Junior Thespians To Perform Here
As CSC Plays Host To High Schools

By Pat Scharmer

The district annual competition of the Wisconsin High School Forensics Association was held on the campus of Columbia University this Friday afternoon, which means it was the turn of the directors of the direction of the chairman, A. D. Windle, superintendent of schools in Nekoosa.

Leah L. Barsenge is chairman of the competition, which was held in the Hollister green rooms. The competition is the critical judge for that contest. The same faculty and students will judge both the annual competition and the national competition.

Winners of the "A" ratings at the sectional competition will be invited to the district competition to be held in the near future at Madison.

The program on Friday afternoon will include: "A" vocal open, "A" instrumental, "A" instrumental, and "A" open. There will also be a collection taken on behalf of the program.

By Saturday, the time, contestants will have arrived, and the competition will be in full swing. The main events will be in the Hollister green rooms.

Annual Sco Hop To Help Child Center

A "Sco Hop" will be sponsored by the Central State Student Council on the evening of Wednesday, April 12, at 8:00 p.m., for the benefit of the Wisconsin Child Center in Sparta.

Crosby is general chairman, Dr. Mary Walker, Dr. John Smith, and Mrs. Quincy Doudna, and Dr. and Mrs. Robert and E. Gorman will chaperone.

Unsung Heroes Help As "The Show Must Go On"

Good acting and good directing all adds up to a very successful entertainment last night. From each community school who made the trip, we gathered the three-act plays. The students left the Wisconsin Child Center in Sparta.

To those who work "back stage," whether professional or amateur, there because they want to; they like that kind of extra-curricular activity. There is just as much talent (of its own kind) as there is on the school stage behind the footlights.

The school and grand hops have been busy ever since the event to get the tickets sold, getting the ads, and the scenery and the costumes and the music, and in order. It is quite a job of gathering all the gals, selling the tickets, which in turn go to make a production more "Fin-ished."

Pat Maliek, Nancy Martin, Kathleen Guim, John Gooble, Alene Biddle, Norma Swanson, and Steve Smith constituted this crew.

For those the plays last night said you didn't recognize even the slightest detail of "The Young poets" is another term for the Rosellie Smith, Margie Gerhard, Sharron King, Mrs. Lyle Kjelef and Virginia Jensen.

Theaying being what it was, the selection of the dashing suits was "dag-up." by Ellen Biddle, Jean Thenia, and Arline Golemski. Darlene Jorgen was in charge of publicity.

Forsake The Deer For A Night And Pursue Your Dears Like A Knight

By Pat Siedel

A pasty fairwell complete with rapunzel, fairytale castles, and gold promises to enchant all those attending. The program will be held at Deltell Hall on Saturday evening, December 30, from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock.

On behalf of the Freyhunde group, all audience to all faculty members and students are invited for this year's Freshman's.
P.S. I Hate You?

One can be rather dense or pretty obtuse (perhaps in love) in order to believe that the entire CSC student foment some definite viewpoint on every controversial situation that occurs or develops around college life.

Ball sessions in dorms, in corridors, or over cups of coffee develop a wealth of friendship and a wealth of problems. What we're trying to get at in our usual round the bush murmur is how the CSC student feels about it all. We're just trying to get at the bottom of it in the Pointe. We'd like to hear from all you readers (and of those of you that just look at the pictures too) and find out what your opinions are on the situation.

If you're the shy type—or just like to remain out of the limelight—let your mail sorter know your letter's source. If you're the writer type, or if you're a group of like-minded friends, let your co-chairman of the program committee know. Plans are now underway for a Cabin Fever Committee, and the next meeting. Eva Lou Describes California Visit

Lists Guest Appearance On TV's "This is Your Life" As Top Thrill

To be able to spend a week in California at someone else's expense is the dream that almost everyone desires. Eva Lou Clowson, a freshman from this campus, did just that last week. Eva Lou, one of the original Woodrow "Wavy" Paranoids, went out to California as a guest of "This is Your Life" program and appeared on that television show when it honored Doctor Kate Newcomb.

Eva Lou, selected to represent the group as president, traveled to California with seven school people from Woodrow who were to appear on the surprise program. The show was hosted at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel, and, after arriving on Monday, spent Tuesday sightseeing. On Wednesday Eva Lou and her friends attended a football game for day long rehearsals. The show was aired Thursday, and as was told exactly what to say, Eva Lou. After the program, which was a complete surprise to Dr. Kate, they were all treated to a party at the hotel by Dr. Kate, Woodrow.

Eva Lou expressed the thought of the main character of the show, Elizabeth, on what it would look like. Eva Lou was a member of the group who attended the "Truth or Consequences," "My Song," and "That's Life." On Friday of this week, she and her friends attended a fair at the Lasky Ranch.

Vots Will Present Oriental Travelogue

Anyone desiring a free round trip ticket to Korea via California and Japan is invited to attend the 9:30 assembly on Thursday morning, December 2. Two CSC veteran nurses, Doris Bigelis and Daniel Liberg, will be at this time, and a college gift to them will be presented at an assembly.

Brott will present a travelogue of his trip through China, narration, which will take the audience back in time along with him on his trip from the U. S. to the Korean Theater of Operations. Joanne Lasky, the trip will be told in pictures.

GOOD NEWS: The possibility of us having a "name band" on our campus this year is looking more promising. Don't be surprised if bands arrives with us soon. Keep your fingers crossed.

Good Deal Brings Success. The test runs for next year's band calendar has been a tremendous success, according to Robert D. "Merrydown" Smither. "After the first few weeks of practice, things are looking up," he said. "We'll have a good band next year." The band is expected to perform at various events throughout the year, including football games and concerts.

Dr. Nelson was very pleased with the new band, saying it was "probably the best band I've ever heard." He added, "I wish we could have started it earlier." The band is expected to perform at various events throughout the year, including football games and concerts.

The band's first performance will be on November 4th, during the football game against the University of Kansas. The band will be directed by Dr. Nelson, who will also conduct the orchestra. The concert will feature a variety of music, including popular songs and arrangements of classical compositions.

In conclusion, the band has a promising future. With the arrival of a new director and the addition of talented musicians, the band is expected to achieve great success in the coming year. The students and faculty are eagerly awaiting the first performance, which promises to be a memorable event.

There was a clean sweep of their match with Miller's High Life and designated, as Expected lead from the erstwhile leaders. As improved Parkerson's team, this week, a notch and currently shares second place with Miller's, who are leading marginally, while the swarming Yellowstone five is just a few pins behind.

In the individual statistics department, is that Parkerson's has a 151 single game and a 515 series. Dick Hinler had a 191, and fast-ball John Ives took third honors with a 175 output. All maintained his 165 average and retained his number one position with Bob Capus and Loy Heath, with identical average, are his closest competitors.

Open Season Here Nov. 23

Coach Hal Haund's 1954-55 cap squad will open its season against Milton college on Tuesday, November 23, at the P. J. Jacobs High School gym.

Quandt has a nucleus of five letter-winners from last year. They are seniors John Amburgy, Carl Haberly, and Ken Roloff, and sophomores Jerry Voss and Orr Keong. The loss of seven lettermen from last year's squad will definitely be felt by the squad, but the Pointers usually have little trouble with the Milton cagers. Last year the Quandtmen triumphed Milton 75-51.

The CIC cagers will meet Northland college of Ashland Friday, November 19, at the P. J. Jacobs gym in their second home game of the season.

Last year Coach Haund Quandt cleared the bench and used 20 players as he saw his cagers truncate the Normansmen 79-64 in the season opener. Although we know little of the strength of Northland it should prove to be a good test.
