

Paychecks Are Expected February 14

Student paychecks are expected to be available for issuance on February 14. It would be appreciated if the students would not call the Cashier's Office or the Financial Aids Office to inquire about their checks since that only delays the processing and could result in a week's delay in the processing.

Museum Lecture Features Rocky Mountain Mammals

The Museum Lecture Series resumes on Monday, Feb. 17, at 7:30 p.m., in Room A-121, Science Building auditorium, when Prof. Charles A. Long of the Department of Biology will present a slide talk entitled, "Collecting Mammals in the Rocky Mountains."

No place shows more physiographic diversity and more speciation of mammals than the American West. This vast wonderland of mountains, prairies, and deserts is inhabited by mammalian faunas strikingly adapted to habitats often lovely, spectacular, and even forbidding. In this lecture the distribution and evolution of many of the Rocky Mountain mammals will be discussed and the joys and sorrows of field work in the rugged western mountains will be described.

Prof. Long spent several summers with students collecting mammals in the western Rockies, especially in Colorado and Wyoming. He spent one summer in the Northern Rockies of Washington and British Columbia, and another in the Sierra Madre of Mexico. He has climbed numerous peaks from Mt. Arrowshead, Vancouver Island, to El Popocatepetl, Mexico, and has recently climbed numerous mountains and collected alpine mammals in central Colorado. Dr. Long has studied thousands of Rocky Mountain specimens in several of the great museums, and has edited one book and written another on mammals of the Rockies.

As a member of the Department of Biology, Prof. Long teaches courses in mammalogy, comparative anatomy, and honors zoology, and he is a Curator of Mammals for The Museum of Natural History.

There is no admission charge for the Museum Lecture Series. Anyone is welcome to attend.

Probation Rules Determine Status

The Regents' statement on the suspension and probation rules and policies will be of interest to those who are currently on probation or for those who have been suspended after the first semester. A student's academic status is determined by the number of credits he has earned and his cumulative grade point. For those who have earned between one and thirteen credits, the minimum acceptable grade point is a 1.60 cumulative grade point. Students who earned between 14 and 43 credits must have a 1.80 cumulative grade point. For students with 44 or more credits, they must maintain a 2.00 grade point.

Students whose cumulative grade point is at or above these minimum grade points will not be on probation. Students whose cumulative grade points are below these standards are either subject to probation or suspension. If a student's grade point falls below the minimum standards he will be placed on probation. A student who is now on probation must attain the minimum acceptable grade point at the end of one probationary semester or he will be suspended. This, however, does not include new freshmen who enter on probation and who will be allowed two consecutive semesters of probation.

Students may be suspended if a first-semester freshman, failed to attain a 0.75 grade point at the end of the semester. A student may be suspended if he is other than a first-semester student and at the end of the semester earned a grade point of less than 1.00 and failed to keep his cumulative grade points above the minimum requirements.

A student may also be suspended if at the end of his probationary semester he fails to have earned the required cumulative grade point, except in cases where a new freshman enters on probation and earns a grade point of at least 0.75 in his first semester, he will be allowed two consecutive semesters on probation or where a student who has been readmitted after being suspended and who earns the grade point of at least 2.00 will be allowed a second consecutive probationary semester.

UAB Will Sponsor Annual Casino Party

As in previous years, University Activities Board is once again sponsoring a Casino Party - Las Vegas style on Friday, Feb. 28 from 7:00-11:00 p.m. The event will take place in the Games Room of the University Center.

The Casino Party is just that - playing various casino games. For a fifty-cent admission at the door, each person will receive $2,000 in play money with which he may gamble. Such games as roulette, black jack and craps will be available along with some new features such as an I.Q. test. All games are free, you may either win or lose your play money while trying your luck. Later on in the evening, UAB will be auctioning off over one hundred dollars worth of prizes which will include sweaters, sporting equipment, records and perfume. Any person may "bid" on these articles with the play money he has won or has left over at the time of the auction.

Gifts will be given to the highest bidder. All students are welcomed and encouraged to come, but must gamble at their own risk. Refreshments will be served.

Point Enrollment Drops To 6,370 Second Semester

Second semester enrollment is 6,370, according to Registrar Gilbert Faust.

An additional 530 persons are taking courses offered by the extended services division in 14 surrounding communities.

Faust said the number of on-campus students is about 470 less than in the first semester, but the drop is normal. Last year the second semester enrollment stood at 5,600 or about 300 less than the previous fall.

However, Extension Director Orland Radke noted little change in off-campus enrollment over last semester.

He believes an expansion of graduate course offerings in the outlying areas is responsible for the sharp increase of participants in his programs. Last year at this time 265 persons were enrolled by the extended services.

Swing Choir Will Present Benefit Show

The WSU choir will appear in Medford Feb. 16 in a benefit program to establish a scholarship fund for students who will attend the new WSU branch campus there next fall.

Members of the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce will sponsor the event, beginning at 8 p.m. in the junior high school auditorium. Jaycee President Fritz Gardner is heading the arrangements.

The 50-voice choir will perform music of the Renaissance and Baroque periods plus contemporary works and American folk songs and spirituals. Director Kenward E. Smith said the WSU Swing Choir will sing several popular songs.

Bessie May Allen Died Tuesday

Miss Bessie May Allen, 86, retired head of the home economics department here, died last Tuesday, Feb. 4 at Saint Michael's Hospital.

The Allen Residence Center is named after her. She retired in 1952, after teaching here for 39 years.

Miss Allen was born in Postville, Iowa on May 3, 1882. There attended rural schools, studied at Castalia, Iowa, and graduated from high school at Dubuque.

She earned her B.S. and M.A. degrees from Columbia University and did additional work at the University of Chicago and at the University of Hawaii.

She started teaching here in the fall of 1913 when this school was known as Stevens Point Normal school.

Miss Allen arrived here the same year the Board of Regents approved the addition of the east wing of Old Main for "domestic sciences and arts" and an auditorium. She witnessed the construction of all buildings at WSU campus except Old Main and its west wing.

A fund entitled the Bessie May Allen Scholarship Fund has been established for the purpose of awarding a scholarship to a junior home economics major for use during her senior year.

Rehabilitation Representative Will Speak Penny-A-Minute Night Scheduled This Thursday

A representative of the Vocational Rehabilitation from Madison, Byron Phillips, will be on campus next Wednesday, Feb. 19, to speak and show a film concerning the family implications of alcoholism in the Wright Lounge of the University Center at 2 p.m.

The program is being sponsored by MANASA, a campus organization devoted to the assimilation and dissemination of knowledge concerning man and his behavior.

Associated Women Students will again sponsor a penny-a-minute night in all women residence halls on Thursday evening, Feb. 13.

This means that sophomore cooks may stay out until 1:00 a.m., and freshmen until midnight if they pay a penny for each late minute.

FOUND

The student who left his slide rules and pencils in Dr. C. Johnson's office, 450 CC, may pick them up from the Mathematics Department secretary, Miss Moe, 449 CC.

Consultant Will Talk To Indian Tutors

Mrs. Veda Stone, a community services consultant from Eau Claire, will speak on "The Indian Child in the Classroom" on Tuesday, Feb. 18, in the Truener Room of the University Center.

All tutors are urged to attend the 7 p.m. meeting.

Group Discussion Will Be Presented For Women Only

A series of group discussions on the Women's Liberation Movement will begin Monday, February 17 at 7:30 p.m. in room 203 of the Classroom Center. The free University course is for women only and will run for four consecutive Monday evenings.

Participants will read and discuss writings on "the woman question" by such authors as Sigmund Freud, Margaret Mead, Ashley Montagu, and Simon de Beauvoir. For further information and class materials, which cost about two dollars, call Marsha Tecklin at 341-2744 or write to Rt. 1, Box 5, Plover.

Most of the cars that are competitive with Chevrolets are clamoring for you to buy them now. Big deal. (You hope.) Chevrolet offers something even better than hope. Many popular items are priced less than a year ago. Such as Powerglide and large V8's. Head restraints are now standard. New advanced-design power disc brakes are priced over a third less than our power disc brakes were last year. So we're offering a '69 Camaro Sport Coupe for less money than last year. $147.00* less if you equip it with the new 350-cu.-in. 250-hp V8 (as compared with last year's 327-cu.-in. 275-hp Eight), the Powerglide and power disc brakes, whitewalls and wheel covers. Help us deflate inflation. Show up at your Chevrolet dealer's Showdown. You'll win. *Based on manufacturer's suggested retail price, including delivery, license, tax and suggested dealer new car preparation charge.

Value Showdown:

The campus security officers on the campus of Kearney State College in Nebraska have a full-time job on their hands. In addition to their usual routine of writing parking tickets and patrolling the lots, they are responsible for arresting students for intoxication, disturbing the peace, negligent or reckless driving, improper mufflers and running stop signs. During 1968, 75 such arrests were made on the campus of over 5,000 students.

Reservations For Tour End On March 1

Reservations for the 22-day European tour sponsored by the alumni association of WSU - Stevens Point will be accepted until Mar. 1, according to director Rick Frederick.

He said association representatives will be Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Specht of Stevens Point. The tour will begin July 14 in an air trip from Chicago to London, then continue to Holland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Monaco, France, Switzerland and conclude Aug. 4.

Frederick said the cost will be $761 per person, including $100 deposited at sign-up. Twenty-five persons from Stevens Point, Madison, and Gleason have registered so far, he added.

The alumni association will host a pre-tour cocktail reception for the participants next spring.

Novice Debaters Travel To Oshkosh For Tournament

Novice debaters traveled to Oshkosh last weekend to compete in the fourth annual WSU-O novice debate Tournament. Some 23 colleges and universities competed in five debates. The tour will be followed by elimination rounds followed by elimination rounds.

The team of Duane Wunsch and Mark Dittman broke even with 3 wins and 3 losses. They defeated Bethel College, St. Olaf College and Northern Michigan University while losing to debaters from WSU-Platteville, Northeast Illinois and WSU-Whitewater.

The team of Don Skalski and Richard Johnson met Great Lakes State and Eastern Illinois University, Macalester College, Rock Valley College, MacMurray College and Georgetown College.

Point varsity debaters will travel to Eau Claire, Wis., to compete in that school's annual tournament.

Esquire Magazine has notified Parkinson's Clothes Shop that Berland Meyer has been selected as WSU's "Best Dressed Man on Campus." Mr. Meyer has the additional distinction of being appointed to Esquire's 1969 College Advisory Board; the finalists being carefully chosen from eligible students at colleges and universities throughout the country.

Brotherhood Stevens Point Committee Will Organize Alumni Club

A committee to assist in planning the brotherhood week observance in Portage County, Feb. 16-23, has been announced by chairman Robert Litza of Stevens Point.

Dave Borchard of Citizens National Bank was appointed to coordinate events within local civic organizations; Dr. Theodore Schwartz, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church, religious organizations; the Rev. Richard Wisniewski, chaplain of Maria High School, and Mrs. Phyllis Wisniewski secretary for the Board of Educational Organizations; and John Anderson of Wisconsin State University - Stevens Point, publicity.

In its 35th year since the National Conference of Christians and Jews held its first brotherhood observance, the local observance will be highlighted by a special dinner Thursday, Feb. 20 in the Whiting Motor Hotel.

Speakers will be Dr. Robert G. Wason, director of the faculty extension 256.

Persons may secure tickets for the dinner by calling Borchard at his office.

The fifth community alumni club to be organized by WSU - Stevens Point will be the institution's home city.

A Alumni Director Rick Frederick at a dinner meeting, is scheduled in the Whiting Motor Hotel, Feb. 17 for friends and graduates of the school who reside in Portage, Southern Wood, and eastern Waupaca and Shawano counties.

A cocktail hour will run from 6 to 7, the dinner from 7 to 8, and the program from 8 to 9 p.m.

Providing entertainment will be the WSU Swing Choir and Stage Band; a talk on "You and Your University" will be given by President Lee Sherman Dreyfus; and other greetings from the schools will be given by representatives.

Mrs. Elizabeth Pflieger DeBor, longtime alumna and Dean of Women who retired several years ago, is heading a committee arranging the event. Interested persons may make reservations by phoning the alumni office at 341-1251 extension 256.

Other clubs organized within the last two months are in Portage, Wis., calling Borchard at his office.

Siasfi's Plan Beer Consumption

Plans for the disposal of a half barrel of beer were outlined at the 8 pm Monday meeting of the Siasfi's. The consumption, being in the form of a contest/demonstration, will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday, February 13 at Little Joe's Drinking Establishment. (consult your yellow pages) Winter Carnival game plans were made and a discussion was had on the possibility of a new individual record being set in the near future. Watch the Pointer for further information on this subject.

Official score for the meeting was 28, the semester average now standing at 42.5.

International Student Group Will Meet

The International Students Organization will meet on Thursday, Feb. 13, at 8 p.m. in the Mitchell Room of the University Center. Dr. A. Albert Kuddi-Zadah will speak on various aspects of the Middle East crisis.

All interested students, faculty, and friends are cordially invited to attend and to get acquainted with WSU's many foreign students.

Phi Alpha Theta Elects Officers

Phi Alpha Theta, the National history honor society, held its first meeting of the spring semester last Thursday evening. The tutoring service, which will be available this semester, was discussed. It is designed to help those students who are having difficulty in American, European, or Medieval history.

Initial plans for a series of panel discussions were made and possible topics were discussed. Plans were also made for the upcoming initiation of new members.

Newly elected officers are vice-president Barbara Hudy; recording secretary Mary M. Johnson; treasurer, Kenneth Rierion and historian, Patricia Cornwell. President Patrick Maney and corresponding secretary Susan Flammang retained their positions from the fall semester.

Alpha Phi

The Alpha Phi's, under the leadership of Linda Hanneman are in full swing for Winter Carnival. The girls are busy practicing games, working on ice sculpture and looking forward to this weekend's events.

Last week, the Phi's helped put together an alumni booklet with the other sororities as a Panhell project.

The sorority is now making plans for Tush and a style show.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Last Sunday, the Sig Eps were in spirits as they initiated eight men into the brotherhood. They are: Steve Burdett, John Catey, Tom Kemen, Gary Kiebrak, Ken Lenett, Curt Meyers, Doug Meyers and Pat Schaller.

After the formal ceremony, a banquet was held at the Tomorrow River Supper Club. Jim Tipple made news over semester break as he became engaged to Pat "Pixie" Econom.

Delta Zeta

The DZ's and TKES gathered at Lakeside Saturday night after the game.

This week, the DZ's are involved in the participation of Winter Carnival events.

The chapter now has Barb Berry, Ginny Born and Joyce Novotny back on campus. All three girls have been practicing teaching last semester.

Phi Sigma Epsilon

At the last meeting James Setzer was elected fraternity Chaplain this semester.

On Feb. 28, the Phi Sigs play the Phi Sigs from Northland College in a game of basketball. Half-barrels will be set up after the game.

The brothers took second place in the inter-fraternity swim meet last week. They now stand in second place in the intramural standings.

Edward Danilko is engaged to Lois Altenburg, a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

Alpha Sigma Alpha

On Jan. 18, many of the Alpha Sigs attended the wedding of sister Marty Young and John Norton in Milwaukee. At the first meeting of the semester, the sisters of Alpha Sigma Alpha welcomed back Carolyn Timberlake, Jackie Hottmann, Julie Hottmann and Mary Birch, who were practicing teaching the first semester.

Five rose ceremonies also took place as lavalingering, punnings, and engagements were announced. Engaged are Emmy Chang to Dan Elandson, Kathy Homan to TKE John Fischer, and alumna Pat Becker to Dan Bobzin of Sigma Pi. Sharon Nessa announced her pinning to TKE field supervisor Bill Liberty, and sister Carolyn Timberlake is lavalingered to John Leighton of Beta Sigma Psi at Michigan Tech.

Gamma Beta chapter is proud to announce the installation of two new chapters to the national sorority. They are: Gamma Phi at St. John's University, Jamaica, N.Y., and Gamma Psi at Edinboro State College, Edinboro, Pa. The Alpha Sigs will be wearing gold and white ribbons to commemorate the occasion.

Presently, the Alpha Sigs are working on an exchange program where sisters from the South, East and West will be exchanged for one of our sisters. Sharon Nessa, presently Miss Wisconsin Rapids, is competing for Miss Stevens Point. The Sig P's on Jan. 31.

550's Change Meeting Date To Bi-Monthly

New president Dave Kozub brought the meeting to order. An idea for a change in meeting days was brought up. On the second and fourth Thursdays of each month, the Yets will meet. The next meeting will be February 27 at Ann Lyon's (Roy's) Bar at 7:00 p.m.

Plans were also made for a Winter Carnival Party to be held Saturday, February 15. The party will be held at the Bret Barn from 12 to 5 p.m. All members enter through the side door. Check-in came in Monday, bring your dues.

HALL-A-DAYS

ABC MATCHES

The results of the ABC matches of Sunday, Feb. 9 are as follows: Neale, 5 wins and 0 losses, 1420 total points, 4-1, 1230; Pray-Sims, 4-2, 1170; Hansen, 4-2, 835; Smith, 3-2, 745; Watson, 2-3, 495; Schmeckle, 2-3, 495; Burroughs, 2-4, 1030; Steiner, 2-4, 705; Hyer, 2-4, 545; Deltzell, 2-4, 385; and Roach, 0-5, 425.

Next week's schedule is Smith at Hansen, Roach at Deltzell, Burroughs at Baldwin, Watson at Neale, Knutzen at Pray-Sims and Schmeckle at Hyer. Steiner has the bye. These matches will be held at 3 p.m. because of the UAB concert.

STEINER HALL

Wednesday evening, last week, Steiner had an important all-floor meeting which all residents were asked to attend. Hall president Tim Marcotte began the meeting by asking the "finer" men if there were any gripes or suggestions which would make for a more felicitous hall. He said the Hall Council was trying to make Steiner's activities more interesting, more suitable to all residents. There were a number of activities mentioned, the most important being the Big Brother Program.

The Big Brother Program is planned as a recreational aid for small children in the area who have lost their parents, and who could stand some older person to guide, counsel, and provide them with the affection and general sense of well-being normally afforded by parents.

On Saturday mornings, for example, a Steinerite could take some eager little boy to some nearby fishing stream, or to the baseball park in spring, to give him a few batting pointers. Those who attended the meeting all seemed to agree it was a good idea, and when asked for a show of hands, there was an unanimous response. The Big Brother Program should be starting soon.

It was asked if there would be a food service again for second semester in the hall basement, and when it would be starting. It opened Tuesday night of this week and is scheduled to be open every Tuesday and Thursday evening, from nine to eleven, and from nine to twelve p.m. on those nights, respectively.

Another activity held in high favor, by another show of hands, was a St. Patrick's Day Party which would be held at the Holiday Inn with Steiner and another hall attending.

Hall Council is now under a reorganizing process. The cooperation of all residents is necessary for a smooth-running Hall Government. The Council seeks new members at the present time.

The meeting was termed a general success, and it is hoped there will be successive meetings in the future, whereby all residents are given a chance to exercise their right of freedom of speech.

Outdoors

By Dave Crehore

More people pursue fishing than any other participant sport. Because of this, a cruise of almost any basement will reveal a couple of sorry-looking fishing rods leaning against the wall in a dark corner. Every spring, sporting goods dealers get complaints from customers about year-old reels that "don't work any more" and look as though they had been soaked in brine all winter. Fishing tackle must be kept in this healthy condition if it is to perform properly.

Last spring, while fishing for coho off the Algonia pier, I watched a man lose a really beautiful coho because the drag in his inexpensive but adequate spincast reel had frozen up with rust and corrosion. The big fish wanted line, but the drag wouldn't give it to him, no matter how hard the poor fellow tried to slack it off.

The result was inevitable: a broken line, and a coho swimming off with a mouthful of hooks. The man later told me that he and his wife had driven all the way from Eagle River to get a chance at a coho, but he hadn't bothered to clean and grease the reel.

We generally don't spend as much money on fishing tackle as we do on guns, but we should maintain fishing tackle carefully, if only to avoid the fate of my unhappy friend from Eagle River.

REELS
Even a cheap reel is a fairly complicated machine, and, like other machines, needs adequate lubrication. Maintenance instructions come along with all new reels. If you have lost the instruction folder that came with your reel, find a similar one in a store and refresh your memory.

Most reels are designed to be easy to take-apart, clean, and lubricate. Follow the directions, use the kind and amount of lubricant the manufacturer recommends, and your reel will work well and last a long time.

If something seems to be wrong with your reel, take it to a repairman now rather than later in the spring, when he will be up to his ears in repair jobs.

RODS
Metal and fiberglass rods generally take care of themselves if they are stored in a dry place.

If any rust has accumulated, it can be removed with steel wool. It's a good idea to check the winding that holds the guides in place if it is cut or frayed, you can do a fair repair job with a little clear nail polish.

LINE
If you fish a lot, it's best to replace all braided or monofilament line every year. If you don't want to do this (who does?) you should at least cut off the first ten feet or so. This part of the line is subjected to considerable wear in the guides, and can get quite weak without your knowledge.

Why lines should be put away clean. Little cans of line-cleaning paste are available for this purpose, or you can use a damp sponge. Double-taper or level fly lines can be re-runned on the reel to distribute the wear.

Finally, don't trust any year-old monofilament leaders. They are cheap enough to replace often.

LURES
Steel plus water equals rust, and rusty hooks don't hold fish. Therefore it is necessary to check out all your artificial lures, and clean off the rust. You can buy a hook-hone for less than fifty cents, and keep every hook on every lure as sharp (or sharper) as it was when it was new. It's worth a little time to preserve your plugs, spoons, and spinners, considering how much they cost.

Fly and fly boxes should be bone-dry when put away for the year, and it's a good idea to put a mothball or two in with them. Moths love to gobble up flies, possibly out of self-preservation. Do not put mothballs in plastic fly boxes, however. The naphtha eats holes in the plastic.

MISCELLANEOUS
Most brands of waders are sold with storage instructions. For instance, my waders must be thoroughly dried, turned inside out, and kept in an airtight plastic bag. If you store your waders as the manufacturer recommends, you'll probably get an extra season or two of use out of them.

While you are inspecting your artificial lures, you can clean out your tackle box as well. Metal tackle boxes can get rusty or corroded, but a puff of steel wool and a spray can of enamel will keep them looking good.

INTRAMURAL PRESS BOX

By John Stengl

February 4th the quarterfinals of intramural badminton were held with Steiner 4th South beating Burroughs 4th West, Knutzen 1st East over Smith 4th North, and Hansen 3rd North defeated Pray 4th East. Baldwin 2nd East whipped Baldwin 1st East, for their hall championship and advanced to the playoffs.

The Residence Hall swimming finals will be held tonight (Thursday) from 8-10. The winning team from each hall can enter each event scheduled and are not limited to the events they won in their respective hall meets.

Sims 1st North is currently leading in the intramural point standings for the year with 61 points, but only eight points separate the top eight teams. Playoffs have yet to be completed for table tennis. Paddleball began this week with 30 teams entered. Playoffs are scheduled for the end of March.

Entries for intramural bowling are due next Monday, Feb. 17.

Hockey Club Swimmers Loses, 7-5 Rate High In WSUC

The Hockey Club played their first game Sunday against St. Norberts, dropping a 7-5 decision.

The club was formed last spring by a number of former Stevens Point Blackhawks. Students showed an interest in the sport so a club was formed with Fred Steffen as president and John Bailiff as faculty advisor.

Stevens Point got off to a fast start Sunday with goals in the first period of play by Bill Christiansen and Tom Kujawski.

St. Norberts came roaring back with four goals in the second period of action. All four goals were scored by John Clegg of St. Norberts.

In the final period of play the lead traded hands with St. Norberts ending the contest with a goal by Clegg.

The Pointers will return to St. Norberts Saturday night for a game scheduled prior to the Green Bay Bobcat game.

Coach Lynn Blair's swimming team have the most men listed in the leading times of meets to date in the WSUC. Although the Pointers have the top time in only three of the twelve events, they are listed in the top five in ten of the twelve events.

Pointers with the top times so far include freshman Rod Shraufnager in the 100 yard freestyle with an 11:32.7 mark, and the 400 yard freestyle relay team composed of Schraufnager, team composites of Schraufnager, Dan Netzer, and Jack Hyland, with a 3:28.7 mark, only 3 seconds off the record the Pointers set last year.

Events in which WSU has the second best times include Al Koschmann in the 200 breaststroke with a 2:31.6 mark, and Schraufnager in the 50 freestyle with 23.7.

This year's conference meet will be held at Superior on March 7-8 and has been enlarged to 18 events. The conference dropped the 1,000 yard freestyle but added the 400-yard individual medley, 1,650-yard freestyle, 800-yard freestyle relay, and the three-meter springboard diving.

UAB Trippers Spend Weekend In Woods

Trippers snowed through the treecrops during their Feb. 7 weekend camping next at Buffalo Lake in the Chequamegon National Forest. Arriving at ten o'clock Friday night, Noel Ryder, a member in the party of ten, allowed the group to spend the third of a mile to his destination, sometimes plunging knee-deep in snow.

All this trip had promised was a weekend living in a piece of snowy soft northern Wisconsin. Whether one wanted to hike through the woods, toboggan, snowshoe across the lake or play cards by the fire was up to the individual. There was plenty of opportunity for exploring miles of forest, uninhabited except for deer, bear and squirrel. In keeping with the rugged life they gathered pans of snow to melt down inside for coffee water and dishwater - they tasted about the same. They even had the chance to lay their sleeping bags under some cozy windfall the second night (no one chose to).

Sunday morning the temperature registered a frosty 26 degrees below. But, a warm fire, leisure time, and four cooks isn't the worst way to go.

Members of the party were Robert Busch, advisor, Karan Castner, Sue England, Terry Hughs, Mike Joers, Kathy Kiger, Bunny Hoelt, Stu Nelson, Noel Ryder and Augie Stark.

Name Hughes To Czech Tour All-Star Squad

Mike Hughes, 6-8 center and co-captain of this year's Pointer basketball squad, has been named as a member of an all-star squad which will tour Czechoslovakia this summer. The Wausau Newman athlete was picked by members of Slavia Prague, the touring Czech National Team which toured the United States and beat the Pointers here last Dec. 6. The Czechs named at least one player from each of the schools they faced, which included Oshkosh, Lakeland, Albert Lea and Dominican of Racine.

Point Bowlers Post 6 Wins, Take 3 Losses

The Point bowling team enjoyed its best effort of the season this weekend in a conference meet held at Stout. The Pointers won six while dropping only three. On Friday night the Pointers took two out of three from host Stout on their union lanes, then swept a three game series from Oshkosh. On Saturday the Pointers won the first game of the series with Platteville, but then dropped the last two games.

Point had four out of the five bowlers average in the 180's. Dave Voigt, for the second week in a row paced the Pointers with a 187 average. Steve Boehm was second high with a 183 average, and Larry Skel and Wayne Hamlin both averaged 181. Dave had the high series of the weekend with a 598 which included a high game of 224. Larry had the high game with a 234.

It was a weekend of lower standing teams whipping the top teams which considerably tightened up the State University Conference standings. Only eight games separate the first place team from the last place team. LaCrosse still leads the league by one game over both Whitewater and River Falls. The Pointer record now stands at 14-25.

Wrestlers Lose Meet With Stout

By Dave Burton

The wrestling squad lost a dual meet to WSU-Stout last Saturday afternoon at Menominee by a 28-14 score.

The Pointers were hampered by the loss of ace 167 pounder Jim Notstad, who was injured in a meet against Whitewater the previous day.

Bob Hayden wrestled in Notstad's weight class and provided one of the Pointers' two wins with a 3-0 decision over Schweis, Russ Bue at 145 pounds was the other victorious Pointer with a 5-0 decision.

Three Pointers managed to pick up ties in their classes; Dan Rodwell at 120 pounds, Dennis Raedel at 137, and Jim Garber at 191 pounds.

The loss dropped Coach Wayne Gorrell's athletes to a 1-6 mark in dual competition. This weekend they will travel to Northfield, Minn., for a tripart dual involving River Falls, Eau Claire and Carleton. Notstad is expected to recover in time to compete Saturday.

Lasch's Sports Flashes

By TIM LASCH

The Pointers had probably their best weekend of basketball all year long. They were pretty much in command throughout both games, and, for once, did not fall behind and have to play catch-up.

Mike Hughes' rebounding efforts against Superior were really something to behold, 26 rebounds in only about 25 minutes of play. If Hughes can keep rebounding with that determination, it will certainly enhance the Pointers' chances of a WSUC crown.

I don't know where Tommy Ritzenthaler gets his radar from, but he is something else when he gets hot.

Don't be deceived by the swimming team's mediocre record in dual meets thus far. They have by far the roughest schedule of any WSUC team, facing almost all of the NAIA swimming powers of the Midwest: Winona, Macalester and Northern Michigan. They have stayed close to all these teams and won all meets with conference foes. I know Coach Blair is pleased with his squad and look for them to take the conference meet at Superior.

There go Wisconsin's Badgers again-win the hard and lose the easy.

After a mediocre 6-2 showing in predictions last time, the new week looks like this:

- Purdue 83, Wisconsin 70
- Wisconsin 84, Michigan State 74
- Ekhorn 65, Delavan 63
- Mukwonago 72, Ekhorn 62
- Stevens Point 80, Platteville 76

Pointers Crush Superior, 110-77

By Tim Lasch

WSU-Stevens Point rolled over WSU-Superior in one of their most impressive performances of the season last Friday evening at the Fieldhouse, 110-77.

The victory kept the Pointers only one half game behind league-leading Stout, who beat Whitewater, 99-67. Stevens Point increased their conference slate to 9-2 and their overall to 14-4. Superior dropped to 3-8 and 6-9 marks.

Stevens Point jumped off to an 8-0 lead in the opening minute of play and was never seriously threatened thereafter. The Pointers combined torrid shooting with strong rebounding, good passing, and tight defense to completely outclass the Jackets.

The Pointers steadily increased their margin throughout the half and led by 27 points at halftime, 63-36.

Sophomores Tom Ritzenthaler and Quinn Vandenhueval led the balanced scoring with 14 points each. Ritzenthaler put on another one of his displays of deadly outside shooting over the Superior zone, connecting on 6 of 10 attempts. Brother Ken Ritzenthaler added 13 markers to the cause and a revitalized Mike Hughes returned to form with 11 points and 13 rebounds. Superior was led by their outstanding guard, Don Hartlund, with eight points, but the usually deadly Hartlund had an off night from the floor after scoring 29 points against Stout in Superior's upset win the previous Monday.

Stevens Point came out in the second half and picked up right where they left off, completely dominating the action. The Pointers reached 85 points with 12 minutes left in the contest, and it appeared that they might threaten the conference scoring mark for one game, 133 points, set by Oshkosh last year.

A short cold spell ended any chances for the record, but a field goal by freshman guard Jerry Siewert put Stevens Point over the century mark with 2:07 remaining. The Pointers went on to post a final 110-77 win.

Tom Ritzenthaler led the scoring parade with 25 points, hitting on 11 of 19 shots, and also starting 11 rebounds. Vandenhueval followed with 18, Ken Ritzenthaler 15, Hughes 14, Russ DeFauw 11, and Siewert 10, giving Stevens Point six men in double figures.

Hughes had his best game rebounding all year as he also started 26 rebounds, leading the Pointers to a 71-37 edge on the boards.

Freshman center Windy McGriff led Superior with 12 points and 13 rebounds, and Tom Harkness followed with 14 and 12 points, respectively. Hartlund was held to 12 points due to the tight defense and the fact that he could hit on only 6 of 22 shots.

In the preliminary game, Coach Pete Kasson's freshman pulled away from the S Club in the second half and won, 53-39.

Whitewater Defeats Point Wrestlers

By Dave Burton

Coach Wayne Gorell's wrestling team extended Whitewater to the final event before a pin gave the Warhawks a 2-16 win at the Fieldhouse last Friday.

The Pointers record in dual meets dropped to 1-5. A pin by Dave Garber at 191 pounds had narrowed the Warhawks' lead to 17-16 with only the heavyweight class left, but Toby Ackerman pinned Pointer Dan Hillebrand in 7:49.

Results of the meet were as follows: 115 pounds-Dick Sorenson (SP) beat Pippin, 10-3. 123-Ron Campbell (SP) and Bockstahler drew, 2-2. 130-Kittleson (W) beat Dan Rodzewski, 10-0.

137-Stevenson (S) beat Dennis Ruedel, 4-1. 145-Vail (W) beat Russ Bue, 5-4. 152-Holden (W) beat Eric Opperman, 7-0.

160-Lewis (W) beat Bob Hayden, 3-0. 167-Jim Nottstad (SP) beat Deinger, 4-2. 177-Jim Sobocinski (SP) beat Klute, 8-2.

191-Dave Garber (SP) pinned Grady in 7:27. Heavyweight-Ackerman (W) pinned Dan Hillebrand in 7:49.

Basketballers Rout River Falls, 96-80

By Tim Lasch

Coach Bob Krueger's WSU-Stevens Point cagers stayed only one half game behind Stout with a 96-80 win over WSU-River Falls last Saturday evening at the Fieldhouse. The Pointers are now 10-2 in the WSUC and 15-4 overall, trailing Stout which leads with an 11-2 conference slate, and Stevens Point led at the half, 51-36.

Steve Gustafson led River Falls in the opening half with 11 points and Joe Acotto added 10. Superior the previous evening, the Pointers jumped to the lead at the outset of the contest and never trailed.

Stevens Point jumped to a 14-6 edge in the first five minutes and gradually increased their margin to 15 points by halftime over the smaller

Pointers and they went going away, 96-80. Tom Ritzenthaler again placed the Pointer attack with 24 points, followed by Hughes with 18 points and 14 rebounds, Ken Ritzenthaler 17, and Quinn Vandenhueval with 14.

Vandenhueval and Russ DeFauw both had fine floor games in the all-important playmaking department. Gustafson, who last week was named the Player of the Week in the WSUC, led River Falls with 23 points and 15 rebounds. Acotto added 20, but all-conference Bill Van Dyke was held to 11 points.

The loss dropped the Falcons into serious foul trouble, however, and the Falcons gradually began to close the gap behind the inside scoring of Gustafson and the outside shooting of Acotto. A basket by Acotto and two by guard Pete Palmer brought the Falcons within 10, 84-74, with 3:12 left.

That was as close as the visitors got, however, as a steal and layup by Pointer guard Russ DeFauw with three minutes left gave the momentum back to the Pointers and they went going away, 96-80. Tom Ritzenthaler again placed the Pointer attack with 24 points, followed by Hughes with 18 points and 14 rebounds, Ken Ritzenthaler 17, and Quinn Vandenhueval with 14.
