The End Of An Era

In the past, one of the most valuable assets of the Pointer has been the fact that it has been a student newspaper, written and published by the students, without any undue influence from the faculty. This has helped to maintain a level of freedom that has been kept relatively free of censorship and has remained as a voice of the students.

The students who have comprised the Pointer staffs over the years have not usually had a great deal of experience but the years have not usually had a great deal of journalistic experience but they have always managed to turn out a paper which has served the students of CSC quite well. The material has been written by the students and has not had to be altered or changed to determine the Look of the paper, a showpiece of faculty achievements and paint a rosy but not always accurate picture of college life at Central State. To be more specific, the paper in the past has been a burden to the faculty, a heavy load in the event of an incident, regardless of their implication without the dominating hand of a censor hovering about.

However, this may well be the last truly free and student produced newspaper on campus for sometime to come. As a result of some rather disturbing events, the Pointer staff for next year has been selected by the advisor of next year's paper, who, as the advisor of a student newspaper and the advisor of next year's paper, has been selected by the advisor of next year's paper. If this were the case, it would mean that there would be no paper for the students to read, the pointer would die out, and the college would become a pseudo-college utopia and while the college linen would become clean, the intellectual atmosphere would be kept relatively free of censorship and have remained at a very high level. In the past, one of the most valuable assets of the Pointer was excessive drinking by OSC students, and the college would be a place where the students would be free of censorship and would be able to think as they please. How ever, at present, it is possible that this may be the last truly free and student directed newspaper on campus for sometime to come.

As a graduating senior and soon to be an alumnus of this campus, I can only hope that this doesn’t happen. It seems as though the freedom of the Pointer is in serious danger and that it should be a matter of concern to all the students who will attend this university in the future. If the paper is to remain free and student directed, it will have to take some form of interest in the students, be it as a tool of the students or a part of the college community as a whole. If the students here will put drinking into proper perspective and maintain a spirit of cooperation with the college, the Pointer will continue to be a valuable asset to the college community as a whole. It is important for the college to maintain a strong relationship with the students. The Pointer must be kept free from censorship and must be able to operate as a tool of the students and the college community as a whole.

To the Editor:

Is excessive drinking by OSC students a serious problem? I think that it is and that it is a common knowledge that a large number of students here is "hanging out" on this campus. Such an activity may be a part of the college community or else. It is important for the students interested in maintaining a spirit of cooperation with the college, to operate as a tool of the students and the college community as a whole. Guest Speaker Tells Of Near East Tensions

The Consul of Israel in Chicago, Mr. S. Beuer, visited the University Campus Thursday, May 17. He gave his speech at 4:30 p.m. in Union Lounge under the sponsorship of the Midwest Mediterranean Organization and Alpha Gamma. Mr. Beuer, a member of the Israeli army, is a war correspondent. He was in Poland at an early age. Mr. Re-

Kuehn’s Appearance

The appearance of the record of three Republican candidates for the position of governor of Wisconsin was due to Dr. John Kuehn, who was highlighted by a question and answer period.

Kuehn quite explicitly and directely answered the questions tossed at him by those present. The folding are the salient points of his speech which dealt with questions and answers.

He stated that he would reduce spending as long as he is on the outside at present, he doesn’t know exactly what the present costs are. He also felt that spending on education was necessary, which was a point the present framework of the university seemed to suggest, that it should be expanded rather than attempting to develop a new one.

Kuehn also defined the Republican party as that party which allows the people to get ahead if they want to and have the ability to do so. The Democrats were doing the opposite.

Questions were brought up as to what the little man who hasn’t any ability would do. Kuehn felt that the ability of the people could use their ability and thus get ahead little by little.

Awards To President Hansen Awards Day Events

Awards Day, 1962, featured special recognition of Central Wisconsin State Teachers College’s President William C. Hansen. Mr. Hale Quad of the athletic department presented the president with an award blanket and a life time pass to Hill CSC athletic events in the future.

The Association Women Students gave Hansen a colored photograph of himself which will be hung in the hallway on the second floor of the Main Building next to the portraits of other CWC presidents. A photo and faculty member attending the program presented an assembly standing over the hall way in the hall way he received the award.

The two seniors with the highest overall grade point averages were given awards by the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and the Phi Delta Phi fraternity. Donna Scholl of Marshfield received the Sigma Phi Epsilon award for the highest over-all grade point and Robin Wasom, Jr., was awarded the Tau Kappa Epsilon scholastic award for the second highest grade average.

LOST LIFE

By Bill Krol

Gone are the snows from the pine, tall and strong.
Now comes the rains of a season not long.
Clear now the heavens; the sun shining bright.
But her love, I will not forget.

The air, swelled with music of birds and bees,
Gramophones in the summer breeze.
Here in this wonderland, free from all woe,
Her name, her face, here, I will never go.

The recent discussion, "Why Fathers Go to Church," was held at Camp Okoboji, Iowa, the annual spring picnic is planned.

The lakes region is planning a summer picnic on July 15 at Devil's Lake near Wisconsin Dells. There is no registration fee; just bring yourself and your appetite.

International Gamma Delta Re-Crest "By Love Serve" will be held at Camp Okoboji, Iowa, August 30 to Sept. 3. This should be a worthwhile experience for all of you.

An Illustrious Career Ends

Bill Knoe is a name that is associated with all CSC has known and the sport.

He has not only gained the respect of his fellow students, but his instructors, faculty, administration, and coaches as well. Bill has contributed to his college life to CSC not only with his skills on the gridiron and basketball court, but also being the class pet in the classroom as well. And after he has given much to his college, the Pointer has decided that it would try to pay Bill back in the same way he has given to everyone else. He has taken a young man that all has been appreciated.

When Dean Radtke was asked what he as a member of the administration thought of Bill, he said that Bill was a very desirable school child, and a leader in a number of activities. He also knows where he is going and he is a student that the school can be proud of both as an athlete and a school child.

Mr. Anderson who has been Bill's advisor in Geography, his major field, all through school had this to say about Bill. That his interest was above average along with his ability to handle a lot of things. Even though he was very active in athletics he never neglected his academic life. His exceptional ability to lead was shown when his colleagues elected him president of the "73 Club" which is not just an honorary position, it is a very functional title.

Now that we have gone over the attitudes of and about Bill, let us go to the immediate and distant future after graduation. He has had a pro football offer from the Minnesota Vikings, and has talked a lot with the scouts from various pro football teams with a contract being offered from the New York Giants.

Bill plans to sign a baseball contract upon graduation and during the off season he will try for his life insurance for Northwestern Life Insurance Company.

Not only has Point been satisfied with Bill but Bill has been very satisfied with Point, he stated that if he had to do it over again he would do it exactly as he had done.

Pete White who was Bill's coach in grade school, and his father, Warren Knoe, are the ones that Bill credits with getting him into sports to the extent that he is. Both of these men gave Bill the encouragement that every young athlete needs, and they still attend every game here at CSC.

While here at CSC Bill contributes his success to his coaches, Mr. Quandt and Mr. Counsell. As far as thrills at CSC are concerned he considers being All American in Football and helping win the first conference championship in the new field house during the 60-61 season in his football along with being admitted to the 1000 club for basketball, as the tops although there were many more.

Bill's college record for four years at CSC is as follows:

Football—183 completions out of 281 attempts for 2,671 yards and 26 touchdowns with only 25 interceptions. This results in a 47.8 percentage. It should be noted that he also intercepted 26 opponents during the four year period.

Basketball—1,137 points scored for approximately 72 games.

Baseball—Up to the present Bill has 15 wins and 5 losses.

While here Bill has had a scholarship for all four years. His freshman and sophomore years he had a May Roach scholarship and his junior and senior years he had a Watson scholarship.

Now that Bill's college life has been covered, your reporter would like to do a little editorializing. I have had the privilege of knowing Bill for the four years of his college career and I never met a person that is as friendly and helpful as Bill. He, to my knowledge, has never got the "big head," as some athletes do when they are as successful as Bill, in this my estimation is the true test of an athlete. If he does not brag about his exploits in sports but rather proves himself in actual competition, he is an athlete not by mouth but by actual accomplishments.

Just a point of interest here, on August 19, 1961 Bill took the fatal step, he got married to Pat Otto in Shawano.

So Bill, the school thanks you for four years of service you. I think that I can speak for the whole school in wishing you the best of luck in whatever you do.

We know that whatever you do you will do your best.

Since this is the last issue for this year, I will close the column as the French, with a kind Adieu.

Time out for a smoke.

Two Double Victories Put Pointers In First

Shutout Whitewater Twice

Bob Krang and Bill Kuse teamed up for shutout wins over Whitewater last week, putting CSC in a tie for first place in the State College Conference standings. Kuse pitched a 6-0 win, and Krang took the second game 3-1. Kuse allowed only two hits in the first game, a single by Whitewater's Travis Middendorf and a single by Tom Wuetrich. He also struck out seven and walked four. It was Kuse's fourth win of the season that he needed to tie the conference, without a defeat. Krang, freshman from Stevens Point, pitched his fifth win of the season without a defeat in the nightcap. He allowed four hits, two walks, and struck out four.

2 Wins Over UW-M

Air tight pitching has carried Central State College's baseball team to the top of the standings in the State College Conference. Coach Doug Counsell's Pointers took over the league lead Saturday afternoon by sweeping a twin-bill from tough UW-Milwaukee. The Pointers at UW-Milwaukee Park were 7-0 in the opener and 2-1 in the nightcap.

In the first game, the Pointers handed Dennis Koehler his first loss of the year after four tough outings. Kuse was mighty tough, using his array of pitches to full advantage whenever the Cardinals threatened.

At Northwest, St. Norbert's won the 880-yard relay in 1:33.3, besting the record of 1:33.4 set by CSC. Duperot's record was 12.7, an inch better than the previous record.

CSC had six first places, won tied for seventh seconds, and tied for third and five fouls.
