College Saddened Again by Loss of Professor Mott

Central State college was saddened for the second time recently when another one of its instructors, Joseph Mott, died at Madison on October 16. His death at Lake View sanitarium near Madison came less than a month after that of Dr. Harold Tolo, who died on September 25.

Mr. Mott had been hospitalized since July at Wisconsin General hospital, Madison, and was then taken to the Lake View sanitarium near Madison, where he remained until his death. The funeral was held at Canton, Missouri, with the body being taken there directly from Madison. He is survived by his wife.

President William C. Hansen, in a statement about Mr. Mott's death, noted that the beloved teacher of educational psychology, education, philosophy and English had completed 29 years of faithful service last June. Mr. Mott held the enviable record of never having been absent from class because of illness until last spring.

Mr. Mott was born at Salisbury, Mo., on Dec. 25, 1886, graduated from Salisbury high school in 1904, and earned his bachelor of science degree at the Kirksville Mo. State Teachers college in 1921. After this, he taught rural schools, was a high school supervising principal and became superintendent of Missouri high schools for nine years.

Following graduate work at the University of Chicago, he came to Stevens Point in 1923 and was an active faculty member until last June. Besides his college work, Mr. Mott had been a popular speaker for men's

Bob Flint Heads Slate Of New CSC Officers

The student body voted for class officers on Thursday, October 16. Robert Flint was elected student council president. The freshman class elected as president, Homer Plumb; vice-president, Carmen Breitenfeldt; secretary, Roberta Vaughn; treasurer, Phil LaLeike; student council representative, Gene Kussman.

Those chosen from the sophomore class were: President, Leroy Puchatzke; vice-president, John Miller, Jr.; secretary, Judy Clayton; treasurer, Marguerite Smith; student council representative, Gary Krueger.

The juniors selected: President, Ray Anderson; vice-president, Betty Crook; treasurer, Jeannette Diver; secretary, Joyce Zellinger; student council representative, Fred Schade-

Are U Going 2 Vote?

Today, October 30, the Young Democrats and the Young Republicans of CSC are holding a mock state and national election. This is your opportunity to vote for the candidate of your choice. Students, faculty, administration staff, everyone, vote! Make CSC's record 100%. The polls are open from 8 o'clock until 4 o'clock, so take a few minutes to cast your ballot.

Betty Kusserow Elected Queen; Enthusiasm Soars Over Weekend

Charming Betty Kusserow was elected queen by the students of CSC and reigned over the 1952 Homecoming festivities on October 17-19. Marilyn Gilbert, chosen captain for the Homecoming game with Whitewater, did the crowning at a pep assembly Friday afternoon. Betty, sponsored by Chi Delta Rho, appeared on the stage with her court of honor, Benita Held, Joanne Jersey and Kay Leahy, runners-up in the election results.

Enthusiasm gained momentum as game time neared. The fuse was lit at a torch-light parade on Wednesday evening, October 15, and was kept burning at the assembly on Friday. At this time Kelly Douglas, winning by popular applause, was crowned hobo king. A bonfire, snake dance and dance at Delzell Hall union climaxed the Friday activities.

A bright, sunny day heralded the 35 unit Homecoming parade Saturday morning. Eight bands, including the college band and out-of-town high school bands, provided the music, and, though all of the floats seemed to be prize winners, the judges from the Chamber of Commerce and Robert Westfall, chamber manager, named Tau Gamma Beta, the winner of the first prize and trophy; Newman club, second prize winner; and Rural Life, third. After the parade, the 300 students in the high school bands were served lunch by the Home Economics department under the direction of Miss Doris Davis, home economics instructor.

CSC-13, Quakers-6

Saturday afternoon brought the game and the explosion—CSC beat Whitewater 13-6 at Goerke field. After the game and open house at the dorms, the Greek organizations held their Homecoming dinners, which many alumni attended.

Dancing was to the music of Harold Ferron at P. J. Jacobs High School gymnasium on Saturday night. Approximately 90 couples attended

MARINE ASSEMBLY

Lt. P. F. Stephenson, U. S. Marine Corps, will speak on Officer Candidate Courses in assembly at 10 a.m., Friday, Oct. 31. All men eligible for military service should attend even though they may not be specifically interested in the Marines.

wald. For the senior class, officers are: President, Henry Dreschler; vice-president, Robert Gruling; secretary, Mary Lund; treasurer, Eleanor Curtis; student council representative, William Clayton.

CSC Classes Excused For WEA Convention

CSC students will be excused from classes on Nov. 6 and 7 so that instructors may attend the Wisconsin Education association convention, being held in Milwaukee. This convention is the meeting place for hundreds of Wisconsin teachers. There the instructors will hear speakers of note and will attend sectional meetings on music, art, geography, history, etc.

Dr. Raymond E. Gotham is delegate from the faculty to this convention, while delegates to the Association of Wisconsin State College Faculties, which will meet during the convention, are Mrs. Mary Samter, Miss Alice Hansen and Robert S. Lewis.

Dr. Edgar F. Pierson, chairman of the AWSCF executive committee, will preside at the delegate assembly on Thursday evening.

the affair which was sponsored by the S club.

Glee Club Sings

The climax of the week-end and a fitting close was the Homecoming concert given by the Men's Glee club on Sunday afternoon, in which several alumni took part.

A vote of thanks is extended by the student body to the Homecoming chairman, Jerry Bartosz, and his able assistants, Gene and Bob Paulson, Shirley Sonnenberg, Mary Lund, Harold Schumacher, Ed Jacobson and Marilyn Gilbert.

NOTICE

Because of the vacation period for the WEA convention, the next issue of the Pointer will be published on November 20.

3 One Act Plays to be Given Again Tonight

The College Theatre of CSC presented their three one-act plays Wednesday evening in the college auditorium before a capacity audience. There will be a repeat performance tonight, at 8 p.m.

Directors of the plays are students in Miss Pauline Isaacson's speech classes.

"The Florist Shop" is a Winifred Hawkridge comedy with action centered about the florist's bookkeeper, Maude, played by Gladys Lehmann. Slovsky, John Seetebere, is the middle-aged proprietor and his 16-year-old office boy, Henry, is portrayed by Donald Smith. Miss Wells and Mr. Jackson, who provide the romantic element, are played by Dorothy Johnson and William Collins. Student directors of this play are Winifred Pierre and Eleanor Curtis.

"The Clod" by Lewis Beech is a

Russ Nelson to Play For Pan-Hell Dance

The five Greek social organizations on the campus will terminate their pledging with the Pan-Hell dance to be held at the Union in Delzell Hall on Saturday, November 15, at 8:30 p.m.

The following sororities and fraternities have been named to work on committees:

Chi Delta Rho is in charge of securing the hall and Phi Sigma Epsilon, the orchestra, which will be Russ Nelson's band from Marshfield. The decorations and theme are being prepared by Psi Beta Psi. The theme will be Indian Summer. Omega Mu Chi is responsible for inviting chaperones and guests. Tau Gamma Beta is in charge of tickets and programs.

The Union Board members will be in charge of refreshments for the event.

Break Ground for New CSC Library

To the tune of rumbling trunks and a clanking steam shovel Neils R. Kampenga, head librarian, officially broke ground for Central State's new library building on Monday morning of this week. A short address by Mr. Kampenga highlighted the program which was attended by some 100 interested faculty members, students and local persons.

President William C. Hansen presented the morning's speakers, Assemblyman John Kostuck, State Senator Oscar W. Neale, Wilson S. Delzell, member of the Board of State College Regents, and Sever Anderson, construction foreman of the Hoepfner-Bartlett Company, Eau Claire.

drama of the Civil war period. The cast is composed of Mary Trask, Rita Czerniewski; Thad, James Skasko; northern soldier, Earl Grom; southern sergeant, Homer Plumb; southern private, Rudy Brychel. Phyllis Jarnick and Jack Popeck are the student directors.

Miss Connor Directs "Q"

The third play is another light farce entitled "Q" by Leacock and Hastings. The cast includes Jack Annerly, Frank Brocker; George Gnof, James Schuh; Blight, Harold Schumacher, and Dora Kneiper, Marlys Hvass. Student directors are Sally Connor and Frank Reda.

The technical crews for backstage work and pre-play preparation include: Seting, Charles Robinson, Gordon Bialke and Richard Marko; stage properties, Amy Kampenga, Henry Dreschler, Leonard Lane, Virginia Marros, Patricia Malick and David Stelchek; hand properties, Lenore Gaylord, Dorothy Arndt, Virginia Brisco, Joanne Butts and Ronald Hager; costumes, Ellen Elde, Robert Hammersmith, Neil Altenburg, Nadine Bahr and Edward Kniotek; lighting, Royce Wade, John Miller.

Makeupers Add Color

Makeup, Jeannette Suehring, Nancy Bird, Mildred Swendzynski, Ada Lord, Mary Lund and Janet Van Ornum; programs, advertising and ushering, Maryjo Reznick, Jerry Boettcher, Robert Gruling and David Silverman.

Dorothy Thompson is serving as organist, playing music before the performances begin and between plays.

Flowers for the play, "The Florist Shop," have been furnished by the local floral shops, Walter's and Sorenson's. The local police department has cooperated in furnishing guns for "The Clod."

High Schools Invited

Miss Isaacson and Leland M. Burroughs, advisers of College Theatre, have invited high schools from surrounding areas to attend the plays. Of the 61 invited, acceptances have been received from the following: Waupun, represented by about 12 on Wednesday night; Mosinee, by 15 on Thursday; Weyauwega, by 50 on Thursday; Bowler, by 14 on Wednesday; Port Edwards, by 15 on Thursday; Nekeosha, by 33 on Thursday; Athens, by 60 on Wednesday; Edgar, by 7 on Wednesday; and St. Joseph's Academy, Stevens Point, by 29 on Wednesday and 23 on Thursday.

Members of the Public Relations committee of CSC are entertaining the visiting high school people by serving them refreshments after the plays at the student union at Delzell Hall both nights of the performance. Members of the committee and CSC students were present Wednesday evening and will be present this evening to assist in serving and in helping the high school students become acquainted.

Girls! Get Your Man It's Sadie Hawkins Time

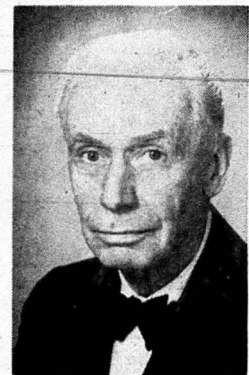

Girls start chasing your man now! The annual Sadie Hawkins dance is creeping up. Dig out your Dog Patch costumes—if you can call them costumes. Daisy Mae and L'il Abner will set the style for the event! This is your chance, girls, to ask the man of your choice. Get things rolling, for the big date is Friday, November 21, in the Training School gym.

Sponsored by the YWCA, the following committees are working to make the affair a success:

Advertising committee, Nancy Court, chairman, Cleo Gilbert, Shirley Sheets; decoration committee, Diane Seif, chairman, Mary Ann Smith, Helen Isberner. On the ticket committee Joyce Jones is chairman, and Helen Jones is working with her.

The refreshment committee is composed of Clara Colrupe, chairman, Mary Bartlett and Mary Ann Raskha; serving committee, Joan Cuff, chairman, Dorothy Gerner and Phyllis Hoeft. The music and entertainment is being taken care of by Rosemary Polzin, chairman, Phyllis Caskey and Joan Chapman.

Members of the clean-up committee are Phyllis Caskey, chairman, Mary Ann Raskha, Dorothy Gerner, Helen Jones, Joan Chapman. Those who will take tickets are Shirley Sheets, chairman, Joyce Suckow, Rosemary Polzin and Gloria Suckow.

groups and civic organizations in this area. He judged school forensic contests and conducted P.T.A. study groups evenings for public schools in Stevens Point.

His scholarliness, his kindly manner and frequent words of encouragement, and his dry humor will long be remembered by his students. They and his fellow faculty members will miss him at CSC.

Modern Dance Group Organized on Campus

Orchestra, a new modern dance group, has been organized on CSC campus. It is directed by Miss Jessie Mae Keyser, women's physical education director, and was started by several students interested in interpretive dancing.

A president, Janet Bergelin, and a press representative, Gladys Lehmann, were elected at the first meeting on October 6. The group holds its meetings and practice sessions on Monday evenings in the college gym and attends Mrs. Judy Lane's modern dance class at the P. J. Jacobs High school on Thursday evenings.

Charter members of Orchestra are Judy Clayton, Janet Bergelin, Gladys Lehmann, Nadine Bahr, Ellen Elde, Janice Cook, Beverly West, Pauline Vincent, Virginia Marros, Yolanda Newby, Penny Bullock and Alice Allen.

Youth's Dream

Youth — the greatest treasure of life; nothing in the world is more dear than youth.

We have youth. We have young bodies, young active minds. We have young desires and hopes. We are ambitious; we daydream. We, the young, are the blessed generation.

Yes, we have youth — for the moment. Youth, fleeting, hurrying by, may slip through our fingers like quicksilver. Youth's sun may slide beneath the horizon of old age as we fumble about in the artificial darkness of convention.

Yes, we have youth. But what are we going to do with it? Squander its wealth on the commonplace pleasures of life? Choke off its surging vitality by riding easily on the stream of "doing as everyone else does"?

We are wasting our youth groping for knowledge. We are burning ourselves out by following the conventionalities of life. What are we doing wasting our time in school when we could be out on the "open road," learning from actual contact with life, learning and living freedom?

Keep true to the dream of youth! Shake off the shackles of convention! Free yourself from the slavery of education! Live your youth! Be the youth you really are, full of charm and ready laughter, swaggering down the road of adventure, hands in pockets, whistling a devil-may-care tune. Be not the puritan college student, continually preaching book knowledge as the one and only cure-all. Be not the straight-laced student, dumb double under the burden of classes, habit, and humdrum assignments.

Be the youth who knows that no chance but the main chance is worth a plug nickel. Travel! Feel! See! Think! Be unique! Be exciting! Be young!

FAMILIAR FACES

"Art-arf-arf, come on, Pointers!" has been the recent motto for Edwin Heuer, one of the organizers of the Holler Hollow express, the student cheering section.

Ed, a representative here from Wild Rose, is a senior in the Intermediate-Upper Elementary division, who hopes to teach seventh or eighth grade. He, like many other fellows, is worrying about the future. At present the National guard, of which Ed is a member, plays an important part in his life.

Along with his regular class work and practice teaching, Ed keeps occupied with activities in Sigma Theta Epsilon, of which he is president, and in Men's Glee club. He is also a member of Wesley and president of Deizell Hall.

It is interesting to discover that two years ago Ed took off from school to go to Sanford, Florida, to play professional baseball with the Oshkosh Giants in the Wisconsin

State League. Ed has interest in all sports, but his basic interest is in baseball.

This summer he worked at the Farm bureau in Janesville and also spent some time with the National Guard on a trip to Camp Ripley, Minn.

Freshman Forestry Class Visit Logging Camps

The old and the new and the large and the small were seen by the freshman forestry class on trips taken on October 15 and 22. They left Stevens Point at 7 a.m., journeying to a spot near Franklin Lake in Vilas county. Here they saw the most modern logging equipment in the world. This equipment was operating in a large timber sale area of the Nicolet National Forest. A short distance away the boys witnessed a portable sawmill working in a stand of aspen. This aspen was being cut for plywood filler and paneling.

At Laona the boys saw the largest hardwood mill in the world, the Connor Lumber Co. Here a log was followed from the rough log to the finished product. This large mill was quite a change from the small portable log in the woods.

The old of the logging equipment was seen at Wabeno, where the class realized that there is quite a change from the axes and crosscut saws to the modern chain saws now used in the woods.

One group was privileged to see the General MacArthur tree near Newald. This tree is the largest northern white pine in the world.

Ed chuckled when we inquired about his love affair, but he just can't seem to hide that brunette from anybody on the campus. Bet he wouldn't mind remaining at CSC for the next two years. Guess why?

Alpha Kappa Rho Has Annual Breakfast

Alpha Kappa Rho, honorary music fraternity, held its annual Homecoming breakfast for alums, pledges, actives, advisers and guests at the Hesser hotel on October 19 at 9 a.m. President Joanne Wysocki was the mistress of ceremonies for the program which was organized by the pledges.

Alpha Kappa Rho alums present were: Mr. and Mrs. Carman Lane, Stevens Point; Mr. and Mrs. Veri Franz, Madison; Miss Betty Mehne, Edgerton; Miss Nancy Boehme, Port Edwards; Miss Suzanne Swanke, Shawano; Miss Mary Douville, Racine; and Miss Joan Fehrenbach, Wausau. Advisers, Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Michelsen, also attended the breakfast. Guests of the group were President and Mrs. William C. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Steiner, Miss Susan Colman and Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Bukolt.

Rural Life Club to Sponsor Frosh Party

The Rural Life club is sponsoring a party for all the freshmen in the Rural division next Monday night, November 3 at Bukolt Park.

Lynn Olson is general chairman of the event. The following committees have been chosen: Decorations, Jean Wagner, chairman, Dorothy Walner, Aurella Marchel, Margaret Leitner, Marcella Lang; recreation, Clara Colrupe, chairman, Phyllis Caskey, Helen Jones, Dorothy Palmer, Mary Brittnacher; food, Phyllis Hazelwood, chairman, Sally Bronk, Joyce Jones, Naomi Haeckel, Willis Teetzel; securing place, Roy Haeckel, chairman, Henry Drescher, Kent Trotter, Dorothy Johnson, Frank Reda; cleanup, Joan Lemsire, chairman, Mary Alice Schmitt, Bob Gruling, Marion Scheels, Ray Wilde.

Entertainment will consist of square dancing and other games.

One of the most surprised and excited girls on the campus Oct. 17 was Betty Kusserow, a sophomore from Wittenberg. A fearful, but happy, Betty was crowned Homecoming Queen, chosen to reign over the week-end's festivities. It proved to be a thrilling week-end full of excitement and rushing here and there to attend everything a Queen is supposed to attend.

Betty put the torch to the large bonfire at the rally Friday night and went to the dance. Friday evening the Queen and her court went down to Kostka's to try on the fur coats they wore in the parade. Betty's was a brown beaver fur and she quite understandably hated to give it back. She and her court rode in a baby blue Buick convertible in the parade.

Local Wesleysans to Attend MSM Meet

About 20 Methodist students of CSC will attend the State Conference Methodist Student Movement which is being held in Madison from October 31 — November 2. Individual discussion groups will discuss the subject "The Role of the Christian Student in the World Struggle." H. D. Bollinger will be the main speaker and he will also discuss this subject.

Stevens Point's part in the program is the communion worship service which will be held Saturday evening.

Students plan to leave for Madison Friday evening and plan to return Sunday morning.

Choir Festival Will Be Held Here Sunday

The 7th District choir festival of the Wisconsin Federation of Music clubs will be held at 8 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 2, in the college auditorium, Mrs. A. A. Mellentine, state extension chairman announced.

The following churches will be represented: The Congregational church of Wisconsin Rapids, Methodist church of Amherst, and churches of Stevens Point, including the Trinity Lutheran, Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist.

All choirs will be under the direction of Peter J. Michelsen, director of music at CSC.

The songs Mr. Michelsen has chosen to be presented are: "You'll Never Walk Alone" by Hammerstein and Rodgers; "Thank God for a Garden" by Teresa Del Riego; "O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee" by Gladden and Otis; "God is Our Refuge" by Glad Robinson Youse; "Adoramus Te" (We adore Thee) by G. F. de Paestrina; "Watchman, What of the Night" by Bowring and Shure; "God So Loved the World" by John Stainer; "Lead Us, O Father" by Burleigh and Runkel; "O Lord Most Holy" by Caesar Franck; and "The Long Day Closes" by Chorley and Sullivan.

No admission will be charged and the public is cordially invited.

Greek Pledges Named

Pledging season for the sororities and fraternities of CSC is again underway.

The Phi Sig fraternity pledges include: Jim Gosh, Stevens Point; John Miller, Jr. Stevens Point; Ray Laszewski, Stevens Point; Garie Turner, Wisconsin Rapids; Bob Breese, Portage; Bob Konapacky, Stevens Point; and Fred Stephanek, Phillips. Jack Popeck is the pledge-master.

The Chi Delta fraternity pledges are: Bill Miller, Wisconsin Rapids; Kelly Douglas, Oshkosh; Eric Hedquist, Stevens Point; and Mark Schommer, Kaukauna. Marilyn Gilbert is the pledge-master.

The Psi Beta Psi sorority is pledging the following: Penny Bullock, Medford; Bonnie Kalepp, Dorchester; and Norma Herrington, Waupaca. Vivian Hofman is the pledge mistress.

Omega Mu Chi sorority pledges are: Cleo Gilbert, Mellen; Diane Albrightson, New Richmond; Carol Holt, Wisconsin Dells; and Dorothy Palmer, Neenah. Carol Corliss is the pledge mistress.

Tau Gamma Beta is not pledging this semester.

Man or Mouse, Hmm? People Are Funny; So Are Pledges

In the ancient days of tribes an important tribal custom was initiation, the ceremony of separating the men from the boys. Before a boy was admitted to the adult membership of his tribe, he had to undergo severe tests and trials. If he survived, he was officially recognized as a full-fledged man. To prove their manhood, boys would lie on a hill of red ants for hours, endure severe cuts, and undergo lashing until unconscious.

Notice a fraternity pledge some time. He doesn't look blue-eyed for nothing. He is trying to prove he can take it — that he is, or almost is, a man.

To become a full-fledged fraternity man or sorority woman, the prospective member, or pledge, must perform various tests, slightly less severe than the ancient tribal ceremonies, but similar in that pledges learn respect and humility.

Besides providing entertainment for the actives and amusement for interested onlookers, these curious-acting remnants of a happy boyhood or girlhood are actually learning and practicing the traits which help them to become good fraternity and sorority members. Besides respect, the pledges learn cooperation, loyalty, cheerfulness under fire, helpfulness toward others, and that "I can take anything now" feeling. They also learn how a worm feels.

They even say that pledging is a lot of fun — for the actives.

Remember, though, the next time you are tempted to feel sorry for a pledge, that it was much rougher in the days before the safety pin.

Alpha Kappa Rho Holds Initiation

Initiation of new members into the honorary music fraternity, Alpha Kappa Rho, took place Monday evening, October 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Michelsen. A 6 o'clock buffet supper was served by the actives in honor of the pledges, Ruth Tallmadge, Fred Stephanek, Claire Mueller, Edward Kmietek and John Holmgren.

The initiation ceremony was conducted by President Joanne Wysocki and the pledges provided the program for the evening. Officers of the group for this semester are: President, Miss Wysocki; vice-president, Barbara Nelson; secretary, Sylvia Abrahamson; treasurer, Janice Gruen.

CERTAINLY NO ONE else could claim the title, "Hobo King," more rightfully than Kelly Douglas, here pictured with all of his fine regalia. The Hobo Day pep assembly, bonfire, and snake dance were a fitting prelude to a Homecoming victory over the Quakers.

Ullman and Schmeckle Attend Conservation Meet

F. J. Schmeckle and Miss Mary Ullman attended an education meeting in Madison on October 24 and 25. This meeting was attended by many persons from teacher training institutions in Wisconsin who are interested in conservation education.

Mr. Schmeckle, chairman of the all-state conservation program, was chairman of the evening discussion on Friday. Miss Ullman was a consultant for a group discussion on "More Effective Teaching of Conservation Education." I. L. Baldwin, vice president of the University of Wisconsin, gave the principal address entitled, "Conservation of Natural Resources and the Public Welfare."

New Home Ec's Named

New members recently initiated into the CSC Home Economics club are: Annette Bras, Charlotte Radant, Germaine Blaskey, Lois Schroeder, Charlotte Hale, Irene Dombroske, Ann Weisbro, Marjorie Ann Dill, Joanne Butts, Hazel Hebel, Sally Jo Giese, Rosemary Axteill, Phyllis Knop, Grace Anderson, Janet Van Ornum, Joyce Zernake, Deloris Johnson, Diane Gols, Diane Albrightson, Benita Held, Janus Schellin, Marguerite Smith, Lucille Daurick, Catherine Francis and Wilma Kellerman.

Officers of the club this year are: Glenna Clark, president; Phyllis Jarneck, vice president; Jeannette Diver, secretary; and Dorothy Kuhnke, treasurer.

Miss Rita Youmans and Miss Doris Davis are faculty advisers.

RAY MUNDT

Big Ray stands 6'3", weighs 215 pounds, and is 24 years old. He prep'd at Appleton and attended Carthage College before arriving at CSC. Ray is a senior in Letters and Science, concentrating on mathematics and history majors. A service veteran, "Mundtsky" plays defensive tackle.

MIKE SEAGRAVES

A freshman in Letters and Science, Mike is another local Point griddier. He is 18, weighs 205 pounds and stands six feet tall. Although he is a graduate of P. J. Jacobs High school, Mike also attended high school at Crystal Lake, Illinois, before moving to Point. Mike is the center mainstay in the defensive line.

JOE SONTAG

Standing 5'10" and weighing 195 pounds, Joe spent his high school days at Birnamwood. An 18 year old freshman, he plays in a defensive linebacker spot. Joe is entered in the Letters and Science division, majoring in biology.

JOE SANKS

A. P. J. Jacobs high school graduate, Joe is a freshman in Letters and Science. He is 19, weighs 175 and is six feet tall. As a senior in high school, Joe earned the honor of being named on the first team all-state eleven while operating from an end position. However, since donning the Purple and Gold, he has staked out a defensive halfback spot.

CARL JURGELLA

A big, bruising, defensive tackle, "Egor" stands six-two, weighs 220 pounds, and is 20 years of age. Carl attended P. J. Jacobs High school, but has not participated in the pigskin sport until this year. A freshman, Carl is enrolled in Letters and Science.

Eau Claire Last For 'Jilted' Point Team

This Saturday, CSC's Pointers will attempt to regain their winning ways when they clash with the Eau Claire aggregation in an afternoon non-loop game at Eau Claire. Already the possessors of a highly successful season, the P and G's own a 6-1 record as compared to Eau Claire's 2-3-1 showing.

The Old Abe's have failed to win a single conference game, although they did tie the River Falls in a loop clash. Meanwhile, the Pointers have a 3-1 conference record, the lone loss suffered at the hands of Platteville last week. In four conference games Eau Claire has scored 43 points, allowing 105; while in contrast, the local aggregation has scored 57 points to the opponent's 33. On this basis, CSC should rate a better than average chance of coming out on top.

Injuries Costly

However, the last two games, those with Whitewater and Platteville, have proven costly injury-wise. Ray Mundt sat out the Pioneer game, due to his knee injury, and it is doubtful whether he will be able to start this game. Ron Wislinsky is out for the remainder of the season with a broken leg, while others are nursing a variety of bumps and bruises.

Coach Roberts will probably use the same tremendous defensive unit which has more than proven itself throughout the season. Probable starters are Bostad and Crook at ends, Andrews and Jurgella at tackles, and Seagraves at center. Linebackers will be Popeck, Hurlbut, and Sontag, with Sanks, Purchatzke, and Davidson most likely to start in the defensive backfield.

Offensively the lineups are more doubtful. Linemen likely to see action are Roloff and Schommer at ends, Andrews and Brandt at tackles, Karlis and Hunter or Munderloh at guards, and Gilbert at center. Likely offensive backfield starters are Herrmann at quarter, Giordana and Stimac at the halfbacks, and Miller at full.

Pioneers Gain 'Cheap' Victory Over Pointers

An outplayed Platteville outfit handed a superior Stevens Point team their first defeat on Saturday, October 25, to capture the southern division championship of the Wisconsin State college conference at Platteville.

For the Purple and the Gold, the setback was a heartbreaker, as they outplayed their opponents both offensively and defensively. No team had found victory so cheap as the Pointers, by far not the best team the Pointers have faced.

Defensively, CSC retained their supremacy, allowing only 46 yards on the ground but the fumble-ridden offense could not reach paydirt. Platteville tallied their first touchdown late in the first period after Pointer quarterback Don Herrmann was hit and fumbled deep in Pointer territory. The ball bounced back in to the end zone and Pioneer Jerry Van Sistine recovered. Raguet's point by placement made it 7-0. The Pioneers scored a second touchdown early in the second half when interference was ruled against safety man Sid Davidson and the ball was put in to play on the three. Four plays later the staunch CSC defense allowed Dick Zenz to plow over from the one foot line to give Platteville 13 points and the complete scoring total.

Point's offense got into enemy territory repeatedly but every penetration was cut down by an alert Platteville defense.

No one man can be praised on the great defensive squad but the entire line must be cited for its outstanding work not only in this game but throughout the season. Their opponents have gained only an average of 87 and a half yards per game on the ground against them.

Defense Defeats Stubborn 'Quakers' In Bruising Homecoming Victory

A determined crew from Whitewater invaded Goerke Field, Saturday, October 18, only to fall victim to a rock-ribbed Pointer defense, 13-6, in a grimly fought battle.

Both defenses performed magnificently, with the Purple and the Gold holding the victory edge. The Quakers were stopped almost completely on the ground, gaining only 28 yards. Win the air they fared better, but the defense tightened as they approached the goal line.

The Pointer offense was unable to move in its usual form, producing only 97 yards on the ground. Ninety-six of these yards are credited to Point's hard running fullback, "Nubbs" Miller.

Point struck first early in the game after Ken Roloff snared a pass just inside the forty and sped down to the one-yard line from where Miller, who lugged the ball a total of 31 times, cracked over. The P.A.T. was missed, and the score stood at 6-0. Whitewater threatened twice before scoring, advancing to the one-and-four-yard lines before being pushed back by an alert defense.

Then, after Roloff's beautiful punt set them back to their own 35, Gocker connected on four straight passes, hitting Farley in the end zone to tie up the ball game. Entress, a mainstay of the Quaker defense, missed the extra point.

The Quakers were given still another chance early in the third period after Roloff's punt was blocked and downed on the Point 22. But again the defense held, and on the fourth down Entress's field goal attempt fell short by inches.

Early in the final quarter Bostad knocked an intended pass out of Gocker's hand, and Jurgella fell on the ball on Whitewater's 31-yard line. Point drove down to the eleven-yard line where they were stopped short of a first down, but an off-side penalty gave them the ball on the five. Herrmann on a quarterback sneak, gained four, and then on third down Miller bucked over for the score. Al Due added the point afterward to make it 13-6 with seven minutes to play.

Whitewater unleashed a ferocious passing attack in the final minutes of play, but two fumbles recovered by Jurgella stopped them short of paydirt.

The cost of the game was great — one player out for the rest of the year and two on the doubtful list. Ronnie Wislinsky, a regular defensive halfback, was lost for the rest of the season when he broke his leg early in the game. Also injured were Ray Mundt with a wrenched knee and Jim Giordana, who sprained his ankle.

It seems as though school has hardly gotten under way, but yet we're almost to the end of this year's gridiron season. Even though the Pointers saw the championship game with the Pioneers slip from their grasp, they have a record thus far that any big ten team would be extremely proud to own.

With one game to be played yet this season, CSC has a formidable 6-1 record, definitely nothing to be ashamed of.

Anyone who saw last Saturday's game will back up the statement that the Pointers fought, and fought savagely every second of the game. When a team like the Pioneers tallies two touchdowns by gaining a total of four yards to score 13 points, it can hardly be said that that team has a driving offense. Platteville was held to two first downs the entire game, proving that our defense was nothing short of sensational. The game was truly a "battle of breaks," with the Pioneers holding the four-leaf clovers.

Big Ten weekend play turned up a surprising string of upsets this week. Underdog Iowa stunned a powerful Ohio State eleven, 8-0, while Purdue gained an unforeseen 3-0 conference record by swamping Illinois, 40-12. Minnesota's Rose Bowl hopes were crushed as they lost a 21-0 decision to Michigan. These results, combined with UCLA's triumph over the Badgers in a non-loop contest, leaves the Big Ten in a slightly jumbled condition. Anyone willing to pick a winner?

The favorite expression heard along the halls of CSC on Monday mornings is: Who won the game this weekend? It happens more often than you may think. How anyone can be attending school and not know how his own representative team is faring is way beyond this writer.

The Clintonville and Kaukauna factions of the Pointer grid squad have been having some potent ribbing sessions the past few days. It all stems from the fact that Clintonville's Truckers beat the Kaukauna Ghosts last Saturday, the first time in the history of the Northeastern conference. It was the Truckers homecoming game.

CSC is looking for a basketball manager! Here is an excellent chance for a freshman or sophomore without too much athletic ability to become connected with the college sports staff. To be eligible for the position, a student must have no classes after 3 p.m. on school days and must be available for weekend trips. For further details see Coach Quandt or Jerry Baerenwald.

Union Rules and Facilities:

Here's the Info on Student Union

The Pointer wishes to correct an error in its announcement of the student union hours — On Sunday the union is open from 1-5 p.m. and 7-11 p.m.

The student union board wishes to announce that the union is available for CSC student functions such as teas, parties, dances, etc. If these functions are for the entire school with no admission, there is no charge for its use. Otherwise the rates are $2 for afternoons, $6 for evenings till 12, or $7.50 for evenings till 12:30 or 1 o'clock for formals.

Activities in the union include such things as ping pong, cards, chess, dancing, committee meetings, piano playing and visiting.

Run by Students

The student union is being operated under a student management plan. According to the rules, one person chosen by the union board with the help of the deans will be manager of the snack bar. Any applicant for the position should be at least a sophomore and should apply for the job through the dean's office. He will be hired for the term of one semester and if his work is satisfactory he may be rehired.

The manager is responsible for having someone in charge of the snack bar during union hours. This person is responsible for having equipment returned at the end of the evening and for cleaning the union at closing time.

Manager in Charge

The manager will keep strict accounts of all things bought and sold through the snack bar. He is free to hire students to help him with the duties of running the snack bar. He will receive 50¢ an hour for a 46 hour week, which is to be paid out of the profits from the snack bar. If the profits exceed the wages paid to the manager, the manager will receive 50 percent of the profits for the first $10 and 25 percent for anything above $10.

The person in charge of the snack bar will have the power and responsibility to ask anyone to leave the union if his or her conduct is not the best of character.

These rules will be subject to change on the approval of the manager, union board, deans and college president during the semester. At the end of the semester, the rules will either be changed or accepted again as they are by the union board, with the approval of the president of the college.

Conservation 107 Sees UW Soil Experiment Farm

The latest in soil conservation techniques was seen by the Conservation 107 class on a trip to the University of Wisconsin Soil Experiment farm at La Crosse on October 29.

The class saw the amount of actual soil runoff measured by scientific methods. Terracing results and procedures were shown, as well as grass waterways, contour plowing, strip cropping, and renovated pasture.

The remarkable thing about the experimental farm is that a few years ago it could not support even an average farm family. Today, through the use of good conservation measures, the farm is doing very well in supporting a family as well as an increased number of cattle.

Wisconsin Leads U. S. In School Radio Service

The two newly constructed State Radio council FM stations at Brule and Highland give Wisconsin the most complete up-to-date school radio service of any state in the nation, according to radio executive, Ted Leitzell, of Zenith Radio Corporation. He pointed out that educational broadcasts as well as sports programs will get a tremendous bonus over the static-free FM radio. With FM, good reception of various network programs is available for the first time to thousands of Wisconsin families. In many localities, they can tune in from seven to 20 FM stations, thereby reaching every nook and cranny of the state. Said

Leitzell, "The combination of the fine State Radio council programs, college and high school sports events, and the multiplicity of network and local commercial shows gives Wisconsin the best FM broadcasting service in the entire nation."
