WSC Homecoming... That Time Of Year

It's that time of the year!

Homecoming . . .

How, when, why, what, who?

by Barbara Strelke

Well, the who's are the four Queen candidates: Marguerite Viets, an "Omeg", sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon; Lori Friedrich, Alpha Sigma Alpha, backed by Phi Sigma Epsilon; Pat O'Keefe, Omega Mu Chi, sponsored by Sigma Phi Epsilon; and Judy Hines, Delta Zeta, backed by Alpha Beta Rho.

The Queen's Dance, the formal introduction of the candidates, is Oct. 4, 8:30 p.m.-12:30 a.m. on the third floor of the Union Lounge.

Phi Sigma Epsilon has booked Jerry Steeber and the Versatiles for the evening. Bill Orgeman will be master of ceremonies.

Another must for WSC devotees, the climax for those arduous campaigners, is the Queen's Assembly. The assembly, the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, is scheduled for Oct. 11, at 7:30 p.m. in the College Fieldhouse. This year, the program will hit the hootenanny scene, for atmosphere in a community sing.

The main attraction of the night's entertainment will be The Contemporary Folk Group. Combining folk and jazz tunes, with an occasional bongo beat, the group is unique in the songfest crowd. The foursome consists of singers Ed Knutson, Jerry Longie, Dick Winther and singer-guitarist Jerry Goodie.

The Cannon Brothers, a folk singing trio, plus Robert Glaze, guitarist, will also appear for this Homecoming Hootenanny. The assembly is being sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Civil Service Commission Offers Exams

Applications are now being accepted for the 1964 Federal Service Entrance Examination, the U. S. Civil Service Commission has announced.

This examination, open to college seniors and graduates regardless of major study, as well as to persons who have had equivalent experience, offers the opportunity to begin a career in the Federal service in one of 60 occupational fields.

These positions are located in various Federal agencies both in Washington, D. C., and throughout the United States. Depending on the qualifications of the candidates, starting salaries for persons appointed from this examination will be $4,690 and $5,795 a year. Applicants who filed by September 19, 1963, will be scheduled for the first written test on October 12, 1963. Six additional tests have been scheduled. The closing date is April 14, 1964.

Management internships with starting salaries of $5,795 and $7,630 a year will also be filled from this examination. An additional written test is required. Applicants for these positions must file by October 15, 1964.

Details concerning the requirements, further information about the positions to be filled, and instructions on how to apply are given in Civil Service Announcement No. 311. The announcement may be obtained from many post offices throughout the country, college placement offices, Civil Service Regional Offices, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C. 20415.

the century to a Paris hotel, backstairs and "front."

The college staff and students are admitted without charge by presentation of I.D. cards. The general public is welcomed for an admission charge of 50c.

Some of the remaining films for the year are as follows: Oct. 9-10, Brandy for the Parson (Great Britain); Oct. 17-18, Casablanca (United States); Oct. 31-Nov. 1, La Strada (Italy); Nov. 7-8, Seven Days That Shook the World (Silent USSR); Dec. 5-6, The Treasure of the Sierra Madre (United States); Feb. 6-7, Don Quixote (Great Britain); April 23, The Young and the Damned (Mexico); May 14-15, The Siege of Leningrad (U.S.S.R.). Other films will be added throughout the year.

Oct. 3-4, First Cinema Art Series Film

R. A. Hatchet, assistant director of the Student Union, reports that the Cinema Art Series, formerly known as the Library Film Series, is currently part of the co-curriculum program directed by the Union staff.

The objectives of the Cinema Art Series are: to maintain a high level of film entertainment by departing from the "Hollywood" type of films, to supplement academic classes, and to cultivate leisure time of a high nature.

The first film of the year is The Confessions of Felix Krull, a German film with English subtitles. This film, which is based on Thomas Mann's lost novel, is scheduled for October 3-4, with showings at 3:45 p.m., 6:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m., in the Library Theater.

The handsome European favorite, Horst Buchholz, plays the role of the picturesque Felix Krull, part Don Juan and part Machiavelli. Krull meets the irresistible Zaza, played by Liselotte Pulver, one of the many lovely creatures Krull enchanted wherever he went. This bold story is that of the follies of a man, with a disarming scoundrel at the helm of every adventure. His adventures take him from Imperial Germany at the turn of

I stopped in awe — from somewhere in the distance came strains of the men's and women's chorus. Slowly, softly, silently, I spied:

Rehearsal for the Music Dept.'s production "Carousel," directed by Mr. Tom Cutliffe, to be presented Nov. 14-15. Singers — actors — dancers are all getting into the act. Taking the leads as Julie Jordan and Billy Bigelow are Janice Nichols and Tom Cutliffe; Carrie Piperidge and Enoch Fowler will be played by Mary Hickner and David Dick. Additional members of the cast are Malla Anderson, Jon A. LeDuc, and Madelyn Kelly. Members are still being added. . . .

Court Hearing Oct. 10-11 Marshall Appeals Ruling

James B. Marshall, who had been a classified employee of WSC here until his dismissal on June 26, 1963, has charged that he was dismissed by Ace Foods, Inc., Milwaukee, because he is a Negro.

In the summer of 1962 President James H. Albertson said that the college negotiated with the catering service to take over the food service here. From Sept. 1, 1962 to June, 1963, Mr. Marshall worked for Ace.

The Fair Employment Practices Division of the Industrial Commission Agency in the state of Wisconsin conducted an informal investigation and ruled that in their judgment discrimination had not taken place. Mr. Marshall has appealed that ruling and a court hearing will therefore take place on Oct. 10-11.

The contract which the college originally made with Ace, says, "The Company will offer employment on a fair trial basis to the present food service employees, but will not be required to retain those who do not meet its standards nor those in excess of the number needed for efficient operation."

The Fair Employment Practices Division of the Industrial Commission Agency has statutory responsibility in two areas: one, is to see that no state agency does business with a firm that practices discrimination and two, to administer fair employment statutes.

Alice Peet, and Dr. Fred Dowling will be consultants for the various groups. Mrs. Julia Mailer from the UW Extension Division, and Dr. Herman Brockhaus from the UW department of speech, will be guest consultants. They will lead discussions, answer questions or lend an ear as the word is whipped around. And the word will be one-act plays, debate, taped discussion, radio broadcasts, interpretative reading, play reading, declamation, oratory and extemporaneous speaking.

WSC speech therapists, Gerald Chappell and Dr. Gerald Johnson will be there for private consultation, while J. C. Gilman from Marathon will preside.

Annual Speech-Drama Institute On-Campus Oct. 5

by Kathy Menzel

Tongues are wagging. The word is out. Dr. Pauline Isaacson, chairman of WSC speech department, has stirred up the Annual Speech and Drama Institute on campus Saturday, Oct. 5. Students and the public are invited. A nominal fee will be charged.

John Whirry, student chairman, will share undergraduate responsibilities along with Mary Ann Schowalter, Alice Schilling, James Mueller, Ralph Meinert, Tom Reynolds and Dean O'Neill. They have arranged events that will help speech and drama coaches from sixty area schools. Their plans for an extensive program begin with a coffee hour at 9:30 a.m.

Eight sectional meetings will follow. Dr. Mary Elizabeth Thompson, Miss Irene Gray, Dr.

Freshmen! Oct. 4, Red Letter Day

by Eileen Roth

Freshman Elections to be Held

Friday, Oct. 4 is a date that all Freshmen should mark in red on their calendars as it is the day designated for class elections. Voters will elect a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and two representatives to the Student Council. The polls in the Union Snack Bar will be open from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. to give every freshman an opportunity to vote for the man or woman of his choice.

Committee Members Needed Now

As president of the Union Board (DeLyle Bowers), we're wondering if you have any news that you'd like to get into the Pointer?

"We sure could use some committee members."

An "Outing Club" for camping, bicycling, hiking is starting. . . .

"We need committee members for participating in and planning activities."

Say, we hear there're already long-range plans for Thanksgiving and Christmas dances, and the Winter Carnival.

"Wouldn't you like to serve on a committee?"

And hey, what's a TGIF dance?

"Thank Gosh It's Friday . . . Say, I've got a great idea for a committee. . . ."

Necessary Enjoyment...

School spirit is an enjoyable and necessary factor of college life. Any real student who attended the Pointer Jubilee could see that it was enjoyable and should definitely continue as a necessary item in a WSC student's life. The spirit with which the organizations participated in this event definitely portrayed a "carnival" atmosphere. As one who has attended previous Pointer Jubilees, I can say for myself that the improvement from year to year has jumped markedly — getting bigger and better each year.

It shows a group of students who planned and organized well, and also organizations who were willing to co-operate. Another school highlight, Homecoming, is approaching, let's show our team we still have the spirit.

"Focus"

By SUE STANKE

A jutting peak of steel and glass, the new science building stands majestically on the North Campus of WSC.

The thrills and chills to be obtained from trying to adjust to a partially furnished building, where English classes are held in chemistry rooms, where students resourcefully duck globes of paint that somehow manage to drip from the entrance way, and where harried receptionists act as traffic cops, are not to be overlooked.

A new experience for any college coed is running the "gauntlet" of eagle-eyed males that sit outside the building between classes, watching all the girls go by. (This is an extension library front step girl-watching, Ila.) The first time a coed encounters this line-up of self-appointed girl inspectors she is apt to gasp, stare intently at her feet, and scuttle into the building. A seasoned veteran of this girl-watchers club soon learns to stare back coolly, and retalliate with one sweeping, appraising, scornful glance of her own, just before she tosses her head and sweeps gracefully into the building, past those rude, crude boys. Just attending class has its moments of excitement. Like wondering if the professor who is absent-mindedly fussing with the gas jet as he lectures is perhaps toying with other, more macabre ideas — such as permanently ridding himself of his inattentive and habitually tardy students.

Most exciting of all is the daily fight for a seat in class. No one who has not been assigned to a room seating 25, where 34 students are present, will ever understand the urgent, mad dash for that particular class.

Chairs are at a premium. Witness one scene where two young men glared at one another over a solitary seat, while a third student, ignoring the other two, strode towards an empty front row seat, with the malign intention of carrying it to the back of the room and making it his own. Only the quick action of another young man who yelled "Hey! That belongs to a GIRL—even!" prevented the dastardly deed. Chivalry is not dead. The young man put the chair back, and trotted off to filch one from another classroom.

Which class soon will go through almost the same "Chair, chair, who's got the chair?" routine? The survival of the fittest prevails. One is either quick—or without a chair.

Life in the science building may be hectic, disorganized and inconvenient — but it is never dull.

Pointers Swamp Platteville, 34-0

With an explosive offense led by Larry Holmes and a fantastic defense that had eleven leadgrs, Stevens Point swamped Platteville 34-0. The win was the second in a row for the Pointers and put them in a first place tie with River Falls in the WSCC.

For all purposes, the game was won before it was five minutes old. Larry Holmes received the opening kick-off and raced 99 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead as Sonny Redders added the extra point.

Four plays later, Bucky Bay blocked a Platteville punt and Ron Wildman recovered for the Pointers on the Platteville 19-yard line. Two plays later, Sonny Redders skirted right end for another touchdown and a 13-0 lead as the PAT attempt failed.

The strong Pointer defense again forced Platteville to punt and the offense took over on its own 35. It took just nine plays to cover the 65 yards for the TD. Fine power-running by George Rivers pulled the defense in close before Larry Balousek hit Redders in the end zone with a 8-yard TD pass. Redders' PAT made it 20-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Midway through the second quarter Holmes again electrified the crowd by taking a handoff on his own 24 and raced 76 yards for his second TD of the afternoon. Redders' PAT made it 27-0 at the half.

The Pointers capped their scoring with a touchdown in the fourth quarter. This TD came on a 59-yard drive with most of the yardage being eaten up by the fine running of fullback Paul Richter and the sharp passing of Jack Wohl. Wohl with Richter finally crashing over from the three.

While a score of 34-0 is most impressive, it does not tell the whole story. If it wasn't for a fantastic flag-throwing by the officials, the score would have been much worse. The Pointers were penalized a total of 185 yards on 15 different penalties. All in all, the men in striped shirts walked off 245 yards during the course of the game, which must represent some sort of league record.

Not enough can be said about the fine Pointer defense which held the Pioneers to just 42 yards rushing in 24 attempts and just one complete pass in 13 attempts, and that lost 4 yards. Platteville made just 4 first downs and three of these came via the penalty route.

So far in two games, this strong Pointer defense has been unscored upon. It looks as if they could maintain that pace for a long time.

As good as the defense was, however, the offense was not to be denied as a power in its own right. This explosive unit rolled up 214 yards on the ground and 202 yards through the air for a total of 416 yards, despite all the red flags.

While the backs get all the credit, it must be mentioned that they are working behind one of the finest offensive lines in the state. This line is led by hard-charging Dennis Arthur, one of the most vicious blocking centers in the country, and definitely a pro-ball prospect.

Competition Strong For First Place

by Mike Sibilsky

Intramural Touch Football action directed by Robert Krueger, find four teams tied for first in the American League as the competition goes into its third week. Supporting 2-1 records are the Tekes, Stanley Steamers, Slasefi Raiders and the E.O. Plenties. The latter knocked the Stanley Steamers out of sole possession of first place by whipping them 24-0 last Thursday night. The Original Mets round out the present American League standings by leading the cellar dwellers with an 0-4 record.

In the National League, both the Billikins and the Phi Sigs are tied for first, each having a 3-0 records. The Phi Sigs have dominated the league so far with their great scoring feats.

Dan's Bombers (1-2) and the Sig Eps (1-3) are in close contention for second, while the Happy Organs are victims of an 0-3 count.

Setting the stage for the rough, rumbling, and colorful action are two fields, one located north of Hyer Hall, the other south of Goerke Field. Beginning Oct. 3, the former will be utilized as the location for all remaining games.

Players match their skills from 4:55 p.m. each Tuesday and Thursday night, with eight men constituting a team. The championship match between the winners of each division is slated for October 24, at an undetermined location.

Intramural Golfers Vie For Honors

by Mike Sibilsky

The Intramural Golf League, under the direction of Robert Krueger, is now in full swing, with over 25 competitors vying for championship honors.

Darrell Tompkins and Tony Albrecht, both members of the CSG golf team last year, have already established themselves as leaders with opening round scores of 39-37.

All action takes place at either the Stevens Point Country Club or the Wisconsin River Golf Course. Both establishments maintain nine holes.

The champion is determined as follows: 18 holes are to be played by each player at each of the city courses (2), making a total of 36 holes. At the completion of the preliminary (36 holes), the top 8 players match scores in another 36-hole contest which ultimately decides the champion.

The preliminary 18 holes must be completed by Oct. 4 to qualify. Most of the contestants have been divot-digging since Sept. 16 to gain their prized acceptance to the Big 8.

Attention Bowlers

Teams are now being formed for the campus bowling league. A team consists of four members including a captain. All interested persons please sign up at the College Union Kennel information desk.

Faculty teams are encouraged to participate. League play will be Wednesdays, 5-7 p.m. at the Point Bowl.

Slants, Quips and Briefs...

with Mike Sibilsky

With 32-0 and 34-0 victories under its belt, the Pointer contingent, directed by head coach Duane Counsell and staff, steps forward to face even greater challenges.

Tangling with the Pointers in the very near future will be the La Crosse Indians (4-3 last year) Sat. Oct. 5, and the Cardinals of UW-M in the epic Homecoming clash.

Counsell's Pointers seem to have an obvious edge on their up-and-coming opponents, but don't count the enemy short. Both teams have much improved squads this year and could give the Pointers plenty of headaches.

E. William Vickroy's Indians boast 23 lettermen, including all-conference award-winners Mike Rose (LB) and Ed Gilbertson (End). Wally Dreyer's upset-minded Cardinals (2-4 last fall) maintain 13 lettermen with all-conference end Bob Bradley leading the pack.

UW-M lost its first tassel of the season to Ferris Institute, then settled for a tie in meeting Oshkosh two weeks ago. Lack of scoring punch on both occasions has put a halt to the Cardinals' latest winning efforts.

La Crosse also found itself on the short end of 28-6 and 20-7 tallies, losing first to St. Norbert and then to Stout. Pass interceptions were major factors in the Indians' defeat throughout their battle with Stout, despite the fact that they heavily outscored their opponents offensively.

Whatever the odds, whoever the opponent, let's make the best student effort possible to cheer our Wisconsin State Pointers on to victory and ultimately a conference championship.

Let's make it a "Point" to jam the stands whenever our future champions take the occasion to wrangle with any and all challengers. Let's faithfully support a winning and spirited ball club.
