Harrer, Youmans, Davis, Ravey
New Instructors Here at CSC

Smith, Blodgett and Kerst Return
Dr. Alf William Harrer, Misses Pauline Youmans, Rita Yoomans, and Doris Davis are the three CSC faculty members teaching here for the first time. Returning to Central State after a year’s absence are Dr. Harry Elizabet Smith, Mrs. Warren Blodgett, and Mrs. Marjorie Kerst.

Miss Youman’s, head of the Home Economics Department, and Miss Davis, teacher of foods and nutrition, are among the new members who came to college the second year of their undergraduate work at Central Missouri State College. She received her M.S. degree at the Kansas State Agricultural college. Her practical experience was gained in Missouri high schools teaching Home Economics. She was also the State Supervisor of Home Economics in the Missouri State Department of Education. She is also responsible for the teacher-training program at Central Missouri State College at Warrensburg, Missouri.

Miss Davis is a graduate of the University of Michigan, and has studied at Michigan State College and University of Wisconsin where she has completed the requirements for her M.A. degree. Miss Davis has taught in several Indiana high schools and is the last being at Lebanon, Indiana.

Miss Youman’s takes the place of Miss Helen May Allen and Miss Davis of Miss Helen Weston, both of whom retired this past year.

In Wisconsin Grind
Room 215 is the CSC home of Dr. Alf William Harrer, another recent addition to the “Purple and Gold” faculty.

Dr. Harrer received his bachelor of science and his master’s degree from the University of Wisconsin, after which he accepted a teaching position at Ball State Teachers college at Muncie, Indiana. While there, Dr. Harrer taught “Tests and Measurement” to the junior and senior classes and was also director of student physical welfare.

After receiving his doctor of philosophy degree from the University of Wisconsin in June, Dr. Harrer accepted a position as training specialist with the Farm Bureau Men of Stevens Point.

Newman Added to Faculty As Part-Time Instructor in Conservation
James Newman was added this week as part time faculty member in the conservation department at CSC. A native of Akron, Ohio, he is a graduate of the University of Akron.

He received his B.S. degree in forestry and did some graduate work in wildlife. He attended Ohio Wesleyan, the University of Virginia, and the University of Akron. While attending Michigan State, he worked for the National Research project at Yellowstone National Park during the summer.

The new instructor will work 150 hours a week as a member of the national ROTC and now serves in the Army National Guard.

Although forestry is Mr. Newman’s major, his hobbies are sports and fishing, and hunting and fishing.

His main interest lies in weight lifting. He recently joined the sport at Michigan State and was president of the college weight lifting club, also an undergraduate weight lifting team.

Steamrolling Pointers
Crush Mich. Tech., 13-0

A red-hot Pointer aggregation showed to be too much for last-Michigan Tech as the locals trounced the Huskies, 13-0, last Saturday. September 18 on a rain-soaked field. Point contested the enter as an underdog, but rose valiantly to add game number two on their string of victories. CSC started to ramble over the field from the very first whistle, and by half-time had scored all the points they needed for the victory.

Collegiate Gridiron

Miller
Hosloth

"Nobles" Miller drove to both touchdowns to hand Coach Roberts the victory in his first game as head mentor of the college team. However, many others shared the honors in the exciting win, among those being Bryan Puckatzke, top ground-gainer for the fuller, Don Herrmann, quarterback, and Rob Rohoff, who caught two of Herrmann's passes.

Defensively, Jack Pockey, Jack Brandt, and Bob Rohoff turned in hard fought performances. Marty Gilbert, center and captain for the game, along with Stan Karle and Bob Rohoff, in the center of the line through the game. CSC's other touchdowns was also scored by Miller, coming midway through the second quarter. It came shortly after a long sustained drive, with Miller driving over from a short distance out. All but kicked the second point after the first try, but both could be attempted.

Milsaps Point Vengeance
For Milwaukee Gulls

In an attempt to avenge a 25-0 defeat that he handed the Gulls two years ago and a 12-13 Homecoming tie last season, Bob Miller, the Green Bay Bakers field for a conference tangle with Milwaukee's Green Gulls, October 4.

The Green Gulls boast one of the great defense aggregations in the loop, including such stalwart operators as Gil Drew, all-conference tackle, two huge ends, Lowell Litter and Tom Kircher, automatic Ed Zarnon and Scott Raymond. Coach Roberts and Bob Rohoff, both Herbert Klips will be able to field a letterman-in-each position on the team. Milwaukee has been known to be a slow starter and a strong finisher, particularly in the Gulls' 21-0 win to Lawrence. Coupled with the fact that he has seen Green Bay and the Pointers have been bitter rivals for years, this is a close one, and records and odds are usually tossed in the scrap heap when such contests meet.

Coach Roberts is expected to use the same game plan which he will use for the Pointers this Saturday at Oshkosh.

European Tour:

Instructors Fly to Europe for Six Weeks of Vacationing and Travel

Miss Gladys Van Arsdale, third student of the state public schools nod a medical and dental full scholarship in England and Germany. Leaving the next day of summer school, they tried to see as much as they could within six weeks. They flew by plane to New York, from there to New Orleans, then to Shannon, Eire, 14 hours from New York. This area was determined to be frightened at the thought of flying over the ocean but once in the plains she forgot her fears and slept most of the way across. Since they traveled by plane both ways, Miss Isaason and Miss Van Arsdale were quite handbagged in buying things. Each passenger is allowed only 44 pounds of bagage on the tourist flights. This was the first time Miss Isaason has been to Europe, but Miss Van Arsdale had been there before. In 1946-1948 she acted as English consultant in Germany. Visited German Friends.

While in Germany they stayed with friends of either Miss Isaason or Miss Van Arsdale and enjoyed living and seeing the German families in their homes or with Americans working for the military government. In Munich they visited a number of public schools and a remeal school for U.S. soldiers. This school is maintained by the U.S. Army for soldiers who reached an achievement level comparable to the 8th grade or who have not learned to read and write. While in Munich, Miss Van Arsdale and Mrs. Isaason lunched with Reiner Rodenhauer, a former student of OIC. Reiner's health has not been too good, and he has had to give up teaching.

While in Munich, the hotel started to write a book which he hopes to publish before too long. It was written in English for American publication and gives his attitudes about war, the world situation, and peace. Some one says he has had since he was a prisoner of war. Miss Isaason and Miss Van Arsdale heard part of the manuscript and thought it very fine. Reiner asked about friends and people he knew here and was very much interested in them.

German Dream of U. S.

The teachers found that the German people, particularly the young, would like very much to come to the U. S. They seem to feel that the future for them in Germany is not bright. They'd like to have a home here or be sponsored by someone and get to school. The older people think in terms of getting their children here not just to get an education but to have them remain here.

Miss Isaason and Miss Van Arsdale found that roads were better in Germany than in other countries, especially the Autobahn road which is similar to our Pennsylvania turnpikes.

Since Miss Isaason is interested in plays and dramatics, they planned to go to some plays. In Dublin, they saw the Abbey Players, a world famous group, in a "first night" performance. After the curtain call the author came out and spoke briefly. Besides several plays in London, they attended an outdoor opera in Augeburg. An interesting performance of Shakespeare's 'Twelfth Night'.

Vetter Home Is New Home Cottage

A new Home Management House has been purchased from Herman R. Vetter for the Home Economics department of CISC. The house, as yet unoccupied, has a very excellent location at 1161 Main street, across from the college campus. The large house has nine rooms, three baths, a recreation room and an en suite porch.

"The girls in the Home Economics department will plan the furnishings and do the necessary refinishing and upholstering. The former Home Economics house, better known as Sins Cottage, is to be moved to make room for the new library."

The Vetter family will vacate the Main street house on or before March 1 and at that time a group of Home Economics students will begin living there, with Miss Bita Younan, chairman of the department, in charge.
