Schadevall; Student Council, Ed Jacobson.

The senior candidates are President, Gordon Fairbert, Walt Brunson; Vice-President, Don Olson, Norris Lindquist; Secretary, Jeanette Holm; Treasurer, Russell Roberts; Student Council, Alvin Long.

The two candidates for the position of representative at large of the Student Council are William Cable and Ray Lecy.

Welcome Fellow Alumni!

As you know, each autumn, sometime between the first frost and snowfall, we celebrate homecoming. Through the years this gala event has high lighted the first semester's college activities. This year we have another good program coming up! Your presence and your hearty participation in the various events will help make this a memorable occasion. We always count on you!

Sincerely,

Letters to the Editor

Brandon, Wis.

Dear Editor:

"I am looking forward to receiving your weekly issues, for it is a splendid means of keeping in touch with the various activities at CSTC."

Mrs. George R. Berg

Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan

Dear Pointer Staff:

"Every time the Pointer arrives, I think I'll write a note so you will know how much I enjoy receiving all the news which it contains. The last number with the picture of Miss Colman and Mrs. Piffner on the front page pleased me very much. The students from far places are such friendly looking girls that I know you will all enjoy them. I know you will make them feel at home and that is what they need."

"I was also interested in the story named 'Alphabet Soup.' Because I once learned to say CSTC and now that's a thing of the past, I see. Although I like to think of it as being Central State College."

"My son Tom was interested, too. Because of him, we watch the athletics quite closely and are glad for the space given the games in the Pointer. We can both enjoy the traditional things, also both faculty and student body are new to us."

Mrs. E. T. Smith

Opportunity to Hear Cornelia Otis Skinner

Cornelia Otis Skinner, distinguished actress-author, will present a program of "Character Sketches" in the Emerson auditorium on Thursday evening, October 25, at 8 o'clock. Students may obtain tickets this week by presenting activity cards at the table in front of the library. After 3 p.m. on Friday, however, no more tickets will be given out. The remaining tickets will be sold to townspeople whose names are on a waiting list.

Miss Skinner's outstanding success as a monologist has won her the title "the greatest single attraction in the American theater." She is also famed for her many popular humorous books and her amusing writings for the New Yorker magazine.

Her appearance here was made possible through the efforts of the assembly committee consisting of Robert S. Lewis, chairman, Miss Pauline Isaacson, Miss Helen Heel and Frank W. Crow.

Point State Seeks Victory Over Gulls in Homecoming Game

Game Climaxes 1951 Activities

The highlight of the 1951 Homecoming this Saturday will be the grid battle here between the Pointers and the Green Gulls of Wisconsin State college at Milwaukee.

So far the Green Gulls have racked-up one win and two losses in conference play while the Pointers have one tie and two losses. The Pointers hope to make it three losses for the Gulls.

Gulls Have 19 Veterans

Coach Kluge of Milwaukee has 19 lettermen back for this year's squad and included in this number are seven backs, nine linemen, and three ends. Among these 19 experienced players Coach Kluge hopes to build a winning combination using the single-wing and short punt formations, with the ground attack as the major offensive weapon. From all reports his backfield still needs experience, because only two of the seven backs that have returned have had any real experience from last season.

Among the 19 lettermen who returned, the Pointers will meet the following, who, according to the grapevine, will spell trouble: Ronald Geraghty, 5'7", 170 pound senior, who has been switched from half back to quarter back; All-conference guard in 1949, Jack Kindig, who has returned from a year in the service to play; 5'11", 160 pound Wesley Smith, who is counted on quite heavily to spark the Gulls' backfield; and Edward Zarnow, 6'2", 187 pound junior, whose specialty when not at center is kicking extra points. Those are some of Coach Kluge's lettermen who may make trouble.

Point's Starting Line Up

its yardage by air, while Northwestern will stay on the ground with Athens and Alban; add this all together and we end up with a tie ball game.

The boys from "Ann Harbor" looked pretty good last week in beating Indiana (33-14) and we're sure they will continue to improve as the year moves along. This Saturday they will continue in the win column at the expense of the Iowa Hawkeyes. Michigan by 7.

This week the Minnesota Gophers have a good chance to win their first ball-game of the year when they meet Nebraska. We feel the Gophers have gained some much needed experience in their first three games this year and should settle down now and win this one. We like the University of Minnesota by 6.

Badgers by 20
Enough for the past. Let's look to this Saturday afternoon when the Badgers will meet the Purdue Boilermakers. We feel that the Badgers' offense will have a chance to show itself, as the going will be a lot easier than it has been thus far. We pick the Badgers (Who can still be the Big Ten champs) by 21 points.

The other half of the duo that battled at Camp Randall last Saturday, Ohio State, will also find an easier opponent this week, as it meets Indiana. The Buckeyes should win this game by 20, but will not win the Big Ten unless they import some spirit from somewhere. (Coach Hayes, being mad does not develop spirit.)

Washington Over Illini

Watch out Illini; here come those Huskies from Washington. As we look into the Crystal Ball we see only a defeat for the University of Illinois. (We hope). Washington by 10.

Northwestern vs. Navy are next in what should be a hard fought game and one that could go either way. The Navy will use Zastrow to make

Jake Paces Point Pack To First Harrier Win

Wisconsin State College's cross country runners won their first meet of the "51" season, by defeating Michigan Tech 36-23. The race was held on the Stevens Point 2.4 mile course last Saturday morning.

Coach Frank Crow's harriers were once again sparked by fleet-footed Ed Jacobsen, who came home in front of the pack. His time was 11 min. 21 sec. Order of finish:

1—Jacobsen, SP; 2—Mattson, MT; 3—Fresley, SP; 4—Carnahan, MT; 5—Daniel, SP; 6—McNamara, SP; 7—Hitch, MT; 8—Carlson and Holding, SP, tie; 10—Sandberg, SP; 11—Froidenburg, MT; 12—Bartek, MT.

Dry Field, but Pointers Play; Tie River Falls

The WSC gridders played the part of visitors in the River Falls' Homecoming game last Saturday. Each team showed over a T. D. in the second period as their contribution to the game's scoring. Despite a strong wind, both teams booted their point after to make the final count 7-7.

The Pointers scored in the second period, with Nubbs Miller circling right end for 21 yards and the T. D. Al Due added the point to give the Pointers a 7-0 lead. However, the Falcons didn't leave their Homecoming crowd sad for long. Late in the same period they engineered a touchdown of their own. With the ball on their 15, Quarterback Harkness pitched a short pass to Right Half Onstad, who scampered the remaining 75 yards for a score. Steimetz booted the P. A.

During the remainder of the game the defensive platoons pretty well bottled up each other's offense, with the Pointers getting a good edge in statistics.

Side Lines

By Chuck

Another big, exciting and colorful Homecoming is near at hand! The sidewalks are being whitewashed, floats are becoming the pride of each organization, the "alums" are on their way here, and, above all, the team is really sharp.

The scrimmages earlier this week were rough and spirited. Jerry "Jelly" Jelinek says, "We've got the bad one out of our system. We'll beat Milwaukee by two touchdowns. The score will be 21-7."

However, Milwaukee is plenty tough and, being our traditional rivals, there isn't any love lost out on the gridiron each year. We are out to avenge our defeat last year when Milwaukee rubbed us 35 to 0.

Have you noticed the similarity between the University of Wisconsin and our Pointers? In each game the "U" and our boys have "out-statisticized" their opponents, but haven't been able to score. They are saving it up for the Homecoming game when all of us can see them show off.

It has been reported that Coach Hale Quandt's charges have turned to railroading. The training school fans call Don Hermann "The Little Locomotive." The other guys on the squad call him "The Iron Horse with a blown gasket."

It isn't Easter, is it? You'd think so when you see the boys with their reconverted or mutilated derbies, called "rod hats."

Who says you have to be big to play football? Jack Harkness, captain of the University of Miami football team that beat Purdue 7-0 last Saturday, weighs 139 lbs. and is 5'7" tall.

Back to the Homecoming game! On black and white we shape up with Milwaukee this way: Milwaukee was beaten by Whitewater last week 21-6. We out-statisticized Whitewater but lost 7-0. That makes us better by one touchdown. We'll still go along with "Jelly."

The boys on the team need a laugh, so they say. They have requested that we print a rumor — "Mark Schommer is in need of a good second hand razor." You'll have to ask them why.

Klacks Lead League In Touch Football

The Klacks look like the team to beat in the intramural touch football league, as they have swept through three straight games undefeated. Last week the Klacks downed the Phi Sigs 18-16, and edged the Ramblers 7-6.

In other games played, the Ramblers whitewashed T.D. Inc. 21-0, while Graham Crackers and Phi Sigs won from the same teams on forfeits. The final game of the week's schedule found the Graham Crackers beating the Ramblers 31-14.

Because of their forfeits the T.D. Inc. have been dropped from the league.

Curriculum Report Urges Foreign Language Study At Liberal Arts Schools

"Ideally, some knowledge of a foreign tongue should be required of all graduates of a liberal college. At the undergraduate level, this requirement could not be defended on instrumental grounds, as a tool of scholarship or professional training; undoubtedly there are subjects which can be profitably studied at this level without knowledge of foreign languages. For general education, however, a second language seems essential.

"The mere realization that there are other ways of saying things, just as vivid, efficient, and natural as our own, contributes immensely to detachment and breadth of view, to the weakening of intolerance and parochialism. The nature of language, surely the greatest of human inventions, can be only dimly and superficially understood without the control provided by some knowledge of another tongue. And half the beauty and power of our own speech is lost, unseen and unusable, to those who know no other language. To know only one's native speech is to be caught in a cage, condemned to limited vision and incomplete understanding." — Report on the Curriculum, U. of Oregon.

Students and Public Invited to Great Book Discussions

Anyone interested in exchanging ideas brought out by Great Books readings is invited to attend the Great Books discussion group which meets in room 157 of the college on alternate Thursday evenings from 7:30 - 9:30. This group is under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Nelis R. Kampenga.

Since January, 1950, in Stevens Point approximately 60 people have participated in the Great Books discussions at the college. Members of the group which began the readings last year are continuing their discussions with the second year readings.

The two groups are now attended by more than 40 people.

No tuition and no previous educational requirement are necessary in order to join a Great Books group. All adults in Stevens Point and Portage County who take pleasure in reading and enjoy discussion of the ideas discovered in great works, particularly in their application to present day problems, are urged to join this group.

Great Books have been formed in about 400 communities over the United States and more than 50,000 Americans are undertaking this program.

The Great Books program provides an entertainment which elevates as it entertains. The leaders are not the teachers. The books themselves are the teachers.

The first year reading list of the Great Books group includes the following reading:

The Declaration of Independence; Plato: "Apology," "Crito," "Republic," Books I - II; Thucydides: "History," Selections; Aristophanes: "Lysistrata, Birds, Clouds;" Aristotle: "Ethics," Book I; Plutarch: "Lycurgus," "Numa," "Alexander," "Caesar," St. Augustine: "Confessions," Books I - VIII; St. Thomas Aquinas: "Treatise on Law," Selections; Machiavelli: "The Prince;" Montaigne: "Selected Essays;" Shakespeare: "Hamlet;" Locke: "Of Civil Government," Second Essay; Rousseau: "The Social Contract," Books I-II; Federalist Papers: Selections; Constitution; Smith: "The Wealth of Nations," Book I; Marx: "Communist Manifesto."

Test Applications Out

Applications for the December 13, 1951 and the April 24, 1952, administrations of the College Qualification Test are now available at Selective Service System local boards throughout the country.

Eligible students who intend to offer this test on either date should apply at once to the nearest Selective Service local board for an application and a bulletin of information.

Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application and mail it immediately in the envelope provided. Applications for the December 13 test must be postmarked no later than midnight, November 5, 1951.

According to Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the College Qualification Test for the Selective Service System, it will be greatly to the student's advantage to file his application at once, regardless of the testing date he selects. The results will be reported to the student's Selective Service local board of jurisdiction for use in considering his deferment as a student.
