Initial Program By Orchesis Will Be Presented Here on April 7

"On with the dance, let joy be unconquered," will be a quote quite apropos for the dance program on campus, appears in the program announced for April 7, at 6 p.m., in the college auditorium.

Many members have contributed freely to college programs in the music and dramatic fields, and their activities reflect the high quality as well as variety of the program responses.

The first of a dual special article program, and planning and putting into action the preparation of the program, a dance to be assembled selected to suit as to suit individuals personalities and capacities. The program varied in mood, interest, and character, and the students have those also to help convey mood and feeling of the dance.

The fourth annual "Dramtique" with a festive spirit with a dance based on the "St. Louis Exposition," written by Paul St. Bert, Ben Bergelin, and Garland Grey, Pauline Visoli, Doris Varney, Jackie Vietor, and Doris Mose.

Betty Peterson, Elaine Eskritt and Shirley Klimowski will announce the selections and numbers, as well as serve as offstage directors.

"In an Old Dutch Garden" is the theme chosen for the 1941 Junior Dance Program, a formal dance program, consisting of Shirley Bergelin, Doris Mose, Dorothy Ger- ner, Dave Silverman and Diane Self submitted this suggestion to members of the Junior Class at a meeting.

The Prom will be held in the gymnatorium of P. J. Jacobs High School. The dance will be "golden" and gold will be the dominant color. A prize dance will be awarded.

A classical interlude of more serious nature will be provided by a solo dance by Gwen Ostrander, presented to the melody of "Valse Triste."

The finale, a take-off on college life, will be the performance of the Herbs, consisting of Mary Lou Schutt and Dot Silverman, who will interpret the music of "Monte Cristo." The Herbs will be paired off with the student groups and each promenade will be featured by the Herbs, one couple.

"Skiing" and "Valse Triste" will be featured in the dance under the direction of P. J. Jacobs Band. Parents and students are invited to attend.

Juniors Pick Theme, Committees For Prom

The POINTER

Familiar Faces

FELIX SCHWADLICH

This Steventon Point man came in, relaxed in a chair, and a slight sigh escaped him when he raised the question from the Pointer Interview, "Fred, not the Hare, but how's the new corn grown out?"

"It's just finished, but I'm not tired, I like it very well. It was not easy to get: it's hard to sell your stuff. Some of the students can really compete, though."

Fred was born in Point and grew up here. Since he is in the seventh grade, he is not going to the "bands" going to school. (Now he knows the difference between the city streets and sidewalks.)

Scout work takes up a great deal of his time. Fred has his own troop - "Boy Scouts of Point," under the leadership of Father Church. During the summer he works at Camp Chilca, near Santa Ana, and at the Sunset Lake, as assistant scout master. "We have a cabin on Sunset Lake and I love it there. I have a great fun to camp. The canoe, I can say enthusiastically."

Last summer he accompanied the National Boy Scout Jamboree at Santa Ana. California. "We saw some of the famous movie stars," he mumbled, "and, oh, yes, President Nixon, the girls - what else we saw was Fred, yes, Fred!"

"We went to a church camp at Lake Pointe in South Point's day camp can be hit by the storm," he said. "I tried to do, and could only go early one week. But I am glad now, I spent a few days as a life guard at a Girl Scouts camp. I really enjoyed it, too."

"I will go to Point and to the Sunset Lake. I really enjoyed it."

"I am going to camp at the Point and to the Sunset Lake. I want to go to Point and to the Sunset Lake.

FRED REALY FEEL GREAT ABOUT "NO MONSTERS" WINNING THE STATE BASKETBALL TITLE. BUT CHAMPIONSHIP FIRES PROUDLY IN HIS HEART. "IT'S THE BEST THING THAT HAS HAPPENED IN YEARS," HE SAID.

Registration Flood Hits At CSC, Applications Pour In To Registrar

Gilbert W. Faust, registrar of Wisconsin State College at River Falls, announced yesterday that no more students can be accepted for the 1954 fall term. The announcement followed a flood of applications from high school students of Minnesota, Iowa, California, Wisconsin, and New Jersey.

The registrar held an emergency meeting at Madison on March 27 to set the figure at 150 for the maximum number of students that may be permitted to enroll in the college. Mr. Faust is instructed to place all in excess of this number on a waiting list.

Through the energetic efforts of Miss Rita Youssef and her Home Economics department, applications from over 2,500 senior girls interested in Home Ec have been received, and are being considered for entrance. A special announcement from the office of President William C. Hansen this morning indicated the arrival of over 1,600 applications from University of Wisconsin students who wish to transfer to Central State.

The sudden overwhelming popularity of Central State has the entire faculty and administration puzzled. It is reported that Senator Joseph McCarthy is expected here for an investigation some time next week.

Sidelines

Guess that this would be as good a time as any to put people straight up to the wild rumors about Bob Johnson. After careful investigating, a witness at all games has found reports that the horse was killed by the alligators. Just because he went three games with no football, I don't think there is any reason to jump to conclusions.

Coach Harper stepped us the other day to tell us that one of his track and field events was being cut out. He couldn't remember the name and it didn't take long to check on it. That's the trouble with trackmen — they're record happy.

Bob Ulleberger shot three holes in one. If you believe they were shot on golf, workout. Nice work, Bob, but that kind of week your putting game? Speaking of scores

Flash! Teachers Revolt! New Regime Story Given

"Ardent work is under way here to check the shackles of poverty," that was the warm glow that 8,000 Wisconsin teachers gave in the State Assembly in Madison. They nearly pushed another song through the legislature, but as the green buttons on the voting booth ran red and the final tally showed that over 7 days of serfdom have ended. The minimum salary increase of $5 was 24 cents last but last altered. Not only that, but the teachers also achieved the position on the ratification fees of the state colleges. They are to be held in their hands and the middle-class has indeed scored a victory.

The "new deal" for holders of four degrees is set up in the following manner:

1. The minimum wage is now $5,000 per year instead of $2,500.
2. Married teachers will receive an additional annual stipend of $2,500.
3. Teachers with pets or dogs or cats to feed will receive an annual stipend of $500.
4. Teachers with horses will receive an annual stipend of $50.
5. Teachers with children will receive an annual stipend of $5.

In addition, the new teachers will receive an additional stipend of $5 for every other child on the books.

The new teachers will begin a new career and the school system will be able to receive an annual stipend of $5 for every other child on the books.

Football Schedule Given

The Central State athletic department recently announced the completion of scheduling for the 1954 football season. Seven games are to be played next fall, with Homecoming falling on Sunday, October 10. Because of an unusual number of conflicts no regular conference foes were able to be scheduled so the athletic department had to do the best it could. The schedule is as follows:

Sept. 21: Kim Street Ladies Athletic, Sept. 28: Southern California
Oct. 2: Army of Potomac Rest Home
Oct. 18: Notre Dame (Homecoming)
Oct. 17: Milwaukee-Denver
Oct. 24: Training School Fifth Grade
Oct. 31: Army

In addition, Coach John C. Roberts announced that football practice will begin about a week earlier this year than the usual week before school starts. 1954 practices will get started on Monday, May 3. The reason for the earlier start is that Coach Roberts would like to use a new play that he has the mental capacity of most of his boys.

Before closing this column we’d like to get a thrill from high school basketball team. Not only did they exceed all others in prowess but they proved a thrilling example of sportsmanship all the way through in their 1922-23 championship. Here’s a toast to you. Congratulations to the Indiana State High School Champs!

Willinger And Malenkov Here at College

As Assembly Committee announced dates

The Committee is charged with selecting and obtaining assembly programs for Central State college students in day announced the Spring list of programs. A beautiful group of selection is on tap for students during the next two months. The highlights of the list are:

A stirring lecture by Dr. Kranz, F. B., chairman of the college, on "The Economic Structure and Its Effects on the Nuptial Tribe of South Africa during the 17th Century." To add to the interest of the program, Dr. Willinger will bring him a set of very interesting T-shirts which he will pass around during the lecture.

A free will offering will be taken in with the proceeds of this lecture to be used by Dr. Willinger to buy a slide-projector.

On April 31, the college will be

The other drunk said, "Don’t ever go up there. There’s no driver!"

Poor Old Charles

Has Ups And Downs, Says Shaft Gets Him

The greatest of all the young man’s fancy turns to — climbing up.

And some young ladies too, said Charles L. Herman, tending toward a sentiment about a situation which carried upward around an elevator stall.

Herman is custodian of the Washburn student center, a 50-story, 13-story, and he keeps an eye on us with something that is a delight to any young man.

This thing has six stories, white marble shaft, 555 feet high, drew a record 1,012, 269 people on the first week running lower this year.

But this thing has been somewhat embarrassing. We had a fire the other day in the student center, and Herman said the whole incident was partly because economic troubles were keeping more people at home, and partly because of some bad tempered television sets.

The Family Man Of Central State: A Proud And Happy Man Is He

By Eleanor Schram

A kind word, a quick twinkle of his eyes, a ready smile — all of these are the characteristics of JERRY, the son of Mr. and Mrs. FOSTER. These characteristics, while not unusual, are not universal, although not uncommon. They are not found in every young man, but JERRY does have them, and he is working on his degree, and he is married, and he has five children. That does make him a pretty good man, doesn't it?

JERRY doesn't think he is so unusual, though. In fact, he thinks he's quite normal, but let's start at the beginning. He started from Marshfield high school in 1946. We were married that summer. "If he didn't offer the date and we were afraid to ask, just imagine what it would be like," Mrs. FOSTER said. "I'm glad he married me." A cool autumn in the fall of '46 JERRY enrolled here in the Secondary Department of the university. His first school sessions later the Army re-called him, and he spent several months serving in artillery reconnaissance on the continent of Europe. For Quick Service in Radio Dispatched Cabs

Band Plans Concerts

The Central State Band will play two concerts on Friday, April 2, at Green Hall. The first concert is planned for Greensgill with a variety program. The second concert at the Loyal will be at 8:00 p.m. The band plans to leave about 5:30 and return at 10:00 in the afternoon.

An Inside Look At A "Long, Long Tailor" Reveals Many Comforts, Some Problems

By Eleanor Schram

The home of Miss Sidone Andrea, industrial arts instructor, is really a RoHo-Home trailer. It is presently occupied by Miss Andrea's friend who is addressed as 101 Union Street. She has a trailer and a "long, long tail." She says, "It can't be beat!

Dinner is quite a production. By 5 foot 10 living room, a bedroom with a full kitchen, a bathroom, living room, four closets and a kitchenette. Miss Andrea is married, so she has a washer and dryer, a refrigerator, a range, and two ashtrays. Miss Andrea has a standing warrant, a standing oven, a main and a dishwasher, a main sink for the laundry room. There is no one to clog the garbage, though, and Miss Andrea's electric stove is turned on high. Storage space for furs, things such as her trunk and golf clubs, is another of the advantages of the trailer. Miss Andrea gives an open office party too, but it is crammed with four or five people in the trailer, and she can't imagine what she would do with eight or ten. She would love to have an open office party too, but she has to make her party to the main station for some time because Miss Andrea doesn't think she could afford it. Convertible Dodecs could pull the 7,500 pound trailer.
Quendt Announces Tentative Slate Lists

Central State's spring athletic season has been given a general hint as to how this year's competition will be, according to latest announcement by the athletic department last week.

All of the permanent dates set thus far for the track, tennis and golf squads are listed as away-from-campus contests. However, several home tilts have been arranged and a few of these will be held at Wisconsin State at Lawrence, Madison and Stevens Point, respectively.

For a good possibility that Point will host a county meet to see their favorites in action sometime in the early spring, the tennis squad will play the specialty sport even though the college is not sufficient to warrant a full home schedule, according to recent speculation by this writer.

Four outdoor track meets have been announced as of the present, contests set for the major spring sports included a duel meet with Lawrence Saturday, April 24, a Juneau meet at Mill Saturday, May 1, and a Stevens Point-Oshkosh-Whitewater triple header on Saturday, May 15.

Beginning May 22 will find the trackmen at the State Meet, which this year will be contested at Milwaukee.

Three tentative track dates include a double头部 with Milwaukee's Wisconsin State, home a duel with St. Norbert's, and a triangular at Eau Claire.

Dr. Bernard Wiercz's tennis squad has also set a date for an out-of-state meet at Oshkosh Saturday, April 24.

A track meet at Oshkosh is set as the next home date, May 1, and the Pointers at Lawrence Saturday, May 8, will find the Pointer squads tied to a home meet to travel to Whitewater.

The track team will be held at Milwaukee, May 22. Two weeks from now, listed one Michigan Tech, the other against St. Norbert's to be held here.

The tennis squad will begin their war with a duel contest at Lawrence Saturday, May 8, and a meet at Whitewater set for May 15. The Pointers will close their schedule Saturday, May 29, at Lawrence.

In addition, letters requesting admission to the college have been sent to Eau Claire, La Crosse and Ripon, with results pending.

Two Way Tie For First

Home Ec Show Plovs To Capacity Crowds

Eleven hundred persons, many more than had been expected, filled the Central State college auditorium for the two performances of the home economics department's style show, "We'll Be Seeing You," presented Thursday afternoon and evening. The visitors included high school students and their teachers, from many high schools in Wisconsin, all domestics, home economics, townpeople, parents of the home eco-nons and faculty.

This year's show began at 1:15 p.m. with registration of visiting students. The highlight of the affair was the style show, cleverly pre- sented on WMAQ TV on stage. It highlighted, besides the lovely products of the sewing classes, many of the highlights of typical campus life. Ann Branch acted as narrator. The show was introduced by Chlie Brody, president of the Home Economics club, the sponsoring group of the entire open house program. Miss Brody introduced President C. Hansen to the visitors before the show began. Mr. Hansen welcomed the audience to the campus.

Home sessions on college life, ex- hibits and tours followed the show. Refreshments were served the visi- tors at the Home Management house before they left to home.

Demonstrations and exhibits re- lated to home economics were shown simultaneously throughout the de- partment after the style show. In the pink kitchen, Joanne Wiker and Beverly Diver demonstrated the making of clothing rooms and other parts of the home; in the kitchen, Calmar; in the dining room, Mrs. Collen; in the downstairs,cloth rooms; and in the upstairs, the fireplace, laundry. The dormitory, cooking rooms, and classrooms all had their displays. Superintendents from various places were present from P. J. Jacobs High school and from St. Joseph's academy here in Beaver Point.

Out of town groups came from Seymour, Menasha, New Holstein, Ripon, Wautoma, Monocoe, Lena, Menasha, Oshkosh, Algoma; Mrs. Colleen Schwietzer, Mrs. Molly Ellington, Miss Fern Horn, Miss An- n Turner, Miss Joyce, and Mrs. Ann Jansen, Miss Mary Jane Brown, Mrs. Phyllis Pope and Mrs. Phoebe Lasa.

Winners Selected in Speech Contest Here

Forensic students of the district who will participate in state compe- tition were selected Saturday at a district high school speech contest of the Wisconsin Forensic association held at Central State college.

Some 246 high school students, winners in league contests, took part in the event to represent more than 100 schools. "A" winners in Satur- day's contest will take part in the state contest at Madison on Saturday.
