To
OSCAR W. NEALE

A RARE COMBINATION OF EXEMPLARY
CHARACTER, THOROUGH SCHOLAR-
SHIP, DEEP SYMPATHY, CONTAGIOUS
ENTHUSIASM, DESERT IN SERVICE AND
GOOD FELLOWSHIP,—HE HAS DE-
SERVEDLY WON HIS WAY INTO OUR HEARTS. WE, THE SENIOR CLASS,
TAKE PLEASURE IN DEDICATING
THIS 1924 IRIS

Your Real Fight

TO THE SENIORS—CLASS OF 1924

Dear Friends:

The true American welcomes difficulties, believing that it is better to have tried and lost than never to have tried at all; only a coward demands a sure thing.

Such a man wants to test his strength and feels bound to use beneficently all that God has given him; he deems it wrong to let a single possible talent go unused, and it is therefore only by trial that he can know how much has been given him to use.

A real American, therefore, considers himself under sacred obligations to test himself out—to learn his full strength or perchance his weakness—and this wholly regardless of personal success or failure as viewed by the usual standards.

The real victory is in making the fight and this sort of highest victory is reserved only for him who can rejoice in its achievement while smiling at the possible disappointment of the day.

Your sincere friend,

JOHN F. SIMS.

Some Ideas About Teaching

Jest a settin' in a school room
In a great big easy chair
And a keepin' things a movin'
With a lordly sort of air.
Not a thing to do but askin'
Lot a questions from a book,
Spectin' kids to know the answers
Though they're not allowed to look.
That's teachin'.

Jest a drawin' great big money
And a livin' like a lord!
Jest makin' folks pay taxes
From their hard earned stored up hoard
Keeps them buyin' books and fixins'
That they noways really need.
Snap, I'll say so. Gosh A'mighty,
Easiest livin' ever see'd
That's teachin'.

Senior Class Will

WE, the Senior class of 1924 of the Stevens Point Normal School under the impression that we are of sound mind and body do hereby respectfully bequeath to the Junior Class, its sole heirs, the following:—

"The hours spent here, dear hearts" with all due measure of honor and regret.

The respect and all the courtesy which we had for the rules and customs of this, our Alma Mater.

Several copies of "O Sole Mio" (considered by some the national anthem of the institution) to be fervently used at Thursday morning song service.

To the entire Junior Class we have some thesis topics for next year's use.

"The Present Tariff On Peanuts."

"Why is Mutt Taller Than Jeff?"

"Where Does the White of the Snow Go When it Melts?"

"How High is Up?"

"Why is the Ocean Built so Close to Shore?"

These are good subjects at least for thought if some of you do not think it will be necessary for you to write a thesis next year.

Ella Achterberg and Walter Bruce, co-partners in romance, leave the west end of Main Hall to Lucille Lamb and Valerian Wiesner.

Porky Redfield leaves to Francis Knope, the right to make clever assembly announcements in view of the fact that Cy has some line.

Lee Guerin passes on the harem willed to him last year to Val Bird.

Cecil Card to Genevieve Murray the secret of writing 100% themes for Burroughs class.

Josephine Breary to Winifred Burns the pep of the Primary Class—Bring them through with a grand Hoo rah!!!

Martha Ellsworth to Connie Davis "the man of the hour"—Freddie.

Margaret Rellehan leaves her present position, and its a hard one, to some persevering Junior.

Myron Finch's salesmanship qualities to Ruby Tilleson—we understand she has a contract for selling ivory combs in this section of the state.

St. Clair's popularity to Mildred Novotony.

Ruth Anderson leaves a copy of "Acres of Diamonds" to Alice Benson.

Louis Leak sadly—with tears in his eyes leaves his "popularity girl" to Les Reynolds.

Esther Smith's vamping ability to Eleanor Withee.

The cottage life we leave to the Junior boys—We are sorry to say that there are only seven nites in a week.

The dormitory davenport to Herrick and Ham Williams.

Faith Trumbull her shape (Sewing III) to Dorothy Dixon.

The "House of Koss" advice, "How to be Happy Though Married" to Rusty H. and Anabelle C.

In witness whereof, we have signed and sealed and published this, our last will and testament, at Stevens Point, Wisconsin, June 5, 1924.

High School Department

THE High School Department has shown the other organizations that it is able to uphold all of the old standards of the Forum, and its members have even entered new fields of activities; namely, Glee Club, Orchestra, and Dramatics.

Under the able, careful and friendly supervision of our Director, Mr. Smith, and his assistant, Miss Jones, this Department has become a leader in S. P. N. We are not only an important factor in the scholastic, forensic, athletic, and musical fields, but the school always finds the Forum members ready to adapt themselves to any school functions.

The Department is growing and we are glad to welcome any faculty member into our society, who shows that he or she has a desire to see the organization advance. Miss Evans has shown her interest and loyalty to the Forum, so we unanimously voted to make her an honorary member.

"When as school-mates we have parted, and our lessons all are done," we will still have happy memories of the friendships made in this Department and in our Alma Mater.

Home Economics Department

THE success of this department is due to our able director, Miss Allen. For a number of years she has worked to make the department efficient in every respect and has succeeded so well that it cannot be excelled by any other school in the state.

The coming school year of 1924-25 marks the end of the two year course and all courses from then on will be three or four years. This is an improvement over the two year course because the student has the advantage of three rather than two years of preparation. In spite of the fact that the course has been extended, no decrease in the number of enrollments is expected. People are beginning to realize the splendid field which is open to students graduating from this course. The teaching profession is not the only work open to its graduates. They may complete their training for Dietetics in some hospital; they may take up work in hotel management, and other lines of work as well. The possibilities of this department are just beginning to be noticed and there is no end to the achievements to be accomplished. The extended course is bound to be a success under Miss Allen's direction. Her extensive education and remarkable ability cannot fail to bring success to the department.

Grammar Department

A STUDENT of the Grammar Department may be taking the Junior High School, the Intermediate, or the Two Year English Course. The most remarkable growth in any course in school in the last three years has been the Junior High School through the direction of our department adviser, Mr. Watson. Four years ago there were but a very few students enrolled in this course. Now we have fifty-four students and a promise of more every year. Beginning next year, three years will be required to finish the course.

Thru the departmental club, "The Round Table," the students "get together" about once a month and either enjoy a splendid program or hear an address on some problem of general interest.

The members of this department are represented in all school activities as the orchestra, oratory, debate, and athletics, as well as the religious organizations of the school.

Fourth Row: Bier, Kische, Mordt, Watson, Donner, Potts, Fischer.

The Primary Department

THE aim of the Primary Department, as we all know, is to train the students taking this course, to become efficient teachers of the kindergarten and the first three grades. It gives to the Primary student teachers an understanding of child life and child development and information that rouses responsibility for the right a child should have in his school career and in his life's journey.

We, as Primary student teachers, are very proud of and grateful to Mr. Delzell, our Director, who has an ever-ready smile of encouragement. Through his efforts he has made our work vital and profitable, with the aid of Miss Brevad, Miss Pritchard, Miss Gove, Miss Oleson, Miss Ivey, and Mr. Herrick; consequently we Primaries enjoy our work to the utmost.

The Primary Council, our department society, through its instructive and interesting programs held every two weeks, also has helped us in our training for efficiency.

Our interests which are centered mostly around the little folks do not hold our thoughts to that one thing exclusively, for we are always found ready and active in all events pertaining to our Stevens Point Normal School.

M. H. S. '24.

FOR the past four years, the Training Department has progressed very rapidly under the able leadership of Mr. Herrick. It was organized when the Normal first opened in 1894 and is now considered one of the best in the state. It consists of a Primary Department, Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Grades, and Junior High School.

The Junior High School was organized in 1920, and was named in honor of Mary D. Bradford, our first Training School principal.

The Normal students receive beneficial practice training under the supervision of the very efficient critics and Mr. Herrick.

Rural Department

THE attention of leading educators is turning more and more to the field of rural education. Great conventions of teachers have strong programs devoted to this phase of education; learned men and women are beginning to see this problem and to work toward its solution; and educational institutions are beginning to feel their responsibility in this field.

This happy change is the result of the untiring efforts of a few pioneers who have never ceased the demand that all children be given equal educational opportunities.

In the foremost group of these evangelists is our own Mr. Neale. Since the beginning of his professional career, he has been directly connected with the rural school problem. Whether district school teacher, county superintendent, institute conductor, normal school professor, or director of teacher training he has been and always will be a real friend to the country boy and girl.

As Director of Rural Education in our own school he is now devoting his entire energy to his chosen life work. Locally in the state and in the nation his power is being felt. He has built up the strongest department for training rural teachers in the state. He has added a course for rural supervisors and taken over the department for training principals of state graded schools. His recent appointment on the Committee of One Hundred on Rural Teaching Problems is only one mark of the esteem in which he is held nationally.

Locally we know that no distance is too long, no weather too inclement, no difficulty too great to keep him from helping when he is called upon, whether it is to conduct a community meeting, advise a school board, instruct a rural teacher or entertain a group of children. Entirely forgetful of self, he spends his life in service for others.

The seniors of his own department, leaving S. P. N. at this commencement time, will always esteem it a privilege to do only a little in the field in which he is doing so much. His example of perseverance, faith and optimism will ever be our inspiration.

Orthman Demonstration School

AT last a rural demonstration school on our campus is a reality. For a long time it has been a vision in the minds of President Sims and Prof. O. W. Neale for they have known that the next step in improving rural teacher training in our school was the erection of such a building.

It has taken several years of patient and optimistic effort to convince legislatures, boards, and state officials that we need this project at S. P. N., but these men have never given up the idea and have finally overcome all objections. In compliment to our local regent for his strong support and ready interest, the building has been called the "Orthman Demonstration School."

The school is modern in every way. In addition to a large assembly room on the ground floor, there is a room for domestic science, one for manual training, a library alcove, a text book storeroom, and two cloak rooms. There is a full basement in which a large play room has been provided to be used during unpleasant weather.

The students of the Department of Rural Education will do a part of their practice teaching in this building, where the organization will be carried out in accordance with our state common school manual. It will also serve as a laboratory for classes in rural school management.

Although this department advocates a policy of consolidation we feel that until consolidation is more prevalent in Wisconsin we must prepare our students to do their best work in the schools to which they will go.

It is hoped that those rural school officers who are planning new buildings or improvement in old ones will visit this model school house for ideas and suggestions.

We are looking forward with happy anticipation to the opening of the "Orthman Demonstration School" in the fall of 1924.

Opportunity

THIS I beheld, or dreamed in a dream:
There spread a cloud of dust along a plain;
And underneath the cloud, or in it, raged
A furious battle, and men yelled, and swords
Shocked upon swords and shields. A prince's banner
Wavered, then staggered backward, hemmed by foes.
A craven hung along the battle's edge,
And thought, "Had I sword of keener steel—
That blue blade that the king's son bears—but this
Blunt thing"—he snapped and flung it from his hand
And lowering crept away and left the field.
Then came the king's son, wounded, sorebedstead,
And weaponless, and saw the broken sword,
Hilt-buried in the dry and trodden sand,
And ran and snatched it, and with battle shout
Lifted afresh he hewed his enemy down,
And saved a great cause that heroic day.

Dedication

WHILE ATTENDING STEVENS POINT NORMAL, SIDNEY EAGLEBURGER, WILLIS ZORN AND DAN HORN EARNED WORTHY RECOGNITION BOTH AS STUDENTS AND AS OUTSTANDING ATHLETES. BECAUSE OF THE STANDARDS THEY SET WHILE AT S. P. N. AND BECAUSE THEY SOUGHT FURTHER EDUCATION AND ATTENDED TWO OF THE UNIVERSITIES WHICH ARE CONSIDERED AMONG THE BEST, WHERE THEY CONTINUED TO EARN RECOGNITION, BOTH IN THE SCHOLASTIC AND ON THE ATHLETIC FIELD, THEY ARE CHOSEN TO REPRESENT THE TYPE OF SUCCESSFUL STUDENTS WHICH S. P. N., THROUGH ITS SCHOLASTIC AND ATHLETIC ORGANIZATIONS GIVES TO THE WORLD. TO THESE THREE MEN, THE ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT OF THE 1924 IRIS, IS RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED.

COACH J. E. SWETLAND

Athletics at S. P. N.

By J. E. SWETLAND, Athletic Director

IN writing an article of this kind one hardly knows where to begin. Whether to make it retrospective or introspective, reactionary or conservative, general or detailed is the question. Before I have finished, it will probably be a little of each.

However, I would prefer to look into the rosy future rather than the dark and dismal past. One should be an optimist anyway in 1924. I wish to state, nevertheless, concerning our disastrous athletic seasons just passed that they might have been worse. I am absolutely certain that the last Track and Football seasons did the participants more good than any others, since I have been connected with the School.

If benefits derived are to be put ahead of games won, then, we have accomplished that for which Athletics is really carried on. The teams have learned how to take defeat and come back for more; and this is something a good many critics could not possibly do. We all like to win but the men who really count are those who can take a defeat and come back harder than ever. Eventually they will win and when they do they are going to be all the better for their experience.

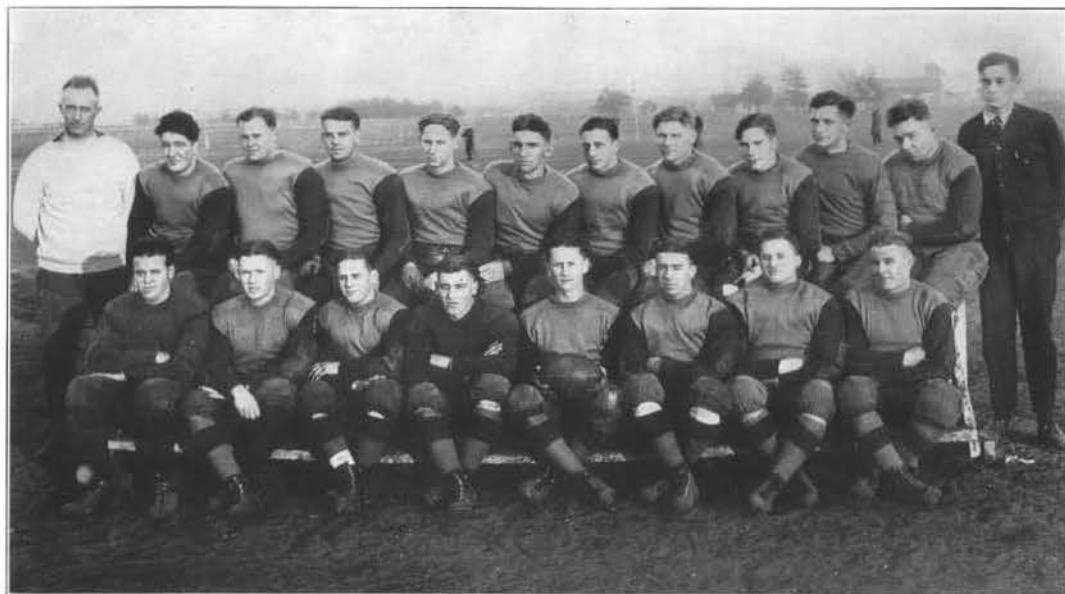

The future, from a winning standpoint, looks bright; we have a good Basketball Team, we should be greatly improved in Track, and our Football Team should be fifty percent better next year than it was in 1923. We will lose some good men this year but with the experienced ones back and a few good new ones we should be able to render a good account of ourselves next year.

The athletic activities should be enlarged. All who can should take part. We are doing quite a bit. About 35 boys get out for Football, 45 including the Rurals, for Basketball, and 40 for Track. This means that better than fifty per cent are taking an active part in competitive athletics. Besides approximately 60 will play Volley ball and others will play Tennis, Kittenball, and Horseshoes. The second semester we expect to have two gymnasium classes and 45 are taking the Course in Athletic Coaching. These latter boys are getting practical experience in handling Girls' Basketball and Track.

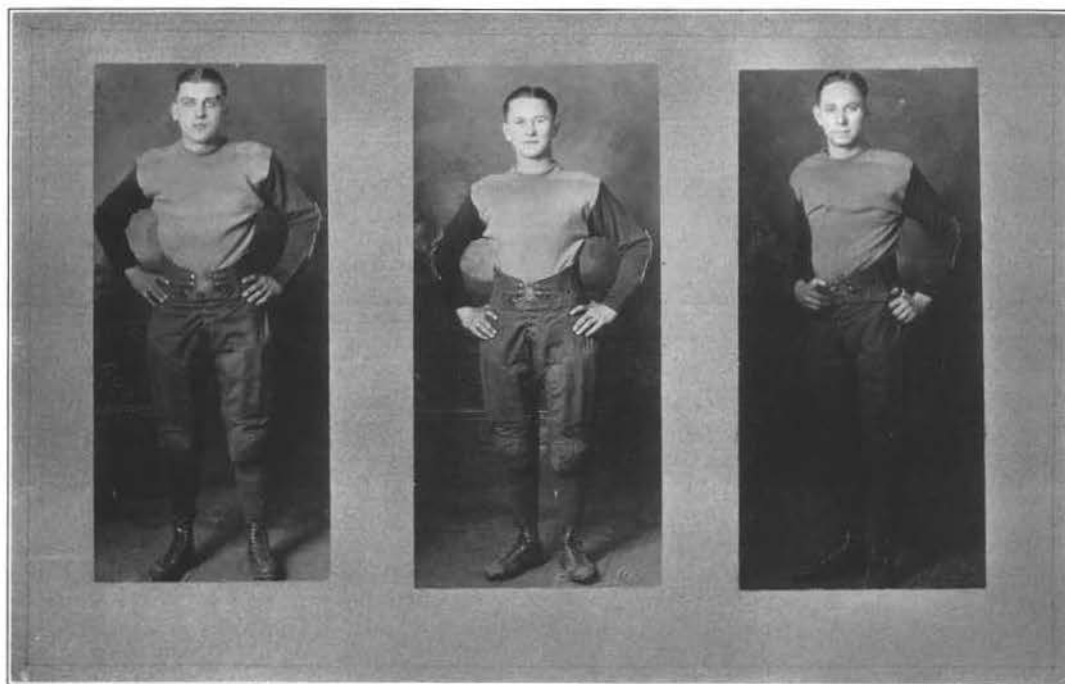

All this looks good but we want more. We should have more Baseball, more Football, more Basketball, more Track, and more recreational games. But above all MORE BOYS. Come out, and get busy.

Graduates boost for more boys and a new Gymnasium! Undergraduates boost the athletics and bring us more like you.

Football 1923

THE year 1923 found Stevens Point Normal facing a questionable football season with only three or four letter men back from the year before and a wealth of green material. Candidates were given tryouts at different positions and it was a real task for Coach Swetland to place his material where it belonged, as most of the men were very light.

Regardless of our light team, we journeyed to Appleton and played our first game against Lawrence College. The outcome of the game was inevitable, as Lawrence's Team outweighed our Team by fifteen pounds to the man, and moreover, Lawrence had practically most of its men from the year before with the exception of two or three outstanding stars. The game ended in a 40 to 0 score.

After this battle Coach Swetland was in a better position to decide where the different men on the squad belonged. After a week of hard practice we met here the Heavy Platteville Normal Team which also outweighed our warriors. It was a windy day and kicking effectively was almost impossible. After see-sawing back and forth in the middle of the field for over three quarters of the game, Platteville succeeded in "pulling a long pass," which nine times out of ten would have been incomplete; the goal was missed and the game ended 6 to 0 against the "Pointers."

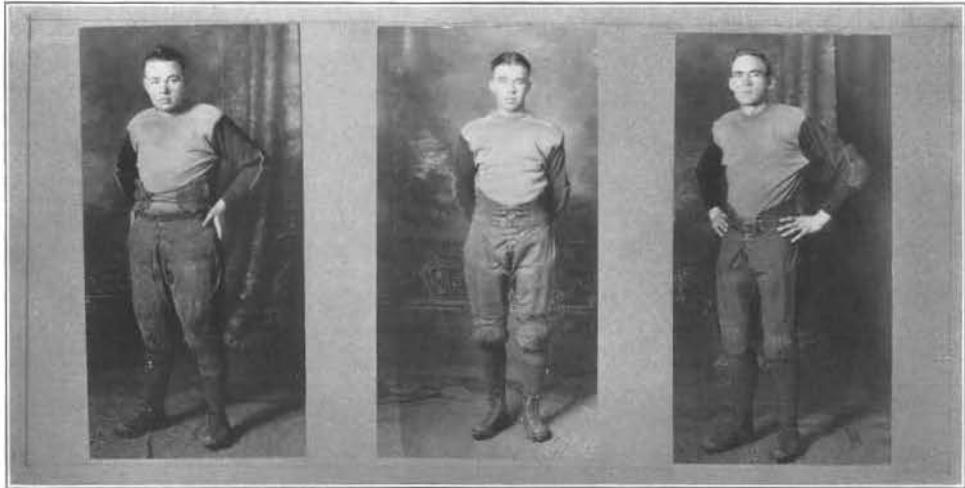

With two defeats chalked up against us we prepared for our next game with Stout Institute which had run up big scores against such teams as Fort Snelling and a few other teams always in the "Limelight." It was in this game that the real "Purple and Gold" spirit and fight was at its highest degree. Again outweighed, our boys battled back and forth against the heavier Stout Team and held them to a tie.

A week following the Stout game, came one of the purple and Gold's hardest games. This was with Ripon College, which had about fifteen of its old stars back. In the best played game of the season, S. P. N. went down to defeat against Ripon. At the end of the first half, the score was seven to nothing, in favor of Ripon and it was no one's game at this time; however, Ripon with fully twenty substitutes, managed to wear down the Purple and Gold squad of fourteen men in all, and the score ended in twenty to nothing with Ripon on the long end.

Our homecoming game was with Oshkosh the following Saturday. The entire Oshkosh team managed to scout three of our games and were posted on our style of play. The day of this game dawned with a drizzling rain, which continued throughout the day. The field was heavy and our light team was at a great disadvantage against the heavy Oshkosh team, which outweighed us twenty pounds to the man. The game ended 29 to 0 in favor of Oshkosh and with half of our men crippled.

Losing as we did, and crippled as we were, our team put in a hard week of practice in preparation for the Eau Claire game on the following Saturday. It was during this game that the Purple and the Gold managed to cross its opponents' goal line for the first time in the season. This fact characterizes the spirit of the entire team; they never "gave up" and always fought to the end. This game stood six to six, at the end of the first half. Old bruises and injuries were renewed during this first half yet our crippled team battled nobly the second half, but went down to defeat, 12 to 6.

The IRIS

JOHN "HANDY" REDFIELD
Center

One of the best, if not the best center S. P. N. has ever had. He played his third and last year and displayed fight and determination in the highest degree. His position as center will be hard to fill in 1924.

HASSELL "HASS" VAUGHN
Quarterback

"Hass" is another who has three years of service to his credit. We have yet to see the man who plays a more consistent game of football than Vaughn. He was the smallest man on the team but made up for this lack of size with a quantity and quality of nerve and speed which drew many compliments from those who saw him play.

SMITH "DAVE" DAVIS
End

S. P. N. loses Davis through graduation and it will take a real football player to fill his place as left end. "Dave's" specialities consisted of ensnaring passes from the very hands of his opponents, smashing the entire interference of an attempted end run, and tackling the ball carrier, without the aid of his team mates.

MYRON "SCOTTY" FINCH
Halfback

"Scotty" is another man who has played his last year of football for S. P. N. One hundred fifty-five pounds of speed and head work describes Myron to a "T." He was a source of worry to his opponents in every game he played because he knew how to play real football consistently.

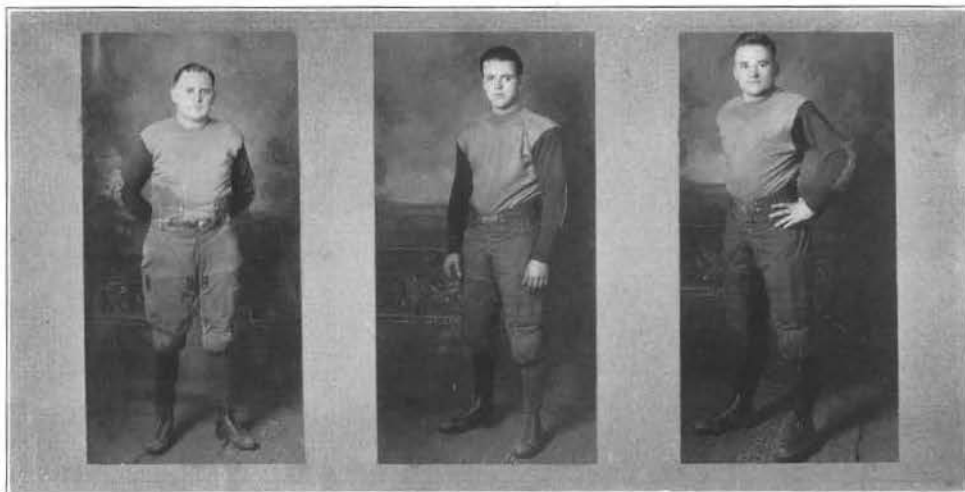

ORRIN "SONNY" ST. CLAIR
Halfback

St. Clair was one of the speediest men in the conference. Tackling was his specialty and a man never got away from him. The interference may have stopped him temporarily but he inevitably downed his man from the rear. Graduation, takes a very valuable man from S. P. N.

FRED "FRITZ" MANLEY
Guard

By graduation S. P. N. loses one of its greatest "fighters," Fred Manley. He started the game at top speed and continued this speed throughout the whole game or until he was carried off. Fred weighed only a hundred fifty-five pounds but every opponent he played against imagined he weighed every ounce of two hundred.

The IRIS

LOUIS "LEU" LEAK
Tackle

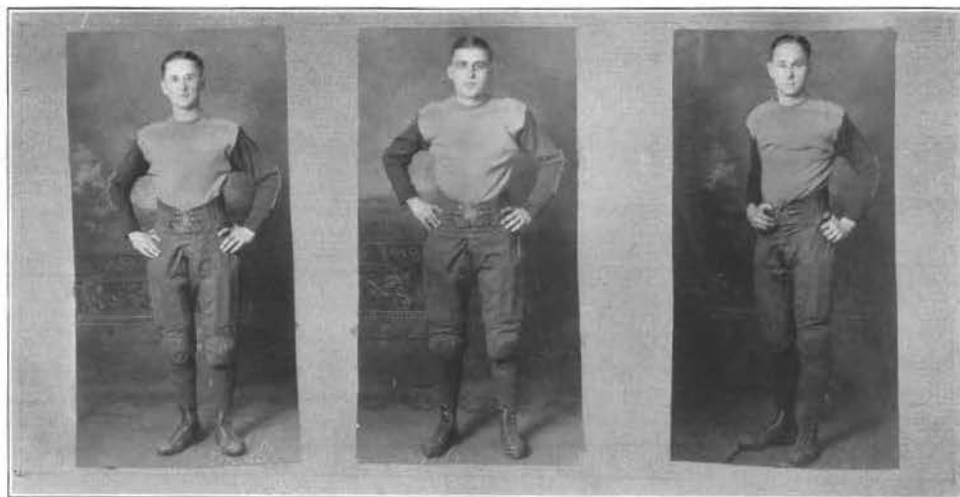

"Lou" was a type of football player every coach desires to have. He could start a game and the harder and faster the game was played the harder Louis hit and he usually was going his best when the whistle ended the game. We regret that we are losing Leak through graduation.

SCHYLER "SKY" WALLACE

Another graduate who will be missed. Skyler was the hardest, cleanest tackler on the squad. His defensive ability coupled with his clean playing throughout the whole year made him a very valuable man.

LESTER "DUTCH" KRAMER
Fullback

If conscientiousness was wealth "Dutch" could cease worrying about the future. "Dutch" graduates this year and his loss will be felt severely by next years team.

VALERIAN "VAL" WIESNER
Captain

Wiesner deserved the responsible position he held. He was one of the most versatile men in the conference. His forward passing and offensive ability worried the opposing team constantly. Any place in the backfield looked the same to "Val" and for that reason he will be one of the most valuable men in 1924.

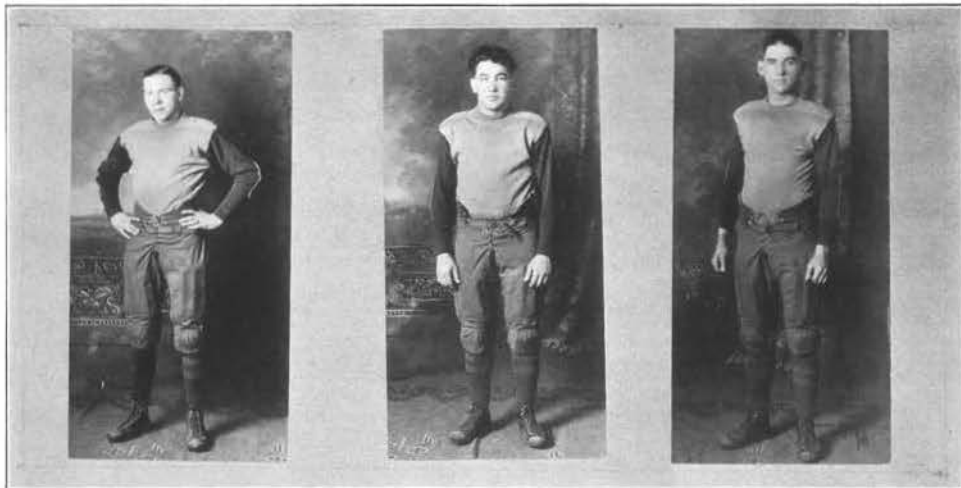

FRANCIS "CY" KNOPE
Captain-elect

Whenever those extra yards were needed, Knope was called on and came through. He was elected captain unanimously which shows just what sort of leader Knope really is. He has played two years and next year he should be one of the best backfield men who ever played in S. P. N.

CHESTER "CHET" ATKINSON
Lieutenant-elect Guard

This was "Chet's" first year of football but after playing his first game he showed the ability of a veteran. "Chet" is the lieutenant-elect for next year and certainly deserves this position. He was a hard consistent player and will certainly hold more than his own as guard in the conference next year.

The IRIS

ROYAL "BUTCH" ANDERSON
End

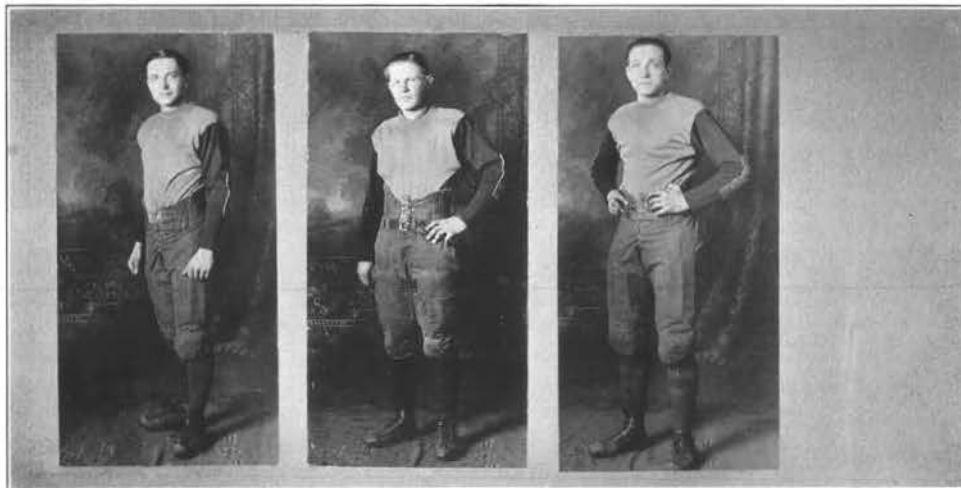

"Butch" played most of the games at end and could always be depended on to stop the play coming his way before it had fairly started. He is back next year and we predict a great season for Royal.

PERCY "BUCK" WEAVER
Tackle

"Buck" is another of Coach Swerlands "finds". This was his first year in football and he was prevented from playing the game he is capable of playing because of an injured shoulder. But "Buck" gave all he had every time an opportunity presented itself and should be one of the best tackles in the conference in the coming two years.

RALPH "DEERSLAYER" CUMMINGS
End

Cummings came to S. P. N. with no knowledge of football. It wasn't very long before he gained this knowledge once he had set himself to learning it and we predict that next year Ralph will develop into one of the best ends that S. P. N. has known.

LEONARD "C" ULLMAN
Guard

Leonard had never played football until he came to S. P. N. but he made up for his late start by his good finish. He graduates this year.

AMEL "INDIAN" BANNACH
Tackle

Amel is another man who played his first year of football for S. P. N. He has two more years in school and as one of the most consistent men and one of the hardest fighters. "Indian" certainly will be welcomed back for next football season.

MERLIN "MERL" TESS
Center

Tess is another senior who started late but came through with flying colors. He had his opportunity in the Whitewater game and made the most of it.

WILLIAM "BILL" KRAUS

"Bill" was a man of action, not words. He was one of the headiest players on the squad and was always where he could stop the play no matter where it was. "Bill" graduated the first quarter and a good man must be found if his place is to be filled.

The IRIS

To the Men Who Hold the Line

O H, the fullback bows to the cheering crowd,
And the halves and quarters look bold.
And praise ascends to the lucky ends
Who fight for the Purple and Gold.
To none so great do I dedicate
This poor little verse of mine,
But here's to those in the fighting rows,
To the men who hold the line.

You watch the game and you all exclaim,
"Just look at that fellow run"
And you'll shout and roar when the struggl's o'er
That the game was only won
By that fullback's pluck in that splendid buck
That carried him to the goal,
But you don't see fit to think a bit
Of the man who made the hole.

Yes, the fullback had his meed of thanks
And the "quarterback did it all"
And the halves are praised and a voice is raised
For the man who took the ball.
Now take your cup and fill it up
To the brim with dancing wine,
A toast to those in the fighting rows,
To the men who hold the line.

The IRIS

SMITH DAVIS
(Captain)

SMITH "SOLON" DAVIS

Smith C. Davis came to us from Granton after a year at the Univ. of Wisconsin where he started on Doc. Meanwell's Frosh team. His two years at Stevens Point Normal have been very active ones. Many persons remarked after the Oshkosh game that "Dave" was without a doubt one of the best players who has ever worn a Normal suit. "Dave" graduates and we will miss him next year.

ORRIN "SONNEY" ST. CLAIR

Orrin D. St. Clair, the Hawkins flash, will be sorely missed next season. Ever since coming to the Normal he has made his ability as a floor man in Basketball felt. In every game his speed has eclipsed that of all other players on the floor. We hope for more like him.

LESTER "DUTCH" KRAMER

Lester O. Kramer is another Hawkins product now completing his third year with us. "Dutch" knows the game and always does his best for the team. We expect a lot from him when "Dutch" goes out to teach.

LOUIS "LOUIE" LEAK

Louis Leak, one of our few Wausau boys, is of the clean cut type of athlete who is always out there trying to do all he can for his school and team. When called upon he could always be depended on to do his best. He is one of the four of the squad who will be lost by graduation.

VANCE "HAM" WILLIAMS

Vance H. Williams, our long shot artist, came to school with the avowed intention of helping Davis put Granton on the map. He certainly has done so. "Ham" is a wonder shot and a sterling all around man on a basketball floor.

The IRIS

VIRGIL "VIRGE" HERRICK

Virgil Herrick, in his first year of Normal Basketball has proved beyond a doubt that he will give a good account of himself in any position. He was played at Center, Forward, and Guard. In disposition, attitude, and ability no one had anything on "Virge." Two more years will certainly give Virgil an opportunity to become one of the best in the conference.

FRED "FRITZ" VAUGHN

Fred A. Vaughn was the pinch hitter of the team. When anyone lagged it was always "Fritz" who went in to instill the fight into the team. Not a basket shooter by inclination he could come through in the pinches and as a defensive man and passer he was hard to beat.

HENRY "HANK" SWAN

Henry Swan, with his reach and fighting ability, was going great guns until a sprained ankle put him out of the game for two weeks. At the end of the season he was going good again. Two more years should make a great player out of "Hank."

CHESTER "CHET" ATKINSON

Chester Atkinson hails from Wau-paca and we hope they will send us more like him. Chet knows basketball and only a good supply of guard material kept him off the regulars. Two more years will make "Chet" a man whom it will be hard to beat.

HAROLD CRANEY

Harold Craney is another man who has a great future as a basketball star. Handicapped throughout the season by an injured knee, he never gave up and in our last game gave an excellent account of himself.

The IRIS

Basketball

THE season was opened with one of the fastest and cleanest games that was ever played on the Normal floor. Heidelberg University of Tiffin, Ohio, was defeated by the S. P. N. aggregation by the score of 33 to 27.

St. Norberts came to see, but not to conquer, for the same teamwork and passing game, that had defeated Heidelberg, again displayed the superiority of our team and the fracas ended with a score of 61 to 32 in favor of the Purple and the Gold.

The Normal Conference Season was opened at Stout. S. P. N. came through with another victory, but the winning was well deserved. The final score was 18 to 16 in favor of S. P. N.

The evening following the Stout game the Point went to River Falls and was defeated in one of the best played games of the season. The score was 25 to 13.

In the first game of the Normal Conference Season played on our own floor, the Point succeeded in administering a second defeat to Stout. Stout was completely out-played throughout the game; it ended 22 to 19 in our favor.

Our team went to Oshkosh, where they met the most feared team of the Normal Conference. The game was clean and fast throughout, but Oshkosh, too well acquainted with their own floor, outplayed the Point and won 25 to 14.

The squad journeyed to Eau Claire the next week and lost a slow and rough game by a score of 24 to 20. The brilliant playing of Davis of the Point, and O'Reilly of Eau Claire was the feature of the game.

Eau Claire came here for the next game and was defeated by the same number of points that they had defeated our team the week previous. The score was 25 to 21.

"Pep" and excitement held sway the whole week following the Eau Claire game. Oshkosh was coming for the next game, and whenever Oshkosh and Stevens Point meet in any sort of contest, there is sure to be a battle "royal." The game started and Oshkosh immediately found the basket. The half ended 22 to 15 in favor of Oshkosh, and one of the fastest halves ever played on the floor of S. P. N. was over. The spirit displayed was wonderful, both on the part of the spectators and the teams. One of the greatest comebacks ever staged by any team assisted S. P. N. in winning the game that counted more than any game of the year. The final score was 31 to 29 in favor of S. P. N.

The last game of the season, with River Falls was the last game of their Normal career, for Davis, St. Clair, Kramer and Leak, ended with the score of 30 to 29 in favor of S. P. N. Davis and Williams, shooting again, were timely factors in winning the game. Davis ended his career in Normal by starring in every phase of the game, and it will be some time before a man plays for S. P. N. who has more ability and sportsmanship than "Dave."

The IRIS

CAPTAIN ELECT "LES" REYNOLDS

1923 had the brightest of prospects. A great number of men turned out and all showed a goodly amount of speed and pep. There were more men out for the team than in any previous year and the season looked promising. "Ernie" Holman was elected captain and the training began early in the Spring. After four weeks of strenuous work the team journeyed to Appleton to compete with the strong Lawrence College and Oshkosh Normal teams in a triple meet. The team did excellent work in this meet although they did not win first honors. A considerable amount of improvement was shown and several of the men made good records.

In the annual meet with Oshkosh on May 12th, Coach Hancock's men had the edge. "Captain" Holman was the Pointers high score man with a total of four Firsts. Powell and "Gage" Taylor finished the 220 yard dash in fast time, scoring a complete slam in that event. Reynolds and Bruce skimmed over the sticks at a great rate of speed, "Les" scoring in both hurdling events. "Cal" Chainey beat the Oshkosh record in the pole-vault. In spite of an injured foot, "Buck" Ryan overcame his opponent in the broad jump. The Point men made a clean sweep of the points in the hurdles, broad jump, and pole-vault.

The inter-Normal meet held at Madison was not over successful for the Pointers, but they went down in a fighting mood. Weronke was the score getter, winning honors in the hammer throw.

This year the inter-normal track meet will be held at Milwaukee. With the members of our last years team still in the ranks and the wealth of new material, we hope to make a real showing at Milwaukee.

MARY BRONSON

GIRLS athletics are coming more and more into prominence. A great deal of enthusiasm was displayed this season in the different clubs and teams. Winning one hundred points admits a girl into the athletic association.

Through the efforts of Miss Bronson very good teams were turned out in the various activities, and the enthusiasm of the student body aided in making the tournament of this year a big success.

THE girls annual basketball tournament was held in the Normal gymnasium February 11, 12, 14. The High School team won all of the games that it played. This is the first time in the history of this Normal School that any team has won the cup for three consecutive years, therefore the High School Department will keep the cup and it will be placed in Professor E. T. Smith's room.

HAROLD S. DYER, Director

"Music can noble hints impart,
Engender fury, kindle love;
With unsuspected eloquence can move
And manage all the man with secret art. Addison

THAT music is no longer regarded as a "filler" in the school system, but that it is a potent force in the lives of all who come in contact with it has always been recognized by the Department of Music.

The aim in the Stevens Point Normal has been to bring some form of music activity within reach of every student, either as an avenue for vocal or instrumental participation or as a means of developing the power to listen.

This aim appears to be attained more each year, and the two hundred women of the school taking part in the Chorus, the fifty men who compose the Men's Glee Club, and the Choral Union of 100 men and women attest to its realization.

That music has the power to develop "community spirit" as has no other agency is recognized in this School, and that power capitalized. The Civic Orchestra, with its fifty musicians, coming from the schools of the city, together with leaders in instrumental accomplishment from outside the schools, has grown to a place of musical prominence in Stevens Point. Monthly "Popular" concerts are a feature of this organization, and their increasing popularity is evidence of the large part being played by the Orchestra in bringing music of the best kind to this community. The officers of the Civic Orchestra are: President, Edmund Bukolt; Vice-President, Walter Klein; Librarian, Annabel Clark; Associate Directors, Arthur Beijer and Raymond Jacobs.

Other activities of the Department are an Annual Operetta, which this year was given by the Girls' Glee Club of thirty voices. Fay Foster's "The Land of Chance" was given February 7th with outstanding success as a dramatic and vocal performance. The officers of this organization are: President, Annabel Clark; Executive Committee, Doris Hirst and Florence Kleist.

LELAND M. BURROUGHS

Each succeeding year sees new laurels added to the already enviable reputation Mr. Burroughs has established in the four years he has been with us. As teacher of English, as Coach of Dramatics, Oratory and Debate, perhaps more than these, as a man he commands the highest admiration of both faculty and students. His geniality, his broad-mindedness, his seriousness of purpose, the high ideals which he so splendidly exemplifies make him well liked throughout the school.

It is in forensics and dramatics, probably, that Mr. Burroughs is at his best. Our record in debate has included many victories and few defeats. The winning of the State Contest this year establishes a new precedent—never before has one school won first honors in Oratory, for two consecutive years.

It is not alone in the training of speakers for the platform that Mr. Burroughs excels. "Henry VIII," "The New York Idea," and "Monsieur Beaucaire" are three of his many outstanding dramatic achievements.

Mr. Burroughs' versatility in the arts of public speaking, and his ability to impart to the students a part of his talent have brought Stevens Point Normal to a prominent place in forensic and dramatic activities. His estimable character and personality have endeared him to us all, and future students of S. P. N. will be indeed fortunate to include among their instructors a man of Mr. Burroughs' caliber.

JEANNETTE WILSON

Oratory

STEVENS Point achieved another coveted honor by being awarded first place in the State Oratorical Contest. This year the winning oration, "The Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Deep Waterway," was delivered by Miss Jeannette Wilson. Miss Wilson, under the skillful direction of Mr. Burroughs, composed a finished address which revealed her dominant personality throughout, and which ended in a challenging appeal to the heart of every true American. With the prestige Stevens Point has already attained, and with the veteran experience of Mr. Burroughs, our school is surely rising to the premier position in Oratory.

JOHN REDFIELD

Extemporaneous Speaking

THE Extemporaneous Speaking Contest this year marked the revival of this form of forensic contest in the Normal Schools. John Redfield was awarded second place. First honors went to Paul Wright of Oshkosh, who spoke on "Prohibition and Crime." John's speech on the topic "The Social and Financial Effects of the 18th Amendment," organized and delivered with the precision and forcefulness which is so characteristic of him, was adjudged second by only two points—a very close decision.

The IRIS

Affirmative Team

Debate

THIS year's question for Inter-Normal Debate was: Resolved: That the government should own and operate the coal mines.

The affirmative team, composed of John Redfield (Capt.), William Opperman, Edward Jensen, and Violet Lawrie (alternate) met the Oshkosh negative team here on March 7th, and won a 3-0 decision in a well contested debate. This is the third year in which John Redfield as captain has led his team to a victory which has been in no small part due to his efforts.

The IRIS

Negative Team

Debate

THE Negative Team, made up of Ben Schraml (Capt.), James Doolittle, Helen Ryan, and Valerian Wiesner (Alternate), met defeat at La Crosse in a decision of three in favor of La Crosse. Those who attended the debate at La Crosse say that our speakers upheld their side of the question admirably. Then too, seven of the nine affirmative teams won; it would seem that the negative had the more difficult side of the question to support.

DURING this year Loyola has followed very closely its established plan of activities and has taken its usual place in the lives of its members.

About one hundred students have availed themselves of the opportunity offered by this organization and under the leadership of our Miss Mae Roach and an enthusiastic group of officers the year has been most successful. Interesting programs, both instructive and entertaining, have been prepared for the regular fortnightly meetings which have been well attended.

The local Knights of Columbus gave a party for the Club during the first month of school. Everything was so well planned, old and new students became so well acquainted, and the affair was so very much enjoyed, that we owe much to these good friends, who started our year so happily.

The Christmas party, the collecting of the purse for the orphans, the school dance are other features which we shall remember.

Our School Songs

THE PURPLE AND THE GOLD

Let other Normals boast of victories galore—
Of laurels never lost, of triumphs by the score,
Let them tell you of their prowess
Of warriors strong and bold,
But their colors ever lower to the Purple and the Gold.

II.

Our men are all victorious through every State around,
Our athletes and debators are winning great renown,
'Though we're proud of all Wisconsin whose fame in story's told
Our heart's with Stevens Point Normal and the Purple and the Gold.

III.

To the banks of old Wisconsin when years are past and gone
When as school mates we have parted and our lessons all are done
We'll return and show our comrades, we're loyal as of old
And cheer them on to victory, 'neath the Purple and the Gold.

ALMA MATER.

Hail Stevens Point, the School Supreme
Of all the Normals, thou art queen.
Hail Alma Mater, thee we love,
For thou art great, all other schools above.

HAIL THE POINT!!

Gems of Normals of Wisconsin, We to thee our homage bring,
And with loving admirations, We thy praises loudly sing,
Thou the proud and strong young giant, Standing on the Wisconsin,
Fair art thou and self reliant, Proudly then to thee we sing:

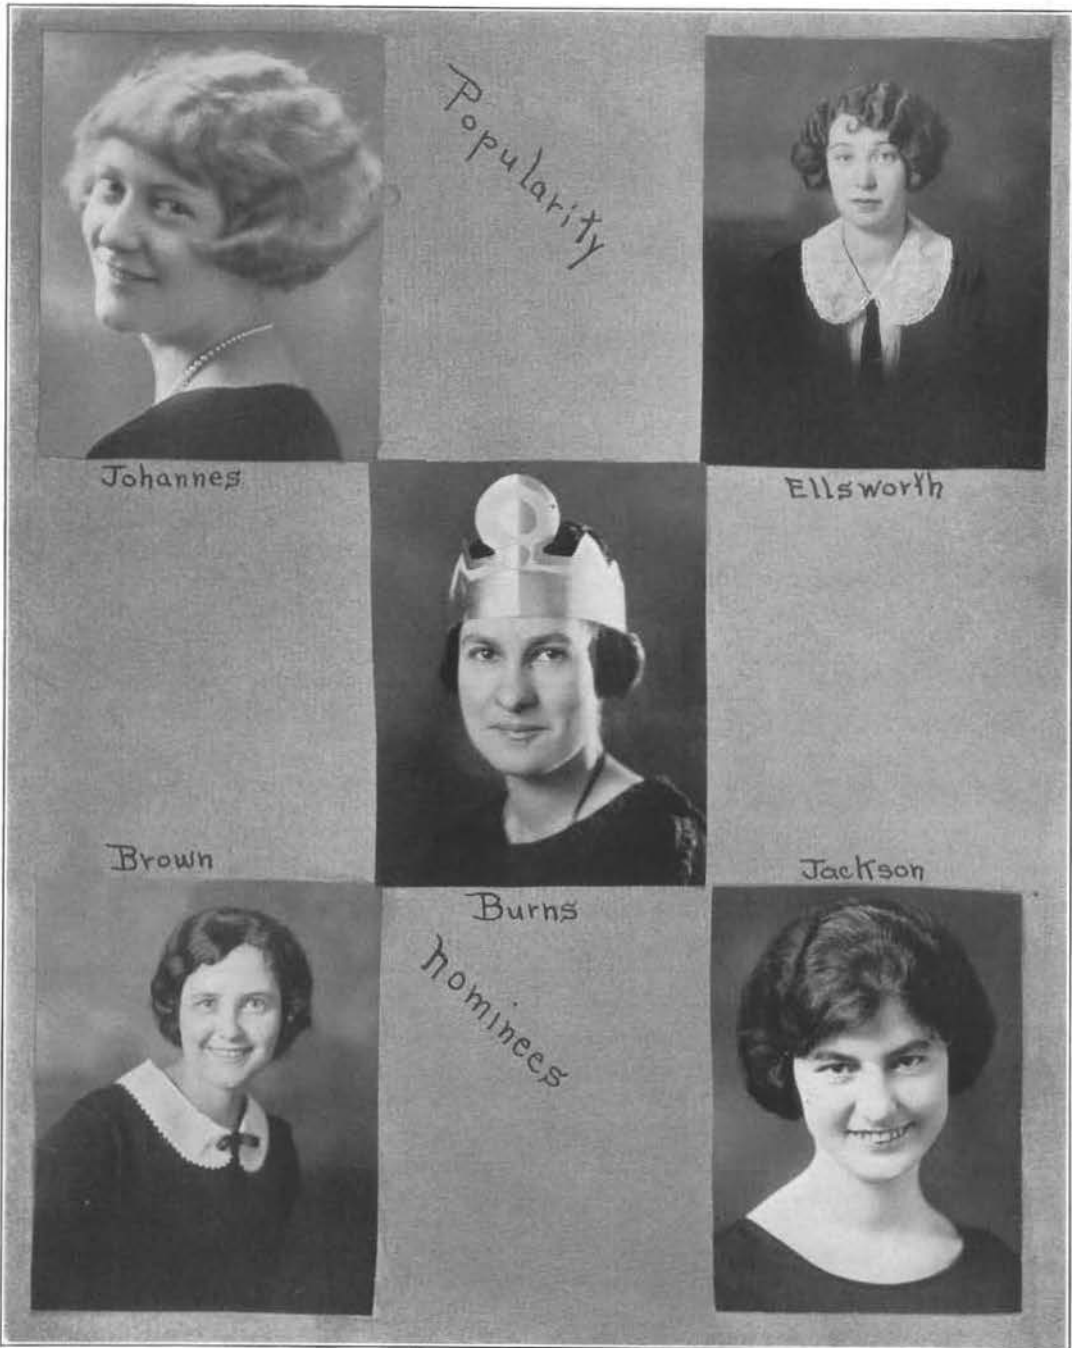

CHORUS

Hail the Point—Hail the Point—First on platform, track and field,
Hail the Point—Hail the Point—Great the power that we wield,
Never shall thy students falter, All the State thy fame shall fill,
Naught our loyalty can alter—Nor thy spirit of "I will."

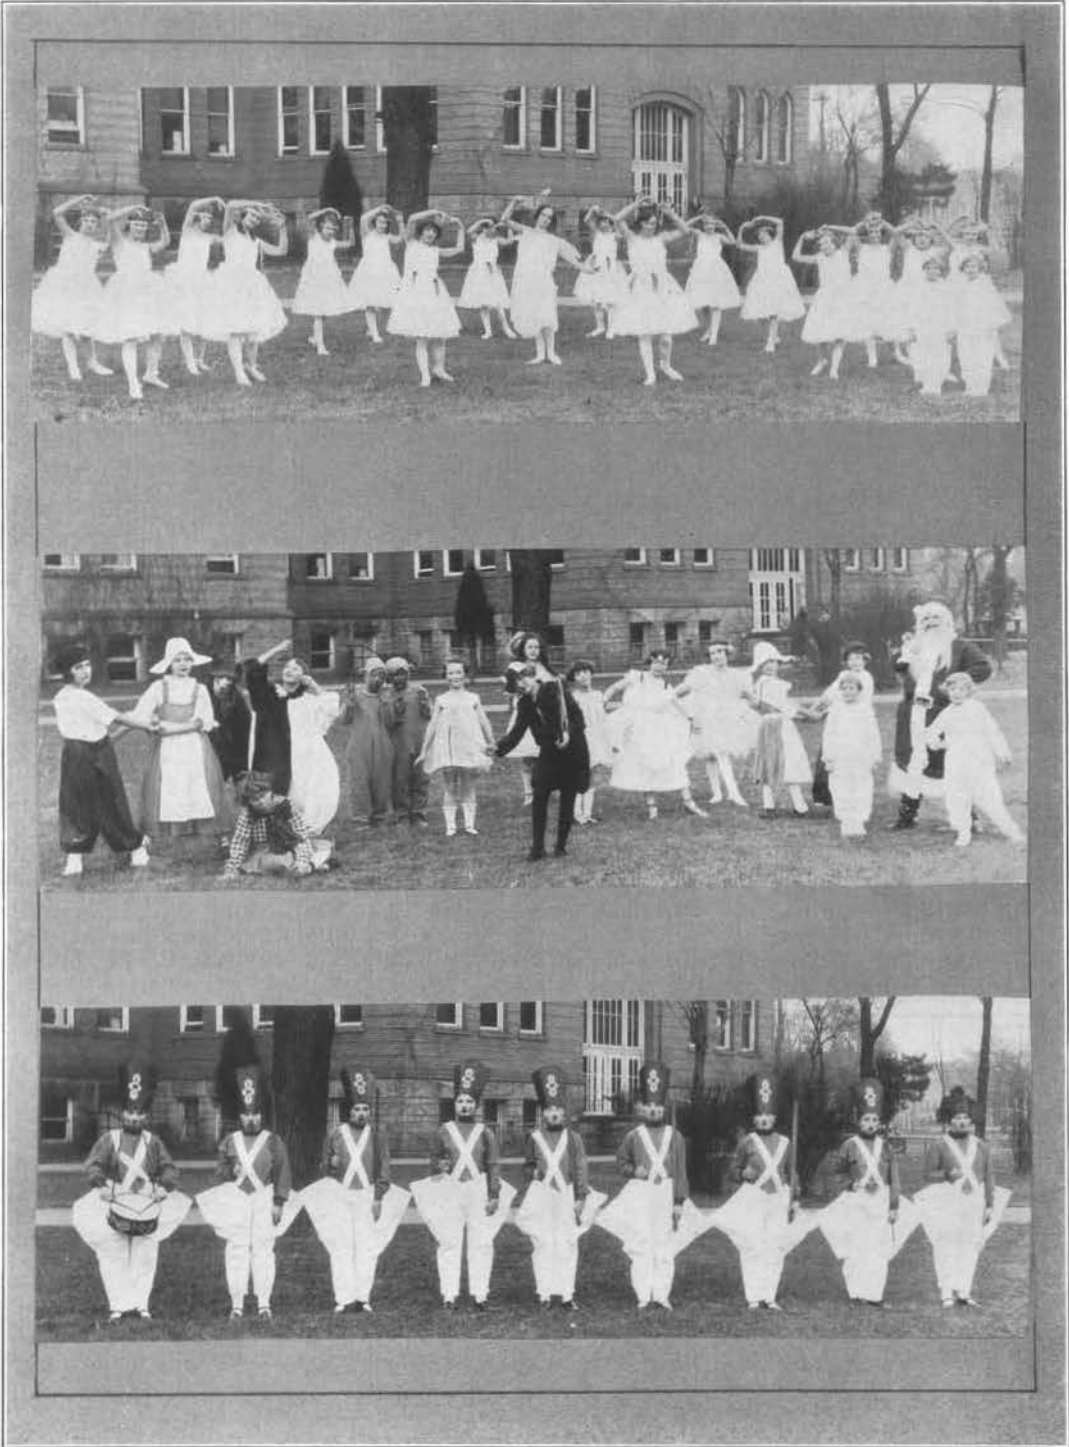

II.

Come the students of Our great State, From the other states around,
Some of high and some low station, Seeking knowledge here profound,
With thy native sons and daughters, Aye, I shall love and honor thee,
Till like sound of mighty water, This our song of praise shall be.

"Dick was almost drowned last night."
"No! How come?"
"The pillow slipped, the bed spread, and he fell into the spring."

IN LIT. CLASS

"Have you read 'Finis?'"
"No, what is it?"
"It's the last word in books."

FOUND ON ENGLISH PAPERS

She kissed him on his reappearance.
He whipped the dog on his return.
She sat down upon her being asked.
She fainted upon his departure.
Mrs. Jones was shot in the oil regions.
Mr. Bodkin was severely wounded in the bottling-works.

HOW'S THIS MR. COLLINS?

WHERE IS MISS HUSSEY?

"Would you put yourself out for me?"
"Surely, dear."
"Well, then please do. It's after twelve and I'm awfully tired."

ON SEEING VAL BIRD'S SWEATER

Dumb: "What are those four numerals on his sweater?"
Dora: "Oh, that's his telephone number."

REFLECTING ON THE JANITOR

Mr. Smith: "Let's open the window and let in a little sunshine."

Fools aren't all dead yet.
Listen and I'll prove it;
I'm alive to write this dope,
And you're alive to read it!

OH BOY!

"Fiji" owned a Dodge Sedan,
To ride in it was heaven.
She ran across some broken glass.
Bill $14.97.

She started on a little tour,
The finest sort of fun.
The carburetor threw a fit.
Bill $20.81.

She took some friends down town to shop.
To save jitney fare was great.
She jammed into a lamp post.
Bill $7.48.

She decided to take another ride
To see how fast it would run.
She stopped too quick and stripped the gears.
Bill $90.51.

She took some friends out for a spin,
T'was good to be alive.
"Fiji" hit a PINE TREE.
Bill $80.55.

She spent all the cash that Dad had,
And then in anguish cried:
"I'll put a mortgage on the house,
And take just one more ride."

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Miss Hanna: "George Washington must have had an awfully good memory."
Miss Roach: "Why?"
Miss Hanna: "Because every where you go you see monuments to his memory."

Prof. Steiner: "Craney, can you tell me who killed Lincoln?"
Craney: "No sir. You see I've been out of town the past week with the football team."

IN MR. DELZELL'S OBSERVATION CLASS

Elsie Colson: "Who do we get to make out our lesson plans?"

"ENOUGH SAID"

Mr. Smith: "Why did the French Revolution occur in France?"

Mertin Stevens: "The French Revolution occurred in France because at that time all Frenchmen lived in France and as all the people in France were French and the revolution was French and France being a Frenchman's country, where in the duce were Frenchmen going to fight if they didn't fight in France. Therefore the French revolution occurred in France."

Dear Iris Staff:

Prof. Smith: "You know, I've got a lot of faith in this honor system."

Prof. Watson: "What do you mean?"

Prof. Smith: "Well, in my last exam I caught four fellows looking at their companions papers. I stood up before the class and said: 'If the four students whom I caught looking at their neighbors papers will write an apology on their papers, nothing more will be said.'"

Prof. Watson: "Well, whats funny about that?"

Prof. Smith: "Nothing, only I got twenty papers with apologies on them."

Miss Hussey: "Do you know any of Shakespeare's quotations?"

Mr. Sell: "No, I never knew he was a stock broker."

M. Tess: (Arriving at a small hotel)
"Can I have a private bath?"

Clerk: "Well, I hope so."

STEP-UP

"Gentlemen," said the speaker on Prohibition. "I have a sad but true story to relate. A friend of mine purchased a barrel of liquor last week and drank himself to death before it was one-quarter gone. Are there any remarks on this sad incident?"

Members of the Frat house in the rear of the room: "Where's the rest of it?"

FAIR PLAY

Mr. Watson: "It looks like England is going to have a lot of trouble with the Hibernic race."

Ben Schramel: "Lie back a little farther in the chair."

Wise One: "If you don't mind I'll stay as I am. The last time I lay back I fell asleep, and when I woke up I owed the barber my next weeks wages."

Hungry one: "Are you the waiter in this restaurant?"

Lee Guerin: "Yes sir."

Hungry One: "Then provide me with pen, paper, ink, and two people as witnesses."

Lee Guerin: "What is the matter Sir? Do you want a Doctor?"

Hungry One: "No, thank you; but I ordered my dinner twenty minutes ago, and I think it would be advisable to make my will before I starve to death."

Prof. Burroughs (Instructing public speaking play): "Now McVey, in the third act, you are to bring to them things they never saw before."

McVey: "What part have I got—laundry man?"

Danielson: "What was the last card I dealt you, Davis?"

Davis: "A spade."

Danielson: "I knew it. I saw you spit on your hands."

THE IRIS STAFF FOR 1924 INVITES YOU TO:

1. Come into the Iris room any time that you wish to rest. Paw over the snap shots, that's what they are for.

2. Comment on the general plan of the book. Any helpful information is sought.

3. Read over the humor and tell it to your friends. This insures a fresh zippy humor section.

4. Raise cain if you happen to find that your club heading isn't what you think it ought to be. The Staff will be glad to change it.

5. Meet your boy friends in the Iris room. The Staff is always glad of company.

6. Ask when the Iris will be out. The editor will be glad to give you the necessary information.

7. Specify where the corpse is to be sent if you try any of these.

ADVICE TO SPRING POETS

Just now the grass is bloming green,
Get pen and paper—describe the scene.
The birds are piping in the trees,
Perfume is wafted in the breeze.
So set you down with paper white
To tell about your spring delight.
And if the skys above are blue,
Don't forget to tell that too.
Nor the flowers in their beds,
Lift up their dainty pretty heads.
Up toward the radiant sun;
Get these things down, forget not one.
And then to give a touch of style,
Throw in some similes worth while;
And how the Springtime like "Big Ben,"
Awakes all sleepers once again.
And then before you close your verse,
Mention that things could be much worse;
Behind each cloud, still shines the sun,
And God is good to everyone.
Now is your noble task complete
For you have covered all your sheet.
And when you get this off your chest,
Please die, and give us all a rest.

NO DIPLOMAT

Stern Pa: "Will you be able to treat my daughter in the way she has been accustomed?"
Sonney St. Clair: "No, but I can treat her decently." (Curtain is here rung down to denote elapse of time.)

If you can't laugh at the joke of the age;
laugh at the age of the joke—So don't squak.

The reason some of the S. P. N. Girls (Home Ec) would rather have a position than get married is because they can resign the one, whereas they have to become resigned to the other.

"Do you know where Mrs. Green, the washerwoman lives?"

"No, but she hangs out on Main Street."

L. Leek: "Will you accept a pet monkey?"

L. Johannes: "Oh, so sudden, I must ask father first."

Dr. Rodgers spring tonic for track men—"Ketchup."

Mr. Garby: "Who made the first nitride in this country?"

Cummings: "Paul Revzre."

BIBLE BASEBALL

Eve stole first. Adam stole second. St. Peter umpired the game. While Ruth in the field won fame. Williams was struck out by David. A base hit was made on (Able) by (Cain). The prodigal son made one home run, and Noah gave out checks for rain.

The IRIS

F. Manley: "She says she would rather dance than eat."

F. Vaughn: "Well, she'll find plenty of men who would rather sign a dance program than a dinner check."

"Money," said Harold Rheinhardt, "is called 'dough,' because a man needs it for his daily bread."

Did you ever try onions for a "bad breath?"

St. Clair in assembly: "I wish he'd speak louder, I can't hear."
Knope: "Well, thank God and shut up."

Miss Allen: "Now Faith, what became of the swine that had the evil spirit cast into them?"

Faith: "They were made into deviled ham."

THAT'S STRETCHING IT!

"By gum!"
"No, borrow mine."

She: "I'm telling you for the last time that you can't kiss me."
He: "Ah, I knew you'd weaken eventually!"

Critic: "What does that picture represent."
Artist: "Satan's Daughter."
Critic: "Oh, Hell's Belle, eh?"

"Oh, Miss Smith, don't call me Mr. Stevens."

"But really, Mr. Stevens, I hardly know you. Why shouldn't I call you Mr. Stevens?"
"Because my name is Jones."

Fred: "Why did Ella refuse you?"
W. Bruce: "I can't think."
Fred: "I thought that might be the reason."

"Compliment for you!"
"What?"
"Susie says you got acute indigestion."

B. Anderson: "R. Cummings is a seedy individual."

F. Kleist: "Yes, and he grows on you after a while."

F. Trumbul: "Are you married?"
J. Doolittle: "No, I look that way because a horse kicked me."

L. Lamb: "Are you a student?"
V. Weisner: "No, I go to Normal."

G. Coon: "Are you a fraternity man?"
Porky: "No, I wear my own clothes."

Miss Meston: "The proof of the pudding is in the eating."
E. Smith: "Yes, but I'm no test tube."

Mr. Rightsell: "I won't go into heat until after exams."

Mr. Delzell: "Hear the latest?"
Miss Welch: "No, what?"
Mr. Delzell: "Neither did I."

Jeanette Smith (teaching history): "Give the terms of the trease peaty."

Mr. Swetland: "I have been wanting to tell you something about a 'week back.'"
Miss Bronson: "What is it Swetland—Sloans Liniment?"

SAVE?

Miss Evans: "What is the difference between a dime novel and a classic?"
Ruth Thompson: "A dollar and forty cents."

A PUZZLER

Moonbeams: "Miss Jones, will you answer just one more question?"
Miss Jones: "What is it?"
Moonbeams: "Why is it that the little fishes don't drown before they learn to swim?"

TO THOSE WHO FAIL

Try eating yeast cakes with the hope that you may rise in school.

BUG-HOUSE FABLES

"I want to pay my fine in the library before the librarians forget about it."

The IRIS

Mr. Collins: "Don't be in a hurry about working those problems in geometry, any time this semester will do."

Mr. Steiner: "You may recite from your notebook."

Mr. Swetland: "Smoke all the cigarettes you want to, the track meet won't be held for two weeks."

Miss Welch: "You may bring that reserve book back when you get time."

Miss Roach: "I am opposed to any social gatherings in this school."

Miss Hussey: "Wouldn't you girls like to go to the Moose Dance?"

OLD MAIDS LAUGHTER

He? He? He?

When Porky Redfield got his pictures from the Studio this is what they told him: "It's better that the husband be a handy man than a handsome one."

HOW'S THIS?

Swetland: (training the track team) "Now, men, lie on your backs and work your feet as though you were on a bicycle."

Chet Atkinson stops.

Swetland: "Why did you stop?"

Chet: "I'm coasting."

M. Tess: "May I have the next dance?"

M. Ryan: "Yes, if you can find a partner."

ADVICE TO GIRLS

Don't put these jokes too near your face,
Or you'll be blown to chowder,
It's dangerous to put dry things too close to a store of powder.

Miss Jones: "What is a skeleton?"

Carl M.: "A skeleton is bones with the person rubbed off."

MORE HELP

Mr. Mott: "Don't cry little boy; if you don't find a penny before dark, here's a match."

P.S. BEG PARDON

Oh! Yes! The faculty also had a team in the volley ball tournament—Mr. Steiner acted as skipper—Nuff said.

Burglar: "Money or your life."

Prof. Steiner: "You'd better take my life. Neither I, nor any other man can live on my money."

When Mary was born they gave her a perambulator.

Then she grew up a bit and they gave her a velocipede.

When she got a little older they gave her a pony and cart.

When she was in grammar school they gave her a bicycle.

While she was in normal the folks gave her a Stutz.

At her wedding they donated an aeroplane. Now she's starting in again with a perambulator.

Florence Kleist: "Aren't these hose a bit flashy?"

Keen Salesman: "Yes Miss; indeed they are, and the papers forecast strong winds for the next few days."

Florence: "I'll take them."

Barber: "Shave Sir?"

Mr. Evans: "No, a haircut."

Barber: "You don't need a haircut Sir. You need a shine."

Swetland: "Oh, Hell!"

Dyer: "That reminds me. I've got to go home."

Payton: "Where are you going?"

Payne: "Chemistry exam."

Payton: "Going to take the acid test, eh?"

Knope: "Wanna go horsebacking?"

Coon: "No, horses don't like me."

Knope: "I do."

Coon: "Well, donkeys are different."

Mr. Collins (To Pueschner entering 10 minutes late): "When were you born?"

Pueschner: "April second."

Mr. Collins: "Late again."

THE FIRST HUNDRED YEARS

"Oh goody, goody," yelled Wiesner as he was led away to begin the 135 year sentence imposed for a score of hold-ups.

"You're a joyful guy for a fellow that's in for 135 years," growled the jailor.

"That's just what makes me happy. I was scared stiff the judge was going to make it life."

NOT TOO ROUGH BOYS

Mr. Clark: (in science) "Now when two bodies come together in motion heat is generated."

Harry Merrill: "No sir, I don't believe that, I hit a guy yesterday, and he knocked me cold."

Margaret Ryan: "I have a hair-raising story to tell you."

Tubby Welch: "Don't tell it to me, tell it to Mr. Evans."

Less Reynolds to the Judge: "Good morning sir, how are you?"

The Judge: "Fine—Twenty-five Dollars."

McVey: "Have you ever been pinched for going too fast?"

L. Leak: "No, but I've been slapped."

L. Radcliffe: "At home we have a cow that shimmies."

D. Greggy: "Ah, the original milkshake."

A COMMON TELEPHONE CALL AT NELSON HALL

He: "Is that you darling?"

She: "Yes, who is this?"

SAYS MERTON STEVENS

I love this babble babble,
I love this fluent flow,
I love to wind my mouth up!
I love to have it go.

A young man with a pretty but flirtatious fiance wrote to a rival: "I hear that you have been kissing my girl, come to my office at eleven on Saturday; I want to have this out."

His reply was: "I have received your circular letter, and will be at the meeting."

Cal Chaney: "I must be going, it's twelve o'clock."

Connie Davis: "Oh, please don't! I thought Fred was coming, and set the clock ahead."

Batty: "Mable looks like a million tonight."

Catty: "I know; but she is really only thirty-two."

Mr. Smith: "The law says all flappers under twenty-one are minors."

Butch Anderson: "Yes, they're real gold diggers."

B. Vinkel: "People say I have eyes just like my father."

Tack Allen: "Uh-huh, pop-eyed."

Q: "What can I do to avoid falling hair?"

A: "Jump out of the way."

Ham: "Marriage is a great game, isn't it?"

Virg: "Yes, but it always results in a tie."

Neva: "That soda clerk is awfully clever. He can always raise a laugh."

Nina: "Yes, he actually made a banana split the other day."

CAN YOU IMAGINE . . .

Mr. Watson being crabby?

Miss Roach quiet at a game?

Coach Swetland in a dress suit?

Mr. Delzell not in good humor?

Miss Hussey assigning a short lesson?

C. Chiany not talking about the latest dances?

Miss Jones giving you a bawling out?

Nick Allen not trying to flirt?

Frank Spektor loafing?

BY THESE SAYINGS YE SHALL KNOW THEM

Mr. Burroughs: "Beg pardon—Just a moment please—I insist on 100% perfect in the 30 points in the speakers chart."

Mr. Smith: "Do you get my line of reasoning?"

Mr. Steiner: "Don't you see?" (Pointing his finger.)

Mr. Mott: "Naow, are there any questions?"

Miss Benscoter: "I'm a detective too."

Mr. Sims: "Play up! Play up! Play up! Play the game!"

WHY SCHOOL TEACHERS GET WRINKLES

Some Answers—Can You Guess the Questions?

A triangle is a circle with three corners to it.

The government of a country that is ruled by a king is a monkey.

The alimentary canal connects Lake Erie with the Hudson River.

A saxophone is an instrument played on by the early Saxons.

A mountain range is a big cooking stove used in a hotel.

The torrid zone is caused by the friction of the equator which runs round the earth in the middle.

In some cities a woman can vote at a school election if she has been the mother of a child for eight weeks at least.

Longitude and latitude are imaginary lines on the earth which show you which way you are going.

A vacuum is an empty place with nothing in it.

A Mr. Newton invited gravity with the aid of an apple.

There was no such man as Hamlet. He lived in Denmark.

A curve is a straight line that has been bent.

Bi-monthly means the installment plan.

The climate is caused by hot and cold weather.

Gold was discovered in California before any one knew it was there.

When a volcano spits fire it is called saliva.

Admiral Bird: "Darn right I got a girl in every port. What of it?"

Mary Gustin: "You're no sailor, you're a wholesaler."

Guest at the Spot: "What's the matter with this coffee. It looks like mud."

Sky Wallace: "Ycs sir, it was ground this morning."

Balloonist (lost in fog): "Hello, down there! Where am I?"

Farmer: "Ye can't fool me, young feller, yer up in that basket."

REMEMBER THE TIME WHEN. . . .

You first entered S. P. N.
Miss Welch told you not to worry about your fine in the library?

Mr. Herrick said "Call at the office."
Merlin Tess played basket ball just to show the other fellows up?

You received an excellent on your lesson plan?

You missed your breakfast to get to general ex.?

Mr. Dyer did not have an announcement to make?

Barber: "You look talented."
"That's why I want my hair cut."

Beatrice: "Tell me quite frankly, do you prefer blonds or brunettes?"
Less: "Yes, dearie."

Boarding house lady: "Do you want a room?"

St. Clair: "No, I want to disguise myself as a banana and sleep in the fruit dish."

"I hang my head in shame every time I see the family wash in the back yard."
"Oh, do they?"

"The Spring is here!" cried Clarence Wentland as he took the back off his Ingersoll.

Wilma: "Bill says what he knows about driving would fill a book."

Ruby: "Yes, and what he doesn't know would fill a hospital."

Mrs. Noah: "Noah, dear, what can be the matter with the camel?"

Noah: "The poor devil has both the fleas."

Julie Bradt: "Dee, if you do not stop I am going to call papa. Stop, now, I tell you, take your arm down. Papa! Papa!"

Papa: "What is it?"

She: "What time is it?"

Mr. Collins: "Georgie, take the next problem."

Miss Payne: (Half asleep) "I pass."

"Yes, they've condemned the old asylum building."

"Why?"

"Why? They say it's just full of cracks."

S. Davis: "My roommate and I don't speak any more. When he said the room was always so warm when we get up in the morning, I told him he had to cut out talking in his sleep."

First Dormorite: "My roommate calls her Sweetie 'North Star,' because he is out every night. My sister calls her's 'Ivory,' because he is 99% pure."

Second Dormorite: "I don't call my Sweetie anything. He comes without calling."

"These woolen blankets make me itch; I try to sleep the best I can."

"There ain't no sheets around the house since father joined the Ku Klux Klan."

READY! FIRE!

Many a man is a big gun until he is fired.

"Are there any feet in town larger than yours?"

"Only one pair. Snyder has to pull his trousers off over his head."

Jilted Papke: "Away with women!"

C. Wentland: "I wish I had it."

MacVey: "Get down on your knees."

Powell: "I can't. It's all I can do to get down on my upper lip."

If love wasn't so often based on powder, there would be fewer marital blow-ups.

Two girls looking Buck Weaver over: "See that big football star? He's a fine example of physical culture."

"Oh, I thought he was one of those popular mechanics."

Betty Collins: "I heard something nice about you today."

Annabel Clark: "Is that so?"

Betty: "Yes, Mr. Delzell said you resembled me."

An astronomer is a man who looks at the moon when he is not in love. A lover is a man who looks at the moon when he is not an astronomer.

M. Finch: "Hic—Sa funny thing, but when water—hic—freezes it always—hic—freezes with the slippery side up."

CARNIVOROUS

Side by side they stood in a beautiful white array. What a spectacle it was! Brilliant as a mirror in the sun, straight and strong, they were an imposing spectacle. Glistening red tops—They were like an undefeated battalion that could tear and crush when set in motion.

Then imagine my surprise when the old women carefully took the whole set out of her mouth and soaked them in a glass of cold water.

Julia R.: "Do you always have permission from the dean when you go stepping?"

Ella Achterberg: "No, I have a season ticket!"

FOR SALE: My Height.—Eleanor Malarecki.

Mr. Dyer and Mable Welker enter into a conversation:

Mable: "Do you think I will ever be able to use my voice?"

Mr. Dyer: "It might come in handy in case of fire."

Ethel Shampnor: "Say Evelyn, how many men are there on our football team?"

Evelyn Sharf: "Ten and a quarter, I think."

FOR RENT: My popularity with the girls. Apply Myron Finch.

FOR SALE: My curling iron. Nina Porter.

LOST: A bunch of locker keys held by a safety pin. A Primary Senior.

If there's anything that worries a woman
 It's something she ought not to know
 But you bet she'll find out anyhow,
 If she gets the least kind of a show.
 Now, we'll wager ten cents to a quarter
 This poem she's already read—
 We knew she'd get at it somehow
 If she had to stand on her head.

When will you arrive?

A traveler once asked Aesop how long it would take to get to Athens. Aesop said that he didn't know, and the traveler stalked off exasperated. After he had walked for a few moments, Aesop hailed him. "It will take you one hour to reach Athens," he said. "Why didn't you say so in the first place?" demanded the traveler. "Because," said Aesop, "I had to see how fast you could walk."

There are travelers on the road to "Financial Independence" who probably would like to know when they will reach their goal. According to Aesop, it will depend on the amount and regularity of the deposits they make.
