

Youth finds a way in "MONEY DOESN'T MATTER," the great Abbey Theatre play which the Dublin Players bring here. Julia Worth as Nora Mannion and Brian Vincent as Michael Harvey appear.

It's A Grand Night For the Theater Dublin Players Returning To CSC

From the land of wit, whimsy, and Irish potatoes, (and, incidentally, Miss May Roach), come the Dublin Players who will present two evenings of Irish drama at its best on May 2 and 3, at 8 p.m., in the college auditorium.

The Dublin Players, under the direction of Ronald Ibbes, are considered to be the best repertory group touring America today. All are professional actors of the highest caliber, with years of acting experience behind them. They are chosen from the famous Abbey and Gate theaters of Dublin, Ireland, and present the great plays of the Irish dramatists with superior acting skill.

Wednesday, May 2, the players will present "Arms and the Man." The musical version of this is "The Chocolate Soldier." In the play, the young daughter of an aristocratic Bulgarian family is startled to see a Serbian officer, fleeing from Bulgarian troops, enter her bedroom — pointing a gun at her head. He engages in some of Shaw's wittiest dialogues against war. The heroine and her mother hide the gentleman and get him safely off to his own troops. When the lady's father and her sweetheart return from the front, the typical Shavian complications arise. In the course of these, the Serb officer returns for a formal visit and is called upon to help the very stupid Bulgarians plan their own defense.

The play concludes with the daughter being captured by the Serbian officer, and her own sweetheart (a confirmed flirt) making off with the maid. In addition to Shaw's exploding most of our pet theories about war and how it is executed, he also disposed of international politics and other matters in his usual high-handed and amusing fashion.

"Money Doesn't Matter" by Louis D. Alton, a recent Irish playwright, will be the presentation on Thursday, May 3, and is a powerful play that

"Carousel" To Be Theme Of Nelson Hall Formal

By Joyce Hannemann

The girls at Nelson Hall are busily preparing for their biggest event of the year. They are sponsoring a formal which will be held on the evening of Saturday, May 5, in the Nelson Hall dining room.

Clara Colrupe is general chairman of the formal and already many plans have been made in carrying out the theme of "Carousel." Students will be dancing in the atmosphere of a carnival, complete with balloons, cotton candy, and the ever popular Tunnel of Love.

The formal will be open to the entire student body so, girls, here is your chance to ask that special guy and have a whirl on the "Carousel!"

Some very important details about the formal are that dancing will be from 9:30 to 12:30, admission will be $1.50, and fellows are asked to buy no large or expensive corsages.

Between 9:00 and 9:30 Nelson Hall will have a "cocktail" party in the dorm living room. All girls and their dates are welcome to come.

All girls in Nelson Hall are helping with the formal but the chairmen of the various committees are: Orchestra, Mary Lou Kutil; decorations, Gloria Thoreson; publicity, Sylvia Hanson; tickets, Lila Ablard; and chaperones, Joan Jeckle.

will undoubtedly be remembered for many years by all who see it. The play bears some resemblance to James Barrie's "Dear Brutus" except that, here, all the frustrated lives are placed within a single family. The father, in his greed to accumulate money and power, has broken the careers of his own children, and has made himself generally feared and disliked. However, the will and persistence of his children bring about adjustments that make for a reasonably happy ending. Much of the play is in a serious vein, but, in the tradition of all notable Irish plays, there is a strong undercurrent of irrepressible comedy. Vividly drawn characterizations contribute to the effect of the play — regarded as one of the great pieces of modern play writing.

"One of the richest rewards of a lifetime of playing," is the way that the drama critic of the Pittsburgh Sun Telegraph describes the performance of the Dublin Players. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for students of CSC, and it is one that is too good for anyone to pass up.

Mozart Comes to CSC In Pro Arte Quartet

By Diana Bloom

Mozart will be highlighted in the program to be given by the University of Wisconsin Pro Arte Quartet when it comes to the college auditorium at 8 p.m. on April 30. Besides the four regular members, the Quartet will feature a fifth performer, Leo Steffen, pianist.

Mozart Centennial is the title of the program by the Quartet, one of the first internationally recognized string quartets to maintain residence at an American University. This group has been associated with the University of Wisconsin since 1949.

The Pro Arte Quartet is a cultural institution of the state of Wisconsin. Each year, two concert tours are arranged which bring the best of string quartet music to metropolitan areas and rural communities throughout the state. On the University campus, the Quartet performs regularly at Music Hall and presents a course — "String Quartets of Hayden, Mozart, and Beethoven" — for University credit.

Members of the Pro Arte Quartet are: Rudolf Kolisch, first violin; Albert Rahier, second violin; Bernard Milofsky, viola; and Ernst Friedlander, cello. Each of these men is an outstanding performer in his own right.

Nation wide appearances of the Pro Arte Quartet of the University of Wisconsin include concerts for leading universities, colleges, chamber music societies, and the International Society for Contemporary Music.

Bucher Named Head Of Student Union

Harry Bucher was appointed Student Union Manager for 1956-57 by the Student Union Board. He will begin his duties May 1 of this year, according to Mark Farris, present Student Union Manager. Bucher starts May 1 so that he will have a month's apprenticeship under Farris.

Farris has announced a partial list of various items found in the Union. These may be claimed by contacting Mark or Bill Bucher. The list presents a variety of things that are waiting to be claimed. They include earnings, tasp, high heels, scarves, baby's mittens (?) and anything else worth mentioning.

New Instructors Named For 1956 Summer Session

By Sharon Zentner

Three new instructors will join the CSC staff for this year's summer session. Miss Constance Otman of Oshkosh will teach the kindergarten at the Campus school and will teach kindergarten techniques. Miss Otman has taught in previous summers at the University of Wisconsin and at Plattville. She taught at Oshkosh during the 1954-55 school year. Miss Otman is a graduate of Iowa State Teachers college.

Geography 220 and geography 203 will be taught by Dr. T. K. Chang this summer. Dr. Chang, who graduated from two Chinese universities, has his doctor's degree from the University of Nebraska. His teaching experience includes positions in California, Hawaii, the University of Nebraska, and the University of Oklahoma. He is now teaching at Carroll College, Waukesha. Dr. Chang, now an American citizen, was born in China, although his wife and their three children are American born.

Miss Ellen Charter has been employed for the summer to teach the intermediate grades at the Campus school. She is a graduate of the National College of Education at Evanson, Illinois, and is currently teaching at Two Rivers, Wisconsin.

"The Raid" Scheduled

"The Raid," a 20th Century-Fox film, will be coming May 1 to the Library Theater, presented by Round Table. This is an exciting drama of Civil War days built around the little-known incident of the burning and looting of St. Albans, Vermont, in 1864.

A human road-block is used to prevent the Union cavalry from catching up with retreating forces. The cast includes: Van Heflin, Anne Bancroft, Richard Boone, and Lee Marvin. The film will be shown at 8:30 and 8:30 on May 10. The regular admission of 35c will be charged.

Biologists Plan Trip

Early Thursday morning, May 10, the Biology 220 students will leave on an extended field trip to the area around the Menominee Indian reservation and will return on May 12. Biology 220, better known as ecology, is made up of two sections consisting of 40 students. The two classes are taught by Dr. Walter R. Sylvester and John W. Barnes, both of whom will accompany the classes on the field trip.

Some time will be spent in the Nicolet National Forest studying the relationship of insects to the forest. The forest's deer herd will also be an item of interest to the men.

Most of the class's time, however, will be spent in the Menominee Indian reservation where they will observe its stands of virgin timber and such specimens of wildflowers as the Dutchman's breeches and squirrel corn.

Another point of interest that the class will take in is the sawmill at Neopit, Wis., which is one of the last remaining sawmills in the state. An annual fair, many students have felt that the ecology field trip was one of the highlights of their collegiate career.

National Sigma Zeta Convention To Be Held Here This Weekend

Zeta Chapter of Central State college will serve as host for the national Sigma Zeta convention which will be held in Stevens Point from Thursday, April 26, through Saturday, April 28. A total of 82 delegates will attend, representing eight chapters and four states. Arrangements for housing and meals have been made at Deltzell and Nelson Halls.

The convention will get underway Thursday with registration in the Pine social gathering for the student delegates at the Student Union starts at 7:30, while faculty members attending will meet with the national officers in the faculty lounge of the library.

Present national officers are: James McCloy, Epsilon chapter, Otterbein college, Westerville, Ohio, president; Zylpha Hurlbut, Upsilon, Anderson college, Anderson, Indiana, vice-president; Gilbert Faust, Zeta, Central State, recorder-treasurer; Walter Eller, Kappa, Western Illinois State college, Macomb, Illinois, historian.

Half the delegates will tour each mill, then be transported to the other by bus.

After lunch, McCloy will preside over a business meeting, at which auditing, nominating, resolutions, and Founder's committees will be set up. The first 10 of a total of 16 student papers will then be presented.

Two CSC students will be among these reading papers. They are Lambert Schommer, with "Report on Inclusion Compound," and Frederick Wenzel, with "The Determination of a Serumucoid Fraction of Serum Proteins, Their Physiological and Pathological Significance."

Gerald C. Mueller, M.D., Ph.D., associate professor of oncology, Mc-

Ardle Memorial Laboratory for Cancer Research, University of Wisconsin Medical School, will be the guest speaker at the 6:30 p.m. banquet held at the Hotel Whiting. His topic is "A Journey into Cancer Research." Gilbert W. Faust will serve as toastmaster, while Jack Zel, baritone, with Margaret Christ as accompanist, will sing.

Saturday morning at 8:30 a group picture will be taken. Then the six remaining student papers will be presented, followed by a general session at which the committees will give their reports and the new national officers will be announced. No Class Tomorrow!

It is announced by the administration that there will be no classes on Friday, April 27, because of the Association of Wisconsin State College faculties convention.

Show's hilarious "ARMS AND THE MAN" is one comic situation after another as the Dublin Players, gaily costumed in London, return the classic to this country in the fifth Nationwide tour.

Siasafi Hosts At Hayride

Friday, March 23, was an eventful day for the members of the Siasafi, but especially for the pledges of the organization, for it was this day that marked the end of pledging. It also marked the opening of a weekend of merriment. On Friday, the members and pledges went out to the Wing Bar for fish, after which the pledges were tested and were put to other tests of alertness. The rest of the evening was spent in singing and enjoying themselves in any way they wished.

Controlled Burning Carried Out By AKL

By Dave Kubach

A motorist travelling south on Highway F, west of Plainfield, Wis., in the township of Grant, on Sunday afternoon, April 15, would have received the impression that the entire county was burning up. The already dismal sky was made even darker by the enormous sheet of smoke that was ascending in the west.

Chances are that a motorist would search for the source of this township wide smoke-screen. He would chase the smoke along a bumpy road branching off F and leading through a sandy and seemingly barren area of grass, scattered Jack pine and willow. Soon the adventurous driver would come to the springhead of the smoke and find it to be approximately 80 acres of blazing marsh.

Scattered along the edges of the fire and in back of it were around a dozen people. Instead of attempting to extinguish the fire, however, they were lighting unburned areas and striving to increase the inferno that was destroying the vegetation. Their only attempts at halting the fire were at two fence lines running at right angles to the road the inquisitive motorist would have followed, and about one-half mile apart. The fire was burning itself out on the road and not being allowed to spread to the other side.

If the driver had inquired as to why this busy group of people were starting fires instead of putting them out, which is the usual procedure in such cases, he would have found that in this instance the fire was actually a conservation measure, an attempt to improve the habitat of the prairie chicken.

The prairie chicken is a bird of the grassland and when this grassland becomes infiltrated with willows and other brush it loses its ability to support them. At the present time the prairie chickens have lost almost all of their grassland range and cannot afford to lose any more if they are not to go the way of the passenger pigeon.

This particular fire, known in conservation circles as an example of controlled burning, was an attempt to remove the brush that was crowding out the grass in this 80 acre area of prairie chicken range.

The Alpha Kappa Lambda Fraternity of CSC sponsored this burning in co-operation with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hammerstrom who are recognized as the foremost authorities in the world on the prairie chicken and who are in charge of prairie chicken management in that area. Ranger Bill Peterson, Dr. Walter Sylvester, Jim Miller, Bill Bucher, Dud Zimmerman, and Dave Kubach assisted the Hammerstroms in the burning project for the AKL.

Volleyball League End, Phi Sigs Win

April 17 marked the close of intramural volleyball season, a season which left the Phi Sigs undisputed champions. On their way to the championship they defeated the second place Ghosts 15-7, the third place Rebels, and the lowly Gutless Fruits twice.

The Ghosts had only one loss going into the final two games but they couldn't manage to pin a pair of defeats on the Phi Sigs. The Gutless Fruits turned the only upset when they defeated the Ghosts 15-13.

Fireman, Save My Land! CSC Smoke-Eaters Active

In a state such as Wisconsin, where countless people are dependent upon the forest and its products for a livelihood, a forest fire is considered almost the ultimate in natural catastrophes. Forest fires destroy valuable timber, homes and property. A picturesque countryside can be reduced to a smoldering, barren expanse of useless terrain.

Realizing these things, 18 CSC students residing at Delzell Hall have formed a fire crew that is ready to assist Ranger Bill Peterson on any fires in his area, at a moment's notice. The men are: Jim Miller, Ted Hitzler, Bill Bucher, Glenn Dumonithier, Al Knight, Chuck Knight, Dick Johnson, Bob Hensler, Paul Sager, Jim Wavrunek, Dave, Kubach, Jack Kimla, Don Wilson, Dick Wanie, Bob Waid, Dud Zimmerman, and Dick Damro.

Jim Miller and Ted Hitzler were the ones chiefly responsible for the organization of the fire crew. They got the idea for an organized fire crew from a remark made by Dr. Walter R. Sylvester during one of their classes, to the effect that, in the past, emergency fire crews were untrained and inexperienced in fire fighting.

As Delzell Hall has the greatest number of men living in one place, Miller and Hitzler formed the fire crew from its residents. The 18 volunteers were divided into two separate crews, with Jim Miller leading one crew and Ted Hitzler leading the other.

At this writing, the crew, organized about three weeks ago, have already been called out to fight five fires. The men have returned with smoke-redened eyes, blackened faces, and covered with mud. They receive 75 cents an hour from the state for their efforts, along with the satisfaction of helping save a part of our natural resources.

With the exception of the back packs and pumps, the equipment used by the fire crew is the property of the conservation department of CSC.

AKL Makes Plans For The Annual Smelt Fry

At the April 18 meeting of Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity, the conservation students began making plans for their annual smelt fry. Wednesday, May 2, was the date selected.

A group of members consisting of "Nubbs" Yingling, John Wheaton, Curtis Judd, and Fred J. Schmeckle, conservation director, left April 20 for the Green Bay area to net the smelt for the dinner.

Al Curtis, Ed Ferber, Ed Fravell, Chuck Knight, Bob Smiley, and Gene Curtis volunteered to handle the kitchen for the smelt fry. Jerry Rickman and Ed Ferber were put in charge of issuing invitations, while Curtis Judd, Garry Haneman, and Lyle Jacobs took on the clean-up duties.

At the same meeting, the club members received their sweat shirts with the club name and emblem on them, which AKL had ordered a few weeks ago.

A motion was raised and passed at the April 18 meeting to donate $5.00 to the Ray Lepak Fund.

Ed Fravell and Tom Farrell offered to creosote the school sign in front of the Main Building while Jerry Rickman volunteered to head a committee to repair CSC's fire fighting equipment which is receiving quite a bit of use this spring.

Letting Out the Air

By Carl Huberty

The softball bug has caught hold here at CSC, as the Interfraternity Softball League has gotten under way and the intramural program is due to start in the near future.

Coach Bernard F. Wievel's netmen were trimmed by Stout in their first match last Saturday despite the cheering from behind the fence by Earl ("He who casts no shadow") Grow.

A former Pointer athlete, Don Herrmann, has accepted a new head coaching position at Oconto. Don is currently at Wittenberg where he was head football coach for the past two seasons.

Another ex-Pointer football star, Carl Wiemann, was inducted into the army earlier this month. Carl was teaching and coaching at Wausau for the past football and basketball season.

An episode which Larry Collins hopes isn't conducive to the typical attitude of his Cubs' pitchers:

It was opening day in Chicago. The Cubs were playing the St. Louis Cardinals in the first game of a new season. But down in the Cards' dugout, an star but eccentric pitcher, Paul "Daffy" Dean (the Sam Jones of the 30's) lazily stretched out on the bench, yawned and sighed: "Ah sure'll be glad when this baseball season is over."

Vikings Beat Pointers In Spring Track Opener

The CSC Trackmen fell at the hands of the Vikings of Lawrence by a score of 78 1/2 to 52 1/2. The meet was held on Saturday afternoon, April 21, at Lawrence College field-house in Appleton. Both teams were working under a serious handicap, which was caused by a strong cross wind.

Coach Harrer was well pleased with the work of the team as a whole but praised the individual work of Carl Huberty, who won the high jump at 5 ft. 10 in., tied for first in the pole vault, and took a second in the broad jump.

The results of the intra-squad meet were: 100 yard dash - 1. Grisham, freshman; 2. Drake, junior; 3. Meuret, freshman. Time - 10.25 seconds. 220 yard dash - 1. Meuret, freshman; 2. Drake, junior; 3. Buss, sophomore; Time - 2 minutes, 15.4 seconds. One mile run - 1. Yetter, freshman; 2. Drake, junior; Buss, sophomore. Time - 5 minutes, 31 seconds. 220 yard low hurdles - 1. Meuret, freshman; 2. Campus Bowling Holds Annual Banquet

Tuesday, April 10, was B day for the members of the various teams that had competed in the Campus Bowling League on Thursday evening during the past few months. The "B" stands for banquet, and that is just what the men had at the Red Mill. Instead of the practice of using the money to award prizes to the various teams, it was all used to pay for the meal.

John Miller was elected president, Orv Koepke, vice-president, and Art Feldman, secretary-treasurer. The newly elected president, John Miller, Jr., was awarded a small plate for his fine job of improving his average more than anyone else had. Unlike most banquets, this one didn't have a guest speaker. Instead, the time was used for card playing after the election. Refreshments were on hand for all who cared to enjoy them.

Softball League Planned With Four Greek Groups

This year, something new has been added to the spring sport roster. Instead of participating in intramural softball, the four Greek organizations on campus are going to participate in an I.F.C. tourney or league.

Under the leadership of the I. F. C.'s athletic chairman, Ara Sergejian, the teams will be scheduled to play six games during the year. These games will be played at 5 o'clock on Monday and Wednesday evenings on Schmeckle Field, the first to begin on Wednesday, April 25.

At the end of the year, a trophy will be awarded to the best team, and any team that wins three prizes will be able to keep the prize permanently.

With the ending of the year, the boys will get together for the last game and have refreshments afterward.

The teams competing will be from Tau Kappa Epsilon, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Phi Sigma Epsilon, and Alpha Beta Rho.

Baseball Squad Splits Opener With LaCrosse

The Pointers opened their 1956 campaign at La Crosse by dividing the nightcap. The local nine lost the first game 5-3, while copping the nightcap 4-3 in an extra inning.

The first game saw LaCrosse get four runs in the second inning with an insurance run in the fifth. Singles by Jack Pease and John Smith and a wild pitch gave the CSC nine a 1-0 lead in the first.

Another CSC run came in the fourth inning when Ron Hoensch singled. An error brought the run across. The final run came in the seventh on an error, walk, Jack Pease's single and a double play grounder by Smith.

The nightcap had CSC on top with a double by Krull and a sacrifice to third in the eighth. Merlyn Habeck then singled home Krull to end the extended game.

Table with 5 columns: 1st game, 2nd game, R, H, E. Rows for La Crosse and Central State.

"Youngsters" Sweep The Intra-Squad Track Meet

Freshman-Sophomore unit came through to out-point the Junior-Senior track combination by a score of 83 1/2 to 45 1/2. This meet was started on Saturday, April 14 and finished on Monday, April 16 on Schmeckle field.

Coeds Pool Talents To Teach Pool Talent

By Barbara Brenner

"Of course you'll sink if you inhale under water." This is being explained to a gasping member of the CSC swimming classes over at P.N.J. Jacobs High School pool.

Such valuable information is passed out Monday through Thursday in Miss Marjorie Schelthout's classes by either or all of her collaborators - Lois Tucker, Janet Madison, Mary Jo Buggs, Eleanor Rostal of last semester, and Jane Weronke, Mary Jo Buggs, and Barbara Korbol of this semester.

The class is split into three sections, beginners, intermediate, and the advanced group. All the ardent beginners are in the hands of Miss Schelthout. Last semester Lois and Mary Jo inspired the advanced classes while Jan and Eleanor worked diligently with the intermediates.

This semester Jane teaches the advanced class, while Mary Jo and Barbara help the intermediate group learn and improve their strokes.

All the girls have their Life-Saving certificates and some have their instructor's certificates also. Sylvia Hanson, who is helping with one class, is in the process of getting her instructor's.

No remuneration is made for the time and patience spent during these classes other than the experience in teaching. And, speaking of experience, Miss Schelthout says this is a most unusual one for her. She enjoys working with the girls and finds them an immense help.

Tennis, Golf Meets

Both the golf squad under Coach Roberts and the tennis squad under Coach Wievel and Coach Cross are playing at Lawrence this weekend.

The Tennis squad, smarting from a defeat by Stout, is being led by Ken Wasserman, and Ken Salzwedel as the number 1 and 2 men respectively.

The golf team will be paced by David Stark, a sophomore from Wisconsin Rapids.

This picture took almost four years to get here from Britain, which just goes to show to what lengths the Pointer will go to get on-the-spot coverage. Dr. Richard Taylor, (fourth from right) is shown with the Mayor and other officials of Eastbourne, Sussex, England in the summer of 1952.

At Least It Got Here

"The mail must go through!" In order to prove this famous quote, Dr. Richard W. Taylor presented the Pointer with a letter he received (along with an enclosed photograph) from Eastbourne, Sussex, England.

It seems that in July 1952 Dr. Taylor was in charge of a group of students from the University of Minnesota that visited England that summer. Among things the group studied was local government.

This letter was mailed on July 11, 1952 and was finally delivered to Dr. Taylor last week, almost four years later!
