WISCONSIN STATE COLLEGE
STEVENS POINT, WIS.

WHAT IS

Buildings . . . . . .

Ivy on brick,
A cupola where pigeons perch.
Dormitories alive with coming
And with going, young living.

Instruction . . . . . .

A blackboard full of equations
And various unintelligibles.
A true-false test and a flip of a coin:
A pink slip of paper and a conference.

Students . . . . . .

A yellow tie and saddle shoes.
A frog in a dissecting pan,
And a hamburger with onions.

A COLLEGE?

Living together . . . . . .

A religious forum and
Last week's laundry.
A nickel for a cup of coffee
And a frat mug on the shelf.

Working together . . . . .

The pungence of evergreen
And the Hallelujah Chorus.
Rehearse, rehearse, rehearse, and lighting.
The donkey versus the elephant.

Playing together . . . . . .

Pigskin and much dust,
A scramble beneath the basket,
And the cinder track.

Yes, this is our college . . . .

the sand-grey bricks, the hollowed steps, the pink pigeon feet on the third-floor skylights.

This is the campus we have known . . . .

the dormitory corridors
filled with popcorn smell,
the stadium packed with football color and excitement.

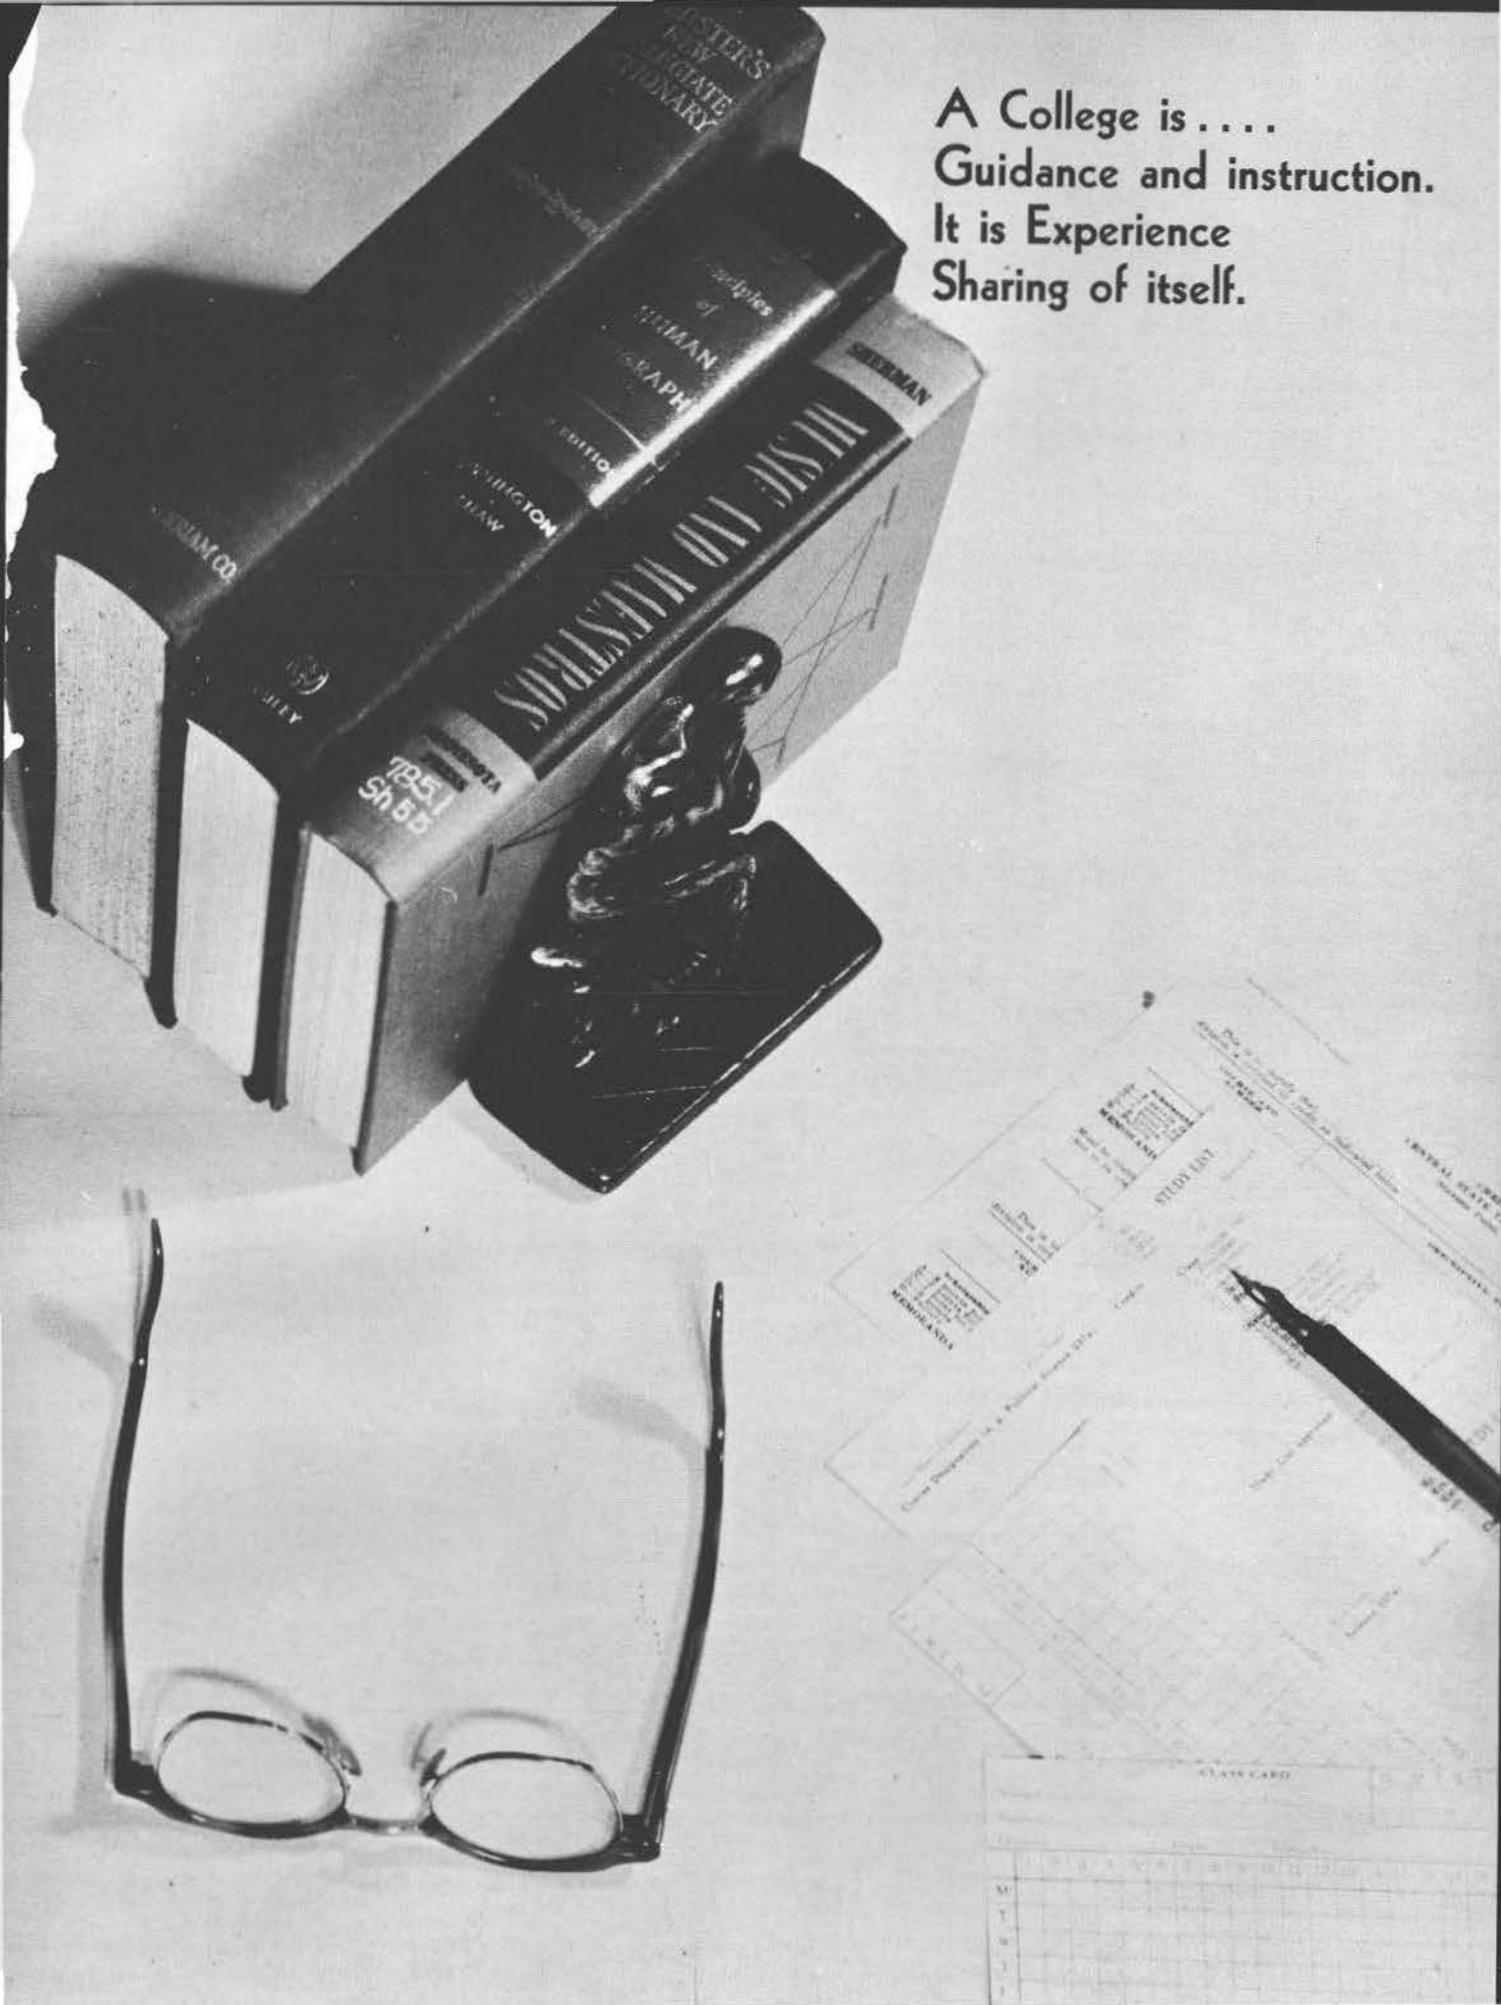
Yes, this is our college . . . .

the windows framed with vines,
the girders of construction
framing older roofs.

This is Central State



A College is . . . .
Guidance and instruction.
It is Experience

DORMS

NELSON HALL

Of the 342 women on campus, 114 of them make their home at NELSON HALL. Mrs. Margaret Angel and her assistant, Miss Edna Elstad, are the supervisors in cooperation with the dorm council and president Lou Breymann. The high point of excitement at Nelson Hall during 1953-4 was a supper-time robbery.

The red-gold starch of autumn
And the bite of crisper skies.
Football weather - - - -

Hallways strung with painted balloons
And posters for candidates "for Queen"
Cherry pie will buy some votes, and
Gumdrops are another form of campus bribery.
Excitement simmers - - - -

Eager silhouettes milling around a bonfire;
Boastful threats for Platteville State.
Whispered rumors of unfinished floats.
Anticipation grows - - - -

Hoboes in long underwear and
The smell of taffy apples in the halls.
The auditorium filled, the curtain finally drawn;
Pompoms blossom - - - -

Saturday – and the brisk blue skies,
The streets confused with bands all brass and braid
With canvas worms and fire wagons,
With angels, tramps, and dogs.
Much rivalry - - -

The expectant stadium, the sun and dust,
Upon the field – the thuds, the leaps,
But enthusiasm fails to win this game.
The pennants and the crowds leave now,
Quietly - - -

Later, dancing, the wistful words–
We could have won.

Hallelujah! I'm a bum!

A must for the game.

FOOTBALL

With a young and inexperienced team, the Pointers placed fourth in the conference while playing their first season of single-platoon football. Their season record was five wins and three losses, while their conference record was four and two.

Coach John Roberts was ably assisted by Hale Quandt and student assistant, Curt Taylor. Four Pointers received All State mention; they were Don Herrman and John Smith, backs; Mark Schommer, end; and Jack Crook, tackle.

Hermann and Noonan tied for scoring honors with 30 points on five touchdowns each. The Pointers rolled up 1,661 yards in 390 tries for a 4.2 average while their opponents had 1,082 yards in 310 attempts for a 3.5 average. The outstanding yard-gainers were Smith, 693 yards; Herrmann, 347 yards; Noonan, 280 yards; Miller, 213 yards, and Vance, 126 yards.

Pointer backs attempted 91 passes, completed 34 for 554 yards, and had 7 intercepted. Wieman led in this category with 69 tries, 27 completions for 360 yards, and had 6 intercepted. Schommer caught 18 for 313 yards to lead the conference ends in receiving.

After the second ball game, the Pointers were without their Little All-American fullback, Nubbs Miller, and all-conference tackle, Bob Bostad, as well as letterman Joe Sanks. These players were inducted into military service before the conference opened play.

At the close of the season the Pointers chose Mark Schommer as their captain, and Don Hermann as the most valuable player. Schommer and Hermann were the only seniors on the '53 Pointer team.

On The Go

BASKETBALL

Central State's bucketeers may have taken a back seat to the Stevens Point State Champion prep stars as far as records and recognition are concerned, but the 1953-54 Pointers were placed high on the coveted list of sheer fight and determination. The record books disclose a moderate 10-10 season effort, even though the P and G's lost nary a game when it came to the thrill and excitement league.

Uncle Sam effected a big dent in the Pointers' pre-season hopes by claiming several main cogs of the 1952-53 line-up, including high scorers Bob Bostad, Bob Blomiley and Joe Sanks. Coach Hale Quandt's cagers countered the loss, however, by forming a new, well-balanced aggregation, capable of upsetting the powerhouses of the conference at any time Veteran sophomore Ken Roloff was a leader in the Pointers' attack, tossing in the highest individual point total for the season, as well as being a stand-out in the floor-play department. Rangy Bob Johnson made his debut to the varsity a spectacular one, coming along fast toward the end of the season. Orv Koepke, frosh center, could always be counted upon for a good game and played best when needed most.

Erv Redding, Carl Wieman and newcomer Jerry Vance, the "little" men of the squad, displayed good, steady ball-handling, with ball-stealing a favorite pastime of each. Senior Fred Schadewald, always the spark-plug of the squad, was honored by being elected captain for the year by his team mates.

Reserve power laid in the hands of Ken Wasserman, John Amburgy, Jerry Boldig, and Carl Huberty, and a finer job could not be expected, each one doing his best when the time arose.

With only one senior to be lost from the squad due to graduation, it looks as if Coach Quandt will have plenty to work with next year. Lot of luck, men!

WRESTLING

Gaining full momentum as a CSC varsity sport, wrestling provided countless thrills for eager fans of the grappling Pointers. Under the guiding hand of Coach John Roberts, CSC's wrestlers showed much improvement in this, their second season of dual competition and were regarded with due respect by all challengers.

Leading the brunt of the attack for the Purple and Gold was sophomore Dave Hurlbut, who finished the season with a formidable 6-1 record. Senior Bernie Junior was chosen honorary captain for the 1953-54 season.

Other letter-winners for the year were Terry McMahon, Fred Bohm, Johnny Langton, Don Smith, Ralph Seefeldt, John Boyne, Dave Jersey, and Ken Hurlbut

Letter-winners for the season were Frank DeGuire, a senior who won his fourth major letter; Bog Ullsperger, a junior who won his third "S"; Doug Tanner, a junior who won his second letter; Bob Flint, senior, and Jim Mayek, freshman, who both won their first major letters.
