

Eddy Howard Concert Nears With A Promise Of Variety In Program

By Ginny Bricco

You've heard him on the air! You've heard him on records! Now see him and hear him in person! January 17, Monday evening, at 8 p.m. in the college auditorium everyone can have the opportunity to see and hear the nationally famous orchestra of Eddy Howard.

It is a long and complicated story, but the Student Council has succeeded in arranging a date with this top-notch orchestra to come to Central State. This will be the first time students have had a name band at this college. Eddy Howard and his orchestra are on tour and will stop here for only a one night engagement.

An evening of outstanding listening and entertainment is guaranteed by Howard and his music makers. As the leader of the orchestra that has won more music polls than any other band in the field of entertainment today, Eddy Howard will present favorites such as "Be Anything," "Rickety Rickshaw Man," "Sin," "To Each His Own," and many other Howard record hits.

Eddy does not have a girl soloist, but has a male trio handling some of the vocals, instead of doing all of them himself. Besides singing and directing, this 37 year old maestro also writes music. It is his dream to write a Broadway production some day.

Eddy, his wife Jane, son Biff and daughter Lynn, have their home at Winnetka, Illinois. There they can spend only about three months out of the year. The other nine months the show is on tour. Golf and tennis are Eddy's favorite sports. He collects pipes, but doesn't smoke. His favorite male vocalist is Bing Crosby, favorite actress, Olivia de Havilland and favorite girl singer, Margaret Whiting. These are just a few glimpses of the man behind the name of Eddy Howard.

An opportunity such as this doesn't come often, so the Student Council is proud to have obtained this name band for the students to hear and see. In order to raise money they sold Historical Society calendars, and by selling tickets will break even, except for the money which it cost to have the tickets printed.

This orchestra, which originally cost $1,400 an evening, has agreed to come to CSC for half price; it will cost each student only $1.00 to attend this show. This is probably the only time at which you will ever have the chance to see and hear a leading orchestra at such a low cost. So why not take advantage of it?

Pointer Alums Organize At Meeting Last Night

D. C. Everest High school theater in Rothschild-Schofield was the setting Wednesday, January 12, for a group meeting of CSC alumni in and about Marathon county. The meeting, which was held at 8 p.m., was sponsored by the CSC Public Relations committee, under the chairmanship of Dr. Raymond E. Gotham and the Faculty Alumni Relations committee, with Mrs. Marjorie Kerst, chairman, for the purpose of forming a local organization of CSC alumni in Marathon county. The first group of this type was organized in Waupaca county about a year ago, and this will be the second.

A program was presented under the supervision of Dr. Gotham, who served as program chairman. It opened with community singing led by Miss Patricia Reilly. Miss Reilly also directed the triple trio of the Girls' Glee club as they sang "Oft' in the Stilly Night," "Sourwood Mountain," and "Like as a Father," accompanied by Patricia Giese. A film on CSC activities was shown, and a tour of the high school was included in the program. Dr. Gotham and President William C. Hansen addressed the group.

A social hour followed the election of officers. James Wood, principal of Rothschild school, was chairman of the election.

The Home Economics department of D. C. Everest served dessert to the large group present.

Visitors Touring Local Schools in EBI Program

This week has been designated as Education-Business-Industry week and townspeople of Stevens Point have been invited to visit the college and other local schools. Previously, the program was observed on one day only.

Special efforts are being made this year to get the people of Stevens Point more interested in their schools and better acquainted with them.

A five-man committee has laid the groundwork of plans for the week. Members of the group are A. G. Bostad, principal of P. J. Jacobs High school; Dr. Raymond E. Gotham, director of training and placement at Central State college; Carl Kuklinski, co-ordinator of the Stevens Point Vocational school, representing the vocational school and the parochial schools; Milton C. Sorensen, representing the Stevens Point Chamber of Commerce, and P. M. Vincent, city superintendent of schools.

College visitors will assemble in the dean's office for tours headed by student guides.

Concert Slate Set For 1955-56 Terms

Last November, at a meeting in Milwaukee, program chairman of the nine state colleges and Stout Institute met with Marvin Foster of the University of Wisconsin Bureau of Lectures and Concerts to begin arrangements for a Wisconsin State College circuit.

The chairmen present suggested 35 desirable programs to Mr. Foster with the understanding that he would contact managers and send the resultant figures and report on availability dates to each of the chairmen by Dec. 30, 1954.

Miss Pauline Isaacson, chairman of CSC's assembly committee, who was at the meeting, this week received a telegram from Mr. Foster which said:

"Have excellent list for 1955-56 concerts finally compiled. Exciting celebrity group from dance and music to lecture and art. Have arranged them so that they come one a month beginning October through May. Please hold some dates for the committee until you receive the list."

Library Receives Record Selection; Music Will Be Available To All

By Mary Braatz

If you're a music fan, the following news is just what you've been waiting for. If you're not musically inclined, you may be after reading this piece of news. The college library has completed the arrangements for obtaining a large group of records, those records previously owned by State Radio Station WLBL. These recordings, fine classical music such as that played over the state stations, are in the process of being rearranged and reclassified for student use. When classification has been finished, a card index of the records will be placed in the library. Information about the recordings can be obtained at the reference desk in the main reading room.

Here are a few facts for those of you interested in some music listening along with your sentence structure and Tracheophyta. In the reading room on the first floor, the library has three tables (duo-tables at which two people can listen to records.) Record players and earphones are waiting there for you. You may draw out the recording of your choice at the reference desk and the librarian on duty will show you the mechanisms and location of the equipment. From there on in, the music is yours alone.

There's no time limit on the length of your journey through record-land, but a few little considerations on the listener's part would be appreciated. The library's record players are primarily for serious music, not gushing modern crooners or "folk" music. No polkas smuggled in, remember! Also, the record-playing equipment is extremely sensitive, and most records sound much better when the needle and turntable arm are all in one piece. Then, when you've finished, please return your records to the desk.

The library also has facilities for group listening as far as music is concerned. On the second floor, the library has a music listening room equipped with excellent high fidelity record playing equipment. New furniture has been ordered for this room, regular modern living room furniture guaranteed to provide comfort for the listener. If very large groups would like to have the opportunity of listening to serious music, the library theater is available for their usage, if it is reserved in advance. The music listening room's high fidelity sound can be piped into the library theater. Plans are being made for a series of record concerts for student listening. These concerts will be held three or four times a week during different hours of the day. Varied types of music will be used and all students will be welcome to attend.

Probably few students realize that the library books and records are constantly being added to and that new ones are continually being purchased. Under the direction of the head librarian, Nelis R. Kampenga, the library is building up its stock of fine arts books, especially biographies and music criticisms. New records in micro-groove are also being bought. When the purchases have been completed, CSC will have one of the finest record libraries in the state.

The college library now has new hours, which went into effect January 3, 1955. They are as follows:

THE LIBRARY IS OPEN

Monday - Thursday	8 a.m. - 9 p.m.
Friday	8 a.m. - 4 p.m.
Saturday	9 a.m. - 12 noon

Reserve books are available at the desk for in-the-library use up until one hour before closing time and may be borrowed for home use during that last hour the library is open. Friday is an exception, for books may then be borrowed for week-end use at 2 p.m. Because of this, reserve books are available during the day for all students.

Dance In "Mood Indigo" Setting At The Annual Intersorority Ball

By Pat Sisel

Step into a fantasy of color!! Dance from 9 to 12 o'clock to the mood-provoking music of Russ Nelson at the Intersorority ball to be held at P. J. Jacobs gym on Saturday evening, January 22.

"Mood Indigo", the theme chosen for this year's ball, will be suggested through color and abstraction rather than concrete detail. Varying shades of lavender and blue will be cast upon the dance floor by a color wheel, and a mural across the stage will enhance the dream-world effect. Jan Bergelin is chairman of the decorations committee, and working with her are Ann Stoleson, Marcie Skalski, and Nancy Hedberg.

Open to all coeds and their guests, the Intersorority Ball is a semi-formal planned under the direction of the Intersorority council. General chairman of the dance is Jo Daniel, president of Intersorority council, and assisting her are Dorothy Gerner, Psi Beta Psi, Gladys Lehmann, Tau Gamma Beta, and Cleo Gilbert, Omega Mu Chi.

Chaperones for the evening will be Dr. and Mrs. Warren G. Jenkins, Dr. and Mrs. Bernard F. Wiewel, and Dr. and Mrs. Frank W. Crow.

The following committees are working to make this dream-world a reality: Tickets, Donna Trickey, chairman, Dolores Paiser, Mary Bartelt, and Virginia Bricco; programs, Marge Schmahl, chairman, Nancy Peterson, Darlene Schimke, and Lois Langfeldt; orchestra, Jan Schellin; chaperones, Carol Holt and Shirley Klimowitz; publicity, Dorothy Gerner, Chloe Brody, Rosemary Kriedler, Judy Clayton, Joan Thimke, Jan Bergelin, Mary Ann Smith, Charlotte and Leona Forth.

Tickets may be purchased for $1.80 on January 19, 20, and 21.

Preceding the dance, each of the sororities will hold a formal dinner to which guests will be invited.

The Hot Fish Shop will be the setting for the Tau Gam dinner and Mary Ann Smith and Nancy Court are serving as co-chairmen in planning the affair. Assisting them are the following committees:

Program: Lolly Schlack, chairman, Leona Forth, Marcie Skalski, Dolores Paiser; decorations, Elaine Eskritt, chairman, Connie Weber, Charlotte Forth, Claire Mueller; invitations, Arlene Golomski, chairman, Luella Cram, Doris Moss; clean-up, Charlene Kabat, chairman, Ellen Eide, Jan Schroeder. Toastmistress for the evening will be Lou Breyman.

Omega Mu Chi will hold its formal dinner this year at the Meadows. Chairman of the dinner is Judy Clayton and committees are as follows: Invitations, Marie Doro, chairman, Eileen Sheib; decorations and theme, Janice Nomady, chairman, Sharon Zentner, Joyce Thurston, Pat Giese, Sally Rose; favors, Joyce Albers, chairman, Carol Crosby, Pat Rickel, Roberta Vaughn, Kathy Holicky; transportation, Shirley Klimowitz, chairman, Betty Holstein, Benita Blomly, Jan Bergelin; entertainment, Ellen Zerneke, chairman, Joan Thimke, Carol Holt, Gwen Fischer; clean-up, Jan Bryd, chairman, Roberta Netzel; seaters-of-guests, Bonnie Driscoll, chairman, Gloria Englebretson.

The Psi Beta Psi dinner will be held at the Sky club. The following committees have been selected to carry out preparations for the affair: Favors, Lenore Gaylord, chairman, Rosemary Kreidler, Chloe Brody, June Martens; decorations, Eleanor Schram, chairman, Mary Lucas, Eldora Reineking; entertainment, Dorothy Gerner, chairman, Jan Madison, Rosemary Axtell; program, Jan Schellin, chairman, Nancy Gayhart, Joyce Scheelk; food, Mary Jean Lehman, Carole Fabich.

Men's Glee Club Pleases Crowd At First Benefit

The Men's Glee club, assisted by the "Point Pipers," a Stevens Point quartet, presented the first of two concerts last evening in the college auditorium under the direction of Norman E. Knutzen.

The money raised by this concert and the one to be given later in March will be used to take the Glee club to Miami, Florida, for the annual convention of the National Federation of Music clubs. The Glee club will represent the state of Wisconsin at the convention.

Solo work was done by Paul Zei, tenor, who sang "Mother Machree" by Olcott; Roland Marsh, baritone, who sang "Mattinata" by Leoncavallo; and organist, Fred Stephanek, who played "In a Monastery Garden" by Ketelby.

The first numbers of the program sung by the Glee club were "Winter Song" by Bullard; "Death and the Maiden" by Schubert; and "Happy Wanderer" by Moller. Paul Zei, solo-

Winter Kaffee Given To Honor New Coeds

"A Little Bit of Sweden" was the theme of the Psi Beta Psi Winter Kaffee held Wednesday, January 12 from 3 to 5 o'clock in the lounge of the student union. The Kaffee was given to honor all new women students of CSC.

As guests entered the beautifully decorated lounge they were greeted by the sign "Valkommen," which is the Swedish word for welcome. The walls were decorated with murals of Swedish characters, and on the piano sat a wooden cart filled with red carnations. Coffee was served in an antique Swedish copper service set.

Pouring coffee from the copper set were the following patronesses: Mrs. Raymond E. Specht, Miss Edna Carlsten, and Mrs. John McComb. In the receiving line were Miss Jessie-mae Keyser, adviser; Mrs. Edgar F. Pierson, patroness; Frances Koch, president; Jan Schellin, vice-president; and Dorothy Gerner, member-at-large.

Eldora Reineking was the general chairman of the event. Her committees were: Posters, Lenore Gaylord, chairman, June Martens, Daphne Porter, and Sue Maynard; decorations, Mary Louise Bloczynski, chairman, Trieva Anderson, Eleanor Schram, Darlene Zamzow; centerpiece, Mickey McLees and Jan Thurston; invitations, Mary Jane Lehman, chairman, Judy Heintz, Rosie Axtell, and Marlene LeMere; favors, Dorothy Gerner, chairman, Joan Untiedt, and Marge Keifer; entertainment, Joyce Scheelk, chairman, and Jan Madison; food, Cloe Brody, chairman, Nancy Gayhart, and Carole Fabich; and costumes, Jan Schellin, chairman, Anne Stoleson and Rosemary Kriedler.

ist, and the "Point Pipers" quartet, concluded the first part of the program.

The Glee club then returned to sing, "Oklahoma" by Rogers and Hammerstein; "Give Me Your Tired" by Irving Berlin, arranged by Ringwald; and "In Flanders Fields" by Merwin. Fred Stephanek played his solo, followed by Roland Marsh's baritone solo.

The last group of songs sung by the Glee club were "De Animals A' Coming" by Bartholomew; "The Sea" by Dudley Buck; "Open Our Eyes" by Marfarlane; and "Jubilate Amen" by Kneverif.

Roy Menzel of the "Point Pipers" acted as Master of Ceremonies at the concert.

"Has Anybody Here Seen...?"

We'd like to bring up again at this time a project that has been kicked around at various times and then forgotten, an undertaking that if accomplished would surely meet with the blessings of every person ever involved in the task of hunting down "missing people." What is the subject of this lengthy build-up? Student Mailboxes! Just little old student mailboxes, but what a blessing from heaven (or the administration) would they be.

If you've ever hunted fruitlessly over this school for someone, checked programs, asked somebody to tell somebody to tell somebody, tried to get at least 75% attendance at meetings nobody seems to know about, or tried to get out invitations to people you don't ever see or probably wouldn't even know if they ran into you — then you'd appreciate student mailboxes. Appreciate them? You'd love them!

Would the members of the faculty like to have student mailboxes? Just ask the Deans, the heads of Divisions, the advisers of organizations, the directors of dramatics, ad infinitum, if they would like just a little bit having some place to get in contact with their migrating herd of students.

Think of the time and legwork the library would be saved in the distribution of their overdue books slips, reserve book announcements, and other library information that they must at the present time distribute personally after hunting down the person involved.

Just what kind of mailboxes would we like — just plain, unfancy little mailboxes (no glass, no locks) that would take up little space, for instance, up on the second floor opposite the faculty mailboxes.

Just off hand we know of two state colleges that possess student mailboxes, Milwaukee and Whitewater, and there may be others.

In our candid opinion, nothing, absolutely nothing, would make so many people happy as student mailboxes. And please, Santa (or Easter Bunny), we'd like them soon!

FAMILIAR FACES

ROSEMARY POLZIN

By Anne Stoleson

We're saluting a senior
By the name of Polzin,
Whose familiar face
On this campus is seen.
She left Plainfield
(Her old stamping ground)
And went to the U.,
Home ec. to propound.
After one semester
And came to Point
Which seemed best for her.
At Central State College
Rosie is a success.
"Home ec. and science are
The subjects I profess.

I share an apartment
With three other girls.
We make life at school
A gay, thrilling whirl."
Rosie does practice teaching
And one night a week
At the vocational school,
Does a job that's unique.
She helps teach pupils sewing,
It's an unusual coterie;
From sixteen to sixty,
Their ages do vary.
For extra practice
She did teach
In Plainfield a week
Her future goal to reach.
"The only trouble was
Everyone knew me.
Instead of Miss Polzin
They all called me Rosie.
I have two brothers
Two sisters, and what's more
I'm aunt to five boys and
That's quite a score!"
Argyles and recipes
Will give you a clue;
Her hobbies are many
Her gripes are few.
"The girls at the house
Will vouch for this —
Dirty dishes from experimenting
Are never amiss."
Rosie takes part
In extra activities:
Wesley, Y-Dubs,

And Sigma Zeta, all these.

We'll miss next year
Your familiar face.
To all of us,
You are an ace.
May good fortune be yours
In all that you do.
Best wishes and such
We send with you.

FRED STEPHANEK

By Bill Collins

This issue's familiar face is a man called Fred. Fred is a senior in the Secondary Division. His last name is Stephanek. Before coming to CSC he operated a 120 acre dairy farm near Phillips. Farming failed to give him the satisfaction he felt a person should derive from his vocation, so he gave up the farm to come to college and prepare for a teaching career.

Fred worked nights the first two years of his college life to augment his income. The first year he served as assistant chef at the Sky Club (it was during his reign that the Sky club began to acquire a reputation for "heavenly" food); the second year he worked as a bell-hop at Hotel Whiting where he became known as the "professor" because he spent so much time reading psychology books.

At the end of the first two years, Fred was able to secure more pleasant and more lucrative work — he turned entertainer. He played the organ that summer in Fargo, North Dakota, Faribault, Minnesota, and Galesburg, Illinois. The pay was so good that before the summer was over Fred began to wonder if he could afford to leave this profession to return to school. However, he did decide that school was more important, so he came back. Last summer he played the organ at a fabulous resort in Door county. He now provides the musical diversion at the Sky club under the assumed name of Fred Stevens.

Music is Fred's first love and he

THE HEART OF THE CAMPUS

by Homer Plumb

Bands and Stuff. On the eve of the appearance of the first name band on our campus, we cannot help but notice a few interesting facts. We readily admit that Eddy Howard no longer holds the position of prominence in the musical world that he once enjoyed. Many new groups have appeared on the scene, and have toppled some of the kingpins. But Eddy Howard and company consistently come up with hit discs, and anyone who believes that he will not present a terrific concert on our campus is badly mistaken.

You may be interested in knowing that our original plans involved bringing Les Elgart here instead of Eddy Howard. We dropped these plans because it seemed that nobody here ever heard of him in spite of the fact that "Downbeat" devoted three-fourths of a current issue to him, and that he was just voted "the orchestra that will hit the top in 1955." Disc jockeys all over the nation are pushing his records, and we think he has the most tremendous group we have heard in many moons. "Are you kidding? I never heard of him." This was the answer to our feelers that doomed his appearance on our campus.

You missed a dandy. We consider it indeed unfortunate that the Lincoln University basketball game was scheduled during vacation. This wonderful colored team exhibited a brand of bucketball that still has the folks around Point talking. Those of us who witnessed the game sincerely hope that this series between the two schools will be continued for many years.

Hats off Dept. To Coach Quandt and his cagers for a well deserved victory over Platteville. A fine job of strategy, a fine exhibition of teamwork! To Bob McCauley and Alpha Phi Omega. Such service (giving the men's smoker a face lifting) to our college deserves recognition. May your numbers grow, your success continue.

Cool and Nervous. A jazz group has been formed on campus. The musicians are professional, so is the sound. WSPT here in Pointski is quite interested in them. They should be! You will be hearing them soon beyond a doubt.

Top Five. This reporter conducted a personal poll during the past week among a cross section of students. The question asked was "What did you hope that Santa Claus would bring CSC?" The answers were quite diversified:

1. A music major.
2. A larger men's dorm.
3. New, spacious classrooms.
4. A newly equipped biology laboratory.
5. A new student union and a new field house.

Cupid's Corner: Last but not least (if you will permit one trite statement in this column) we must recognize the efforts of Cupid. He very obviously worked over-time while we were resting from our bouts with the books. To begin at the beginning, those pinned are: Bobbie Vaughn and alum Chuck Sohr, and JoAnn Langfeldt to Warren Harding.

Proof that prosperity was a keynote of 1954 is evidenced in the number of diamonds which were distributed in its closing days. This list includes Carol Crosby to Pvt. Bill Scudder, alum Pauline Weisen to Don Gilbert, alum Pauline Vincent to Fred Uthagrove, Corrine Weber to alum Royce Wade, Helen Bovee to is active in the college band, organizer for the Men's glee club, and a past vice-president of Alpha Kappa Rho. He is also a member of Phi Sigma Epsilon and acted in one of the one-act plays this semester. In addition to these activities, Fred is the organist and choir master for St. Francis church at Knowlton, Wisconsin. He has a practice class at P. J. Jacobs High school and enjoys teaching. When he graduates he hopes to teach music.

When asked if there is any romance in his life, Fred replied, "Romance? Well — not so far. I'm too busy and besides, I know how to cook." He and his roommate do their own cooking and they enjoy a bit of culinary ad-libbing. The latest of their masterpieces has been named "cabbage buns" and they dare anyone to eat it.

Mabel Papenfuss takes time out from her Pointer typing duties to pose for a Pointer photographer. Mabel may type other persons stories for the Pointer but she is quite well known around CSC as a writer on her own accord.

Our Mabel Papenfuss: Poet Laureate of CSC

By Anne Stoleson

What are you going to school for?
"To learn something."

What are you going to do when you get out?
"I really don't know."

These are just a few of the many questions students ask this familiar face and she truthfully answers most of them with, "I really don't know."

Mrs. Papenfuss says she really isn't very busy. She commutes from Wausau everyday. (That's about 60 miles of travel). Now take a look at her spare time enjoyment. At night when she arrives home, she has housework to do. When this is done, she takes part in the following organizations: The League of Women Voters in Wausau, a bridge club, a little sewing group, Marathon County Social Welfare Coordinating Council, and the American Heritage club. "All this and housework take up my time." (And some students think they have a lot of work!!)

Mrs. Papenfuss has a daughter, Judy, who is a senior in high school. Judy's plans include a college in the East next year. Mabel's husband is in the home office of Employers Mutuals but he travels a great deal. "This leaves me plenty of time, so I spend it in school," she says.

These are the things Mabel does during the winter. Let's take a look at the summer life she leads.

Last summer, she went to Mexico with a group from the state college at Eau Claire to study Spanish. She Joe Jersey, Jo Broetzman to Dave Hurlbut, Vicki Alderton to Bill Calhoun, Delores Hoffman to Pvt. Paul J. Quella, Berga Zimmerman to Ben Folz, alum Bill Conway to Gloria Suckow, Bill Barton to Evelyn Jinsky, Pat Sisel to Lt. Bob Sell and Virjean Drexler to Pat Barden.

Those who tied things all up over vacation were: alum Wilma Schmeckle and Eugene Waterstreet, Dottie Sawyer to Dave Secord, Pat Isherwood to Jerry Menzel, alum Trudy Schnauffer to Jean Cayo, Dick Helner to Peggy Johnson, Katie Schwenker to Jack Berkahn.

Best wishes to you all!

So long cats!

Tune Up Now For Annual WSGA Sponsored Songfest

There's music in the air — or there soon will be. The initial plans are being made for the annual WSGA Songfest, which will be held on February 21 at 8 p.m. The final rules for the event have not yet been set up.

Mary Bartelt and Darlene Schimke, co-chairmen of the Songfest, have named the following committees: Publicity, Helen Bovee, chairman, Betty Behl, Jan Madison, Mary Lucas, Marilyn Benson, Marilyn Heuer, Char Sanford, Toni Walker, Syng Ai Lee; program, Jean Getchell, chairman, Nancy Gayhart, Donna Trickey, Connie Weber, Betty Wohler; invitations, Caryl Seif, chairman, Sue Johnson, Sandra Bloom, and Nancy Skalitzyk.

Ruth Ann Charlesworth is president of WSGA and the advisers are Mrs. Elizabeth Pfiffner and Miss Miriam Moser.

worked with a group that consisted of a young woman from Nicaragua, two young men from Honduras, one from Ecuador, and another from Mexico. "It was the most fascinating experience I have ever had because none of them could speak English." Two weeks of the study period were spent in Mexico City and another month in Patzcuaro, where the group was privileged to work with the personnel at the UNESCO center. "We were invited to attend the center's lectures, contests, and fiestas. An all day and evening celebration was held for the North Americans on the 4th of July. Of course, we had class work too."

Mrs. Papenfuss' interests are varied. "I like Spanish, Latin American culture, reading of all sorts, classical music, musical plays and I love to travel." Her biggest interest is writing poems. "I have contributed some to the Pointer and to the national and local publications of Sigma Tau Delta, of which I am a member." One of Mabel's poems was published in the National Anthology of college poetry. The National Anthology is a collection of poems written by college students from all over the United States. Only the best poems are printed.

"Maybe some of the enthusiasm of the prospective teachers around has rubbed off on me — anyway, I am sort of thinking of returning to school after I have my BA, so I can get credits to teach either English or beginning Spanish. With Judy away at school and my husband traveling, I'll have to have something to do to keep me busy."

"Alice In Wonderland" Slated By Famous Group

Primary Council has undertaken another fine project. The Council members are bringing the well-known Touring Players from New York to perform for the children of the Stevens Point area.

On Feb. 18, the Touring Players will give a morning and afternoon performance of "Alice in Wonderland" in the college auditorium.

The main purpose of sponsoring the group is to give young children a chance to see worthwhile entertainment.

Charlotte Forth is publicity chairman, Ruth Ann Charlesworth and Cleo Gilbert are in charge of the ticket sales, and Mary Ann Smith is house committee chairman.

President Hansen Named To Retirement Committee

William C. Hansen, president of Central State college, has been appointed to the retirement committee of the Wisconsin Education association, the professional organization of more than 25,000 Wisconsin teachers.

The major responsibility of the retirement committee is to draw up and propose the enactment of legislation to improve the state teachers retirement system. The committee continuously studies possible improvements with the hope of attracting worthy young people to the teaching profession.

Achtung Mystery Man! Was Ist Loss Mit Du?

Contrary to popular opinion, the Pointer Mystery Man Contest is definitely not over, in fact the ten dollars isn't even spent. There have been some entries but none of these has been opened so don't let anyone tell you that he or she already won the contest. Entries are removed each half day and the envelopes dated. They are then placed in another box until the contest is over at which time they will be judged.

We wish to clear up some other misunderstandings which we feel are circulating around the campus. The chief thing to remember is that the Mystery man is a student at the present time as we have already stated. We would also like to point out that a complicated set of explanations to the clues is not necessary. Keep them simple. By requiring solutions to clues we are just trying to prevent wild guesses which might luckily hit on the right answer without any real thinking.

Remember that your entries must contain the name of the Mystery Man, your name, and simple solutions to three clues. Then put the whole works in an envelope, seal it, and drop it in the ballot box in the Pointer office. If you wish to refresh your memory on the other rules to the contest you may find them on the second floor Pointer bulletin board.

Here again are the clues which have been posted to date.

Clue 1.
Though this clue may prove rather meager,
We can only say he's a three plus leaguer.

Clue 2.
Regal gown and burly hand
Don't always make for clues so grand.
What appears and what you see
Aren't always what they seem to be.
Now, talk of symbols we must leave,
Provide clue two for you to please.

Talented Maurice Nord To Present Concert Here

Bass baritone Maurice C. Nord of Stevens Point will entertain the students of Central State with a vocal concert on January 24 at 8 p.m. in the college auditorium. He comes at the invitation of the college assembly committee.

Until coming to Stevens Point April 1, 1954, to work at the Hardware Mutuals Insurance company, Mr. Nord lived in Springfield, Illinois, where his musical background included being choir director of the First Congregational church, Cantor in the Brith Sholem Temple Choir and a teacher of voice, repertoire, and oratorio.

He has been bass soloist with the Chicago Apollo club in Orchestra Hall, with the Chicago United Singers at the Civic Opera House, and with a quartet of the Chicago Sunday Evening club in Orchestra Hall.

Mr. Nord's chief interest in music lies in concert and oratorio singing and he is a devotee of serious music and Italian "Bel Canto." He has studied under Frieda Klink, Reinholt Schmidt, Dr. Edgar Nelson, and Madame Nelli Gardini.

Mr. Nord has a wide musical background and his concert promises to be highly entertaining.

He will be accompanied at the piano by his wife, Julianna Farchilde Nord, who made her musical debut in London at an early age. She has studied piano with Peter Hanson at Stephens college, Rudolph Ganz of Chicago musical college, and Tcherkov in New York.

"On-The Riviera" Slated For Saturday Afternoon

"On the Riviera," starring Danny Kaye, will be the next in the series of movies being shown by the Round Table this year. This technicolor movie, which is scheduled for 1 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. on Saturday, January 15, will be shown in the college library theater. Admission is 35¢ per person.

"On the Riviera" is a benefit showing for the Men's Glee club. Proceeds from the movie will be used to help finance the Glee Club's trip to Miami, Florida. Round Table urges everyone to attend this entertaining movie.

There will be two more clues next week to help you win the ten dollars. The contest will officially close Thurs. January 20, at four o'clock p.m. That is one week from today, the publication date of this Pointer. So come one, come all! Get your ten dollars here! You still have one week in which to solve the clues and name the big campus mystery, the Pointer Mystery Man. Remember, no entries will be accepted after January 20.

Sigma Tau Delta Holds Initiation Ceremonies

Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity at Central State college, initiated new members on Wednesday evening, January 5. An impressive candlelight ceremony was held in the Home Management house. The fraternity is a national organization for outstanding students in English and is limited in membership to 25.

The new members are Lee Glasel, Phil LaLeike, Gladys Lehmann, Ada Lord, Rabbi David Matzner, Rev. Gordon Dalton, Donald Smith, Lois Schlottman. Jane Schultz is president of Sigma Tau Delta.

Refreshments were served after the initiation ceremonies and selected poems, essays, and short stories written by the new members during their pledging were read aloud.

Union Notes

Manager Mark Farris of the Dellzell Hall student union has announced that the union will remain open during the semester test week but that the snack bar and television set will be closed after 9:30 each evening of that week. The union will be open through Thursday evening of test week but will be closed to students on Friday and Saturday.

Farris also announced that a girl's gold bracelet and one pearl earring have been found and the owners may pick them up at the union.

Regents Rank State College Faculties

At a recent meeting of the Board of Regents of the state colleges, new ranks for the state college teachers were decided upon. This new ranking system went into effect as of January 6, 1955, says President William C. Hansen.

According to this system, CSC now has 15 full professors. This number is 21.6 per cent of the faculty. The maximum number allowed is 25 per cent.

Twenty-two faculty members, or 36 per cent of the faculty out of a possible 40 per cent, now have the official title of associate professor. The average number with this rank among our state colleges is 34.5 per cent.

Assistant professors number 18 here. A 30 per cent of our training staff, this percentage cannot exceed 40. The state average for this rank is 30.9 per cent.

Seven instructors complete our staff, and this is 11.7 per cent. Although no less than 10 per cent of the staff can serve in this capacity the state average is 12.9 per cent.

It has been undecided whether the faculty will receive salary increases in accordance with the new rank, as that is up to the 1955 legislature.

Sigma Zeta Views Movie

A movie on the corrosion aspect of electro-chemistry was the feature when Sigma Zeta held its monthly meeting January 5 in Studio A.

President Leroy Purchatzke presided over a short business meeting in which a bulletin board committee was chosen for the rest of the year.

HERE'S HOW

by Alice Jean Allen

Hello, everyone. It's good to see you all back after the holidays. We hope everyone had a wonderful vacation, and from the large number of girls sporting diamonds and men's jewelry, it looks like a happy new year! Congratulations, everybody.

As long as the Intersorority Formal on January 22 starts school dances for 1955, we thought we would review a few "do's" and "don't" for such occasions.

First of all, the dance is semi-formal. This means the boys may wear suits instead of the strictly formal tux or white dinner jacket. We do not have a formal dance on campus because the cost of tuxes is too great for the majority of students. Nor do we have a store with a large enough supply of them to rent them reasonably. The girls, however, wear formals.

If you go to a dinner before the dance, girls, you must wear a stole, jacket, or small cape over strapless dresses. You should never wear a strapless dress to a dinner. (And, please, when you get all dressed and ready to go, leave the gum at home!)

Speaking of the dinner, try to relax and everything will come off fine. Boys, don't forget to pull out the chair for your girl. Just remember to start with the silverware on the outside and work towards the plate. You may cut the salad with a knife if it's too difficult to eat it neatly without cutting. Put rolls and relishes

Faculty Familiar Face

MISS MONICA BAINTER

By Betty Holstein

"I can't imagine why you want to interview me." That was Miss Bainter's typically modest remark as we began our discussion. Yet, a few minutes before, this same gracious lady had asked her 8:15 physics class, "Who was the first electrician?" (No response from students, naturally.)

Said Miss Bainter, "Adam. He took a spare part (rib) and made a broadcasting system that's been in operation ever since."

Her sense of humor, friendliness, intellect, and sincere desire to help are only a few of the qualities which make Miss Bainter's students and associates praise her so highly.

Lanesboro, Minnesota, is the birthplace of our charming physics teacher. She attended high school in Rochester, and graduated from the College of St. Teresa in Winona, Minnesota, with a triple major in mathematics, physics, and music.

At the beginning of her college career, Miss Bainter started to major in history and Latin, but she switched to math and science because of the greater mental satisfaction to her.

A Master's degree from the University of Minnesota is next on the list of achievements.

"At this point, one day might have made a complete change in my career," said Miss Bainter. "On Tuesday, I was offered a job teaching physics, and on Wednesday an actuary position (math of insurance)."

Luckily for us, she had already on your butter plate.

When you have finished your dinner, be sure to place your knife and fork on your plate. Ever hear of the "ten to four" arrangement for silver?

If there are special guests at your table help carry the conversation — do not leave it all up to the "assigned" hostess. If you have not met the others at the table and no one introduces you, introduce yourself. It's perfectly correct to do so and it will make dinner much more pleasant.

That's all for this time. Next issue there will be something here to really tax your mental prowess! See you then. 'Bye now, and have fun at the dance.

January Blues

It's all over but the paying. Gone are baubles, wreath and tree. Postman daily brings reminders Christmas is a spending spree.

Mabel Papenfuss

accepted the teaching job before the actuary position was offered. After teaching at Chatfield and Spring Valley, Minnesota, our very versatile faculty member was high school principal at New Richmond, Wisconsin. From New Richmond, she moved to Madison East in Madison, and finally to the University of Wisconsin where she stayed from 1943-47.

In 1947, several offers of positions were given to Miss Bainter, who made the heart-warming statement: "I chose Central State college because of its widespread reputation for friendliness."

Some interesting flashes:

— While working on her doctorate at the University of Wisconsin last summer Miss Bainter stayed at the former home of Ivy Williamson;

— She collects classical records and ranks Grieg and Beethoven as her favorite composers;

— She has no pet peeves except lazy students;

— She maintains that class mishaps usually only result in "blowing a fuse;"

— She enjoys being a junior class adviser;

— She thinks the contacts and relationships among students and faculty of Central State are very satisfactory.

"Clearings" Slated As Summer School Campus

A few fortunate state college summer session students may have a Door county paradise for a campus this year.

The state college regents Friday authorized the state college director to negotiate for use of "The Clearings," once operated as a small school by the late Jens Jensen, landscape artist and naturalist who designed the Chicago park system.

Jensen died in 1951 and left the 86 acre school and estate near Ellison bay to a group of trustees. It was leased from the trustees by the Wisconsin Farm Bureau federation.

The Farm Bureau has not yet established a definite program. It has plans for an adult liberal arts school where both farm and city persons could spend a week or two studying history, philosophy and similar subjects.

The Farm Bureau has proposed that the Wisconsin state colleges take over the estate for a five week summer session. The state college regents were told Friday that the sylvan hideaway would be ideally suited to "creative, reflective types of learning such as literature and philosophy."

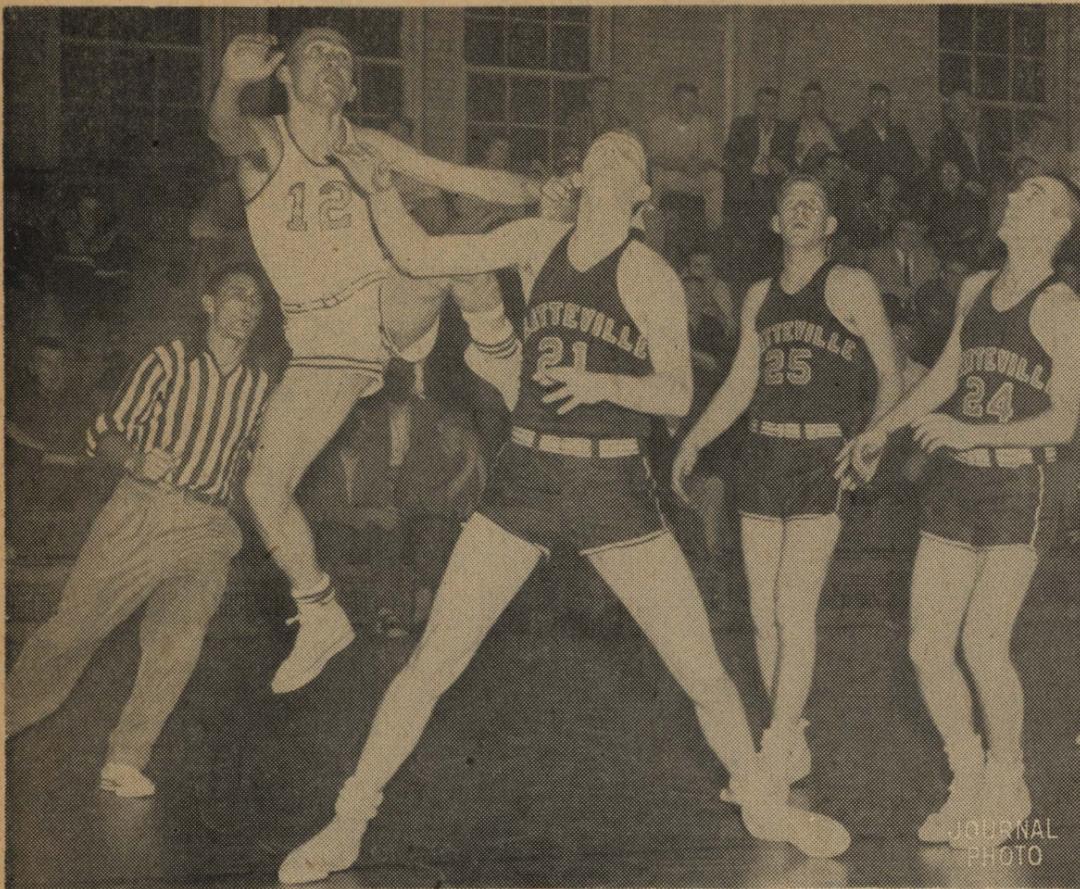

President William C. Hansen and a Central State committee of faculty members including Gilbert W. Faust, Dr. Hugo D. Marple, Dr. Warren G. Jenkins, Henry M. Runke, and Dr. Quincy Doudna were instrumental in exploring the possibilities of "The Clearing."

A main lodge building has a large living room and dining room, and rooms for a few staff members. About 25 students would be housed in three log dormitories equipped with modern facilities, including furnace heat. Another large building is equipped with looms, lathes and other equipment for craft work.

Practice makes perfect they say and the Central State Men's Glee Club and their director, Norman E. Knutzen, were determined to be as perfect as possible for their Miami concert. The glee club entertained a large audience last night at their first of two benefit concerts.

JOURNAL PHOTO

THERE SEEMS TO BE SOME SORT of an attraction overhead as Bobby Haefner (12) of Stevens Point and three Platteville players appear to glue their eyes on a shot by the Pointer guard during the second half of CSC's 85-77 victory. Haefner was fouled by Royce Reeves (21) with referee Teddy Scalissi calling the play. Ron Einerson is 25 and Larry Marshall 24 for the Pioneers.

Point Whips Pioneers In Well-played Upset

The Pointers took the lead in the first 60 seconds, lost it only once — early in the second half — and slashed out a convincing 85 to 77 win over a highly favored Platteville club, defending champions for the last two years. The game was played Jan. 8.

The Pointers, with no one single player to point out, jumped off to an early lead and completely outplayed, outfought, and outrebounded Platteville, who came into Stevens Point with the idea all they had to do was to make their appearance on the floor to win.

They were surprised no little — guards Jimmy Marko and Bob Haefner stole the ball from the amazed Pioneers time and again during the entire first half to dump in easy lay-ups. John Amburgy hit with outstanding accuracy from the outside and the two big men — Jim Richards and Orv Koepke — tipped in the short ones and grabbed off the rebounds. A 10 point lead was kept throughout most of the first half, but when Coach Quandt had to remove Richards late in the half, after he collected three costly fouls, along with Kaepke and Haefner for a much needed rest, the Pioneers took quick advantage of the cold Pointer reserves and climbed within two points, 41 to 39, at the half.

The Pioneers outshot the Pointers — 41% to 35%, but the Pointers took many more shots 92 to 65. This shows Point was by far the most aggressive team.

Leading scorers for the visitors were Reeves with 27 and Voegler with 18.

No one Pointer should be singled out in this big upset. They played as a complete unit throughout the entire game, and it paid off. All this happened much to the delight of a large home crowd and the Pointers conference record now reads two wins and one loss.

Pointers Quell Lawrence Matmen in 31-3 Victory

On December 17 Coach John Robert's grapplers scored an impressive 31-3 victory over the Lawrence squad in the Appleton School's gymnasium. It was the Pointers' second victory in as many outings.

John Guldan (CSC) decided Dick Beringer in the 123 pound class to start the team off on the right foot. Jack Johnson (L) won a close decision from Terry McMahon to procure Lawrence's only points. Don Smith (CSC) won his match the easy way — on a forfeit. Al Attoe, of the 147 lb. division, pinned his opponent in 2:32 of the second round. John Boyne won his match on a decision, while both of the Hurlbut brothers pinned their adversaries early in the second round.

Pointers Drop Tilt To Lincoln Quintet

Lincoln University of Jefferson City, Missouri, ran their victory string to 11 games as they toppled the Pointers 78-65 in a vacation contest here December 29.

The Pointers gave Lincoln a good fight for the first half but it wasn't enough to keep the flashy Missouri boys in check.

Jim Richards was high man with 22 points and Orv Koepke was next with 16 for the Pointers. Jim Hous and Chuck Daniels were high for Lincoln with 17 and 19 points respectively.

PLAYING THE FIELD

with Chuck Neinas

This week's excerpt on sports deals with college wrestling. College wrestling probably isn't too familiar for most students for it doesn't have any resemblance to the exhibitions you find on TV. To help some of you understand college wrestling a little more, we interviewed John Roberts, coach of the CSC grapplers.

First of all, the duration of the bouts must be nine minutes, divided into three three-minute rounds. A fall if any of the three rounds terminates the bout.

Wrestlers start from their feet in the first round and, if there is no fall, a flip of the coin decides the top and bottom positions for the second round. If there is no fall in the second round, the wrestlers reverse the positions they had at the start of the second round.

Here is a break down on the scoring of points within each bout. Two points for a Take Down: Taking your opponent to the mat and gaining the position of advantage, getting behind and controlling your opponent.

Two points for a Reversal: When the wrestler in the bottom position maneuvers himself to the top position or position of advantage in a single maneuver. One point for Escape: When the bottom wrestler escapes to a neutral or standing position. Up to three points for Near Pin: When the wrestler in the top position holds the bottom wrestler's shoulders within two inches of the mat for two seconds, but the bottom wrestler escapes the pin. One point is awarded to a wrestler in a bout for time advantage. A Fall occurs when the shoulders are held to the mat for two seconds. A wrestler may be penalized one or two points for stalling or using an illegal hold. An illegal hold is one that endangers life or limb.

Team points are awarded as follows: Five points for a pin, five points for default or forfeit, three points for decision, and two points for a draw.

Central State's next match will be with Luther college of Decorah, Iowa, on January 18 in the college gym. We would like to see a good turn out and we hope that the explanation of the scoring may be of some assistance to you.

We see that they are having a real headliner in the auditorium on Jan. 17 when Eddy Howard is here. But we want to know who is Howard fighting? Our guess is that it is hard punching Carl "Bobo" Wohlbier. You had better get your tickets early for the dollar top card.

Letting Out the Air

by Carl Huberty

The Pointers are not to be denied!! Coach Hale F. Quandt's quintet can be expected to be a threat to any WSC team it meets on the hardwood. Last Saturday's unexpected, but deserving, victory over the defending champions, the Platteville Pioneers, leaves good evidence of the fine progress the Point five has made. The Purple and Gold will be given their toughest test of the season tonight when the tall, high scoring Eau Claire Blugolds invade the Pointers.

With the 1954-55 basketball season half over we find ol' reliable Orv Koepke leading the scoring brigade with 134 markers. Following Koepke are Jim Marko with 113 and Jim Richards and Bob Haefner tied with 107. All four cagers have participated in ten contests.

Although CSC has been doing fine work, they have been at a handicap without the services of steady Ken Roloff for the past two games. Ken has been confined with an ulcer ailment for the past week or so. "Roller" is up and around but isn't expected to be in action for some time. Nights with ulcers aren't too pleasant, huh, Ken?

Coach Carl Wiemann's Collegiates came through with another triumph in Saturday night's preliminary tilt. The JV's downed Vettors of Stevens Point by a 60-47 score.

Central State has a future big leaguer in its midst in Terry Pease, a junior from Wyocena. The 21-year-old outfielder has been signed to Clinton of the Class D Mississippi-Ohio Valley League. Let's hope Terry has his two feet to stand on.

A look at other WSC games the past weekend: Eau Claire 107, La Crosse 94; Milwaukee 84, Oshkosh 78; River Falls 85, Stout 75; and Platteville overpowered St. Norbert's 98-94 Sunday night.

A "cager" from one of the larger southern colleges received a pass, looked around, found nobody to pass to, so he took a "shot." This shot was no ordinary one as it is believed to be one of the longest, if not the longest, successful shot in history — a little over 87 feet. Umph!! Good luck and good sports!!

Two Bouts On Tap For CSC Grapplers

CSC wrestlers will engage in two matches which will be held at the schools of the opposing teams. For the first match the wrestlers travel to Winona on Thursday, January 20. The second match will be held on Saturday, January 29, at Ripon.

Not too much is known about the Winona team from Minnesota. The Pointers hope to avenge the loss in basketball by a victory in wrestling. The Pointers are off to a good start this year and will be sure to give a good showing.

The Ripon match will be the second meeting between the two schools. During the first part of December the Pointers had their first match of the season and defeated Ripon quite handily. There is no indication that they will let down in this match. The Pointers have also defeated Lawrence this year and therefore carry a record of two wins into these two matches.

REBOUNDING TOLD a big part of the story of Stevens Point's 85-77 victory over Platteville here Saturday night. Orv Koepke (54) powers in two points in the second half for the Pointers as he out-rebounds three Pioneers under the basket.

Pointers Entertain Two WSC Teams This Week End

The Central State College cagers will play host to the Eau Claire Bluegolds tonight and the River Falls Falcons Saturday, January 15.

River Falls, led by Dick Wells and Bob Williams, has a 5-1 season record and have won two straight in conference play. The Falcons averaged better than 100 points in their first four outings. Their high individual effort was by "Zeke" Wells who poured in 38 points. Bob Williams, an all conference forward, heads the team, scoring with a 24.7 point average.

Tonight the Pointers will try to upset Eau Claire's nine game win streak. The Bluegolds will floor a team which will average about 6'2". Rog Hanson, 6'9" center, will be the threat in the Eau Claire line-up.

The following week the Pointers will travel to Appleton where they will meet the Lawrence college Vikings on Friday night January 21. The Quandtmen beat the Vikes earlier in the season 67-55, but Lawrence has improved as the season has progressed, so it should turn out to be a good battle.

Parkinson's Take Lead In Bowling League Play

The Campus Bowling League resumed action again January 6 for the first time in 1955 and once again Parkinson's stole the show. The current front-runners eked out a four point victory over the slumping College Eat Shop, while Miller's who had been tied with Parkinson's for the league leadership, lost some valuable ground by splitting their series with Fred's Paint. Hannon's and Yellowstone also halved their series, and AKL forfeited four points to Essers.

Al Due had the night's high series with a 553 total. Bob Casper and Dave Secord posted marks of 538 and 535, respectively. Dave Jersey and Gil Stasek shared the high individual game honors with identical 213 scores.

Point Cage Rally Fails To Trample Those Titans

Oshkosh State was the host for CSC's second conference tilt in one week, Thursday, December 16. A hot streak midway through the second half changed a closely fought battle into a 77-67 defeat for the Pointers. CSC trailed by a point with 12 minutes to go when Oshkosh staged a "can't-miss" show. The Pointers were outscored 28-8 and from then on couldn't close the gap.

High man for Point was Jim Marko with 13, followed by Roloff with 10. Tiedeman took scoring honors with 24 markers and his teammate, Wippich, had 18.

Two CSC Students Attend Rose Bowl Game, Parade

Ohio State won 20 to 7, the Trojan band came out in the half on papier-mache white horses, the stadium held 89,000 people and Bill Wenzel and Al Attee from CSC were there. Bill and Al and some of their friends traveled to California to see the Rose Bowl game.

Bill says it started out with a drizzle and began raining in the third quarter. The golf course used for a parking lot was in poor shape and so were the fellows' shoes when they had to get out and push their car through the grass and mud.

The card stunts that Southern California usually performs were cancelled because of the rain, but the Trojan band came out at the half and maneuvered a complicated merry-go-round formation.

It seemed that the people in Pasadena don't celebrate New Year's Eve too much because of New Year's Day activities. Bill and his friends spent the evening on Hollywood and Vine in true Wisconsin tradition.

The next morning the fellows watched the parade and saw such celebrities as Hopalong Cassidy, Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, and Bill Hickok.

Besides seeing the game, Bill and his friends spent some time sightseeing and visiting some of the larger movie studios. They even got down as far as Tia Juana, Mexico. To make things exciting, on the trip to California they hit the blizzard in Texas.

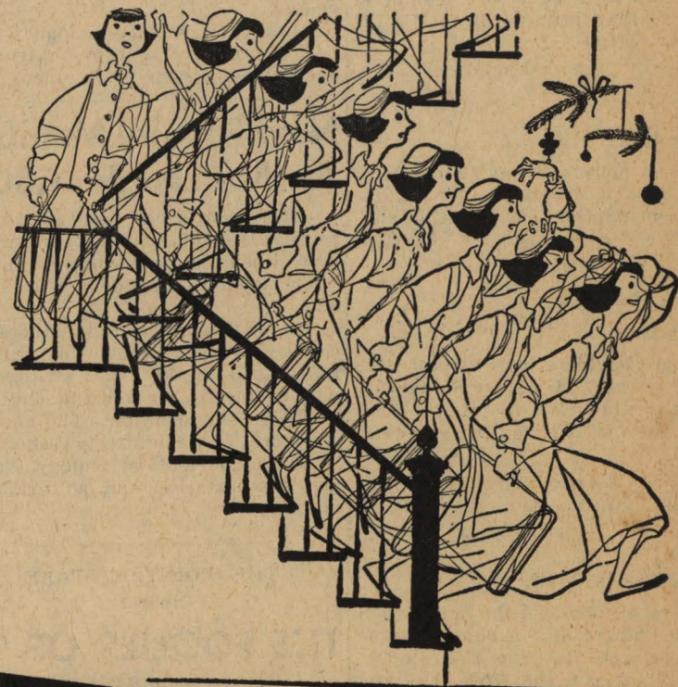

In case you're interested in some future Rose Bowl game, seats cost $5.50, if there isn't a great demand. And sleeping reservations? Bill and his friends slept in a relative's basement in Pasadena.

CSC Cagers Down Ripon In 76-70 Battle Jan. 4

A battling CSC five reached its peak in an overtime and outscored Ripon 76-70 in a battle at Ripon on January 4. It was a game of "iron men" as Richards, Marko and Haefner played the full 45 minutes. All of Point's starters scored 10 or more points and they were led by Sophomore Jim Richards with 20 tallies.

Toedt had 17 points and Daetz was next with 16 for the home team.

This win started the New Year off right for Quandt's boys. Let's hope it continues this way.

Students Soon To Enjoy An Evening At The Opera

Opera makes its debut on the evenings of February 27 and March 1 on the CSC campus. Two operas, under the direction of Miss Patricia Reilly and Dr. Hugo D. Marple, will be presented in the Library theater. Both operas are the light-humorous type and both will be given each night.

"The Telephone" by Menotti, a contemporary opera, presents Mary Ann Smith as Lucy and Wayne Salter as Ben, accompanied by Gloria Suckow.

"Sunday Excursion" by Sundgaard-Wilder is from the 1910 period. The cast is: Claire Mueller as Alice, Judy Olson as Veronica, Roland Marsh as Hillary, Keith Stoehr as Marvin, Lonnie Doudna as Tim, Helen Schlack, accompanist.

Tickets will be on sale at school during the middle of February.

Clifton Webb Stars In Phi Sig Movie Jan. 26

Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity plans for two showings, at 6:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m., of the movie, "Stars and Stripes Forever," on Wednesday, January 26.

"Stars and Stripes Forever" stars Clifton Webb in the story of John Philip Sousa. Myrna Loy and Debra Paget also play in this stirring technicolor production.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

In your last editorial I got the ambiguous impression that your rather reatant attitude towards satarum politicians is not only reciprocal but, considering you are supposed to be fairly intelligent, also is extremely transient. I find this very annoying.

Yours for better fillaciness,
Name withheld

Dear Sir,

I wood like to say you have a fine paper. I really like the sport page when it tells about ME playing football on the collodge teem. Thanks again and as long as my roommate keeps reading your paper to ME I'll be your freind.

Name misspelled

Dear Editor,

This is merely to say that I don't think your newspaper is fit for human consumption but I eat it anyway.

Burp

Dear Editor,

We are having a little dispute over at our house and we are wondering if you could solve it for us. Can you explain Einstein's theory of relativity?

Puzzled

Answer: Yes, I can!

Dear Elitor-in-Cheif,

I have just re-read the last edition of the Pointer and I enjoyed it so very, very much. The real Christmas picture on the first page and the delightful, red print was simply marvy.

Don't ever change your dreamy style. It's neat. I read with real interest the article about that wonderful basketball team. Their real nice picture was just ginger peachy. That Jim Richards is handsome don't you think?

Thanks again real much for making it possible for me to get your nifty paper.

Yours,
George.

Dear Editor:

In the late issue of the Pointer, I was gratified to see your editorial that spoke out against the tyrannical rule forbidding the wearing of bikinis to astrology class. Your support in this vigorous campaign is really appreciated.

Yours,
M.M.

Election Held

Tuesday evening, January 11, Psi Beta Psi elected new officers. They are as follows: president, Lenore Gaylord; vice president, Eleanor Schrom; recording secretary, Margaret Kieffer; corresponding secretary, Anne Marie Stoleson; treasurer, Eldora Reineking; assistant treasurer, Trieva Anderson; historian, Rosemary Kriedler; and member at large, Fran Koch.

Orchids And Oscars

Any publication worth its salt must begin the new year by giving its awards for the outstanding efforts of the past year. The Pointer is no exception. Here are our nominations for the top happenings in 1954:

Man of the Year — Our nod goes to Tufton Beamish who had the courage, under adverse pressure and despite public opinion, unflinchingly to say "Huh?"

Woman of the Year — Our vote goes to Madge Gebhardt for being voted "The Girl Most Likely" (or was it "Most Likely A Girl?").

Athlete of the Year — To Clifton Rabenowitz for his inspiring efforts on the field and his ingenious innovations in crib note techniques.

Entertainer of the Year — To Gilda Tallmudge, who despite her death in 1921, has made a terrific comeback on WBAY-TV's Feature Theater.

Effort of the Year — To Professor Snile for managing to talk for 50 full minutes without awakening his students.

Literary Award of the Year — To William Shakespeare, who finally picked up his Pointer assignment.

Newspaper of the Year — The Pointer, for obvious reasons.

Alpha Phi Omega Begins Redecoration Of Smoker

The Men's Smoker here at CSC is about to get a new and much needed face lifting.

The new service fraternity at Central State, Alpha Phi Omega, headed by Bob McCauley, will do the planning and labor.

The smoker will be painted and new furniture and pictures will brighten the basement room. Plans are being made for the installation of a cigarette machine and a milk dispenser.

Work is being started immediately, and the project will probably take about twenty days to complete.

New Faculty Member Authorized For CSC

Central State has been authorized to hire an additional teacher for the second semester according to an announcement by President William C. Hansen.

This instructor, and two others the college had been previously authorized to hire by the Board of Regents, will be hired only for the duration of the second semester. The new instructors are tentatively scheduled to be in the fields of biology, chemistry-mathematics, and political science.

Faculty Member Weds

The former Miss Lorraine Wilson, acting head of the Home Ec department, is now Mrs. Robert C. Otte. On December 18, at a quiet ceremony in Madison in the First University Methodist church, Miss Wilson became the wife of Mr. Otte who is studying for his Ph. D degree in Agricultural Economics at the University of Wisconsin. He is originally from Lincoln, Nebraska, and his wife is from New Concord, Ohio.

Miss Jessiemae Keyser, women's physical education director at CSC, was maid of honor. After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Miss June Laedtke.

The couple spent some time in Chicago and then went on to the home of the bride to spend Christmas.

Alumni Reunion Party Held Jan. 8 By Sig Eps

An alumni reunion party was given at the Vet's Club Saturday, January 8, by Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity. The purpose of the reunion, directed by co-chairmen Wendelin Frenzel and Jack Frisch, was to organize a formal Wisconsin Delta Alumni association.

From 3 o'clock until 5 an informal reception was held, followed by luncheon from 5 to 7. The group then attended the basketball game with Platteville. After the game they met at the Platwood club for a reunion party.

Assembly Group Reveals An Interesting Schedule

The college assembly committee, consisting of Miss Cecilia Winkler, Henry M. Runke, Robert S. Lewis, Dr. Alf. W. Harrer, Gladys Lehmann and Paul Zei, with Miss Pauline Isaacson as chairman, has announced the following schedule of assembly programs already booked for the rest of the school year:
