Peace Corps Team Is Visiting WSU

Until Saturday, Nov. 6, a Peace Corps Team from Washington will be visiting WSU-SP. They are here to explore WSU's Peace Corps Program, and its function.

The Peace Corps should be a point of pride for many of its members. A Peace Corps member is not just any college graduate, but a person who serves in a foreign country as a volunteer, teaching English, helping to build schools, and working in a variety of projects.

The Peace Corps is a great way for students to explore different cultures and gain valuable experience.

The Peace Corps members are here to discuss their experience and answer any questions you may have.

Pray Simms Gives Party at Hospital

On Friday afternoon, Oct. 28, the WSU Health Science Center held a party for Simms Hospital in honor of Sister Karen Minville, who is retiring after 45 years of service.

Sister Minville has been a beloved member of the hospital staff for many years, and her retirement is being celebrated with a party for her.

The party was held in the hospital's new lounge, and was attended by many of Sister Minville's former colleagues and friends.

AWS—On The Go!

By Maureen O'Connor

AWS (Angels World Service) is a unique non-profit organization that serves the women of the WSU. Many results of the organization's work can be seen at the Campus Center where there is a regularly scheduled project on campus.

"Shakespeare: A Woman's View" is a familiar phrase to many WSU. This is the idea of women who study English literature and the women who do not. The project will be held in Room 225 in the Campus Center. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will last until 10:00 p.m.

Another organization, AWS, is also in the process of planning a "Women of the House" project. This project will be held in the Campus Center and will begin at 7:30 p.m. and end at 10:00 p.m.

In addition to the English literature program, AWS is also in the process of planning a "Women of the House" project. This project will be held in the Campus Center and will begin at 7:30 p.m. and end at 10:00 p.m.

Cheap Dates Preferred

If you are looking for a cheap date, consider going to a free movie at the campus cinema or a free concert at the campus center. These options are both fun and budget-friendly.

Counseling For Students

The Counseling Center at WSU offers a variety of services to students, including individual and group counseling, career planning, and stress management. If you are feeling overwhelmed or stressed, the counseling center can help.

Points End Season
At River Falls

The Stevens Point grid eleven will make their peak for higher standings in the WSIU Conference Football on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 6, as they take on the River Falls on the grid twelve.

The Stevens Point eleven is expected to meet with a tough team in the Conference. They have one of the defensive teams with the most ball recoveries, and the defensive backs have thrown up a host of interceptions. Jack, Bob, and John Jakubics, Dan Klindt, Steve Zapata, and Joe Jakubics, have thrown up a host of interceptions.

The defense, along with the offensive line, will hopefully set the tone for the game this weekend.
