No doubt many of the students in the School of Bob Chesbro and his orchestra. For a clarinetist to have his clarinet without the backing of the orchestra, it is companion to his personality of music. Therefore, it is natural that the room and all the equipment are open and ready for the purchase of the clarinet. It was designed by Norbert Reit of the Vetter Manufacturing company.

Cheesbro Changes Musical Pace

The student darkroom is open and available for use. The problems which have caused its delay have been solved and all is in order. The room is available (on the lower floor) most of the equipment which is necessary for the operation of a darkroom. The equipment is owned by the Union Board for students who desire to use it. The room, which is the key to the union building, is under the supervision of Mrs. McNamara and Miss Murphy, the Union secretaries.

The use of the room and the equipment is free to any student who wants to use it and will care for it. The individual supplies must be furnished by the user, but a supply is available in the game center. It is available at the union for students to purchase.

The following policies concerning the darkroom are in effect and will be enforced by the union staff:

1. The room will be kept locked.
2. Keys are locked in a safe kept by the game center to authorize persons only.
3. Damage to the room or equipment will be charged to the last person using the room.
4. The use of the room is on a first come, first served basis.
5. Students authorized to use the room will be those known to the union director.
6. Keys are issued in Union except by permission from the game center.

This darkroom is a welcome addition to the student body and is a great asset.

Message to the students via the student mailbox in the main building no longer addressed.

Union Briefs

The entire union will close about 15 minutes after the last bell on December 18. No meetings will be held in the cafeteria that evening.

The union will remain closed until January 3. The Snack Bar will open at 2 P.M. on the 3rd. The game center will also open on the 3rd. A special dinner will be served in the cafeteria will be breakfast on January 4. Your December meal tickets will be honored until January 7, so don't leave them at home.

The union staff wishes all a Merry Christmas and the best of luck in the New Year!

New Organization On Campus

The Central State Economics and Business Association is a new addition to our growing school. It was formed recently by active economics students. The Economics Association will greatly further economics and business at Central State, and present a new outlet for ideas, discussion, and interchange of thoughts among students of all subjects.

One of the main functions of the Association will be to bring in outside speakers in economics and related fields. The entire school will be invited to hear outside guest speakers. It is believed that most people are interested in the discussion of timely topics.

At a recent organizational meeting, John Murphy was elected president; Larry Baker, vice president; Ray Loucar, treasurer; secretary, and Bert Erickson, treasurer. This dyarchy is a very significant move. Various committees, are overcoming the multitude of details that confronts a new organization, and making rapid progress in setting up the Association in operation. College takes十分 of timely topics.

Primarys Meet

Junior Primary council held its monthly meeting December 7 at 6:45 P.M. in the art room. Karen Fruesing, president.

The members made 115 favors for the Christmas dinner of 25th anniversary of the Wisconsin Indian children. The favors are in the form of snowmen, Christmas trees, Santa Claus, and angels. Each favor holds a sucker. Plans are for the favors to accompany the presents being given by the Junior Primary council. For many of the children, these will be the only gifts they will receive. Dear Editor,

You can call me John, your editorial in the November 24 issue of the Clarion was the most ridiculous one that I have ever seen. You mentioned that there is much unnecessary friction between students and the faculty, and that this is not good for school spirit.

I disagree. I believe that it is important for the faculty to be approachable and friendly, and that this helps to create a positive school atmosphere. I believe that students should be encouraged to ask questions and to run for positions of leadership in the school, and that this helps to foster a sense of community.

The fact that students and faculty have conflicts is not a bad thing. It is natural for people to have disagreements, and these differences can be productive if they are handled in a respectful manner.

Sincerely,

John Smith

Christmas, the joyous holiday season. The SBS are looking forward to having a Merry Christmas and year for merriment and joy.

At this time of the year everyone is all filled with Christmas cheer and spirit. The fetus also figure to have its fill of spirit.

It had been voted that at 11:00 p.m. on the 500th last Saturday; that they would have SBS. Judy was good, but Judy never showed up. Santa brought all suspicious, wondering if this is really Christmas.

Nevertheless, fun was had by all present. The music flowed, everything topped off with taps and finally the vests were thrown in before the participants were thrown to a fine end for all was a pool of fun.

Rare and valuable gifts were received at the party. Unlike the Christmasspirit, we were able to give away a muffed up to help carry out our duties. It doesn’t go bang, but it was able to carry it on for some time and never saw.

The wrestling team was present to include Schreier’s Special Expert trophy which should help keep everyone’s spirits up. The rest of the presents are so many and we would like to include Schreier’s year subscription to the Michiko Rose Bowl tickets for all the members of our sorority. Yes, everyone’s happy at Christmas—students, faculty, and your editor. On the campus must be especial as there are going to be a number of events that will go beautifully. We wish you all a happy holiday.

Yes, everyone’s happy at Christmas—students, faculty, and your editor. There are going to be a number of events that will go beautifully. We wish you all a happy holiday.

In conclusion we would like to congratulate those who have decorated our halls and the Student Union with the design decorations. We do this. We, the 5500, want to wish each and everyone of you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year and especially an enjoyable eighteen day vacation.

ruined the water as he acquired “water home.” I’m sure he realized that later and spewed to his head, and from this point on, he didn’t seem to be a big success.

Kudla’s next step to the top was when the Army got him. He served in Korea for two years, gift-wrapped him, and he came home. After this, he worked as a specialist 2nd class—Harlem Roulette for a Lt. Colonel and served as his “private secretary.” This treatment was the forerunner of his career as Germany, by the way, was the U.S. on the Danube. It is a plain fact, it’s true, especially at flood stages in the spring.

Our dynamo swung up on CSC at the 11-year plan and managed to carry out this plan strategically. He is now being romanced with an English major and History and Art minors and has decided to graduate in Secondary education.

Jerry is quite an able journalist and has worked on the Stevens Point Daily Journal for the past four years and on the Disappoist Staff. He was your editor for the better part of a year, Don’t you think a man of Jerry’s stature would pass on the Stylish Alumni Association? He gave his Christmas gift to the Alumni Association and treasurer (in different years) and suggested the presenters, the supercharged, the heroic, and insincere Impressionism, paving the way for modern art. The pictures in the book are shown in all their directness, freshness and strength.

Life planning was subject enough for Dogas, who has given this book a highly individualistic version of everyday experiences.

The author, Georges Crossard, is a leading young French critic and art historian. He writes that the generation of French artists who turned their backs on everything the bourgeois and industrial mind has created, the heroic and insincere impressionism, paving the way for modern art.

Dogas is only a small part of what the BOOK SHOP has to offer. Come in and see for yourself.

Miss McHugh Wins Nelson Jones Scholarship

By Karen Knowles

McHugh, a native of Indiana, and State College, has been awarded the Nelson Kedzie Jones scholarship by the Wisconsin Home Demonstration Council.

The scholarship of $100 is awarded every three years to a Central State College Sophomore or above. The recipient must be an outstanding Home Economics student who needs and deserves financial help and encouragement.

McHugh, who is majoring in Home Economics Education, has received other scholarships which include the American County Home Demonstration Scholarship, the Legislative Scholarship, and the My Roth Scholarship. Employment at the College Union and in the office of one of the professors here at CSC enables Darlene to earn her way through college.

Darlene is a member of the Home Economics club and Newman club and has recently become a member of the Delta Delta sorority.

You’re Kidding

Sunday night habitues of the Snack bar were recently startled by a call from Mrs. Dixie Kudla, a member of the canine family. This one wasn’t even vaguely reminiscent of a pointer; it was hastily ushered from the premises amid boisterous barks and hisses.

Although the story was unrelenting, John Angtrace was a good opera, enjoyable even to those whose musical talent is nil. All of the voices were well done, and it seems that Consé Simandou was especially well chosen for the lead role. Only one disturbing note—the piano was, at times, quite a companion for the voices to overcome. The music director is doing a tremendous job in providing the school and the city with musical entertainment, and I’m certain that the Christmas concert will also be a big success.

I think Pahlon’s “Friendly World” is a fare — a pretty one — but nevertheless, a fare. What does he really know about those lines? On the other hand, Harry Simeon’s “Little Drummer Boy” is a masterpiece of melody, composition, balance, beauty, and simplicity.

Why is it that December 26 is always so flat? We spend weeks decked with trimming and singing carols and shopping in preparation for Christmas. Then we have one big rip-roaring day on December 25, and the 26 is spent sleeping it off and cleaning or working with not so much as a Christmas song in our hearts — and it’s only the second day of Christmas! If we could just, jest the joy of the first Christmas day through all the twelve days of Christmas what a difference! The twelfth day of Christmas is January 5th, our second day of resumed classes — let’s try to have some holiday spirit left for the rest of the week.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

P. S. Don’t forget to hang the mistletoe.

AKYS Note Doings

The last testing of AKYS was held on Thursday, December 4. All of the AKYS members bloomed in their hunting grounds and wildlife refugees in Wisconsin was the issue. AKYS was interested in the relationship between the students and their instructor, the department, and the hunters in the department.

Plans for the annual venison dinner were discussed. The dinner would be held and will be held at the Legion hall. The dinner will be $2.00 per plate. Several outstanding cooks in the field of Conservation have been asked to speak. All professors and faculty are invited to attend.

A Christmas Message

By Barbara Johnson

Will it ever be glad when Christmas is over? I wish that we wouldn't have to put up with so many gifts. This is the most hectic time of the year. These are a few of the usual complaints heard on Wednesday, November 18.

Christmas should be looked forward to, not dreaded because we have so much to do. It is a family time, even better if the steel strike can be avoided. We can have Christmas programs and parties special. The result is that it is difficult to get one's own family preparations done.

It should be a peaceful, unburdened season. We can re-echo the words of President Eisenhower, who said, "A little snow, a little sleet, a little merriment, a little - just to have a little peace and quiet."

On November 23, Christmas decorations were up and the stores were already preparing for the year's big buying and selling spree. Holiday greetings and cards were sent to the family and friends. Mistletoe, holly wreaths and poinsettias were on display. Each Christmas card contains a hint of the gift to come. It is a time that we must not forget the true meaning of Christmas.

What has happened to the meaning and spirit of Christmas? Why do you give gifts to one another and see the freedom of the American people that they have given you.

My daughter Sarah will be ten years old on Christmas Day. She is longing to open her presents and see what is inside. She doesn't care what is inside, as long as it is from one of her parents.

We have a tradition in our family to give each other a Christmas present. Some years we have given each other a book, and some years we have given each other a piece of jewelry. Some years we have given each other a toy, and some years we have given each other a piece of clothing.

This year, we are giving each other a book.

I hope that you have a wonderful Christmas. May it be a time of joy and happiness for all of you.

CSC Thanks "Vic" For A Job Well Done

"Vic, will you please come to the office?" Most of us have heard this message above the din at the Union and wondered at the same time, "Where is Vic?"

To employees of the Union, "Vic" needs no introduction, to the rest of you students, "Vic" is Victor Wroblewski, maintenance supervisor of the Student Union. His job is to see that the building is kept looking like it did the day it opened to the students. This appears to be no small task, yet "Vic" and his crew perform it efficiently.

Congratulations on your fine family, "Vic," and we wish you many enjoyable years on the "job" here at CSC.

The Story Scoop From Schup

You might call this column "Oh, What a Fake Out" this issue. Between the time the Scoop was written and the present, the Pointers will have played three basketball games and participated in the State College Wrestling meet at Madison. The Badgers will be on their way to sunny California for their New Year's Day tussle with Washington in the Rose Bowl and the Packers will have finished out their season against the San Francisco 49ers.

Apparently, the opposing coaches thought more of the Pointers 1969 football team than the record indicates. Dick Johnson, Mike Liebenstein, Dale Schallert, and Clarence Robeshop were all selected to first team honors both on the same Division Wisconsin State College all-conference team. A fifth Pointer, Bob Fischer, just missed being placed on the team by one vote. Bill Kuse and Jack邦 were both given a vote of recognition, but weren't placed on the ballot because they missed the last three games because of injuries. No other school placed more than three men on the team.

It sure seems good to have the basketball team back at full strength. When the season started, Sam Antcliffe was laid up with an injured knee and Bill Kuse was still recovering from a football injury.

Now that both players are back in shape coach Hale Quandt's squad should provide some real thrills in the next few months. Before this happens, however, they still have to jell as a team especially on the fast break. During the second half of the Northland game the Pointers started to click it off as a fast break should be clicked off. If they continue to use the break as their interest suggests UWM will have a mighty tough road to climb before it can start dreaming of any championship possibilities.

How many of you happened to notice who the Times Man of the Year was in 1937? Remember those ads that were placed in the newspapers last week? According to those, Queen Elizabeth II held the honor of Man of the Year in 1939. It seems to me that either somebody goofed or something fishy is going on.

The Pointers through surprisingly strong in their first wrestling meet of the season when they finished third in the Central State Wrestling meet at the Campus school December 5. The Pointers win their only championship, but Norm Dorn, Boyd Gibb and Art Houze, another Coleman freshman, all collected second place finishes. Tom Pfeiffer and Fin Muller collected consolation trophies while Kip Pagel lost both his matches by narrow margins. For their efforts, the Pointer coaches should come up with some mighty good battles before the season gets too far along.

The Badgers finally get a chance to redeem themselves! While the last meeting was a classic day for the Badgers as the only Big Ten team to suffer defeat in the Rose Bowl, the Pointers return experience. There won't be any easy task to win on New Years day. While Wisconsin is ranked sixth in the nation, the cowboys from Wisconsin are ranked eighth, so both teams are highly rated and will be fighting for a decided victory. This is a fight that fans will go to if the weather is fair. The team is being paced by Larry Perrotta, Jim Hansen, Dennis Robertson, and Don Whites.

Well, I guess it's time to call a halt to this and wish every one a happy New Year and a Merry Christmas.

Survey Says: Hunters Not Sportsmen

By Bernard B. Coulthurst

Deer — deer — deer — all over the place, going to waste because of the many hunters who are not sportmen, is the scene in the Necedah National Wildlife refuge.

Wisconsin Conservation department personnel made a survey Saturday, December 5, to see how many illegal deer were killed because of hunters' carelessness. A ratio of approximately two illegal deer to one legal deer is the result of this survey in the Necedah Wilderness refuge, reported Stanley de Boer, area game supervisor at Black River Falls.

Results like this and the increasing number of hunters killed by gunshot indicate that an outrageous percentage of the hunters shoot before they think. Why don't you do the trick? I really never know, but something has to be done soon to stop this KILLING of hunters and game. Do you have a suggestion on how we can make hunters into sportsmen once again which will re-establish our safety hunting season for everyone?

Fishing In County Is Good

Ice fishing in Portage county is very good according to local fishermen, especially on McDill pond located south of Stevens Point.

Bluegills and northern pike have been biting on the McDill pond. In fact, one fisherman caught six medium size bluegills during the same day. I was talking to Mr. Johnson, area game supervisor at Black River Falls.

Love Creek, another favorite fishing location in the county, hasn't been tried yet; probably because of little or no ice in most of the area until more consecutive days of good, cold weather is on the way, that is, from the Love Creek fishermen's point of view.

The number of places to go are limited, but one can pretty sure of getting a few fish to eat with the "ole skillet sizzling. I think I will try my luck tomorrow or Sunday. Why don't you do the same?

First and Ten

Points 93 Lakeland 70

The second half pretty much told the story Monday night, November 30, as the Pointers won their first basketball game of the season at Lakeland. The score was 93-70.

Coach Hale Quandt's team had plenty of trouble getting started in the first half and led only 44-43 at halftime.

Sam Antcliffe and Tom Gurler began clearing the boards while the Pointers began working the fast break and rallied to build up a good lead in the second half.

Sampson led the Pointers scoring with 18 points, showed good spring in his legs as he grabbed 15 rebounds to lead the department.

All 12 players that made the trip to Lakeland got a chance to play in the game.

Guard Rich Multerer for Lakeland was high rated and showed good lead with 17 points. He was followed by reserve guard Bill Schull with 15 points.

Central State had quite a bit of trouble getting their free throwers down as they made only 13 of 27, Lakeindhoven was 17 of 29.

Pointers made 40 of 76 field goal attempts for 52 per cent average. While the opposition hit on 27 of 74 for a 36.4 per centage.

Points Drowned

Last Monday night the Pointers traveled to Mosinee where they absorbed their worst defeat in a number of years, 106-59. It's a good thing that the Pointers were still around to tuck in their tails and sneak quietly home.

It seems that everything White Lake tried worked out perfectly. The Pointers were supposed to be the last big league team in the state, but they were only 10 out of 21. They more than made up for this on field goals and sank 48 of 90 attempts for a 53.3 per centage. Sampson's Mitts made 8 out of 22 from the field and added 2 free throwers to lead the Pointers with 7.5 per centage.

The Pointers on the other hand made only 24 of 69 field goal attempts for a none too good 34.5 per centage.

These were sung by a Bible missionary about the Christians today, Barnabas. This matter then spread throughout the world. The new songs are stronger and women McCarthy, Adams, and Peter Kroner, (better known as Bobi McHugh) have sung their share. Spring of all-Greek dance was celebrated Tuesday evening, November 18 at Port箱子, Wisconsin. Sigs, and Allen-Vestas, Oconto, were also initiated this past weekend. Details of the initiation will be found in the next issue.

The Omega would like to thank all the students and faculty for making this weekend a success. The Omega held their Christmas party December at Port箱子's, Wisconsin. There was a dance and a small auction of the remains of the Christmas bazaar. All the proceeds from the sale of items, with the exception of one, was given to a Lutheran church in the area. This one item, a large Alpha Sigma plaque, had a buck parked under a topper and a toot—cigard party last Thursday. Those members of the Alpha Sigma who helped to make the Christmas happier for the children at the Northern Wisconsin Colony and Training School at Chippewa Falls were: Bill Guilt, Mrs. and Mr. Robert Kroner, Mrs. and Mr. Bernard Wielow and Dr. and Mrs. Hugo McCarthy. The Tau Gam pledges, Galli Wicks, Wisconsin Dells, and Allen-Vestas, Oconto, were also initiated this past weekend. Details of the initiation will be found in the next issue.

The Interfraternity council met Monday evening, November 22 at the "A" of the Student Union at which several important business matters were discussed. Among the important items was the creation of the iris. Ed Hummel gave the financial report, and Mrs. and Mr. Kroner were elected to the council. There was discussion of the possibility of sponsoring a Greek picnic for the spring. Further discussion will be held at the next meeting of the council.

Phi Sigma Phi

On Tuesday evening, November 27, the active members of the Phi Sigma Phi fraternity gave a party for those students interested in being brothers to the home of Robert Esch and Ken Esch. This was the fourth such party sponsored by the fraternity and sponsored by the Greek organizations of the university. The Phi Sigma Phi was started at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 1967.

On Tuesday evening, December 5, the Sig Eps set up and decorated the home of Robert Esch and Ken Esch to be the main building of the council.

The recipients of the National Scholarship were announced Saturday, December 9, 1960. Of the 600 youn g men who applied, 11 were chosen—Pete DeBoer, the "Green Door" of the Phi Sigma Phi fraternity.

The U. G. Dubach scroll awarded to the Phil Sigma Phi for the most distinguished member of the chapter as determined by the faculty advisors was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Dubach at the "Green Door" of the fraternity. This is the highest achievement of scholarship recognition at the university.

Gary Goddard received the Cliff Larson Award for giving the highest scholarship ranking member each year to the chapter as determined by the faculty advisors. His award was presented to the chapter by the Alpha Phi Omega at the "Green Door" of the fraternity.

The Dear Friends, We have sung to you many songs this fall, and we plan to continue to sing. But we would appreciate it if you could make a contribution to help defray our expenses. We have included a contribution envelope with this letter so that you may make a donation if you wish.

Yule “Givers” Have Their Say

Everyone thinks about what he’d like for Christmas. Let’s make a switch and see what some of the students would like to give.

Ron Johannscheit: Care packages for all those who give to the Union. Perpetual late nights for all college girls. A party every night, I’d like to give my geography and history book. I’d like to give my professors a little Christmas present, come time to make grades.

Jon Schuppert: Trick or treat, all students. I’d like to give my grade point average a a Charlie Alderman: A man for every girl. Because I don’t know if my fan club is as large as it should be, it is impossible for me to remember everyone, so I will just wish my entire fan club a merry Christmas. I’d like to give everyone girl lessons (in bill should.

Joe Browne:

And last but not least, a statement that sums up the whole spirit behind Christmas.

Me? Why should I give anybody anything?

Know Your Union

Dear Polesers,

Since the Student council has a regular report of its meetings in The Pointer, the general feel­ ing has been that the College Union board also should make reports known to the student body.

Let me introduce you first to the members of the board and to the function of the board in regard to the operation of our College Union.

The board is composed of three faculty members, two members from each class (one male and one female appointed by the Student council in the second semester of their freshman year who will serve in office at the same time each year), one and one female elected at large by the election of the council and one representative from the Student council. The Student council has all vacancies on the board by election within the council and it has the power to call meetings of members submitted by the board and the council.

This year the board members are: Mrs. E. L. Krumpold, senior representative; Jane Ann Johnson, junior representative; Mrs. Alice Tranovsky, sophomore representative; Beth Mealy, junior representative; Bob Labrot, student council representative. The female representatives are: Beth Mealy, Beth Phillips, Mr. Orland Radius, and Miss Pat Murphy (chairman); the Union director, Mr. John R. Townsend, and secretary, Mrs. E. L. Krumpold, have no vote.

The board president and secretary are elected within the board.

The Union board acts as an advisory board to the director of the food service and the College Union. It acts upon all policies directly connected with the operation of the Union building, including the food service. Some of its powers include regulating the hours of operation, dress regulations, operation of the game center, all social events sponsored by the Union, allocation of space and other policies of operation.

In addition, the board selects a student manager each spring to be part of the administrative staff. This person may or may not be a member of the board. The student manager has re­ sponsibility of the game center, game rooms, music listening room and student dark rooms. The only of the student man­ager comes from the Union admin­istrative budget. Gloria Rich­ardson is the student manager this year.

Several committees have been set up to cover various phases of Union board functions. These included: The house committee, Bob Labrot, chairman, Beth Mealy and Jim Lasko; social committee, Jane Ann Johnson, chairman, Mrs. Pfifker, Judy Oldenburg and Jim Lasko; games and tournaments, Gloria Rich­ardson, Ken Ensment and Glenn Zip.

The board meets on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month with the officers meeting on the first and third Thursday when necessary.

The Union board welcomes any suggestions or complaints you may have. We want to make this Union your Union and if there is anything you want to see done, please let us know by contacting one of the members personally or by note or by attendance at the meetings.

Sincerely,

Jane Ann Johnson, President, College Union Board

On Christmas Spirit

By Ed Mealy

Christmas time is a jolly time! It is a brief interval of time each year when everyone seems to experi­ence a completely friendly and love-filled atmosphere. It is almost a prettising of heaven. The young and old, the rich and the poor all experience a wonderful feeling and a more binding tie with their fellowmen than ever before.

The spirit of Christmas that comes into existence, it seems, gives a fountain of light seems to melt the normal indifferent attitude of modern men and brings to the surface a truly basic characteristic of love and fellowship.

Christmas time is a reward­ing experience for all. Have you many new toys and games that have been given to you this Christmas? The poor people ex­perience a Christmas that is just as good as the rich.

The rich people experience a period of reunion with families filled with the blessing of security. Yes, even the stores make profit on this most beloved of all holidays.

Christmas time is a sad time for Friends and families and leave the house and now feels empty and quiet. Loneliness is felt upon the children as they must give up their wonder­ ful toys and playmates and go to bed. Perhaps greater still is the sorrow of the poor, for they must face a long winter with little food and clothing.

Christmas comes to the One who was responsible for all the blessings of Christmas. It means year after year, giving and comfort that He has promised. It means that He has given a taste of what life is like for those who love Him. He asks us to be meager, indeed, for all has been given for the human race. All He asks is a little thanksgiving and love. All of us are asked to say "thank you." Praises from those who are truly religious for all the blessings of love and fellowship with one an­other and with Christ.

Let us all this year give of our time and energy to help make the poorer ones feel just a little happier by small kindnesses. Let us all, through everyday kindness and love and a merry Christmas!
Dear J. J.,

"Sigh," Her Dilemma: History Old; Prof. Wants Classics

Dear J. J.,

I’m in love with my ancient history prof. (the history is ancient, he isn’t but he doesn’t seem to realize this. He shows no interest in me aside from an occasional remark concerning my low grades.

What can I do to make him notice me?

Frustrated (and Failing Too)

Dear F. and F.

Appropriately your prof’s interests are on classics. Now, if perhaps you developed a classic figure

Dear J. J.

Margaret, and today I met a girl while cleaning tables at the Student Union. I think it’s love at first sight. What can I do?

Impetuous

Dear Imp.

Love at first sight is a beautiful thing. I remember the first time I looked in a mirror, for instance. But, as for love at first sight between men and women (go figure), Love is something more than skin deep attraction. It takes time to find out if you really love her. For instance, have you found out whether she has money?

Dear J. J.

I have been going with a girl for five and a half weeks. We plan on getting married as soon as I finish my work in meat cutting (comparative anatomy.) I know I’m asking a lot of her to wait. How can I show my appreciation?

The Dissector

Dear Dissector,

I’m sure the gift she would appreciate most would be a marriage license. Then the two of you can help each other as you go through the trials of your education. You’ll find discretion so much more pleasant than discretion in the raw. From what I hear, the marriage license is not at all a strain evenings together, happily cut away. You will develop a mutual understanding, and an appreciation of each other based on cooperation, companionship, and a显示的 solicitude.

Dear What can I do?

What can I do?

Dear Worried.

From reading your letter, I’d suggest you move to a strange town and start life over.

Dear J. J.

This is the first time my son has been away from home. He is attending your college. He recently wrote home and told me he wanted to join the SIU. I’m worried for him. What can I do?

A mother filled with anxiety

Dear Mother Filled.

This is a rather unnerving situation, I’m sure. It is, in one sense, quite an honor to be designated for membership in this organization. On the other hand, one must consider the terrible stigma which your son may acquire for life. A veritable smear on the roulette table (essentially in the form of beer-stained circles). My only suggestion is to humor your son by sending him lots of money. Maybe hell forget for a while.

What’s your problem? Are you troubled with excessive money? Too much time on your hands? Increased tuition? Send your problem to J. J. by placing them in the SOCKET mailbox, addressed to J. J. If you are a stranger in the social world, perhaps you would be interested in a free, informative pamphlet designed to teach you how to mix well.

If you are a home economics major, you may also be interested in a pamphlet which shows you the best ways to keep a happy home through good meals. Either of these two pamphlets may be obtained by writing J. J. and they will be delivered in your mailbox in a plain wrapper.

Bubbles Always Blowing

JOYCE THORSON and Lloyd Mertens enjoyed playing a game at the Pointer staff’s Christmas party. This picture shows the move that won the relay for their team.

And A Good Time Was Had By All

By Jean Droeger

Layout sheets, copy, pencils, erasers and reporters headaches were all pushed aside for the evening as faithful Pointer staff members gathered together Monday, December 7 at 7:30 P.M. in the College Union for a fun-filled Christmas party.

Entertainment committee chairman Barbara Johnson and her assistants, Elmae Omernik and Barbara Ather, began the activities by pinning names of famous persons or characters on everyone’s back. Each person had to discover who he was by asking others questions that could be answered by “yes” or “no.” Identities ranged from Wyatt Earp to Mickey Mouse and Mary Hyde — the latter pinned, of course, onto no one but our own editor, Mary Hyde. One befuddled staff member will be able to remember the character, Dr. Jekyll, after trying to elude various hints from others which led to such guesses as “Mr. Hyde.”

A relay game of “life savers” via a straw held in the mouth tested everyone’s endurance against giggling.

Tasty refreshments of traditional Christmas breads, cookies and egg nog provided by the Union brought the games to a hasty finish. Everyone enjoyed the “fortune cookies” which contained some very interesting bits of wisdom and philosophy.

Popping corn contains water. When the water gets hot enough, the kernel explodes. Result: popcorn.

We’re not passing this information along as a public service. Actually we’re up to the same old game.

You see, popcorn makes most people thirsty. Fortunately, when most people get thirsty, they hanker for the good taste of Coca-Cola.

"Five Gates to Hell." A lurid film about a group of nurses, two doctors and two men at a hospital outpost in Vietnam who are captured by a bandit fighting for the Communists. After many barbarities, the survivors managed to escape his mountain stronghold but are eventually forced to battle with the pursuing war lords. The script ranges from violent to tasteless to ridiculous. Summing things up: Entertainment that has little or nothing to offer besides something to pass the time with.

"Third Man on the Mountain." John E. Fitzgerald, movie critic, has this to say. "This is the story of a boy (James MacArthur) who wanted to be a mountain climber. Only after he realizes the value of human life and safety measures in climbing does he achieve his goal — to see his father's red shirt waving from the top of the giant craggy mountain on which he died while trying to reach the summit. Janet Munro plays the Swiss miss who encourages him in his dreams and ambitions and Laurence Naismith plays the retired guide who helps him master his skill and his ambitions. James Donald, Michael Rennie and Herbert Lom add good performances to the plot."

"Five Gates to Hell" will be playing at the Fox theater from December 16 to 19; "Third Man on The Mountain" plays December 25.

It was a nice night and the stars shone bright on the crest of the new fallen snow. The light of Christmas trees shown thru the windows of the houses all along Main Street. The children's snowmen winked as we walked by. The sound of church bells rang out all over town. There were shoppers hurrying back and forth thru the streets. These were the Xmas we remember in Stevens Point. The sounds of "Merry Christmas" and "Happy New Year" are heard as this year we fall into puddles of water.

There ain't no snow! ;)

Poetry Sidelights

By Edmund O'Dell

Christmas is a happy time for most. Even the poor can play the host. For the gifts they offer are not bought and the love they give is rarely sought. As the rich get richer and the poor get poorer they seem to engulf us with material honor. This is the reason that I must essay to write the following poem today. I also think that the second in line has a special meaning to the earthly mind.

Merry Christmas I say to all
And pray a prayer that we don't fall.
Christmas Is A Merry Time
Christmas time to me is sad;
Though those about me are all glad.
It seems to me that Christmas now
Is sought but resting from the plough.
For many it is a time of wealth
Rather than thoughts of others' health.
Christmas greetings often of low
As long as we hand over the dough.
With never a thought as to the meaning.
While other's wealth we now are gleaning.
We always have a friendly warning.
About the shopping days each morning.
And we see those great new stores.
That are stocked with gifts on all 10 floors.
So for you, my friends, I pray.
That you may be happy on this day.
But more than that I ever long.
That to the Lord you may belong.
And to Him now upon this time
Give Him thanks for life sublime.
And also give a gift to Him.
Say a prayer, and sing a hymn.
And I hope God will bless your life.
And help you weather all your strife.
The following is written by a contemporary of mine. I hope you don't think his thought insane.

My bills are paid;
And I am blue.

This Christmas scene in the Union helped set the Annual All-School Christmas party.

The Union enjoys its first Yule

The first Christmas season in the College Union has brought out some of the best decorating ideas ever seen on the CSC campus. As is the case with most of the Union projects, it was a cooperative effort.

Mr. John Amacker said that he was very pleased with the spirit which was shown by all who helped create the Union's projects. It was a cooperative effort.

Mr. Amacker continued "all the contributions for the Christmas season certainly are appreciated. They help make the Union the center of attention since the egg nog and cookies were served there.

All too soon, the dance was over and the egg nog bowl, empty. As the party-goers left the Union, sights of "Gee, I had a good time" were heard all up and down the street.

If, for some reason, you missed the party last Friday, make it a date now to join the other CSC students as well as the faculty at the Big second annual Christmas party next year!

The stockings were hung
By the chimney with care

As is the case with most of the schools, spice and warmth are brought in with the holiday season. The strains of "Winter Wonderland" floated thru the air throughout the entire Union lounge, as well as those seen in the cafeteria were created and done by Mr. Norman Keats and his art students, particularly his No. 110 class. The trees were cut and transported by A K L (try to carry a 25 foot tree sometime!). The materials for the fireplace in the main lounge, as well as many other goodies were given to the Union by several Stevens Point area merchants.

"Winter Wonderland" Theme For Union's Holiday Party

Colored lights, pine boughs, candy canes and springs of mistletoe appeared as the College Union donned festive garb for the all-school Christmas party.

The strains of "Winter Wonderland" floated thru the air as a large crowd danced to the music of the Tony Winters orchestra from 9 to 12 December 11.

During the intermission of this first annual party, the Men's Glee club quartet entertained in the cafeteria area while four judges selected two winners in the stocking contest in the lounge. The Pointer was awarded the first prize for the most original stocking on the fireplace - fashioned of Pointers and red yarn. The Omeca Chi sorority's white felt stocking was awarded the prize for the most beautiful stocking. The prizes were free cups of coffee during this past week in the Snack bar to all members of both organizations. Santa Claus awarded the "prize." Mary Haughey and Emmy Milled accepted them.

The lounge was the center of attention since the egg nog and cookies were served there.

All too soon, the dance was over and the egg nog bowl, empty. As the party-goers left the Union, sights of "Gee, I had a good time" were heard all up and down the street.

All I Want For Christmas Is My

DEAR SANTA:

Please bring to me, for the coming year,
Health -
Close friendship -
And much cheer.

Wealth and gifts - I ask for none,
But: Sincerity -
Kindness -
and the love of one.

For Mother dear, I ask much health,
For father, strength - that's his wealth.
To my sisters - which there are two,
Two so close and love so true.

To my roommate - words can't tell -
The world I owe her - "wish her well."

To Loretta, give lots of rest -
To Evie Nelson, the years' full best!

To Katy, Santa, a real "BIG BOOK" -
For she'll soon be a "Professional Cook." +

To Giny, a locket and a key.
For all her "shine" and sincerity.

To Gloria, please give lots of cheer.

To Caryl give joy, for her life ahead;
Strength to go on; and nought to dread.

From all of us there's one request:
That this new year will be the best,
That you let our living, work, and play
We'll learn that these true friendships pay.

Please Santa: (this list is long, that's true),
But there's still one wish we have for you:

The door is open - come right in
Don't worry 'bout the mess and din. Caryl sings, "Mar" burns toast,
And I neglect the cleaning most.
The food we've left, you may hate,
But it's all yours - but you'll lose weight!

You're also welcome to our couch
If you sit down and hear an "OUCH"
No fear, but do take care
It's Loretta lying there!

Don't forget our "mother-hostess"
We really think she is the mostest,
She does our washing and our floor
No other "Mother" could love more...

Now - I hope I've forgotten none ...

My list's complete, so ... CHRISTMAS COME!!
Oh - one more wish to each so dear,

A MERRY CHRISTMAS * * * A BRIGHT NEW YEAR

Love,

Jackie
