Summer Field Trip to Tour Western Lands

Horace Greeley once said, "The west, young man, go west." This year will be no exception to one delegation under the direction of Robert S. Lewis and North Carolina's Kenneth, is following his advice.

Twenty-two days will be spent traveling from June 21 until July 11. A week's preparation and two weeks' exploration are required for the trip which gives six college credits. Summer school starts on June 15 and ends July 22.

Tour Black Hills

Starting out from Stevens Point, the bus will travel to Missoula, Montana, where members of the tour will visit Mount Rushmore, a granite cliff from which is carved the heads of four former presidents. From here they go on to Cheyenne, Wyoming, and Denver, Colorado. Here they'll attempt to experience what life is like in the Black Hills in the Rocky Mountains, and other areas often referred to as "The Garden of the Gods." Will Rogers and the Royal Gorge will be next on the agenda.

When they get to Laramie, Wyoming, Mr. Lewis hopes to hold a class at the State University where Dr. Clarence Jayne, dean of the summer session, there, to teach on "Ceremonial Dances of the Sioux."

Will Visit Yellowstone

The last stop will be Yellowstone, where the tour will leave on a class tour to Rock Springs, Wyoming, and then to Grand Teton National Park.

College Organizations - Elect New Officers

Tim Gamma Beta sorority elected six new officers for the second semester at a recent meeting held at the home of Miss Gladys Van Arsdale, a sorority advisor.

Barbara Nelson is the new president, other officers are: Mary Brattinacher, vice-president; Lynette Gless, recording secretary; Mary Burwinkle, corresponding secretary; Helen Landren, treasurer, a hold-over officer.

Barbara Nelson, Charisawon, secretary; Loy Brennan, press representative; Hollis Willoughby, representative; Eleanor Curtis, interfraternity representative; and Betty Kasurow, historian.

Assisting hostess was Miss Cecilia Winkler, adm. assistant.

Omegas Mu Chi sorority installed its new officers at the home of Sally Bishoff on Tuesday evening, January 20. Norma Walser, chaplain; Mildred Heison; vice-president, Sharon Buton, recording secretary; Ruth Raas; corresponding secretary, Jo Jervis; historian, Judy Clayton, press representative, Cee Gilbert, treasurer; Alice Chappelle, chaplain, Diane Altheben, Past-Regent, a hold-over officer.

Officers serving the second semester of a year term are treasurer, Jean Reeder; assistant treasurer, Pat Richa; alum secretary, Betty Cross; and secretary representative, Sarah Conner.

The honorary music fraternity, Alpha Kappa Rho, recently elected new officers for the second semester: President, Fred Stephaniak; vice-president, Frederick Puchner; secretary, Jeanette Needham; and treasurer, Jeanne Fort.

New officers for the Norman club will take office at the next meeting. The Norman club meeting will be held in the home of Miss Lillian Grossmeier; president, Jim Beshoff; secretary, Grace Collard, and treasurer, Jeanne Fort.

Summer Field Trip to Tour Western Lands

On July 2 and 4, the party is scheduled to be at Yellowstone National Park.

The group will return through the western country of St. Mary and Fargo, North Dakota, to the iron mines of Butte and Virginia, Minn., and to the ore docks of Duluth and Superior. From here the fields of travelers will journey to Stevens Point.

The exclusive, excluding meals, is $85 for the trip. For further information concerning the trip inquire at Mr. Lewis office.

CSC Will Play Host To High School for Annual Band Clinic

Between June 4 and 8 high school students and band directors are expected from Central Wisconsin and beyond to this Saturday, January 14, for the annual band clinic to be held at CSC. The college band, under the direction of Peter J. Michelson, will play the state festival music selections in classes A, B, C, and D.

Several former band members have been invited to play in the program. Among them are Fred Pavely, Beaver Dam; Marjorie Kohler, Weaumac; Raymond Rosow, Ahmen, Necoiee, Buss. Port Edwards; William Neumeier, Mosine, High School, Fort. Portage, Lora Valla, Park Falls; Jack Perry, Winneconne; James Welches, Plainfield, Mrs. Lee Miller, Stevens Point; Carman Allen, Abbotsford; John Pflug, Fort Edwards; Victor Lee, Thorp; John Klein, Menomonee Falls; Joe Wisco, Adams-Friendship; Walter Hoogestad, Mosinee.

Ed Wotruba, Stevens Point, and Rodger Horng, Wisconsin Rapids, are also invited, although they are not graduates.

The program will begin at 9:30 a.m. A noon luncheon will be served in the visiting school's bands in the band, with CSC students as hosts. The luncheon co-chairmen are James Blain, brighton and Nancy Court.

At 3 p.m., the noon will be held until all the numbers are completed.

NOTICE

Because of semester exams and the annual band clinic, the next issue of the Periodontist will not be published until February 12 (Edison's Birthday).

Coming Assembly to Present Ceremonial Dances of Indian Tribes

Registration Plans and Course Changes Stated

Dr. Quincy Doudna, dean of administration, announces that Monday, February 2, and Tuesday, February 3, will be open for registration for the second semester.

There have been some course changes. Freshman physical education for both men and women will now meet two times instead of three times a week. This is necessitated by the lack of adequate gym facilities and a need to offer physical education minors more courses.

President William C. Hansen will teach a class in School Administration next semester if there is sufficient demand for it. The class, which will meet twice a week, is for those who have had teaching experience.

Miss Rita Youngman, director of home economics, has reported that the regular junior or senior class in housing and housing has now been changed to "Housewifery" and offered for sophomores. This semester the housing class will include family finances and home management. Home economics girls will also receive credit for living in the new Home Management residence hall headed to the next semester. They will meet to March 6.

The following changes in the times table have also been announced, due to the great number of conflicts students were experiencing. Art 212, "History of Art," will be held at 8:00 a.m. in room 112; Geography 111 will be held at 10:00 a.m. in room 211; History 121 will be held at 2:10 p.m., Th.; Home Ec 128 will be held at 2:45 p.m., W., P.

"La CSC" Night Club To Open on February 7

Come one, come all - Delight yourself at "La CSC" night club, the newest offering of Central State College of State College. Make your reservations now for the grand opening on February 7 at P. J. Jacoby Gym. The gala is last from 6 to 9 p.m.

Those four glorious hours will be filled with non-stop entertainment, thoroughly. They will be filled with music, dancing, comic条, coffee, and the melodious strains of Monスター Rouss.

Despite thirst, hard and short our own CSC stocks meagerly in the snow which surrounds it. Winter or summer, rain, shine or glaze, the glory of the old administration building still shines on our newer editions.

Laubin to Appear on February 5

The presentation of ancient American Indian ceremonial dances by Reginald and Gladys Laubin on Thursday, February 5, at 8 p.m. in the CSC auditorium, will spotlight the 11th calendar of events.

The Laubins have just returned from a European tour in which they appeared in various capitals from London to Paris to Rome. They have recognized the world over as America's foremost interpreters of Indian dances. Besides being acclaimed by the New York Times, the Laubins are endorsed by staffs of national museums and the Department of Indian affairs.

Lived Among Sioux

In order to gain perception in their dances the Laubins have lived among the Sioux at Standing Rock, S. Dak., where the Dakota division of the Sioux adopted them. Since then the Laubins have been referred to as being "more Indian than Indian." The Laubins are confident that they couldn't dance like the Indian unless they thought alike. They found in the ceremonies of the warrior and hunting tribes the inspiration for their dances. Today they are lived among the Crow Indians in Montana. Here they have been received in the Red Lake reservation near North McLeod, participated in their ceremonies, and danced with the Indians.

The Laubins, arrayed in full, colorful regalia, are a breathtaking sight. As they prance and twist and chant, one seems to become intoxicated with their beauty. Their performance will be an unforgettable one.

Robert S. Lewis, chairman of the CSC assembly committee, reminds all students that seats available after 7:45 o'clock will be filled by people.

PLAYING

Bearded Men All Ready For Woodchoppers Ball

Those heavily bearded men running around the halls of CSC are not escaped convicts but are merely getting prepared for the Woodchoppers Ball to be held at the "Stevens Point School gym on February 2 from 9 until 12 o'clock.

Dancing and the added feature of a floor show will be part of the evening's entertainment.

The tickets which are purchased at the advance sale are $1 per couple. Those bought at the door will be $1.50 and single tickets are 65 cents.

Every man and gal in school is invited to attend Alpha Kappa Lambda's big shindig on the Monday night of February 2.

FAMILIAR FACES

This week's familiar face is a local boy, Frank Wesley, of the famous musical Wesley family. Frank is a senior at Lewiston High School and major and music minor.

Frank lives just two houses away from his fraternity house. His roommates are Primo and Floyd. Frank has four sisters — Maryanne, a junior at Stonetown University, Mary, a sophomore at P. J. Jacobs High School, Tootsie, a seventh grader at St. Stephen's school, and little Peggy, who is a kindergartner at the Baptist Church.

Frank is a member of the Central State Pointer. He has one brother, Joe, a sophomore at Lewiston High School. Joe is that member of the Wesley family who has the most talent apart from Frank, excluding Peggy. Is able to play one or more musical instruments. Last but certainly not least, this is Frank's second year of being headmaster at Badger High School with 42 young, blossoming musicians under his watchful eye.

He is also choir director at St. Philip's Church in Lewiston and church organist. In fact, he is a member of Sigma Tau Delta, an honorary English club.

Frank is a member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity, Sigma Chi, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon. He is a member of the Student Senate. Last year he was president of the college band.

In his free time (how do you have free time with that many things going on?), he likes playing sports, sports, and "this and that." He also enjoys spending time with his brothers.

He answered, "Pet peeve? Gee, I didn't catch one I use too much." As for a girl, "Can't afford one."

Frank's immediate future will be either a kahki uniform or a band director's garb.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF RADIO WORKSHOP TOLD

In case you wonder what goes on at the lower regions where the Radio Workshop holds forth, it is this: to inform you that they do accomplish things.

During the first semester, the C.S. Radio Workshop produced 21 programs which were broadcast throughout Wisconsin. Twenty-five of these programs were broadcast over the station of WTA, the student station at St. Norbert. The rest were broadcast over the station of WIPA, the student station at St. Norbert.

The lectures, which were these actually given by Mr. Knutzen in his course on American Literature, were heard in this area on WIPA, WLIW, and WMAQ.

Also produced was a series of programs designed to better acquaint the people of Central Wisconsin with the C.S. The "Know Your Campus" programs were heard in the local state stations, WISPT, and on WITL. The following programs were heard in the local state stations, WISPT, and on WITL. A "new series of program entitled "The Musical Album" is now being broadcast each Sunday at 1 o'clock on WIPA, Wisconsin. The series may be broadcast over other stations.

All workshop productions are tape recorded.

Student director of the workshop is David Silverman and assistants are Jim Randlett and Jim Stetto. Also in charge of the workshop is Frank Mauro.

Future Teachers of America Reorganized

Future Teachers of America, F.T.A., an organization to acquaint the students with the teaching profession before they get out into the world and try to find a teaching position, has been reorganized here at C.S. at its meeting this Tuesday evening, election of officers was held and the following were elected: Mary Brittisher, president; Don Benn, vice president; Mrs. Bax, treasurer; Arthur Pak, secretary; and Alene Meister, librarian.

Plains are being made for future programs. Those students who want to join F.T.A. should contact Butterfield in his room or the Training School adviser, for the group, or any of the officers. All prospective teachers are invited to join.

Three conference teams and one lone foe will furnish opposition for the Pointers in CSC's basketball season opener. The three will be faced with second half of the 1952-53 schedule. The first three contests will be at home - 1 Jan. as they entertain Platteville, 24 Jan. Lawrence, 28 Jan. and 2 Feb. Milwaukee.

The Pointers are in top form as they get set to meet Whitewater on Feb. 7. Platteville is the only one of the three which has not been up against the Pointers this season.

Prairieville provided a toughie to the Pointers by giving them a little extra incentive, the team which helped the Pointers win the Big Ten conference first place.

The Pointers have lost five out of the five games the Pointers have played at their home court since before the first game of the 1952-53 season. The Pointers hope to make their home court stronger in the game against Whitewater.

Travel to Whitewater
On February 7 the Purple and Gold will journey to Whitewater to meet the Pointers in a conference play game. It was a 4-0 Job last game as the Pointers were defeated by a 62-63 point spread.

Coach Quanz and his charges will be fighting to salvage their season's record before their present 3-4 record, to be sure. They will have to try just a little harder in the next few games they could be right on top with the best of them.

High School Debate Meet Here February

The Wisconsin High School Forensic association will hold its district debate meet here on Saturday, February 7. Director is A. P. Wiekland, superintendent of schools at Waukesa.

The program will begin with a general meeting in the morning at which President William C. Hansen will give a word of welcome. This will be followed by two rounds of debate. A speech dinner at Nelson Hall is scheduled next, with three of the participating schools giving dinner speeches, as was done last year.

The final rounds and decisions will be held in the afternoon.

Brookings Is Assigner

Lehman M. Burroughs will act as chairman of the debate, with college students assisting. About 15 students interested in forensic work will serve as room chairmen and timekeepers, and will help with other duties.

Tentatively about 14 schools in this district have signified their intention of entering the debate contest.

The schedule is set up ahead of time with symbols or letters. Each team draws a letter to know when and where it will appear. The judges, CIC Faculty member chosen by Mr. Wiekland, will assign letters to determine which groups they are to judge.

 Debate in Classrooms

The affirmative teams will remain in specific classrooms and the negative teams visit travel room to room, debating.

The teams selected will then represent this district in the sectional tournament to be held here February 14. E. C. Marquardt, Wauwat, will be chairman of the sectional debate.

Debaters from the central schools, Oakshen, La Crosse, Eau Claire and Stevens Point districts will participate in the sectional tournament.

Inquiring Reporter Asks:

How About Intercollegiate Boxing?

The boys interviewed by this week’s inquiring reporter all answered in the affirmative to the question, “What do you think about having intercollegiate boxing at CSC?”

The few girls interviewed did not seem to think it such a wonderful idea. The following opinions were uncovered:

Mark Schommer: “I’d be the first one not to go out.”

Bill Schellenberg: “I’d go out right behind him.”

John Anderson: “I think it would be a good idea if they could get enough boys out. A lot of guys around here are in the golden gloves already.”

Gene Webber: “A great idea because so many guys around here like to box.”

Jerry Mundelnski: “I’d like to see it because it puts a guy’s body in good condition and any sport that does this is tops with me.”

Elmer Fox: “I like boxing because it sharpens a guy’s coordination and makes him more mentally alert.”

Rita Czerniak: “I don’t think it’s a good idea. As it is, the boys spend a great deal of time and energy on too many other activities. Their studies would benefit from those few precious minutes.”

Sally Connor: “What is it?”

Jeanette Biver: “It depends . . . it would be fun to watch, though!”

Margie Benson: “Yes, do have it. It sounds like fun.”

Mary Lund and Shirley Sonnenberg: “We definitely do not think that intercollegiate boxing should be. It is too barbaric!”

College Theater to Hold Play Tryouts

“Harvey” will be given in May. (Who is Harvey? Just wait ‘til you see!!! him.) Tryouts for this delightful three-act comedy will be held the first week of the new semester. The play will be directed by Leland M. Burroughs, head of the speech department.

Anyone in college that is interested is eligible to take part. College Theater members and other students who have had dramatic theory in school will be called upon to help Mr. Burroughs in coaching and producing the play.
