IRIS
1954
Wisconsin State College
Stevens Point, Wis.
Buildings
Ivy on brick,
A cupola where pigeons perch.
Dormitories alive with coming
And with going, young living.

Instruction
A blackboard full of equations
And various unintelligibles.
A true-false test and a flip of a coin:
A pink slip of paper and a conference.

Students
A yellow tie and saddle shoes.
A frog in a dissecting pan,
And a hamburger with onions.
Living together
A religious forum and
Last week's laundry.
A nickel for a cup of coffee
And a frat mug on the shelf.

Working together
The pungence of evergreen
And the Hallelujah Chorus.
Rehearse, rehearse, rehearse, and lighting.
The donkey versus the elephant.

Playing together
Pigskin and much dust,
A scramble beneath the basket,
And the cinder track.

THE PURPLE AND THE GOLD

Song arranged by
FRANK E. PERCIVAL

Words by
KENNETH FRAY

Our men are all victorious
Thus to the banks of old Wis a journey
When

Every state aound
Our athletes and debaters
Are

And schoolmates we have parted
Our

Triumphs by the score: Let them tell you of their prowess Of warriors strong and winning greatest renown Those are proud of all We - contain Whose names in every lesson all are done We'll re-turn and show our comrades We're joy - ful aw - of

But their colors ever follow To the purple and the gold Our hearts with Alma Mater And the purple and gold And cheer them on to victory North the purple and gold
TRAINING SCHOOL
AND
RURAL SCHOOL
Yes, this is our college . . . .
the sand-grey bricks, the hollowed steps, the pink pigeon feet on the third-floor skylights.

This is the campus we have known . . . .
the dormitory corridors filled with popcorn smell, the stadium packed with football color and excitement.

Yes, this is our college . . . .
the windows framed with vines, the girders of construction framing older roofs.

This is Central State
A College is ....
Guidance and instruction.
It is Experience
Sharing of itself.

It's all mapped out.

Looking for bird nests?

Arf! Arf! Arf!

It seems to me...

Wifie had the camera.

Cokes and cramming,
Laughter and learning.

NELSON HALL

Of the 342 women on campus, 114 of them make their home at Nelson Hall. Mrs. Margaret Angel and her assistant, Miss Edna Elstad, are the supervisors in cooperation with the dorm council and president Lou Breymann. The high point of excitement at Nelson Hall during 1953-4 was a supper-time robbery.

DE LZELL HALL

The men on campus who make their second home at Delzell Hall are fortunate indeed. This attractive year-old building houses 82. Raymond Specht is director. Mark Schommer is student president.

ROOMING HOUSES

For those students who prefer to stay at private homes or are not able to get into the dorms, there is a list of approved rooming houses. Some have light-housekeeping privileges and cook their own meals. Others work for both room and board.
EAT AND BE MERRY

EATING PLACES
A chow-line of about 190 students goes through the cafeteria at NELSON HALL.

The busy College Eat Shop, operated by Mrs. Laura Kucera, is host to many CSC students at meal time.

The Campus Cafe, a third popular eating place, just across Main Street, is operated by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Peck and serves a large group of students, cafeteria style.

UNION
The Student Union in Delzell Hall is a popular place to relax and have a snack. It is open to all students every night of the week. The two big, attractive rooms contain a piano, juke box, canteen, games, and comfortable furniture.

Ed Jacobsen was the 1953-4 student manager. College functions are allowed to hold teas, dances, and other social get-togethers at the Union.

You name it; we'll play it!
NEWMAN CLUB

NEWMAN CLUB is the campus organization for Catholic students. The 1953-4 officers were: president, Bill Groessl; vice-president, Jo Daniel; secretary, Grace Collins; treasurer, Leona Forth. The Newman Club program for the year included daily rosary and monthly communion. Other events were a campfire party to welcome new students, the annual banquet given by the Catholic Women's Club of Stevens Point, and the Palm Sunday communion breakfast.

Eager silhouettes milling around a bonfire;
Boastful threats for Platteville State.
Whispered rumors of unfinished floats.

With canvas worms and fire wagons,
With angels, tramps, and dogs.

But enthusiasm fails to win this game.

WHEN LESSONS ARE ALL DONE . . .
A College is . . .
A grimy quarterback;
A diminutive dribbler eluding his guard.
The steel in the jaw of a distance runner;
The graceful swing of a practiced golfer.
With a young and inexperienced team, the Pointers placed fourth in the conference while playing their first season of single-platoon football. Their season record was five wins and three losses, while their conference record was four and two.

Coach John Roberts was ably assisted by Hale Quandt and student assistant, Curt Taylor. Four Pointers received All State mention; they were Don Herrman and John Smith, backs; Mark Schommer, end; and Jack Crook, tackle.

Hermann and Noonan tied for scoring honors with 30 points on five touchdowns each. The Pointers rolled up 1,661 yards in 390 tries for a 4.2 average while their opponents had 1,082 yards in 310 attempts for a 3.5 average. The outstanding yard-gainers were Smith, 693 yards; Herrmann, 347 yards; Noonan, 280 yards; Miller, 213 yards, and Vance, 126 yards.

Pointer backs attempted 91 passes, completed 34 for 554 yards, and had 7 intercepted. Wieman led in this category with 69 tries, 27 completions for 360 yards, and had 6 intercepted. Schommer caught 18 for 313 yards to lead the conference ends in receiving.

After the second ball game, the Pointers were without their Little All-American fullback, Nubbs Miller, and all-conference tackle, Bob Bostad, as well as letterman Joe Sanks. These players were inducted into military service before the conference opened play.

At the close of the season the Pointers chose Mark Schommer as their captain, and Don Hermann as the most valuable player. Schommer and Hermann were the only seniors on the '53 Pointer team.
On The GO
BASKETBALL

Central State's bucketeers may have taken a back seat to the Stevens Point State Champion prep stars as far as records and recognition are concerned, but the 1953-54 Pointers were placed high on the coveted list of sheer fight and determination. The record books disclose a moderate 10-10 season effort, even though the P and G's lost nary a game when it came to the thrill and excitement league.

Uncle Sam effected a big dent in the Pointers' preseason hopes by claiming several main cogs of the 1952-53 line-up, including high scorers Bob Bostad, Bob Blomiley and Joe Sanks. Coach Hale Quandt's cagers countered the loss, however, by forming a new, well-balanced aggregation, capable of upsetting the powerhouses of the conference at any time.

Veteran sophomore Ken Roloff was a leader in the Pointers' attack, tossing in the highest individual point total for the season, as well as being a stand-out in the floor-play department. Rangy Bob Johnson made his debut to the varsity a spectacular one, coming along fast toward the end of the season. Orv Koepke, frosh center, could always be counted upon for a good game and played best when needed most.

Erv Redding, Carl Wieman and newcomer Jerry Vance, the "little" men of the squad, displayed good, steady ball-handling, with ball-stealing a favorite pastime of each. Senior Fred Schadewald, always the sparkplug of the squad, was honored by being elected captain for the year by his team mates.

Reserve power laid in the hands of Ken Wasserman, John Amburgy, Jerry Boldig, and Carl Huberty, and a finer job could not be expected, each one doing his best when the time arose.

With only one senior to be lost from the squad due to graduation, it looks as if Coach Quandt will have plenty to work with next year. Lot of luck, men!

1953 SEASON

The Pointer Netmen finished the season with a creditable 2 won, 2 lost record. They won from St. Norberts as well as defeating Michigan Tech.

Leading the squad was Ken Wasserman of Green Bay. Others on the team were Herby Rosenberg, Kelly Douglas, Dick Toser, Al Due, and Parr Eves. Dr. Bernard Wievel is the coach.

Letter winners for the year were Ken Wasserman, Herby Rosenberg, Kelly Douglas, and Dick Toser. Wasserman and Rosenberg, the number-one doubles combination, took third place in the state meet. Returning this year will be Ken Wasserman.
WRESTLING

Gaining full momentum as a CSC varsity sport, wrestling provided countless thrills for eager fans of the grappling Pointers. Under the guiding hand of Coach John Roberts, CSC's wrestlers showed much improvement in this, their second season of dual competition and were regarded with due respect by all challengers.

Leading the brunt of the attack for the Purple and Gold was sophomore Dave Hurlbut, who finished the season with a formidable 6-1 record. Senior Bernie Junior was chosen honorary captain for the 1953-54 season.

Other letter-winners for the year were Terry McMahon, Fred Bohm, Johnny Langton, Don Smith, Ralph Seefeldt, John Boyne, Dave Jersey, and Ken Hurlbut.
